KEY STORYLINES/NOTES

SETTING THE SCENE

- No. 10 SMU begins a four-match road stretch this weekend as it travels to the Sunshine State for matches against Florida State on Friday night and No. 18 Miami on Sunday afternoon.
- The Mustangs jumped back into the top-10 at No. 10 after going 2-0 last weekend with victories over Georgia Tech (3-1) and Clemson (3-0).
- In the first public NCAA RPI rankings of the season, SMU comes in at No. 5. SMU is battle-tested, having played six teams that are in the top 25 in RPI this season, entering the weekend. The Mustangs also have the third strongest strength of schedule in the country.
- Coach Erger and company aim to collect their first two road victories in ACC play. The Mustangs went 9-1 in conference road matches last season.
- SMU looks to earn its third ranked win of the season when it takes on No. 18 Miami in Coral Gables to cap off the weekend on Sunday.
- Graduate opposite hitter Malaya Jones needs just 25 kills to reach the 1,500 kill mark for her career.
- Friday's matchup with Florida State will air on ACCNX, while SMU will battle Miami Sunday on the ACC Network, its fifth national broadcast of the season. AJ Ricketts (PxP) and Kelly Burke (Analyst) will have the call from Coral Gables.

QUICK HITS

- SMU's Favor Anyanwu and Jadyn Livings have been added to the AVCA National Player of the Year Watch List, announced by the association on Thursday, Oct. 2. Anyanwu and Livings are two of the 17 players added to the preseason list, which featured fellow Mustang Malaya Jones. With three athletes represented, the only team to have more than SMU is No. 1 Nebraska, which has four of its athletes listed.
- Averi Carlson enters the weekend first in the ACC and third in the country in assists per set at 11.16. She is also 6th in the country and first in the ACC in total assists with 614. Anyanwu enters the two matches in Florida ranked 19th in the nation in blocks per set and 17th in total blocks, good for fourth and first in the ACC, respectively.
- Jones and Livings are one of the best pin-hitter duos in the country. Jones and Livings both enter the week ranked in the top 10 in the ACC in kills per set, the only tandem in the ACC and one of nine duos in the country to be ranked in the top 150 nationally in that category.
- Georgia Tech Notables: Livings went for a stellar 18 kills and 11 digs in Friday's four-set win over Georgia Tech. It marked her third double-double of the season and seventh of her career. Madison Scheer poured in a season-best 10 kills against

BY THE NUMBERS

SMU will face 13 programs that were ranked or received votes in the 2025 AVCA/TARAFLEX Top-25 Preseason Poll.

15

The Mustangs have 15 teams on their 2025 schedule that reached the NCAA Tournament last season including seven who advanced to the sweet sixteen.

SMU will face eight teams who finished in the top-25 in the final 2024 AVCA Division I Women's Volleyball Poll.

KEY STORYLINES/NOTES

Georgia Tech, reaching double-figures for the first time in her SMU career.

- Clemson Notables: Carlson notched her 100th career ace on the first serve of the match Sunday against Clemson. Carlson also had a 28-assist, 14-dig double-double in the sweep over the Tigers, the fifth of the season for the senior and the 27th of her career. SMU hit .367 against Clemson, its highest percentage in ACC play through four matches. SMU improved to 7-0 this season when holding its opponents to a .200 or lower attack percentage.

SERIES HISTORY

- SMU has yet to lose to Florida State, holding a perfect 3-0 record. Each match has been a sweep in SMU's favor, and two of the three matches have been in Tallahassee.
- The series between the Hurricanes and the Mustangs is leveled at one match each. SMU won the most recent of the two meetings, defeating Miami 3-1 at home last season.

SCOUTING THE OPPONENT

The Florida State Seminoles

- Florida State is 8-5, 2-2 in ACC play, entering the weekend. The Seminoles went 1-1 both weeks to start ACC play.
- Last season, FSU went 21-10, 13-7 in the ACC. The Seminoles fell to Ole Miss in five sets in the first round of the NCAA Tournament of Omaha Regional.
- The Seminoles were picked 8th in the ACC Preseason Coaches Poll.

The Miami Hurricanes

- Miami is 14-1 and one of four teams to start ACC play 4-0.
- The Hurricanes have won 14 straight matches after falling to Indiana at home in their season opener.
- Miami was picked 7th in the ACC Preseason Coaches Poll. Flormarie Heredia Colon and Ariana Rodriguez represent Miami on the Preseason All-ACC Team.

GROW WITH THE NEW LOOK MUSTANGS

- Fans will get to grow with the new look Mustangs for years to come. 11 of the 17 players on SMU's 2025 roster are underclassmen and four of the seven starters are freshman or sophomores.
- SMU had to replace 95% of its point production from a season ago. With nine productive players graduating a season ago, Coach Erger and staff have reloaded their roster for the 2025 season, as they return no starters from the program's historic season.
- Production lost by the numbers: Set Played: 87%, Kills: 95%, Attacks: 96%, Assists: 99%, Digs: 95%.
- The highest returning points scorer is sophomore Natalia Newsome, who logged 56.5 points in her rookie season, with 44 kills and 21 blocks.

- SMU also brought in six transfers and seven players out of high school to go along with four returners.
- Each of the six transfers SMU brought have NCAA Tournament experience in their careers.

AVCA RANKINGS: WEEK 5

- SMU got back inside the top-10 at No. 10 in the latest edition of the American Volleyball Coaches Association (AVCA) Taraflex Coaches Poll.
- The Mustangs were ranked No. 10 in the 2025 preseason ranking, marking the first time that the program was ranked going into the season. No. 10 is the highest ranking in program history for the Mustangs.
- SMU is the fourth highest-ranked ACC squad, trailing No. 4 Pitt, No. 5 Louisville and No. 6 Stanford. After the No. 10 Mustangs, Miami is No. 18 and North Carolina is No. 23. Georgia Tech is receiving 18 votes.
- The Mustangs cracked the top 25 for the first time in last year's historic season, reaching as high as No. 10 in the country. The Mustangs have been ranked in 19 straight polls.

ALL-ACC PRESEASON TEAM

- Malaya Jones, Averi Carlson and Favor Anyanwu were voted to the All-ACC Preseason team by the ACC coaches.
- The 2024 Preseason Volleyball All-ACC Team consisted of 18 players and was voted on by the league's head coaches.
- Pitt leads the way with the most players on this year's preseason team, with four representatives. SMU, Stanford, and Louisville follow, each having three players listed.
- The Mustangs are already living up to the preseason hype. Carlson has won three of the six ACC Setter of the Week awards, while Jones was named National Player of the Week and ACC Offensive Player of the Week after opening weekend.

ACC PRESEASON POLL

- SMU was chosen fourth in the ACC Preseason Poll by the league's head coaches.
- The Mustangs finished fourth in the ACC a season ago after being picked sixth in the 2024 preseason.
- SMU trails defending ACC Champion, Pitt, then Louisville and Stanford, while North Carolina rounded out the top five behind SMU.

YEAR FOUR FOR ERGER

- Head Coach Sam Erger is in year four as SMU's head volleyball coach. Erger looks to continue the success of the program with back-to-back NCAA tournament second-round appearances and three straight 20-win seasons, the second-longest streak in program history. That includes going 16-4 in the ACC last year. SMU has 11 total 20-win seasons, three of which are in the three seasons under Erger.
- Erger has already taken SMU Volleyball to new heights in just three full seasons. Before the Erger's tenure, SMU had only been to two NCAA Tournamen-ments, in the 2015 and 2016 seasons.

- Erger is 51-12 (80.95%) in conference matches on the Hilltop, winning 15+ in each of her full three seasons.
- Erger has 10 ranked wins under her belt at SMU, three over top 10 teams.

ERGER'S TEAM TREND

Under Erger ... SMU's record during the months of: August and September - 38-18 (.679)
October and November - 44-9 (.830)
December - 1-2 (.333)

a team, SMU hit .270 and held the No. 8 Aggies to a .070 hitting percentage, their lowest of the season. SMU out-blocked Texas A&M 11-7 on the night.

- SMU improved to 2-0 against the Aggies in the all-time series with the win.
- The match was the first top 10 home matchup in Moody Coliseum, regardless of sport, since 1957.
- Outside hitter Jadyn Livings led the way for the 10th-ranked Mustangs with 14 kills, hitting .400, while adding four digs. Middle blocker Natalia Newsome logged eight kills on a .538 hitting percentage against the Aggies. Favor Anyanwu led the match with eight blocks and Jordyn Schilling led the way with 12 digs.
- Setter Averi Carlson dished out 29 assists with four digs and five blocks in the three-setter. As a team, SMU hit .270 and held the No. 8 Aggies to a .070 hitting percentage, their lowest of the season. SMU out-blocked Texas A&M 11-7 on the night.
- Jadyn Livings earned double-digit kills for the first straight match, tied for the longest streak of her career. Her 14 kills were double the Aggies' leading attacker.

LEAGUE WEEKLY AWARDS

September 22

- SMU senior setter Averi Carlson earned her third weekly honor from the Atlantic Coast Conference on Monday, as she was named the ACC Co-Setter of the Week on Sep. 22.
- Carlson averaged 11.72 assists per set, which led the ACC, as she pushed the Mustangs to wins over Stephen F. Austin and UTEP. The Lucas, Texas native dished out 37 assists with seven digs, three blocks, and two aces in the straight set victory over SFA, where SMU hit .383, its second-highest percentage of the season.
- In the Friday match against UTEP, Carlson had 45 assists and eight digs in the four-set victory to close out non-conference play.
- Carlson was also named ACC Setter of the Week on September 1 and 8.

September 8

- Three Mustangs earned Atlantic Coast Conference weekly accolades on Monday, September 8, as Setter Averi Carlson earned ACC Setter of the Week for the second consecutive week, Jadyn Livings was selected as the ACC Co-Offensive Player of the Week, and Christa Wilburn earned ACC Freshman of the Week honors. It marked the second time in program history that three players earned conference weekly honors in the same week.
- Carlson averaged 12.73 assists per set, totaling 140 assists in the Mustangs' three wins. She was the catalyst of an SMU squad that averaged 14.36 assists per set, second in the ACC and 11th in the country this week. The Lucas, Texas native also added 2.36 digs per set, 1.36 blocks per set, while notching a team-most four aces in week two of action. She logged two double-doubles in the three matches, with 35 assists and a career-high 10 blocks against Northern Iowa, and then a 56-assist and 12-dig performance in the win over Stony Brook on Saturday. Carlson led an SMU offense that finished first in the conference and seventh in the country in hitting percentage, hitting .375 on the week.
- Livings earned the first conference weekly honor of her career as she led the Mustangs with 3.55 kills per set on the week while hitting an efficient .421 in the three matches. Livings went for 18 kills, nine digs, and six blocks while hitting .371 in SMU's win over Washington. She closed out the week with a 13-kill, eight-dig outing against Stony Brook while hitting .571 in the match. The Colony, Texas native averaged 2.00 digs per set and .64 blocks per set.

- Wilburn hit at a .462 clip, averaging 1.50 kills per set in the Mustangs' 3-0 week. She notched eight kills on 12 swings, hitting .667 in her first career home match against Washington. The Dripping Springs, Texas native added three aces to her season total, bringing her to ten on the year, which ranks sixth in the ACC.

September 1

- Setter Averi Carlson was named the Atlantic Coast Conference Setter of the Week and opposite hitter Malaya Jones was selected as the ACC's Offensive Player of the Week, it was announced Monday, September 1. The two standout performers helped the Mustangs to five-set wins over LSU and No. 20 Baylor in Baton Rouge over the weekend.
- Carlson logged 10.40 assists per set during SMU's opening weekend, along with 2.00 digs per set. The Lucas, Texas native, logged consecutive 50+ assist matches, including 53 assists, 14 digs and a career-high five blocks (2 solo blocks), against No. 20 Baylor on Saturday.
- Jones has now won three conference Offensive Player of the Week awards. The other two were in the Mountain West with Colorado State. It is the first setter of the week honor for Carlson in her career. Carlson was a Big 12 Rookie of the Week five times at Baylor in 2022.

A PROGRAM FIRST

- SMU Volleyball transfer opposite hitter Malaya Jones was named to the AVCA Preseason Division I National Player of the Year Watch List, presented by Nike Volleyball, on Friday, July 23.
- The 6-0 graduate from El Dorado Hills, Calif., is the first player in program history to earn a spot on the association's preseason list.
- The 2025 Preseason Watch List includes 30 players from 20 different schools. More players can be added to the mid-season list in October, followed by a list of semifinalists in November, the announcement of the finalists in mid-December, and the reveal of the Player of the Year in Kansas City, Mo., at the AVCA Awards Banquet on Friday, December 19.
- Jones is one of seven players in the ACC who earned a spot on the list. Last season, Celia Cullen and Naya Shime were added to the mid-season list and this season Jadyn Livings and Favor Anyanwu were added to the list mid-year.

GOLD, GOLD, GOLD

- Three Mustangs earned gold medals at the 2025 Pan American Cup this summer for Team USA.
- Averi Carlson helped lead the U23 team to gold in Leon, Mexico. Favor Anyanwu and Jadyn Livings earned gold in San Jose, Costa Rica with the U21 team.
- Anyanwu and Livings led the way for Team USA in the gold medal match with 13 points each. Anyanwu was named Best Blocker of the event.
- All three players not only made the roster but started for their respective age groups.

AIR NEWSOME

- Sophomore Middle Natalia Newsome has taken the internet by storm with her jumping ability. Newsome has a 41 inch vertical, a max vert that would have placed top 4 at the 2025 NBA Draft Combine. Her max touch is a foot above the NBA rim.

COACHING OPPORTUNITIES WITH USAVB

- Associate Head Coach Trent Sorensen and Assistant Coach/Recruiting Coordinator Christa Branson got opportunities to coach for USA Volleyball this summer in the National Training Development Program (NTDP).
- Sorensen participated in the Girls Indoor Spring Training Series, which ran from May 8-11 at the IMG Academy in Bradenton, Florida.
- Bransen took part in the session in Hamilton, Ohio, which ran from July 29-Aug. 1.
- At NTDP, indoor, beach and sitting volleyball players have increased opportunities to train and compete with and against the best athletes from across the country while learning from some of the best minds in the game. NTDP will increase the opportunities for athletes to be seen, evaluated, and developed within the USAV National Team system.

SCHEDULE BREAKDOWN

- SMU will face 13 programs that are ranked or received votes in the 2025 AVCA/TARAFLEX Top 25 Preseason Poll.
- The Mustangs have 15 teams on their 2025 slate that reached the NCAA Tournament last season, including ten who won at least one match in the tournament, and six that advanced to the sweet sixteen.
- SMU will face eight teams that finished in the top 25 in the final 2024 AVCA Division I Women's Volleyball Poll.

WINNERS IN THE NON-CONFERENCE

- SMU's non-conference slate is comprised of ten programs with an average win total of 22 from last season, 12 in conference play. Seven out of the ten non-conference opponents for the Mustangs notched 20+ wins in 2024.
- The average final 2024 RPI for the 10 teams on the docket for SMU in the 2025 non-conference is 45.5.

ANOTHER IMPACT TRANSFER CLASS

Averi Carlson

- Averi Carlson comes to Dallas after two seasons at Baylor and one at Texas. Carlson played in 93 sets and 25 matches for the Longhorns in 2024, totaling 787 assists and averaging 8.46 assists

- Carlson is set to take over as the starting setter in her fourth collegiate season, with complete control of the offense after splitting reps in Austin. She has already earned high praise from the league's head coaches, earning All-ACC Preseason Team honors before playing an official match in the red and blue.
- In her two seasons at Baylor, Carlson racked up several accolades. In her first year in Waco, she was an All-Big 12 First Team performer and an All-Big 12 Freshman Team selection after being named Preseason Big 12 Freshman of the Year. In her second season with Baylor, she was named to the AVCA All-Southwest Region First Team and was an All-Big 12 Second Team selection.
- Coach Erger recruited Carlson to Baylor before taking the head coaching gig at SMU in 2022, before Carlson's freshman season in Waco.

Malaya Jones

- Malaya Jones chose to play her final season of college volleyball in Dallas for SMU after an All-American career at Colorado State. Last season, Jones started in all 31 matches for the Rams, playing in all 121 sets.
- Jones was an AVCA All-American Honorable Mention, AVCA West Region First-Team selection, and the 2024 Mountain West Player of the Year after averaging 4.69 kills per set, which ranked 13th in the nation and first in the Mountain West.
- The El Dorado, California native, finished the season with 640 points, seventh in the nation, averaging 5.29 points per set, which ranked 13th in the country. Her 567 kills were the fifth most in the NCAA.
- Jones has picked up two preseason awards, including AVCA Preseason National Player of the Year Watchlist and the Preseason All-ACC Team.
- She has collected 1,271 kills, 525 digs, and 196 total blocks in her three playing seasons at Colorado State.
- Jones wants to play volleyball at the highest level for her final season and will certainly get the opportunity to do so with SMU in the ACC.

Favor Anyanwu

- Favor Anyanwu returns to her home city after a solid freshman campaign at USC. As a freshman, Anyanwu played in 24 matches for the Trojans and collected 133 kills and 85 blocks.
- Anyanwu had five or more blocks six times last season at USC.
- She has also earned preseason honors from the ACC by the league's head coaches, being one of 18 athletes on the All-ACC Preseason Team.
- Anyanwu was a standout at Sachse High School, where she was named Texas District 9-6A Offensive Player of the Year and Dallas Star News First Team and Middle Blocker of the Year. She holds the Sachse record for career blocks (454), blocks in a season (167), single season hitting percentage (.507), and kills in a match (37 in four sets).

Jadyn Livings

- Jadyn Livings also returns to her home city after spending her freshman season at USC alongside Anyanwu. As a Trojan, Livings collected 219 kills, 123 digs, 20 aces, and 35 blocks.
- Livings helped Prestonwood Christian Academy win back-to-back Texas Association of Private and Parochial Schools (TAPPS) State Championships from 2023 to 2024.

- The Colony, Texas native, had 13 matches with 10+ kills last season for USC, including a season-high 18 against UNLV in mid-September. Livings also notched five matches with 10+ digs, including 12 at Illinois in early November.

Jordyn Schilling

- With both Liberors graduating from last year's squad, SMU went out and got Big South Libero of the Year, and one of the best returning receivers in the country, Jordyn Schilling from High Point.
- Schilling appeared in 30 matches for the Panthers after tallying 543 digs, which ranked 30th in the country, to go along with 142 assists. Her 543 digs were 236 more than SMU's 2024 digs leaders Maya Tabron, who dug 307 balls a year ago as an outside. Schillings' 543 digs would have been the second highest in the ACC and the 10th most in program history (ninth in the rally scoring era).
- The Newport Beach, California native, averaged 4.89 digs per set, third best in the Big South and 28th in the nation. Her 4.89 digs per set would have led the ACC last season, .49 per set more than Elena Scott of Louisville, who won ACC Libero of the Year in 2024.
- Her 50 aces ranked first in the Big South and 40th in the NCAA.
- In her career, Schilling racked up 1,181 digs, 230 assists, and 101 aces in two seasons at High Point and one at West Virginia.

Madison Scheer

- Madison Scheer transferred to SMU after three productive seasons at Auburn.
- Scheer started in all 27 matches for the Tigers, logging 352 kills, while hitting .244, along with 74 digs and 10 aces.
- She tallied a season-high 18 kills on three different occasions throughout the season and eclipsed the double-digit kills mark 23 times.
- The Missouri native became the 16th player in Auburn history to reach 1,000 career kills and the fastest player to do so in the rally-scoring era.
- Scheer ended the season with single-season career highs in kills per set (3.46), service aces (10), digs per set (0.73), blocks (67), blocks per set (0.66), and points per set (3.93).
- In 2023, she was named an AVCA All-South Region performer and National Player of the Week on Oct. 10 after putting up 33 kills on a monstrous .472 hitting percentage, averaging 4.13 kills per set and 4.31 points per set to lead Auburn to wins over Florida and South Carolina.

2024 IN REVIEW

- In her third season at SMU, head coach Sam Erger led the program in its first season in the Power 4, earning a No. 2 seed in the NCAA Tournament and host-site honors for the opening two rounds for the first time in program history, becoming the first DFW school to be seeded high enough to host since UTA hosted in 1991.
- The Mustangs finished the year 25-8, finishing fourth in the ACC with a 16-4 conference record. The Mustangs defeated seven ranked teams in 2024, including No. 1 Pitt and No. 2 Nebraska. The Mustangs also collected a program record of 12 road wins.
- The outstanding regular season earned SMU its fourth NCAA Tournament appearance and its second in a row. SMU swept Wichita State in the opener before falling to Missouri in four sets.

- There were four All-ACC and four AVCA All-Region Selections in 2024. Naya Shime and Celia Cullen were named First Team All-Conference and All-Region Selection. At the same time, Natalie Foster and Maya Tabron earned a spot on the ACC Second Team and All-Region honorable mention accolades. Shime and Cullen were also named AVCA and VolleyballMag.com All-Americans, with Shime being selected to the third team and Cullen bringing in honorable mention recognition. Shime became the program's first player to make an All-American Team.
- Cullen, who averaged 9.97 assists, ranking third in the conference, paced a Mustang attack that ranked 26th in the nation in hitting percentage. The graduate from Brighton, Michigan, was second in the conference in total assists with 1,187 while adding 1.87 digs per set, which is second on the team. She was named ACC Setter of the Week twice and was added to the AVCA National Player of the Year Watchlist midway through the season. She is currently fifth all-time at SMU in assists, with 3,457 in just three years on the Hilltop.
- Shime, who was the first Mustang taken off the board in the 2024 Pro Volleyball Federation (PVF) draft by the Grand Rapids Rise, put up a team-leading 3.44 kills per set on .283 hitting and 1.02 blocks per set in 2024. She also has collected 26 double-digit kill outings, which led SMU. The Casper, Wyoming native was named ACC Defensive Player of the Week once and was added to the mid-season AVCA Player of the Year Watch list along with Cullen. She had three double-doubles and three games with 20 kills this season, including a season-high 22 in the second-round matchup against Missouri.
- Foster, a graduate middle from Mattawan, Michigan, was one of the most efficient middles in the ACC as she led the team and was third in the conference in hitting percentage, swinging at a .360 percent clip. Foster finished the year second in the league in both total aces, 64, and aces per set at .54, each ranking in the top 10 in the country. She also averages 1.71 kills per set and 1.04 blocks per set. Foster broke the program's single season ace record. Foster was the second Mustang selected in the PVF draft last week, going to the Orlando Valkyries as the No. 14 overall pick.
- Tabron, a graduate outside hitter from Gilroy, California, ranked second on the Mustangs in kills with 3.03 per set and added a team-best 2.60 digs per set in her final collegiate season. Tabron led SMU with 13 double-doubles and 17 matches with double-digit digs this season. She also has 21 matches with ten or more kills and was second on the team in service aces with 34, the most of any season in her five-year collegiate career. Tabron was the final Mustang drafted in the PVF draft this season, selected by the San Diego Mojo at No. 23 overall.

- Against Milwaukee on Sept. 5, SMU hit .515, which set the Rally-Scoring Era program record for highest hitting percentage in a match.

DYNAMIC DALLAS DUO

- Sophomores Jady N Livings and Favor Anyanwu grew up together. They have played together since they were 12 years old, playing club together at Texas Advantage Volleyball (TAV).
- They decided to play their first year of collegiate volleyball at USC before transferring to SMU in the spring together, coming back home to their home city.
- Both will be starters for the Mustangs in just their sophomore season, leading a bright future for SMU Volleyball.

FOUR RETURNERS

- SMU returns four players from the 2024 roster, three of whom played in 18+ matches for the Mustangs.
- Jentry Lamirand appeared in 18 matches in 2024, recording 28 kills, 39 digs, and four blocks. Lamirand was a team captain for the 2024 squad.
- Natalia Newsome provided a spark as the Mustangs' third middle last season. The high-flying freshman notched 44 kills, including a season-high of seven against NC State in the regular season finale. Newsome swung at a .415 clip in her first year as a Mustang.
- In her third year with the program, Casey Batenhorst served as backup setter behind Celia Cullen and had a significant role as a serving sub for the Mustangs. She made the most of her opportunities at the service line, recording 19 aces, which was fifth most on the team. Batenhorst led the 2023 Mustangs in aces with 34.

ROSTER BREAKDOWN

- The 2025 roster consists of players from five states: Texas (11), California (3), Colorado (1), Florida (1) and Missouri (1).
- Out of the 11 players from the state of Texas, six are from the Dallas-Fort Worth Metroplex.

KEEP THE TEXAS KIDS HOME

- SMU has 11 players from the state of Texas on its roster, the tied for second most of the seven Power Four schools in the state.
- Texas A&M (13) is the only school ahead of SMU (TCU, 11).
- Out of the 11 Texas natives on the 2025 roster, six of them are from the DFW area, which is the most of any Power 4 school in the state.
- JUMPING OUT THE GYM
- Sophomore middle Natalia Newsome has become a viral sensation since arriving on campus. Newsome has taken the internet by storm with her jumping ability.
- The Arlington native touches 11 feet and has a 41-inch vertical. Impressive for an athlete who is listed as 5-11. Newsome is set to be the Mustangs second middle and a starter in year two.

TEAM CAPTAINS – 2025 LEADERS

- Senior outside Jentry Lamirand, graduate opposite Malaya Jones, and freshman DS/Libero Sarah Frazee have been named captains for the 2025 volleyball team by the players and coaches.
- Lamirand was also a captain on last year's team, while Jones and Frazee are new to the program.

LEADER ON AND OFF THE COURT

- Jentry Lamirand is the SMU Student-Athlete

Advisory Committee (SAAC) President and one of SMU's ACC SAAC representatives for the 2025-26 school year. She also serves on the Communications Chair for the ACC SAAC Executive Board and will also serve on the Infractions & Sportsmanship Committee.

- SAAC is a partnership of the student-athletes representing all 17 sports at SMU. SAAC provides insight into the student-athlete experience. The SAAC also offers input on the rules, regulations, and policies that affect student-athletes' lives on NCAA member institution campuses. Presently, there are separate national SAACs for NCAA Divisions I, II and III. NCAA legislation mandates that all member institutions have SAACs on their respective campuses. Further, NCAA legislation requires that all member conferences have SAACs.
- Lamirand is the exact model for what Sam Erger wants an SMU volleyball player to be.

THE ROOKIE CLASS

- Coach Erger and staff brought in seven freshmen from the high school ranks. This deep rookie class consists of three outside, two middles, a defense specialist/libero, and a setter.
- With 10 players gone from last season's roster, a few freshmen may be called upon to play significant roles in their first year as Mustangs.

WILBURN ENROLLS EARLY

- Outside hitter Christa Wilburn has been added to the 2025 SMU volleyball roster. Wilburn initially committed to the Mustangs as part of the 2026 freshman class but has reclassified to join the team this fall.
- The 6-foot-2 outside hitter was a standout at Dripping Springs High School and Regents School of Austin. As a freshman and sophomore at Regents, she tallied over 500 kills per season, helping her collect First Team All-State and All-District honors in both seasons.
- Wilburn transferred to Dripping Springs in what would end up being her final high school season, and in her junior season, finished the year with 344 kills and 346 digs, racking up several accolades, including AVCA Girls High School All-Region, Texas Girls Coaches Association (TGCA) 6A All-State Team, TGCA 6A District Newcomer of the Year, while also being selected to the TGCA 6A All-Star Team as an alternate.
- In her club career, Wilburn was a three-time team MVP and a four-time captain for Austin Skyline Juniors.

TICKETING VOLLEYBALL

- Fresh off a historic first season in the ACC, SMU announced season tickets and single-match pricing for the upcoming 2025 Volleyball season.
- SMU set the six highest single-match attendance records in program history in 2024. SMU had 6,673 fans in attendance in its win over No. 2 Nebraska, 3,015 in the four-set loss to No. 4 Louisville, 2,317 in its five-set win over No. 1 Pitt, and 1,883 in its 3-1 victory over Houston. The Nebraska match was the only match ticketed in 2024.
- With an attendance of 2,317 against No. 1 Pitt, SMU Volleyball broke the previous single-season record set in 2019 (10,890 in 13 home games).
- SMU finished the year with a program record season attendance of 30,976, 31st most in the country, an a 220% increase from 2023.

STAFF RETENTION

- Coach Erger was able to retain all her coaching staff from a season ago. Trent Sorensen and Christa Branson return in their same roles for their fourth straight season on the Hilltop.
- Clayton Bristow enters his third season with the program, and Diego Aguilar will begin his third season with the program and second as Technical Coordinator.
- Erger added two graduate assistants this season in Celia Cullen and Skylar Stilwell, replacing former SMU standout libero Sina Uluave, who was in the role last season. Uluave is now an assistant coach at East Carolina.

REPLACING ALL-AMERICANS

- SMU will have to replace its entire starting rotation from a year ago, but perhaps most notably two All-Americans in Naya Shime and Celia Cullen.
- Shime became the first Mustang to make an All-American team in 2024, earning AVCA and VolleyballMag Third Team honors, while Cullen earned All-American Honorable Mention recognition by both publications.
- Shime was a First-Team All-ACC and All-Region performer as she led the Mustangs in kills with 396 in 2024, the sixth highest in the rally-scoring era in program history. Shime averaged 3.44 kills per set and averaged 1.02 blocks per game, which was the third highest on the team behind the two starting middles.
- Celia Cullen was a First-Team All-ACC and an All-Region selection at the setter position for SMU. Cullen had been the starting setter for the last three seasons, each year under coach Sam Erger. Cullen averaged 9.97 assists per set, which ranked third in the ACC and top 60 in the country.

REPLACING PROS

- The Mustangs also will have to replace their two starting middles in Natalie Foster and Nnedi Okamkor, and perhaps the second most productive player in Maya Tabron.
- Foster took the league by storm with her serve, breaking SMU's single-season ace record and finishing top 10 in the country in aces per set. Foster was also one of the most efficient hitters in the country, finishing the season third in the ACC in hitting percentage, swinging at a .360 clip in 2024.
- Okamkor anchored the Mustangs' defense a season ago, leading the team in blocks, which put her at 5th best in the league with 1.28 blockers per set.
- Maya Tabron was the Mustangs' leader in digs while also ranking second on the team in kills in 2024. Tabron led the Mustangs in points 14 times last season.

ACC NOTEBOOK

- Five ACC teams landed in the Preseason AVCA Poll, released on Wednesday, headlined by a nation-best four teams in the top 10: Pitt (No. 3), Louisville (No. 4), Stanford (No. 6), SMU (No. 10), Georgia Tech (No. 22). North Carolina, Miami and Florida State received votes.
- ESPN is set to showcase 34 ACC regular-season volleyball matches across its platforms this season.
- Seven ACC Volleyball players were named to the 2025 AVCA Player of the Year Award Watch List.

The Player of the Year will be announced on Friday, December 19, at the AVCA Awards Banquet.

- The ACC had 11 players drafted in the 2024 Pro Volleyball Federation Draft, headlined by Louisville's Anna DeBeer, who was drafted second overall to Indy Ignite, and Florida State's Khouri Louis, who was drafted sixth overall to the Atlanta Vibe. Louisville's Elena Scott, and SMU's Naya Shime and Natalie Foster were drafted in the second round. Florida State's Taylor Head, SMU's Maya Tabron and Louisville's Charitie Luper were selected in the third round. Stanford's Elena Oglivie and Pitt's Valerie Vazquez-Gomez were drafted in the fourth round, while Georgia Tech's Bianca Bertolino was taken in the fifth and final round.

MUSTANG 2025-26 PRO CONTRACTS

- Former Mustangs Natalie Foster and Naya Shime will team up in Orlando to play for the Valkyries this season. Both enter year two as pros. Foster returns to Orlando for her second season, while Shime begins her first year in Florida after one season with the Grand Rapids Rise. Foster logged 183 kills while swinging .355 in her first year in Orlando. Like she did in college, Foster was a force at the service line, earning 64 aces, which was a new club and league record. She also added 44 blocks and 0.43 blocks per set for the Valkyries. She ended the season with five matches of 10+ kills and 14 games with three or more aces. Foster had two outings with six aces. Shime played in 10 games for the Rise, earning 109 points, 3.21 points per set. She finished the season with 93 total kills in her first year as a pro.
- After a successful year one with the San Diego Mojo, the Mojo re-signed outside hitter Maya Tabron for the 2026 season. Tabron was stellar for the Mojo in 2025, appearing in 25 matches (16 starts) and playing in 81 sets. She scored 279 points with 229 kills, 38 blocks, and 12 service aces, while adding 219 digs with three assists and collecting seven double-doubles. On the year, she averaged 3.44 points, 2.83 kills, 0.47 blocks, 0.15 aces and 2.70 digs per set. Her 12 service aces tied for the second-most in a season in Mojo history, while her 229 kills and 764 attacks were the third-most, 279 points ranked fourth and 38 blocks were fifth. She established Mojo rookie records for blocks, blocks per set, and aces per set, and tied the record for total service aces.
- Celia Cullen has been signed to the inaugural Dallas Pro Volleyball team in Major League Volleyball, formerly known as the Pro Volleyball Federation (PVF). The first season for the franchise will be in 2026.
- Emma Clothier, a 2023 graduate of SMU and the first-ever Mustang drafted to play pro volleyball under Coach Erger, signed with Macerata in Italy, part of the Serie A1 League.

COACH CULLEN

COACH'S CORNER

SAM ERGER

HEAD COACH
BOWLING GREEN, '11
FOURTH SEASON - 83-29 (.741)

Samantha "Sam" Erger was named Head Volleyball Coach at SMU in February of 2022. Erger enters her fourth season as head coach on the Hilltop.

In her third season at SMU, Erger was voted AVCA Southwest Region Coach of the Year after leading the program in its first season in the Power 4, earning a No. 2 seed in the NCAA Tournament and host-site honors for the opening two rounds for the first time in program history, becoming the first DFW school to be seeded high enough to host since UTA hosted in 1991.

The Mustangs ended the season 25-8, finishing fourth in the ACC with a 16-4 conference record. Erger led the Mustangs to the program's fourth NCAA Tournament appearance, its second in-a-row, and an opening round tourney win, sweeping Wichita State. Erger's Mustangs defeated seven ranked teams in 2024, including No. 1 Pitt and No. 2 Nebraska. The Mustangs also collected a program record of 12 round wins in her third season on the Hilltop.

Erger mentored four All-ACC and four AVCA All-Region Selections. Naya Shime and Celia Cullen were named First-Team All-Conference and All-Region Selection. At the same time, Natalie Foster and Maya Tabron earned a spot on the ACC Second-Team and All-Region honorable mention accolades. Shime and Cullen were also named AVCA All-Americans, with Shime being selected to the third team, the program's first player to make an All-American Team, and Cullen bringing in honorable mention recognition.

Under Coach Erger, the Mustangs have had four players drafted into the Pro Volleyball Federation (PVF), three coming in 2024, as Naya Shime, Natalie Foster, and Maya Tabron were selected in the second and third rounds of the draft. Emma Clothier was the first Mustangs drafted in 2023. Erger's second season (2023) on the Hilltop was one for the record books.

Erger's second season (2023) on the Hilltop was one for the record books. Erger was named the 2023 American Athletic Conference Coach of the Year after the Mustangs finished the season with a 26-7 overall record and won the AAC championship. SMU finished league play with an 18-1 record, marking the best conference winning percentage in program history (.947), and won the program's first league title since 2016. The Mustangs rode a 15-match win streak into the NCAA Tournament and entered as a No. 7 seed after seven straight sweeps. SMU swept Texas State in the first round of the NCAA Tournament to finish the month of November without dropping a set.

Erger mentored five All-AAC and two AVCA All-Region Selections, including the American's Player of the Year Emma Clothier, Setter of the Year Celia Cullen, and Libero of the Year Sina Uluave. Jamison Wheeler was named a First-Team selection, and Natalie Perdue earned a spot on the Second-Team. Clothier and Cullen both earned All-Region honors.

The 2023 Mustangs finished their campaign with the best team season attacking percentage in program history (.257). SMU tied for the fourth most aces per set (1.50) while recording the eighth most aces in program history with 166. SMU was top-10 in program history with 446 blocks and passed out the 15th most assists with 1466.

Erger completed her first season (2022) as head coach on the Hilltop with a 22-10 overall record. Selected fifth in the American Athletic Conference Preseason Coaches Poll, the Mustangs finished third with a 15-5 clip in league play.

Erger guided Marieke van der Mark and Jamison Wheeler to First-Team All-AAC honors, and Celia Cullen to second-team honors. It marked the first time since 2019 that two Mustangs garnered first-team honors. SMU collected the third most selections in the conference under Erger.

Erger came to the Hilltop after eight seasons at Baylor, where she spent the last two seasons as associate head coach. Prior to her promotion, she spent five seasons as an assistant coach and one season as director of operations in Waco.

In addition to her role as an assistant coach, she also served as Baylor's recruiting coordinator and setting coach. Under her guidance, her 2022 class is ranked No. 4 by PrepVolleyball.com and includes the Gatorade National Player of the Year, setter Averil Carlson. When she left Waco, the 2023 Bears' class was ranked No. 9 in the country. Their 2021 class was also ranked No. 9 by VolleyballMag.com, the 2019 class was ranked No. 11 by PrepVolleyball.com and their 2017 class was also ranked in the top 20. Erger helped recruit the program's then-highest-ranked recruit from PrepVolleyball.com in Kara McGhee and also helped land three other UA All-Americans in 2019.

In 2021, Erger helped lead Baylor to its third consecutive NCAA Regional Semifinal. It was the Bears' sixth-straight NCAA Tournament appearance and 20+-win season. Her group of fifth-year seniors ended their careers with 91 wins over four years and 115 over five, making a National Semifinal and winning a Big 12 Championship in the process. The group also earned a No. 1 AVCA national ranking and No. 1 overall seed in the NCAA Tournament in 2019.

Prior to coming to Baylor, she made her head coaching debut at Hill College in Hillsboro, Texas. Upon taking the position in 2013, she recruited 10 new players to complement only five returnees and led the young team to a 29-9 overall record, an NJCAC Conference title and ended a 12-year Hill College drought by reaching the NJCAA Division I national tournament. She was subsequently honored as the 2013 NJCAA District F Coach of the Year. That same season, Erger coached Hill College's first All-American since 1996.

Erger had a two-year graduate assistant stint at NCAA Division II Findlay (Ohio) to begin her coaching career. There, she was responsible for training setters and assisted in recruiting efforts. After completing her collegiate playing career, Erger was a member of the inaugural class of the 2011 FCA Volleyball college internship program in Huntington Beach, Calif. In addition, she was a 2010 American Volleyball Coaches Association Coaches for Coaches scholarship recipient.

Erger played NCAA Division I volleyball at Bowling Green State as a setter, and she left the school ranked fifth all-time in career assists, second all-time in single-season assists, and top 10 in career aces. As a freshman in 2007, Erger earned MAC All-Freshman team recognition. Erger graduated from BGSU in 2011 with a degree in business administration and marketing and completed a master's degree in business administration from the University of Findlay in 2013.

Erger has three sisters who all played collegiate volleyball. Rachel and Kristen played at Central Connecticut and Rochester College, respectively, while Jordan is the head coach at Dallas Baptist after a successful career at Virginia Tech and playing professionally in Denmark. In addition, Erger's father, Jim Fish, is a prominent high school volleyball coach at North Branch High School in North Branch, Mich.

Erger's husband, James, played basketball at BGSU. The couple has three children: sons, Malachi and Micah, and daughter, Demi.

WHAT THEY ARE SAYING ABOUT SAM ERGER

"Sam Erger is an incredible hire for SMU. I'm confident Sam will take SMU to unprecedented levels. She combines a relentless work ethic with a passionate desire to teach. She loves the whole athlete. She is an elite level coach and will soon be considered one of the country's best. Her vision and wisdom will permeate every facet of the program. SMU fans can look forward to thrilling and exciting volleyball matches."

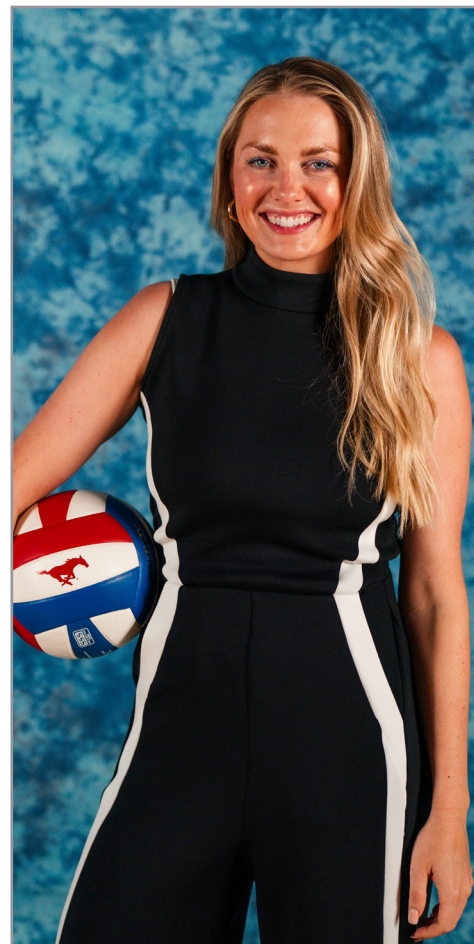

Ryan McGuyre, Baylor Head Coach

"SMU and Sam Erger are a perfect fit. Sam's passion for the game and for her players will make an immediate impact on the program. She is a true rising star in our profession."

Jim Barnes, Iowa Head Coach

"As I look back on my five years at Baylor, I attribute a huge portion of my success and growth to Sam Erger. Sam has an incredible ability to influence and inspire those around her to become the best version of themselves. I feel that is exactly what she was able to do for me, motivate me to become the best version of myself on the court, in the classroom, in life and most importantly through my relationship with The Lord. I am so excited for Sam to embark on this new journey with SMU Volleyball because I am confident she will bring her passion and determination for success to that program just as she radiated it at Baylor. SMU really got a good one."
