PACK TRACKS

- » NC State had its six game winning streak - the program's longest win streak in ACC games since the 1973-74 season - snapped in a 118-77 loss to 24th-ranked Louisville on Monday. The 118 points by the Cardinals are the second-most ever allowed by NC State and Mikel Brown Jr's 45 points are tied for the most by an opponent in program history.
- » Ven-Allen Lubin led NC State with 20 points on 7-of-10 shooting at Louisville. Lubin has now shot over 50 percent in every game except for one this season. The Orlando, Fla., native leads the ACC and ranks fourth in the NCAA in field goal percentage at 68.0 percent. In his fourth season of college basketball, Lubin is averaging a career-best 13.6 points per game and his rebounding average of 7.0 per game is also the best of his career.
- » Quadir Copeland had 10 points and was held to just three assists in the loss to the Cardinals. Copeland leads the ACC and ranks 10th in the NCAA in assists per game, but the three assists are tied for a season-low for the Philadelphia, Pa., native and the fewest in a game for him since he had three in the Pack's game at Auburn on Dec. 3. Copeland had more turnovers than assists at Louisville, just the second time this season (Nov. 25 vs. Boise State) that Copeland has had more turnovers than assists. Copeland has a 2.57 assist-to-turnover ratio this season which ranks sixth in the ACC and is currently the 10th-best single season assist-to-turnover ratio in program history.
- » Copeland was named ACC Player of the Week last Monday after two stellar performances in NC State wins the week prior. In an 84-83 win at SMU, he had a career-high 16 assists with zero turnover and also had a season-high 10 rebounds. The 16 assists tie for the fourth-most in a single game in program history. Copeland is the first Division I player to log 16 assists and zero turnovers since Belmont's Grayson Murphy in 2019 and the first ACC player to have 16 assists and zero turnovers since 1997. Copeland set the program record for most assists without a turnover. (previous 15 ast/0 turnovers by Ishua Benjamin on 12/18/97). He wrapped up the week with 21 points, 10 assists and a career-high tying five steals in the win over Virginia Tech
- » Senior guard Tre Holloman scored 19 points at Louisville. It's the second-most points he's scored in a game this season. The Michigan State transfer has now scored in double digits in four consecutive games, tied for the longest double digit scoring streak of his career. Over the last four games, Holloman has made 10 three-pointers and is averaging 14.3 points per game while shooting 52.5 percent (21-of-40) from the field.

SATURDAY STORYLINES

- » NC State is off to a 9-3 start in ACC play. It's the Pack's best start in conference play since the 2005-06 season when the Pack started 10-3 in league play. In 72 seasons of ACC basketball, the 2025-26 season is the 10th time NC State has had a 9-3 or better record in conference play through 12 games.
- » Through games of Wednesday, Feb. 11, NC State has an 11-6 Q1 and Q2 combined record. Only Duke (14) has more Q1/Q2 wins than the Pack. NC State is one of 13 teams in NCAA DI to have 11 or more Q1 or Q2 wins currently. Of those 14 teams, nine are ranked in the top-10 of the most recent AP poll and three more are ranked 14th, 15th and 19th. Only NC State and Alabama have 11 or more Q1/Q2 wins and are unranked.
- » Pick Your Poison: NC State has not had the same player lead the team in scoring in back-to-back games since Quadir Copeland did so in the Pack's first two ACC contests on Dec. 31 and Jan. 3. The Pack's scoring balance has been on full display this season, with the team's top four scorers separated by just eight points through 25 games. Copeland leads NC State with 347 total points, followed closely by Darrion Williams with 345, while Ven-Allen Lubin and Paul McNeil Jr. are tied at 339 points apiece.
- » Saturday is a matchup of two of the best shooting teams in the ACC. Miami leads the ACC and ranks 11th in the NCAA in overall field goal percentage as the Hurricanes make 50.9 percent of its field goal attempts this season. NC State leads the ACC in three-point percentage, making 39.5 percent of its long range attempts. NC State is 17-1 this season when it holds its opponent to under 50 percent shooting from the field. The Pack is 11-1 when it shoots 39.5 percent or better from three-point range.
- » NC State was held to season-lows in three-pointers made (4) and three-point percentage (18.2%) as the Pack made just four of its 22 three point attempts. NC State has made double-digit three-pointers in 12 of 25 games this season. The Pack has had two games with 19 made three-pointers, a game with 17 made threes and three games with 16. The 1986-87 season was when the three-point line was introduced to college basketball. From the 1986-87 season through the 2024-25 season, NC State made 16 or more three-pointers in a game six times in 39 seasons. The current NC State team has made 16 or more three-pointers in six of 25 games this season. The Pack currently ranks second in the ACC and 21st in the NCAA with an average of 10.7 three-pointers made per game. NC State leads the ACC and ranks eighth in the NCAA in three point percentage, making 39.5 percent of its attempts from long range this season.
- » Paul McNeil Jr. did not make a three-pointer in NC State's loss to Louisville on Monday, just the second time this season he has been held without a made three. He entered the game against the Cardinals having knocked down multiple three-pointers in 12 of his previous 13 outings. On the season, McNeil is averaging 3.1 made three-pointers per game, ranking second in the ACC and 31st nationally, while his 43.0 percent shooting from beyond the arc leads the conference and ranks 17th in the NCAA. McNeil has shown an ability to respond after quiet shooting nights. The last time he made one or fewer three-pointers prior to Monday came against Syracuse on Jan. 27, and he followed that performance by going 6-of-8 from deep in the Pack's next game at Wake Forest on Jan. 31. Prior to the Syracuse game, the most recent instance of McNeil not making multiple three-pointers came on Dec. 13 against Kansas, after which he responded by setting school and ACC records with 11 made threes in NC State's win over Texas Southern.
- » Get Darrion Williams back on track - After scoring 20 or more points in three consecutive games from Jan. 27 through Feb. 3, Williams has only scored 12 points total in the Pack's last two games against Virginia Tech and Louisville. Williams has been hot and cold in ACC play. He's scored 20 or more points in five ACC games and has been held to single digits in six ACC games. In the Pack's nine ACC wins, Williams is averaging 16.2 points per game while he is averaging just 7.3 points per game in the Pack's three conference losses.
- » NC State had single digit turnovers in seven of the last 10 games. NC State ranks second in the ACC in turnovers (and ranks 21st in the NCAA), averaging just 9.6 per game. NC State only has 84 turnovers (8.4 per game) in the Pack's last 10 outings.
- » NC State was outscored 14-12 by Louisville in points off turnovers. It marked just the third time in 12 ACC games that the Pack didn't score more points than its opponent in points off turnovers. In 12 ACC games this season, the Pack has outscored its opponents by 97 points in points off turnovers. In 24 games overall this season, NC State has outscored its opponents by 178 points in points off turnovers.
- » In its last 10 games, NC State passed out 164 assists and had just 84 turnovers (1.95 assist-to-turnover ratio). NC State is second in the ACC and ranks 19th in the NCAA with a 1.71 assist-to-turnover ratio this season. The 1.71 assist-to-turnover ratio would be a program record. The previous single-season best in program history is currently 1.61 by the 1987-88 team.
- » The Pack has a +4.7 turnover margin in its 12 ACC games this season and leads the ACC and ranks 14th in the NCAA with a +4.0 turnover margin. NC State has had the same or fewer turnovers than its opponent in 23 of 25 games this season. VCU and Ole Miss are the only two opponents to have fewer turnovers than the Pack when they played.
- » Win the Boards, win the game? The Pack is 12-0 when it outrebounds its opponent this season, but just 6-7 when it is outrebounded.
- » NC State has scored 100 or more points in four games this season. It's the most 100 point games in a single season for NC State since the 1995-96 team had four. For the season, NC State averages 85.3 points per game which is third in the ACC and 22nd in the NCAA. The Pack is currently on pace to average its most points since Fire & Ice (Chris Corchiani and Rodney Monroe) led the Pack to an average of 89.3 points per game in the 1990-91 season.

NC STATE SERIES WITH MIAMI

- » Saturday will be the 32nd all-time meeting between NC State and Miami. The Pack leads the all-time series, 16-15, and has a 9-5 advantage over the Hurricanes in games played in Raleigh.
- » Last Meeting (March 8, 2025): Miami ended the game on a 10-0 run to beat NC State, 72-70, in both team's season finale. Miami's Brandon Johnson slammed home a putback with one second remaining to give Miami the win. The 72-70 advantage was Miami's first lead since it was 2-1 in the first two minutes of the game. The Pack led for over 35:42 of game action in the loss. Dontrez Styled led the Pack with a season-high tying 24 points. Paul McNeil, Jr., chipped in 14 points.

MCNEIL, JR., SETS PROGRAM/TIES ACC RECORD FOR THREES IN A GAME

- » Sophomore guard Paul McNeil, Jr., set a program record and tied the ACC record with 11 made three-pointers in the Pack's win over Texas Southern on Dec. 17.
- » He finished the game 11-of-17 from three, breaking the NC State record of nine that had stood since Dec. 21, 1989 when Rodney Monroe made nine threes in a win over UNC Asheville.
- » He now shares the ACC single game record for threes with Georgia Tech's Dennis Scott (12/28/88) and Wake Forest's Craig Dawson (2/13/02).
- » McNeil, Jr., scored a career-high 47 points against Texas Southern. His final stat line was 12-of-18 shooting, 11-of-17 from three and 12-of-12 from the foul line. He also added a career-high 10 rebounds as he posted his first career double-double. McNeil, Jr.'s 47 points are tied with Sammy Ranzino (Jan. 23, 1951 vs. Virginia Tech) for the fifth-most points in a single game in program history and are the most by an ACC player since Rodney Monroe - NC State's all-time leading scorer - had 48 against Georgia Tech on Jan. 13, 1991.

PACK MAKES STATEMENT IN SEASON OPENER

- » NC State opened the Will Wade era on Monday, Nov. 3 with a resounding 114-66 win over NC Central.
- » In the win, the Pack tied a school record with 19 made three-pointers, and scored the second-most points ever in the Lenovo Center with 114.
- » Seven players reached double figures for NC State, only the second time in the last 25 years that has happened and the first time since No. 10, 2017.

PACK PICKED 4TH; WILLIAMS ACC POY IN PRESEASON VOTING

- » Darrion Williams earned ACC Preseason Player of the Year recognition, while the Pack secured a fourth-place ranking in the media's preseason poll that was announced on October 14.
- » Williams is NC State's first ACC Preseason Player of the Year selection since C.J. Leslie prior to the 2012-13 season, while the Pack's preseason pick of fourth is the highest for the program since 2012-13 when NC State was the ACC favorite heading into the season.
- » Williams comes to the Pack after spending the last two seasons at Texas Tech. Last year with the Red Raiders, he averaged 15.1 points, 5.5 rebounds, 3.6 assists and 1.3 steals per game and was named to the All-Big 12 First Team. He upped his scoring to 21 points per game in Texas Tech's four NCAA Tournament games, scoring 23 points in the Elite Eight against eventual National Champion Florida and a season-high 28 points in the win over Drake in the second round.

WILL LIKES WINNERS

- » The Pack added nine transfers to this season's roster that played at the DI level last season. Of those nine players, six played on teams that played in the NCAA Tournament last season.
- » All six of those players (Houston's Terrance Arceneaux, McNeese's Alyn Breed and Quadir Copeland, Michigan State's Tre Holloman, UNC's Ven-Allen Lubin and Texas Tech's Darrion Williams) were on team's that won at least one game in the NCAA Tournament last season.
- » Arceneaux's Houston team was National Runner-Up while Williams (Texas Tech) and Holloman (Michigan State) were both on teams that advanced to the Elite 8.
- » Overall, NC State's 2025-26 roster has combined to play 549 minutes in NCAA Tournament games in their career. That amount is the most of any ACC team and more than 200 minutes more than second.

WILL LIKES WINNERS, PART 2

- » This year's NC State squad has three of the winningest fourth-year players in college basketball. Terrance Arceneaux has spent the last three seasons on a Houston team that has gone a combined 100-14 in that span (33.3 wins per year). Arceneaux was limited to just 11 games in the 2023-24 season because of an injury in December that caused him to miss the rest of the season, but still played in 85 career games in his three years with the Cougars.
- » Darrion Williams and Tre Holloman join him as two of the winningest fourth-year players in college basketball this season. Williams has won 73 games (24.3 per season) in his previous three seasons of college basketball (two at Texas Tech and freshman season at Nevada) while Holloman was on Michigan State teams that won 71 games (23.7 per season) the last three years.

RED RECKONING ENERGIZES FAN BASE

- » No stranger to being one of the fiercest places to play in college basketball (NC State has consistently ranked in the top-25 year after year in college basketball average attendance), the hiring of Will Wade has energized the NC State fanbase to an even higher level.
- » The program has sold 10,302 season tickets which are the most since the 2016-17 season (11,033 that year).
- » The 10,302 season tickets mark a 14% increase in season tickets over last year (about 1,250 more)
- » There are 783 new season ticket accounts and 2,243 new season tickets sold for this season.
- » Season tickets are sold out on the lower level and the club level is nearly sold out, as well.
- » Mini-plan ticket sales are already 32% higher this year than the final total last season.
- » The Pack's season-opener against NC Central is sold out and it marks the first time since the arena opened in 1999 that the season-opening game is sold out.
- » The sell out against NC Central is the first time NC State has sold out a game against a team that isn't UNC or Duke since Feb. 25, 2023 when the Lenovo Center was sold out for a game against Clemson.

MCNEIL, JR., MAKING MOST OF INCREASED OPPORTUNITY

- » Paul McNeil Jr. entered college last season as one of the most highly regarded prospects in the ACC, but his freshman campaign got off to a slow start. After NC State's 23rd game of the season - Feb. 8 at Stanford - McNeil had not appeared in seven games and had logged three minutes or fewer in nine others. At that point, he was averaging just 1.8 points per game and shooting 27.8 percent (5-of-18) from three-point range.
- » Everything began to change with the Feb. 12 matchup against Louisville. Since then, McNeil has capitalized on his expanded role, showing the promise that made him such a sought-after recruit. Over the final eight games of the 2024-25 season and the first 23 of this year, he's averaged 12.7 points per game while connecting on 42.6 percent (84-of-197) of his three-point attempts.
- » Through 24 games this season, McNeil, Jr., is second on the Pack in scoring at 14.1 points per game and his average of 3.2 three-pointers made per game is second in the ACC and his season three-point percentage of 43.5 percent is the best in the ACC.

NO STRANGER TO THE ACC OR THE LENOVO CENTER

- » NC State brought in three transfers - Ven-Allen Lubin (North Carolina and Notre Dame), Jerry Deng (Florida State) and Quadir Copeland (Syracuse) - who have played in the ACC previously.
- » Lubin has actually played against NC State every year of his college career prior to playing for the Pack this season. As a freshman at Notre Dame, he had 10 points and five rebounds in an NC State win in Raleigh. As a sophomore at Vanderbilt, he had 16 points and eight rebounds in a Pack win over the Commodores in Las Vegas. Last season at UNC, Lubin had a combined 17 points and 14 rebounds in two victories over the Pack. Overall in his career against NC State, Lubin has averaged 11.8 points and 6.8 rebounds per game while shooting 58.6 percent (17-of-29) from the field.
- » Last season as a sophomore at Florida State, Jerry Deng played 13 minutes and scored four points in the Pack's overtime win over the Seminoles.
- » Quadir Copeland played against the Pack three times as a sophomore at Syracuse in the 2023-24 season. Copeland enjoyed the best scoring game of his collegiate career inside the Lenovo Center on Feb. 20, 2024. That night, he scored a career-high 25 points on 10-of-13 shooting to lead Syracuse to a win in Raleigh.

FRESHMAN MAKING AN IMPRESSION

- » Who was the first player to commit to Will Wade at NC State? The answer to that trivia question will always be Matt Able who made a verbal commitment to join the Pack on April 5th, 13 days after Wade was announced as head coach of the NC State program.
- » In addition to always having the label as Wade's first NC State recruit, Able also is noteworthy as he is the highest ranked freshman recruit to sign with NC State since Dennis Smith, Jr., signed with the Pack in the fall of 2015. A consensus top-30 recruit in the Class of 2025, Able averaged 20.4 points, 5.9 rebounds, 3.7 steals and 2.9 assists per game last season as a senior at Sagemont Prep in Florida and led the Lions to the Florida High School Athletic Association 1A state championship.
- » This summer, Able has been a standout player on the camp circuit, playing at many NBA players prospect camps. He starred at the Donovan Mitchell, CP3 (Chris Paul) and Jayson Tatum Camps and was named MVP at the Formula Zero Camp hosted by Damian Lillard.

PACK'S PORTAL CLASS RANKED AS ONE OF BEST

- » NC State's nine-man transfer portal class is ranked as one of the best in college basketball.
- » The Pack's class is ranked as the second best portal class in the ACC and 14th best in college basketball by 247Sports. 247Sports ranks Darrion Williams as the best portal pickup by an ACC team and the fifth-best overall transfer in the sport.
- » On3 sports also ranks Williams as the best portal pickup by an ACC team and the sixth-best overall transfer in CBB. On3 also ranks Ven-Allen Lubin (42nd), Tre Holloman (68th) and Terrance Arceneaux (80th) in the top-100 of college basketball transfer portal players ahead of the 2025-26 season.
- » NC State's four players ranked in the top-100 of the On3 transfer portal rankings are the most of any ACC team. Louisville is next with three players while no other ACC team had more than one transfer ranked in the top-100

LET Q BE Q

- » Let's get this out of the way first - Quadir Copeland is loud ... very loud. Head Coach Will Wade was answering a question in a summer press conference about Quadir and what he brings to the team and in the middle of his answer he stopped and sort of tilted his head and said with a smile, "Q is talking ... a lot" But that is also a good thing, Wade and his staff want Copeland - who is one of just two players on the roster that has played for Wade before - to be a leader on this year's team.
- » Copeland averaged 9.2 points, 3.3 rebounds and 4.5 assists in 21.9 minutes a game for McNeese last season. He only started one of the first 11 games of the season, but then started all but one game the rest of the season on his way to Second-Team All-Southland Conference honors. A stat-sheet stuffer, Copeland had 16 points, 7 rebounds and five assists in the Cowboys first round win over Clemson in the NCAA Tournament.
- » Copeland on himself - "Yeah, I'm definitely a yapper, I definitely talk, I definitely chat, but it allows me to be me. It allows me to be Q. I feel like I wouldn't be that leader if I didn't talk. I've got to be able to talk. I've got to be talking all the time. I've got to be building confidence in players. I've got to be checking to make sure everybody's good. I do it with the coaches too. I make sure they're good because at the end of the day, they've got to come in here and coach us. Everybody can have a bad day. We're all human. I just make sure I try to be the light in the room every day."
- » Copeland on his relationship with Wade - "He never judges me. I'm loud as hell sometimes. He never says nothing, never judges me. He might give me a shut up here and there, but it's really rare. He lets me be Q and that's the best part of everything. I'm comfortable here. I think my whole team is comfortable and everybody lets me be myself. I can smile, I can be the loudest, goofy all the time. But they know when I say it, flip that switch."

WADE: "THIS IS NOT A REBUILD"

- » With NC State returning just 4.7% of its scoring, 3.3% of its rebounding and 4.8% of its assists from last season, it would be easy to classify this season as a rebuild, but that's not how Will Wade sees it. Below is a quote from his introductory press conference on March 25, 2025.
- » "I want to be very clear. This is not a rebuild. We're going to be in the top part of the ACC next year and we're going to the NCAA Tournament. This is not something that is going to take a whole lot of time."

WADE'S STAFF HAS CLOSE TIES TO HIM

- » If you talk to Will Wade's staff one word you'll hear come up with all of them when describing the head coach of the Pack's program is "loyalty" He's loyal to them and they are loyal to him. If you look closely at his staff, you'll see a lot of them have gotten their start in college basketball or been with him from the beginning.
- » Assistant Coach Vernon Hamilton was on the Clemson basketball team while Wade was a student manager and graduate assistant. Hamilton was later on Wade's staffs at LSU and McNeese.
- » Fellow assistant coach Brandon Chambers was a student manager with the VCU while Wade was an assistant coach there and then joined Wade's staffs at McNeese and LSU.
- » On the Pack's support staff, Director of Operations Nick Flory and Video Coordinator Brady Jones were both student managers for Wade at LSU and then worked on his staff at McNeese. Special Assistant to the Head Coach Reed Vial was a walk-on basketball player at LSU for Wade and then worked with Wade at McNeese. Director of Pack Performance Greg Goldin was a strength & conditioning grad assistant at VCU in 2012-13 with Wade and then was on his staffs at Chattanooga, VCU and LSU.

PACK BONDED WITH US NAVY SEAL TRAINING IN SEPTEMBER

- » With the first official practice of the season looming on Monday, Sept. 22, Will Wade and his staff took the program's 15 players to Camp Oak Hill, located an hour north of Raleigh near Oxford, N.C. for a weekend retreat that included many different US Navy Seal training sessions.
- » The two night event started with the team discussing its goals and identity for the coming season and included having speakers coming into speak with the team. The team also participated in US Navy Seal training, including a 'hostage' activity that forced different groups to work together to free the hostage.
- » Coach Wade believes in "leading from the front" and he and his staff joined the players in many of the US Navy Seal drills.

SHARING IS CARING

- » There are only 11 players in the 18-team ACC that entered the 2025-26 season with over 250 career assists and the Pack had three of them on their roster. NC State was the only team in the ACC that had three different players enter the season with over 200 career assists.
- » Darrion Williams entered this season with 295 career assists, the eighth most amongst ACC players, while Quadir Copeland had 255 assists (10th most) and Tre Holloman had 250 career assists (11th most).

NEW TO THE PACK BUT NOT TO COLLEGE BASKETBALL

- » With 13 new faces for the Pack, you could come to the conclusion that NC State would have an inexperienced ball club this season, but you would be wrong. Of NC State's 15 players on the roster, seven will be playing their final season of eligibility this season.
- » Overall, NC State added nine players through the transfer portal this offseason Those nine players combine to have played 733 college basketball games entering this season with a combined 249 starts between them.

PACK TESTING ITSELF IN NON-CONFERENCE

- » NC State will face one of its toughest non-conference schedules in recent history in the 2025-26 season.
- » The Pack is guaranteed to play at least five games in the non-conference against teams that made the NCAA Tournament last season, including two (Auburn and Ole Miss) that advanced to the Sweet 16.
- » Overall, everybody on the Pack's non-conference slate is preseason picked to finish in the top half of their conference.
- » Liberty (Conference USA) and VCU (Atlantic 10) will both visit Raleigh this season and both are the preseason favorite to win their conference. UNC Asheville will also come to the Lenovo Center this season and they were selected second in the preseason Big South poll.
- » NC State will play two teams (Kansas - 19th and Auburn - 20th) that are in the preseason Associated Press top-25.

CHUCKY BROWN JOINS PACK RADIO AS ANALYST

- » Former Pack great Chucky Brown will serve as color analyst for all men's basketball games on the Wolfpack Sports Network.
- » Brown was a four-year letterman at NC State who played in 128 career games from 1985-89. In his four years with the Wolfpack, NC State went to the NCAA Tournament all four seasons and won the 1987 ACC Tournament Championship as well as finishing first in the 1989 ACC regular season. Brown scored 1,357 career points, a total that still ranks 25th in school history, and shot 55.7 percent from the field in his NC State career, a mark that is fourth all-time in the program record book.

REPLACE THE LEADING SCORER? NOTHING NEW FOR THE PACK

- » NC State lost its leading scorer from the previous season as Marcus Hill and his team-high 11.5 points per game transferred to Texas &M. The loss of the previous season's leading scorer is nothing new for NC State though. As a program, NC State has not had a player repeat as scoring leader since C.J. Leslie led the team in scoring in the 2011-12 and 2012-13 seasons
