WILDCATS TEAM UP WITH BIG 12 IN CONFERENCE CHALLENGE

The Kansas State Wildcats make their first road trip of the indoor season to participate in the Conference Challenge hosted by Nebraska on Saturday. Teams from the Big 12 Conference will team together to take on representatives from the Mountain West Conference at the Bob Devaney Center.

Last year at the event, the Wildcats played a key role in the Big 12 winning the competition. The women's team contributed more points than any other Big 12 squad with 53. The K-State women claimed seven wins during the Conference Challenge and the men came away with one as Sam James won the 800M.

Results will be posted on www.k-statesports.com following each day's action. Live stats will also be available through Nebraska's site at www.huskers.com.

GROVES SETS ANOTHER RECORD

Senior thrower Loren Groves posted her second provisional mark of the season in the weight throw on the way to winning the KSU Invitational. Her first-place throw of 68-06.50 set a meet record passing her own mark of 67-10.50 from 2007.

STARTING STRONG

In the opening weekend of the season in December, a number of Wildcats started the track and field campaign off on the right foot.

Scott Sellers won the Carol Robinson Winter Pentathlon and in the process posted an NCAA provisional qualifying mark in the high jump at 7-02.25. In the next day's KSU All-Comers, fellow high jumper Michael Healey posted a provisional mark at 7-00.25.

The tandem was not alone in posting provisional marks. Senior women's thrower, Loren Groves began her final season with a strong mark. Her throw of 67-09 was enough for a provisional mark.

RETURNERS PROVIDE STRENGTH FOR K-STATE

The Wildcats return a number of athletes on the men's and women's side who contributed strongly to their teams' success last year. The men return three who qualified for the NCAA Indoor Championships in their respective events – two of which earned All-America honors.

Senior high jumper Scott Sellers placed second in the NCAA Championships narrowly missing his second national title after claiming the Big 12 title. This year he is also expected to increase his contribution to the Wildcats participating in multi-events as well.

Sophomore combined events specialist Rok Derzanic earned All-America honors after finishing eighth at the NCAA's in the pentathlon. Derzanic also proved to be one of the top in the conference in his event finishing third at the Big 12 Championships. Another sophomore – Moritz Cleve – came on strong for the Wildcats in his first year. He finished second in the Big 12 in the heptathlon and came in 12th at the NCAA's. Senior Adam Fretwell adds to the depth in the combined events for the Wildcats as he finished eighth in the Big 12 last year.

On the women's side, senior thrower Loren Groves looks to add to her illustrious career with another Big 12 title. Groves has won two consecutive weight throw conference titles and earned All-America honors last year with a sixth place finish at the NCAA's.

She is not alone as a strong competitor for the women. Junior Beverly Ramos brings experience in the distance events and looks to build off her most successful cross country season of her career this fall. Ramos won three races this fall and finished fourth at the Big 12 Championship. Ramos was joined by senior Liliani Mendez on the All-Big 12 Cross Country Team after Mendez finished 15th to round out the honorees. Mendez also will bring experience to the distance events for the women's team. The women's team will also have depth in the distance events to create opportunities to score points for the Wildcats.

The women will look to be strong in the jumps this year with TiAra Walpool looking to build off her freshman campaign while she also competes in sprints. Nina Kokot will participate in her first indoor season after redshirting last year and making a strong showing in outdoor in the jumps.

Combined events should be another strength for the women's team along with the men. Stephanie Hejde finished 10th at the Big 12 Championship last year in the pentathlon as a sophomore. Annika Schoenebeck came in just ahead of Hejde in eighth place for the Wildcats last year.

YOUTH MOVEMENT

The Wildcats boast a lot of experience returning for 2009, but the upperclassmen have some younger teammates with their eyes set on contributing to the team's success this year.

Six of the Wildcats' All-Big 12 performers last year were underclassmen. And with another year of preparation under their belts, those athletes are ready for an even better year.

The addition of a number of freshmen will make the depth of the K-State squad even better. The coaching staff is hoping for big things out of those underclassmen this year to push the Wildcats.

OPENING THEIR EYES

After a successful season in 2008 and with a number of the key part returning this year, the K-State men's team begins the season ranked among the top teams in the country.

The United States Track and Field and Cross Country Coaches Association ranks Kansas State No. 18 in its preseason rankings. The Wildcats are among seven teams ranked in the Big 12 Conference. Texas A&M (6) and Texas (7) both crack the Top 10 for the conference. Texas Tech (12), Baylor (14) and Nebraska (15) round out the top 15 spots in the poll, and Missouri closes out the Big 12 teams at No. 23.

The women's team was not in the preseason rankings, but the Big 12 was still strongly represented. Texas A&M opened the year as the No. 1 team on the USTFCCCA poll. Texas Tech ranked ninth with Texas coming in at No. 12. Nebraska completed the Big 12's teams in the preseason ranking at No. 24.

The USTFCCCA uses a points system taking into account performances in the NCAA Championship from returning players among other considerations.

BRINGING IT INSIDE

K-State's men's and women's teams both hope to build off their success in the outdoor season and keep coming strong this indoor season. Groves and Sellers also earn All-America status during the outdoor season and Groves added to her trophy case with another Big 12 title in the hammer throw.

The women's team finished fifth at the outdoor Big 12 Championships while the men came in at 10th. In their last action indoors, the Wildcats posted strong performances to finish 27th on the men's side with nine points and three points on the women's side.

RECORD BREAKING WILDCATS

This year's edition of the Wildcats have some high marks to reach after four school records were broken during the indoor season last year – all four marks came at the Big 12 Championship. Donniece Parrish set a new school record in the 400 meters clocking in at 53.15. Parrish is the only student-athlete to set a school record last year not returning for 2009.

Loren Groves posted a new school record in the weight throw with a distance of 70-03.00 to claim the conference title. For the men Mike Myer ran the 200 meters in 21.16 seconds en route to finishing fourth in the conference. Scott Sellers claimed the title with a school-record high jump of 7-06.

ONE YEAR LATER

Last season the Wildcats opened the year well in the Carol Robinson Winter Pentathlon and KSU All-Comers. Sellers began the year by posting an automatic qualifying mark in the high jump during the Winter Pentathlon. He also won the pentathlon while the Wildcats claimed four of the top five positions as Rok Derzanic and Moritz Cleve made their debuts finishing third and fourth, and Adam Fretwell finished fifth for the Wildcats.

In the KSU All-Comers, the Wildcats won five events and had two NCAA provisional qualifying marks. Loren Groves won the weight throw with a distance of 66-10.00 to get the win, and Alexandra Gonzalez cleared the required height in the pole vault for the NCAA's. Gonzalez won the women's pole vault with a height of 12-11.50.

Donniece Parrish posted a meet record 7.51 in the 60 meters for someone to attempt to best this year after her graduation. The women's 4x400 meter relay team also took first place. For the men Jason Collett won the 800 meters and is back to defend his crown.
