

FUTURE HOME OF THE HUSKERS

PINNACLE BANK ARENA
OPENING NOVEMBER 2013

THE NATION'S FINEST FACILITIES

Nebbraska's top facilities are not limited to the women's basketball program. Nearly every Husker sport enjoys a venue that ranks among the nation's best.

Nebraska is dedicated to providing its athletes top-notch game-day and practice atmospheres in every sport.

In November of 2013, the Huskers are set to move into their new competitive home for men's and women's basketball - Pinnacle Bank Arena - in downtown Lincoln. The Huskers moved into their new practice home - the Hendricks Training Complex - in October of 2011.

Top: The Osborne Athletic Complex provides Nebraska student-athletes with the nation's best training facilities.

Middle: Nebraska's teams compete in some of the nation's finest facilities in front of large crowds, including the NU Coliseum (left), home of the three-time national champion volleyball team; the Bob Devaney Sports Center (middle), home of NU men's and women's basketball; and Hawks Field (right), home of the perennial power Husker baseball team.

Left: Memorial Stadium has been packed for more than 300 consecutive home games - a continuing NCAA record. Approximately 85,000 fill Memorial Stadium each game, with an electric game-day atmosphere that includes giant HuskerVision replay boards and ribbon boards spanning the east and west balconies.
