Coastal Carolina volleyball is on the road for the third straight weekend as it travels to the Sunshine State for a pair of games at the 305 Invitational in Miami. The Chanticleers will open the tournament on Thursday at 6:30 p.m. when they take on 2024 NCAA participant Miami, then face FIU on Friday at 6 p.m. Coastal Carolina swept the Hurricanes and Panthers in back-to-back matches on the road in 2016. This weekend will be the Chants' first meeting with either opponent since. Both matches can be streamed on the ESPN app or watchespn.com.

STREAKS, STORYLINES, SIDEBARS

- ▶ LOOKING FOR SEVEN STRAIGHT: A win over Miami on Thursday would be the Chanticleers' seventh consecutive win and give them their best 10-match start (8-2) since going 10-0 to open the 2020 season. Their six straight wins are their most consecutive non-conference victories since winning nine in a row to open the 2019 season.
- ▶ MORE TOURNERY OPPONENTS: Coastal will be facing its sixth 2024 NCAA Tournament opponent of the season Thursday, Miami. The Chants are 3-2 against NCAA Tournament teams so far in 2025, defeating Delaware State, Cleveland State and NC State after suffering back-to-back losses to North Carolina and South Carolina.
- ▶ TRIPLE-DOUBLE RECORD: CCU junior Jalyn Stout is two triple-doubles shy of setting the NCAA career record across all divisions. She enters the weekend with an NCAA Division I record 38 career triple-doubles. The record of 39 is held by Jordyn Gates, who played at Division II Grand Valley State.
- ▶ MORE SBC POW AWARDS: Stout was named Sun Belt Conference Offensive Player of the Week for the second time in three weeks on Tuesday, while Anna Rita was voted the league's Defensive Player of the Week for the first time. Stout posted three triple-doubles, and Rita tallied 25 blocks in three matches at the Wolfpack Invitational.
- ▶ ALL-TOURNAMENT CHANTS: Stout was named MVP of the Wolfpack Invitational, averaging 3.92 kills, 3.83 assists, and 3.50 digs per set, tallying 47 kills, 46 assists, and 42 digs with 10 blocks and a .300 hitting percentage. Rita recorded 25 total blocks and 24 kills in 12 sets and received all-tournament accolades. Emily Fowler was also named to the all-tournament team with 35 kills and 16 blocks in 12 sets.

Steve Loeswick enters his third season at the helm of the program after he took over the program early in the 2023 season after former head coach Jozsef Forman announced his resignation.

The Chanticleers went 17-6 after he took over the program and finished with a 22-10 overall record and the Sun Belt Conference regular season and tournament titles with a 14-2 SBC mark. Loeswick was named the 2023 Sun Belt Conference Coach of the Year and the American Volleyball Coaches Association (AVCA) Southeast Region Coach of the Year.

Under Loeswick's guidance, Jasmine Rivest earned the conference's Player of the Year and Offensive Player of the Year honors. Jalyne Stout was named the Sun Belt Freshman of the Year after setting an NCAA record with 14 triple-doubles and joined Rivest on the All-Sun Belt first team, while Sydney Lewis was selected to the all-conference second team.

Along with the Sun Belt title, Loeswick led the Chants to their sixth NCAA Tournament appearance. Coastal's 2023 berth marked the program's first trip to the NCAA Tournament since 2017.

During his second season, Stout earned First Team All-Sun Belt honors, breaking her NCAA record for triple-doubles with 20.

Loeswick joined the CCU athletics program as head beach volleyball coach in 2018 and joined the indoor volleyball coaching staff as an assistant coach in 2020.

Loeswick served as the head volleyball coach at North Florida for six seasons, guiding the Ospreys to a 97-94 overall record. He led UNF to its first ASUN championship appearance in 2012, a season that also included 20 wins for the first time in the program's NCAA Division I history. Loeswick guided several Ospreys to ASUN All-Conference and individual awards, including two Freshman of the Year winners, one Libero of the Year recipient, and one Defensive Player of the Year honoree.

Before taking over the reins at North Florida, Loeswick had a 14-year assistant coaching career that included five seasons at LSU (2007-11), three seasons at Oklahoma (2004-06), and six seasons at Cornell (1998-2003).

While at LSU, Loeswick helped the Tigers accumulate 112 wins, five consecutive SEC Western Division titles, and win the 2009 SEC championship -- the program's first since 1991. LSU was one of 25 programs nationally to put together four straight NCAA Tournament appearances (2007-10), and the program had a trio of 25-win seasons in 2007, 2009, and 2010. Loeswick's tenure also saw the Tigers garner multiple honors, including the 2009 SEC Player of the Year, a pair of SEC Defensive Players of the Year, eight All-SEC selections, a first-team AVCA All-American, seven honorable mention All-Americans, and six AVCA All-Region honorees. Four student-athletes also surpassed 1,000 career kills during his time with the LSU program.

Prior to his arrival at LSU, Loeswick spent three seasons as an assistant coach at Oklahoma from 2004-06. As a member of 2006 AVCA Central Regional Coach of the Year Santiago Restrepo's staff, Loeswick aided the Sooners' record-turnaround in 2006 highlighted by a 28-6 record and a trip to the NCAA Sweet 16. The 28 victories and .824 winning percentage were school records, while the 15 more league wins marked the best one-year turnaround in Big 12 history.

OU finished the 2006 season ranked No. 12 in the AVCA poll, its highest ranking in program history, and boasted a pair of All-American honors along with the Big 12 Defensive Player of the Year and Libero of the Year.

Before Oklahoma, Loeswick served as an assistant coach for six seasons at Cornell. During his tenure, the Big Red racked up a 93-38 record and 16 All-Ivy League selections, including 2000 Player of the Year Robin Moore. Cornell posted a top-three finish in the Ivy League standings during three of Loeswick's final four seasons, including a 21-4 mark and a second-place finish in 2003.

Loeswick played collegiately at the University of Southern California. He was a four-year starting setter for the Trojans and was just the third player in program history to start in a single position for all four seasons. Following his playing career at USC, Loeswick played in Germany's top professional volleyball league.

In 1996 Loeswick earned his bachelor's degree in exercise science from USC. A native of North Tonawanda, N.Y., he married the former Jennifer Arbuckle on June 17, 2006. Jennifer was a standout outside hitter at Virginia Tech from 1992-95.

The Loeswicks have three children - two daughters, Isabella Rose, a freshman on the team at Coastal, and Lillian Ann, and a son, Steven Jacob
