OWLS' NOTES

- The Owls went 2-1 during their season-opening weekend at the FAU Invitational.
- On Friday, Florida Atlantic earned their first sweep of the season against Holy Cross, 3-0, before falling just short in a four-set battle against Kansas City, 1-3.
- The Owls then closed out the weekend with a four-set victory against FDU, 3-1.
- Junior Kaila Ru had a big debut weekend for the Owls and was named to the FAU Invitational All-Tournament Team after tallying a team-leading 31 kills and posting a dominant team-best .580 hitting percentage over the Owls' first three games of the season.
- Ru is also tied for the team-lead in blocks, recording six, including two solo blocks during the Owls' FAU Invitational.
- Sophomore Madison Dyer and Junior Katelynn Robine also had impressive season-opening weekends, recording 24 kills and 22 kills, respectively.
- Victoria Hensley and Noelle Stephens lead the Owls in assists, posting 85 and 49 assists, respectively.
- Defensively, Isabelle Northam leads the Owls' backline, recording a team-leading 52 digs (4.73 per set) through three games.
- Miami holds an all-time 12-1 lead over the Owls. Florida Atlantic has yet to win in Coral Gables, dropping all six of their contests at Miami, and are on a 12-game losing streak against the Canes. The Owls last defeated the Canes on Sept. 18, 2001, in Boca Raton, earning a 3-0 sweep.

HEAD COACH FERNANDA NELSON

Fernanda Nelson was named Florida Atlantic University's head volleyball coach on June 4, 2012.

Nelson became the fifth head coach in FAU volleyball history after serving as an assistant at Florida Gulf Coast University for four seasons. While at FGCU, Nelson helped the Eagles to a 63-43 overall record (46-17 Atlantic Sun Conference record) and the 2008 regular season A-Sun title. She also assisted head coach Dave Nichols in guiding FGCU to a winning record in its first season of sand volleyball in 2012.

One of the best setters in the storied history of the Brazilian National Team and named Brazil's best setter in 1997, Nelson helped FGCU setter Roberta Santos and outside hitter Ana Kokanvic, two of the best players in FGCU history, earn first team All-Atlantic Sun honors in their senior campaign. Additionally, libero Holly Youngquist was a two-time second-team All-Atlantic Sun selection under Nelson's charge. In four seasons, Nelson has helped coach seven All-Atlantic Sun selections (three first team), four conference Freshmen Team honorees, a unanimous A-Sun Freshman of the Year, an ESPN/CoSIDA Academic All-District 3 selection (Holly Youngquist; second team) and 27 A-Sun All-Academic selections.

The position at FGCU came after eight years as both a player and a coach at National American University in Rapid City, South Dakota. Nelson arrived at NAU in 2000 and earned second-team NAIA All-American honors as a freshman. She was National Player of the Year as both a sophomore and a senior and led NAU to a national championship as a junior. Nelson ended her career as a three-time All-American selection. She was named to the NAU coaching staff immediately following the conclusion of her playing career. While an assistant, NAU won four straight regional championships and the 2006 NAIA National Championship.

Nelson was instrumental in the Owls' efforts to navigate through the Summer and Fall of 2020 while the nation was working its way through the COVID-19 pandemic. The Owls like all teams throughout the country lost several players, who opted to forgo the 2020 season in an effort to protect themselves and their families. Nelson was able to regroup for the season which was shifted to the Spring of 2021. Nikola Barteka joined the Owls in January, rather than the planned Fall, and gained valuable experience that she builds upon as her collegiate career progresses. The Owls used the Spring season to become more versatile.

During the 2019 season, Nelson led the Owls as they extended their home winning streak to 21, the second longest active streak in the nation at the time. Massiel Matos was named first team all-conference, while Sigourney Kame, Sydney Nemtuda and Zuri Smith made the second team. Smith was also named Conference USA Defensive Player of the Year. FAU swept Marshall in the first round of the C-USA tournament, its first conference tournament win since 2006. The Owls finished with a winning record for the sixth straight season.

FAU truly turned the corner in 2018, as the Owls enjoyed their most successful season under Nelson, winning 21 matches, going 14-0 at home to extend their home winning streak to a school record 15. At the end of the season, Massiel Matos, Sigourney Kame and Ivone Martinez made the All-Conference First Team, while Abbi Reid made the Second Team. Matos, Kame and Martinez were also named AVCA All-Region. Martinez won C-USA Setter of the Year and led the nation in assists per set for the second year in a row. As a team, the Owls led the country in assists and kills per set.

The Owls made their fifth consecutive Conference USA Tournament in 2017 following an 18-8 regular season. Sigourney Kame was named to both the C-USA All-Academic Team and First Team All-Conference. Ivone Martinez and Abbi Reid both made the All C-USA Second Team and Sydney Nemtuda made the All-Freshman team. Martinez led the nation in assists per set at 12.81 and her total of 1,153 was the third best single season total in school history.

2016 continued the upward trend for the Owls. Maja Ristic was named first team All Conference USA for the second season in a row. She was joined on the first team by teammate Abbi Reid and Sigourney Kame made the All-Freshman team. The Owls also made the C-USA tournament for the fourth year in a row.

2015 marked even more success for the Owls. They won 18 matches for the second season in a row, JC transfer Maja Ristic was named first team All Conference USA, despite missing the final seven matches with an injury. Brittney Brown was named Second Team All C-USA and Gabriela Martin made the All-Freshman team. The Owls also qualified for the conference tournament for the third season in a row.

Nelson's second season was highlighted by a win over in-state rival UCF and the team making the conference tournament for the first time in seven years. In her third season in 2014, the program won turned the corner, winning 18 matches, its highest win total since 2005. The team also won the season opening FAU Invitational and made the conference tournament for the second year in a row. Several Owls also achieved individual success, with Genesis Viera earning FAU Invitational MVP honors. Viera would also be named C-USA Setter of the Week later in the season. Katarina Stepanovic became the first Owl in almost eight years to earn a weekly conference award when she was named Defensive Player of the Week. At the end of the year, Stepanovic was named First Team All-C-USA while her classmate, junior middle blocker Brittney Brown made the Second Team.

In her first season at FAU, Nelson recorded her first career victory in a five-set win over Stetson. The Owls more than doubled their win total from the previous year, while in the process snapping a conference losing streak that had lasted almost two years. She also led the team to a victory over a Big East opponent (Villanova) at the Arizona State University Sheraton Invitational.
