- Miami rushed for 211 yards last time out against Clemson, marking only the 30th time a Dabo Swinney-led Tigers defense had surrendered 200 or more rushing yards in more than 200 games.
- Among other categories where Dawson's work has been clear: Miami ranks No. 10 in FBS and No. 1 in the ACC in completion percentage (71.1), No. 24 in FBS and No. 2 in ACC in passing offense (288.0), No. 15 in FBS and No. 2 in ACC in scoring offense (36.3) + No. 10 in FBS and No. 2 in ACC in total offense (481.9). Under Dawson, Miami is one of only eight FBS teams averaging more than 480 yards.

Week 2: Texas A&M

Anez Cooper (Co-Offensive Line)

Jaden Davis (Defensive Back)

Jacoby George (Wide Receiver)

Tyler Van Dyke (Quarterback)

Week 8: Clemson

Rueben Bain, Jr. (Defensive Line, Rookie)

BAIN SHINING AS TRUE FRESHMAN, EARNS ACC DL & ROOKIE HONORS

- One of Miami's most impressive breakout players of the season has been true freshman DL Rueben Bain, Jr. Bain was named ACC Defensive Lineman of the Week and Rookie of the Week on Oct. 23.
- In a 20T win over Clemson, Bain had the best performance of his young career - eight tackles, two sacks and one forced fumble. Bain was also named 247Sports True Freshman of the Week and hauled in Shaun Alexander Award Freshman of the Week recognition for his dominant game vs. Clemson.
- Bain has started the last five games on the defensive line and currently leads the Hurricanes with 4.5 sacks. According to PFF, Bain has more credited quarterback pressures (29) than most of the players considered to be the top defensive line prospects in college football ahead of the 2024 NFL Draft.

GUIDRY'S 'D' IMPRESSING, HAS HELD OPPONENTS <100 RUSHING 6X

- Lance Guidry, who was named defensive coordinator at Miami in February 2023, spent the previous two seasons as the defensive coordinator and safeties coach at Marshall University in 2021 and 2022.
- Guidry has already made his impact felt in a short amount of time in Coral Gables. Among ACC teams, Miami ranks No. 3 in scoring defense (19.1 points per game), No. 2 in total defense (313.6 yards per game) and No. 1 in rushing defense (79.6 yards per game). Among FBS teams nationwide, the Hurricanes also rank No. 7 in rushing defense, No. 25 in scoring defense and No. 21 in total defense.
- The Canes are one of just 25 teams in all of FBS allowing fewer than 320 yards per game in 2023.
- Miami had held its opponents under 100 rushing yards its first five games of the season - a streak that ended at North Carolina Oct. 14. It was the Hurricanes' longest such streak to begin a year since 2006.
- The Hurricanes are one of only three Power-5 teams to have held opponents to fewer than 100 rushing yards six times this season. The only other two are Nebraska and Penn State.

FBS, Teams With 6+ Games Allowing Fewer Than 100 Rushing Yards - 2023

Team	Games
James Madison	7
Miami (FL)	6
Nebraska	6
Penn State	6
Tulane	6

- In Guidry's final year there, Marshall's defense ranked in the top five nationally in FBS in several key statistics, including third down defense (first), stop rate (second), pass efficiency defense (third), defensive efficiency (third), yards per play (third), turnovers gained (fifth) and rushing defense (fifth).
- Guidry's first game as an assistant coach at the collegiate level was as defensive backs coach at his alma mater, McNeese State, vs. the Miami Hurricanes in 2000 at the Orange Bowl - a Miami win.

"FOURTH QUARTER PROGRAM" EFFECT; UM FOURTH IN 4Q SCORING

- When Mario Cristobal arrived to Miami in 2021, one of his first hires was strength & conditioning coordinator Aaron Feld. The duo's "fourth quarter" spring workout program has become a staple.
- In games involving only FBS teams across the country, the Hurricanes rank No. 6 in the nation in fourth quarter scoring at 11.3 points per game in 2023. Through its first two games in wins over the Aggies and the RedHawks, Miami outscored its opponents by a 31-7 margin in the final frame.

REVAMPED LINE NAMED TO JOE MOORE AWARD MIDYEAR HONOR ROLL

- One of the most important components to Miami's start has been the impressive play of its offensive line. The Hurricanes have started LT Jalen Rivers, LG Javion Cohen, C Matt Lee, RG Anez Cooper and RT Francis Mauigoa for all seven of its games, and the group has been pivotal to UM's success so far.
- The group was recognized for its outstanding play when it was selected to the midseason honor roll for the Joe Moore Award, which annually honors the top-performing offensive unit in college football.
- Last time out, the group had perhaps its best performance to date. With a true freshman QB making his first career start, the group did not allow a sack and paved the way for 211 rushing yards against one of the nation's elite defensive fronts in Clemson. Miami outgained Clemson on the ground, 211-31.
- Cooper was named ACC Co-Offensive Lineman of the Week as well as Outland Trophy National Player of the Week after a dominant game vs. Texas A&M, where he graded out as Miami's top lineman.
- Lee was named a candidate for the Rimington Trophy, honoring the nation's top center, after a standout career at UCF. Cohen was named a candidate for the Outland Trophy after transferring to Miami from Alabama. Cooper and Rivers both started for Miami in 2022, while Mauigoa is a freshman.

RESTREPO BREAKING OUT, PART OF KEY TRIO WITH YOUNG & GEORGE

- While Miami's offense has impressed under OC Shannon Dawson, WR Xavier Restrepo has emerged as one of the nation's top wide receivers this season. He leads the Hurricanes with 54 receptions - including a career-high 12 catches in a start against Georgia Tech and 11 more vs. North Carolina. Restrepo ranks No. 5 in FBS in receptions per game (7.7) and No. 9 in FBS in total receptions (54).
- In UM's game with Georgia Tech, Restrepo (123 yards) recorded his third game of the season with at least 120 receiving yards. He became the only Hurricane over the past 25 years to record three such games within the first five games of a season - he also managed to do so vs. Texas A&M and Temple.
- It was the first game to feature 10 catches since Mike Harley had 13 vs. Duke on Nov. 27, 2021. Restrepo is only the third Cane in the last five years to have 10 in a game, joining Harley and Charleston Rambo.
- Restrepo, WR Jacolby George (31 catches, 467 yards) and WR Colbie Young (29 catches, 394 yards) account for 1,461 receiving yards - 72.5% of the Hurricanes' total yardage through the air (2,016).
- Restrepo, who also paces the Hurricanes in receiving yards with 600, struggled through an injury-marred 2022 where he caught only 21 passes for 240 yards total, seeing action in just seven games.
- Restrepo and former roommate Tyler Van Dyke have a special connection; Restrepo learned how to play golf based on TVD's love for the sport, and the duo is ultra competitive in everything they do.
- The fourth-year junior surpassed the 1,000 career yard mark at Miami vs. Georgia Tech- he has 93 career catches for 1,199 yards with eight career touchdowns. He has started all six games so far.

- Entering Miami's Sept. 9 matchup with Texas A&M, Jacolby George had just one career touchdown catch. He had three alone vs. the Aggies, becoming the first Cane to have three touchdown catches in the same game since former WR Leonard Hankerson did so against at Clemson on Oct. 2, 2010.
- George had a career-best 125 yards in Miami's loss at North Carolina, totaling six catches and one TD.
- George is one of seven players in the ACC to have at least five touchdowns catches entering Week 9.
- George put together only the third game of three receiving touchdowns by an ACC player this year.
- For his efforts, the third-year player was named ACC Offensive Receiver of the Week on Sept. 11. He had just 13 catches in all of 2022 and already has 29 - second-most on the team - through six games.

KINCHEMS, WILLIAMS MAKE UP ONE OF TOP SAFETY PAIRINGS IN FBS

- Two of Miami's closest teammates on and off the field are two of its best players in safety pairing Kam Kinchens and James Williams. The two third-year players make up a highly talented duo.
- Kinchens, an All-American a season ago, was named to the All-ACC First Team in 2022 after having 59 total tackles and a team-high six interceptions. He is a member of UM's leadership council.
- Another impactful player in his own right, the 6-foot-5 Williams made 10 starts and ranked second on the team with 58 tackles a season ago. Both players are South Florida natives and best friends.

- QB Tyler Van Dyke is enjoying a return to form in 2023 after putting together an ACC Rookie of the Year campaign at Miami in 2021. Van Dyke's 2022 season was marred by injury, forcing him to miss significant action during the second half of the year. He missed Miami's last game vs. Clemson Oct. 21.
- Van Dyke is Pro Football Focus' fifth-best starter's position grade behind only Michael Penix, Jr. of Washington, Jayden Daniels of LSU, Shedeur Sanders of Colorado and Conner Weigman of Texas A&M.

- Van Dyke ranks No. 1 in ACC (No. 13 in FBS) in completion percentage (70.5), No. 1 in ACC (No. 10 in FBS) in passing efficiency (171.8) as well as No. 1 in ACC (No. 8 in FBS) in passing touchdowns (16).
- In Miami's win against Bethune-Cookman, Van Dyke became the first Hurricane to record multiple pass touchdowns, a rush touchdown and complete 80 percent of his passes in a single game.
- over the past 25 seasons. He finished 19-for-23 for 247 yards with two touchdowns and no picks.
- Van Dyke entered Week 4 ranked 10th on UM's career completions list with 419. He's now No. 7 with 491, having passed Craig Erickson (420), Ryan Clement (427) and Bernie Kosar (463).
- Van Dyke's five touchdown passes vs. Texas A&M marked a new career high. The performance was TVD's eighth career start with multiple TDs and zero picks. He had his ninth such start vs. Bethune.
- Van Dyke became the third Miami Hurricane to win ACC Rookie of the Year and ACC Offensive Rookie of the Year honors in 2021, joining QB Brad Kaaya (2014) and RB Duke Johnson (2012) to do so.
- Van Dyke has throw multiple interceptions in a game just five times in his 24 career starts at The U.
- Van Dyke took over starting duties three games into the season in 2021 and ended the year with 2,931 yards, 25 passing touchdowns and just six interceptions. He completed 62.% of passes.

BRASHARD ONE OF NATION'S MOST DANGEROUS, MIAMI #2 IN KOR IN 2023

- Though he has only had 11 returns in his six games, WR Brashard Smith has made them count, ranking first in the nation in kickoff return average averaging 33.9 yards per return so far this year.
- Smith's 98-yard kickoff return TD vs. Texas A&M was his first kickoff return for a touchdown of his career
- Smith had an 80-yard run that resulted in a touchdown in Miami's last win over Clemson on Oct. 21.

BORREGALES RANKS AMONG FBS' MOST PROLIFIC ACTIVE FG KICKERS

- Junior K Andy Borregales has delivered another dominant season for the Hurricanes in 2023. Ranked as a preseason candidate for the Lou Groza Award, Borregales has tallied 46 career field goals on 54 attempts (85.1%), which ranks him as tied for the fifth-most accurate among those with 50 attempts.
- Borregales, whose older brother Jose is the lone Lou Groza Award winner in Miami history (2020), is 10-for-11 on field goals this year. His lone miss was on a 54-yard attempt vs. Texas A&M on Sept. 9.
- Borregales is one of 15 kickers in FBS with a 90%-or-better success rate this year - he is ninth in FBS (92.3)

CANES HADN'T STARTED WITH THREE IN A ROW AT HOME SINCE 2013

- The Hurricanes had not started the season with a 3-0 mark at home since 2013. Coincidentally, during that early stretch, they also played a ranked SEC team (No. 12 Florida) and won in Week 2.

KINCHENS RANKS HIGH IN CAREER INTERCEPTIONS, RETURNED VS. GT

- Following a breakout All-American season a year ago where he finished with six interceptions, Kam Kinchens added to that total Saturday with his seventh career interception vs. Texas A&M.
- Kinchens average interceptions-per-game mark (0.27) is among the top marks in FBS..
- A team captain, Kinchens left the Texas A&M game on a stretcher in a scary late moment scene. He underwent evaluation but was discharged the next day and rejoined the team on Sunday, Sept. 10.
- Kinchens will rejoin the team on Saturday against Georgia Tech, it was announced this week.

BROTHERLY LOVE IN CORAL GABLES, SEVERAL WITH UM FAMILY TIES

- The Miami Hurricanes will feature a number of family ties on the sideline this fall across the roster.
- Newcomer OL Francis Mauigoa and older brother LB Francisco Mauigoa will feature prominently for Miami this season. Another set of newcomers have lined up on the same side of the ball, in freshman DB Damari Brown and junior DB Davonte Brown. The elder Mauigoa arrived from Washington State via the transfer portal, as did the elder Brown, who came to Miami from UCF. Both arrived in January.
- Two sets of twins populate the freshmen ranks, as well; Miami natives WR Robby Washington and LB Bobby Washington, Jr., as well as QB Riply Luna and WR Kolby Luna, who are from Idaho.
- The older brother of freshman DL Rueben Bain, Jr., one of the top-ranked freshman defensive lineman, is offensive graduate assistant Reggie Bain. In addition, the nephew of head coach Mario Cristobal - Luis Cristobal, Jr. - transferred to Miami from Georgia State prior to the season.

HOME SWEET HOME OPENERS: UM CONTINUES RUN OF SUCCESS AT HRS

- The Miami Hurricanes opened their 16th season at world-class Hard Rock Stadium on Sept. 1 vs. Miami-Ohio with a 38-3 win; UM holds a 16-0 all-time mark in home openers at the stadium, having outscored opponents 727-122 for an average margin of victory of 37.8 points in those 16 games.
- The Hurricanes have not lost a home opener since 2006, when they fell to Florida State 13-10 at the Orange Bowl on Sept. 4, 2006. Miami has won 17 straight home openers since - each one since 2007.
- Since joining the ACC prior to the 2004 season, Miami has played a conference opponent in only three of its 20 home openers: Florida State twice (in 2004 and 2006) and Georgia Tech once (2009).
- In the modern era of Miami Hurricanes football (since 1979), UM has opened the season at home 19 times and is 17-2 in those games. The Hurricanes are 33-12 in regular season openers dating to 1979.

CANES HAVE TALENT, EXPERIENCE ON DEFENSIVE LINE RETURNING IN '23

- If the Hurricanes are looking to cause havoc under defensive coordinator Lance Guidry, two defensive linemen that will play an important role are Leonard Taylor III and Akheem Mesidor, who ranked among the most disruptive defensive linemen in the ACC a season ago in 2022. Mesidor has missed most of 2023.
- Mesidor, who transferred to Miami after two seasons at West Virginia, has 25 career tackles for loss in three seasons in college to go along with 16.5 sacks. Mesidor was an All-ACC Honorable Mention pick after he finished with a team high-tying 10.5 tackles for loss & a team-best seven sacks. He has a lower body injury.
- Taylor III had a productive year for the Hurricanes en route to 2022 All-ACC Honorable Mention honors; Taylor, a third-year player, tied Mesidor with 10.5 tackles for loss. He added three sacks.
- Miami will also benefit from strong edge play from second-year defensive end Nyjalik Kelly (4.5 sacks in 2022). DL Jahfari Harvey recorded his first sack of the season against the RedHawks.

- Four Hurricanes were honored by the ACC for standout performances last time out; Anez Cooper (Co-Offensive Lineman of the Week), Jaden Davis (Defensive Back), Jacolby George (offensive receiver) and Tyler Van Dyke (quarterback). ACC'S NEW SCHEDULING MODEL IN EFFECT; MIAMI TO PLAY BC, FSU, UofL

- The new ACC football scheduling model is based on a 3-5-5 structure whereby each team will play three primary opponents annually and face the other 10 teams twice during the four-year cycle starting in 2023. The schedule allows for each team to face all 13 conference opponents home and away at least once during the four-year cycle. The structure was adopted by the league's ADs and faculty athletic representatives.
- The new schedule eliminated the Atlantic and Coastal divisions with all 14 schools competing in one division beginning in 2023. The top two teams based on conference winning percentage will compete in the Subway ACC Football Championship Game on the first Saturday in December at Bank of America Stadium.
- Miami's three opponents primary annual opponents are Boston College, Florida State and Louisville.

MIAMI PLACES THREE ON PRESEASON ALL-ACC FOOTBALL TEAM

- Among Miami's preseason honorees were DB Kam Kinchens, OL Javion Cohen and K Andy Borregales, who were all selected to the All-ACC Preseason Team in a poll of conference media. Kinchens enjoyed a breakout 2022, where he was selected to the All-ACC First Team and earned several All-America honors.
- During his time with the Crimson Tide, Cohen started 24 games and earned 2022 All-SEC second-team honors. Cohen started 14 games as a sophomore in 2021 and spent 10 games as a starter on 2022. Cohen was ranked as one of the top players in the transfer portal before arriving in Miami. Cohen was named to the Outland watch list.
- A semifinalist for the Lou Groza Award in 2022, Borregales delivered another strong campaign for his hometown Hurricanes a season ago. The junior kicker converted on all 32 extra point attempts and went 17 for 20 on field goals, including a season-long 49-yard boot against Florida State. Borregales' older brother, Jose, is the lone Groza Award winner in UM history, winning it in 2020 in his lone season with the Hurricanes.

MARIO CRISTOBAL

HEAD COACH | SECOND SEASON AT MIAMI (12TH OVERALL) | 10-9 | 71-69

Mario Cristobal has returned home to Miami.

Cristobal, who helped lead the University of Miami to two national championships in 1989 and 1991 as a standout offensive lineman, was named the University's 26th football head coach on December 6, 2021.

One of college football's most highly regarded coaches, Cristobal returned to his alma mater after leading the University of Oregon to three straight Pac-12 Conference championship game appearances and two Pac-12 titles. He is the only coach in the nation whose team has played in a Power Five conference championship game in each of the past three seasons.

"We are incredibly excited to welcome Mario, his wife, Jessica, and their sons Mario Mateo and Rocco home to Miami," UM President Julio Frenk said. "Mario's legacy as a student-athlete at the U is well established. And the standard for competitive excellence that he and his teammates helped establish is one to which we continue to aspire. Our selection, however, was not one based in nostalgia for a proud past, but rather in a bold vision for a promising future."

"The characteristics that helped Mario excel as a national championship-winning player—drive, determination, and discipline—continue to propel his success as a coach. In Mario we have found a head coach who shares our belief in providing student-athletes with the very best opportunities to succeed on and off the field, and our commitment to winning at the highest level."

"My family and I are excited to return home to the University of Miami, which has been so instrumental in shaping me as a person, player, and coach," Cristobal said. "This program has an unparalleled tradition and an exciting future ahead of it. I can't wait to compete for championships and help mold our student-athletes into leaders on and off the field who will make our University, our community, and our loyal fan base proud."

Cristobal brings more than 20 years of FBS coaching experience to Coral Gables, including 10 as a head coach. He compiled a 35-13 record at Oregon, leading the Ducks to consecutive Pac-12 titles in 2019 and 2020. Oregon advanced to three straight conference championship games from 2019 to 2021 and earned bowl-game appearances in each of Cristobal's seasons in Eugene, highlighted by a Rose Bowl victory that capped a 12-win season and No. 5 ranking in the final Associated Press and AFCA Coaches polls in 2019. Cristobal was named the Associated Press Pac-12 Coach of the Year for his efforts that season.

Over Cristobal's first three seasons in Eugene, Oregon players earned 44 all-conference selections and 14 players were selected in the NFL Draft, including first-round selections in each of the past three drafts. With the selections of Kayvon Thibodeaux (2022), Penei Sewell (2021) and Justin Herbert (2020), Cristobal is one of only two active head coaches to produce top-10 picks in each of the last three drafts.

During his tenure as both an assistant and head coach at Oregon, two players—Noah Sewell and Thibodeaux—earned Pac-12 Defensive Freshman of the Year honors, and three players—Thibodeaux, Penei Sewell, and Tyrell Crosby—earned the Morris Trophy, awarded to the Pac-12's best offensive and defensive linemen.

Cristobal served as Oregon's co-offensive coordinator, run-game coordinator, and offensive line coach during the 2017 season before being elevated to head coach.

Cristobal's national title-winning pedigree isn't limited to his time as a player. At Alabama, where he served as assistant head coach, offensive line coach, and recruiting coordinator, he helped lead the Crimson Tide to the national championship in 2015 and a runner-up finish the following season.

During his four years in Tuscaloosa, from 2013 to 2016, five Alabama offensive linemen were selected in the NFL Draft and, with Cristobal's tutelage, the 2015 offensive line unit won the inaugural Joe Moore Award, given to the most outstanding offensive line unit in the nation.

Considered one of the country's elite recruiters and evaluators of talent, Cristobal, during his tenures at both Alabama and Oregon, helped assemble national top-15 recruiting classes eight straight years, with seven of those classes rated in the top 10. The 2018 class at Alabama produced three NFL first-round draft picks. At Oregon, he constructed the Pac-12's top-rated recruiting classes in 2019, 2020, and 2021.

Cristobal's move to Miami brings his coaching career full circle. A son of South Florida who played prep football at nearby Christopher Columbus High School, he launched his coaching career as a graduate assistant coach at Miami from 1998 to 2000 under head coach Butch Davis. He served as an assistant coach at Rutgers from 2001 to 2003 and then returned to Miami as an assistant coach from 2004 to 2006 under head coach Larry Coker.

In 2007, Cristobal was named head coach at Florida International University, becoming the first Cuban American head coach in FBS history. He inherited a struggling FIU program that had been winless the year before his arrival and, in just his fourth season, led it to the Sun Belt Conference title and a bowl-game victory. That season, 2010, he was named Sun Belt Coach of the Year. In total, he coached six seasons at FIU, from 2007 to 2012.

Cristobal, who played his Hurricanes career under coaches Jimmy Johnson and Dennis Erickson, was an All-Big East selection in 1992. He is a double-alumnus of the University of Miami, earning a bachelor's degree in business administration and a master's degree from the University. Cristobal was born in Miami on Sept. 24, 1970. He and his wife, Jessica, married in June 2006 and are the parents of two sons, Mario Mateo and Rocco.
