PRESEASON HONORS: Junior guard Zamara Haynes (Philadelphia, Pennsylvania) was named Preseason Second-Team All-MEAC after a vote by the conference's coaches and sports information directors.

Haynes — a member of the 2022 MEAC Basketball All-Tournament Team — finished third on the team with 198 points (averaging 7.3 PPG) and third on the team with 46 assists. She scored a season-high 25 points against Coppin State on March 10.

"I'm excited for Za," head coach Fred Batchelor said. "I think the development I have seen in her since she stepped on campus 'til now is probably one of the biggest leaps I have seen of a student athlete. I think she'll be one of the best guards in the conference. I'm convinced of that. I'm really confident that she is going to make a big impact in the MEAC going forward."

After starting last season slowly, she earned more playing time as the year went on and was strong driving to the basket getting to the free throw line a team-high 88 times despite starting just 11 of 27 games played. She averaged 19.2 minutes per game for the season and over two games in the MEAC Tournament she put up 43 points, on 15-of-35 shooting and was 4-of-8 from the free throw line. She added 10 rebounds and five assists.

PICKED FIFTH: The Hawks were also picked to finish fifth in the conference by the coaches and SIDs.

"Based on our standings from last year, I think that was pretty accurate," head coach Fred Batchelor said. "But there were a couple of first place votes. I am aware of where they come from because I believe that we feel we are as good as anybody in the conference. We'll humbly sit in 5th place in the preseason, but that's not our expectations for the 2022-23 MEAC season."

Howard was voted first, Norfolk State second, Coppin State third and Morgan State fourth. North Carolina Central, South Carolina State and Delaware State round out the Top 10.

University of Miami

2021-22 Record: 21-13 (10-8 Atlantic Coast Conference)

All-Time Series: Miami leads the all-time series 3-0.

Last Meeting: Things looked pretty bleak in the first quarter for the University of Maryland Eastern Shore at No. 24 (AP) Miami on Dec. 16, 2018 as they fell behind 20-7 by the end of the opening period.

With seven minutes left in the third, The Shore cut the lead to 42-32 before the Hurricanes pulled away again for good and the 71-53 win.

The Hawks (2-8) started the contest 1-of-9 from the field and things didn't get much better as the quarter continued. They finished the first 3-of-18 (17 percent) from the field and missed all five 3-pointers they took.

Senior Dominique Walker had a big game off the bench with nine rebounds, seven points an assist and a steal in just more than 24 minutes. Much of the second half she played at the four, paired with Bairesha Gill-Miles playing as an undersized five.

Last Time Out: The University of Miami women's basketball team closed out the 2021-22 season in the second round of the NCAA Tournament, falling to top-ranked and No. 1 seeded South Carolina, 49-33, March 20, 2022. Eighth-seeded Miami not only held South Carolina (31-2, 15-1 SEC) to its fewest points of the season at 49, but it also limited the Gamecocks to a season-low 29.5 shooting percentage.

Graduate student Maeva Djaldi-Tabdi led the Hurricanes on offense with 15 points on the afternoon, knocking down a career-high five 3-pointers. Junior Moulayna Johnson Sidi Baba paced Miami on the glass with five rebounds.

Fred Batchelor enters his 19th season as women's basketball head coach at Maryland Eastern Shore. He is the winningest coach in Maryland Eastern Shore women's basketball history. Under his leadership, the Hawks have compiled 213 wins and posted a .500 or better in the conference

Head Coach Fred Batchelor

Hometown: Buffalo, New York
 College: Valley Forge, '88
 19th Season at Eastern Shore (213-290)
 23rd as collegiate head coach (273-337)

The Hawks finished the 2019-20 season with a 10-21 overall record and a 5-11 conference mark. But The Shore won three straight games to end the regular season and then topped Coppin State in the opening round of the MEAC Tournament.

A quarterfinal upset of No. 1 seed Bethune-Cookman came next, but then the season ended due to COVID. Nine players from that team are on the 2021-22 Hawks roster.

The Hawks matched a program-record with 17 wins during the 2018-19 season. The Hawks finished 12-4 in the Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference and advanced to the MEAC Tournament semifinals. They went on a seven-game winning streak during conference play. Batchelor won MEAC Coach of the Year honors for the first time and senior Ciani Byrom was a First-Team All-MEAC selection.

Batchelor's staff has recruited and developed seven student-athletes who finished their freshman season on the MEAC All-Rookie Team, including local standout Casey Morton (now an assistant coach), who was 2007-08 Rookie of the Year and Bairesha Gill-Miles who won the award in 2017-18. He also coached Kristi Veltkamp, the MEAC's inaugural Defensive Player of the Year in 2006. In the 2005-06 season, Toni Kennedy led the nation in three-pointers made per game (3.4).

Batchelor has over 20 years of coaching experience at a variety of levels. Having coached men's basketball for half of his career, he has served as head coach of Villa Maria Junior College where he took that program from zero to double-digit wins in just one season.

He also served as a men's assistant at the University at Buffalo. He returned to his alma mater, Buffalo State College, to serve as the interim men's head coach. At the conclusion of that year, he was named the women's basketball head coach at Buffalo State, where he has experienced his most success as a collegiate head coach.

He led his team to a school-record 25 wins and was the first African-American coach in both men's and women's basketball to win the State University of New York Athletic Conference championship in its 60-plus-year existence. As a result, he was voted SUNYAC Coach of the Year. He also guided the Bengals to the NCAA Division III tournament.

Before coming to Maryland Eastern Shore, he also served as women's head coach at Elizabeth City State where he led the Vikings to a third-place finish along with a semifinal CIAA tournament appearance.

Batchelor received his Bachelor's degree from Valley Forge Christian College where he was a two-time National Christian College All-American point guard recording over 1,600 points and over 800 assists. He was inducted into VFCC's Athletic Hall of Fame.

He also earned his master's degree in Multi-disciplinary Studies (with a concentration in Educational Leadership) from Buffalo State.

11 of his 17 seasons of competition. His ultimate goal is always to lead Maryland Eastern Shore to the NCAA tournament by building a program that exemplifies high character, exceptional talent and a diligent work ethic.

The Hawks reloaded for the 2021-22 season with some players who'd been on campus for a year getting their first time alongside a pair of true freshman and a strong group of returning players. A 7-7 record during conference play with six new faces seeing their first game time in maroon and gray was an acceptable finish, but a late season injury to MEAC All-Rookie Team and Third-Team All-MEAC selection Arian Seawell came on top of other losses on the inside and the Hawks were ill equipped against eventual MEAC Champions Howard in a 68-65 MEAC Semifinal loss.

Eastern Shore opted out of competition during the 2020-21 athletic year.

ASSISTANT COACHES

Associate Head Coach

Sidney Raikes enters his sixth season as associate head coach at Maryland Eastern Shore. Raikes completed his first year at Towson University after eight seasons at Coppin State University. He is responsible for recruiting, scouting and player development along with practice and game preparation.

Raikes is a graduate of Coppin State, who earned his degree in Criminal Justice in 1995. He led Coppin State to a four-year record of 80-39 overall and a 56-8 mark in MEAC play. Coppin State went 47-1 in MEAC action during Raikes' final three seasons. The Eagles captured three straight MEAC regular season titles and advanced to the NCAA Tournament in 1993 and the NIT in 1995.

Raikes ranks sixth all-time in scoring at Coppin State with 1,412 career points and is one of only 20 1,000 point scorers in program history. Raikes earned all-conference honors three times in his career.

Assistant Coach

Casey Monroe-Gaskins (Morton) enters her seventh season as an assistant coach for her alma mater. Besides being the team's Travel Coordinator, she also works on evaluating talent and recruiting future Hawks. She shares scouting duties with the rest of the staff and helps with all other day-to-day operations.

She ended her collegiate career in 2011 with 1,230 points, which is fourth all-time in the program's Division I history. The Eastern Shore native and former Mardela High standout also ranks fourth in total assists (296) and total steals (188).

In her freshman year, she won Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference (MEAC) Rookie of the Year while earning a spot on the conference's All-Rookie Team. Morton was selected to the All-MEAC team in her senior year after posting more than 11 points per game.

She will be inducted to the school's athletic Hall of Fame in the Class of 2022 on Nov. 11.

Graduate Assistant Coach

Amanda Carney enters her first season as a graduate assistant coach at her alma mater.

She finished her Hawks career with the program's all-time best free throw percentage (83.3%), had a career 3-point percentage of 32.5% (6th all-time) and made 135 career triples (3rd).
