HEAD COACH KEN MASUHR

FIRST SEASON | STOCKTON, 2005

Career Record: 1-2-1 | UM Record: 1-2-1 | ACC Record: 0-0-0

Ken Masuhr was announced as the sixth head coach in program history Tuesday, Dec. 5, as made public by Vice President/Director of Athletics Dan Radakovich. Masuhr (pronounced Muh-suhr) comes to Coral Gables after spending nine seasons at Vanderbilt, the past six as associate head coach and recruiting coordinator.

During Masuhr's tenure in Nashville on head coach Darren Ambrose's staff, the Commodores captured five NCAA Tournament berths as well as an SEC regular season crown in 2018, an SEC East Division title in 2019 and an SEC Tournament championship in 2020. Vanderbilt defeated 16 ranked teams over that stretch after registering just eight wins over ranked teams in program history prior to Ambrose and Masuhr's arrival in 2015.

Masuhr focused on the Commodores' defensive unit and developed some of the stingiest back lines in the SEC while also tutoring players like Myra Konte, who became the first Vanderbilt player selected in the NWSL Draft in January 2021 when she was picked 30th overall by the North Carolina Courage. Masuhr helped the Commodores recruit an All-SEC Freshman honoree in each of his seasons in Nashville.

In 2022, Masuhr helped Vanderbilt earn its fifth NCAA Tournament bid in six seasons and defeat Clemson in the first round. Vanderbilt's 2020 SEC Tournament title was the first tournament title for the program since 1994, and its 14 goals during the tournament set a conference record. Masuhr and the Commodores rose to No. 4 in the nation — their highest ranking in program history — and earned their first-ever NCAA Tournament seed at No. 16.

While winning the SEC East in 2019, Masuhr's stout defense only allowed 13 goals all season — good for the second-best mark in program history. Vanderbilt also posted 11 shutouts, making that the third-best mark in program history. In 2018, the Commodores reached the NCAA Tournament and hosted a postseason game for the first time since 2005. The 2017 campaign was a breakthrough season for Masuhr and the Commodores as VU made its first NCAA Tournament since the 2006 season and won the program's first NCAA Tournament match since 1998, holding opponents to one goal or fewer in 17 of 22 games.

Prior to arriving in Nashville, Masuhr spent four seasons at Penn on Ambrose's staff. The Quakers never allowed more than 19 goals over those four seasons, and the team led the nation in shutout percentage and set a program record by allowing just seven goals in 2011. In 2013, Penn recorded 12 shutouts, yielded just eight goals and went 12-1-4, setting a program record for fewest losses in a season.

Masuhr joined Penn from Monmouth, where he spent two seasons as an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator with the Hawks. In his first season, Monmouth won the Northeast Conference (NEC) Tournament championship and advanced to the first round of NCAAs.

Masuhr graduated from Richard Stockton with a bachelor's degree in psychology, and he also holds a Master's of Public Administration degree from Kean University. As a coach, Masuhr has an "A" license from the United States Soccer Federation (USSF) as well as the Premier Diploma from the National Soccer Coaches Association of America (NSCAA).

Masuhr and his wife Megan, the varsity girls soccer coach at the University School of Nashville, have two children, Landon and Miller.

PREVIEW

Coming off their first victory of the young season, an impressive 2-1 win over SEC-foe Missouri in which they dominated the majority of the match, the University of Miami Soccer team will host FIU Sunday evening.

The Hurricanes will aim to secure their second consecutive victory, which would mark the first time that the program has won back-to-back matches since September 2022. Miami will also aim to avenge a narrow road loss to FIU last season.

The Canes have been highly successful against FIU throughout history, as they own a record of 11-5-1 against the Panthers in the all-time series. Miami has been particularly successful at Cobb Stadium, compiling a record of 7-3 at home against FIU, including winning the past three matches in Coral Gables.

Miami is coming off an impressive victory over Missouri, in which they never trailed throughout the match. The Canes took complete control of the match midway through the first half, and after a number of opportunities, freshman Giovana Canali broke through for Miami with a beautiful left-footed goal right before halftime. Canali has now scored two of the Canes' three goals this season, as she continues to impress with her offensive skills.

Early in the second half, Miami extended their lead over Missouri with another goal. After earning a free kick just outside the right side of the box, Tori Grambo placed a dangerous ball right in front of the goal that bounced off a Missouri defender and went into the back of the net. Grambo has been sensational on the back line for the Canes this season, as she has been an incredibly reliable and consistent presence leading the defense for Miami.

The Canes conceded a goal with just over 20 minutes to go in the match; however, Miami managed to regroup and showed excellent poise, as they held on to earn the 2-1 victory over the Tigers.

Goalkeeper Claireese Foley posted three saves, including two critical ones in the second half to help Miami secure the victory.

Miami will now turn their attention to a high-powered FIU team that has had an impressive start to the 2024 campaign.

SCOUTING THE PANTHERS

FIU enters Sunday night's match with a record of 3-2, most recently falling on the road to Stetson this past Thursday by a final score of 1-0.

The Panthers have been stellar offensively this season, as they have scored eight goals in five matches, and are averaging 12.6 shots per game, while placing 52.4 percent of their shot attempts on frame.

Individually, senior forward Nikole Solis has been exceptional so far for FIU, as she ranks first on the team and tied for first in Conference-USA in goals scored this season with three. Sophomore forward Montelene Dymond has also had an impressive start to the 2024 campaign, netting two goals so far for the Panthers. In the net, sophomore Valery Restrepo has started all five games for FIU and she has compiled 11 saves, while earning one shutout.

Miami will aim to slow down the Panthers' offensive attack and put together another quality performance, as they seek to secure a second consecutive victory.

CANES CAPTAINS

- Three Hurricanes will serve as team captains for the upcoming season – Adrianna Serna, Julia Edwards and Reese Wheeler.

- > Serna has played in 39 games for her career, starting 18. The defender has scored two goals and assisted on another two across 1,910 minutes of time on the field.

- > Edwards enters the season as a graduate student, having earned four letters at the University of Miami with 55 games logged and another 32 started. Edwards started 10 games in each of the last two seasons, logging 2,788 minutes for her career.

- > Wheeler is a redshirt-sophomore, having played in 17 games while starting eight contests. She won the game against Louisville a year ago with a game-winning goal in the 90th minute.

NEW LOOK CANES

- The Hurricanes brought in 17 newcomers ahead of this season, nine transfer student-athletes and eight freshmen.

- Six of the nine transfers entered Miami as graduate students, while Zoe Shepherd joins the team as a junior and both Crosby Nicholson and Maddie Landers will start their sophomore year at Miami.

- Three of the eight freshmen hail from the state of Florida, while the other five are spread across the nation from Maine all the way to California.
