SMU WOMEN'S BASKETBALL GAME NOTES

LAST TIME OUT

DALLAS (SMU) – The SMU women's basketball program had three players in double figures as the team fell 73-51 to Florida State on Thursday inside Moody Coliseum.

After a closely contested first half, SMU (7-13, 2-6 ACC), which has been dealing with injuries of late, was unable to keep pace with Florida State (7-13, 2-6 ACC) down the stretch.

SMU recorded 15 steals, forced 21 turnovers, scoring 22 points off them, but it was not enough to keep up with FSU, which made 12 three-pointers in the game. The Mustangs also had a cold shooting night, finishing at 33% from the field and making only three from beyond the arc, while the Seminoles finished at 40% shooting and hauled in 56 rebounds.

The Mustangs recorded their 13th game with double-digit steals this season, the most in a single season since 2019-20 (13) and forced 20-plus turnovers for the 10th time this year, which is also the most since 2019-20 (12).

Anaya Brown was one rebound away from a double-double as she ended her night with 10 points and nine rebounds. Brown also had a season high of four blocks and four steals in the game.

Sahnaya Jah scored in double figures for the fifth time this season and led SMU with 14 points. Jah was 6-13 from the floor and had a career high five steals.

Zahra King totaled 11 points, five rebounds, and led SMU with three assists. King has now scored double-digit points in her last five games.

It was a slow start to the game for both teams. Brown hit a free throw to get SMU on the board three minutes into the game while FSU missed its first six shots. The Mustangs jumped out to a 6-2 lead before Florida State went on an 11-0 run and regained the advantage. Brown hit her second three-pointer of the quarter to end the Seminole run. Brown had seven points in the first.

SMU kept applying pressure, resulting in turnovers. Thompson tied the game at 18 apiece after a tough and one finish. Scoring stalled for a good stretch of the quarter before FSU found a groove and pushed the lead to six at the half. FSU's Jasmine Shavers hit five threes in the first half and led all scorers with 17 points. She led all scorers with 22 points and was 6-of-10 from three-point range.

The Mustangs forced 14 turnovers, which resulted in 11 points for SMU in the first half. Brown led the Mustangs with seven, while Thompson added five.

Florida State pushed its lead to double-digits after scoring 11 straight points to start the second half. SMU responded with a 9-3 run highlighted by a King three-pointer. The Mustangs struggled to find a rhythm the rest of the period as FSU outscored the Mustangs 24-13 in the quarter and led 54-37 heading into the fourth.

FSU led by as much as 25 in the fourth. Jah led the charge in the fourth for SMU to get back in the game, scoring five points in the quarter, but the Mustangs were unable to generate enough stops on defense to cut down the lead.

SMU 50

// A NEW ERA BEGINS

- SMU Women's Basketball enters a new era under Head Coach Adia Barnes.
- Barnes came to the Hilltop after nine seasons as the helm at Arizona, where she built Arizona Women's Basketball into a fixture on the national stage of college basketball while developing her reputation as one of the top coaches in the sport.
- Under Barnes, the program ascended to new heights - reaching the national championship game, signing elite recruiting classes and cementing deep connections with the local community. She led UA to six straight post-season appearances and five straight 20-win seasons, highlighted by an impressive run to the NCAA Championship Game in 2021.
- Barnes was the first coaching hire by new SMU Athletic Director Damon Evans, who called the SMU women's basketball program "a sleeping giant."

// ROSTER OVERHAUL

- SMU hit the portal hard this offseason, adding 12 transfers and bringing in three freshmen.
- Paulina Paris, Sahnja Jah and Mailien Rolf all played at Arizona last season
- Elizaveta Filchagina, Jazzy Gipson, and Roxy White are the three freshmen on this year's roster. Filchagina appeared in both exhibition games.
- The Mustangs were named one of the top-10 portal winners by ESPN for its 2025-26 portal class.

// THE COACHING STAFF

- Head Coach Adia Barnes brought her entire coaching staff over from Arizona with her. The four assistant coaches include Salvo Coppa, Barnes' husband, Bett Shelby, Anthony Turner and Kamiko Williams.
- This exact core of experienced staff has been together for the past two seasons with Williams joining in 2024, Turner in 2023, Shelby in 2022 and Coppa since Barnes took over at Arizona.

// SHOW-STOPPING SKINNER

- A native of Washington D.C., Tyi Skinner transferred to the Hilltop after three years at Arizona State. After missing the 2023-24 season, Skinner bounced back and earned All-Big 12 honorable mention honors last season, averaging 16.8 points per game and shooting 39.8% from the field. During the 2022-23 season, Skinner earned All-Pac-12 honorable mention honors for her play, averaging over 19 points per game.
- Skinner has recorded 33 games scoring 20 or more points in her career,
- "Tyi is a really good shooter," Barnes said. "She's a fun player to watch. She loves to drive and collapse the defense and kick out the shooters. She's a great person, too. I think once the fans get to know her, they fall in love with her. Her personality is amazing and super contagious."

// A TEXAN THROUGH AND THROUGH

- After beginning her career at SFA, the Frisco, Texas native, senior Kyla Deck transferred to SMU after one season at North Texas. Last season, Deck averaged 10.4 points per game and was third in the American with 63 steals with the Mean Green. She led UNT to the second round of the WNIT.
- "She can also play on both ends of the court. She can play denial defense, is athletic and can shoot," Barnes said. Barnes also pointed out that Deck is one of the toughest Mustangs.

// BOW DOWN TO THE KING

- One of the youngsters on a roster that leans heavily towards upperclassmen (10 of 15) is sophomore guard Zahra King, a transfer from Cal. As a freshman on a packed Golden Bears team, she played in 19 games and averaged 2.8 points, 2.4 rebounds and dished 10 assists.
- "Zahra is a lefty, really athletic, and her handles are on a string," Barnes said. "She shoots the ball well. She has these amazing moves, like 'Wow! Where did that come from?' She's also a super high-IQ student, really smart. She's in the Cox Business School, which is really hard to get into. You can be a 4.0 student and not get in. She's the total package."

// A DOUBLE-DOUBLE MACHINE

- After dominating the last three seasons at UT Martin, Anaya Brown transferred to SMU, looking to take the next step in her career. The forward has recorded 16 doubles in her career and 13 20-point games. She has the most career double-doubles on this year's roster.
- Named All-OVC First Team after averaging 15.3 points, 5.7 rebounds, 1.3 steals and 1.5 blocks in 28.3 minutes per game at UT Martin last season.
- She shot 44.2% from the field, 31.8% from beyond the arc and 75.1% from the free throw line...Ranked among OVC leaders in scoring (third), field goal percentage (fifth), and blocks (fourth).
- Scored in double figures 26 times with eight games of 20 points or more including a career high 29 points at Tennessee Tech and recorded six double-doubles on the year.

// JZANIYA UP TOP

- Another guard in the mix is senior Jzaniya Harriell, a transfer from Stanford. She shot almost 40% from the field and 43% from beyond the 3-point line last season. On the floor, she is "really calm, poised, super analytical, understands the game, has a very high basketball IQ and is from a winning program," Barnes said.

// THERE IS ANOTHER PARIS IN TEXAS

- One of three Arizona players to transfer to SMU, Paulina Paris has been one of the early leaders on the team.
- "Paulina is playing at a really high level," Barnes said. "She's doing a good job running our team. I think she's been one of our most consistent players as far as shooting the ball. She's improved her mid-range game. She's improved significantly defensively, like night and day. She knows our system, and I think she'll have a great year."

// JAW DROPPING JAH

- Sahnja Jah transferred to SMU from Arizona and has already shown flashes of being an impact player
- "She's taking care of the basketball right now," Barnes said. "She's shooting the three better. She's just improved so much. She's playing a lot more in control with purpose, playing inside now, playing multiple positions for us. I think she's going to have a great year, too."

// HAIL TO HALL

- Grace Hall, a senior forward who transferred from Penn State, shot nearly 46% from the floor last season. ADIA BARNES

HEAD COACH
ARIZONA '98
1ST SEASON

@AdiaBarnes

@adiab32

Adia Barnes was named Head Women's Basketball Coach at SMU on April 5, 2025.

Boasting an impressive resume, Barnes arrived on the Hilltop after spending nine seasons in Tucson as the head coach of the Arizona women's basketball team. During that time, she compiled a record of 169-114, reaching the post-season six consecutive seasons and collecting five consecutive 21-plus win seasons.

The 2021 WBCA of the Year Finalist and Naismith Coach of the Year Semifinalist led the Wildcats to four consecutive NCAA Tournament appearances and finished the 2020-21 season as the national runner-up.

Barnes is one of four coaches to lead their alma mater to the title game and one of seven to lead their alma mater to a Final Four. She was the youngest coach since 2014 to make the Final Four and the first coach since 2016 to make the Final Four in their first five seasons as a head coach.

The 2024-25 season marked Arizona's inaugural year in the Big 12 Conference, where the Wildcats finished 10-8 in league play and 19-14 overall. The 19 wins extended her streak to seven consecutive seasons with at least 18 victories and included a marquee win over No. 16 West Virginia.

The 2023-24 season saw the Wildcats earn their fourth-straight NCAA Tournament bid. Arizona concluded the season with 18 wins that included victories over No. 15 Utah and No. 3 Stanford. Barnes coached both Helena Pueyo and Esmery Martinez who earned All-Pac 12 and Pac-12 All-Defensive honors and were both selected in the following WNBA Draft.

In 2022-23, Barnes led the program to another NCAA Tournament berth and its fifth 20-win season in as many years. Her squad recorded five top-25 wins and remained ranked in the AP Top 25 for the entire season.

The 2021-22 season was another banner season that saw Barnes eclipse four consecutive seasons with 20 or more wins. Arizona hosted and participated in the opening weekend of the NCAA Tournament.

In her fifth season, Barnes was a finalist for the WBCA Coach of the Year and was a semifinalist for the Naismith Coach of the Year. Heading into the NCAA Tournament, she became the 11th coach to play and coach in the NCAA Tournament at their alma mater. Once the Wildcats reached the National Championship game, she became the fourth coach to lead her alma mater to the title game.

During the NCAA Tournament, Arizona defeated UConn in the Final Four, which was the first time in school history that Arizona knocked off both the No. 1 team in the nation and a 1-seed in the NCAA Tournament. During the shortened 2020-21 season, Arizona managed to win 20 games for the third consecutive year. The Wildcats finished the season with a 24-7 record and Barnes was named a finalist for the WBCA and Naismith Coach of the Year Award. It also marked her second season in a row, eclipsing 24 total wins.

SMU WOMEN'S BASKETBALL GAME NOTES

Barnes also has international experience as she was an assistant coach on the 2021 gold-winning USA AmeriCup team.

Prior to returning to her alma mater as head coach in April of 2016, Barnes spent four seasons at Washington. After three seasons on staff, Barnes was promoted to recruiting coordinator, where she handled all aspects of recruiting including budget, compliance and planning, in addition to her role in player development.

A three-time all-conference selection and '98 graduate of Arizona, Barnes was voted USBWA first-team All-American and Pac-10 player of the year in 1997-98. Her 2,237 career points currently rank ninth on the Pac-12's all-time scoring list. Following her collegiate career, Barnes played professionally for 12 seasons in the WNBA and overseas. She won a WNBA Championship with the Seattle Storm in 2004, was named to the Storm's All-Decade Team, and also played for Cleveland, Minnesota and Sacramento. Her overseas career included stops in the Ukraine, Israel, Turkey, Russia and Italy.

In addition to her playing and coaching career, Barnes has been extremely active in the community through the Adia Barnes Foundation, which mentors underserved youth and conducts charitable events and community service projects such as school supply drives. Barnes spent 10 years as the Seattle Storm's TV analyst for NBA TV and FOX Sports Northwest and also spent time as the color commentator for Storm radio broadcasts.
