HEAD COACH KEN MASUHR

FIRST SEASON | STOCKTON, 2005

Career Record: 3-3-1 | UM Record: 3-3-1 | ACC Record: 0-1-0

Ken Masuhr was announced as the sixth head coach in program history Tuesday, Dec. 5, as made public by Vice President/Director of Athletics Dan Radakovich. Masuhr (pronounced Muh-suhr) comes to Coral Gables after spending nine seasons at Vanderbilt, the past six as associate head coach and recruiting coordinator.

During Masuhr's tenure in Nashville on head coach Darren Ambrose's staff, the Commodores captured five NCAA Tournament berths as well as an SEC regular season crown in 2018, an SEC East Division title in 2019 and an SEC Tournament championship in 2020. Vanderbilt defeated 16 ranked teams over that stretch after registering just eight wins over ranked teams in program history prior to Ambrose and Masuhr's arrival in 2015.

Masuhr focused on the Commodores' defensive unit and developed some of the stingiest back lines in the SEC while also tutoring players like Myra Konte, who became the first Vanderbilt player selected in the NWSL Draft in January 2021 when she was picked 30th overall by the North Carolina Courage. Masuhr helped the Commodores recruit an All-SEC Freshman honoree in each of his seasons in Nashville.

In 2022, Masuhr helped Vanderbilt earn its fifth NCAA Tournament bid in six seasons and defeat Clemson in the first round. Vanderbilt's 2020 SEC Tournament title was the first tournament title for the program since 1994, and its 14 goals during the tournament set a conference record. Masuhr and the Commodores rose to No. 4 in the nation — their highest ranking in program history — and earned their first-ever NCAA Tournament seed at No. 16.

While winning the SEC East in 2019, Masuhr's stout defense only allowed 13 goals all season – good for the second-best mark in program history. Vanderbilt also posted 11 shutouts, making that the third-best mark in program history. In 2018, the Commodores reached the NCAA Tournament and hosted a postseason game for the first time since 2005. The 2017 campaign was a breakthrough season for Masuhr and the Commodores as VU made its first NCAA Tournament since the 2006 season and won the program's first NCAA Tournament match since 1998, holding opponents to one goal or fewer in 17 of 22 games.

Prior to arriving in Nashville, Masuhr spent four seasons at Penn on Ambrose's staff. The Quakers never allowed more than 19 goals over those four seasons, and the team led the nation in shutout percentage and set a program record by allowing just seven goals in 2011. In 2013, Penn recorded 12 shutouts, yielded just eight goals and went 12-1-4, setting a program record for fewest losses in a season.

Masuhr joined Penn from Monmouth, where he spent two seasons as an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator with the Hawks. In his first season, Monmouth won the Northeast Conference (NEC) Tournament championship and advanced to the first round of NCAAs.

Masuhr graduated from Richard Stockton with a bachelor's degree in psychology, and he also holds a Master's of Public Administration degree from Kean University. As a coach, Masuhr has an "A" license from the United States Soccer Federation (USSF) as well as the Premier Diploma from the National Soccer Coaches Association of America (NSCAA).

Masuhr and his wife Megan, the varsity girls soccer coach at the University School of Nashville, have two children, Landon and Miller.

After nearly pulling off a massive victory over then No. 2 UVA, the University of Miami soccer team will return to the field Thursday night, as they are set for another ACC showdown against SMU.

The 2024 campaign marks SMU's inaugural season as a member of the ACC, and Thursday night's match will be the first meeting between the two programs throughout history.

Miami is coming off a hard-fought loss to previously undefeated Virginia, falling to the Cavaliers by a final score of 3-1. The Canes fell behind early, conceding a goal in the 8th minute of the match.

Soon after, UVA was awarded a penalty kick with the opportunity to take a commanding 2-0 lead over Miami early in the match. Goalkeeper Gray Willson made a sensational save on the penalty kick, keeping UVA out of the net for a second time, and shifting the momentum of the match in Miami's favor.

The Canes began to elevate the intensity of their play and put significant pressure on the Cavaliers. Miami broke through in the 41st minute, as Tori Grambo played a beautiful ball into the box off a corner kick, and Crosby Nicholson came soaring in and found the back of the net on a perfect header. The assist was Grambo's second of the season, and the goal marked the first one of Nicholson's career.

Miami and Virginia went back and forth throughout the second half, with each team managing to create quality offensive opportunities.

In the 76th minute, UVA found themselves in the midst of a counterattack with a three on two advantage over the Canes. After a pass was deflected, a Virginia player managed to corral the ball and score, as they retook the lead. Two minutes later, the Cavaliers scored again, as they took a 3-1 advantage and went on to earn the victory.

Miami had an impressive offensive performance, as they recorded 12 shots throughout the match. Virginia had only conceded one goal across seven games prior to the contest, as Nicholson's goal was just the second goal scored on the Cavaliers all season.

The Canes will now aim to rebound with a victory on Thursday night against a high-powered offensive team in SMU.

SCOUTING THE MUSTANGS

SMU enters Thursday night's match with an overall record of 6-3, including a perfect mark of 2-0 in conference play. The Mustangs are currently on a two-game winning streak, as they earned home victories over Syracuse and Boston College last weekend to open ACC competition.

The Mustangs have been stellar offensively this season, as they rank fifth in the conference in goals scored (23) and sixth in goals per game (2.6).

As exceptional as they have been on offense, the Mustangs have struggled at times defensively. SMU has conceded 12 goals in nine games, marking the most goals allowed by any team in the ACC.

Individually, Eliana Salama and Liz Eddy have been sensational for the Mustangs. Salama, a junior forward, has scored four goals and recorded four assists, while compiling 30 shots on the season, 14 of which were on frame. Eddy, a freshman forward, has also scored four goals, in addition to tallying two assists throughout the season so far.

CANES CAPTAINS

- Three Hurricanes will serve as team captains for the upcoming season Adrianna Serna, Julia Edwards and Reese Wheeler.
- > Serna has played in 39 games for her career, starting 18. The defender has scored two goals and assisted on another two across 1,910 minutes of time on the field.
- > Edwards enters the season as a graduate student, having earned four letters at the University of Miami with 55 games logged and another 32 started. Edwards started 10 games in each of the last two seasons, logging 2,788 minutes for her career.
- > Wheeler is a redshirt-sophomore, having played in 17 games while starting eight contests. She won the game against Louisville a year ago with a game-winning goal in the 90th minute.

NEW LOOK CANES

- The Hurricanes brought in 17 newcomers ahead of this season, nine transfer student-athletes and eight freshmen.
- Six of the nine transfers entered Miami as graduate students, while Zoe Shepherd joins the team as a junior and both Crosby Nicholson and Maddie Landers will start their sophomore year at Miami.
- Three of the eight freshmen hail from the state of Florida, while the other five are spread across the nation from Maine all the way to California.
