NU STARTS THREE-GAME HOME STRETCH VS. COUGARS

The Nebraska basketball team begins a three-game homestand this week when it takes on Chicago State at the Bob Devaney Sports Center on Thursday, Dec. 10. The contest will mark the front end of the team's quickest turnaround to date, as the Huskers play Thursday vs. the Cougars and then face the Oregon State Beavers at home on Saturday evening.

Thursday's contest against CSU will tip off at 7:07 p.m. and can be seen around the state on FS Midwest (channel 37 in Lincoln; channel 47 in Omaha). It will also be seen around the country on ESPN FullCourt and can be viewed online on ESPN360.com. Greg Sharpe will handle play-by-play duties for the telecast while Husker great Eric Piatkowski provides color commentary.

The game will also be heard on the IMG Husker Sports Radio Network with veteran play-by-play man Kent Pavelka calling the action and former Husker Andy Markowski adding color commentary. The free broadcast will also be heard around the world on the Internet at Huskers.com.

When the Huskers return to the court Thursday, they will be looking to rebound from a hard-fought road loss at Creighton. The Huskers shot the ball extremely well on the road, hitting 50.0 percent from the field but turnovers plagued Nebraska all day. NU had a season-high 20 miscues after coming into the contest with just 14 in its previous two games combined.

In addition to cleaning up the mental mistakes handling the ball, another area Nebraska has focused on improving this week was rebounding. Nebraska was outrebounded 31-25 on Sunday. While it was only the second time this season the Huskers held a deficit on the glass (both games on the road as the other came at USC), Nebraska has seen its rebounding average dip to 32.1 after starting out the season with three straight games of at least 35 rebounds.

The Husker guards have been a bright spot in the rebound battle. Senior Sek Henry currently leads the team with a career-high 4.7 rebounds per game. He has had at least four rebounds in each of the past five games, including twice posting at least seven boards in a game. Sophomore Brandon Richardson also has gotten into the act, recording a career-best five rebounds in each his last two road contests, while junior Lance Jeter added a career-best five on Sunday.

BY THE NUMBERS

Nebraska has been strong from the field, hitting at least 50.0 percent against four opponents, including each of the past two games. Last year, Nebraska hit 50.0 percent against non-conference opponents just five times in 13 regular-season games.

Freshman Ray Gallegos had an injury in the final week of the preseason and did not play in the first two games of the year. But since he joined the regular rotation off the bench, he's been impressive, hitting 61.1 percent (11-of-18) from the field, including 6-of-10 from 3-point range. He's scored double figures each of the past two games, netting 13 against Texas-Pan American and 10 at Creighton last weekend.

HUSKER QUICK SHOTS

*-- Senior guard Sek Henry has been strong with the ball this season as he is second on the team with 23 assists while turning the ball over just nine times. Lance Jeter leads the way with 26 assists (16 turnovers).

*-- Henry missed the school's first-ever triple-double by three rebounds when he had 11 points, 11 assists and seven rebounds against TCU. His 11 assists are tied for the most in a single game by a Big 12 player this year.

*-- Senior Ryan Anderson posted a career-high six steals against USC Upstate in the season opener. It was the most steals by a Husker since Cookie Belcher had eight in a game in 2001.

*-- Anderson added four steals in consecutive games at Southern California and vs. Texas-Pan American, moving him into the NU top 10 with 130 steals in his career.

*-- Anderson leads the team with at least five rebounds in three contests. Henry has had at least three rebounds in each of the past five games, while sophomore Brandon Richardson has had a career-best five rebounds in each of his past two road games.

*-- Redshirt freshman Eshaunte Jones saw his streak of hitting at least one 3-pointer in each game this season snapped when he did not attempt a 3-pointer at Creighton.

*-- Among Jones' 3-pointers in the first six games was the game-winner with 11.7 seconds remaining at USC.

*-- Jones does not have enough made shots to qualify now, but if he did, he would lead the Big 12 in 3-point field-goal percentage as he has hit 60.0 percent (9-of-15) from long range.

*-- Junior point guard Lance Jeter leads the team in assists with 26, an average of 3.71 per game that ranks eighth in the Big 12 Conference. He's had 16 assists and nine turnovers the past four games combined.

*-- Redshirt freshman Jorge Brian Diaz had 22 points off the bench against TCU, becoming the 21st Husker freshman ever to record a 20-point contest. Nebraska has three current players on that list, as seniors Ryan Anderson and Sek Henry each had a 20-point game as freshman as well.

*-- Diaz hit 9-of-10 shots from the floor against TCU, the second-best single-game shooting percentage in the Big 12 this season (Dexter Pittman, Texas, was 10-of-11).

*-- Diaz is averaging 9.1 ppg this season with three double-figure scoring contests. The last Husker freshman to average double figures was Ryan Anderson with 10.1 ppg in 2006-07. Only six freshmen in school history have averaged double figures.

*-- Nebraska's 41 free throw attempts against TCU were the most by the Huskers since 2005 when Nebraska made 45 attempts against Texas A&M.

*-- Nebraska attempted just seven 3-pointers against a difficult Saint Louis 3-point defense that was third nationally last year. The last time NU attempted fewer treys in a game was Nov. 29, 2003, as NU hoisted just six from beyond the arc against Eastern Michigan.

SCOUTING THE CHICAGO STATE COUGARS

The Chicago State Cougars come to Lincoln this week with a 3-3 record after falling at Central Michigan, 78-40, on Dec. 1. CSU has a nine-day layoff to get ready for Nebraska but will then make a tight turnaround as they play at Hawaii on Saturday, Dec. 12.

In their last outing, the Cougars hit just 34.1 percent (14-of-41) from the floor on the game while watching CMU open a 20-point halftime lead before leading by as much as 42 points in the final four minutes. CSU was outrebounded 35-23 and turned the ball over 25 times, as six players had at least three miscues apiece.

Center Marquis Young was the only Cougar in double figures vs. Central Michigan, finishing with 12 points on 6-of-9 shooting. The rest of the team was 8-of-32 (25.0 percent) from the field. Young added a team-high six rebounds in 17 minutes.

On the season, the 6-9 Young is third on the team in scoring with 10.3 points per game while starting all six contests. He is second on the squad in rebounding with 5.7 boards per game, trailing only forward Carl Montgomery's 9.5 rebounds per contest. Montgomery was held to two points on 1-of-2 shooting with three rebounds in 19 minutes against Central Michigan, but is averaging a team-best 14.3 points per game on the season. Guard Christian Wall is the Cougars' other double-figure scorer, punching in 13.2 points per game while tying for the team lead with six 3-pointers. He also leads the squad with 18 assists over five contests.

The Cougars are hitting only 41.8 percent from the field and just 30.3 percent from 3-point range. CSU has held a 39.7 to 31.0 advantage on the glass this season with a frontcourt of three regulars that each stand at least 6-8.

Chicago State is coached by Benjy Taylor, who is in his third season with the Cougars and owns a 33-33 record. It is his first head coaching position. Among Taylor's assistant coaches is James Farr, who has ties to the state as a 1989 graduate of Creighton. He played two years for the Bluejays and was a student coach under Tony Barone to begin his coaching career.

SERIES HISTORY VS. CHICAGO STATE

Nebraska and Chicago State have a slim history, having met on the hardwood just twice before. The Cornhuskers lead the series by a 2-0 margin, winning by 35 points in the first meeting in 1990 and then by just nine points in 2005. Both contests were in Lincoln.

Chicago State is part of the newly formed Great West Conference, that is transforming into a Division I all-sports conference. The league is made up of the Division I Independent schools. Nebraska owns a 12-0 record against teams in the league, including an 81-53 victory over Texas-Pan American last week at the Devaney Center.

HUSKERS FINDING THE MARK

Nebraska coach Doc Sadler has said from Day One that he thought this team "could shoot the ball well," and through the first seven games, they've proven their mentor right.

The Huskers are hitting a solid 48.7 percent from the field early in the season, knocking down 175-of-359 shots from the floor. Nebraska has hit at least 50.0 percent from the field four times this season, including each of the past two games. In 2008-09, NU hit at least 50.0 percent of its shots in just 5-of-13 games during non-conference play.

Last weekend, the Huskers hit 50.0 percent (24-of-48) from the floor on the road. It was their first game away from Lincoln that they hit at least half their shots since winning at Texas Tech last season.

Part of that effectiveness has come as the Huskers have been outstanding from beyond the arc, nailing 43-of-96 from 3-point range (44.8 percent). Nebraska tied a Devaney Center record and set a team building record by hitting 75.0 percent (9-of-12) from 3-point range against Texas-Pan American on Dec. 2. The Huskers hit seven straight at one point and bettered the previous team mark of 66.7 percent set three times.

The Cornhuskers are led in the field by freshman Ray Gallegos, who is hitting 61.1 percent (11-of-18) in his five games played. He is 6-of-10 from 3-point range as well. Also knocking down shots consistently in the back court is junior Lance Jeter, who has hit 56.4 percent (22-of-39) from the field including a team-best 63.6 percent (7-of-11) from 3-point range.

TAKING CARE OF THE BALL

Nebraska has been solid with the ball during coach Doc Sadler's tenure in Lincoln. Last season, the Huskers ranked 18th nationally in turnovers per game, giving up the ball just 11.5 times per game (357 in 31 games). Nebraska has started the 2009-10 season in much the same way, as it is fourth in the Big 12 Conference with 12.7 turnovers per game (89 in seven games) despite turning it over a season-high 20 times against Creighton.

The Huskers have had more than 14 turnovers only twice this season. In fact, they put together back-to-back impressive games handling the ball when they turned it over just 14 combined times against UMKC and at USC, including seven turnovers in each contest. The last time Nebraska had back-to-back games with a combined 14 turnovers was during the 2001-02 season when NU had a school-record three miscues at Iowa State and seven turnovers at Texas A&M.

Senior guard Sek Henry entered the week ranked sixth in the Big 12 in assist-to-turnover ratio at 2.6-to-1 and currently has 23 assists against just nine turnovers this season. Point guard Lance Jeter is 13th in the league with a 1.6-to-1 ratio.

TAKING THE SHOT

With so many new faces on the squad, it was only a matter of time before one of the youngsters was asked to step up and make a game-changing play. At USC on Nov. 29, it was more than just a game-changing play... it was a game-deciding shot.

Redshirt freshman Eshaunte Jones, playing in his ninth career game, had made just two field goals in the first half and had only been off the bench for a total of five minutes in the second period before being called upon with less than a minute to play in a tie game. Jones didn't hesitate as he buried the game-winning shot from the corner, a 3-pointer with 11.7 seconds remaining. The shot was reviewed at length by the officials who determined it was indeed a 3-pointer. From there, the Huskers defended the perimeter well and USC only managed to get off an off-balance desperation shot at the buzzer.

Jones finished with seven points, and his 3-pointer gave the Huskers their first road win of the season, and just the second true road win over a non-conference opponent under fourth-year coach Doc Sadler. It was NU's first road victory over a non-conference BCS team since defeating Tennessee, 62-61, in Knoxville in 2004.

SENIOR MOMENTS

Coach Doc Sadler has said that he's trying to find ways to get his team to be more aggressive since the start of practice in September, letting them know that he wants them going after other teams and not sitting back and waiting for opponents to come at them. Senior guards Sek Henry and Ryan Anderson have each had a turn taking the coach's words to heart this season while leading their team to victory.

Henry's strong play was highlighted against TCU as he distributed the ball efficiently, posting a career-best 11 assists, becoming the first Husker since Charles Richardson Jr. (15 at Rutgers in 2006) to post more than 10 assists in a game. Overall, Henry's assist total ranks second on the Nebraska single-game chart for the Big 12 era, and ties for the ninth-best total by a Husker in any game since the 1983-84 season.

Along with his 11 assists, Henry posted 11 points, seven rebounds, three steals and two blocked shots in 30 minutes of action. He missed the school's first regular-season triple-double by three rebounds. The only known triple-double by a Husker came when Brennon Clemmons had 12 points, 11 rebounds and 10 assists in an exhibition game in 2002 vs. Northwest Sports Tours. In the 15 years before that, the closest a Husker came to a triple-double in a game that counted was Beau Reid's 14-point, 12-rebound, 8-assist performance against Toledo in 1990.

Henry came back the next contest against UMKC to produce a game-high 14 points on 4-of-6 shooting, including drilling both of his 3-point attempts. The treys came less than 30 seconds apart and started a game-changing 21-5 run to end the first half. Henry added five rebounds, four assists and two blocks against the Kanagroos.

Anderson had his moment against Texas-Pan American on Dec. 2, as he helped bust the game open in the middle of the second half. After UTPA pulled within five, 45-40, Anderson guided Nebraska on a 22-2 run to put the game out of reach, scoring 11 points while adding three steals, two rebounds and an assist in less than four minutes. He finished the game with 21 points, the second-highest scoring effort of his career, on 8-of-9 shooting as Nebraska pulled away for an 81-53 win.

Last year's Jack Moore Award winner as team MVP, Paul Velander recorded 26 of the team's 53 charges taken in 2008-09, a total that easily would have led the nation if it was officially tracked by the NCAA. In tribute to his hard work and effort, the Nebraska coaching staff will track charges and floor burns this season and post the results for every game on the Paul Velander Board in the Husker locker room.

UPON FURTHER REVIEW

In a change to what was published in the 2009-10 Nebraska media and recruiting guide, please note that redshirt-freshman Jorge Brian Diaz would like to be referred to by his full name instead of just Brian Diaz. Also, the pronunciation for freshman Ray Gallegos's last name should be Guy-eh-goes. The previous pronunciation listed in the media guide is incorrect. We appreciate the media's assistance in these matters.

OPENING UP

Nebraska opened the 2009-10 season at home against South Carolina Upstate with its ninth straight win in a season opener. A couple other notes about Husker season openers:

- The Nov. 14 opener was the second-earliest season-opening date in school history, only behind the Nov. 10 season opener in 2007. Nebraska has also opened a season on Nov. 14 twice before, in the 2006 and 1998 seasons.
- Nebraska has won nine straight season openers since an 87-83 setback at Oral Roberts in 2000. Overall, Nebraska is 12-2 in season openers during the Big 12 era, and 75-39 all-time.
- The last time Nebraska lost a season opener at home was 1980 when NU fell to Wyoming, 62-59, in overtime. The Huskers have won 20 straight season openers at home since that loss.

ANDERSON AIMS FOR TOP THREE

Senior guard Ryan Anderson is already assured of a spot in the Nebraska record books as he entered the season among the most accurate and most prolific long-distance threats in school history.

In his final season, Anderson owns 138 career 3-pointers to rank eighth in school history and needs just eight to move up two more spots on the career chart. With 50 treys – a total he reached in his sophomore season – Anderson would move into third place all-time.

Anderson is not only among the top 10 in made treys, but he is among the most accurate as he ranks ninth all-time by hitting 37.9 percent (138-of-364) over the past three-plus years.

OFF TO THE RACES

While the season is still young and the Huskers have yet to enter the meat-grinder portion of the schedule known as the Big 12 Conference slate, Nebraska has shown the potential to be an efficient force on the offensive end with its revamped roster.

The best example came as the Huskers posted 90 points against TCU, making it the highest-scoring game for the Huskers in the Doc Sadler era at Nebraska. In fact, the last time NU topped the 90-point plateau was 2006 when the Huskers earned a 93-77 victory over Colorado.

The Husker offense was running in high gear against the Horned Frogs as Nebraska hit 54.0 percent (27-of-50) from the field. They made it two straight games knocking down at least 50 percent from the floor when they hit 53.1 percent against UMKC four days later.

In their most recent home game, the Huskers scored 81 points against Texas-Pan American while hitting 53.7 percent from the field, including tying the Devaney Center record by hitting 75.0 percent (9-of-12) from 3-point range. During the victory, the Huskers improved to 15-0 under Sadler when reaching 80 points. NU also hit 50.0 percent at Creighton, but fell to 29-3 – including 27-0 at home – under Sadler when connecting on 50.0 percent of its shots from the floor.

Nebraska has scored at least 70 points in each of its four home games this season. Last year it took eight games at the Devaney Center before the Huskers recorded their fourth 70-point effort.

LINE TIME

Part of Nebraska's ability to put away TCU on Nov. 21 came with solid effort knocking down free throws. The Huskers hit 73.2 percent from the line on the day, including draining 13-of-15 in the final 3:24 of the game.

Overall, Nebraska got to the line 41 times against the Horned Frogs, making 30. It was the most free throw attempts by a Husker squad since 2005 when Nebraska hit 32-of-45 (71.1 percent) against Texas A&M. Sophomore Brandon Richardson led the charge this time, hitting 9-of-10, while Ryan Anderson (6-of-7) and Sek Henry (4-of-5) each only missed one with at least five attempts.

Henry's miss snapped a personal streak of 18 straight made free throws dating back to last season, over a total of eight games. He hit a NU postseason record seven free throws without a miss at New Mexico last year and added a 6-of-6 effort at Saint Louis.

Henry's 18 straight made free throws ties for the third-longest Husker streak without a miss in the Big 12 era. On the season he has hit 73.7 percent (14-of-19) from the stripe, after coming into the season a career 64.0 percent shooter at the line. He is 5-of-9 at the stripe since seeing his career-high streak come to an end.

Nebraska's shooting at the line has not been consistent as the Huskers hit just 3-of-11 attempts (27.2 percent) at USC, their lowest free throw percentage for a game since hitting just 20 percent (1-of-5) at Missouri to open the 2002 Big 12 slate. The Huskers returned one game later to hit 73.7 percent (14-of-19) at the charity stripe against Texas-Pan American, a season-high percentage.

BOARD SUPPORT

So far this season, one area that has jumped out on the box score at times, especially in comparison to last year, is the rebound column. During exhibition play, Nebraska held a 45.5-28.5 advantage on the glass against Arkansas-Fort Smith and Hastings College, and once games finally started to count, NU has continued the solid play on the boards.

Nebraska has won the rebounding advantage four times this season, all at home. The Huskers are 4-0 in those contests. In the three road games, Nebraska was outrebounded at USC and Creighton and tied with Saint Louis.

NU started the season on a strong note as it held a 39-27 rebounding advantage in the season opener against South Carolina Upstate. The total against USCU was the best for the Huskers since last season's opener when NU had 42 rebounds vs. San Jose State and the +12 advantage was also better than all but one game last year (+14 vs. Florida A&M).

*Big 12 era since 1996-97 (min. 18 made)

Nebraska came back to post 35 boards against both Saint Louis and TCU, giving the Huskers three straight games of at least 35 rebounds for the first time since the final three games of non-conference play in the 2007-08 campaign. Last year, the Huskers did not have consecutive games with at least 35 rebounds and had only six games all year with 35 or more boards.

In the regular-season opener, Jorge Brian Diaz, who had a double-double in the exhibition season, had 11 rebounds to go with nine points in his first career game. His total was the most since 2007-08 as NU did not have a player with a double-double last season. Ryan Anderson had the team's high for single-game rebounds last year with 10 boards against Missouri on Jan. 10, when he had just eight points.

Diaz, who left in the first minute of the game at Saint Louis after he was hit in the mouth while going for a rebound (two severely loosened teeth and a cut inside his mouth), is not the only one making a mark on the boards. Senior Sek Henry has averaged 5.5 rebounds per game over the past five contests, including a season-high eight against Texas-Pan American, one off his career best.

On the year, the Huskers have outrebounded their opponents by a 32.1-30.1 margin. NU has had six players lead the team in rebounding in individual games, including a different person in each of the first three contests.

VERSATILE ANDERSON IN ELITE COMPANY

Ryan Anderson joined an elite club last year as he became just the seventh Husker to record at least 100 3-pointers, 100 assists and 100 steals in a career. Among that short list are Eric Piatkowski, Tyronn Lue, Erick Strickland, Cookie Belcher, Cary Cochran and Jaron Boone, along with Anderson.

He showed exactly that versatility when he had an uncommon stat line that included five points, five rebounds, five assists and six steals in 27 minutes of action in the season opener against USC Upstate. The six steals were a career high for Anderson and were the most by a Husker since 2001 (Cookie Belcher had season high of eight that year).

For his career, Anderson now has 138 3-pointers, 131 steals and 175 assists and needs 12 treys and 19 steals to join Strickland as the only two Huskers ever with at least 150 in each of the three categories.

FRESHMAN HIGHLIGHT

A game after playing just four minutes at Saint Louis because of an injury that included a pair of loosened front teeth and a cut inside his mouth, redshirt freshman Jorge Brian Diaz made his presence felt early and often as the Huskers raced past TCU on Nov. 21 in a 90-77 victory.

The newcomer from Caguas, Puerto Rico, set a team season high with 22 points as Nebraska reached the 90-point plateau for the first time since 2006. He was the first Husker this season to hit the 20-point mark.

Diaz became the first freshman since Sek Henry in 2006 to post a 20-point contest for the Huskers. Henry's outburst came one day after Ryan Anderson put his name on the list with 29 points, the second-highest total by a Husker freshman ever.

Overall, Diaz is the 21st freshman to record a 20-point game for the Huskers since freshmen were reinstated by the NCAA for the 1972-73 season. Joe McCray set the record with the most 20-point games by a Husker freshman when he had 10 contests with at least 20 points in 2004-05. Only six Husker freshmen in history have had multiple 20-point contests.

Against TCU, Diaz connected on 9-of-10 shots from the floor, with only a first-half miss keeping him from the NU record book. The Husker single-game record for most field-goals attempted without a miss is nine set on five occasions, including last year by Ade Dagunduro. Diaz's .900 shooting percentage is the second highest in the Big 12 this season, trailing only Texas's Dexter Pittman, who hit 10-of-11 in a contest.

RECAPPING NU VS. CREIGHTON

The Nebraska basketball team shot 50.0 percent from the field, but a season-high 20 turnovers doomed the Big Red on the road, as the Creighton Bluejays earned a 67-61 victory over the Huskers at the Qwest Center on Sunday. With the loss, NU fell to 5-2 on the year, including 1-2 on the road, while the Jays improved to 3-4, snapping a three-game losing skid.

The Huskers couldn't find an answer all evening for Creighton's 6-9 junior center Kenny Lawson Jr. Lawson scored a career-high 25 points and grabbed 10 rebounds for his first career double-double, and the Jays used full-court pressure to rattle the Huskers throughout the game. Both teams were sloppy in the first half, committing 12 turnovers apiece and combining for 20 fouls, but Creighton cleaned up its play in the second half, committing just three turnovers, while NU surrendered the basketball eight times.

Lance Jeter led NU with 12 points, and Sek Henry and Ray Gallegos each added 10 in the loss.

The Huskers applied the defensive pressure early in the game, forcing the Bluejays into four turnovers in the game's opening minutes to take a 9-6 lead. Creighton's full-court pressure began to affect the Huskers though, and the Jays stole the momentum with a 13-0 run over a 4:34 stretch to take a 19-9 lead with 9:46 left in the first half.

Creighton led 32-27 at the intermission and kept pushing ahead only to see the Huskers storm back. There were seven lead changes and three ties in the contest before Creighton put the game away at the free throw line, where it finished 26-of-32 on the day.

Postgame notes

*- Nebraska's bench outscored the Bluejays bench 26-21, as the four Huskers who came off the bench hit 11-of-13 shots from the field. The Huskers' starting five hit 13-of-35 from the floor for 35 points.

*- Nebraska had a season-high 20 turnovers, including 12 in the first half. The total was one more than its previous high of 19 in the season opener against USC Upstate.

*- The Huskers had seven steals, with only one after halftime. Sek Henry tied his season high with three steals.

*- Nebraska shot 50 percent (24-of-48) from the field. The last time the Huskers hit 50 percent or better from the floor away from Lincoln was last season at Texas Tech when Nebraska hit 55.1 percent in the road victory.

*- Nebraska was outrebounded for just the second time this season and the second straight road game. The Bluejays won the battle on the boards 31-25.

*- The Huskers allowed Creighton to hit just 1-of-10 shots from 3-point range. CU came into the game averaging 25 3-point attempts per game.

*- With one steal in the first half, Ryan Anderson moved into a tie for eighth place in the Nebraska career record book as he now has 131 in his career.

FRESH FACES

Nebraska had an inexperienced roster entering 2009-10, as the Huskers returned only four scholarship players from last season's 18-win campaign. Among the veterans on the squad are seniors Ryan Anderson and Sek Henry, along with sophomore Brandon Richardson. Sophomore Toney McCray also returned, but played just three games before sitting out the rest of the season with an injury.

When NU hit the court for its season opener, it had two freshmen – forward Brandon Ubel (true frosh) and center Jorge Brian Diaz (redshirt frosh) – in the starting lineup, marking the second time in coach Doc Sadler's tenure that NU had two freshman start a season opener. The last time that happened was Sadler's first year at Nebraska when Anderson and Henry opened in the starting lineup.

That season, Anderson and Henry started 14 games together including the first nine. The duo was joined by former Husker Jay-R Strowbridge to make it three freshmen in the same starting lineup on Dec. 23, 2006, in a 70-56 win over Houston in the Rainbow Classic.

Against UMKC on Nov. 24 this season, another freshman made an appearance in the starting lineup as redshirt freshman Eshaunte Jones earned his first career start. Together, they became just the second threesome of freshmen to start games in the same season for the Huskers during the Big 12 era, including:

Ubel and Diaz were the seventh and eighth freshmen to start a season opener for Nebraska in the Big 12 era. However, they were only the second and third freshmen who stood over 6-4 to start for the Huskers in a season opener during that span, joining 6-11 Brian Conklin, who started six games as a redshirt freshman in 2000-01, including the opener at Oral Roberts. The full list of Nebraska's frosh starters in a season opener since 1996-97 includes:

- Jorge Brian Diaz, 6-11, C, 2009-10
- Brandon Ubel, 6-10, F, 2009-10
- Cookie Miller, 5-7, PG, 2007-08
- Sek Henry, 6-3, G, 2006-07
- Ryan Anderson, 6-4, G, 2006-07
- Marcus Walker, 6-2, PG, 2005-06
- Jake Muhleisen, 6-4, PG, 2001-02
- Brian Conklin, 6-11, F, 2000-01
- Cookie Belcher, 6-3, G, 1996-97

Overall, Nebraska has now had 21 freshmen start games during the Big 12 era. That list includes:

Brandon Ubel, 2009-10 (7 starts); Jorge Brian Diaz, 2009-10 (4); Eshaunte Jones, 2009-10 (1); Toney McCray, 2008-09 (3); Alonzo Edwards, 2008-09 (1); Cookie Miller, 2007-08 (24); Ryan Anderson, 2006-07 (25); Sek Henry, 2006-07 (18); Jay-R Strowbridge, 2006-07 (13); Jamel White, 2005-06 (13); Marcus Walker, 2005-06 (12); Joe McCray, 2004-05 (24); Aleks Maric, 2004-05 (10); Charles Richardson Jr., 2003-04 (10); Jason Dourisseau, 2002-03 (3); Wes Wilkinson, 2002-03 (2); Jake Muhleisen, 2001-02 (27); John Turek, 2001-02 (15); Brian Conklin, 2000-01 (6); Chad Johnson, 1997-98 (10); Cookie Belcher, 1996-97 (33).

REACHING HIGHER

According to statistics provided by kenpom.com, Nebraska was the shortest team in Division I basketball (344 teams) last season. The Huskers' active roster in 2008-09 had just two scholarship players who stood at least 6-7, while the average height of the 20 players on the full roster was just over 6-4.

This season, Nebraska has a taller lineup across the board as the average height for all 18 players on the roster is 6-5 1/2. NU has four active players available in the non-conference slate who stand at least 6-8, with another – Christian Standhardinger – who will be eligible at the start of the Big 12 season.

STANDHARDINGER SITTING DOWN

Although it was expected all along, Nebraska is in the unenviable position to have to replace the scoring punch provided during the exhibition season by freshman forward Christian Standhardinger.

After leading the Cornhuskers with 17.5 points per game in the exhibition season, Standhardinger must sit out 50 percent of the Huskers' games this season – a total of 15 games, equalling all of the non-conference schedule – because of a ruling by the NCAA regarding his amateur status when he played with a club team in his native Germany. He will be allowed to practice with the Huskers during the non-conference slate but will not be able to travel with the team until he is eligible for competition on Jan. 9 at Texas A&M.

Standhardinger came from the same school and club team that produced sophomore center Christopher Niemann, who was forced to sit out all of his first season with the Huskers.

NIEMANN, MCCRAY OUT FOR SEASON

After making what looked to be a successful return from a torn ACL suffered in the final week of the regular season last year, 6-10, 265-pound sophomore center Christopher Niemann had a major setback as he tore the same ACL for a second time in the first week of September. After surgery to repair the damage that occurred during a non-basketball conditioning workout, Niemann will be out for all of the 2009-10 campaign.

Niemann is currently making good progress through rehab again, and is on pace to join the team for offseason workouts in late spring. He will have three years remaining on his original eligibility clock to play three seasons with the Huskers.

Nebraska coach Doc Sadler announced following Nebraska's game against UMKC on Nov. 24 that sophomore guard Toney McCray will have surgery on his elbow and will also be out for the remainder of the season. McCray injured the elbow in a pickup game in early September, sustaining a torn ligament.

McCray tried to play through the pain as doctors assured him that it would get no worse if he waited until after the season to have surgery. But Sadler said that McCray indicated he had little confidence in his elbow and wasn't able to help the team the way he wanted to and thought it would be better to have surgery now and be ready for the offseason in the spring of 2010.

McCray had successful surgery on Dec. 7 to repair the UCL in his elbow. He started rehab later that week and is doing well, as he is on pace to rehab the injury and be able to join the team in the spring during offseason workouts.

Both Niemann and McCray were looked at as possible starters heading into the start of the season. McCray averaged 6.3 points and 4.0 rebounds over three games this year, hitting 53.3 percent (8-of-15) from the field. He played 18.3 minutes per game. Niemann has yet to play a game in a Husker uniform.

NEBRASKA RECEIVES RARE WAIVER

Nebraska petitioned the NCAA with a waiver that was granted in early September, allowing the Huskers to have 14 players on scholarship for the 2009-10 season. The rare allowance given to NU is only for this season and Nebraska will be required to return to 13 scholarships for the 2010-11 season.

While the Huskers were able to receive the waiver, the stipulation was that one player had to redshirt to get the active roster down to 13 scholarship players. Unfortunately with Christopher Niemann's preseason injury, he is out for the year and it was determined that he would count as the one who would sit out.

NEW FACES LINE HUSKER ROSTER

While the Huskers will rely on their returning scholarship players for leadership early in the season, most of the eyes will be focused on the faces of several newcomers who will dot the inexperienced Nebraska roster.

Among those scholarship newcomers who have already seen action for the first time in their Husker careers are juniors Lance Jeter and Quincy Hankins-Cole, sophomore Myles Holley, redshirt freshman Jorge Brian Diaz and freshmen Ray Gallegos, Brandon Ubel and Adrien Coleman. Freshman Christian Standhardinger (sitting out because of NCAA ruling) is still counting the games until he becomes available to play on Jan. 9.

Including walk-ons Matt Karn and Mike Fox, more than 50 percent (9 of 15; 60.0 percent) of the Huskers who have recorded time during the regular season are playing for the first time in a Nebraska uniform. Another Husker – Eshaunte Jones – played only four games last year before an injury forced him to redshirt.

2009-10 Scholarship Breakdown

Juniors: 2 (transfers Lance Jeter and Quincy Hankins-Cole)

YOUTH MOVEMENT

While Nebraska entered the season knowing it will have a number of young players in the lineup on any given night, it did not realize it would have two of the youngest players in their respective classes.

Freshman Brandon Ubel is the third-youngest player overall in the Big 12 Conference this season. Born on Aug. 29, 1991, only Jaye Crockett of Texas Tech (Oct. 16, 1991) and Tyler Stone of Missouri (Sept. 8, 1991) are younger than Ubel.

While Ubel is one of the youngest in the league, another Husker is the youngest for his class. Junior college transfer Quincy Hankins-Cole, who graduated high school when he was 16 and played the past two years at Polk (Fla.) CC, will not turn 20 years old until Feb. 18, 2010. The next youngest junior in the Big 12 is Kansas State's Jacob Pullen, who turned 20 on Nov. 10. In fact, Hankins-Cole is three months younger than redshirt-freshman Jorge Brian Diaz, who turned 20 on Friday, Nov. 13.

NU LOOKS FOR DEFENSIVE 3-PEAT

In 2009-10, Nebraska looks to continue its dominance on the defensive end under coach Doc Sadler. Each of the past two seasons, the Huskers have led the Big 12 Conference in scoring defense and ranked among the national leaders.

The Huskers started this year in solid fashion, allowing just 49 points on 19-of-49 shooting (38.8 percent) in the season opener against South Carolina Upstate. Over its next two games, Nebraska allowed 69 and 77 points, before getting back on track by holding three straight opponents under 55 points, including 48 (UMKC), 48 (USC) and 53 (Texas-Pan American) points. On the season Nebraska has now allowed opponents 58.7 points per game on 41.0-percent shooting.

Last year, Nebraska allowed just 60.4 points per game to rank 22nd nationally while a year earlier, it gave up 60.7 ppg to rank No. 18 in the nation. Nebraska also led the league in conference-only defense in 2009 by giving up just 62.5 ppg to league teams.

The Huskers' top-ranked defense last year marked the first time NU had led the league in scoring defense in the Big 12 era. Dating to the 2007-08 season, Nebraska has held seven of its last 10 Big 12 Conference opponents in the Devaney Center to 57 or fewer points, including three times under 50 points. NU held five teams to less than 57 points in Big 12 play last year, including Missouri (51), Kansas State (51), at Colorado (53), Texas (55) and vs. Colorado (41).

NU LOOKING FOR FIFTH POSTSEASON BERTH IN SEVEN YEARS

Despite their lack of experience entering the year, the 2009-10 Huskers will be shooting for the program's fifth postseason berth in seven years and third straight under coach Doc Sadler. Overall, Nebraska's NIT bid at the end of the 2008-09 campaign was the Huskers' 22nd all-time postseason appearance. NU has 16 appearances in the NIT, including the 1996 title, and six berths in the NCAA Tournament.

HUSKERS ON THE RADIO

The IMG Husker Sports Radio Network is in its 15th year producing and marketing live broadcasts of University of Nebraska football, men's and women's basketball, volleyball, baseball and softball games.

The Husker Sports Network has created a large network of state and national affiliates. All regular-season men's basketball games and any postseason contests will be broadcast on a 32-station basketball network in 2009-10. KFAB (1110 AM) is the Omaha affiliate, KLIN (1400 AM) is the Lincoln affiliate and while KRVN (880 AM) in Lexington also serves as a primary state affiliate. All games can be heard around the world for free on Huskers.com and a great number of Nebraska's games will also be heard live on SIRIUS Satellite again this season.

Veteran radio announcer Kent Pavelka leads the NU men's basketball broadcast in 2009-10, along with former Husker letterwinner Matt Davison. Former Husker Andy Markowski will also fill in as the color analyst for a number of contests. Lane Grindle serves as the host of Sports Nightly, a live daily call-in show. Grindle will also host the Doc Sadler Radio Show on Monday nights throughout the season beginning at 7 p.m.

HUSKERS HEADING TO PUERTO RICO IN 2010

Lincoln (Nov. 19) -- The Nebraska basketball team will get a tough early season test when it plays in the 2010 O'Reilly Auto Parts Puerto Rico Tip-Off tournament next November. The tourney will run Nov. 18-21, 2010, and the Huskers will play three games, with all the tourney contests slated to be carried by ESPN or ESPN360.com.

The 2010 tourney field was announced during the opening games of the 2009 Puerto Rico Tip-Off. Rounding out the talented eight-team field alongside Nebraska next year will be North Carolina, West Virginia, Minnesota, Vanderbilt, Davidson, Western Kentucky and Hofstra. This season, the Tar Heels, Mountaineers and Golden Gophers are all ranked in the national top 25.

"This is going to be a test. With a field like that, you're going to find out real quick what kind of team you have," coach Doc Sadler said. "These early season tournaments are fun for the fans, but it's tough for the team because you have three games in four days and have to make that quick turnaround. Hopefully it will be something good for us with so many young guys coming back."

Nebraska will be playing in its first regular-season tournament since 2006-07 when the Huskers went 2-1 at the Rainbow Classic in Honolulu, Hawaii. The last time the Huskers played in San Juan was the 2000 San Juan Shootout, when NU won three straight games by a total of four points. NU had one-point wins over Iona and Kent State and won by two points over Southern Methodist to take the title. Overall, it will be Nebraska's eighth regular-season tournament away from home during the Big 12 era.

The Huskers currently have 12 scholarship players who are juniors, sophomores or freshmen who will have eligibility remaining after this season. Among those are six freshmen or redshirt freshmen, including center Jorge Brian Diaz, who is from Caguas, Puerto Rico.

HUSKERS LOOK TO BUILD ON 8-8 LEAGUE MARK

While the Huskers have more than six weeks before they start league action, Nebraska will have one thing in mind while it prepares for facing arguably the nation's toughest conference: continuing its upward momentum against Big 12 foes.

Last year, the Huskers finished with an 8-8 record in Big 12 Conference play, their best mark in a decade and just the third time since the formation of the league that NU has finished at .500 or better. That mark came as the Huskers won each of their last two regular-season games, giving Nebraska its third straight season with a better league mark. NU had six league wins in 2007 and seven in 2008.

Only three teams in the Big 12 have improved their win total in league play each of the past three years. That small group includes Nebraska, Oklahoma and Oklahoma State.

This year, Nebraska will try to do something done only once before in program history as the only other time the Huskers improved their conference win total for four straight years was from 1952 to 1955.

SADLER SETTING NEW MARKS

Nebraska coach Doc Sadler has said from the beginning that he hopes to do something at Nebraska that's never been accomplished before: get to the NCAA Tournament and win a game. Since he's been at NU, his record has spoken volumes as he has reached marks never before seen in Lincoln.

Over his first three years, Sadler had more victories than any Husker coach to open a career. Through his first three seasons, Sadler owned a 55-40 mark, two more wins than Moe Iba had in his first three years and four more than Danny Nee. Sadler also had the most wins in the first two years at NU (37) and is the first coach in school history to win at least 17 games in each of his first three years guiding the Cornhuskers.

The Huskers' win over Texas Tech on the road on Jan. 31, 2009, marked Sadler's 50th victory at Nebraska. He was the fourth-fastest coach to reach 50 wins at NU in program history and among the three who reached the mark faster at NU, two of those men coached in Lincoln before World War I.

HUSKERS FACE DIFFICULT SCHEDULE

Nebraska faces a rugged schedule as it will play 16 of its 31 regular-season games against teams that reached the 2009 postseason. Among the Huskers' opponents that reached last year's NCAA Tournament were: Elite Eight participants Missouri (twice) and Oklahoma, Sweet 16 participant Kansas (twice), NCAA second-round qualifiers Oklahoma State, Texas, Texas A&M and USC. NU will also play 2009 postseason NIT qualifiers Baylor (runner-up), Creighton, Kansas State (twice) and Tulsa, along with CBI champion Oregon State. At the Las Vegas Classic, NU faces either BYU or Nevada, which played in the NCAA and NIT, respectively, last year.

- The Huskers are set to play 18 regular-season games at the Bob Devaney Sports Center for the third straight season. Last year, the Huskers went 14-4 in the building and NU is now 46-11 at home under coach Doc Sadler.

- Nebraska will look to keep an outstanding home winning streak alive in 2009-10 as the Huskers' look for their 34th straight winning season at the Bob Devaney Sports Center. The Huskers have never had a losing season in the Devaney Center since the building opened for the 1976-77 campaign.

GAME 1 VS. USC UPSTATE (NU 76, USC 49)

The Nebraska Cornhuskers opened their 114th season in program history with a solid 76-49 victory over USC Upstate at the Devaney Center. The Huskers and Spartans swapped leads six times in the first half with NU heading into the locker room with a seven-point lead, 31-24, but a 25-2 run early in the second period sealed the Huskers' ninth straight season-opening victory. Nebraska, which hit 54.8 percent from the floor in the second half, started a pair of freshmen in Brandon Ubel and Jorge Brian Diaz, who combined for 21 points, 13 rebounds, three assists and three blocked shots. Another newcomer, junior college transfer Lance Jeter also made his first career start, leading the way with 17 points on 6-of-7 shooting including dropping in all three attempts from 3-point range as NU was 11-of-20 from beyond the arc. He added six assists and two steals. Senior Ryan Anderson also had a solid all-around performance, posting five points, five rebounds, five assists and a career-best six steals, the most steals by a Husker since 2001.

GAME 2 AT SAINT LOUIS (SLU 69, NU 55)

Saint Louis's Kwamain Mitchell scored 20 points, including 15 in the second half when the Billikens' defense held Nebraska to just 33.3 percent shooting, as SLU ran away with a 69-55 victory at Chaifetz Arena in St. Louis. In their first road game of the season, the Huskers fell behind early, but used a late first-half surge to pull within one, 28-27, at the half. NU allowed just one Billiken basket over the final 7:33 of the period before coming out of the locker room with a quick basket that gave Nebraska its only lead of the game, 29-28, less than a minute into the second period. From there, SLU hit four 3-pointers in the next five minutes, including three in a decisive 11-0 run as the Billikens led by double figures the rest of the way. Sek Henry led the Huskers with 14 points while Anderson had 10. Nebraska played all but four minutes without starting center Jorge Brian Diaz, who had a bloodied mouth and loosened teeth less than a minute into the game and did not return until just over eight minutes remained.

GAME 3 VS. TCU (NU 90, TCU 77)

In the highest scoring game in the Doc Sadler era at Nebraska, the Cornhuskers outraced TCU to the finish line, earning a 90-77 victory at the Devaney Center in a game that featured 11 ties and 13 lead changes. The Huskers shot the ball extremely well, hitting 60 percent in the second half and 54.0 percent for the game while reaching the 90-point plateau for the first time since 2006. Redshirt freshman Jorge Brian Diaz, who had two teeth knocked loose at Saint Louis where he played just four minutes three days earlier, came off the bench to hit 9-of-10 shots for a team-high 22 points, leading five Huskers in double figures. Diaz was the first NU freshman with a 20-point game since Sek Henry in 2006. Henry set Diaz up all day long, as he finished with 11 points and 11 assists for the first Husker double-double since Aleks Maric in 2008. Henry missed a triple-double by three rebounds as he added seven boards with three steals and two blocked shots. Brandon Richardson made his first career start and finished with career highs in points (15) and rebounds (4), helping Nebraska outrebound the Horned Frogs 35-24. With the game tied at 67-67 with five minutes to play, the Huskers put the accelerator down as they scored 23 points in the stretch run, including hitting 13-of-15 at the charity stripe in final 3:24.

GAME 4 VS. UMKC (NU 70, UMKC 48)

After a sluggish start, the Nebraska offense picked up and Huskers locked down the defense locked down as NU ran away with a 70-48 victory over UMKC in the Devaney Center. The teams were tied three times in the early going as the Roos forced four early turnovers and had the score within one, 20-19 with less than seven minutes remaining in the first half. But senior Sek Henry's back-to-back 3-pointers within 30 seconds ignited the offense, which went on to hit better than 53 percent for the game. The Huskers used a 21-5 run to end the first half with a 41-24 advantage and pushed the lead out to 28 points before clearing the bench in the final five minutes. Henry led all scorers with 14 points while adding five rebounds and four assists. Point guard Lance Jeter added 12 points on 5-of-6 shooting and Jorge Brian Diaz came off the bench to score double figures for the second straight game, adding 10 points with three blocked shots. The Huskers limited UMKC to 35.3 percent shooting and forced 14 turnovers while committing just seven miscues. Jay Cousinard was the only Kangaroo in double figures with 11 points but he fouled out with more than 11 minutes remaining in the game.

Redshirt freshman Eshaunte Jones made just one shot in the second half, but it was the biggest one of the game as he drilled a 3-pointer from the corner with 11.7 seconds left in the contest to give Nebraska a 51-48 victory over USC at the Galen Center. Playing in the first game of this year's Big 12/Pac-10 Hardwood Series, the Huskers and Trojans had eight ties and 20 lead changes as Nebraska evened its road record at 1-1 in November. Just two minutes before Jones' shot, the Huskers looked unlikely to capitalize on missed chances, including going just 3-of-11 at the free throw line. But Quincy Hankins-Cole made a strong play on an offensive rebound to record NU's first basket in nearly six minutes to pull the Huskers within one at 46-45. Ryan Anderson then gave the Huskers the lead less than 30 seconds later with a steal out near the top of the key and a layup before converting the traditional three-point play. USC tied the game at 48-all with less than 40 seconds remaining on a Nikola Vucevic putback, setting up Jones' exciting finish. Following a timeout, the Huskers worked the ball around the perimeter and got the clock down to under 15 before Jones got the ball and fired. Following a lengthy review by the officials, the shot was confirmed as a 3-pointer and NU defended the arc for the final 11 seconds before USC's desperation heave at the buzzer went wide. Anderson led all scorers with 14 points on 5-of-9 shooting, including three 3-pointers. He also had four of NU's 11 steals on 17 USC turnovers, while Nebraska committed just seven miscues.

GAME 6 VS. TEXAS-PAN AMERICAN (NU 81, UTPA 53)

Ryan Anderson posted 21 points on 8-of-9 shooting, including 11 points in a three-minute burst in the second half that pushed the Cornhuskers to an 81-53 victory at the Devaney Center. Anderson, a senior guard, led all scorers, although the Husker freshmen made their presence felt, combining for 46 points as the Huskers shot 53.7 percent from the floor, including a building record 75.0 percent (9-of-12) from 3-point range. Freshman Ray Gallegos (3-of-4) and redshirt freshman Eshuante Jones (3-of-3) combined to hit six 3-pointers, including helping the Huskers drain seven straight from downtown at one point. Gallegos finished with 13 points, three more than his first four career games combined, while Jones had 11 points along with 11 from redshirt freshman Jorge Brian Diaz. Anderson also had four steals to move into the Nebraska career top 10. The Huskers led just 40-32 at the intermission and UTPA pulled within five, 45-40, with 17:16 to play before a 22-2 Husker run put the game out of reach. During the six and one-half minute run, Anderson had 11 points, three steals, two rebounds and an assist. Sek Henry led the Huskers on the glass with eight rebounds as Nebraska outrebounded its fifth opponent of the season, 31-26.

GAME 7 AT CREIGHTON (CU 67, NU 61)

Nebraska turned the ball over 20 times while Creighton capitalized on 32 free throw attempts, making 26 as the Bluejays held off the Huskers for a 67-61 victory at the Qwest Center Omaha in front of a crowd of 16,739. The Huskers had 12 first-half miscues but stayed in the game as they shut down the Bluejay offense that came into the contest averaging 25 3-point attempts to open the season. Nebraska's improved perimeter defense harassed the Bluejays who finished 1-of-10 from long range. But Nebraska's struggles holding onto the ball were too much to overcome even while hitting 50.0 percent (24-of-48) from the floor. NU was outrebounded 31-25 and committed a season-high 25 fouls, helping CU to 26 free points. Lance Jeter scored 13 points and Sek Henry had 10, while the bench hit 11-of-13 shot attempts for 26 points. Kenny Lawson Jr. had his first career double-double for Creighton as he posted 25 points and 10 rebounds to help CU snap a three-game losing streak.
