HEAD COACH KEN MASUHR

FIRST SEASON | STOCKTON, 2005

Career Record: 3-5-2 | UM Record: 3-5-2 | ACC Record: 0-3-1

Ken Masuhr was announced as the sixth head coach in program history Tuesday, Dec. 5, as made public by Vice President/Director of Athletics Dan Radakovich. Masuhr (pronounced Muh-suhr) comes to Coral Gables after spending nine seasons at Vanderbilt, the past six as associate head coach and recruiting coordinator.

During Masuhr's tenure in Nashville on head coach Darren Ambrose's staff, the Commodores captured five NCAA Tournament berths as well as an SEC regular season crown in 2018, an SEC East Division title in 2019 and an SEC Tournament championship in 2020. Vanderbilt defeated 16 ranked teams over that stretch after registering just eight wins over ranked teams in program history prior to Ambrose and Masuhr's arrival in 2015.

Masuhr focused on the Commodores' defensive unit and developed some of the stingiest back lines in the SEC while also tutoring players like Myra Konte, who became the first Vanderbilt player selected in the NWSL Draft in January 2021 when she was picked 30th overall by the North Carolina Courage. Masuhr helped the Commodores recruit an All-SEC Freshman honoree in each of his seasons in Nashville.

In 2022, Masuhr helped Vanderbilt earn its fifth NCAA Tournament bid in six seasons and defeat Clemson in the first round. Vanderbilt's 2020 SEC Tournament title was the first tournament title for the program since 1994, and its 14 goals during the tournament set a conference record. Masuhr and the Commodores rose to No. 4 in the nation — their highest ranking in program history — and earned their first-ever NCAA Tournament seed at No. 16.

While winning the SEC East in 2019, Masuhr's stout defense only allowed 13 goals all season — good for the second-best mark in program history. Vanderbilt also posted 11 shutouts, making that the third-best mark in program history. In 2018, the Commodores reached the NCAA Tournament and hosted a postseason game for the first time since 2005. The 2017 campaign was a breakthrough season for Masuhr and the Commodores as VU made its first NCAA Tournament since the 2006 season and won the program's first NCAA Tournament match since 1998, holding opponents to one goal or fewer in 17 of 22 games.

Prior to arriving in Nashville, Masuhr spent four seasons at Penn on Ambrose's staff. The Quakers never allowed more than 19 goals over those four seasons, and the team led the nation in shutout percentage and set a program record by allowing just seven goals in 2011. In 2013, Penn recorded 12 shutouts, yielded just eight goals and went 12-1-4, setting a program record for fewest losses in a season.

Masuhr joined Penn from Monmouth, where he spent two seasons as an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator with the Hawks. In his first season, Monmouth won the Northeast Conference (NEC) Tournament championship and advanced to the first round of NCAAs.

Masuhr graduated from Richard Stockton with a bachelor's degree in psychology, and he also holds a Master's of Public Administration degree from Kean University. As a coach, Masuhr has an "A" license from the United States Soccer Federation (USSF) as well as the Premier Diploma from the National Soccer Coaches Association of America (NSCAA).

Masuhr and his wife Megan, the varsity girls soccer coach at the University School of Nashville, have two children, Landon and Miller.

PREVIEW

Coming off a narrow 1-0 defeat to No. 6 Stanford Thursday evening, the University of Miami soccer team Following a two-game road swing on the west coast, the University of Miami Soccer team will return home to host Virginia Tech Thursday evening at 8 p.m. in a pivotal ACC matchup.

The Canes suffered back-to-back defeats to No. 6 Stanford and California this past weekend, as they will aim to bounce back and earn a critical victory over the Hokies on Thursday.

Miami lost to No. 6 Stanford in a tightly contested match this past Thursday by a final score of 1-0. The Hurricanes received a tremendous performance from freshman goalkeeper Gray Willson who recorded a career-high nine saves throughout the match. Offensively, Miami started out strong, recording two shots and earning three corner kicks in the first nine minutes of the match. The Canes were unable to get much going offensively after that until the final 15 minutes of the game, when they took control of the contest and recorded two more shots; however, they were unable to find the equalizer.

On Sunday, the Canes nearly left Berkeley with a result, in large part to a sensational performance from Giovana Canali; but, Cal managed to score in the 77th minute to take a 3-2 lead that they would not relinquish.

Canali put together another outstanding performance, recording seven shots, five of which were on frame, and the freshman scored two goals. Canali has now recorded seven goals on the season, including four in ACC play. She ranks tied for fifth in conference in goals this season (7), tied for eighth in shots per game (3.5), and eighth in shots on goal per game (1.8). In conference play only, Canali is first in shots on goal per game (2.25), tied for first in goals (4), and third in shots per game (4.0).

Kyla Gallagher and Ciara Alarcon each recorded an assist in the match against Cal, as they continue to make a significant impact on the Miami offense. Gallagher's assist was her second of the season, both of which have come in conference play, and she is currently tied for second in the league in assists during ACC play. Alarcon's assist was her third of the season, and she currently ranks first on the team in that category.

The Canes will aim to put together a complete performance both offensively and defensively Thursday night, as they seek to earn a massive victory over Virginia Tech and build significant momentum heading into the final stretch of the season.

SCOUTING THE HOKIES

Virginia Tech enters Thursday night's contest with an overall record of 8-3-1. The Hokies have won three of their past four games, as they own a record of 3-1 in ACC play.

Virginia Tech most recently earned a dominant 5-1 victory over Louisville last Thursday.

The Hokies have received offensive production from a variety of different players this season, as they have four different players who have scored at least three goals, and 12 different players who have scored at least one goal.

Junior forward Taylor Price has had a highly impressive season so far, as she ranks first on the team in points (10), first in goals (4), and tied for second in assists (2).

Natalie Mitchell, Anna Weir, and Allie George have also had noteworthy campaigns so far. Mitchell, a junior forward, has scored three goals and tallied a team-high three assists. Weir has compiled three goals and two assists, while George has recorded three goals and one assist.

Senior goalkeeper Lauren Hargrove has started 11 games in the net for the Hokies, earning four shutouts and recording 28 saves throughout the season. Hargrove has a goals against average of .837, good for ninth best in the ACC.

CANES CAPTAINS

- Three Hurricanes will serve as team captains for the upcoming season – Adrianna Serna, Julia Edwards and Reese Wheeler.

- > Serna has played in 39 games for her career, starting 18. The defender has scored two goals and assisted on another two across 1,910 minutes of time on the field.

- > Edwards enters the season as a graduate student, having earned four letters at the University of Miami with 55 games logged and another 32 started. Edwards started 10 games in each of the last two seasons, logging 2,788 minutes for her career.

- > Wheeler is a redshirt-sophomore, having played in 17 games while starting eight contests. She won the game against Louisville a year ago with a game-winning goal in the 90th minute.

NEW LOOK CANES

- The Hurricanes brought in 17 newcomers ahead of this season, nine transfer student-athletes and eight freshmen.

- Six of the nine transfers entered Miami as graduate students, while Zoe Shepherd joins the team as a junior and both Crosby Nicholson and Maddie Landers will start their sophomore year at Miami.

- Three of the eight freshmen hail from the state of Florida, while the other five are spread across the nation from Maine all the way to California.
