2022-23 NORTH FLORIDA WOMEN'S BASKETBALL

FROM THE JUMP

>> This will be the first meeting between UNF and Miami since Nov. 28, 2020, after last season's matchup was postponed and never rescheduled.

>> The Ospreys started the month of December with a win for the second time in 11 seasons.

>> Lyric Swann continues to lead the Ospreys in scoring, averaging 14.7 points with a team-high 33.2 minutes played per game.

>> No one else on the team has more than 27 MPG and she joins Emma Broermann and Brianna Livingston as the only players to start in all six games.

>> Emma Broermann has started join Lyric Swann as a major scoring contributor after putting up back-to-back games of over 16 points, as well as having double-digits points in three of her last four games.

>> She also has been dominating on the boards with 29 combined rebounds over her past three games.

>> After Thursday's game, all three freshmen have now made at least one start through the first six games of the season.

>> Sarah Taub leads the group in scoring with at least one field goal in all six games, as she either surpassed or matched her career-highs with seven rebounds, two assists and three steals against Bethune-Cookman.

>> UNF continues to improve in rebounding, as they set a game-high mark as a team on the boards with 46 total against B-CU earlier this week.

>> Victory against Bethune-Cookman was first under head coach Darrick Gibbs with only one Osprey scoring double-digits.

>> Also picked up first win of the season where UNF was trailing at the half.

AN OSPREY WIN ON SUNDAY WOULD...

- Be the first win over the Hurricanes in program history.
- Notch first back-to-back road wins for UNF since Mar. 6, 2021.
- Give them their first-ever win over a Power Five program.

LOOKING AHEAD

UNF returns for one last home game before finals week when they take on Trinity Baptist, on Friday, Dec. 9, at 7 p.m.

FEAR THE SEABIRD OF PREY

We are the Ospreys - which is Os-PRAYS - not Os-PREES, as in the candy.

LAST TIME VS. THE HURRICANES

CORAL GABLES, Fla. - North Florida women's basketball suffered an 81-39 loss at Miami on Saturday afternoon at the Watco Center. It is the second of the Ospreys three straight road contests.

SCOUTING REPORT

>> Miami holds a 6-3 record before Sunday's matchup but have lost their last two games to Columbia and Michigan.

>> A pair of their six wins so far came against in-state opponent FAU, as well as fellow ASUN opponent, Stetson.

>> After the Hurricanes play UNF, they will head into back-to-back rivalry games against Florida and Florida State.

>> They're coming off an impressive 2021 campaign with an ACC Championship Game appearance and an NCAA appearance where they lost to the eventually tournament champions, South Carolina, in the second round.

>> UM has three players averaging over 10 points per game led by Destiny Harden, who is averaging 11.6 PPG and 5.1 RPG.

>> Ja'Leah Williams and Haley Cavinder are the other two players averaging just over 10 PPG while playing 24-25 minutes per game.

>> Lazaria Spearman joins Harden as the rebound leaders on the team with 46 total through nine games played.

>> In their latest game against Michigan, Lashae Dwyer, as well as Harden and Cavinder, all scored 12 or more points and combined for 18 rebounds, six assists and six steals.

ELEVEN

The Ospreys will man an 11-player roster throughout the 2022-23 season, which is the lowest it has been since the 2017-18 season.

NEWBIES

The Ospreys have plenty of new faces to go around with six transfers and three freshmen bringing their talents to Jacksonville, Fla.

Elysa Wesolek (South Carolina), Brianna Livingston (Monmouth), Selma Eklund (UNC-Wilmington) come directly from D-I programs, while Kristy Hamze (Queens), Lyric Swann (CCBC Essex) and Jaelyn Swann (CCBC Essex) are additions from D-II/NJCCA institutions. Lyric and Jaelyn Swann do have experience playing at the D-I level, as they previously played for UMBC before transferring to CCBC Essex.

UNF brings in three freshmen after only have one on the roster this past season (Kaila Rougier). Maddie Millar, the only in-state product on the team, and Sarah Taub are guards with stellar shooting abilities. Helena Rafnsdottir also joins as a freshman after playing for her club team in Iceland since she was five years old, as well as the Icelandic Women's National Team.

Assistant coach Myron Brown is also welcomed as a newcomer to the squad, as he joins the Ospreys' coaching staff after being the head women's basketball coach for Thomas University since 2017.

TWIN TIES

Lyric and Jaelyn Swann both transfer in from CCBC Essex in Maryland to join the Osprey roster. They are one of 15 sets of twins playing for the same Division I women's basketball team this season.

This is also the second consecutive year that UNF will sport a set of sisters on the squad, as Jazz and Jaida Bond both played for the Ospreys this past year.

CONFERENCE CONNECTIONS

North Florida makes it two years in a row that they have a player transfer in from another current ASUN squad. Kristy Hamze played for Queens (N.C.) the past two seasons, who will now join the conference in their first year as a Division I team.

Last season, Jaida Bond transferred into UNF to join forces with sister, Jazz, where she came in from North Alabama as a previous all-conference selection.

INTERNATIONAL FACES

Helena Rafnsdottir (Iceland), Selma Eklund (Sweden) and Brianna Livingston (Canada) all join the Ospreys this season representing three different countries. Rafnsdottir and Eklund both have experience playing for the national teams of their respective countries.

It's the third straight season rostering three or more international players, while it also being the first time since 2014-15 that three or more players come from unique countries outside the United States.

INTERNATIONAL PLACES

UNF will make the trip out the Dublin, Ireland, to compete in the MAAC-ASUN Dublin Challenge, joining Eastern Kentucky as the fellow ASUN member playing against MAAC foes.

They are scheduled to compete against Rider on Friday, Nov. 18, at 2:30 p.m. EST, followed by a matchup against Marist the next day on Saturday, Nov. 19, at 9:30 a.m. EST.

SUNSHINE STATE

UNF plays 17 of their 29 games this season inside the state of Florida, including 13 of the 17 matchups played at UNF Arena.

It will also be the first time since the 2014-2015 season that the Ospreys will open the season with two games inside their home arena.

ROAD RUNNERS

The Ospreys will visit six different states in their travel schedule on the year, along with their pair of games overseas in Dublin, Ireland.

UNF will visit Wisconsin, Ireland and Alabama before Christmas break, and will return with trips to North Carolina, Kentucky, Tennessee and Arkansas.

Out of this year's road slate, the Ospreys will play against four Power Five opponents in Wisconsin, Miami (FL), Auburn and Alabama.

BROERMANN TIME

Emma Broermann leads this team as the unquestioned leader heading into the 2021-22 season. She enters her senior season as the only player on the team with more than one year of experience playing for UNF.

Last season, she was the only player on the team to start all 30 games played. The Okeana, Ohio, native also had the second-best field goal percentage (.602) and the ninth-most blocks (25) in the conference.

Broermann enters her senior season with the Ospreys sitting in the top spot for field goal percentage (.550), as well as the 10th-most blocks (37), in D-I program history.

2021-22 | UNF in the ASUN Notes

>> UNF finished fifth in the East division with a 5-11 record in ASUN play. With the additions of Jacksonville State, Eastern Kentucky and Central Arkansas in 2021, the conference added divisions for the first time in its history.

>> UNF won their opening game in the ASUN Conference tournament for the fifth consecutive season after defeating Lipscomb on the road. The Ospreys have also advanced to the semifinals in four of the past five years.

>> North Florida had one All-Conference selection in 2021-22 with forward Jazz Bond making the first team. It's the second consecutive season a UNF player has been picked to the first team, as well as the fifth straight season having a player collect All-ASUN honors.

>> Along with her third career ASUN All-Conference selection, Bond also won her second straight Defensive Player of the Year award, as she shared the honor with UNA's Skyler Gill in what was the first co-award for defensive player of the year in ASUN history. She sat top three in the league for both rebounds and blocks totals.

>> Bond added onto her accolades from last season with her second career ASUN All-Academic Team selection. This extends the Ospreys' streak of having at least one player make the team to four consecutive seasons.

>> Emma Broermann was the only UNF player to start all 30 games in 2021-22, along with being one of 10 players in the ASUN last season to start every game she played in and rack up 30 or more starts.

>> UNF had a pair of dynamic scorers with Bond and Rhett Moore, who were both top five in the conference for 3PTs made and top 10 for FGs made. Bond also had the third-most points scored, while Moore recorded the fourth-most minutes played.

>> Broermann also finished with the second-best FG percentage in the ASUN last year, while Ally Knights was top three for assists in the conference.

DARRICK GIBBS

HEAD COACH | 8TH SEASON | WOFFORD '00

Darrick Gibbs enters his eighth season at the helm of the North Florida women's basketball program after being named the program's second head coach in April of 2015.

Gibbs, a coaching veteran with 18 years of experience in the collegiate ranks, took over the Ospreys after a 10-year stint as an assistant coach at the University of Miami.

During his decade at Miami, Gibbs helped guide the Hurricanes to six consecutive postseason appearances including four trips to the NCAA. He was a vital piece of Miami's recent success with responsibility for player development along with handling scheduling. In addition, his recruiting efforts helped the 'Canes earn three Top 25 classes during his tenure. At UM, Gibbs recruited and mentored several players that have continued their playing careers professionally in the WNBA and overseas.

Gibbs joined the UM coaching ranks prior to the 2005-06 season, and helped lead UM to a 17-13 record and an appearance at the 2006 WNIT in his first season with the Hurricanes. During his time at Miami, the squad captured the ACC Championship in 2011 and reached the WNIT Championship game in 2010. The Hurricanes posted 20 or more victories in five of the last six seasons including a 20-13 record this year highlighted by an appearance in the second round of the NCAA Tournament.

Prior to his arrival at UM, Gibbs served as an assistant coach for two seasons (2003-05) at Charlotte under current Miami head coach Katie Meier. While at Charlotte, Gibbs helped Meier lead the 49ers to two WNIT appearances, including Charlotte's first postseason victory with a 78-71 win over Clemson in the 2004 WNIT. The 49ers put together 39-23 record in those two seasons, including a 22-9 mark in 2004-05 to tie for the third-most single-season wins in Charlotte history.

As one of the 49ers' main recruiting contacts, Gibbs played a major role in putting together their 33rd-ranked 2004 recruiting class during his first season at Charlotte.

Gibbs joined the Charlotte coaching staff in 2003 following a two-year stay at the College of Charleston where he served as an assistant coach from 2001-03. Prior to his stint with the Cougars, Gibbs spent three seasons at Wofford College. As an undergraduate, he served as a student assistant with the Terriers from 1998-00, and remained with the team as an assistant during the 2000-01 season.

Originally from Pawleys Island, S.C., Gibbs received a bachelor's degree in psychology from Wofford in 2000.

Gibbs and his wife D'Erica were married in April of 2009 and have two daughters, Daisha and Desiree and a son, Darrick Jr.
