HONORARY CAPTAINS:

Bethune-Cookman (Sep. 7) DB Mike Rumph

An exceptional cornerback who went on to become a first round pick of the San Francisco 49ers, Mike Rumph was overlooked by many observers because opponents seldom threw his way. On the rare occasions when opponents challenged Rumph, success was hard to come by. Rumph was the key figure in one of the nation's most important plays of the 2001 college football season when he deflected a Boston College pass at the Miami five-yard line in the closing seconds of the game into the hands of teammate Matt Walters, and the rest is history. Rumph finished a standout career with 167 tackles, six career interceptions (including a career-high of four in 1999) and multiple All-BIG EAST selections. Rumph, who has been on the Miami Hurricanes football staff since 2016, started 40 games at cornerback for UM, including 37 in a row to end a career that culminated with Miami's fifth national title.

- The Hurricanes carry a 7-0 record all-time vs the Wildcats into Saturday's matchup in Miami Gardens. Bethune-Cookman opened its 2025 season in Miami, falling to FIU, 42-6, on Saturday, Aug. 30 in its season opener.

- Miami head football coach Mario Cristobal and Bethune-Cookman head coach Raymond Woodie, Jr., spent one season (2017) on the same coaching staff at Oregon. Cristobal was co-offensive coordinator / offensive line coach, while Woodie was the Ducks' special teams coordinator and outside linebackers coach.

- Miami is 26-0 against FCS opponents over the past 40 seasons, winning each game by at least 20 points. That is the longest such winning streak by any FBS team against FCS schools over that same period.

A LOOK BACK: MIAMI TOPS IRISH IN TOP-10 CLASH

- In a heavyweight matchup of two top-10 opponents, the then-No. 10 Miami Hurricanes topped then-No. 6 Notre Dame, 27-24, at Hard Rock Stadium on Aug. 31. A sold-out crowd of 66,793 watched a thriller unfold in the opener.

- The Hurricanes were up 21-7, but a spirited fourth-quarter comeback from the Fighting Irish saw the game tied, 24-24, with 3:21 remaining. Miami marched down the field on a 10-play drive from there, with K Carter Davis connecting on a 47-yard field goal with 1:04 remaining in the game to help set up the victory.

- The win over a top-10 opponent was UM's first since Nov. 11, 2017 - also vs. Notre Dame (then-No. 3), 41-8.

- QB Carson Beck was impressive in his UM debut, finishing 20-for-30 for 205 yards, two touchdowns and zero interceptions. Freshman WR Malachi Toney was Beck's top target, catching a team-high six passes for 82 yards and his first career touchdown. Veteran WR CJ Daniels had a magnificent one-handed touchdown grab.

- The outrushed the Irish, 119-93, and outgained the Irish, 324-314 in the game. Miami's defense forced two turnovers on a fumble recovered by DB Jakobe Thomas and an interception from DL Rueben Bain, Jr. Bain and fellow DL Akheem Mesidor turned in dominant efforts, combining for 11 tackles and two sacks (1.5 from Mesidor).

- The Hurricanes continued their unbeaten run of home openers at Hard Rock Stadium, where they moved in 2008. Miami is now 18-0 in openers at the facility, and have not lost a home opener since 2006. Miami's last game against a ranked opponent in a home opener was 2011 vs. then-No.17/16 Ohio State, 24-6 (Sept. 17, 2011).

CANES RISE TO #5/#7 IN THE WEEK TWO POLLS

- Following its impressive victory over the Fighting Irish, Miami rose to No. 5 in the Associated Press poll and No. 7 in the Coaches Poll released on Tuesday, Sept. 2. Miami was ranked No. 10 in both preseason polls.

- The Hurricanes opened the 2024 season at No. 19 in the poll and found their name in every top 25 ranking of the season. The Hurricanes reached as high as No. 4 (after improving to 9-0 to start the year) and ended No. 18 in the final poll, its highest final ranking since being ranked No. 13 to end 2017. Mario Cristobal's highest-ranked finish as a head coach came in the final 2019 polls, when Oregon was No. 5/5.

- The Hurricanes were not ranked in the 2023 preseason polls, but were ranked in the 2022 preseason polls in Cristobal's first year as head coach, checking in at No. 16 in that year's coaches poll and No. 17 in the AP top 25.

FOLLOW THE BLUEPRINT: MILESTONES HIT IN 2024

- Miami reached a number of notable milestones in 2024, its third season under Mario Cristobal. The Hurricanes managed only the second 10-win season in the last 20 years at Miami (2017), finished undefeated at home for the first time since 2002 and ended the season inside the Associated Press Top 20 at No. 18 - only its second finish that high since 2005.

- The Hurricanes had 10 NFL Combine invites and its seven NFL Draft picks ranked sixth-most nationally. The Hurricanes had just one NFL Draft pick in the draft prior to Cristobal taking the helm, in 2022 - and it came in the seventh round (Jon Ford, Green Bay Packers).

- QB Cam Ward, the winner of the Davey O'Brien Award and Manning Award as the nation's top quarterback, was selected with the No. 1 overall pick by the Tennessee Titans - it was the third No. 1 overall pick in program history.

- The Hurricanes, who led the nation in yards per game and points per game, were one of just three teams in the nation to have a 4,000 yard passer (Cam Ward), a 1,000-yard rusher (Damien Martinez) and a 1,000-yard receiver (Xavier Restrepo). The other two teams were Ohio State and Syracuse.

BECK ARRIVES, RECOGNIZED FOR GAME VS. IRISH

• For the second straight year, the Miami Hurricanes added one of the top quarterbacks in the country in the January transfer window, signing QB Carson Beck after an eye-popping career at Georgia, where he finished 24-3 as a starting quarterback with the Bulldogs. He threw for 7,912 yards, 58 touchdowns and 20 interceptions at UGA.

• He was named to the Davey O'Brien Great 8 after a 205-yard, two-touchdown win in his debut vs. Notre Dame. Against Notre Dame, Beck had his 13th career game with multiple passing touchdowns and zero interceptions. That is the second most among active FBS players behind Vanderbilt QB Diego Pavia (19).

• Beck, who assumed starting responsibilities at Georgia in 2023 as a fourth-year redshirt sophomore, led the Bulldogs to a 13-1 record and a win in the 2023 Capital One Orange Bowl, finishing just shy of a College Football Playoff berth in the four-team field. He was a member of back-to-back national championship teams as a backup.

• In his second year as the team's starting quarterback in 2024, Beck led Georgia to the College Football Playoff with an 11-2 record. Beck was hurt in the 2024 SEC Championship Game against Texas, which Georgia won, 22-19. He finished 2024 with 3,485 yards, a 64.7% completion percentage, 28 touchdowns and 12 interceptions.

• Beck underwent surgery to repair the ulnar collateral ligament (UCL) in his right elbow after the SEC Championship Game. Though he did not throw during all of spring practice at Miami after enrolling in January while completing his rehab, he was cleared for full participation shortly thereafter and took part in all summer team activity.

Opportunity Beckons: Carson Beck, Hurricanes looking for breakthrough 2025 (excerpts)

by: Jordan McPherson, Miami Herald - August 15, 2025

"New Miami Hurricanes quarterback Carson Beck has his share of tattoos covering both of his arms and his left leg. Two in particular stand out to him.

The first is a quote on his right elbow: 'Why do we fall?' It comes from the movie 'Batman Begins.' The answer to that question, as Thomas Wayne says to his son Bruce: 'So we can learn to pick ourselves up.' The second, right next to it and covering up most of his bicep, is a phoenix. Beck is a Harry Potter fan, and the phoenix is an integral figure in a couple of the books in the series. A phoenix is also a mythical symbol of resilience, as bird is said to be reborn from its ashes when it dies.

The scar that runs through them — a visual reminder of the UCL revision surgery he had in December after he injured his elbow in the SEC Championship Game with the Georgia Bulldogs — now gives the artwork a little extra meaning....

...will Beck fall or rise from the ashes? It's in his hands.

'That's how I want it,' Beck said. 'That's how it should be. That's how I've always wanted it my whole life. I feel like in those pressure moments, I thrive. That's what I look for.'

HOME SWEET HOME OPENERS

• The Miami Hurricanes opened their 18th season at world-class Hard Rock Stadium on Aug. 31 vs. Notre Dame; UM holds a 18-0 all-time mark in home openers at the stadium, having outscored opponents 810-155 for an average margin of victory of 36.4 points in those 18 home openers since 2008.

• The Hurricanes have not lost a home opener since 2006, when they fell to Florida State 13-10 at the Orange Bowl on Sept. 4, 2006. Miami has won 19 straight home openers since - each one since 2007.

• In the modern era of Miami Hurricanes football (since 1979), UM has opened the season at home 20 times and is now 18-2 in those games. The Hurricanes are 35-12 in regular season openers dating to 1979.

NEW RECEIVER TRIO IMPRESSES IN MIAMI DEBUTS

• The Hurricanes lost their top-six pass-catchers by receptions from a season ago, when the Hurricanes had the No. 1 offense in the country. Miami's three starting wide receivers were all making their debuts on Aug. 31 vs. Notre Dame: transfers CJ Daniels (LSU) and Keelan Marion (BYU) as well as true freshman Malachi Toney.

• The trio combined for 14 catches totaling 157 yards and two touchdowns in Miami's 27-24 win. Toney was targeted 10 times - more than any other player - while both he and Daniels had touchdown catches.

• Daniels is one of only two active FBS players with 2,000 receiving yards (2,480) and 20 touchdowns (22) over their careers at the FBS level. The other is Arkansas State's Corey Rucker (3,138, 25). Daniels' eye-popping one-handed score was named the Crunch Time Play of the Week by the Football Writers Association (FWAA).

• Toney became the only Hurricane in the last 30 seasons to have at least six catches, 80 receiving yards and a receiving touchdown in his college debut. He was named 247Sports National True Freshman of the Week.

WINNING THE TURNOVER BATLE CRUCIAL VS. ND

• Notre Dame led the country in turnovers gained in 2024 and were No. 5 in turnover margin. In its win over the No. 6 Irish, Miami had zero turnovers on offense. That marked the third time Miami defeated an AP Top 10 team this century while not giving the ball away, along with 2017 against No. 3 Notre Dame and 2004 at No. 10 Virginia

BROWN ONE OF JUST 30 BACKS IN 1,100/15 CLUB

• Despite having two running backs - Mark Fletcher, Jr. and Jordan Lyle - that will play massive roles for Miami's offense in 2025, Mario Cristobal went out and added one of the best players at the FCS level to the roster this offseason - former North Dakota State running back CharMar "Marty" Brown (pronounced like Shemar).

• Brown was one of 30 DI (FBS/FCS) players last season to record at least 1100 rushing yards and 15 rushing touchdowns last season, and is the only active underclassman among that group. He is a redshirt sophomore.

• Brown, the Jerry Rice Award winner as the top freshman player in Football Championship Division last season, was a member of the Stats Perform, FCS Football Central and Phil Steele FCS Freshman All-America teams. Brown won Missouri Valley Football Conference Newcomer of the Year and Freshman of the Year honors, becoming just the third Bison player and sixth in league history to sweep both awards.

• The Omaha, Neb., native led all FCS freshmen in rushing attempts (244), yards (1,181) and touchdowns (15) and became the first Bison tailback in seven years to eclipse the 1,000-yard mark. He is a 5-11, 220-pound back.

UM LOOKING FOR FOURTH STRAIGHT 2-0 START

• Miami is looking to start 2-0 for the fourth straight season, something it has not done since a four-season span from 2001 to 2004. UM is also looking to start 2-0 at home for the 13th time in the last 14 years (since 2012).

PPG, YPG + THIRD DOWN LEADERS WAS HISTORIC

• In 2024, Miami ranked first in the FBS in points per game, total yards per game and third down conversion percentage. The only other teams this century to lead the FBS in all three stats are LSU (2023) and Hawaii (2006).

MIAMI LEADS THE NATION IN FG PCT. SINCE 2020

• The Hurricanes have been the most accurate field-goal kicking team in the country over the last six seasons. Miami has made 87.4 percent of its field goal attempts since 2020 (97/111), ahead of Boise State (86.1), UNLV (85.5), Texas State (85.4), Alabama (84.9) and Miami-Ohio (84.9). K Carter Davis went 2-for-2 on Aug. 31.

UM EARNS HIGHEST PRESEASON RANK SINCE 2018

• Bolstered by the addition of several impressive newcomers and anchored by a talented group of returning veterans, the Hurricanes were ranked in the top 10 of both preseason polls - checking in at No. 10 in both the US LBM Coaches Poll and Associated Press rankings. Miami's ranking inside the top 10 marked its highest preseason in seven years; the Hurricanes opened the 2018 season ranked No. 8/8.

• The Hurricanes opened the 2024 season at No. 19 in the poll and found their name in every top 25 ranking of the season. The Hurricanes reached as high as No. 4 and ended No. 18 in the final poll, its highest since 2017 (#13). Miami was not ranked in the 2023 preseason polls, but were ranked in the 2022 preseason polls in Cristobal's first year as head coach, checking in at No. 16 in that year's coaches poll and No. 17 in the AP top 25.

THREE TRUE FRESHMEN MAKE DEBUTS VS. IRISH

• WR Malachi Toney, WR Joshua Moore and DB Bryce Fitzgerald made their collegiate debuts on August 31.

HETHERMAN HIRED AS DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR

• Mario Cristobal announced the hiring of Minnesota Golden Gophers defensive coordinator Corey Hetherman to the same post in January 2025. Hetherman arrived in Coral Gables after a dominant lone season at Minnesota.

• Under Hetherman's direction, the Gophers ranked No. 9 nationally in points allowed (16.9 per game), No. 5 nationally in total defense (285.7 yards per game), No. 9 in passing defense (176.1) and No. 12 in rushing defense (109.6).

• Hetherman was hired by Minnesota after spending two seasons (2022-23) as Rutgers' linebacker coach. Hetherman spent 2019-21 at James Madison as the defensive coordinator. His defense ranked in the top 10 in both total defense and scoring defense in all three years he was there.

• A native of Oxford, Massachusetts, Hetherman was promoted to Associate Head Coach and was named the AFCA FCS Assistant Coach of the Year after James Madison finished with the No. 2 defense in the nation.

What They're Saying:

DC Corey Hetherman: "We're going to be aggressive. We want to be an attacking style defense. We're going to be very multiple...we're going to be an attacking, aggressive style defense and we're going to try and dictate the tempo."

HC Mario Cristobal: "He is an elite coach, individual, and teacher. That is the most valuable thing when it comes to coaching. A guy has to be able to teach and connect. Every single day, he finds a way to make those guys better so that their buy-in is really, really high. You see it in the way we communicate and the way we run to the football. We are not all the way yet, but it is exciting to watch that defense progress."

DL Akheem Mesidor: "I love Coach Hetherman. He's a great teacher. He's just an aggressive guy, as you guys can see in his interviews. But he really just gets it down to the point. He's a technician; anything you have, he'll probably answer your question before you ask it. But he's an amazing person, a great coach, and he just lets us play free, play fast."

LB Wesley Bissainthe: "It starts from meetings. He's emphasizing communication. 'Communication, swarm, violence' every day in meetings, so that when we come out here, we already know it. And from the start of practice to the end of practice, he's hollering 'Communication.'"

DAWSON LED MOST EXPLOSIVE OFFENSE IN FBS

• In his second year at the helm of Miami's offense in 2024, OC Shannon Dawson orchestrated the nation's No. 1 unit in both points per game (43.9) and yards (537.2).

• The Hurricanes ended the 2024 ranked No. 2 nationally in both plays of 10-or-more yards (249) and 20-or-more-yards (99). In each category, Miami trailed a team that had played 16 games compared to their 13 - Penn State (253 of 10-or-more) and Texas (108 of 20-or-more).

• The Hurricanes had 10 games of 500-or-more yards in the 2024 regular season, marking only the sixth time in the previous decade (since 2014) an FBS team has had 10-or-more games of 500-or-more yards of offense; Alabama (2018, 11), LSU (2019, 10), Oklahoma (2018, 10), Oklahoma (2017, 10) and Baylor (2014, 10).

• Miami's offense, anchored by QB Cam Ward – who went on to win the Davey O'Brien Award, the Manning Award and ACC Player of the Year honors – helped lead the Hurricanes to their first 10-win season since 2017.

• Miami's offense was among the nation's most improved in its first season under Dawson's direction in 2023, with a jump to No. 25 in total offense (up from No. 85 in 2022), No. 22 in yards per play (from No. 67) and No. 35 in scoring offense (from No. 96).

UM WAS ELITE IN SECOND HALVES, 4TH QUARTERS

• Miami ended the season ranked No. 2 in both second-half point differential (+12.62) and fourth-quarter point differential (+8.54) last season. In both categories, the Hurricanes trailed only Indiana (+9.08 in fourth quarter, +13.31 in second halves).

Team	Q3 Differential	Q4 Differential	Second Half
1) Indiana	+4.23	+9.08	+13.31
2) Miami	+4.08	+8.54	+12.62
3) Ohio State	+8.44	+2.00	+10.44
4) Ole Miss	+7.92	+2.23	+10.15
5) Notre Dame	+6.50	3.38	+9.88

"HURRICANE" BAIN WREAKS HAVOC, ACC DL OTW

• One of the top performers in the nation in his first two years at Miami has been DL Rueben Bain, Jr., who enjoyed a dominant rookie campaign that resulted in ACC Defensive Rookie of the Year honors in 2023. That year, the 6-foot-3, 275-pound defensive lineman tallied 44 tackles, 12.5 tackles for loss and 7.5 sacks over 13 games, earning Freshman All-American honors. He was also selected to the All-ACC Third Team.

• The standout junior was named ACC Defensive Lineman of the Week after a dominant performance Aug. 31.

• Bain, who has 18.5 career TFLs, ended the 2024 season ranked No. 24 nationally in TFL per game (0.82). He has been projected as a top-10 overall pick by multiple prognosticators in advance of the 2026 NFL Draft.

• Bain's uncle, Tolbert Bain, lettered for the Hurricanes from 1984-1987. His older brother, Reggie, is an offensive line graduate assistant. The rising sophomore, who was named to the preseason watch lists for the Bednarik and Lombardi Awards, has a nickname "Hurricane Bain" - a writeup from the Miami Herald on the moniker is below:

• The "Hurricane" started swirling almost 30 years ago, years and years before Rueben Bain was even a thought in his father's mind and long before the elite edge rusher was one of the crown jewels of the Miami Hurricanes.

It all started, fittingly, at "Traz" Powell Stadium in Miami, where Rueben Bain Sr. — just like his son — played his home games and wreaked havoc as a two-way lineman for Carol City. Willie Wilcox, the stadium's iconic public address announcer, gave him the nickname because of his physicality and tenacity, inspired by the story of wrongfully imprisoned boxer Rubin Carter.

It turned out to be something like a premonition from Wilcox. After a solid career with the Chiefs, Bain Sr. graduated, played at Division II Morris Brown College in Atlanta, moved back to Florida, where he started a family. He had a few sons and gave one his own name, and, with it, his own nickname, once Bain Jr. started playing for Miami Central and Wilcox realized who he was. He became the latest in a long line of Bains to star athletically in Miami-Dade County, starting with grandfather Herman Bain, who was a three-sport star at Northwestern.

It turns out, Wilcox had something like a premonition...he also embodied the nickname in a way not even his father could, with four state championships in four years, 58 1/2 sacks across his final two seasons at Central and finally a nod as the MaxPreps Florida Player of the Year on Tuesday." -David Wilson, Miami Herald, December 2022.

• Only two other teams in the nation had a three-and-out percentage of less than 10% on offense - No. 1 Miami (5.8%), No. 2 LSU (9.16%) and Texas State (9.59%). The Hurricanes averaged 3.15 points per possession - the best in FBS - and averaged 1.61 plays per point - the second-most efficient in the nation behind Indiana (1.59). The Hurricanes punted on only 18.2% of possessions - marking the only team under 20% in FBS in 2024.

• Miami ended the regular season ranked in the top 25 of both total offense (#1) and total defense (#24) at the conclusion of the regular season - five of the other seven schools to qualify for the list were College Football Playoff teams, and the only other team to do so was Ole Miss, who also narrowly missed out on a CFP berth. Miami was listed as the second team out of the College Football Playoff Field in 2024.

DOMINANT O-LINE PLAY A CRISTOBAL HALLMARK

- The Hurricanes' offensive line was one of 22 groups named to the midseason honor roll for the Joe Moore Award honoring the nation's top unit in 2024. Despite missing two players who started the opener for a five-game stretch, Miami made the cut for the second straight year. Mario Cristobal's OL won the award at Alabama in 2015.
- Miami returns three starters from an offensive line that keyed the way for the No. 1 offense in FBS by nearly every metric last season: RT Francis Mauigoa (started all 26 games of his career), RG Anez Cooper (30 career starts, including 26 straight) and LG Matt McCoy (12 starts last year).
- In addition to those three starters, Miami also received significant contributions from LT Markel Bell - who made five starts last year in place of an injured Jalen Rivers in his first season at Miami in 2024 - and LG Ryan Rodriguez, who started the season opener against Florida before suffering a season-ending injury.
- According to SportSource Analytics, Miami ranked No. 3 in the country and No. 1 in FBS last year in offensive line efficiency at 109.2. Only teams ahead of Miami were New Mexico (134.5) and Army (110.5). Offensive Line Efficiency is a combination of five key metrics: tackle for loss percentage allowed (6.1%), sack percentage allowed (4.7%), percentage of rushes that went for four-plus yards (49.6%) and first down conversion percentage on 3rd & 4th Down runs where the necessary yardage was 1-2 yards (85.7% on third [24/28], 100% on fourth [6/6]).
- Miami added one of the top centers in the transfer portal for the third straight year this offseason, with C James Brockermeyer signing on from the Hurricanes for TCU. In his lone season in Fort Worth, Brockermeyer was All-Big 12 Honorable Mention. He allowed just one sack and eight quarterback pressures in 2024 according to PFF. Prior to adding Brockermeyer, Miami added Zach Carpenter (Indiana) in 2024 and Matt Lee (UCF) in 2023.
- During 13 of his 16 full seasons as head coach, Cristobal has entrusted Alex Mirabal with the development of the offensive line with stops at FIU, Oregon and now Miami. The two coaches, who met during their playing days at Christopher Columbus in Miami, were in each other's wedding parties - Cristobal was Mirabal's 'best man.'

CONTROLLING THE CLOCK: CANES WERE TOP 10

- While Miami's offense was among the most prolific throughout the 2024 regular season, the Hurricanes also methodically controlled the clock last season; Miami ranked No. 9 in the regular season in time of possession.

Team	Average TOP
1) Army	35:42
2) Air Force	33:50
3) Memphis	33:48
4) Syracuse	33:42
5) Oregon State	33:09
6) Tulane	33:05
7) Missouri	33:01
8) NIU	32:52
9) Miami	32:45
10) Iowa State	32:32

CRISTOBAL SHAKES UP MIAMI DEFENSIVE STAFF

- In addition to hiring Corey Hetherman as defensive coordinator, Mario Cristobal made significant changes to his defensive staff entering 2025. Zac Etheridge was hired as defensive pass game coordinator / defensive backs coach (from Houston), Will Harris was hired as safeties coach (from Florida) and Damione Lewis was hired as defensive tackles coach (from Colorado). The only returning coach, Jason Taylor, is Miami's defensive line coach / defensive pass rush coordinator. Four of five coaches were replaced on the defensive side of the ball.

"FREAK" MAUIGOA MAY BE NATION'S TOP TACKLE

- Miami standout offensive tackle Francis Mauigoa was ranked No. 16 in Bruce Feldman's annual "Freaks" list:

"The former five-star has started all 26 games at right tackle that he's played at Miami since arriving. Last season, Mauigoa earned All-ACC second-team honors. The 6-6, 335-pounder clocked a 1.57 flying 10-yard split. His power output registered almost 10,000 watts, by far the most on the team, almost 1,000 watts more than the next player. Last year, Mauigoa measured at 9,274 watts. His max velocity is 18 mph and his vertical jump is 30 1/2 inches."

- Mauigoa - who was listed as a Preseason All-American by multiple outlets, a preseason candidate for the Outland Trophy, Lombardi Trophy and earned All-ACC honorsshowed marked improvement as a pass blocker during his sophomore campaign, allowing just two combined sacks/hits on 534 pass-blocking snaps according to PFF.
- A former five-star recruit out of American Samoa by way of IMG Academy, Mauigoa was the only FBS tackle with two or fewer knockdowns allowed on 500-plus pass-blocking snaps. He is projected as a top-10 NFL pick in 2026.

NEW LOOK DEFENSIVE BACK ROOM IMPRESSES

- After a disappointing season by Miami’s secondary in 2024, the Hurricanes added a number of key players who look to transform the unit’s chances in 2025. A bright spot in the group was CB OJ Frederique, a Freshman All-America honoree by several outlets last season, who figures to play a key role in the secondary.
- The Hurricanes infused the room with several highly impressive players via the transfer portal, including a pair of veterans in CB Ethan O’Connor from Washington State and CB Charles “Chuck” Brantley from Michigan State. In addition, Miami added CB Xavier Lucas, who impressed at Wisconsin in his true freshman season in 2024, as well as S Zechriah Poyser, a 2024 Freshman All-America as a redshirt freshman at Jacksonville State.
- During the second portal window in 2025 following the conclusion of spring practice, Miami added S Jakobe Thomas from Tennessee and CB Keionte Scott from Auburn, who was a multi-year starter at nickel for the Tigers.
- The Hurricanes will benefit from the healthy return of Damari Brown, who missed nearly all of 2024 due to an injury suffered in the season opener vs. Florida, as well as versatile Isaiah Taylor, who transferred to Miami from Arizona but missed 2024 due to surgery. Taylor had a productive 2022 season at Arizona (40 tackles, 1 INT).
- In addition to the portal additions, the Hurricanes added multiple freshmen who could play a role in Year 1 - Ja’Boree Antoine (pronounced jabari), Bryce Fitzgerald and Chris Ewald. S Dylan Day has also been praised by the coaching staff following a true freshman 2024 season where he was a standout on special teams.

A “MENACE” REUNITES WITH HIS FORMER COACH

- One of Miami’s key additions via the transfer portal came in the second window following spring practice, when the Hurricanes added former Rutgers standout Mo Toure (pronounced tur-RAY) to its linebacker room.
- Toure had a breakout 2023, playing in all 13 games for Rutgers and making eight starts during that season. Then under now Miami defensive coordinator Corey Hetherman (then Rutgers linebackers coach), Toure was second on the team with 93 tackles and led the Scarlet Knights with nine-and-a-half tackles for loss. He also played in Rutgers’ 2023 Pinstripe Bowl win over Miami.
- Toure, who has the moniker “Mo The Menace,” was named to the Butkus Award watch list in 2024, but suffered ACL injuries that ended his 2022 and 2024 seasons. Toure is in his seventh season of college football. He picked Miami over offers from Indiana, North Carolina and Penn State out of the transfer portal.
- Mario Cristobal on Toure: “There is a ton of versatility with Mo. He is very physical. He is large at 240 pounds and he has produced in the Big Ten at a high level. We have a motivated version of Mo and I am excited to see what that looks like. He is physical at the point of attack and a really good tackler.”

• Miami returns one of the top punters in the nation in Australia native Dylan Joyce, who has averaged 43.3 yards per punt in his two seasons at The U. But after losing graduating senior and Andy Borregales to the NFL Draft, the Hurricanes added K Carter Davis from FAU, K Bert Auburn from Texas and LS Adam Booker from Charlotte.

• Auburn connected on 76% of his career field goals (66-for-86) at Texas, while Davis went 4-for-11 at FAU.

CANES REEL IN #1 RANKED ACC CLASS YET AGAIN

• For the third straight year, the Miami Hurricanes reeled in the best recruiting class in the ACC by the 247Sports rankings in 2024. The Hurricanes' incoming group was ranked No. 13 in the nation.

• Miami's 2025 class, inked in December 2024, was the top-rated group in the ACC for the third consecutive cycle.

• Miami's group featured eight players ranked in the Top247 rankings: DL Hayden Lowe (No. 16), RB Girard Pringle, Jr. (No. 151), OL Seuseu Alofaituli (No. 163), TE Brock Schott (No. 174), WR Joshua Moore (No. 193), DL Herbert Scroggins (No. 195), DB Bryce Fitzgerald (No. 237) and QB Luke Nickel (No. 247).

• The Hurricanes' 2024 group ranked No. 6 in the nation, while its 2023 group - the first full cycle under Cristobal - was ranked No. 8. According to Pick Six Previews, Miami was one of just 14 programs to sign a top 25 high school recruiting class and transfer class and one of just six to do it in three consecutive years - 2023, 2024 and 2025.

51 YEARS AND COUNTING FOR #NFLU STREAK

• With seven players selected in the 2025 NFL Draft, the Miami Hurricanes extended their streak to 51 consecutive years with at least one pick. The Hurricanes trail only Michigan (1939), USC (1939) and Florida (1952) in consecutive years with at least one pick; Miami's streak began in 1975 and continued in 2025.

CRISTOBAL'S PROVEN TRACK RECORD STACKS UP

• Mario Cristobal is one of only seven active FBS head coaches to have won multiple conference titles at the Power-4 or Power-5 level, which he did at Oregon (2019, 2020) before his departure to Miami. The only other coaches to have done so are Dabo Swinney (at Clemson), Lincoln Riley (Oklahoma), Kirby Smart (Georgia), Ryan Day (Ohio State), Bret Bielema (Wisconsin), Mike Gundy (Oklahoma State) and Kirk Ferentz (Iowa).

FORMER RETIRED NUMBERS HONORED BY CANES

- For the second straight year since originally many of them were originally retired, jersey numbers 10 (Raul Aguirre, Jr. & Malachi Toney) and 42 (Artavius Jones) will be worn by Hurricanes on the field in 2025. In addition, two other retired numbers - 14 (Hayden Lowe) and 13 (Bryce Fitzgerald & Daylyn Upshaw) will also be worn.

- There are patches honoring George Mira Sr. (#10), Jim Dooley (#42), Gino Torretta (#13) & Vinny Testaverde (#14), whose numbers are among the most recognizable in UM history and came out of retirement in 2024.

From their respective University of Miami Sports Hall of Fame bios:

George Mira, Sr.

"Mira Sr. will long be remembered by Hurricane fans as one of Miami's greatest quarterbacks and perhaps the 'Canes greatest player ever. In his three year career, Mira set numerous passing records, some of which are still in the record books. During his career, Miami once again gained national prominence, reaching the 1961 Liberty Bowl, the first bowl appearance in 19 years. Mira was the quarterback and passer for the '60's, he could drop back and pass and scramble when he had to, which earned him his nickname "The Matador". In 1962 Mira lead the Hurricanes to the Gotham Bowl in New York City and proved to the country that he was the real deal"

Jim Dooley

"Jim Dooley is a football legend at the University of Miami. Dooley was the first Hurricane football player to have his jersey number retired, #42, the first Hurricane player to be selected in the first round of the NFL draft, to the Chicago Bears, in 1952, and the first, and only, UM player to be an NFL head coach. Jim came to the University of Miami in 1947 after a stellar high school career at Miami High. As a junior and senior Dooley was a true "sixty minute man" playing both offense and defense. He set several records during his UM days, 17 interceptions on defense and over 1,000 yards rushing on offense. In 1951, Dooley intercepted 10 passes and was named first-team All-American by the associated Press. Dooley played in both the 1951 Orange Bowl Classic and the 1952 Gator Bowl where he earned MVP honors and setting a Gator Bowl record with 4 interceptions"

Vinny Testaverde

Vinny Testaverde came to the Hurricanes by way of Elmont, New York in the fall of 1982. Vinny was the first player in U.M. history to win the Heisman Trophy, 1986. Vinny is one of only a handful of Hurricane football players to have his number retired (14). On the career lists Vinny ranked, at the time, second in passing yardage, (6,058), tied with Steve Walsh for first in touchdown passes (48) and fourth in pass completions (413). In addition to winning the Heisman Trophy, he also won the Davey O'Brien Award, the Walter Camp Player of the Year Award, the Maxwell Award and was voted a consensus first-team All-American. As a starter, Vinny led the Hurricanes to a 21-1 regular season mark over two years. Testaverde was selected the first pick in the 1987 NFL draft by the Tampa Bay Buccaneers and played on several other NFL teams during his long, and successful, career.

Gino Torretta

"Gino Torretta capped an illustrious collegiate career by bringing the prestigious Heisman Trophy award back to the Coral Gables campus in 1992. The 1992 season was to be Gino Torretta's coronation as the Heisman favorite. But the season started amidst disaster as Hurricane Andrew ripped through South Florida just 12 days before the season opener at Iowa. Dealing with the emotional aftermath, Gino led the Hurricanes to a 24-7 win over the Hawkeyes on national television by passing for 433 yards and two touchdowns. If there was a game that typified his career it was the win against Florida State. Miami trailed 16-10 with 9:05 left in the fourth period when Gino led the Hurricanes on a 58-yard scoring drive to take the lead. Torretta took every award available to him in '92: the Maxwell Award (best overall player), Davey O'Brien Award (top quarterback), Unitas Award (top senior quarterback), consensus All-American, and every Player of the Year Award."

HEAD COACH MARIO CRISTOBAL

FOURTH SEASON | MIAMI, 1993

Career Record: 85-76 | UM Record: 23-16 | ACC Record: 12-12

Mario Cristobal, who helped lead the University of Miami to two national championships in 1989 and 1991 as a standout offensive lineman, was named the University's 26th football head coach on December 6, 2021.

One of college football's most highly regarded coaches, Cristobal returned to his alma mater after leading the University of Oregon to three straight Pac-12 Conference championship game appearances and two Pac-12 titles. He is the only coach in the nation whose team has played in a Power Five conference championship game in each of the past three seasons before arriving at Miami.

The Hurricanes showed tremendous growth from Year 1 to Year 2 under Cristobal's direction; Miami was No. 24 in total defense and No. 31 in total offense in all of FBS in 2023, jumping 40 spots in total defense (up from No. 64) and 60 spots in total offense (up from No. 85). Miami pulled in the top two recruiting classes in program history in the modern era by every ranking in his two full cycles - the No. 7 class in the nation in 2023 and the No. 4 class in 2024.

Cristobal brought more than 20 years of FBS coaching experience to Coral Gables, including 10 as a head coach. He compiled a 35-13 record at Oregon, leading the Ducks to consecutive Pac-12 titles in 2019 and 2020. Oregon advanced to three straight conference championship games from 2019 to 2021 and earned bowl-game appearances in each of Cristobal's seasons in Eugene, highlighted by a Rose Bowl victory that capped a 12-win season and No. 5 ranking in the final Associated Press and AFCA Coaches polls in 2019. Cristobal was named the Associated Press Pac-12 Coach of the Year for his efforts that season.

Over Cristobal's first three seasons in Eugene, Oregon players earned 44 all-conference selections and 14 players were selected in the NFL Draft, including first-round selections in each of the past three drafts. With the selections of Kayvon Thibodeaux (2022), Penei Sewell (2021) and Justin Herbert (2020), Cristobal is one of only two active head coaches to produce top-10 picks in each of the last three drafts.

During his tenure as both an assistant and head coach at Oregon, two players—Noah Sewell and Thibodeaux—earned Pac-12 Defensive Freshman of the Year honors, and three players—Thibodeaux, Penei Sewell, and Tyrell Crosby—earned the Morris Trophy, awarded to the Pac-12's best offensive and defensive linemen. Cristobal served as Oregon's co-offensive coordinator, run-game coordinator, and offensive line coach during the 2017 season before being elevated to head coach.

Cristobal's national title-winning pedigree isn't limited to his time as a player. At Alabama, where he served as assistant head coach, offensive line coach, and recruiting coordinator, he helped lead the Crimson Tide to the national championship in 2015 and a runner-up finish the following season. During his four years in Tuscaloosa, from 2013 to 2016, five Alabama offensive linemen were selected in the NFL Draft and, with Cristobal's tutelage, the 2015 offensive line unit won the inaugural Joe Moore Award, given to the most outstanding offensive line unit in the nation.

Cristobal's move to Miami brings his coaching career full circle. A son of South Florida who played prep football at nearby Christopher Columbus High School, he launched his coaching career as a graduate assistant coach at Miami from 1998 to 2000 under head coach Butch Davis. He served as an assistant coach at Rutgers from 2001 to 2003 and then returned to Miami as an assistant coach from 2004 to 2006 under head coach Larry Coker.

In 2007, Cristobal was named head coach at Florida International University, becoming the first Cuban American head coach in FBS history. He inherited a struggling FIU program that had been winless the year before his arrival and, in just his fourth season, led it to the Sun Belt Conference title and a bowl-game victory.

Cristobal, who played his Hurricanes career under coaches Jimmy Johnson and Dennis Erickson, was an All-Big East selection in 1992. He is a double-alumnus of the University of Miami, earning a bachelor's degree in business administration and a master's degree from the University. Cristobal was born in Miami on Sept. 24, 1970. He and his wife, Jessica, married in June 2006 and are the parents of two sons, Mario Mateo and Rocco.
