FRESHMEN MAKING IMPACT EARLY ON

» The freshmen trio of Avery Strickland, Aislin Malcolm and Marley Washenitz have been a pleasant surprise early on this season for Pitt.

» Strickland has appeared in all 13 games and is averaging 16.6 minutes, 5.2 points, 1.2 assists and 1.2 rebounds while shooting 39.7% from the floor and connecting on 11 triples.

» In the win over Loyola (MD) last week, Strickland netted a career-high 17 points, two rebounds and two steals in 22 minutes of work. She finished off her night going 7-for-8 from the floor and 3-for-4 from behind the arc in the win.

» Strickland became the first ACC freshman since Jackie Young (ND) in 2016 to come off the bench and score at least 15 points, make three triples, shoot 85% from the floor and record two steals.

» Fellow freshman guard Marley Washenitz has earned four starts at point guard for Pitt and is flourishing. So far this season, Washenitz is averaging 14.3 minutes, 3.6 points, 2.0 assists and 1.9 rebounds while also notching 12 steals.

» Over her last nine games, she is averaging 4.6 points, 2.6 assists and 2.4 rebounds. In her four career starts, she has 14 assists for the Panthers.

BENCH CONTINUES TO CONTRIBUTE

» The Pitt bench has made a big impact through the first 13 games this season.

» Last time out, the Panthers were limited to just 13 points off the bench with 11 coming from junior Gabby Hutcherson in the road loss to Wake Forest.

» In the win over North Alabama, Pitt netted 31 bench points for the second straight game. Pitt has scored 30+ bench points in back-to-back games twice this season after not doing that in back-to-back games last season.

» In the win over Loyola (MD), Pitt netted a season-high 46 points from the bench. The 46 points were the most by the Panthers in a game

LAST MEETING WITH MIAMI

CORAL GABLES, FL – The Pitt women's basketball team (11-15, 2-13 ACC) dropped the middle game of a three-game road swing Thursday night to the Miami Hurricanes, 60-50.

Pitt was led offensively by Liatu King who netted 15 points, eight rebounds and three assists while Amber Brown finished with 11 points, three rebounds and three assists. Junior Rita Igbokwe cleaned the glass for Pitt as she racked up 13 rebounds (four offensive) in the loss.

Emy Hayford opened the scoring for the Panthers with a quick release triple just over a minute into the game to give Pitt the early 3-2 lead. The Hurricanes didn't waste any time getting the lead back as they were able to go on a 14-2 run to take the 16-5 lead late in the first. The Panthers closed out the quarter with the final three points as King hit a jumper in the lane and Hayford finished off a free throw to make it 16-8 in favor of the home team through 10 minutes.

The Panthers were able to get within seven, 20-13, a couple minutes into the second quarter as Dayshanette Harris knocked down a deep triple. Brown got her first bucket of the game right after the media timeout to make it 22-15 in favor of Miami but the Hurricanes ended the half with six straight to take the 31-16 lead into the locker room.

King started off the third quarter strong as she netted five of the first seven points in the quarter for the Panthers as they trailed the Hurricanes 36-23 just three minutes into the quarter. After a pair of Miami free throws gave them the 40-23 lead, the Panthers responded with six straight to force the Hurricanes into a timeout as Igbokwe, King and Maliyah Johnson each netted buckets to make it 40-29 in favor of the home side. After the timeout, Destiny Strother knocked down a corner three and King finished the quarter with a pair of free throws to cut the Pitt deficit to seven, 45-38, heading into the final quarter. Pitt outscored Miami 22-14 in the third.

The Panthers continued to fight their way back into the game to start the fourth as Brown finished off a three-point play and Igbokwe netted a free throw to make it 47-44 in favor of the Hurricanes with seven minutes to play. The Hurricanes wouldn't let the Panthers get any closer down the stretch as they went on an 8-1 run to take the 55-45 lead with three minutes to go. Sandrine Clesca netted a triple and King scored a bucket in the lane but it wasn't enough as the Panthers fell, 60-50.

As a team, the Panthers won the rebounding battle 41-35 but the Hurricanes outscored Pitt 24-22 inside the paint. Pitt shot 29.8% from the floor in the loss while Miami was able to shoot 40.4%.

Miami had four players score in double figures led by Ja'Leah Williams who netted 11 points, six rebounds and two assists. Jasmyne Roberts came off the bench and netted 10 points.

LANCE WHITE

HEAD COACH | 5TH SEASON | TEXAS TECH '96

Lance White enters his fifth season at the helm of the Panthers in 2022-23 after being named as the ninth head coach in Pitt women's basketball history on April 19, 2018.

The Panthers closed out their 2021-22 campaign with an 11-19 overall record and 2-16 ACC mark. Pitt dominated non-conference opponents as they earned a 9-2 record, their best record in the non-conference portion of their schedule since 2009-10 (11-2). Following the season Dayshanette Harris and Liatu King earned Academic All-ACC honors for their work in the classroom and court. Under White's tutelage, Pitt has placed seven on Academic All-ACC squads.

Much to the satisfaction of White, rebounding has become one of the Panthers' biggest strengths. Since White arrived at Pitt for the 2018-19 season, the Panthers have gone from 14th in the ACC (2017-18) in rebounding (33.1 rpg) to first in the ACC (43.9 rpg) last season. Overall, Pitt went from 325th in the NCAA in rebounding prior to White up to ninth in the NCAA last season, marking the biggest improvement in the nation across the four-year span. Pitt also led the ACC and ranked 14th in the NCAA in offensive rebounds per game (15.6 orpg). As a team, Pitt had six players averaging at least 3.1 rebounds per contest which was the most in the ACC.

The 2020-21 campaign was an interesting one for all involved but the Panthers continued to forge ahead on the court. White's offense continued their steady improvement as they finished the season averaging 64.3 points per game during ACC contests, their highest per game average since joining the conference in 2013-14. The offense also netted 70+ points five times and 80+ points twice, the most by Pitt since joining the ACC.

Junior transfer Jayla Everett was able to make an immediate impact for the Panthers as she led the team in scoring (15.4 ppg) and three-pointers (52). Her 15.4 ppg was the highest per game average by a Pitt transfer in program history while also leading all ACC newcomers. Everett also earned Honorable Mention All-ACC honors, marking the first player under Coach White to earn All-Conference recognition and just the second in program history (Brianna Kiesel).

Off the court in 2020-21, sophomore Dayshanette Harris claimed her second straight Academic All-ACC award while the Panthers posted a 3.16 team GPA. Pitt also had eight ACC Honor Roll members, the most since 2016-17.

During the 2019-20 season, White's second season in charge, the Panthers showed growth in every part of the program and it was capped with an ACC Tournament victory over the defending ACC Champions, Notre Dame. The win over the Irish marked just the Panthers second ACC Tournament win in program history as freshman sensation Dayshanette Harris knocked down the game-winning jumper with just 2.7 seconds left in the game. With the win, Pitt handed Notre Dame just their second loss in ACC Tournament history.

The foundation for the Pitt program was laid in season two as White's "First Class" of seven student-athletes made huge impacts that will shape the program for years to come. The Pitt freshman class of Harris, Amber Brown, Emy Hayford and Rita Igbokwe was not only the best freshman class in the ACC but they were one of the best in the NCAA. The quartet averaged 31.0 points/game combined, the most ever by a Pitt freshman class.

The youthful Panthers roster during the 2019-20 campaign was able to gain loads of experience that will help down the road as Pitt was the only team in the ACC to start five newcomers, doing so in the final seven games of the season.

White came to Pitt after spending 15 years at Florida State, where he helped the Seminoles to a 350-145 (.707) record, including 12 seasons of 20+ wins.

During his final season at Florida State (2017-18), the Seminoles posted 25 or more wins for the fourth consecutive season, finishing with a 26-7 overall record and averaged the second-most points in a season in program history with 81.0 points per game. It was just the second time FSU averaged 80 or more points per game in a season. The team ranked in the Top 20 nationally in field goal percentage (20th), offensive rebounds per game (16th), rebound margin (sixth), rebounds per game (11th), scoring margin (10th) and scoring offense (13th). The Seminoles led the ACC in rebounding offense (42.8), rebounding margin (+10.0) and offensive rebounding percentage (41.4 percent).

During his time at FSU, 10 players were selected in the WNBA Draft, eight earned ACC All-Defensive team honors and 37 earned all-conference awards. He helped the Seminoles reach the NCAA Tournament in 13 of the past 14 years, while the team won at least one NCAA Tournament game in each of its past 15 appearances.

For his standout coaching efforts during the 2016-17 season, White was named the Women's Basketball Coaches Association (WBCA) National Assistant Coach of the Year.

White helped FSU reach new levels of success and brought an infectious energy to the program. He directed the Seminole defense and offense during his tenure in addition to being one of the country's top recruiters.

Florida State captured back-to-back regular season ACC co-titles in 2010 and 2011, and advanced to the 2010 NCAA Tournament Elite Eight. After serving as assistant coach for the first nine seasons in Tallahassee, White was promoted to associate head coach in advance of the 2012-13 campaign.

Prior to FSU, White spent 11 seasons at Texas Tech, including five years as an assistant coach with the Lady Raiders' top-10 program under legendary head coach Marsha Sharp. With White on staff, Texas Tech won three Big 12 championships and advanced to seven consecutive NCAA Tournaments, including five Sweet 16 and two Elite Eight appearances. He was a student assistant on Tech's 1993 national championship team and a graduate assistant coach for two seasons before being elevated to a full-time coach in 1998.

While in Lubbock, White worked with some of the best players the game has ever seen, including National Player of the Year and three-time WNBA MVP Sheryl Swoopes as well as Plenette Pierson, who was named 2007 WNBA Sixth Woman of the Year.

A 1996 graduate of Texas Tech, White earned his bachelor's degree in exercise and sports science. He went on to receive a master's degree in sports administration in August 1998. He attended Lubbock Christian University for three semesters before transferring to Texas Tech in January 1993.

As a high school athlete in Spur, he was a three-time All-District selection, two-time All-Region, and two-time third team all-state choice in basketball. His high school basketball and football teams advanced to the regional round both his junior and senior years. In addition to his football and basketball accolades, he was listed in the Spalding Top 100 tennis players in 1991.

He is married to the former Melanie Smith. The Whites are the proud parents of Quentin and Vivian.
