HEAD COACH KEN MASUHR

FIRST SEASON | STOCKTON, 2005

Career Record: 4-6-4 | UM Record: 4-6-4 | ACC Record: 0-4-3

Ken Masuhr was announced as the sixth head coach in program history Tuesday, Dec. 5, as made public by Vice President/Director of Athletics Dan Radakovich. Masuhr (pronounced Muh-suhr) comes to Coral Gables after spending nine seasons at Vanderbilt, the past six as associate head coach and recruiting coordinator.

During Masuhr's tenure in Nashville on head coach Darren Ambrose's staff, the Commodores captured five NCAA Tournament berths as well as an SEC regular season crown in 2018, an SEC East Division title in 2019 and an SEC Tournament championship in 2020. Vanderbilt defeated 16 ranked teams over that stretch after registering just eight wins over ranked teams in program history prior to Ambrose and Masuhr's arrival in 2015.

Masuhr focused on the Commodores' defensive unit and developed some of the stingiest back lines in the SEC while also tutoring players like Myra Konte, who became the first Vanderbilt player selected in the NWSL Draft in January 2021 when she was picked 30th overall by the North Carolina Courage. Masuhr helped the Commodores recruit an All-SEC Freshman honoree in each of his seasons in Nashville.

In 2022, Masuhr helped Vanderbilt earn its fifth NCAA Tournament bid in six seasons and defeat Clemson in the first round. Vanderbilt's 2020 SEC Tournament title was the first tournament title for the program since 1994, and its 14 goals during the tournament set a conference record. Masuhr and the Commodores rose to No. 4 in the nation — their highest ranking in program history — and earned their first-ever NCAA Tournament seed at No. 16.

While winning the SEC East in 2019, Masuhr's stout defense only allowed 13 goals all season – good for the second-best mark in program history. Vanderbilt also posted 11 shutouts, making that the third-best mark in program history. In 2018, the Commodores reached the NCAA Tournament and hosted a postseason game for the first time since 2005. The 2017 campaign was a breakthrough season for Masuhr and the Commodores as VU made its first NCAA Tournament since the 2006 season and won the program's first NCAA Tournament match since 1998, holding opponents to one goal or fewer in 17 of 22 games.

Prior to arriving in Nashville, Masuhr spent four seasons at Penn on Ambrose's staff. The Quakers never allowed more than 19 goals over those four seasons, and the team led the nation in shutout percentage and set a program record by allowing just seven goals in 2011. In 2013, Penn recorded 12 shutouts, yielded just eight goals and went 12-1-4, setting a program record for fewest losses in a season.

Masuhr joined Penn from Monmouth, where he spent two seasons as an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator with the Hawks. In his first season, Monmouth won the Northeast Conference (NEC) Tournament championship and advanced to the first round of NCAAs.

Masuhr graduated from Richard Stockton with a bachelor's degree in psychology, and he also holds a Master's of Public Administration degree from Kean University. As a coach, Masuhr has an "A" license from the United States Soccer Federation (USSF) as well as the Premier Diploma from the National Soccer Coaches Association of America (NSCAA).

Masuhr and his wife Megan, the varsity girls soccer coach at the University School of Nashville, have two children, Landon and Miller.

The University of Miami soccer team is set to begin a two-game road swing Thursday night, as they will take on Syracuse at 7 p.m.

The Hurricanes are coming off an impressive 0-0 draw against Pittsburgh last Thursday in which they limited the Panthers to zero shots on target to earn the shutout. After earning just one shutout in their first 10 games of the season, the Canes have now earned three clean sheets in their past four matches, as they significantly elevated their defensive play.

Miami put together a brilliant effort in the draw against Pittsburgh, as they held the Panthers scoreless when they entered the match as the third highest scoring team in the ACC.

Sophomore defender Emilie McCartney was recognized as the ACC Defensive Player of the Week on Tuesday for her effort anchoring the Canes' back line against Pitt. McCartney has been sensational for Miami this season, as she has started all 14 matches this year and played the maximum possible 1,260 minutes throughout the campaign.

Although Miami failed to score, the Canes recorded nine shots, five of which were on target against Pitt. Giovana Canali led the way with three shots, two of which were on frame. Canali has had a tremendous freshman campaign for the Canes, as she ranks first on the team and tied for sixth in the ACC in goals (8), while also ranking fourth in the conference in shots (52), and tied for third in shots on goal (29). Canali also ranks second among all freshmen in the ACC in goals this season.

Miami has struggled on the road this year, as they own a record of 0-4-1 away from home and seek their first true road victory on Thursday night.

SCOUTING THE ORANGE

Syracuse enters the contest with an overall record of 6-8-2, including a mark of 0-7-1 in ACC play. Syracuse boasts a trio of dynamic players that have led the way for the Orange throughout the season in Erin Flurey, Ashley Rauch, and Ava Uribe.

Flurey, a redshirt-junior forward, is first on the team in shots (35) and tied for first on the team in goals (4), while also recording one assist this season. Fellow redshirt-junior forward Rauch has made a formidable duo up top, as she is tied with Flurey this season with a team-high four goals. Like Flurey, Rauch has also recorded one assist throughout the year. Uribe has served as a viable playmaker, as she ranks first on the team with four assists and has also tallied two goals.

CANES CAPTAINS

- Three Hurricanes will serve as team captains for this season Adrianna Serna, Julia Edwards and Reese Wheeler.
- > Serna has played in 39 games for her career, starting 18. The defender has scored two goals and assisted on another two across 1,910 minutes of time on the field.
- > Edwards enters the season as a graduate student, having earned four letters at the University of Miami with 55 games logged and another 32 started. Edwards started 10 games in each of the last two seasons, logging 2,788 minutes for her career.
- > Wheeler is a redshirt-sophomore, having played in 17 games while starting eight contests. She won the game against Louisville a year ago with a game-winning goal in the 90th minute.

NEW LOOK CANES

- The Hurricanes brought in 17 newcomers ahead of this season, nine transfer studentathletes and eight freshmen.
- Six of the nine transfers entered Miami as graduate students, while Zoe Shepherd joins the team as a junior and both Crosby Nicholson and Maddie Landers will start their sophomore year at Miami.
- Three of the eight freshmen hail from the state of Florida, while the other five are spread across the nation from Maine all the way to California.
