THE HURRICANES

- Miami continues Year 2 of the Mario Cristobal Era Oct. 28 when it travels to NC State for its fifth of eight straight conference games to close 2023.
- Coming off a 29-26 overtime win vs. Virginia, Miami was receiving votes in both the Associated Press and US LBM Coaches Poll Sunday. The win was Miami's sixth of the season, which clinched bowl eligibility in Year 2 under Cristobal. It was UM's second straight overtime victory (Oct. 21 vs. Clemson).
- Three Hurricanes were honored following the win; Rueben Bain was recognized with ACC Defensive Lineman of the Week, Kam Kinchens was named ACC Defensive Back of the Week and Andy Borregales won ACC Specialist of the Week. Bain won d-lineman honors for the second straight week.
- The Hurricanes picked up an impressive win over #23/#22 Texas A&M, 48-33, on Sept. 9. Miami's win was its first ranked win during Cristobal's tenure.
- Cristobal, a double alum of the University, was named the 26th head coach in program history by school president Dr. Julio Frenk on Dec. 6, 2021.
- Cristobal returned home after spending the previous four seasons as head coach at Oregon, where he won two Pac-12 titles and captured a Rose Bowl.

QUICK HITS

HURRICANES TO BATTLE WOLFPACK

- Following a 29-26 OT win over Virginia on Oct. 28, Miami continues its second season under Mario Cristobal on Nov. 4 with a road matchup at NC State.
- The Hurricanes have won eight of the last 10 matchups overall, including four in a row in the series and back-to-back wins in Raleigh. UM has not lost to the Wolfpack in Raleigh since 2008 - a 38-28 decision.
- With the win over the Cavaliers, Miami clinched bowl eligibility in Year 2 under Cristobal. Miami's 6-2 start to 2023 marks the fourth time the Hurricanes have won six of their first eight games since 2010.

UM'S BACK-TO-BACK OT WINS A RARITY

- When Miami and Virginia pushed its game into overtime on Oct. 28, it marked the first time in a season in Hurricanes history that Miami played two overtime games in the same year.
- Coming off a 2OT win the previous weekend over Clemson on Oct. 21, the Hurricanes became the first FBS team since Georgia Southern in 2019 to win overtime decisions in back-to-back games.
- The Hurricanes' successful back-to-back trips to overtime marked only the 12th instance of an FBS team winning successive overtime games since 2008.

BAIN DOMINATING IN FRESHMAN SEASON

- One of the biggest reasons for Miami's strong start to 2023 has been the dominance of freshman DL Rueben Bain, Jr., who was named ACC Defensive Lineman of the Week for the second straight week on Oct. 30.
- Bain leads Miami in sacks (6.5) and ranks second on the team in tackles for loss (7.5)
- Bain was named ACC DL of the Week and ACC Rookie of the Week on Oct. 23. He was named a Shaun Alexander Freshman of the Year semifinalist on Oct. 31.
- The freshman standout, who was a top-ranked recruit, has an older brother on staff who serves as a graduate assistant (Reggie).

NEW FACES ABOUND IN 2023, BOTH ON THE FIELD AND ON SIDELINES

- Among the many storylines of the offseason was the revamping of the Hurricanes roster entering Year 2 under Mario Cristobal - both on the sideline with assistant coaches and on the field with players.
- Cristobal's first full recruiting class was the best-ranked class in program history according to the 247Sports Composite; UM's class was the top-rated group in both the ACC and in the state of Florida.
- The Hurricanes also brought in several transfers who started UM's first eight games; OL Javion Cohen (Alabama), OL Matt Lee (UCF) and LB Francisco Mauigoa (Wazzu) are included in the group.
- In total, the Hurricanes have 40 scholarship players who were not on the team in 2022, including a recruiting class featuring 24 true freshman, headlined by five-star offensive lineman Francis Mauigoa.

- The Hurricanes are ranked No. 3 in the Atlantic Coast Conference in scoring offense, averaging 35.38 points per game. On defense, the Hurricanes are fourth in the ACC, allowing only 20.0 points per game.

UM RANKS AMONG MOST IMPROVED OFFENSES IN 2023 UNDER DAWSON

- Shannon Dawson, who was named offensive coordinator / quarterbacks coach at Miami in February 2023, spent the past four seasons at the University of Houston (2019-2022) before joining The U.
- He has already made his impact felt, with Miami ranking No. 15 in all of FBS at an average of 6.4 yards per play. The Hurricanes ranked No. 104 in FBS last season in yards per play, averaging just 5.3.
- Miami rushed for 211 yards in a 2OT win over Clemson on Oct. 21, marking only the 30th time a Dabo Swinney-led Tigers defense had surrendered 200 or more rushing yards in more than 200 games.
- Among other categories where Dawson's work has been clear: Miami ranks No. 9 in FBS and No. 1 in the ACC in completion percentage (70.6), No. 20 in FBS and No. 3 in ACC in scoring offense (35.4) and No. 19 in FBS and No. 3 in ACC in total offense (456.1). Under Dawson's direction, Miami is one of only 23 FBS teams averaging more than 450 yards - 89 yards better than last year's average (367.1).
- In Dawson's three seasons as quarterbacks coach with the Cougars (2020-22), Houston quarterbacks combined to throw 87 touchdown passes (13th nationally) behind a 65.3 completion percentage (19th) and 10,008 passing yards (21st). Dawson tutored signal caller Clayton Tune to a record-setting career. In 2022, Tune set the American Athletic Conference single-season TD passes record (40).
- Dawson's Cougars ranked eighth nationally in passing offense (314.0) in 2022, while Houston wide receiver Nathaniel Dell led the nation in receiving touchdowns (17) and receiving yards (1,398).
- Other impressive numbers: Houston ranked 15th nationally in scoring offense (35.6), 22nd in first downs offense (314), 23rd in passing offense (271.6) and 25th in red zone offense (.891) in 2022.
- Dawson linked up with former Kentucky coach Hal Mumme, considered a godfather of air raid, in 2003-04 to help revive a program at Southeastern Louisiana that had been dormant for 17 years.

BAIN SHINING AS TRUE FRESHMAN, EARNS ACC DL OF THE WEEK AGAIN

- One of Miami's most impressive breakout players of the season has been true freshman DL Rueben Bain, Jr. Bain was named ACC Defensive Lineman of the Week and Rookie of the Week on Oct. 23 after a dominant game vs. Clemson. He repeated as ACC DL of the Week honoree on Oct. 30.
- In a 2OT win over Clemson, Bain had the best performance of his young career - eight tackles, two sacks and one forced fumble. Bain was also named 247Sports True Freshman of the Week and hauled in Shaun Alexander Award Freshman of the Week recognition for his dominant game vs. Clemson.
- He outdid himself against Virginia, finishing with 2.5 tackles for loss, two sacks and seven tackles.
- Bain was named a semifinalist for the Alexander Freshman of the Year Award on Tues., Oct. 31.
- Bain has started the last six games on the defensive line and currently leads the Hurricanes with 6.5 sacks. According to PFF, Bain has more credited quarterback pressures than most of the players considered to be the top defensive line prospects in college football ahead of the 2024 NFL Draft.

GUIDRY'S 'D' IMPRESSING, HELD SIX OF FIRST SEVEN < 100 RUSH YARDS

- Lance Guidry, who was named defensive coordinator at Miami in February 2023, spent the previous two seasons as the defensive coordinator and safeties coach at Marshall University in 2021 and 2022.
- Guidry has already made his impact felt in a short amount of time in Coral Gables. Among ACC teams, Miami ranks No. 4 in scoring defense (20.0 points per game), No. 5 in total defense (321.5 yards per game) and No. 1 in rushing defense (86.9 yards per game). Among FBS teams nationwide, the Hurricanes also rank No. 8 in rushing defense, No. 27 in scoring defense and No. 24 in total defense.
- The Canes are one of just 24 teams in all of FBS allowing fewer than 325 yards per game in 2023.
- Miami had held its opponents under 100 rushing yards its first five games of the season - a streak that ended at North Carolina Oct. 14. It was the Hurricanes' longest such streak to begin a year since 2006.
- The Hurricanes were one of only three Power-5 teams to have held opponents to fewer than 100 rushing yards in six of their first seven games of 2023. The other two were Nebraska and Penn State.

"FOURTH QUARTER PROGRAM" EFFECT: UM AMONG TOP IN 4Q SCORING

- When Mario Cristobal arrived to Miami in 2021, one of his first hires was strength & conditioning coordinator Aaron Feld. The duo's "fourth quarter" spring workout program has become a staple.
- In games involving only FBS teams across the country, the Hurricanes rank No. 13 in the nation in fourth quarter scoring at 10.6 points per game in 2023. Through its first two games in wins over the Aggies and the RedHawks, Miami outscored its opponents by a 31-7 margin in the final frame.

JOE MOORE RECOGNIZED OL ONE OF 16 TO HAVE STARTED SAME FIVE

- One of the most important components to Miami's start has been the impressive play of its offensive line. The Hurricanes have started LT Jalen Rivers, LG Javion Cohen, C Matt Lee, RG Anez Cooper and RT Francis Mauigoo for all eight of its games, and the group has been pivotal to UM's success so far.
- The group was recognized for its outstanding play when it was selected to the midseason honor roll for the Joe Moore Award, which annually honors the top-performing offensive unit in college football.
- Entering Week 9, the Hurricanes were one of only 16 FBS groups to have started the same five players.
- Miami's entire interior line (Cohen, Lee, Cooper) was named to the PFF Team of the Week on Oct. 30.
- In a win vs. Clemson, the group had perhaps its best performance yet. With a freshman QB making his first start, the group did not allow a sack and helped 211 rushing yards against an elite defense.
- Cooper was named ACC Co-Offensive Lineman of the Week as well as Outland Trophy National Player of the Week after a dominant game vs. Texas A&M, where he graded out as Miami's top lineman.
- Lee was named a candidate for the Rimington Trophy, honoring the top center, after a standout career at UCF. Cohen transferred from Alabama and was named an Outland Trophy candidate.

RESTREPO ENJOYING BREAKOUT SEASON AS GO-TO WR IN OFFENSE

- While Miami's offense has impressed under OC Shannon Dawson, WR Xavier Restrepo has emerged as one of the nation's top wide receivers this season. He leads the Hurricanes with 57 receptions - including a career-high 12 catches in a start against Georgia Tech and 11 more vs. North Carolina. Restrepo ranks No. 8 in FBS in receptions per game (7.1) and No. 8 in FBS in total receptions (57).
- In UM's game with Georgia Tech, Restrepo (123 yards) recorded his third game of the season with at least 120 receiving yards. He became the only Hurricane over the past 25 years to record three such games within the first five games of a season - he also managed to do so vs. Texas A&M and Temple.
- It was the first game to feature 10 catches since Mike Harley had 13 vs. Duke on Nov. 27, 2021. Restrepo is only the third Cane in the last five years to have 10 in a game, joining Harley and Charleston Rambo.
- Restrepo, who also paces the Hurricanes in receiving yards with 648, struggled through an injury-marred 2022 where he caught only 21 passes for 240 yards total, seeing action in just seven games.
- Restrepo and former roommate Tyler Van Dyke have a special connection; Restrepo learned how to play golf based on TVD's love for the sport, and the duo is ultra competitive in everything they do.
- The fourth-year junior surpassed the 1,000 career yard mark at Miami vs. Georgia Tech- he has 103 career catches for 1,273 yards with eight career touchdowns. He has started all eight games so far.

- Miami won back-to-back games in overtime the last two weeks, emerging victorious over Clemson in two overtimes on Oct. 21 and beating Virginia in OT on Oct. 28. It marked the first time in the history of Miami where the Hurricanes played two overtime games in the same season - let alone back-to-back.
- UM became the first team since Georgia Southern in 2019 to win overtime games in back-to-back outings. UM was the first Power-5 team to do it since Northwestern won three such games in 2017.

- Borregales is one of 22 kickers in FBS with a 90%-or-better success rate this year - he is ninth in FBS (93.8) in the category. He is one of only 16 kickers in the country with at least 15 made field goals.

- George had a career-best 125 yards in Miami's loss at North Carolina, totaling six catches and one TD.
- George is one of eight players in the ACC to have at least five touchdowns catches entering Week 10.
- George put together only the third game of three receiving touchdowns by an ACC player this year.
- For his efforts, the third-year player was named ACC Offensive Receiver of the Week on Sept. 11. He had just 13 catches in all of 2022 and already has 29 - second-most on the team - through six games.

ACC DB OF THE WEEK KINCHEMS, WILLIAMS COMBINE AS TALENTED PAIR

- Two of Miami's closest teammates on and off the field are two of its best players in safety pairing Kam Kinchens and James Williams. The two third-year players make up a highly talented duo.

TVD RANKS AMONG TOP PERFORMERS, LOOKING TO REBOUND AT NCST

- QB Tyler Van Dyke is enjoying a return to form in 2023 after putting together an ACC Rookie of the Year campaign at Miami in 2021. - Van Dyke's five touchdown passes vs. Texas A&M marked a new career high. The performance was TVD's eighth career start with multiple TDs and zero picks. He had his ninth such start vs. Bethune.
- Van Dyke became the third Miami Hurricane to win ACC Rookie of the Year and ACC Offensive Rookie of the Year honors in 2021, joining QB Brad Kaaya (2014) and RB Duke Johnson (2012) to do so.
- Van Dyke has throw multiple interceptions in a game just five times in his 24 career starts at The U.

BRASHARD ONE OF NATION'S MOST DANGEROUS, MIAMI #2 IN KOR IN 2023

- Though he has only had 12 returns in his six games, WR Brashard Smith has made them count, ranking first in the nation in kickoff return average averaging 32.9 yards per return so far this year.
- Smith's 98-yard kickoff return TD vs. Texas A&M was his first kickoff return for a touchdown of his career
- Smith had an 80-yard run that resulted in a touchdown in Miami's 20T win over Clemson on Oct. 21.

CANES HADN'T STARTED WITH THREE IN A ROW AT HOME SINCE 2013

- The Hurricanes had not started the season with a 3-0 mark at home since 2013. Coincidentally, during that early stretch, they also played a ranked SEC team (No. 12 Florida) and won in Week 2.

BROTHERLY LOVE IN CORAL GABLES, SEVERAL WITH UM FAMILY TIES

- The Miami Hurricanes will feature a number of family ties on the sideline this fall across the roster.
- Newcomer OL Francis Mauigoo and older brother LB Francisco Mauigoo will feature prominently for Miami this season. Another set of newcomers have lined up on the same side of the ball, in freshman DB Damari Brown and junior DB Davonte Brown. The elder Mauigoo arrived from Washington State via the transfer portal, as did the elder Brown, who came to Miami from UCF. Both arrived in January.
- Two sets of twins populate the freshmen ranks, as well; Miami natives WR Robby Washington and LB Bobby Washington, Jr., as well as QB Riply Luna and WR Kolby Luna, who are from Idaho.
- The older brother of freshman DL Rueben Bain, Jr., one of the top-ranked freshman defensive lineman, is offensive graduate assistant Reggie Bain. In addition, the nephew of head coach Mario Cristobal - Luis Cristobal, Jr. - transferred to Miami from Georgia State prior to the season.

HOME SWEET HOME OPENERS: UM CONTINUES RUN OF SUCCESS AT HRS

- The Miami Hurricanes opened their 16th season at world-class Hard Rock Stadium on Sept. 1 vs. Miami-Ohio with a 38-3 win; UM holds a 16-0 all-time mark in home openers at the stadium, having outscored opponents 727-122 for an average margin of victory of 37.8 points in those 16 games.
- The Hurricanes have not lost a home opener since 2006, when they fell to Florida State 13-10 at the Orange Bowl on Sept. 4, 2006. Miami has won 17 straight home openers since - each one since 2007.
- Since joining the ACC prior to the 2004 season, Miami has played a conference opponent in only three of its 20 home openers: Florida State twice (in 2004 and 2006) and Georgia Tech once (2009).
- In the modern era of Miami Hurricanes football (since 1979), UM has opened the season at home 19 times and is 17-2 in those games. The Hurricanes are 33-12 in regular season openers dating to 1979.

CANES HAVE TALENT, EXPERIENCE ON DEFENSIVE LINE RETURNING IN '23

- If the Hurricanes are looking to cause havoc under defensive coordinator Lance Guidry, two defensive linemen that will play an important role are Leonard Taylor III and Akheem Mesidor, who ranked among the most disruptive defensive linemen in the ACC a season ago in 2022. Mesidor has missed most of 2023.
- Mesidor, who transferred to Miami after two seasons at West Virginia, has 25 career tackles for loss in three seasons in college to go along with 16.5 sacks. Mesidor was an All-ACC Honorable Mention pick after he finished with a team high-tying 10.5 tackles for loss & a team-best seven sacks. He has a lower body injury.
- Taylor III had a productive year for the Hurricanes en route to 2022 All-ACC Honorable Mention honors; Taylor, a third-year player, tied Mesidor with 10.5 tackles for loss. He added three sacks.
- Miami will also benefit from strong edge play from second-year defensive end Nyjalik Kelly (4.5 sacks in 2022). DL Jahfari Harvey recorded his first sack of the season against the RedHawks.

MIAMI'S SIGNING CLASS, RANKED AS THE BEST IN HISTORY, MAKES DEBUT

- Miami's 2023 recruiting class included 15 players ranked in the ESPN 300, including one of the top five, two in the top 20 and six in the top 100. The Hurricanes signed two players who were considered consensus "five-star" players by every recruiting service - Miami had three five-star signees in the last eight classes.
- 15 players in the class made their debut, headlined by Francis Mauigoo, who started at right tackle.
- Mauigoo (#7) and Samson Okunlola (#18) represent two of the top 20 players that Miami has ever signed since 247Sports began their rankings in the year 2000. The Hurricanes signed five players who earned All-American Bowl invitations and five players who earned Under-Armour All-America Bowl invitations
- 15 of Miami's freshmen joined the program for the spring and competed in spring practice/

THREE SELECTED IN DRAFT, MIAMI'S NFL STREAK CONTINUES IN 2023

- The selections of Miami defensive back Tyrique Stevenson (Chicago Bears, second round), tight end Will Mallory (Indianapolis Colts, fifth) and DJ Ivey (Cincinnati Bengals, seventh) extended the Hurricanes' streak of having at least one player picked in every NFL Draft since 1975; the fourth-longest streak of any program.

MARIO CRISTOBAL

HEAD COACH | SECOND SEASON AT MIAMI (12TH OVERALL) | 11-9 | 72-69

Mario Cristobal has returned home to Miami.

Cristobal, who helped lead the University of Miami to two national championships in 1989 and 1991 as a standout offensive lineman, was named the University's 26th football head coach on December 6, 2021.

One of college football's most highly regarded coaches, Cristobal returned to his alma mater after leading the University of Oregon to three straight Pac-12 Conference championship game appearances and two Pac-12 titles. He is the only coach in the nation whose team has played in a Power Five conference championship game in each of the past three seasons.

"We are incredibly excited to welcome Mario, his wife, Jessica, and their sons Mario Mateo and Rocco home to Miami," UM President Julio Frenk said. "Mario's legacy as a student-athlete at the U is well established. And the standard for competitive excellence that he and his teammates helped establish is one to which we continue to aspire. Our selection, however, was not one based in nostalgia for a proud past, but rather in a bold vision for a promising future."

"The characteristics that helped Mario excel as a national championship-winning player—drive, determination, and discipline—continue to propel his success as a coach. In Mario we have found a head coach who shares our belief in providing student-athletes with the very best opportunities to succeed on and off the field, and our commitment to winning at the highest level."

"My family and I are excited to return home to the University of Miami, which has been so instrumental in shaping me as a person, player, and coach," Cristobal said. "This program has an unparalleled tradition and an exciting future ahead of it. I can't wait to compete for championships and help mold our student-athletes into leaders on and off the field who will make our University, our community, and our loyal fan base proud."

Cristobal brings more than 20 years of FBS coaching experience to Coral Gables, including 10 as a head coach. He compiled a 35-13 record at Oregon, leading the Ducks to consecutive Pac-12 titles in 2019 and 2020. Oregon advanced to three straight conference championship games from 2019 to 2021 and earned bowl-game appearances in each of Cristobal's seasons in Eugene, highlighted by a Rose Bowl victory that capped a 12-win season and No. 5 ranking in the final Associated Press and AFCA Coaches polls in 2019. Cristobal was named the Associated Press Pac-12 Coach of the Year for his efforts that season.

Over Cristobal's first three seasons in Eugene, Oregon players earned 44 all-conference selections and 14 players were selected in the NFL Draft, including first-round selections in each of the past three drafts. With the selections of Kayvon Thibodeaux (2022), Penei Sewell (2021) and Justin Herbert (2020), Cristobal is one of only two active head coaches to produce top-10 picks in each of the last three drafts.

During his tenure as both an assistant and head coach at Oregon, two players—Noah Sewell and Thibodeaux—earned Pac-12 Defensive Freshman of the Year honors, and three players—Thibodeaux, Penei Sewell, and Tyrell Crosby—earned the Morris Trophy, awarded to the Pac-12's best offensive and defensive linemen.

Cristobal served as Oregon's co-offensive coordinator, run-game coordinator, and offensive line coach during the 2017 season before being elevated to head coach.

Cristobal's national title-winning pedigree isn't limited to his time as a player. At Alabama, where he served as assistant head coach, offensive line coach, and recruiting coordinator, he helped lead the Crimson Tide to the national championship in 2015 and a runner-up finish the following season.

During his four years in Tuscaloosa, from 2013 to 2016, five Alabama offensive linemen were selected in the NFL Draft and, with Cristobal's tutelage, the 2015 offensive line unit won the inaugural Joe Moore Award, given to the most outstanding offensive line unit in the nation.

Considered one of the country's elite recruiters and evaluators of talent, Cristobal, during his tenures at both Alabama and Oregon, helped assemble national top-15 recruiting classes eight straight years, with seven of those classes rated in the top 10. The 2018 class at Alabama produced three NFL first-round draft picks. At Oregon, he constructed the Pac-12's top-rated recruiting classes in 2019, 2020, and 2021.

Cristobal's move to Miami brings his coaching career full circle. A son of South Florida who played prep football at nearby Christopher Columbus High School, he launched his coaching career as a graduate assistant coach at Miami from 1998 to 2000 under head coach Butch Davis. He served as an assistant coach at Rutgers from 2001 to 2003 and then returned to Miami as an assistant coach from 2004 to 2006 under head coach Larry Coker.

In 2007, Cristobal was named head coach at Florida International University, becoming the first Cuban American head coach in FBS history. He inherited a struggling FIU program that had been winless the year before his arrival and, in just his fourth season, led it to the Sun Belt Conference title and a bowl-game victory. That season, 2010, he was named Sun Belt Coach of the Year. In total, he coached six seasons at FIU, from 2007 to 2012.

Cristobal, who played his Hurricanes career under coaches Jimmy Johnson and Dennis Erickson, was an All-Big East selection in 1992. He is a double-alumnus of the University of Miami, earning a bachelor's degree in business administration and a master's degree from the University. Cristobal was born in Miami on Sept. 24, 1970. He and his wife, Jessica, married in June 2006 and are the parents of two sons, Mario Mateo and Rocco.
