MEDIA POLICIES

COVERING THE HURRICANES

Interview requests for Miami baseball student-athletes and coaches must be submitted to James Knable (jamesknable@miami.edu) in all instances. The Miami communications staff will make every effort to schedule a time to accommodate those requests, based on time constraints, class schedules and other obligations.

MEDIA CREDENTIALS

Requests for working media and photo credentials should be submitted to James Knable (jamesknable@miami.edu) by sports editors or sports directors of accredited media. There are no season credentials for 2025-26. Credentials will be distributed on a single-game basis only.

Requests should be made as early as possible and should be limited to working media only. Requests made within two days of the game may not be considered. Media members may pick up their single-game credential at the media will call table located at the front of Alex Rodriguez Park.

LIVE BROADCASTS

It is not permissible for any non-rights holder to broadcast over the air, stream over the internet (audio or video), or transmit in any other way, any live event without the consent of the University of Miami athletics department.

Live events include varsity contests, press conferences (including but not limited to weekly scheduled and postgame press conferences) and any other group media availability. Exceptions may be made for any major newsworthy event. Failure to follow this policy will result in having credentials revoked.

POSTGAME INTERVIEWS

Miami head coach J.D. Arteaga and select student-athletes will meet with the media in-person at Alex Rodriguez Park at Mark Light Field in the team meeting room after each game.

PARKING

Parking is available in the lots adjacent to Alex Rodriguez Park at Mark Light Field, as well as on the street, via the PayByPhone app. There are no parking passes for Miami baseball games.

PHOTOGRAPHY

Miami follows NCAA and ACC rules regarding media representatives photographing games. Only properly credentialed photographers will be allowed in the designated photo areas at Alex Rodriguez Park at Mark Light Field as specified by the NCAA and ACC.

NO photographers will be permitted to shoot from inside the field of play. All photographers must remain in the designated photo areas outside of the field of play. Photo credentials are subject to revocation by the Miami athletics communications office at any time.

SCOUTS

Professional scouts may request credentials and are permitted to attend games. Approved individuals will be assigned a designated section and row to sit in. Scouts will be required to follow all of the same protocols as media members.

ARCHIVING OF EVENT AUDIO/VIDEO

It is not permissible for any non-rights holder to post, place, broadcast, or make available in any other way, audio or video event content that exceeds three (3) minutes in length. Events are defined as varsity contests, press conferences and any other group media availability. Archiving may not begin until the conclusion of the entire event. It is not permissible to reuse or post any video produced and/or owned by the University of Miami athletics department without the consent of the University.

UNAUTHORIZED CREDENTIAL USE

Credentials will be issued to working media only. Media credentials are not transferable and use by anyone other than members of the working media is unauthorized. Media credentials used in an unauthorized manner will be revoked immediately. Anyone allowing unauthorized individuals to use credentials will have their credentials revoked for the remainder of the year.

QUESTIONS?

Please contact James Knable via email at jamesknable@miami.edu or by phone at 412-316-6919 with any questions about the University of Miami baseball team.

UNIVERSITY ADMINISTRATION

ECHEVARRIA
UNIVERSITY PRESIDENT/CEO
UNIVERSITY OF MIAMI, 1978

As President and CEO of the University of Miami and President of the University of Miami Health System, Joe Echevarria leads more than 20,000 professionals whose focus is transforming lives through education, research, and patient care.

A seasoned chief executive, Mr. Echevarria served as the CEO of Deloitte LLP, a global provider of professional services, from 2011 until his retirement in 2014. During his 36-year tenure with the firm, he served in various leadership roles, including Deputy Managing Partner, Southeast Region, Audit Managing Partner, and U.S. Managing Partner and Chief Operating Officer. His leadership responsibilities extended to approximately 70,000 professionals in nearly 90 U.S. cities and India, as well as the firm's US-owned consulting businesses in Germany, Mexico, China, and Brazil.

Mr. Echevarria has a long history of service to the University of Miami, where he earned a bachelor's degree in business administration in 1978. Following his retirement from Deloitte and seven years of service on its Board of Trustees from 2012 to 2019, Echevarria brought his expertise to the University of Miami Health System as a Senior Advisor to former President Julio Frenk, Interim Chief Financial Officer, Chief Administrative Officer, and Interim Chief Executive Officer. He became Chief Executive Officer of UHealth in 2020 and his responsibilities as CEO grew to include the entire University in 2022. On June 12, 2024, the University of Miami Board of Trustees appointed him Acting President of the University.

Following a consultative process with the faculty and key stakeholders, on October 18, 2024, the Board named him President of the University of Miami. Select highlights from his record of leadership and accomplishment as CEO of UHealth since 2020, CEO of the University since 2022, and his tenure as Acting President of his alma mater.

Mr. Echevarria remains active on various boards, chairing the Board of Directors of the Bank of New York Mellon, and serving on the Boards of Directors of both Pfizer and UNUM, a provider of financial protection benefits.

Having grown up in a Hispanic single-parent inner city household in the South Bronx neighborhood, he is committed to helping others. Mr. Echevarria's service to community extends to the non-profit and public sectors. He previously served as Chair of former President Obama's My Brother's Keeper Alliance and as an advisor to the Obama Foundation. He is a former Member of President Obama's Export Council and of the Presidential Commission on Election Administration.

ALEX PIQUERO

Alex R. Piquero is Professor in the Department of Sociology & Criminology and Arts & Sciences Distinguished Scholar the University of Miami and previously served as the Director of the Bureau of Justice Statistics, one of the nation's thirteen federal statistical agencies (appointed by President Biden, June 2022). Dr. Piquero is a nationally and internationally recognized criminologist with more than 26 years of experience.

Over the course of his career, Dr. Piquero has given congressional testimony on evidence-based crime prevention practices and has provided counsel and support to several local, state, national and international criminal justice agencies and elected leaders. His expertise ranges from criminal careers to criminal justice policy and crime prevention to the intersection of race/ethnicity and crime, with a focus on quantitative methodology.

Dr. Piquero has published over 500 scholarly articles and several books and is among the most highly cited criminologists in the world. He also served as editor of the Journal of Quantitative Criminology and the Justice Evaluation Journal. He is a Fellow of both the American Society of Criminology and the Academy of Criminal Justice Sciences. In 2019, he received the Academy of Criminal Justice Sciences Bruce Smith Sr. Award for outstanding contributions to criminal justice, and in 2020, he received the Lifetime Achievement Award from the Division of Developmental and Life-Course Criminology of the American Society of Criminology.

ATHLETICS ADMINISTRATION

DAN RADAKOVICH

VICE PRESIDENT / DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

IUP, 1980

Dan Radakovich was named the 15th Director of Athletics in University of Miami history in December 2021, returning to his graduate school alma mater as one of the nation's most decorated and successful college athletics administrators.

Radakovich, who previously served as Director of Athletics at Clemson for nine years, launched his career at UM in 1983 as the Hurricanes' athletic business manager, an experience which charted a course that has now spanned seven schools and 35-plus years as a visionary leader in all aspects of college athletics.

Since returning to Coral Gables, Radakovich has worked with campus leaders to chart an ambitious course for Miami Athletics with respect to facilities, sport sponsorship, fundraising, student-athlete experience, Name, Image & Likeness opportunities and staff development. He has hired six new head coaches (baseball, women's basketball, golf, rowing, soccer and men's tennis) and extended the contracts of seven others. He has worked closely with head football coach Mario Cristobal to ramp up recruiting, evaluation, sports science and creative resources for the football program. Miami is currently working on an expansion to the Carol Soffer Indoor Practice Facility, the initial step in an overarching football operations center project. UM recently opened the Susan and Stephen Symons Basketball Training Center, The Ruiz Family Baseball Strength & Conditioning Center and a new on-campus rowing training facility.

This past year, the Hurricanes produced two individual national champions in Alexa Noel, who captured the NCAA women's singles crown, and Russell Robinson, who won the NCAA indoor track and field title in the triple jump. Miami had eight individual ACC champions and 14 All-Americans.

In 2022-23, Miami's men's basketball team reached its first-ever Final Four, while the women's basketball team advanced to the first Elite Eight in school history. UM also posted its highest Learfield Directors' Cup finish since 2016. Miami was one of seven schools - and the only ACC school - to have players drafted in the 2023 NFL, NBA, WNBA and MLB Drafts. In 2021-22, Miami was one of just two schools (along with North Carolina) to have its football team qualify for a bowl game, its men's basketball team reach the Sweet 16 and its baseball team host a regional.

Miami's most recent NCAA Graduation Success Rate (94 percent) and NCAA Academic Progress Report score (996) both set school records. In Spring 2024, UM student-athletes posted a cumulative grade point average of 3.23, which set a department record. A school-record 275 UM student-athletes made the 2023-24 ACC Honor Roll. Miami finished second in the 2023 NCAA Team Works Community Service competition, one year after winning the competition for the second time.

Miami Athletic Development has raised more than $45 million in gifts and commitments over the past two fiscal years from nearly 20,000 supporters. The athletic department's total raised for the Ever Brighter Campaign, which will conclude as with UM's centennial in 2025, is nearing $190 million. In addition, Miami's multimedia rights partnership with Legends resulted in record single-year revenue growth this past year.

Radakovich is the past President of LEAD1, which represents athletic directors at the Division I level. He was named 2017 Sports Business Journal Athletic Director of the Year after being a finalist in 2015. In 2014, Radakovich was one of 13 people, including one of five FBS Directors of Athletics, to be named to the first College Football Playoff committee. He was recently appointed to the NCAA Division I Football Bowl Subdivision Oversight Committee for a four-year term through 2028.

At Clemson, Radakovich oversaw the most successful stretch in Tigers football history as the program won two national championships (2016, 2018), six ACC titles and made six College Football Playoff appearances.

Radakovich continuously led the Tigers athletic department to high achievements, both on the field and in the classroom, while developing significant upgrades in finance and facilities.

Clemson set a school record in the NCAA's 2021 GSR report, posting a 95 percent score, which also tied for first in the ACC amongst public schools. Radakovich guided the department successfully throughout the pandemic, helping Clemson to reopen athletic operations, including safely hosting 112,367 fans at Memorial Stadium in 2020, third most in the nation.

In 2020-21, Clemson had its best finish in the Learfield Directors' Cup since 2007, finishing No. 36. Highlighting the athletic year, the football program claimed the ACC title and appeared in the College Football Playoff, the men's soccer program claimed the 2020 ACC championship, and the women's soccer program advanced to the Elite Eight. Additionally, Radakovich oversaw the development of the softball program at Clemson, which officially began in the spring of 2020. That program earned the ACC regular-season championship in 2021 and made its first trip to the NCAA Tournament.

During Radakovich's tenure, IPTAY, the school's fundraising arm, saw significant increases in contributions and he was instrumental along with the IPTAY Board of Directors in the Cornerstone Partner Program, which together has helped fund numerous investments in infrastructure and the student-athlete experience.

During the 2018-19 school year, Clemson won its second football national championship in three years, defeating Alabama 44-16. During the 2017-18 school year, Clemson became the first school in history to reach the College Football Playoff, advance to the Sweet 16 of the NCAA Men's Basketball Tournament and host a baseball regional in the same season.

Since 2013, Clemson received approvals for more than $200 million in facility improvements and increased spending on direct student-athlete development programs, including nutrition, mental health and professional development, by $2.4 million. His department increased overall revenue from $69 million in fiscal year 2014 to a budgeted $131 million in fiscal year 2020. Littlejohn Coliseum opened to rave reviews following a $63 million renovation. The Allen N. Reeves Football Complex opened in 2017, setting the standard for football facilities around the country. The Nieri Family Student-Athlete Enrichment Center opened as a state-of-the-art facility for student-athlete development in the classroom and community. The development, rebranding and expansion of football's P.A.W. Journey highlighted a best-in-class approach to preparation for life after their Clemson football careers.

Prior to his arrival, Radakovich amassed a wealth of experience serving in significant athletic administrative roles at Georgia Tech, LSU, American, South Carolina, Long Beach State and UM.

Radakovich came to Clemson from Georgia Tech, where he served as Director of Athletics for six years (2006-12). He hired football head coach Paul Johnson, who was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 2023, and rebuilt McCallum Pavilion, home to the Yellow Jackets' men's and women's basketball teams. Prior to his tenure at Georgia Tech, Radakovich worked as a Senior Associate Athletic Director at LSU from 2001-06. He had many responsibilities with the football program, including the year the Tigers won the national title in 2003.

From 2000-01 Radakovich was Director of Athletics at American University. Between 1994 and 2000, he served as Chief Financial Officer at South Carolina. He gained experience on the West Coast from 1989-94, when he was a Senior Associate Athletic Director at Long Beach State. Radakovich worked at The U from 1983-85 as Athletics Business Manager.

Radakovich, a native of Aliquippa, Pa., is a 1980 graduate of Indiana (Pa.), where he earned a bachelor's degree in finance. He was also a football letterman and student coach with the Crimson Hawk program, and he was inducted into the school's athletic hall of fame in 2021. He previously was enshrined into the Beaver County Sports Hall of Fame in 2008 and was recognized as a distinguished alumnus from Indiana in 2009.

Radakovich and his wife, Marcie, have two sons, Christian, a 2012 Georgia Tech graduate, and Grant, a 2015 Mercer graduate who was a graduate transfer tight end on Clemson's 2016 national championship football team.

SENIOR DEPUTY AD

TOWSON, 2005

Miami Athletics hired Brian Baptiste as Senior Deputy Athletic Director in April of 2023.

Baptiste comes to Coral Gables after spending the past four years as the Vice President for Athletics and Recreation at La Salle University.

Under Baptiste's leadership La Salle raised more money for its annual fund or unrestricted fundraising over the past two fiscal years than it has in its history. La Salle had a record 263 student-athletes named to the Atlantic 10 Commissioner's Honor Roll during his tenure, and 60 student-athletes earned All-Academic honors from their respective conferences and coaches' associations. In 2020, 13 of La Salle's programs scored a perfect 100 in the NCAA Graduation Success Rate (GSR), ranking the department in the top-20 nationally and first in the Atlantic 10. He also implemented the "Defining Your Difference Program" to better position senior student-athletes for success after graduation.

Baptiste serves on the board of directors for the Dad Vail Regatta, the largest collegiate regatta in North America, and co-chaired the Atlantic 10 Conference's Commission for Racial Equity, Diversity, and Inclusion.

He is the Vice Chair of the NCAA's Minority Opportunities & Interests Committee. In addition, the Philadelphia Business Journal named Baptiste to its 40 Under 40 List in 2021.

Baptiste joined La Salle in 2019 after nearly seven years at Northwestern, where he has served as Deputy Director of Athletics for Capital Projects and Operations. In that role, Baptiste was responsible for all capital projects for athletics and recreation and had oversight of athletic facilities, event management, equipment services, and recreation. He also served as sport administrator for the men's basketball, women's volleyball, men's and women's swimming and diving, and women's cross country programs.

Previously, Baptiste spent nearly three years at the University of Delaware as Associate Athletic Director for Compliance. He began his intercollegiate athletics career as an Assistant Director of Compliance at Georgetown University.

A native of Cheverly, Md., Baptiste is a 2005 graduate of Towson University. He earned his Juris Doctor from St. Thomas University School of Law in 2008 and is licensed to practice law in the state of Maryland.

He and his wife, Jessica, have three daughters.

RACHELLE PAUL
DEPUTY AD / SWA

CANISIUS, 2003

Rachelle Paul was hired as Miami's Deputy Director of Athletics and Senior Woman Administrator in 2023.

Paul comes to Coral Gables after serving the past four years as Director of Athletics at Saint Peter's University.

Saint Peter's enjoyed tremendous success during Paul's tenure, most notably when the men's basketball team became the first No. 15 seed in NCAA Tournament history to advance to the Elite Eight in 2022. Later that year, Paul was named the NCAA Division I Nike Executive of the Year by Women Leaders in College Sports.

Peacocks men's basketball advanced to at least the semi-finals of the Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference Tournament in all four of her years at the helm, while the women's basketball team made the 2021 MAAC Tournament final, its first appearance in 20 years.

Saint Peter's finished in third place among all MAAC institutions in the Learfield Director's Cup standings at the conclusion of 2021-22 and witnessed one of the program's best athletic seasons in nearly 30 years during 2019-20, placing second in the MAAC Pepsi Zero Commissioner's Cup Men's Standings. The runner-up finish was the second highest in program history behind a first-place finish in 1993-94.

Paul oversaw the renovation of the Yanitelli Center with the creation of 'Run Baby Run Arena' which opened during the 2021-22 academic year and houses the Peacocks' men's and women's basketball and women's volleyball programs.

Under Paul's leadership, Saint Peter's posted a 95 percent NCAA Graduation Success Rate (GSR) following the 2020-21 and 2021-22 academic years, which matched the school record. The Peacocks placed a school-record 161 student-athletes on the MAAC honor roll in 2019-20.

Paul joined Saint Peter's after serving as Senior Associate Athletics Director/SWA and Deputy Title IX Coordinator at Seton Hall University. She was responsible for the leadership and management of all areas of student-athlete development, including the organization and application of a comprehensive NCAA and BIG EAST rules compliance program and the implementation of relevant and effective programming to promote and enhance the personal growth and development of student-athletes. She also served as chair of the BIG EAST SWA Committee. Prior to Seton Hall, Paul held positions at Monmouth University, Canisius College, the Northeast Conference (NEC) and the MAAC.

Paul is a 2003 graduate of Canisius, where she also earned her master's degree in sport administration in 2004. A four-year letterwinner in lacrosse, she graduated from the program seventh in school history in career points (65), eighth in career goals (49), eighth in career assists (19) and third in career ground balls (133). She also earned two varsity letters as a member of the soccer team. Paul is married to Tim Paul and is a native of Buffalo, N.Y.

BRIAN CAMPBELL
ASSISTANT VP
ATHLETICS DEVELOPMENT
 AIR FORCE, 2008

Brian Campbell joined the University of Miami in May of 2023 as Assistant Vice President for Athletics Development. In this role, Brian has oversight of fundraising operations, programs, and the development team for Miami Athletics. Brian came to UM from his alma mater, the United States Air Force Academy, where he had spent the previous five years, beginning in 2018 as the Assistant Athletic Director for Development and finishing as the Executive Director of Development for Strategic Programs and Athletic Giving.

At Air Force, Brian was responsible for the fundraising strategy and execution for athletic capital projects, endowments, and major giving, in addition to other revenue generating initiatives. He also served as the liaison to the Air Force Academy Foundation Board of Director's Athletic Committee. The academy experienced unprecedented fundraising success during Brian's time at USAFA – most notably completing a $270 million campaign nearly 18-months ahead of schedule, headlined by multiple record-breaking years of fundraising.

As part of the campaign, Brian led a $37.5 million fund-raising effort to support the $90+ million modernization of the east side of Falcon Stadium. Additionally, he managed the philanthropic component of a $500 million public-private partnership to develop a new hotel and visitors center outside USAFA's north gate. Other accomplishments during this stretch included a lead gift to launch the renovation of Air Force's baseball venue, Falcon Field, and building the Wayne Baughman Wrestling Endowment, which seeks to provide operational funding for Air Force Wrestling in perpetuity.

Brian brings 15 years of organizational leadership experience to UM from multiple sectors. He rose to the rank of captain in the US Air Force, then climbed to the partner level at Anheuser-Busch InBev where he led the sales and marketing efforts for the Northwest region, including several of the largest sports and entertainment partnerships in the portfolio.

In each of the communities he's lived in, Brian has supported local initiatives – serving on the boards of the National Football Foundation of Colorado, the Missouri Veterans Initiative, and the Boys and Girls Club of Alton, Illinois. He was a football student-athlete at the Air Force Academy and earned his MBA from the Olin Business School at Washington University in St. Louis.

Brian and his wife, Lauren, have two daughters.

SHIRELLE JACKSON
EXECUTIVE ASSOCIATE AD
STUDENT-ATHLETE DEVELOPMENT
 BOWLING GREEN, 1994

Shirelle Jackson is the Executive Associate Athletics Director of Student-Athlete Development at the University of Miami. Jackson initially joined Miami as the director of student-athlete development in March 2014 and was promoted to assistant AD in July 2016. Jackson also oversees the Hurricanes' track and field and cross country programs.

Prior to joining the athletics department, Jackson spent the previous five years in various capacities in the College of Arts and Sciences at UM. In 2014, Jackson received the Department of Biology Excellence in Service Award, for her efforts with 800+ Biology majors.

Her initial position within athletics was a new role intended to enhance the athletic department's efforts to develop programming which will enhance the total development of our student-athletes. Under her vision and leadership that role has grown into an office with two full time staff members and year round programming and leadership opportunities for our student athlete population. Due to the high level of community outreach, in 2018, the Miami Hurricanes earned the NCAA Helper-Helper Division I Community Service National Championship Award.

In addition to community service & outreach efforts, Jackson has been a featured panelist & speaker for the Women In Sports Forum, 2016 and 2018. She also served in the same capacity for Women Leaders in College Sports (formerly NACWAA) during their Institute for Administrative Advancement, 2019. Jackson has been a member of Women Leaders in College Sports since 2000. She is a 2002 graduate of Women Leaders/HERS Institute for Administrative Advancement. In 2016, Jackson received the Women Leaders Nell Jackson Administrator of the Year Award for her efforts engaging student-athletes, department staff & campus partners with an inclusive environment.

Prior to arriving at UM, Shirelle was the director of athletic academic support services from 2005-08 at FIU, where she oversaw the management and operation of the school's academic support program for its 400 student-athletes. She also coordinated the academic and personal advising, class registration, tutors, study hall and study skills workshops. During her tenure at FIU, she saw her full-time staff increase from two to six and the student-athlete graduation rate improved by 16 percent.

She was the assistant director for student-athlete services for 11 months at Bowling Green State University in Bowling Green, Ohio. Her first athletics position was as assistant AD for student development from August 2002-July 2004 at Eastern Connecticut State.

Jackson was a two-year letter winner for the women's track and field team at Bowling Green. She received her bachelor's degree from Bowling Green in 1994 and her master's degree in counseling from Central Connecticut State in 1998. She is currently a doctoral candidate in higher education leadership at Nova Southeastern in Davie.

She is married to Jason Jackson, who is the television host and courtside reporter for Miami HEAT telecasts on Sun Sports. The couple has two sons, Justin and Jordan.

J.D. ARTEAGA

HEAD COACH
THIRD SEASON (24TH AT MIAMI) | MIAMI 1997

J.D. Arteaga became the 10th head baseball coach in University of Miami history prior to the 2024 season. In his second season at the helm, Arteaga guided Miami to an NCAA Super Regional appearance, marking the program's first trip to the round since the 2016 squad under Jim Morris.

Arteaga previously served as associate head coach in charge of pitching before elevating to the program's top role. Overall, the 2026 season will mark Arteaga's 24th year as a member of the Hurricanes baseball staff.

One of the nation's most respected pitching minds, Arteaga played a key role in the development of right-hander Andrew Walters, who established himself as one of the most dominant closers in college baseball. Walters earned unanimous All-America honors and was a finalist for the prestigious NCBWA Stopper of the Year Award following the 2022 season, anchoring a Miami pitching staff that produced four selections in the 2022 Major League Baseball First-Year Player Draft.

That draft class was led by left-hander Carson Palmquist, a third-round pick of the Colorado Rockies, followed by right-hander Alex McFarlane, who was selected in the fourth round by the Philadelphia Phillies.

Arteaga developed another All-American in 2021, as Palmquist was a consensus All-American pick and earned first-team honors by the NCBWA and Perfect Game. The lefty headlined Miami's four All-ACC selections with a first-team nod while also earning a place on the ACC All-Freshman Team.

Palmquist and right-hander Alejandro Rosario each were named Freshman All-Americans, while right-hander Jake Smith was selected in the sixth round of the MLB Draft by the Los Angeles Angels and right-hander Daniel Federman signed a free agent contract with the Baltimore Orioles.

The 2020 Hurricanes featured a pair of All-Americans, as standout right-handed pitchers Brian Van Belle and Chris McMahon were both selected to Collegiate Baseball's All-America Second Team.

After the season, sophomore right-hander Slade Cecconi was taken by the Arizona Diamondbacks with the 33rd overall pick in the 2020 MLB Draft, becoming the 29th Hurricane to be selected in the first round of an MLB Draft.

McMahon, a junior right-hander, went in the second round of the MLB Draft to the Colorado Rockies. Van Belle and fellow right-hander Tyler Keyser signed free agent contracts following the shortened five-round MLB Draft, joining the Red Sox and Reds organizations, respectively, and giving Miami four pitchers joining the professional ranks.

The 2019 season featured the emergence of redshirt junior Brian Van Belle as a standout starter for the Canes. The right-hander earned All-ACC Second Team honors and was named to the All-Starkville Regional team to cap a season in which Van Belle led the Hurricanes in wins (10), innings pitched (95.1) and had the lowest ERA among starting pitchers (3.30). Right-hander Slade Cecconi earned Freshman All-America honors, while Evan McKendry (9th round, Rays) and Gregory Veliz (15th round, Angels) headlined four pitchers selected in the MLB draft.

In 2018, Arteaga guided right-hander Evan McKendry to a breakout season on the mound, where he led the Hurricanes staff in wins (seven) and strikeouts (114), as well as compiled a 3.52 ERA – second-best among weekend starters – while earning Third-Team All-ACC honors. Fellow right-hander Daniel Federman earned Freshman All-America honors, while four Miami pitchers were selected in the MLB Draft.

Jeb Bargfeldt, Miami's ace in 2017, was named to the All-ACC Second Team in his first season working under Arteaga. The left-hander finished the season 7-3 with a 2.28 ERA over 87 innings.

Arteaga, a standout southpaw during his own four years in the Miami rotation, helped guide the Hurricanes to their second straight College World Series berth and 25th in program history in 2016. Under his direction as pitching coach in 2016, closer Bryan Garcia set the all-time saves record at Miami and became the first Hurricane to win NCBWA Stopper of the Year honors as the nation's top relief pitcher.

Garcia (sixth round, Detroit) and lefthander Danny Garcia (14th round, Seattle) were both selected in the 2016 Major League Baseball First-Year Player Draft. At least one Hurricane pitcher has been selected in the MLB Draft each year since 2004.

Arteaga recently coached lefthander Chris Diaz to ACC Co-Pitcher of the Year honors in 2014. Under his guidance, all four of Miami's starting pitchers in 2014 – Diaz, Bryan Radziewski, Javi Salas and Andy Suarez – were all drafted in the top 10 rounds of the 2014 MLB Draft.

Suarez, who elected to return to school and served as the staff ace on a 2015 team that qualified for the College World Series, was drafted in the second round (No. 67) overall by San Francisco in the 2015 MLB Draft.

Arteaga helped lead Radziewski to Rawlings All-America honors in 2013 – the first for a UM player since 2010. Two of the team's weekend starters, Radziewski and Diaz, ranked among the top three in ERA for all Atlantic Coast Conference pitchers in 2013.

Arteaga has tutored three recent first-round draft picks in the Major League Baseball Amateur Draft – Carlos Gutierrez in 2008, Chris Perez in 2006 and Cesar Carrillo in 2005. Gutierrez was the 27th overall pick in the 2008 draft by the Minnesota Twins after earning second team All-ACC honors. Perez, who came to Miami as a starting prospect, was aided by Arteaga in his transition to becoming one of the country's top closers. Carrillo started his career 24-0 as a Hurricane.

In addition to his work in converting Perez from a starter to a closer, he helped Kyle Bellamy in his transition from a traditional over-the-top throwing motion to a sidewinding delivery. The move had great rewards, as Bellamy recorded 16 saves and finished the 2009 season with a 0.97 ERA en route to numerous first team All-America honors.

Arteaga's 2008 staff boasted National Freshman Pitcher of the Year and Roger Clemens Award finalist Chris Hernandez, who finished 11-0 with a 2.72 ERA while opponents hit just .223 against him. All three starters in 2008, Hernandez, sophomore lefty Eric Erickson and senior right-hander Enrique Garcia combined to go 27-4 while the entire pitching staff combined for the fewest walks (187) in school history and eighth-most strikeouts (554).

His 2006 staff, composed almost entirely of first-time starters, recorded five shutouts, the most by a UM staff since the 1998 season. Miami also recorded the team's first postseason shutout on the road since 1976 with a 7-0 win against Ole Miss in the 2006 Oxford Super Regional.

Four pitchers from Arteaga's 2005 pitching staff signed pro contracts following the season, including the school's first pitcher drafted in the first round since the 1991 season, Carrillo. Arteaga also played a major role in Carrillo's career development and run at the NCAA record books. Carrillo, who was the 18th overall pick in the 2005 draft, ended with a career record of 25-3, was an All-American and a finalist for the Dick Howser Trophy and the Roger Clemens Award as college baseball's best pitcher in 2005.

The 2004 Miami pitching staff produced the best team ERA in (3.73) since the 2000 season (3.72).

Head coach Jim Morris named Arteaga the Hurricanes' next pitching coach on March 4, 2003, nine games deep into the season. Arteaga's style and approach to pitching was vital in J.D. Cockroft's development into the ace on Miami's 2003 club. Cockroft, a crafty left-hander, went 11-3 with a 2.72 ERA in a team-high 119 innings, including three complete games and one shutout.

Arteaga played for the Hurricanes from 1994-1997, helping UM reach the College World Series four straight seasons. He left Miami as the program's all-time wins leader with 43 and the all-time starts leader with 72. Arteaga ranks second for innings pitched in a career with 458.1.

He is also fifth on the all-time strikeouts chart with 343 career punchouts.

Arteaga threw three complete games at UM and struck out career-high 11 batters on two different occasions (FSU, 4/16/95 and George Washington, 2/16/96). He posted an 11-3 record as a sophomore in 1995 and a 9-1 mark as a freshman.

Miami retired Arteaga's No. 33 on Feb. 5, 2003, prior to the season opener with Florida International. A 26th round draft choice by the New York Mets, Arteaga spent six seasons in the Mets' and Houston Astros' organizations. He had signed on with the Texas Rangers' organization in the spring of 2003, prior to accepting his post with the Hurricanes. He spent his last professional season with the Astros' Triple-A franchise New Orleans Zephyrs, compiling a 9-10 record with a 4.29 ERA in 15 starts and 42 appearances.

The left-hander came to the Hurricanes out of Westminster Christian in Miami. He won a career-best 12 games as a junior in 1996 (12-1) and came back to go 11-4 as a senior in 1997. After six seasons in professional baseball, Arteaga earned his bachelor's degree in criminal justice from the University of Miami.

He is married to the former Ysha Schettini and the couple has a daughter, Ariana. The Arteagas' son, Ari, passed away in 2018 at the age of 16. The Ari Arteaga Foundation was founded shortly afterward to honor and memorialize Ari. Its mission is to spread Ari's spirit by helping children and families overcome obstacles they may face due to unforeseen hardships.

LAZ GUTIERREZ

ASSISTANT COACH / PITCHING COACH / MENTAL SKILLS
THIRD SEASON AT MIAMI | MIAMI (1998)

Laz Gutierrez joined the Hurricanes baseball program prior to the 2024 season, accepting a position as pitching and mental skills coach.

Gutierrez returned to his alma mater after spending the past four years as the head coach at Nova Southeastern, where he helped the Sharks return to national prominence. Under Gutierrez, Nova posted an 86-63 record, highlighted by a 36-win campaign and a trip to the NCAA Regional Tournament in 2022.

Despite his first two seasons as skipper of the Sharks being impacted by the COVID-19 pandemic, Gutierrez mentored nine All-Sunshine State Conference honorees and five All-Region designees.

Gutierrez, who graduated from Miami in 2000, returned to South Florida in 2019 after 13 years with the Boston Red Sox. Over his final five seasons with the organization, Gutierrez served as the mental skills coordinator in Boston, designing and applying leadership and mental skills routines that helped the Red Sox win three World Series Championships (2007, 2013, 2018).

Prior to his time with the big-league club, Gutierrez worked as the coordinator of player development programs and amateur scout.

Before joining the Red Sox, Gutierrez was the manager for the North Adams Steeplecats, where he led the New England Collegiate Baseball League team to a franchise-high 25 wins in 2006, following his two-year tenure as pitching coach at Barry University.

A Miami native, Gutierrez began his coaching career by spending three seasons as the head coach at Coral Gables High School, mentoring future Hurricanes and MLB standouts Yonder Alonso and Eddy Rodriguez.

He got his start playing at Brito Miami Private School before becoming a three-year letterman for the Hurricanes under Jim Morris.

A left-handed pitcher, Gutierrez was drafted three times, including as a 13th-round selection in the 1998 MLB Draft by the Detroit Tigers.

After a three-year playing career within the Tigers and San Diego Padres organizations, Gutierrez earned his master's in performance psychology and a doctorate degree from Grand Canyon.

Gutierrez and his wife, Jeanette, have two kids, Matthew and Sophia.

CHRIS DOMINGUEZ

ASSISTANT COACH
SECOND SEASON (THIRD AT MIAMI) (LOUISVILLE 2009)

Chris Dominguez joined the Hurricanes baseball program prior to the 2025 season, accepting a position as an assistant coach.

Dominguez returned to The U after spending the past three years at Bellarmine, including the last two seasons as head coach. The Miami native previously worked as an assist for the Hurricanes during the 2021 campaign.

Following a standout career at Louisville, Dominguez played 11 years of professional baseball (2009-19), including stints at the big-league level with the San Francisco Giants and Cincinnati Reds.

Over 1,000 games, Dominguez totaled a .263 average with 134 home runs and 592 RBI.

In 2010 – his first full season in pro ball – he notched 21 homers and drove in 101 runs with the Augusta GreenJackets, the Class-A affiliate of the Giants.

Three years later, Dominguez slugged 21 homers and stole 21 bases for Triple-A Fresno.

Prior to being chosen in the third round by the San Francisco Giants in the 2009 MLB First-Year Player Draft, Dominguez rewrote the Louisville record books.

The third baseman was tabbed a two-time All-American and guided the Cardinals to their first-ever appearance in the College World Series in 2007.

As a rookie that season, he smashed 15 home runs and tallied 61 RBI, garnering Freshman All-America Honorable Mention honors. Dominguez was selected as the MVP of the Columbia Regional and followed by launching three homers in the CWS.

In 2008, Dominguez was named BIG EAST Co-Player of the Year honors and received third-team All-American distinction after batting .365 with 21 home runs and 75 RBI.

As a redshirt junior in 2009, he recorded a .345 average, 25 homers and 82 RBI, earning BIG EAST Player of the Year recognition and first-team All-America plaudits.

Coming out of Gulliver Prep High School, Dominguez was chosen in the 17th round of the 2005 MLB Draft. He was also taken in the fifth round in 2008, before ultimately signing the following year.

Dominguez and his wife, Shannon, have two kids, Patrick and Murphy.

JONATHAN ANDERSON

ASSISTANT COACH / RECRUITING COORDINATOR
THIRD SEASON (SEVENTH AT MIAMI) | DUKE (2007)

Jonathan Anderson was elevated to assistant coach and recruiting coordinator prior to the 2024 season.

Anderson joined the Hurricanes before the 2020 campaign, serving as the director of player development.

In his prior role, he helped with a variety of duties including coordinating video, baseball analytics and recruiting.

The Miami native returned home after 10 seasons as an assistant coach at Dartmouth, including the final seven as the lead assistant for the Big Green. Over his decade at Dartmouth, Anderson served as the third-base coach, worked with the outfielders and oversaw the hitters and recruiting.

Dartmouth enjoyed terrific success with Anderson on staff, winning Rolfe Division titles in each of his first six seasons, including an Ivy Championship in 2010 that brought about a berth in an NCAA Regional. The Big Green went on to win a game in the Coral Gables Regional, defeating FIU, 15-9 – the first Dartmouth victory at a regional in 23 years.

Prior to his time at Dartmouth, Anderson spent the 2008-09 campaigns coaching at his alma mater, Duke University, where he worked with the outfielders, oversaw bunting and also helped out with the hitters and baserunners. He was the director of the Duke Baseball Academy camps, managed the recruiting database and assisted with academic development, compliance and travel.

During the summer of 2007, Anderson got his first coaching experience with the New Bern River Rats in the collegiate Coastal Plain League, working with the outfielders and coaching first base.

Following a standout career at Gulliver Prep, Anderson was a two-way player as an outfielder and pitcher. He led the Blue Devils with a .313 average at the plate and 11 starts on the mound as a junior. He improved to a .337 average in his senior campaign, while posting a 2.91 ERA over 52.2 innings with three saves.

Anderson and his wife, Diane, reside in Miami Lakes.

JARROD SALTALAMACCHIA

DIRECTOR OF PROGRAM DEVELOPMENT FIRST SEASON

Saltalamacchia begins his first season with the Hurricanes in 2025, serving as the program's Director of Program Development.

A native of West Palm Beach, Fla., Saltalamacchia was selected in the first round (36th overall) of the 2003 MLB Draft by the Atlanta Braves out of Royal Palm Beach High School. He was named the Braves' Minor League Player of the Year in 2005, earned Minor League All-Star honors, and won three gold medals with Team USA (2001, 2002, 2005) before making his MLB debut in 2007.

The switch-hitting catcher went on to play parts of 12 big league seasons with the Braves, Texas Rangers, Boston Red Sox, Miami Marlins, Arizona Diamondbacks, Detroit Tigers and Toronto Blue Jays. He totaled 110 career home runs, including a career-high 25 with Boston in 2012, and delivered several memorable postseason performances to help the Red Sox capture the 2013 World Series title. That same year, he was honored as the Palm Beach County Professional Player of the Year.

Since retiring in 2019, Saltalamacchia has emerged as a respected coach and developer of talent. He spent three seasons as an assistant with the Bourne Braves in the Cape Cod Baseball League before taking over as head coach of the Falmouth Commodores in 2024, leading the program to a record number of league All-Stars and MLB Draft picks, including three first-rounders.

He also served as head varsity coach at The King's Academy in Florida, where he joined the staff in 2018.

Saltalamacchia was inducted into the Palm Beach County Sports Hall of Fame in 2020 and continues to reside in West Palm Beach with his wife, Ashley, and their daughters—Sidney, Hunter, Sloane, and Charlie.

BRANDON BREWER

DIRECTOR OF PLAYER DEVELOPMENT & CAMPS
FIFTH SEASON | WEST FLORIDA (2011)

Brandon Brewer is entering his fourth year on the Miami baseball staff, serving as the director of player development.

Brewer assists with a variety of duties, including recruiting, baseball analytics and camp activities.

He joined the Hurricanes baseball program prior to the 2022 season, accepting a position as an assistant coach.

In his prior role, Brewer coached Miami's infield and assisted with the Hurricanes' hitters. A former standout player at the University of West Florida, he joined the Hurricanes after four years at Stetson, where he worked with the Hatters' infielders and hitters.

In 2021, Brewer guided Stetson to the second-best fielding percentage in the ASUN after helping the Hatters lead the conference in his first season.

A native of Apopka, Fla., Brewer batted .390 during his senior season at West Florida while leading the Argonauts to a Division II national championship in 2011. He started all 61 games that season for UWF at shortstop, scoring 55 runs while driving in 36. He also proved to be a threat on the base paths, successfully stealing 20 bags in 25 attempts.

Brewer was selected as an All-Region (D2CCA, ABCA & NCBWA) player in 2011 and was a second team All-American (NCBWA and Daktronics). He was twice named as a Rawlings Gold Glove Award winner (2009 & 11).

As a junior in 2010, Brewer hit .289 while starting all 56 games for the Argos. He scored 50 runs that year with 34 driven in, while stealing 17 bases on 22 attempts.

Over his four seasons at West Florida, Brewer hit .316, while starting 224 of the 225 games he played in. He scored 179 runs in his career and drove in another 122 and stole 58 bases. He ranks in the UWF career top 10 for hits, runs, RBI, total bases, stolen bases, walks and assists.

Following his senior season, he was drafted in the 36th round of the MLB Draft by the Los Angeles Angels. He played two seasons in the minor leagues, one in Orem, Utah, and one with Class-A Inland Empire.

Prior to his exploits at UWF and in minor league baseball, Brewer led his Apopka Little League team to Williamsport, Pa., and the Little League World Series in 2001. The Apopka team captured the U.S. Championship, before falling in the World Series finale to Japan.

He played on that Little League championship team for his father, Bobby Brewer, who currently serves as the head coach at Apopka High School.

Brewer is married to his wife, Taylor, and the couple reside in Coral Gables with their newborn baby, Bolt.

ROBERT "G.M." MCDANIEL
DIRECTOR OF OPERATIONS

FIU, 2003

NICK SOTO

STRENGTH & CONDITIONING COACH

FIU, 2008

Robert McDaniel is entering his 26th year on the Miami baseball staff. He is responsible for clubhouse operations, managing the team's equipment, coordinating UM's travel plans and pre-game meals, supervising the team's student managers and all camp activities.

McDaniel, the team's Director of Baseball Operations, is in his second stint at Miami. In 2013, McDaniel was promoted to his current position after serving as Director of Baseball Operations since his return to the program in 2001.

Following the Hurricanes' second National Championship under head coach Jim Morris in 2001, Miami welcomed back a member from its first title under Morris in 1999. McDaniel, better known around the ballpark as "G.M.," returned during the 2001 offseason as the Hurricanes' Coordinator of Baseball Operations, a position he held from fall 1998 through spring 1999.

McDaniel is one of the key cogs in the Miami baseball machine.

A graduate of Miami's Christopher Columbus High School, G.M. left the Hurricanes following the 1999 National Championship to complete his studies. He earned his bachelor's of science degree in sports management from Florida International University in the summer of 2003.

G.M. boasts a long line of baseball tradition in his lineage as the nephew of former Miami All-American Jorge Maduro and grandson of Cuban baseball legend Bobby Maduro.

Along with the Hurricanes in 1999, he has worked in the clubhouses for the Tampa Bay Devil Rays Major League Organization and at Florida State as an undergraduate in 1997-98.

With Tampa Bay, G.M. also worked in the minor league clubhouse for the Class A Princeton (W.Va.) Devil Rays. Prior to the time spent in Tallahassee, G.M. served as an intern in 1996 with the Florida Marlins community relations department.

Nick Soto joined the Hurricanes baseball program prior to the 2025 season, accepting a position as strength and conditioning coach.

A highly-touted personal trainer, Soto comes to The U after spending the past 15 years as the director of performance at Elite U and GorillaBaseball.

The Miami native has worked with some of the premier players in MLB, including Manny Machado, Jean Segura, Yuli Gurriel, Lourdes Gurriel Jr., Zach Neto and MJ Melendez, as well as UM alums Yonder Alonso and Romy Gonzalez.

Soto is widely-regarded as an elite speed specialist, mentoring athletes across nine sports, including track and field, football, boxing and basketball.

A staple in South Florida, he has produced some of the fastest female sprinters in the state's history at the interscholastic level.

Most recently, Soto tutored Olympic gold medalist Aaliyah Butler, who was a part of the United States' 4x400 relay in Paris this summer.

On the gridiron, he has coached NFL standouts Antrel Rolle, Denzel Perryman, Alvin Kamara, Gus Edwards and Harrison Bryant, among others, managing various NFL Combine prep camps over the years.

Under his guidance, Elite U and GorillaBaseball have become world leaders in developing velocity with the coach's renowned strength and performance training plan.

A Certified Strength and Conditioning Specialist (NCSA), Soto was a 1996 Olympic hopeful in Tae Kwon Do, before suffering multiple career-ending injuries.

Soto spent one year at Tusculum before finishing his bachelor's degree at FIU in 2008. He later earned his master's degree in kinesiology with a focus on sports performance training from A.T. Still University in 2012.

JULIAN RIVERA
ATHLETIC TRAINING /
PHYSICAL THERAPIST

ITHACA COLLEGE, 2013

Julian Rivera is entering his ninth year as an assistant athletic trainer and staff physical therapist in athletics working with the UM baseball team.

Rivera specializes with overhead athletes. He has conducted research in the field of injury prediction for the overhead athlete, in which he continues to advance the studies in this field. Rivera is co-program director for the University of Miami's first fellowship for the upper extremity athlete. He also assists as a core faculty within the UM Sports Physical Therapy Residency Program and faculty within the Master's Athletic Training Program at the University of Miami.

Rivera completed the UM Sports Physical Therapy Residency Program, which he graduated from in July 2018.

Rivera is a Doctor of Physical Therapy by the Federation of State Boards of Physical Therapy. Julian is a Sports Certified Specialist by the American Board of Physical Therapy Specialties (2019), licensed and certified Athletic Trainer (2013) by the Board of Certification for Athletic Trainers, a Certified Strength and Conditioning Specialist (2013) by the National Strength and Conditioning Association.

Originally from New York, Rivera earned his bachelor's degree in athletic training (2013) and his Doctorate of Physical Therapy (2015) from Ithaca College. Before arriving to The U, Rivera practiced in outpatient settings in Hyde Park, N.Y., and Tampa, Fla. He also worked with the Houston Astros Gulf Coast Baseball League in Kissimmee, Fla.

Rivera and his wife, Nina, have two daughters, Anya and Solana.

JAMES KNABLE
COMMUNICATIONS/MEDIA RELATIONS

WEST VIRGINIA, 2022

James Knable joined the University of Miami in December of 2022. He currently serves as the primary communications contact for the Miami Hurricanes Baseball program and secondary contact for football. In his first two years for the athletic department, James served as the primary contact for the track and field team while orchestrating the social media strategy for the football team.

A Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania native and West Virginia University alumni, James earned his bachelor's degree in advertising/public relations with a minor in strategic communications in May of 2022.

Prior to joining the Miami family, James started his sports and reporting career during his first year of college working as a photojournalist for The Daily Athenaeum, the independent student newspaper at WVU, where he continued to work all four years of his college career.

In 2019, James joined the WVU Athletics staff as a digital media intern, where he continued to grow in photography and videography. Two years later, he was promoted within the department to the communications office, specializing in the men's basketball and wrestling teams.

During his final semester of college, James was hired by his hometown team, the Pittsburgh Penguins, as a media relations intern. Working alongside some of the most well-known figures in the sports communications industry and journalists of the Pittsburgh area, James has published multiple publications for the Pittsburgh Penguins to help build their brand at the highest level of hockey.

Son to John and Sherry Knable, younger brother to Sara, Jay, and older brother to Julianne, James enjoys fishing and spending his free time at Lighthouse Beach in Key Biscayne.

ZACHARY RIPIC,
PhD.
BIOMECHANIST
PENN STATE, 2016

Zack is in his second year with the Hurricanes Baseball program, serving as the Biomechanist for the stadium mounted KinaTrax motion capture system.

Zack graduated with a B.S. in Kinesiology from Penn State University in 2016, completing his degree as a biomechanics intern in the Golf Teaching and Research Center. He went on to complete an M.S. in Exercise Science at Appalachian State University where he worked as the graduate research associate in the Injury Neuromechanics lab.

He moved to Miami in 2019 and started his doctoral work as the graduate assistant in the Sports Medicine and Motion Analysis lab within the Department of Kinesiology and Sport Sciences. His dissertation work focused on the KinaTrax markerless system and its application in clinical gait analysis. He completed this work in 2022, earning a PhD in Exercise Physiology.

After graduation, Zack started his postdoctoral research training with the UHealth Sports Medicine Institute, focusing on lower extremity injury and recovery. He completed this in August of 2024 and joined the Miller School of Medicine faculty as an instructor in the Department of Orthopaedics, with a secondary appointment in the Department of Kinesiology and Sport Sciences.

Zack's primary objective as supporting staff is to evaluate in-game movement data of pitchers and batters and provide deliverables for coaches to optimize performance and reduce injury risk in their athletes.

EDDIE MESTRE
BASEBALL ANALYTICS
NOVA SOUTHEASTERN, 2022

Eddie Mestre joins the Miami Hurricanes baseball team for his second full-time season after serving as a volunteer in baseball analytics during the 2024 season. A Pembroke Pines, Florida, native, Eddie brings a strong background in baseball analytics to his role. Mestre earned both a bachelor's and master's in business administration from Nova Southeastern University.

Before joining the Hurricanes, Eddie worked with the Nova Southeastern baseball team for three years as a student manager, followed by a year as a graduate assistant specializing in data analytics and video.

In addition to his academic credentials, Eddie recently completed a Graduate Certificate in Data Analytics from the University of Miami, further honing his skills in the field. He also specializes in the utilization of cutting-edge player-development technologies, including TrackMan, KinaTrax and the NewtForce pitching-mound force-plate system.

2025 (Sophomore):

- Selected to the All-ACC First Team and honored as one of 25 Golden Spikes Award semifinalists. Garnered five All-America honors, including First-Team selections by D1Baseball, Baseball America and ABCA/Rawlings, and Second-Team nods from Perfect Game and the NCBWA
- Started 61 games and posted a team-best .372 batting average with 84 hits, 18 home runs, 84 RBI, 20 doubles, and a .708 slugging percentage (.450 on-base) in 2025. In ACC play alone, hit a scorching .411 with 10 homers and 46 RBIs over 29 conference games.
- His 84 RBI rank fifth-most in a single season in Miami history, while his 42 career homers tied him for seventh all-time at Miami at the end of his sophomore campaign.
- In the postseason, Cuvet continued to shine, earning Hattiesburg Regional MVP honors after hitting .385 with two doubles, a home run, and five RBI in Miami's 3-1 outing. His efforts helped the Hurricanes punch their ticket to the NCAA Louisville Super Regional for the first time since 2016.
- Led the Hurricanes in virtually every major offensive category, including batting average (.372), home runs (18) and RBIs (84).
- Cuvet ranked second on the team with 26 multi-hit games and led the Hurricanes with 22 multi-RBI outings, including 10 games with at least three RBI and two games with five or more.
- April 27, 2025 (vs. Boston College at Fenway Park): Crushed a go-ahead three-run homer around Fenway's iconic Pesky's Pole in the 8th inning, lifting Miami to a 3-2 victory and a series sweep in the ALS Awareness Game.

- May 2, 2025 (vs. No. 13 NC State): Homered twice and drove in five runs to power a 6-4 win over the Wolfpack, part of a two-game sweep in which he went 5-for-6 (.833) with 2 HR, 2 doubles and 8 RBIs. That performance earned him ACC Player of the Week honors for the week of Apr. 28-May 4.
- May 7, 2025 (vs. FIU): Went 4-for-5 with 5 RBIs, including a pivotal three-run home run in the 8th inning that broke open the game, as Miami defeated Florida International 10-6.
- May 30, 2025 (NCAA Regional vs. Alabama): Opened the NCAA Hattiesburg Regional by launching a three-run homer in the first inning to spark Miami's 5-3 win over No. 24 Alabama in the regional opener.
- June 7, 2025 (NCAA Super Regional at Louisville): Added a clutch three-run home run in the 8th inning to extend Miami's lead, sealing a 9-6 comeback win at Louisville and forcing a decisive Game 3 in the Super Regional (evening the series at 1-1).

BASEBALL IN SOUTH FLORIDA: A HURRICANE TRADITION

The University of Miami baseball program thrives as one of the best in the country as well as one of the most notable in South Florida's baseball history.

Miami's first varsity game was played at Miami Field, near Miami Senior High School, in the spring of 1940. The afternoon of March 26 saw the "Hurricane nine" defeat Newberry (S.C.) College in a 13-12 thriller. Games were actually played at UM briefly in the late 1920s and early 1930s, but were discontinued until a decade later when Jack Harding resurrected the sport at the varsity level in 1940. Harding was the Hurricanes' football coach from 1937-42 and, following World War II from 1945-47, as well as serving as UM's Athletic Director for 26 years. Baseball once again took a hiatus at Miami until 1946 when former UM football standout Eddie Dunn led the Hurricanes back onto the diamond.

From Major League Baseball, minor league organizations and top college and high school action, baseball and Miami have long been joined. Although amateur clubs were playing in Miami before the turn of the 20th century, the first official team appeared in 1912 with the minor league entry of the Miami Magicians of the Class D East Florida State League. The Magicians competed until the U.S. entered World War I.

Teams in the Florida East Coast League, including the Miami Wahoos, Miami Beach Flamingos, Fort Lauderdale Tarpons and West Palm Beach Indians, suspended operations in 1943 until the end of the war. From 1946 through 1955, a large portion of UM's schedule was against military service teams throughout the Southeast.

Construction on Miami Stadium began in late 1948 and opened in August 1949. At the time, the 9,000-seat stadium was hailed as one of the finest and most beautiful in baseball.

The Hurricanes were still playing at Miami Field, as were numerous minor league, high school and MLB exhibitions. The opening of the new state-of-the-art facility near downtown Miami gave way to games with the Hurricanes playing the likes of the Brooklyn Dodgers, Ft. Lauderdale Braves, Miami Beach Flamingos and Miami Beach Sun Sox as early as 1950.

The Marlins nickname made its first appearance in 1956 when the Triple A franchise from Syracuse, N.Y., moved south into Miami Stadium. Legendary baseball promoter Bill Veeck was brought in to run the team and one of his first hires was former Boston Red Sox Hall of Famer and UM head coach Jimmie Foxx. Foxx spent two seasons as head coach of the Hurricanes in

The University of Miami became a major factor on the national collegiate baseball scene when the school hired Ron Fraser to guide the program in 1962. Fraser came to Miami at a time when the nation's concerns were focused 90 miles from Key West's shores in the Cuban Missile Crisis. He was the mentor of the Dutch National Team for three years before Miami lured him to Coral Gables. Over the span of 30 years, "The Wizard of College Baseball" built what many considered the model collegiate program.

The Hurricanes won big under Fraser, becoming a regular participant in the College World Series and winning two national championships in the 1980s. It was also under Fraser that Miami made the upgrades to Mark Light Field and proved to many skeptics that college baseball could also be successful at the gate.

From Fraser to Jim Morris and continuing with Gino DiMare, the Hurricanes are still a big draw in town and annually place among college baseball's top 15. The success of the program only escalated under Morris with national championships in 1999 and 2001, along with numerous All-Americans and Major League Baseball Draft selections.

The park reopened as Alex Rodriguez Park at Mark Light Field in 2009 after a $3.9 million anchor gift from the 14-time MLB All-Star, the largest gift ever to the University of Miami baseball program.

Renovations over the last decade - including postseason pennants draping the main concourse and a retired numbers installation (2014), as well as a bronze statue of Ron Fraser placed outside the ballpark (2015) - contribute to South Florida's already rich baseball history.

After over 25 years as a player and coach with the Hurricanes, J.D. Arteaga — the program's all-time wins leader — became the program's 10th head coach prior to the 2024 season, which is the 80th in program history.

MIAMI SKIPPERS

1946-1954: 82-73-1 (.522)

The Post Word War II era saw the rebirth of the University of Miami baseball program with former Hurricane football standout and eventual head coach Eddie Dunn at the helm.

Dunn was a nationally acclaimed running back for the Hurricanes from 1936-38 and later took the reins of the program from 1943-44 when gridiron coach Jack Harding left for service in the Navy. Dunn also served two seasons under Hart Morris on the men's basketball team, as well.

Over 60 years later, Dunn still remains ranked among UM's all-time top 10 in all-purpose yards (#3, 3,476), touchdowns (#5, 25), rushing yards (#8, 1,778) and points scored (#10, 160). His two football seasons saw UM go 5-1 in 1943 and 1-7-1 in '44, prior to the return of Harding to the UM sideline.

It was at that point when the Athletic Department enlisted the service of Dunn to resurrect both the basketball and baseball programs to varsity level during the post World War II era. UM had one previous season of varsity baseball in 1940 along with years of freshman class-level play.

Against teams from the state of Florida, military bases and around the Southeast, Dunn guided UM to an 82-73-2 mark over his nine seasons. His 1947 club went 11-2, followed by his second-best mark of 14-8 in '49. Dunn, who was raised in Miami, was the father of UM football All-American and Pittsburgh Steeler great Gary Dunn.

PERRY MOSS

Legendary head coach Perry Moss served one season at the helm of the Miami baseball program in 1955. His Hurricanes went 15-7, including wins over Florida and Florida State. Moss' name is synonymous with the sport of football. Up until the 2000 season, Moss could be found pacing the sidelines of the Arena Football League's Jacksonville Tomcats. An amazing career within the sport of football, Moss has held head coach, front office and assistant coach roles in the NFL, CFL, WFL, USFL and both Arena leagues.

JIMMIE FOXX

Major League Baseball Hall of Famer Jimmie Foxx spent two seasons in Coral Gables in 1956 and 1957. With a 20-20 combined record, Foxx's Hurricanes picked up wins over Florida State and Yale.

Foxx was inducted into the MLB Hall of Fame in 1951 after a stellar professional career that spanned 20 years with the Athletics, Red Sox, Cubs and Phillies. Foxx was the leagues' most valuable player three times (1932, '33, '38), while being selected to the all-star team from 1933-41. One of baseball's most feared batters, Foxx led the league in batting average (1933, '38), home runs (1932, '33, '35, '39), RBI (1932, '33, '38). He was the triple-crown winner in 1933 and still holds numerous Boston Red Sox records.

WHITEY CAMPBELL

Former Miami four-sport star Whitey Campbell, a member of the UM Sports Hall of Fame, spent four seasons as head coach of the baseball program (1958, 1960-62). His Hurricanes were successful with a 69-36-3 combined record with highlight wins over Florida, Florida State, Jacksonville, Army and Georgia Tech.

Campbell, who was nicknamed "Mr. Athletics", saw action with the football, baseball and basketball programs earning 12 overall letters. He was also an assistant on the UM football coaching staff during two separate periods in the 1950's and 1960's, as well as holding assistant football coach positions at Montana, Navy and Kentucky.

In baseball, Campbell batted .301 as a freshman, .412 as a sophomore, .328 as a junior and .428 in his senior year. In football, Campbell set numerous Miami receiving records while becoming the basketball programs' first 1,000-point scorer.

JACK HARDING

Jack Harding served as head coach of the baseball program prior to World War II in 1940 and then again in 1959. His 1959 squad went 15-10-1 with big wins over Yale, Georgia Tech and Ohio State. Harding also served as Athletics Director at Miami from 1948-63 and then nine seasons as the head football coach (1937-42, 45-47).

His football teams went 54-23-3 during his tenure, including a 13-10 victory over Holy Cross in the Orange Bowl. During his stay at Miami, Harding left UM to serve in the United States Navy. The football program named its Most Valuable Player award the Jack Harding Award, given annually since 1963.

Harding learned his football at the University of Pittsburgh, where he was a quarterback under legendary head coach Glenn "Pop" Warner. He then went on to coach at Scranton University prior to arriving in Coral Gables.

RON FRASER

1963-92: 1,271-438-9 (.740)

See page 42.

BRAD KELLEY

1993: 36-22 (.621)

Longtime baseball assistant coach Brad Kelley served one season as the head coach in 1993, following the departure of legendary UM coach Ron Fraser.

His team went 36-22 in 1993, including wins over Long Beach State, Florida, Florida State and Rice.

Kelly served eight seasons as an assistant coach under Fraser, handling the UM pitching staff for six seasons. Kelly also served as an assistant coach on the United States national team as Fraser's top aide at the 1987 Pan American Games in Indianapolis. At the Games, the USA earned the silver medal to World Champion Cuba's gold medal. The USA defeated Cuba three of the seven meetings at the Games.

See page 43.

GINO DiMARE

2019-2023: 126-65 (.688)

Gino DiMare became the ninth head baseball coach in University of Miami history, elevating to the helm of the program prior to the 2019 season.

DiMare previously served as associate head coach in charge of hitting, as well as the baseball program's recruiting coordinator.

In DiMare's five seasons at the helm of the Hurricanes, Miami proved to be one of the top teams in the country, qualifying for the postseason in each year the NCAA tournament was held.

The 2022 and 2023 Hurricanes earned a top-10 seed, hosting a regional for the first time since 2016. Miami tallied a 42-21 overall record in DiMare's final campaign, falling one game short of the program's second ACC Tournament title. In his penultimate season, the Hurricanes posted a 40-20 mark, leading the ACC with 20 conference wins. The Hurricanes were ranked as high as No. 2 nationally, notching a 14-game winning streak, which is the program's longest in eight years.

In a year that began with a series victory at preseason No. 1 Florida, Miami finished the regular season second in the ACC Coastal and returned to the postseason for the second time under DiMare's leadership in 2021.

During the shortened 2020 campaign, the Hurricanes went 12-4 and ended the year ranked fifth by Baseball America. A preseason pick to win the Coastal, Miami won all three contests in conference play before the COVID-19 pandemic shut down the season prematurely.

The Hurricanes had an impressive first season under DiMare, winning 41 games and qualifying for the NCAA postseason for the first time since 2016. Miami received the 46th postseason berth in school history and reached the Starkville Regional final before falling to No. 6 Mississippi State. The Hurricanes amassed an 18-12 mark in ACC play in 2019, winning seven conference series and turning in their best conference record since 2016.

The 2019 Canes hit an ACC-best 85 home runs on the season, the most since Miami hit 106 in 2010. First baseman Alex Toral smashed a conference-leading 24 home runs on the season that ranked third in Division I and moved him into a tie with Yonder Alonso for the second-most home runs by a Hurricane in a single season.

Twelve different Hurricanes hit at least one home run in 2019, sparking an explosion of power from the Miami bats that matched the 2018 season home run total of 23 after just 15 games in 2019. The Canes' 85 homers were more than the combined team home run total of 58 from the previous two seasons (35 in 2017 and 23 in 2018).

Five All-America honorees emerged under DiMare's watch – Chris McMahon (2020), Brian Van Belle (2020), Carson Palmquist (2021, 2022) and Andrew Walters (2022, 2023) and Yohandy Morales (2023).

All five of those players garnered All-ACC recognition as well, joining Michael Amditis (2019), Adrian Del Castillo (2019, 2021), Raymond Gil (2019), Brian Van Belle (2019), Christian Del Castillo (2021), Anthony Vilar (2021), Jacob Burke (2022), CJ Kayfus (2022, 2023) and Karson Ligon (2022), Blake Cyr (2023), Zach Levenson (2023), Dominic Pitelli (2023) and Gage Ziehl (2023).

Under DiMare, 12 Hurricanes were selected in the MLB Draft, including first-round pick Slade Cecconi in 2020.

RON FRASER: THE WIZARD OF COLLEGE BASEBALL

1963-92: 1,271-438-9 (.740)

There was that time when Ron Fraser received a phone call from friend and former Yankees slugger Joe DiMaggio, who had just attended a preseason Miami baseball practice a few days prior. DiMaggio had remembered a flaw in one of Coach Fraser's players swing and relayed over the phone some tips on correction. Fraser took the suggestion and began to work with the player. Future UM Sports Hall of Fame Ernie Yaroshuk batted an amazing .448 during his senior season and was drafted by Philadelphia.

Then there was the time that Fraser had to call upon some old buddies to help save his team, which was rumored for contraction in its early stages. St. Louis Cardinals Hall of Famer Stan Musial and Major League broadcaster Joe Garagiola showed up and hosted a Miami baseball benefit, which in turn gained the necessary attention and support from the administration for continuing Fraser's young club's survival.

Or how about the time Fraser spent a weekend in Bristol, Conn., campaigning his sports' presence with ESPN. Fraser's goal was to get the Hurricanes on TV against college baseball's biggest power, USC. That series, which would go on to become the first college baseball game ever on television was first to be just a one-game broadcast on tape delay. After the weekend series against the Trojans in Coral Gables was completed, Miami had defeated USC three consecutive games with each game broadcast live.

Did you know that a usually modest Boston Red Sox Hall of Famer Ted Williams once rode out from centerfield sitting in a giant sized glove in efforts to draw fans to Fraser's ballpark? Legendary Yankees broadcaster Mel Allen introduced him.

Fraser always seemed a step ahead of most. His early vision of the sport came when the rest started to think his way 20 years later. It is evidenced in the migration of the sports' top celebrities to Coral Gables and their teams' annual exhibitions against the Hurricanes a reflection of Fraser's baseball genius.

Ronald "Ron" George Fraser came to the University of Miami in 1962 after serving the Dutch National Team that lasted three years and produced three European Championships. His international reputation earned him the job at Miami, succeeding Whitey Campbell. He was actually noticed by UM officials on the television show "What's My Line?" Fraser was a success on the show as he stumped the panel and unknowingly won over his future employer.

In the beginning, the support wasn't there. Fraser had nearly no money for his program and had to work days at a Coral Gables youth center. He didn't have the scholarships for his players, uniforms, nor bats or balls. Uniforms came from elsewhere, like the ones the Army program gave to Miami. Fraser recalled that the "A" and "Y" of Army were clearly visible around the freshly embroidered "Miami". Some of the first uniforms were bought from a Lucky Strike cigarette ad. Another friend of Fraser's, this one who designed Italian suits, created uniforms that were second to none with bright lime green as the dominant color.

What was first a rusty, rugged and dust-blown park soon transformed into a place where baseball was thriving. Balls and bats showed up at the park on the southwest corner of campus. The scholarships took 10 years, but you would have never known by the success of the program, nationally and abroad. Fraser received six scholarships in 1973, the team responded with 10 more victories. He got six more for 1974. His team went 51-11 and played for the national championship in its first College World Series appearance.

The Miami program really began to blossom following that first CWS appearance. Miami was annually among the leaders in attendance and eventually drew a decade-best 1.27 million in the 1980s. Two thousand to 4,000 fans were coming on average 10 years after Miami was lucky to have 100 show up for a game. Through Fraser's efforts, Mark Light Field, which was funded with the private donation largely from George and Ethel Light, was dedicated in 1973. It was Fraser's knack for marketing and promotion that drew the masses and earned him the nickname "The Wizard of College Baseball". Miami players were wearing white shoes and colored gloves before Charlie Finley tried the same with his Oakland A's. Fraser was the first to hire batgirls and was the first to wear green gloves on St. Patrick's Day. There were incredible car and vacation giveaways, income tax night and the San Diego Chicken.

Perhaps Fraser's biggest extravaganza was the baseball fundraiser dubbed "A Night With Ron Fraser" on February 16, 1977, a $5,000-a-plate gourmet dinner on the infield. Five-star chefs served a 10-course dinner of caviar, Alaskan king crab legs and pheasant under glass. A harpist in a white tuxedo played on the mound and violinists strolled among the tables. It was a huge success, covered by media from across the world.

His 30-year career at Miami that spanned more three decades, Fraser produced a 1,271-438-9 record with a NCAA-record 20 straight postseason appearances and 12 trips to the College World Series with national championships in 1982 and 1985. He is a 26-time coach of the year and a member of 10 halls of fame, including the inaugural class of the College Baseball Foundation Hall of Fame in 2006.

Fraser passed away on Jan. 20, 2013 at the age of 79. In recognition of his lifetime accomplishments and a distinguished legacy of helping others, the University of Miami created the Ron Fraser Wizard Fund to honor the Hall of Fame coach with a bronze statue to outside Alex Rodriguez Park at Mark Light Field. It was installed on the afternoon of April 24, 2015 - just before Miami was to begin its annual rivalry series with Florida State.

JIM MORRIS: 25 YEARS OF EXCELLENCE AT THE U

1994-2018: 1,090-472-3 (.696)

It didn't matter if his roster was full of rookies or veterans, Jim Morris produced some of college baseball's most consistent and dominant teams in his 25 seasons at the University of Miami. With a talented staff around him, Morris' Hurricanes were continually the class of collegiate baseball, having won national titles in 1999 and 2001 and the ACC Baseball Regular Season Championship in 2008, 2014 and 2016.

In his 25-season tenure at Miami, no program qualified for the College World Series as much as Morris and his Hurricanes. Miami, which has qualified for the NCAA Tournament on 45 occasions, made it to Omaha in 13 of Morris' 25 seasons in Coral Gables - including most recently in 2016, when Miami was awarded the No. 3 national seed for the NCAA postseason.

Morris set an NCAA record for guiding a program to the CWS in each of his first six years at UM. In addition, Morris has won 17 of 23 NCAA Regional appearances at UM, including a record 13 straight to start his tenure in Coral Gables. His teams qualified for NCAA Regionals for a streak of 32 straight years, beginning with his final nine seasons (1985-1993) at Georgia Tech and his first 23 seasons at Miami (1994-2016).

A three-time national coach of the year and 2008 Atlantic Coast Conference Coach of the Year, Morris directed the Hurricanes to a 1,090-472-3 (.696) mark since arriving in 1994. Including his 12 seasons at Georgia Tech (1982-93), Morris forged a 1,594-716-4 (.689) Division I record in 37 years as a head coach. Overall, Morris was the head coach at the collegiate level for 41 seasons, spending the first four at DeKalb (Ga.) C.C. from 1976-79, and recorded a 1,697-729-4 (.694) mark.

In addition to carrying on Miami's great baseball reputation in his 25-year tenure, Morris personally led the charge in the construction of Alex Rodriguez Park, and logged hundreds of hours raising funds for the stadium's renovation prior to its reopening in 2009.

Morris reached two coaching milestones in 2016, as he led the program to its 25th College World Series appearance in history, its third straight ACC Coastal Division title and the program's second ACC Regular Season Championship in a three-year span. The Hurricanes posted a 50-win season (50-14) for the second straight year, marking the first such instance for Miami since 1998 / 1999.

Morris became just the sixth coach in the history of Division I baseball to reach the 1,500-win plateau when Miami topped Louisville 8-4 in dramatic fashion on March 18, 2016. A walk-off grand slam from Willie Abreu gave Morris his 1,500th.

Eight days later, Miami topped Clemson 5-4 in 11 innings - also in walk-off fashion - to send Morris to his 1,000th win at the helm of the Hurricanes.

Miami captured the 2014 ACC Regular Season Championship under his watch, recording 24 wins in conference play for the first time in program history. The conference win total set a new record for the program and tied the ACC's all-time single-season win total.

Morris reached two coaching milestones in the first half of the 2014 season. He became just the eighth Division I coach to reach 1,400 wins in a 5-2 win over Boston College on March 8, and won his 900th game at Miami in a 7-1 upset of No. 3 Virginia on March 22. The Hurricanes, who have never missed the Atlantic Coast Conference Championship since joining the ACC in 2004, qualified for their 10th straight conference tournament under Morris and earned a Regional host spot for their 42nd consecutive postseason trip.

On March 15, 2013, Morris won his 1,500th game as a head coach in signature fashion - upsetting No. 1 North Carolina on the road at Boshamer Stadium in Chapel Hill, N.C.

Morris reached a number of other coaching milestones in his time in Coral Gables. His 1,000th Division-I game on April 4, 2004, at his old stomping grounds at Georgia Tech. He also achieved another milestone during the 2004 season, winning his 500th game at the helm of the Miami program. Morris' 500th win came just a few weeks following his 1,000th overall win as a Division-I head coach by beating Florida State 7-3 on April 17. His 600th win at Miami fittingly came in UM's 2006 Regional Opener against San Francisco on June 2, an 11-2 win that began the greatest run to the postseason in Miami's history. He is the second Hurricanes' head coach to win 500 games at Miami, joining Ron Fraser, who won 1,271 games from 1963-1992 in Coral Gables.

The 2008 season saw the Hurricanes reach their 11th CWS and reach the 50-win plateau for the seventh time under Morris. The team finished with an overall record of 53-11 (.828), the highest winning percentage for a Miami team in 16 seasons. The Hurricanes, after going 43-8 overall and 23-5 in ACC play during the regular season, went on to win their first ACC title at the 2008 ACC Championship in Jacksonville. Miami would go on to host and win both the Coral Gables Regional (vs. Bethune-Cookman, Mississippi and Missouri) and the Coral Gables Super Regional (vs. Arizona) on its path to Omaha. Morris earned ACC Coach of the Year honors for his leadership in 2008 while eight Hurricanes were named to the All-ACC team, including left-hander Chris Hernandez, who was named ACC Freshman of the Year.

For the first time in school history, three Hurricanes were selected in the first round of the Major League Baseball Draft in 2008. Junior first baseman Yonder Alonso (7th overall to the Cincinnati Reds), junior second baseman Jemile Weeks (12th overall to the Oakland Athletics) and junior right-handed pitcher Carlos Gutierrez (27th overall to the Minnesota Twins) were the first three of eight total Canes taken in the 2008 draft.

Affectionately known as "3" by those surrounding the UM program, Morris and the Hurricanes claimed the 2001 National Championship with a 12-1 victory over Stanford in the College World Series finale at Rosenblatt Stadium. The 11-run margin of victory over the Cardinal tied a 45-year-old CWS record for a championship game, while the Hurricanes' 12.3 runs per game set a new CWS mark. Miami had also defeated Tennessee twice, 21-13 and 12-6, and Southern California, 4-3, to advance to the title game.

Miami finished the 2001 season riding a NCAA-high 17-game win streak, including a nine-game sweep during the postseason. The Hurricanes claimed the Coral Gables

Regional championship with wins over Bucknell, Florida and Stetson, followed by a two-game sweep of Clemson in the Coral Gables Super Regional. The Hurricanes' 53-12 overall record in 2001 marked the most in wins (53) and winning percentage (.815) under Morris.

Collegiate Baseball Newspaper and the American Baseball Coaches Association each honored Morris with its National Coach of the Year honors following his 2001 title to give him five such honors for his career. He additionally won top honors from Collegiate Baseball and the ABCA after the Hurricanes defeated Florida State, 6-5, for the 1999 National Championship. Morris' first National Coach of the Year honor came in his first season at Miami in 1994.

Athletic Director Paul Dee officially appointed Morris Miami's eighth baseball coach on November 4, 1993. Morris graciously accepted and opened a new chapter in his storied coaching career.

Leaving Georgia Tech, which was the preseason No. 1 team in 1994, had to be tough, but the usually candid Morris put it in perspective: "I'm going from the No. 1 team in the country, to the No. 1 program in the country."

In 1982, Morris would accept a huge challenge in accepting the head coaching job at Georgia Tech. It was a reclamation project as the Yellow Jackets were on the backside of four straight losing seasons and were 4-23 in their first two seasons in the Atlantic Coast Conference.

At Georgia Tech, Morris was the all-time leader in coaching victories, in any of the school's varsity sports, as he had 12 straight winning seasons, nine straight NCAA regional berths, four straight Atlantic Coast Conference titles (1985-88) and a school-record 51 wins in 1987.

Over 150 professional baseball players have played under Morris during their college careers at Miami, Georgia Tech and DeKalb.

Among the players Morris coached at Miami that went on to play in the Major Leagues were Ryan Braun, Yasmani Grandal, Yonder Alonso, Danny Valencia, Peter O'Brien, Andrew Suarez, Chris Herrmann, Pat Burrell, Alex Cora, Bobby Hill, Aubrey Huff, Chris Perez, Cesar Carrillo, Brian Barton, Gaby Sanchez, Charlton Jimerson, Jay Tessmer, Danny Graves and Jason Michaels, among others. Standout players under Morris from his days at Georgia Tech were Nomar Garciaparra, Jay Payton and Jason Varitek.

COLLEGE BASEBALL HALL OF FAME

COLLEGE BASEBALL HALL OF FAME INDUCTEE (2006)

"The Wizard of College Baseball." In a career spanning 30 years, the Nutley, N.J. native won just about everything, including NCAA national titles in 1982 and 1985. He left the coaching ranks as second winningest all-time coach with a 1,271-438-9 (.740) record. His UM teams set a NCAA record with 20 consecutive playoff appearances. His career at Miami spanned more three decades, with eight trips to the College World Series. A 26-time coach of the year, he is a member of ten halls of fame. Ron Fraser's uniform No. 1 was retired on April 24, 1993.

It was Fraser's knack for marketing and promotion that drew the masses and earned him the nickname "The Wizard of College Baseball." Miami players were wearing white shoes and colored gloves before Charlie Finley. Perhaps Fraser's biggest extravaganza was the baseball fundraiser dubbed "A Night With Ron Fraser" on Feb. 16, 1977, a $5,000-a-plate gourmet dinner on the infield. Five-star chefs served a 10-course dinner of caviar, Alaskan king crab legs and pheasant under glass. A harpist in a white tuxedo played on the mound and violinists strolled among the tables. Fraser's expertise extended worldwide. On the international front, his crowning glory was becoming the first Team USA coach when baseball was a medal sport at the 1992 Summer Games.

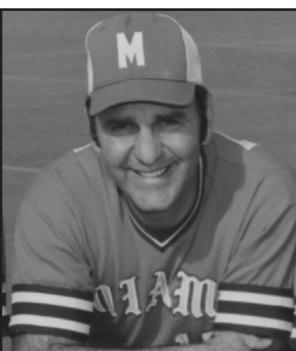

SKIP BERTMAN

ASSISTANT COACH (1976-1983)

After a standout career as an assistant coach for eight seasons with the University of Miami, Skip Bertman guided LSU to five NCAA baseball titles (1991, '93, '96, '97, 2000), seven SEC championships and a record of 870-330-3 (.724) in 18 seasons (1984-2001). He was named National Coach of the Year six times, and his teams drew huge crowds to venerable Alex Box Stadium, as LSU led the nation in attendance in each of his final six seasons (1996-2001).

Bertman also served as head coach of the 1996 U.S. Olympic team that captured the bronze medal in Atlanta. He was inducted into the American Baseball Coaches Association Hall of Fame in January 2003. He earned his B.A. in health and physical education from Miami in 1961 and received his master's degree from UM in 1964.

NEAL HEATON

COLLEGE BASEBALL HALL OF FAME INDUCTEE (2008)

PITCHER (1979-81)

Neal Heaton, nicknamed "The Heater" made his mark during his tenure as a Hurricane. The Heater ranks first in single season victories (18), second in career wins (42) and holds the school record for most strikeouts in a game (23). Heaton also ranks third on Miami's all-time list for strikeouts in a season (172) and career (381). In three years, Heaton was twice named an All-American, by ABCA in 1980 and by consensus in 1981 and in 1981 was drafted by the Cleveland Indians.

Heaton is the first Hurricane to play in a big league all-star game and was inducted into the UM Sports Hall of Fame in 1993.

COLLEGE BASEBALL HALL OF FAME

ALEX FERNANDEZ

COLLEGE BASEBALL HALL OF FAME INDUCTEE (2014) PITCHER (1989)

Alex Fernandez was named Freshman of the Year and a first-team All-American in 1989, where he won 15 games with a 2.01 ERA and 177 strikeouts in 147 innings.

Fernandez threw the first no-hitter by a freshman in program history on March 18, and four days later recorded a 15-strikeout game against rival Florida. His eight complete games in 1989 rank eighth-most for a single-season by any Hurricanes pitcher all-time, while his 177 strikeouts rank second-most for a single season.

Fernandez went on to play at Miami-Dade College before declaring for the 1990 MLB Draft. He was the fourth overall pick that season, and went on to 10-year professional career.

He was a key player on a Florida Marlins team that won the 1997 World Series.

MIKE FIORE

COLLEGE BASEBALL HALL OF FAME INDUCTEE (2014) OUTFIELDER (1985-1988)

A four-year UM starter, Fiore rewrote the Hurricanes record books by setting 12 UM batting marks, including hits (341), runs (258), doubles (63), runs batted in (235) and total bases (506).

Fiore earned Freshman All-American honors in leading Miami to the 1985 NCAA crown and was a consensus All-American as a senior. He is the only Dick Howser Trophy winner in program history, having earned the honor in 1987 after leading the Hurricanes to an appearance in the College World Series in Omaha, Neb.

Fiore also played on the 1988 gold-medal winning USA Olympic team.

Fiore completed his business degree on time in 1988, and following that season, was drafted and signed by the St. Louis Cardinals. For five seasons, he served as Associate Director and General Manager for USA Baseball.

JIM MORRIS

COLLEGE BASEBALL HALL OF FAME INDUCTEE (2020) HEAD COACH (1994-2018)

Known as "3," Jim Morris was one of the most successful head coaches in college baseball history with 1,594 career victories as a Division I skipper.

In 25 seasons at Miami, Morris won 1,090 games, made the NCAA postseason in 23 straight years, reached the College World Series 13 times and won National Championships in 1999 and 2001 and the ACC Baseball Regular Season Championship in 2008, 2014 and 2016.

A three-time national coach of the year and 2008 Atlantic Coast Conference Coach of the Year, Morris set an NCAA record for guiding a program to the CWS in each of his first six years at UM. In addition, Morris won 17 of 23 NCAA Regional appearances at UM, including a record 13 straight to start his tenure in Coral Gables.

NATIONAL AWARD WINNERS

ZACK COLLINS

2016 JOHNNY BENCH AWARD

Zack Collins, who was selected by the Chicago White Sox in the first round of the 2016 Major League Baseball First-Year Player Draft in early June, became the first University of Miami representative to win the Johnny Bench Award when he was named the winner at a banquet in Wichita, Kansas on June 30, 2016.

Collins beat out finalists Logan Ice (Oregon State) and Keith Skinner (North Florida) for the honor.

The Pembroke Pines, Fla., native, who earned first-team All-America honors from Baseball America, D1Baseball, NCBWA, Perfect Game and Rawlings, delivered a dominant final season swinging the bat and behind the plate in 2016.

Collins batted .363, leading Miami with 16 home runs and 59 RBI to go along with a nation-leading total of 78 walks. He reached base at a .544 clip, the second-highest in the country, and recorded a team-high .668 slugging percentage.

A back-to-back All-ACC First-Team selection, Collins started 62 of a possible 64 games the year he won the Johnny Bench, including 59 starts behind the plate. He made just four errors as a key member of a Miami defense that tied for first nationally with a .983 fielding percentage.

Collins, who signed a professional contact with the White Sox as the No. 10 overall pick, ended the season ranked third among active players in career home runs (42), third in career RBI (183) and first in career walks (177).

In Collins' three seasons with the Hurricanes, Miami won two ACC regular season championships (2014, 2016) and three straight ACC Coastal Division titles (2014-16), and made two trips to the College World Series (2015, 2016).

BRYAN GARCIA

2016 STOPPER OF THE YEAR AWARD

University of Miami closer Bryan Garcia was named the 2016 Stopper of the Year on June 18, 2016, by the National Collegiate Baseball Writers Association (NCBWA) at TD Ameritrade Park Omaha, becoming the first Hurricane hurler to receive the award.

Garcia was named a semifinalist for the Dick Howser Trophy and earned first-team All-American honors from the NCBWA and third-team All-Atlantic Coast Conference honors while helping Miami earn the ACC regular-season championship and the No. 3 national seed in the NCAA postseason.

A sixth-round pick of the Detroit Tigers, the righthander had 18 saves, second in the nation, and a 2-0 record with a 1.95 ERA in 37 innings over 34 appearances during his award-winning junior season. Garcia allowed 25 hits and 17 walks while striking out 54 batters, holding opponents to a .184 batting average.

The Miami native established the school's career saves record on May 26, 2016 at the ACC Championship against NC State with his 40th save and collected three more saves during the NCAA postseason, bringing his Miami-leading total to 43 for his career.

Bryan Garcia

PAT BURRELL

1998 GOLDEN SPIKES AWARD

Miami's baseball program has seen many great players, but none came to Mark Light Stadium with more expectations, or accomplished more than Pat Burrell. The 1995 California Coaches Player of the Year at San Jose's Bellarmine Prep School, Burrell was selected with the 43rd overall pick in the 1995 MLB Draft by the Boston Red Sox, but chose Miami over professional baseball. Hurricane fans are grateful he did.

Nicknamed "Pat the Bat", his 1996 season was one of the best in college baseball history. He hit a home run in his first game in the Orange & Green, and tallied five home runs in his first six games. He became the first freshman in NCAA history to lead the nation in hitting with a .484 batting average. He totaled 23 home runs and 64 RBI, as the Canes advanced to the Championship Game of the College World Series, where he became only the third player ever to win the CWS MVP award on a team that did not win the title. He was named a first-team All-American by Collegiate Baseball and Baseball America.

The third baseman followed his impressive debut season with 21 home runs, 76 RBI and a .409 average in 1997, once again winning All-American honors. He toured with Team USA, hitting 12 homers in 34 games and was named Summer Player of the Year by Baseball America. In 1998, Burrell missed 38 games due to a back injury, but still compiled 17 HR's with 47 RBI with a .432 average, leading the Canes to the CWS for the third straight year. His .886 career slugging percentage ranks second all-time in NCAA history, and his .442 career batting average is seventh all-time, both school records. In the Miami record books, Burrell ranks second in career home runs (61), second in total bases (465), tied for seventh in RBI (187), and sixth in walks (170).

The Philadelphia Phillies made Pat the No. 1 overall pick in the 1998 Major League Baseball draft. He joined the big league club in 2000, finishing fourth in Rookie of the Year balloting. He was co-winner of the 2005 Mike Schmidt Phillies MVP Award. In 2007, he joined Schmidt and Bobby Abreu as the only Phillies players in history to hit 20 homers in seven consecutive seasons.

In 2002, he established "Burrell's Buddies", providing tickets to youth groups that show outstanding character. Pat and his wife, the former Michelle Fonseca, were married November, 10, 2007 in California.

MIKE FIORE

1987 DICK HOWSER TROPHY

A four-year UM starter, Mike Fiore was a member of the 1988 gold medal-winning USA team. The gritty outfielder rewrote the Hurricanes' record book by setting 12 UM batting marks, including hits (341), runs (258), doubles (63), runs batted in (235) and total bases (506).

Fiore earned Freshman All-American honors in leading Miami to the 1985 NCAA crown and was a consensus All-American as a senior. Fiore completed his business degree on time in 1988, and following that season, was drafted and signed by the St. Louis Cardinals. For five seasons, he was the Associate Director and General Manager for USA Baseball.

ORLANDO GONZALEZ

1974 LEFTY GOMEZ PLATE AWARD

The first University of Miami player ever to have his jersey retired (No. 20), Orlando Gonzalez has gone down in the UM annals as the team's best all-around first baseman. A .300 hitter out of Dade South Community College, Gonzalez hit .338 and stole 34 bases in his first season with the Canes. He followed that performance with a banner senior season. He slugged his way to a .402 average and stole a then-NCAA record 62 bases. His aggressive style at the plate and on the base paths led the Hurricanes to their first-ever College World Series, where Miami finished second to Southern Cal, who that year won its fifth consecutive CWS title.

Following that College World Series which saw "Big O" drive in seven runs with his seven hits, he became the first recipient of the annual Lefty Gomez Plate Award as the outstanding player in collegiate baseball. He was named to the College World Series all tournament team and as an All American selection by Sporting News and the NCAA coaches as well.

Although not a power hitter—as a lefty shooting against long right field fences he hit but two homers in 1973 and one in 1974—Gonzalez did have the tools of a fine baseball player. He combined overall hitting with great speed and quickness. He also was adept with the glove. He was a part of most of UM's 68 double plays—a UM record for that time in twin killings Gonzalez was drafted by the Cleveland Indians following his two-year stint at UM. It was with the Philadelphia Phillies and the Oakland Athletics, though, that he played at the major league level.

RETIRED NUMBERS

#1 RON FRASER

"The Wizard of College Baseball." In a career spanning 30 years, the Nutley, N.J. native won just about everything, including NCAA national titles in 1982 and 1985. He left the coaching ranks as second-winningest all-time coach with a 1,271-438-9 (.740) record. His UM teams set a NCAA record with 20 consecutive playoff appearances. Fraser's expertise extended worldwide as well.

He got his coaching start with the Netherlands that spawned three European Championships. Fraser guided the 1973 United States team that won the world title. In 1987, he led the USA to three upsets of Cuba and ultimately a Silver Medal at the Pan American Games. On the international front, his crowning glory was becoming the first Team USA coach when baseball was a medal sport at the 1992 Summer Games. A 26-time coach of the year, he is a member of 10 halls of fame, including the first class inducted into the College Baseball Foundation Hall of Fame in 2006. Ron Fraser's uniform No. 1 was retired on April 24, 1993.

#3 JIM MORRIS

Known as "3," Jim Morris was one of the most successful head coaches in college baseball history with 1,594 career victories as a Division I skipper.

In 25 seasons at Miami, Morris won 1,090 games, made the NCAA postseason in 23 straight years, reached the College World Series 13 times and won National Championships in 1999 and 2001 and the ACC Baseball Regular Season Championship in 2008, 2014 and 2016.

A three-time national coach of the year and 2008 Atlantic Coast Conference Coach of the Year, Morris set an NCAA record for guiding a program to the CWS in each of his first six years at UM. In addition, Morris has won 17 of 23 NCAA Regional appearances at UM, including a record 13 straight to start his tenure in Coral Gables. Morris's jersey was retired in a pregame ceremony on March 8, 2019.

#5 DOUG SHIELDS

In a stellar four-year career, Shields set a high standard for UM centerfielders for years to come. The Tampa, Fla., native set seven offensive records while leading the Hurricanes to the school's first national title in 1982.

Shields is UM's career leader in games played with 284 and ranks second in career at bats with 871. He ranks third in runs scored (238) and hits (271), and is 10th in career RBI with 165. After graduating with a degree in marketing, Shields was signed by the Montreal Expos. However, a knee injury short circuited his pro aspirations. In 1988, Shields was one of 11 founders of the UM's Hall of Fame locker room in the varsity clubhouse.

#11 PAT BURRELL

Pat Burrell is the only player in the history of University of Miami baseball to win the coveted Golden Spikes Award. He finished his UM career with the best batting average in school history, hitting .442 over his three-year career and first in slugging percentage at .886. Burrell finished second in career home runs with 61, second in total bases with 465, fifth in RBI with 187 and fourth in walks with 170.

His 1996 freshman campaign was one of the greatest seasons in college baseball history, hitting .484 with 23 home runs and 64 RBI on a team that finished runner-up for the national title. Burrell's sophomore season saw him finish with 21 home runs and a .409 average to go along with 76 RBI. He became Miami's first No. 1 overall pick in the Major League Draft in June of 1998 after hitting .432 with 17 home runs and 47 RBI in an injury-filled junior season.

#12 MIKE FIORE

A four-year UM starter, Mike Fiore was a member of the 1988 gold medal-winning USA team. The gritty outfielder rewrote the Hurricanes' record book by setting 12 UM batting marks, including hits (341), runs (258), doubles (63), runs batted in (235) and total bases (506).

Fiore earned Freshman All-American honors in leading Miami to the 1985 NCAA crown and was a consensus All-American as a senior. He is also Miami's only Dick Howser Trophy winner, earning the honor in 1987 after leading UM to the College World Series in Omaha, Neb. Fiore completed his business degree on time in 1988, and following that season, was drafted and signed by the St. Louis Cardinals. For five seasons, he was the Associate Director and General Manager for USA Baseball.

#15 SKIP BERTMAN

The first Hurricane baseball coach to have his number retired is best known for taking raw talent and transforming it into wins for Miami and a professional prospect. Bertman served as an assistant under Ron Fraser from 1975-83. He was then named the Head Coach at Louisiana State where he quickly turned that program into a national powerhouse. He played for UM as a catcher and outfielder from 1958-60.

Bertman was also the head coach of the 1996 United States Olympic Baseball Team and is a member of the University of Miami Sports Hall of Fame. Bertman joined Fraser as an inaugural inductee into the College Baseball Foundation Hall of Fame in 2006.

#20 ORLANDO GONZALEZ

Orlando Gonzalez's aggressive style of play at the plate and on the base paths led the Hurricanes to their first College World Series berth in 1974, a runner-up finish to Southern California. Gonzalez was named to the all-tournament team for his efforts at the CWS.

He won the 1974 Lefty Gomez Plate as the Outstanding Player in College Baseball as well as All-America honors by The Sporting News and the NCAA Coaches Association. He hit .338 with 38 stolen bases as a junior and .402 and 62 swipes as a senior in 1974. Drafted by Cleveland, he saw major league action with the Indians, A's and Phillies.

#23 CHARLES JOHNSON

Charles Johnson was a three-year letterman for the Hurricanes from 1990-92 and a first-team All-American by The Sporting News in his final season. He currently is listed in the record book in three offensive categories: triples in a season (first, 9), triples in a career (fifth, 12) and home runs in a career (ninth, 38).

Additionally, Johnson led the team in home runs in all three seasons in Coral Gables, as well as RBI in 1992. He was drafted by the Florida Marlins in the first round after his junior season in 1992 and enjoyed a MLB career that spanned 12 seasons.

#25 RANDY GUERRA

"Dandy Randy" was "Mister Do-It-All for UM", excelling on the mound and at bat from 1976 to 1979. He won 20 games as a hurler, but was best known as a long-ball hitting first baseman. Guerra finished his career in Coral Gables eighth on the career games played list with 238 appearances.

Guerra's consistency also landed him fifth on the career at bats chart with 839. During his four-year career, Guerra flashed excellent skills at the plate, finishing sixth in Miami history with 252 hits. He also finished tied for ninth with 50 career doubles and tied for seventh with 39 career home runs. Maybe the most impressive statistic of Guerra's career was his 427 career total bases, which ranks third in Hurricane history, and 234 RBI, which ranks second.

#26 NEAL HEATON

Neal "The Heater" Heaton holds many of UM's pitching records, including victories in a season with 18 and strikeouts in a game with 23. He is second in career wins with 42, third in strikeouts in a season with 172 and third in career strikeouts 381.

In three years, 1979-81, Heaton was twice named an All-American and in 1981 was selected by the Cleveland Indians and made the parent club after just one year in the minors. Heaton was the first Hurricane to play in a big league all-star game.

#29 STAN JAKUBOWSKI

In 1974, as a 19-year-old sophomore, the right hander posted a 16-3 record and dazzling 1.46 ERA while being named to the AABC All-America and All-College World Series teams. At the CWS, Jakubowski hurled a nine-hit complete game over Harvard in the Hurricanes' first CWS game ever. Miami finished runner-up to USC in their first College World Series.

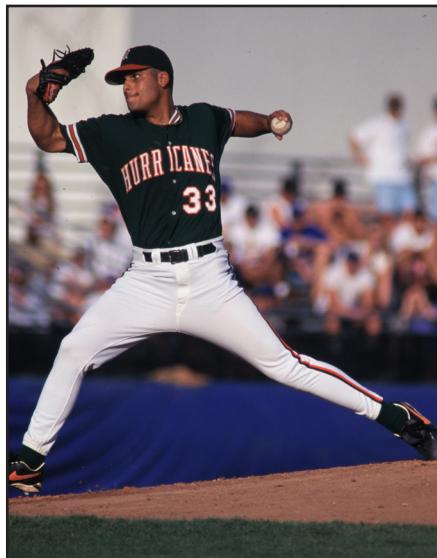

Jakubowski finished his Miami career with a 40-14 record, 27 complete games, 432 innings pitched and 1.81 ERA. His 27 complete games is still a Miami school record. He was also a member of the 1974 United States team which won the World Amateur Championship under Ron Fraser.

#33 J.D. ARTEAGA

J.D. Arteaga is regarded as one of the most accomplished pitchers to ever take the mound for the Hurricanes at Mark Light Field. Over a four-year career, Arteaga set Miami program records for career starts (72) and victories (43), while ranking second all-time in innings pitched (458.1) and fifth in career strikeouts (343).

A proven performer on the sport's biggest stage, Arteaga still ranks second in NCAA history with seven career College World Series starts, helping lead the Hurricanes to four trips to Omaha. He was selected by the New York Mets in the 28th round of the 1997 MLB Draft.

Arteaga retired from professional baseball in March 2003 to return to his alma mater as pitching coach, a role he held for 21 seasons before being named head coach prior to the 2024 season.
