RALLY POINTS

- The Rebels are set to face Miami in the 'Showdown at the Net', a brand new clash between both the ACC and SEC. Matches will take place across Tuesday and Wednesday.
- Senior Mokihana Tufono was named to the Preseason All-SEC Team ahead of the 2025 campaign and has continued her high-level play, recording her ninth career 50-assist match in a win over Wyoming.
- The Rebels held Wofford to a -.102 hitting percentage on Aug. 31, good for the lowest total by an opponent against the Rebels since a 2009 win over Alcorn State.
- Cammy Niesen continues rank among the best liberos in the game, ranking eighth nationally on the career active digs leader list.
- Niesen now stands at 1,470 career digs, with the total ranking second all-time at Ole Miss and just 162 away from the all-time record.
- Junior Gabi Placide has made an immediate impact since coming to Oxford, ranking second in the SEC with 84 kills and second in the SEC in points with 97.0 through the first two weeks of the season.

SCOUTING MIAMI

Following a season-opening loss to Indiana, the Miami Hurricanes have been red hot, improving to 4-1 overall with four consecutive sweeps of Ohio State, Drake, North Texas and UCF. Head coach Jose Gandara is in his 13th season at the helm of the program and is seeking a return to the NCAA Tournament for the fifth consecutive season. Gone from last season is second leading scorer Grace Lopez, but Flormarie Heredia Colon remains, as the senior from the Dominican Republic remains one of the top hitters in the nation. Fellow returner Ava Carney is also a potent offensive threat, while Ariana Rodriguez returns as the team's setter from last season.

SERIES HISTORY

The Rebels renew their all-time series on Wednesday against Miami, trailing 5-2 in the all-time ledger. The Rebels are seeking their first win over the Hurricanes since 1984, with only one meeting between the two sides since that date, coming in 2012. 2012 was the lone trip to Coral Gables for the Rebels, with Miami emerging in a 3-2 victory.

LAST TIME OUT

Ole Miss turned in a 1-1 performance at the SDSU Invitational, capping off the weekend in Brookings, S.D., with a 3-1 win over Wyoming. The Rebels were led by dominant performances from Gabi Placide (21 kills on .391 hitting) and Melia Johnson (a career-high 17 kills on .452 hitting). Mokihana Tufono also shined with her first double-double of the season in a 50-assist, 11-dig performance. Cameron Bradley also added 12 digs for a new career-best.

CAN YOU DIG IT?

Senior libero Cammy Niesen enters her final collegiate season with eyes on not only setting, but ultimately smashing the program's all-eras dig record. The 2024 SEC Scholar Athlete of the Year has been a model of consistency her entire career and stands just 162 digs away from setting a new record that is currently held by Morgan Springer.

Niesen has quietly emerged as one of the best liberos in the SEC over her dynamic career. Last season, Niesen led the SEC in total digs with 537, which also ranked 33rd in the nation. Niesen's digs per set stood at third in the SEC at 4.48, just marginally behind Missouri's Maya Sands (4.53) and Arkansas' recent graduate Courtney Jackson (4.49).

In fact, Niesen ranks eighth in the NCAA on the active digs leaderboard with 1,470.

Active Leaders

- 1. Emma Hickey, Valparaiso - 2,199
- 2. Lauren Lindseth, Montana State - 1,593
- 3. Maya Sands, Missouri - 1,559
- 4. LonDynn Betts, West Virginia - 1,510
- 5. Emma Farrell, Wake Forest - 1,490
- 6. Campbell Jensen, UC Irvine - 1,487
- 7. Ella Voegele, St. Thomas - 1,477
- 8. Cammy Niesen, Ole Miss - 1,470
- 9. Breanna Mitchell, Boise State - 1,419
- 10. Kamryn Farris, South Dakota - 1,367

FILLING THE VOID

While the Rebels have had to replace much of their offensive attack from 2024, several newcomers have immediately stepped up. The hitters are led by transfer Gabi Placide, who surged to 84 kills and a .243 hitting percentage through the first five matches of the season and already ranks second in the SEC in total kills. Redshirt freshman Melia Johnson has also stepped up, opening her collegiate career with 10 or more kills in four of her first five collegiate matches.

TRANSFER TO THE SIP

Head coach Bre Henry and her staff were active in the transfer portal this offseason, landing several big names in an effort to reload following the graduation of several program legends (Sasha Ratliff & Payton Brgoch).

The most notable addition was All-Big Sky hitter and former Big Sky Freshman of the Year Gabi Placide, who joins the program with two seasons of eligibility remaining after opening her career at Northern Colorado. Over two seasons at UNC, Placide recorded 739 kills, 248 digs, 150 blocks, 40 aces and 15 assists.

Joining Placide is middle blocker Jordyn Towns, who makes the move over from Alabama to join the Rebels for her final two collegiate seasons. The 6'6" Towns becomes the tallest Rebel in program history. Over two seasons at Alabama, Towns tallied 195 kills and 82.0 total blocks to lead the Crimson Tide block.

Former Cal State Bakersfield setter Vivianna Samaniego and Kankakee Community College standout hitter Aniya Lewis round out the transfer class, with both having three seasons of eligibility remaining.

HONORED BY THE SEC

Setter Mokihana Tufono, who turned heads in her debut season in Oxford, was named to the All-SEC Preseason Team earlier this offseason. Tufono, who started her collegiate career at UCLA, developed into one of the top setters in the conference under head coach Bre Henry, earning AVCA All-South Region honors and recording 1,173 assists. Tufono also notched 286 digs, 60.0 total blocks, 43 kills and 21 service aces.

LONG BEACH CONNECTION

Head coach Bre Henry and associate head coach Taylor Gregory have a special connection. The two have been friends since they met at Long Beach State, where they both played volleyball collegiately. Henry, a four year starter, was a member of the 2013 NCAA National Championship team in beach volleyball and earned All-American honors in 2014. Gregory was a two-time All-American and three-time All-Conference honoree who finished his career as one of the most decorated middle blockers in program history with 500 total blocks.

Henry and Gregory both met their spouses, John and Delainey, who also played volleyball. Now, nearly 10 years later, their paths have crossed again in Oxford as Henry and Gregory are coaching together and raising their children.

CELEBRATING 50 YEARS

Throughout the entirety of the 2025 season, Ole Miss athletics and the volleyball program will honor and recognize many who have contributed to the success and legacy of the program over 50 years of volleyball.

The program has tallied over 800 wins, reached five NCAA Tournaments and won the 2017 NIVC championship. Nineteen student-athletes have earned All-SEC honors, 16 have earned AVCA All-Region and three have been named All-Americans as the program has blossomed over generations of standout student-athletes.

The success of the program has built on the foundation of countless student-athletes who have gone on to earn a degree from the University of Mississippi and take their talents throughout the world.

ETCHED IN HISTORY

Ole Miss volleyball legend Regina Thomas was recently named to the M-Club Hall of Fame this season. In her dynamic career, Thomas became the first Ole Miss volleyball athlete to be recognized as an All-American by the American Volleyball Coaches Association (AVCA), earning third team honors in 2010 and honorable mention in 2011. She was the first Rebel to be selected All-South Region twice (2010-11) by the AVCA.

A three-time All-SEC honoree, Thomas currently ranks third in the record book for career attack percentage rally scoring (Min. 1,500 attempts) at .340 and third in a match in rally scoring (play to 25) at .682. Thomas was nominated as a candidate for the Lowe's Senior CLASS Award in 2011 due to her notable achievements in the community and classroom.

CLIMBING THE LADDER

Several Rebels are poised to etch their names in the all-time record books in 2025 across multiple different metrics.

In addition to her pursuit of the all-eras digs record at Ole Miss, Cammy Niesen is also poised to enter the top-10 all-time in service aces, with 59 in her career. That stands just 10 outside the rally scoring era's top-10. Shayla Meyer also has her sights on the same list, standing at 48 service aces across just over two seasons of action.

Mokihana Tufono continues her rapid ascent of the assists charts in her short time at Ole Miss. Tufono currently sits ninth all-time in the rally scoring era with 1,370 and 16th across all eras, despite only playing just 33 matches as a Rebel.

REBELS PICKED TENTH IN SEC PRESEASON POLL

Following a historic season in which the Rebels vastly improved on their SEC preseason poll ranking, the Rebels have been picked to finish 10th in the now 16-team SEC in the 2025 season-opening poll.

The Rebels finished just one vote behind ninth-place Georgia with 97 in total.

BRE HENRY

THE SCOOP

With national championship pedigree as both an athlete and coach, Bre Henry leads the Ole Miss Rebels volleyball program in her third full season as head coach in 2025.

Over the course of her eight seasons as a graduate assistant, assistant coach and head coach, Henry helped produce five All-Americans, 16 All-Region honorees and won the 2017 NCAA crown with Nebraska. Throughout her entire career, she has either been mentored by or worked alongside some of the top coaches in the nation, such as John Cook (Nebraska), Matt Ulmer (Oregon) and Erin Lindsey (Santa Clara), among others.

In her first full season as head coach and second with the Rebels, Henry changed the culture of the program. She created an environment where student-athletes and staff became a family and fell in love with the game of volleyball while still competing at a high level in the SEC.

Henry was the architect of a historic 2024 season, in which the Rebels went 18-12 with a 7-9 mark in SEC play and won the program's first ever NCAA Tournament match. The Rebels achieved countless success stories, culminating in the first round victory over No. 21 Florida State in Omaha, Nebraska. Henry helped guide Nia Washington to new heights in 2024, as Washington was named an AVCA All-American Honorable Mention, AVCA All-South Region and All-SEC honoree. It marked another transfer success story under Henry, alongside the development of first year Rebel setter Mokihana Tufono, who also earned AVCA All-South Region honors and recorded a sensational 1,173 assists in her first season in Oxford. Defensively, Henry oversaw another huge year from the blocking duo of Sasha Ratliff and Payton Brgoch. Ratliff finished her career as the program's all-time leading blocker, while Brgoch took home AVCA All-South Region Honorable Mention honors as she set a new single-season total block record in the rally scoring era with 134.0. Cammy Niesen also shined under Henry, leading the SEC with 537 digs, while moving into third all-time in program history in just three seasons.

The Rebels made waves in the SEC, earning several big wins. Henry and the Rebels erased losing streaks against traditional powers Arkansas and Tennessee that predated her arrival, while extending the program's longest winning streak against LSU since 1997-98. The Rebels rode a balanced lineup that led the SEC in total digs (1,732), ranked second in blocks (238.0), ranked third in kills (1,578) and ranked third in assists (1,482) into the NCAA Tournament, where Henry's team etched their names into the record books.

In 2023, the Rebels finished with an 11-18 record, including a 5-13 mark in conference play. Under Henry, the Ole Miss offense saw seven Rebels finish the season with over 100 kills, including four with over 200. Among those with offensive success were Anna Bair, who wrapped her Ole Miss career with the fifth most kills by any player in school history, and Julia Dyess, who led the Rebels in kills in SEC play and finished with a breakout junior season. She helped Sasha Ratliff and Payton Brgoch rank inside the top five in hitting percentage in the SEC while recording 100 blocks. The two middle blockers also entered the top five in program history in total blocks with a chance to be the two best to ever wear a Rebel uniform at their position.

Ole Miss saw vast improvements defensively after ranking last in the SEC and 302nd nationally in opponent hitting percentage and 10th in digs per set a season ago. In 2023, Henry and defensive coach Taylor Gregory guided a defense that averaged 13.95 digs per set, the third-best mark in the SEC. Cammy Niesen ranked third in the conference with her 4.04 digs per set to lead the way. In total, the Rebels featured one of the stingiest defenses in the SEC, holding their opponents to a .210 hitting percentage (fifth-best in the SEC).

Henry joined the Ole Miss staff as assistant coach prior to the 2022 season and was named acting head coach for the final 11 matches. After a national search in the offseason, she was the clear choice to guide the Rebel volleyball team into the future and was named permanent head coach on Friday, Dec. 9, 2022, by Vice Chancellor for Intercollegiate Athletics Keith Carter.

Working primarily as the defensive coordinator until her promotion, Henry helped middle blocker Sasha Ratliff earn her second All-SEC and AVCA South All-Region nod and guided Payton Brgoch to the fourth-most blocks in a single season in program history. She was also instrumental in the growth of a young Rebel team that saw three freshmen see significant playing time at setter, libero and outside hitter. Under her guidance, they garnered multiple SEC weekly honors, and Aly Borellis was named to the All-SEC Freshman Team.

Prior to arriving at Ole Miss, Henry spent three seasons as an assistant at Santa Clara. During her time with the Broncos, Santa Clara produced three AVCA All-Region selections, 12 All-WCC accolades and 10 WCC all-academic nods. A proven defensive mind, Santa Clara led the WCC and ranked 10th nationally with 326.5 total blocks.

Henry began her coaching career as a graduate assistant with one of the nation's elite programs at Nebraska. In two seasons, the Huskers went 62-11, winning the 2017 NCAA title and finishing as runner-up in 2018 while producing four All-Americans and six all-conference selections.

A former standout student-athlete at Long Beach State, Henry played both indoor and beach volleyball, earning ACVA All-American Honors for the 2014 indoor season and winning the 2013 beach National Championship. She helped lead the 49ers to a 27-5 record and a perfect 16-0 mark in the Big West Conference during her senior campaign. After graduating, Henry continued her playing career professionally in the Philippines and Switzerland in 2015 and 2016.

A Redding, California, native, Henry studied kinesiology as an undergraduate student at Long Beach State before earning a master's in sports and exercise psychology from Argosy University in 2016 and a master's in education administration from Nebraska in 2017.

Henry and her husband John reside in Oxford with their children, Quinn and Jones.
