STORYLINES

- Georgia Southern makes its fourth national postseason appearance in the NCAA era on Thursday at Miami
- The Eagles earned an automatic berth into the tournament by capturing the Sun Belt regular season title. It was the seventh regular season conference championship for GS women's basketball and the first since 2000-01, when the Eagles were a member of the SoCon
- Georgia Southern's 23 wins this season sets a new single-season win record in the NCAA era (post-1985)
- Senior forward Kishyah Anderson was named the 2025-26 Sun Belt Player of the Year. She is one of only three Eagles to earn a league POTY award. Phyllette Blake and Regina Days each earned 2x POTY honors in the NSWAC (New South Women's Athletic Conference) in the 1980s
- Head coach Hana Haden earned Sun Belt Coach of the Year honors for leading the Eagles to the regular season title after being picked to finish 10th in a preseason poll of the league's coaches. She is the third coach to earn conference COTY honors, joining Jeannie Milling (1986-87, NSWAC) and Rusty Cram (1997-98 & 2000-01, SoCon)
- Anderson earned first team All-Conference honors and was joined on the All-Conference squad by point guard Destiny Garrett (second team) and guard/forward McKenna Eddings (third team)
- Georgia Southern meets Miami for the third time overall and first time since a home-and-home meeting during the 1990-91 season. The Hurricanes won those two meetings
- The two teams were scheduled to play on January 4, 1981, in the Miami Basketball Jamboree in Florida, but Miami cancelled the contest. Georgia Southern played Miami-Dade instead and won, 72-48

HEAD COACH HANA HADEN

Head coach Hana Haden is in her second season at the helm of Georgia Southern women's basketball in 2025-26.

The Eagles compiled an overall 16-18 record, including a 6-12 mark in the Sun Belt Conference, but Georgia Southern ended the season winning 7 of its last 11 games. This included a pair of wins in the 2025 Sun Belt Conference Championships as the Eagles defeated Southern Miss, 70-59, in the first round and ULM, 75-69, in the second round. It was the first time that Georgia Southern had won multiple games in the Sun Belt Tourney and the first time winning multiple games in a conference tourney since 2005.

She achieved her 200th head collegiate coaching victory with the first-round SBC Tournament win over Southern Miss and, in her head coaching career, now sports a 201-83 (.708) overall record in nine seasons.

Haden came to Statesboro after a historic 2023-24 season in Americus, Georgia, where she led Georgia Southwestern State to a 29-4 overall record and a 16-2 mark in the Peach Belt Conference, earning 2023-24 WBCA Division II National Coach of the Year honors. The 'Canes won the Peach Belt tournament title and the NCAA Southeast Region crown, earning the program's first NCAA Division II Elite Eight berth.

Prior to GSU, Haden served as head coach at Moberly Area Community College for five seasons. With the Lady Greyhounds, Haden compiled a 118-36 (.766) record and made five NJCAA Region 16 tournament appearances. Haden was named to the WBCA's 30 Under 30 Coaches four times and twenty-five of her players at MACC went on to compete at the four-year level. She became a head coach at the age of 23 at Harris-Stowe State University, an NAIA school in St. Louis. Haden led the Hornets to back-to-back 19-win seasons, the first consecutive winning seasons in 29 years for the school.

Haden played collegiately at UMSL for one season and Mineral Area College for one season before transferring to Western Carolina, where she started 47 of 60 games over two seasons for the Catamounts. She graduated from WCU with her bachelor's degree in communications in 2014.
