STARTING FIVE

■ Through the first 13 games this season, the Cardinals have been one of the best free throw shooting teams in the country. They are shooting 77.7 percent (216-for-278) from the line and have shot 80 percent or better in seven of 13 games this year. They are 26th in the NCAA in free throw shooting percentage and are 17th in the country as they average 16.6 free throws made per game. They average 21.4 trips to the line per game, a mark that is 32nd in the country. So far this season, Louisville has more free throws made (216) than their opponents have attempted (194).

■ Louisville is set to open conference play on Sunday against the Hurricanes. Since the Cardinals joined the ACC in the 2014-15 season, they have been the most successful team in conference play over that span. Over the last nine seasons, the Cardinals are 126-24 (.840) in ACC play. The Cardinals are the only team to have a winning percentage at .800 or higher and have seven more wins than the school with the second-highest win total during that span.

■ Louisville has been causing havoc on defense throughout this season. The Cardinals have been one of the best teams in the country in turning opponents over as they rank 27th in the NCAA with 21.2 turnovers forced per game. The Cardinals set a season-high with 31 turnovers forced against NC A&T, the highest in a game since the 2021-22 season. The Cardinals have forced 20 or more turnovers in nine games this season.

■ The Cardinals signed four players to the Class of 2024 during the Early Signing Period. The Cardinals have received commitments from 5-foot-10 guard Tajianna Avant-Roberts (La Jolla, Calif.), 5-foot-9 guard Izela Arenas (Porter Ranch, Calif.), 6-foot-4 forward Anaya Hardy (Detroit, Mich.) and 6-foot-4 forward Isla Juffermans (Coffs Harbour, Australia). The class is ranked No. 16 by ESPN during the Early Signing Period.

■ The 2023-24 Louisville Cardinals already hit the court together this season in the 2023 GLOBE JAM Tournament in Toronto this past July. Louisville won the gold medal after Sydney Taylor hit the game-winning three with under one minute left to take down the hosts, Team Canada. Taylor was named Tournament MVP after leading the Cardinals in scoring over the four games.

ABOUT THE HURRICANES

Miami enters the ACC opener with a 10-1 record after non-conference play and are ranked #23 in the USA Today Coaches poll and are receiving votes in the Associated Press poll. This will be the third of a potential four-straight opponents for the Cardinals that have either been ranked or receiving votes in each of the polls. Miami has one common opponent from the Cardinals during non-conference play. The Hurricanes defeated DePaul 75-70 at home on Dec. 8. Louisville defeated DePaul 81-74 in the home opener on Nov. 12. The Hurricanes rank 18th in the nation and lead the ACC with 29.5 bench points per game. The Hurricanes also lead the ACC and is 37th in country in scoring defense and they limit opponents to 55.0 points per game. The Cardinals most recent game came against Washington and they lead the nation in scoring defense with 45.6 points allowed per game. The Cardinals scored 59 points and gave the 23rd-ranked Huskies their first loss of the season.

■ Series History - This will be the 12th meeting all-time between the two teams and the 11th meeting as conference foes in the ACC. Louisville leads the all-time series 8-3 and are 8-2 over the Hurricanes under head coach Jeff Walz. This will be the fifth meeting down in Coral Gables and the Cardinals are 4-0 against Miami on the road in the series history.

■ Last Meeting (Feb. 23, 2023) - With ACC Tournament seeding on the line in the final week of the regular season, the Louisville women's basketball team (21-9, 12-5) battled out a 71-57 win over Miami (17-11, 10-7) Thursday night at the KFC Yum! Center. Facing their largest deficit of five points with 6:53 left in the second quarter, the Cardinals took the game over with a 21-3 run that spanned into the second half. Louisville's lead grew to 15 points and the Cards never looked back as they won their 12th conference game of the season. Fresh off her seventh career double-double, Liz Dixon tallied 13 points and a game-high 10 rebounds for her second double-double of the season. It is the first time since her freshman season at Georgia Tech that she had back-to-back double doubles. Mykasa Robinson stuffed the stat sheet once again with a career-high 12 points, tied a career high with nine rebounds and led the team with seven assists to go with a block and a steal. Over the past seven games, Robinson is averaging 7.7 points, 7.3 assists, 7.0 rebounds and 2.3 steals per game. She has led the Cardinals in assists in each of the last seven games.

Nina Rickards scored in double figures for the third-straight game with a season-high 16 points and tied for the team lead with five assists. The pair were both named to the Betty Chancellor Classic All-Tournament Team.
- The Cardinals also defeated Liberty, 72-63, on Saturday en route to the tournament championship. The Cardinals outscored the Flames 26-11 in the fourth quarter to get the win.
- Olivia Cochran tallied a double-double (21 pts., 11 rebs.) and Kiki Jefferson scored 20 points and was 8-for-8 from the line in the win over the Flames.
- This is the second tournament championship for the Cardinals after they won the 2023 GLOBE JAM tournament in Toronto this past July.

CARDINALS HIT PROGRAM-BEST MARKS IN WIN OVER BELLARMINE

The Cardinals put together one of the best games of the Jeff Walz era and made some history in their 111-33 win over Bellarmine on Nov. 16.

- The Cardinals set a program record with eight players scoring in double figures (Taylor, 15; Harris, 14; Mobley, 12; Russell, 11; Jefferson, 11; Curry, 11; Cochran, 10 and Istanbuluoglu, 10).
- The 78-point margin of victory was the largest in a game during the Jeff Walz era and the second largest in program history.
- The 111 points scored were the third most in a game in program history.
- Louisville limited Bellarmine to nine points in the first half, the third-fewest points allowed in the first half in program history and the most in a game since 2020.
- The Cardinals tallied 62 points in the paint against Bellarmine. It is the most points in the paint since Dec. 4, 2020, when Louisville recorded 74 against DePaul.
- Freshman Elif Istanbuluoglu recorded a double-double with 10 points and 12 rebounds. She is the first Louisville freshman to record a double-double since Olivia Cochran had 13 points and 15 rebounds against Northwestern in the second round of the 2021 NCAA Tournament.

YEAR 4 FOR OC

Olivia Cochran is set for a big role with the Cardinals in her fourth year with the team. She is the most experienced Cardinal returning from the 2022-23 squad.

- Through the first 13 games this season, Cochran leads the team in rebounds (6.2), steals (1.6) and blocks (0.5) per game and is second on the team in scoring (11.8).
- She led the Cards with 14 points, her team-leading ninth game in double figures, and had seven rebounds in the win over #23 Washington.
- Cochran tallied her second double-double of the season with a team-best 16 points and tied a season high with 11 rebounds against Morehead State.
- She surpassed the 1,000-point mark for her career with 10 points in the home win over Kentucky while adding a team-best eight rebounds and three assists. She is the 33rd player in program history to score 1,000 points or more in their Louisville careers.
- Cochran tied her career high with 21 points and added 11 rebounds against Liberty for her 10th career double-double and the first of the season. She tied a career high when she made nine free throws against the Flames and tied a season high with three steals.
- She was named to the Wooden Award Preseason Top 50 Watch List prior to the matchup with Bellarmine. The Cardinals have had at least one player on the Wooden Watch List in seven of the last eight seasons.
- Cochran tallied a career-high 21 points and led the team with three assists, three steals and added five rebounds in the win over DePaul.
- In the season opener against Cincinnati, Cochran led the team with 10 rebounds and added seven points and tied the team high with three assists. It was her 16th career game with 10 rebounds or more.
- Ahead of the 2023-24 season, Cochran was named to the Naismith Women's Player of the Year Watch List, Katrina McClain Award Watch List and Preseason All-ACC team.
- She led the Cardinals with 6.5 rebounds per game last season and had one of her best career games in the Elite Eight against the national runners-up. Cochran had a career-high 20 points and added 14 points against Iowa. The 14 rebounds were tied for fifth-most in an NCAA Tournament game in program history.
- Cochran helped the Cardinals reach the ACC Tournament Championship Game for the fourth time in program history. She scored in double figures in all three games and was named to the ACC All-Tournament Second Team.
- She was the only player to play and start all 38 games last season and led the team with four double-doubles.

HEAD COACH JEFF WALZ

Head coach Jeff Walz, in his 17th season as a head coach, has compiled a 452-127 record as the Cardinals' leader. Walz and the Cardinals boast quite an astounding résumé that includes 12 trips to the NCAA Sweet 16, eight trips to the Elite Eight, four trips to the final four and two trips to the national title game. Overall, he has compiled a 40-14 record in NCAA Tournament games and ranks eighth all-time and fifth among active coaches with a 74.1 NCAA Tournament winning percentage.

All of this for a program that had just four NCAA Tournament wins and had never reached a Sweet 16 prior to Walz being named head coach.

Walz is the all-time winningest coach in program history and averages 27.6 victories per season. He directed Louisville to a program-record 36 victories in 2017-18 en route to being named ACC Coach of the Year, 34 victories in 2008-09, 33 wins in 2013-14, 32 wins in 2018-19 and 29 wins in 2021-22.

The Cardinals have reached 20 wins 13 consecutive times and they have won at least 20 games in 15 of Walz's 16 seasons. The longest run previously was three, achieved twice, and UofL had just 10 20-win seasons in its 32 previous years.

Walz led Louisville to four consecutive Atlantic Coast Conference regular season titles in 2018, 2019, 2020 and 2021, and over that four-year span, the Cardinals went a combined 122-15, which marked the fewest losses and best winning percentage over a four-year period in program history.

From 2016-2021, he coached the ACC Player of the Year in five of six seasons as Myisha Hines-Allen won the award in 2016, Asia Durr in 2018 and 2019, and Dana Evans in 2020 and 2021. He also coached Angel McCoughtry to Big East Player of the Year honors in 2007.

After being hired as the Cardinals' head coach on March 27, 2007, the Bluegrass State native used little time to make a splash. His first year featured the program's first NCAA Sweet 16 and it culminated with Louisville earning the No. 12 ranking in the final ESPN/USA Today Coaches Poll. For his efforts, Walz was named the WBCA Maggie Dixon Rookie Coach of the Year.

Prior to taking the reins at Louisville, Walz spent five seasons at Maryland, including his final season as the associate head coach in 2006-07. The season prior, he helped lead the Terrapins to a school-record 34 wins and the program's first national title.

Walz has four children: daughter Kaeley, son Jacob, and daughters Lola and Lucy. He married the former Lauren Lueders in September of 2012, and the couple resides in Louisville.

NO STOPPING NINA

Graduate transfer guard Nina Rickards has played well for the Cardinals through the early part of the season, impacting the game in a number of categories.

- Through the first 13 games this season, Rickards leads the team in assists per game (2.9), third in rebounds per game (4.2) and is one of six players to average at least seven points per game (7.0).
- She has tallied two or more assists in 12 of 13 games and scored six or more points in nine of the 13 games this season. She has led the team in assists in eight games this year and has had a season-high five assists twice.
- Rickards tied a career high with five steals and added six points, four rebounds and a team-best two assists in the win over #23 Washington.
- She scored in double figures in her fourth-straight game with 15 points and a team-best three assists and three steals in the road win over #19/20 Ole Miss.
- At the Betty Chancellor Classic in Texas, she scored in double-figures in all three games, including a season-high 16 against Gonzaga with a season-best five assists. She also tallied her first double-double of the season with 12 points and 10 rebounds against Alabama.
- Rickards was one of two Cardinals (Kiki Jefferson) to be named to the Chancellor Classic All-Tournament team.

ALLOWING 59 POINTS OR LESS

The Cardinals have great success when allowing 59 points or less in a game over the past few seasons. Louisville has won 40-straight games when allowing 59 points or less in a game after the 59-51 win over #23 Washington on Dec. 20. The 40-straight wins dates back to the 2020-21 season. Over the past nine seasons, the Cardinals are 147-4 when allowing 59 points or less in a game.

70-PLUS POINTS

The Cardinals are 91-5 in their last 96 games when they have scored 70 points or more, dating back to the 2018-19 season. UofL is 320-28 when surpassing the 70-point plateau under Walz.

The Cardinals shot 58.6 percent (34-58) from the floor in the win over Gonzaga, their second game shooting over 50 percent this season and they are 2-0 in those games. Overall, they boast a 145-3 record when shooting 50 percent or better from the field under Walz.

ONE OF THE BEST IN THE COUNTRY

Louisville has been one of the best teams in the country since the start of the 2017-18 season. The Cardinals have totaled 188 wins and an .847 winning percentage. The wins rank third and the winning percentage ranks fifth in the NCAA during that span.

NON-CONFERENCE SUCCESS

All-time, Walz is 185-35 (.841) against nonconference foes in regular season play. They are 88-12 in non-conference play over the past eight seasons.

SUCCESS AGAINST UNRANKED TEAMS

Louisville is 193-10 in their last 203 games against unranked opponents. From 2015 to 2019, Louisville won 102 consecutive games against teams not ranked in the AP Top 25.

DECEMBER SUCCESS

Similar to the first month of the season, the Cardinals have been very successful under Walz during the month of December. In his 17 seasons, Louisville is 97-16 all-time in December. Over the past six seasons, the Cards are 37-3 in December.

ROAD WARRIORS

The Cardinals are 2-1 on the road this season as conference play begins this season. Last season, the Cardinals were 10-5 in true road games. Since the start of the 2017-18 season, the Cardinals are 64-13 in true road games. Louisville is fourth in the NCAA in road wins and fifth in winning percentage (.831) during that span. The 10 road wins last season were tied for the most in the ACC.

ROSTER BREAKDOWN

Louisville returns four players that played for last year's team, brings in eight newcomers and had 11 departures.

■ Returnees - The Cardinals return two starters from last year's team in senior forward Olivia Cochran and sophomore forward Nyla Harris. Both Harris and Cochran played in all 38 games last season. Joining the two starters are senior guard Merissah Russell and redshirt-sophomore forward Alexia Mobley. Russell played in 37 games last season off the bench and scored six or more points 11 times. She scored eight points on 3-for-6 shooting in the Sweet 16 win over Ole Miss. Mobley made her collegiate debut on the road against Pitt last season. She scored her first collegiate points in the ACC Tournament against Wake Forest.

■ Newcomers - Louisville brings in a slew of transfers along with two international freshmen products for the 2023-24 squad.

■ Senior Eylia Love transferred to Louisville this past January and was with the Cardinals during their Elite Eight run but was not eligible to play. She comes to the Cardinals from Georgia Tech where she played 71 games and made 41 starts over two and a half seasons.

■ Junior guard Jayda Curry joins the Cards after transferring from Cal in April. She was the Pac-12 Freshman of the Year in 2021-22 and was selected to the All-Pac-12 team last season by the media. She has averaged 16.9 points per game over 53 games during her two seasons at Cal.

■ Junior forward Hennie van Schaik joins the Cardinals after transferring from CSU-Bakersfield this past April. van Schaik led Bakersfield in points per game (11.6) and rebounds (7.2) this past season. Over the summer, she competed with Netherlands at the FIBA U20 European Women's Championship.

■ Graduate guard Kiki Jefferson comes to the Cards after playing her first four collegiate seasons at James Madison. She was the 2023 Sun Belt Player of the Year and was the 2023 Sun Belt Tournament Most Outstanding player this past season. She has scored 1,838 points in her 116 career games played and hauled in 815 rebounds.

■ Graduate guard Sydney Taylor played her first four seasons at UMass before transferring to the Cards this past spring. She was an Atlantic 10 All-Conference First Team honoree last season and was one of the best three-point shooters in the country. She made 107 threes, which led the A-10 and ranked seventh nationally.

■ Graduate guard Nina Rickards came to the Cardinals in April after playing her first four years at Florida. She has played 120 collegiate games, the most of any player on the Cardinals roster, and eclipsed the 1,000-point plateau last season with the Gators. In her final year at Florida, she finished second on the team in scoring with a career-best 12.1 points per game and was third in rebounding (4.9) and steals (1.4) per game.

■ Forward Elif Istanbuluoglu comes to the Cardinals from Turkey and signed with Louisville in August. She has played with the Turkish National Team at the U18 and U20 Championships this past summer. Her older sister, Sevval, played collegiately at Siena.

■ Center Eseosa Imafidon comes to the Cardinals after playing for Proctor Academy last season. She will redshirt this upcoming season but is originally from Nigeria. She came to the United States to play high school and prep basketball through the Access2Success Program.

EXPERIENCE AND SCORING NOT A PROBLEM FOR THE CARDS

The Cardinals have an influx of new players to the 2023-24 squad as eight newcomers have joined the squad but the team does not have an issue with experience or scoring. Of the 12 players on the roster, three are graduate students and five are juniors or older.

■ Games on games on games - Louisville has nine players on the roster that have played in 50 or more collegiate games. Four of those players have tallied over 100 career games with Nina Rickards leading the way with 133, followed by Kiki Jefferson at 129, Sydney Taylor at 120 and Olivia Cochran at 113.

■ Scoring Touch - Several Cardinals players have the ability to light it up from the floor. Six different players have tallied at least one 20-point game in their careers and three players have had 10 or more 20-point games. In total, there have been 96 20-point games by Cardinals players in their careers. Kiki Jefferson leads the way with 43, Sydney Taylor is second with 28, Jayda Curry has 16, Nina Rickards has four, Olivia Cochran has three and Eylia Love has two.

CARDS WIN GOLD AT 2023 GLOBL JAM

The 2023-24 Cardinals have already hit the floor together this year as they competed in the 2023 GLOBL JAM Tournament in Toronto back in July. The Cardinals were the representatives from the United States and were joined by national U23 teams from Canada, Puerto Rico and BAL Select.

■ The Cardinals went 2-1 in the pool play games with wins over Puerto Rico (78-55) and BAL Select (72-39) and dropped a close game against Canada (71-74). The Cardinals still advanced to the gold medal game where they had a rematch against Team Canada.

■ Trailing by one with under a minute left, Sydney Taylor knocked down the game-winning three to clinch the win for the Cardinals and claimed the Gold Medal over Canada. Taylor was

PRESEASON HONORS FOR COCHRAN, JEFFERSON AND CURRY

Olivia Cochran, Jayda Curry and Kiki Jefferson all earned preseason honors ahead of the 2023-24 season.

■ Cochran has been named to a few national Player of the Year Watch Lists as the season has gotten underway. Cochran was named to the Wooden Award Preseason Top 50 Watch List on Nov. 14. She was one of two Cardinals to be selected for the Naismith Women's Player of the Year Watch List. She was named to the Preseason All-ACC team for the first time in her career. The Cardinals have had at least one player named to the Preseason All-ACC team since they joined the league in the 2014-15 season. Cochran was also named to the Katrina McClain Award Watch List for the third-straight season. She was one of five players that has been on each of the last three McClain Award Watch Lists.

■ Curry joined Cochran on the Naismith Women's Player of the Year Watch List. She was one of two Cardinals (Kiki Jefferson) that were named to the ACC Newcomer Watch List. She joins the Cardinals from Cal where she was the Pac-12 Freshman of the Year in 2021-22 and was named to the First Team All Pac-12 last season by the media.

■ Jefferson was the second Cardinal with Curry to be named to the ACC Newcomer Watch List. It is the first time since the Cardinals joined the ACC that they had multiple players on the Newcomer Watch List. Jefferson was also named to the Cheryl Miller Award Watch List, that recognizes the best small forward in college basketball. It is the first time Jefferson has made the Miller Award Watch List in her career and the fourth-straight season the Cardinals have had a representative on the list.

LOUISVILLE PICKED FOURTH IN ACC PRESEASON POLL

Louisville was selected to finish fourth overall in the ACC Preseason Poll ahead of the 2023-24 season. Since the Cardinals joined the league in 2014-15, they have finished fourth or higher in the league in every season. The Cardinals are the only team in the ACC to finish fourth or higher in each of the last nine seasons.

PRESEASON AP AND USA TODAY RANKINGS

The Cardinals were ranked 17th in the 2023-24 Associated Press preseason poll and were picked 15th in the USA Today poll. They were one of five ACC teams in the AP poll and were one of seven ACC teams in the USA Today Poll.

■ Preseason Top-20 - It marks the 13th-consecutive season that Louisville has been ranked in the Top-20 of the AP preseason poll and the 14th time in Walz's 17-year tenure. The 13-year streak in the preseason Top-20 is the longest active streak of any ACC team. The second-longest active streak among ACC teams is just two years.

RETURNING STARTERS

The Cards return only two players that have made a start in a Louisville uniform but the pair have combined for 110 starts during their time at Louisville heading into the 2023-24 season. (Cochran - 95, Harris - 15).

MOST UOFL VICTORIES

The Cardinals won 26 games last season and it tied for 11th-most in a single season in program history. The top eight and 13 of the 14 top win totals have come under Walz.

ANOTHER 20/25-WIN SEASON

UoFL defeated Boston College 62-52 on Feb. 19 to reach 20 wins for the 13th-straight season last year and extend the program record. The longest run previously was three, achieved twice. The Cards have won at least 20 games in 15 of Walz's 16 seasons. Prior to Walz's arrival, Louisville had just 10 20-win seasons in its history. The Cardinals picked up their 25th win of the season after the NCAA Tournament second round

HOME COURT ADVANTAGE

Since the KFC Yum! Center opened its doors for the 2010-11 season, the Cardinals have had one of the best home court advantages in the country. Louisville is 199-31 all-time at the KFC Yum! Center over the past 14 seasons. During that span, the Cardinals have won at least 11 home games every season. In six of those seasons, the Cardinals lost one home game or less. The Cardinals program record for consecutive home wins is 21 games, a streak that spanned over three seasons. Over the past seven seasons, Louisville is 94-7 at home.

BEST FANS IN THE COUNTRY

Last season, Louisville averaged 8,779 fans at the KFC Yum! Center, which topped the ACC and ranked fifth in the country. The 8,779 fans per game would have rank seventh in ACC men's basketball last season. For 13 straight-seasons, they have led the ACC and ranked in the top five in the country in attendance. They had a season-high 12,015 fans vs. Notre Dame last year.

REPRESENTING THEIR COUNTRIES

The Cardinals had a number of players represent their countries at international competitions this past summer.

■ USA - Following her MVP performance at the 2023 GLOBL JAM Tournament in Toronto, Sydney Taylor was added to the USA 3x3 U23 Nations League Team for multiple stops throughout the summer. She made her debut with Team USA in Chile as the team won five of the six single-day tournaments during that stop. Later on, she played with Team USA in Quebec before being named to the USA Nations League Final team that competed in Mongolia back in September.

■ Netherlands - Hennie van Schaik competed with Team Netherlands in the 2023 FIBA U20 European Championships in late July and August. She played in four total games as the Netherlands finished third overall at the event.

■ Turkey - Elif Istanbuluoglu played with Turkey at the 2023 FIBA U18 and U20 Championships this past summer before ultimately committing to the Cards. At the U18 Championships, she averaged 11.0 points and 10.7 rebounds per game as Turkey reached the quarterfinals.

NCAA TOURNAMENT SUCCESS

Louisville has been one of the most consistent teams in the NCAA Tournament during Jeff Walz's tenure.

■ They are the only team in the country that have been to each of the last five Elite Eights.

■ They are just one of three teams (UConn, South Carolina) with an active Sweet 16 streak of six years or longer.

■ Louisville is one of five programs (UConn, Stanford, South Carolina, Notre Dame) to make four or more Final Fours in the last 15 seasons.

WALZ IN THE BIG DANCE

Walz boasts a 40-14 record in NCAA Tournament games. He is eighth all-time in winning percentage and fifth among active coaches. He has directed UofL to a pair of national runner-up finishes (2009, 2013), four Final Fours (2009, 2013, 2018, 2022), eight Elite Eights (2009, 2013, 2014, 2018, 2019, 2021, 2022, 2023), 12 trips to the Sweet 16 and 14 NCAA Tournaments. Walz is one of five active head coaches to make four or more Final Fours.
