Tied 4th in the ACC, new program record | Most ACC regular season wins in program history

Coach Mac helped lead the Eagles to a second postseason berth last season with an appearance in the WBIT.

Last season, Dontavia Waggoner, T'Yana Todd and Andrea Daley reached the 1,000-point mark while Waggoner became the only player in school history with at least 1,250 points, 600 rebounds and 250 steals, finishing 15th in scoring (1,285), 14th with 639 rebounds and second with 271 steals. Todd finished fourth in the country shooting 45.9 percent from deep.

Kaylah Ivey cemented her place as one of the top all-time point guards in school history, where she ended eighth all-time in program history with 455 assists and 20th with 100 3-pointers. She set the single-game school record with 16 assists against Miami - the most in an ACC game since 2002. Ivey was third in the nation in assist/turnover ratio at 3.27.

Game Notes

Established by a gift from BC Trustee Sandra and Paul Edgerley, P'23

CHESTNUT HILL, Mass.—Thanks to a generous gift from longtime Boston College supporters University Trustee Sandra and Paul Edgerley, P'23, and their family, the basketball court at Silvio O. Conte Forum will officially be named the Edgerley Family Court.

“We are incredibly grateful to Paul and Sandy Edgerley for their generosity and support of Boston College,” said William V. Campbell Director of Athletics Director Blake James. “Naming the basketball court in their honor is more than just recognizing a gift—it is about celebrating a family that believes in our mission, our student-athletes, and the future of BC basketball. Their impact will be felt here for years to come.”

A significant statement of Athletics support, the newly named Edgerley Family Court is the home of the Boston College men's and women's basketball teams from November through March. The gift also counts towards Soaring Higher: The Campaign for Boston College, which aims to raise more than $400 million for Athletics.

“We are most thankful for the generous support from the Edgerley family,” said the Clement and Elizabeth Izzi Family Head Men's Basketball Coach Earl Grant. “They have made a huge impact on the BC basketball programs and our entire athletics department. The Edgerleys provided a tremendous boost as we continue to strive to reach greater heights.”

“It is incredibly meaningful to have our home court named the Edgerley Family Court,” said Joanna Bernabei-McNamee, head coach of Boston College women's basketball. “Their generous gift sends a powerful message, and we're truly grateful for everything the Edgerley family has done to help move our program forward.”

The Edgerleys are active members of the Parents Leadership Council and are supporters of undergraduate financial aid at Boston College, having co-chaired Pops on the Heights in 2023 and 2024.

Sandra Edgerley serves on the Boston College Board of Trustees, where she is a member of the Academic Affairs Committee. She is also the founder and president of Hexagon Properties and The 'Quin House, and a respected Boston-area philanthropist and civic leader, having been named one of the Top 20 Most Influential Bostonians by Boston magazine.

Paul Edgerley is a senior advisor at Bain Capital, where he was a managing director and played a leadership role for more than 30 years, as well as the co-founder and managing director of VantEdge Partners. Paul also serves on the Board of Directors of the Boston Celtics, the Kansas City Royals, and the professional Italian soccer club Atalanta.

Paul and Sandra are the parents of four children: Brian, Matthew, Hayley, and Michael '23.

“Our family is deeply honored to support the men's and women's basketball programs through the Edgerley Family Court,” said Sandra and Paul Edgerley. “We are thrilled to help grow BC Athletics to new heights and support the student-athletes who represent BC on the court and in the community. The school spirit and camaraderie of the students, alumni, and fans who support the athletes by attending games is second to none and part of what makes the BC community so special.”
