A WIN OVER MIAMI WOULD:

- push Cornell's record to 8-1 on the season for the second straight year.
- even the all-time series with the Hurricanes at 1-1.
- be the first win over an ACC school since 1951-52, snapping a 38-game skid.
- give the Big Red an eight-game win streak, its longest since winning nine in a row during the 2009-10 campaign.
- up Cornell's non-conference record to 18-4 over its past 22 contests.
- be the 1,300th in program history (1,299-1,472-2 in 121 seasons, .469).

FAMILIAR FACE ON THE SIDELINE:

- The Big Red will see former head coach Bill Courtney, now Miami's Associate Head Coach, on its trip South.
- Courtney led the Big Red for six years (2010-16), posting a 60-113 record (27-57 lvy), where he coached or recruited three of the school's top 15 scorers, including All-Ivy first teamers Chris Wroblewski, Shonn Miller and the school's all-time leading scorer, Matt Morgan.
- The 21st head coach in school history, Courtney's staff included Jon Jaques '21, while assistant coach Max Ginsberg '18 and director of operations Kieran Hurley '17 both served as team managers during their undergraduate years.

PLAYER NOTES TO KNOW:

- Senior Greg Dolan paces the Ancient Eight in assist:turnover ratio (2.75), and his career 2.40 is the best mark in school history.
- Dolan, who entered the season with six double figure scoring games, has already surpassed that mark with seven in the team's first eight contests (he had nine in the eighth contest).
- Dolan's 106 points this season is five off his career best of 111 in 2021-22.
- Junior Keller Bootby has turned the ball over just once in 189 minutes on the court (10 assists) this season and has just 12 career miscues (one every 65.8 minutes). Dating back to its game on Feb. 5, 2022 against Penn, he has just one turnover in 378 minutes of action (15 assists and 37 3-pointers made over that span).
- Junior Chris Manon has 62 steals in 34 career games, or 1.82 steals per game, just off of Wallace Prather's school record average of 1.89. Manon is challenging the record despite averaging just 17.9 minutes per game over that span.
- The Big Red's two-headed center of Sean Hansen and Guy Ragland Jr. is combining to average 16.9 points, 9.9 rebounds, 5.1 assists, 1.8 steals and 1.6 blocks while playing 41.8 minutes per game.
- Junior Sean Hansen set a school record by hitting all eight field goals in the win over Saint Francis (Pa.), doubling his previous scoring high with 26 points and becoming the first player in school history with a game of at least 25 points, five rebounds, five assists and three steals.
- With his double-double in the win over Ithaca, Ragland became just the sixth player in school history with multiple double-double efforts off the bench (Stan Brown, Mike Millane, Bernard Jackson, Brian Kopf and Jeff Foote) in a career.
- Sophomore Nazir Williams is shooting 59 percent from the floor from inside the 3-point arc for his career (65-of-110).
- He has reached double figures in five consecutive games and seven of eight this season.

TEAM NOTES TO KNOW:

- Cornell trailed at the final media break in each of its past two games, using a 20-2 ending run to top Delaware 74-67 on Dec. 1, then outscoring Lafayette 11-0 to end the game to rally past the Leopards on Dec. 4, 73-68.
- Among 352 Division I teams, Cornell ranks in the top 10 percent nationally in the rankings of 10 of 28 categories despite not having one individual in the top 50 of any category.
- The Big Red leads the lvy League in scoring offense (82.6), 3-pointers made per game (11.9), assists (20.1), steals (9.8), turnovers forced (16.1), fastbreak points (23.4) and effective field goal percentage (.591).
- Since its return from COVID, Cornell men's basketball has posted a 22-12 record (.647), a mark that is 22-8 when removing guarantee games (.733).
- Over the past two seasons, the Big Red is averaging 17.9 assists per game and hitting 10.2 3-pointers per game while averaging 80.0 points per game.
- The Big Red has held opponents to sub-30 percent shooting from beyond the arc in five of its eight games this season.
- At the same time, Cornell has made double figures in 3-pointers in six of eight games.
- Since the season opener against Boston College, the Big Red has a 1.55 assist:turnover ratio (143:92), including 33:18 over its past two contests.
- If maintained, Cornell's 82.6 scoring average would be the program's third-highest in school history and the best since the 1965-66 team posted a school record 85.2 points per outing.

Cornell 73, Lafayette 68 December 4, 2022 Ithaca, N.Y.

LAST TIME OUT

- Cornell rallied from a six-point deficit in the final three minutes to claim its seventh straight victory, a 73-68 triumph over Lafayette at Newman Arena.
- Greg Dolan, Chris Manon and Nazir Williams had 12 points apiece to lead the Big Red offense that made just 8-of-26 from 3-point range (31 percent).
- Dolan added four assists and three boards, Manon had six rebounds and two assists and Williams chipped in five boards.
- Keller Boothby was a +16 in his 23 minutes, scoring seven points, and Isaiah Gray also scored seven and posted five boards.
- Max Watson scored six with a game-high four steals, while Marcus Filien had five big points and chipped in four rebounds along with stellar defense.
- Lafayette got 17 points, eight rebounds and five assists from Kyle Jenkins as one of three Leopard players in double figures.
- Leo O'Boyle netted 14 points, grabbed five boards and dished four assists and T.J. Berger scored 11 points off the bench.
- Lafayette shot 41 percent from 3-point range, but missed its final five behind the arc as the big Red rallied for the win.
- In the Big Red's nine-man rotation, five players are shooting 55 percent or better from the floor and eight are averaging at least 18.0 minutes per contest.
- All nine players in the rotation have, at worst, a neutral assist:turnover ratio.
- Cornell's consecutive wins at Monmouth and Delaware, both Colonial Athletic Conference opponents, were against foes who won at least 20 games a season ago.
- Picked fifth in the lvy League Preseason media poll, the Big Red is coming off a 15-11 season that included an appearance in the lvy Tournament and a fourth-place finish among the Ancient Eight.
- Four starters have departed, with three of the seniors moving on to play as graduate transfers at other Division I institutions (Ivy League does not allow graduate student eligibility) Dean Noll (Stony Brook), Kobe Dickson (Howard) and Sarju Patel (Albany).
- Over the past two seasons, seven grad transfers have gone on to play Division I basketball elsewhere — Jimmy Boeheim (Syracuse), Bryan Knapp (George Washington), Terrance McBride (Rice) and Riley Voss (Wright State).
- While the loss of four starters is usually crippling, the Big Red returns eight players who saw at least nine minutes of action per game for a squad that played at least 11 in each of its 26 contests.
- The Big Red's 22 3-pointers against SUNY-Delhi broke the school record of 20 at Brown on March 5, 2010, a game where the 2009-10 Big Red clinched the lvy League title in Providence, R.I. That mark is the tied for the most by any Division I team this season (Chattanooga vs. Covenant, 11/29/2022)
- Cornell's 114 points against SUNY-Delhi were the third-most in a game in school history and marks the 26th time that the Big Red has surpassed the 100-point mark.
- Cornell's 31 assists against SUNY-Delhi tied for the second-most in a game in school history, with three of the top four marks coming in the past 25 contests.

MISCELLANEOUS TEAM NOTES

- Cornell has hit a 3-pointer in 920 consecutive games dating back to a contest against Denison in the 1988-89 season opener (0-for-2). Since the 3-point shot came into effect in NCAA play during the 1986-87 season, the Big Red has hit at least one shot behind the arc in 966 of 970 games (6,453 3-pointers over that span).
- The Big Red's five-game win streak to start the 2021-22 was its longest since walking off the floor victorious in nine consecutive contests late in 2009-10.
- Brian Earl and his brother Dan (Chattanooga) one of four active sets of brothers directing Division I programs, joining Bobby (Arizona State) and Danny (Connecticut) Hurley, Joe (Boston University) and James (Yale) Jones and Archie (Rhode Island) and Sean (Xavier) Miller.
- Tenth-year assistant coach Jon Jaques was a starter and senior captain on the 2009-10 Cornell team that advanced to the NCAA Sweet 16.
- After the Ivy League didn't compete during the 2019-20 season, Cornell's first game of the 2021-22 season against Binghamton, a 76-67 Big Red victory, was its first in 612 days.
- The Big Red's home win over Colgate on Nov. 16, 2021 was its first contest at Newman Arena since a 67-58 defeat at the hand of Harvard on Feb. 29, 2020 a span of 627 days.
- Cornell has played in 47 different states, as well as in Cuba, Puerto Rico, Australia, France and Spain. The only states the Big Red has not played in are Alaska, North Dakota and Mississippi.
- The Big Red continues to be ranked among the best according to the annual NCAA Divi-

- sion I Academic Progress Report (APR). The APR measures semester-by-semester records for every individual team in Division I with regard to each team members' continuing eligibility, retention and progress toward graduation. The NCAA "commends" teams that have APR scores in the top 10 percent within their sport. Cornell has been recognized 10 times in since the APR began in 2005, including seven consecutive (2009-16).
- Dating back to the first overtime game against Penn way back in 1922, Cornell is 41-51 in games that go an extra period. Cornell is 7-10 in multiple overtime games, with the longest game for the Big Red being a five overtime contest against Princeton, won by the Tigers 66-61 on Feb. 24, 1979 at Barton Hall. Cornell is 30-19 in home overtime games, 2-2 in neutral contests and 10-29 in road games.
- Are Cornell Student-Athletes on Scholarship? The easy answer is no. Cornell student-athletes are awarded need-based financial aid, just as any other student who applies to the school. That package can come in the form of student loans and grants. The basic intent of the original lvy League agreement of 1954 was to improve and foster intercollegiate athletics while keeping the emphasis on such competition in harmony with the educational purpose of the institutions. The lvy League is nationally recognized for its level of success absent of athletic scholarships while rigorously maintaining its self-imposed high academic standards. The lvy League has demonstrated a rare willingness and ability, given the current national pressures on intercollegiate success, to abide by these rules and still compete successfully in Division I athletics.

BIG RED BASKETBALL HISTORY

With nearly 125 years of basketball to call upon, the Big Red has an incredibly storied history on the college hardwood. Cornellians have been successful in the NBA (both on the hardwood and in the board room) and have often challenged the best teams in the country.

From Cornell Hall of Famers Howard Ortner and Sam MacNeil to Albert Sharpe, Royner Greene, Steve Donahue and now Brian Earl, Big Red coaches have routinely put their teams in positions to compete for championships, claiming eight EIBL or Ivy League titles. Most recently, three consecutive Ancient Eight crowns, including an NCAA Sweet 16 appearance in 2009-10 and an appearance in the 2019 CIT, show that the Big Red continues to rewrite history.

Five NCAA Tournament appearances. More than 1,200 wins. NBA players and dozens of professional basketball players around the globe. From being a charter member of the first basketball conference in the college game (Eastern Intercollegiate Basketball League), to now being a part of the oldest and most stable athletic grouping (Ivy League), Big Red basketball has played an important role in the history of college basketball.

Basketball first appeared at Cornell in 1892, and a club was formed in 1898 after with J.S. Hills as elected manager and R.F. Ludwig named captain. For the first three years it was not officially recognized by the Athletic Council, and consequently could not use the name Cornell. In 1901, however, the team was granted the rights to use the Cornell name. It's name has been stitched on the front of jerseys ever since, and Cornellians have been instrumental in the growth of the college, professional and international games.

Ed Steitz '43, a member of the Basketball and FIBA Basketball Halls of Fame, was the original founder and president of Amateur Basketball Association of the United States of America (ABAUSA), now USA Basketball. He served for more than 25 years as secretary, editor and national interpreter of the NCAA Men's Basketball Rules Committee, authoring more than 90 books and 300 articles on basketball and its rules. He was instrumental in the reinstatement of the dunk in 1976 and was an advocate of the 45-second shot clock and 3-point shot. Steitz also helped establish the Basketball Hall of Fame in Springfield, Mass. while serving as head basketball coach and athletic director at Springfield College.

Nat Militzok was the first Cornellian to play in the NBA, and may have been the first player from any school to step on an NBA court. He had the honor of playing in what is considered the first NBA game for the Knicks against the Huskies in Toronto on Nov. 1, 1946 and was credited with the first assist in league history.

Cornell has played games in 47 states (only Alaska, North Dakota and Mississippi are holdouts), as well as in Australia, Belgium, Cuba, Denmark, France, Germany, Puerto Rico, Spain and Sweden. The Big Red has suited up against the Canadian national champions and national teams from countries spanning from Great Britain to Egypt to Luxembourg, all the while representing one of the world's most fabled Universities.

Characters abound in Big Red lore, from diminutive 5-6 All-American Chuck Rolles to 7-0 local star Jeff Foote, Cornell's most recent NBA player. Matt Morgan, Ryan Wittman and John Bajusz, the top three scorers in school history, are well-regarded as among the finest shooters to ever grace the Ivy League courts. Standouts like Lee Morton, Ken Bantum and Louis Dale have been honored as the top player in the conference, and nine have garnered a total of 10 All-America honors. Twelve have been drafted into the NBA and five have garnered coveted spots on the Academic All-America team, showing the balance of athletics and academics the Ivy League prides itself in.
