The Nebraska soccer team (8-2-4, 2-1-2) enters the final stretch of the season with a weekend of important conference matches against Big 12 South Division foes.

The Huskers will meet Texas at Mike A. Myers Stadium in Austin on Friday night at 7 p.m., before they return home to host No. 14 Texas A&M on Sunday at 1 p.m. at the Nebraska Soccer Field.

The Huskers have climbed to fifth in the league standings following a 5-2 victory over Oklahoma this past weekend. In the win, freshman Morgan Marlborough produced her second hat trick of the year and became the freshman single-season school record holder for goals with 19. Marlborough has been No. 1 nationally in goals since the first NCAA rankings were released on Sept. 14 and is tied for fifth on the all-time single-season chart with five regular-season games remaining.

The University of Texas will provide live video and audio for Friday's game between the Huskers and Longhorns on www.texasports.com. Live audio and live stats will be available for Sunday's game against Texas A&M, which will mark Breast Cancer Awareness Day at the Nebraska Soccer Field. The Huskers will be aiming to keep an unbeaten home streak as they are 7-0-2 in Lincoln this season.

N Husker History vs. Texas

The all-time series between Nebraska and Texas is knotted up at 9-9-0. The Huskers held the advantage in the early years by winning six of the first seven meetings, but the Longhorns have had the upper hand as of late by taking five of the past six contests.

Nebraska won last year's battle against No. 8 Texas in Lincoln, 2-1. Anna White and Aysha Jamani notched goals for the Huskers, while Anna Caniglia tallied two assists.

Between the two schools, Nebraska and Texas have combined for seven Big 12 tournament championships and four regular-season crowns.

Scouting the Texas Longhorns

Texas (6-6-2, 2-1-2) is currently sixth in the Big 12 standings and has a 5-3-1 record on its home field this season. Last weekend, the Longhorns stepped out of Big 12 play for a non-conference victory over Loyola-Chicago (2-1), but then lost at Oklahoma State on Sunday, 1-0. The Longhorns are 2-1-2 in the league with wins over Oklahoma and Kansas, while tying Baylor and Missouri.

Texas was ranked in the NCSAA Top 25 at the beginning of the season, but fell from the poll after a 1-3 start and a season-opening loss against TCU. The Longhorns have been shut out in four of the past six games and opponents have outscored Texas, 19-17, in 2009.

Sophomore midfielder Kylie Doniak leads the Horns with four goals. Five other players have two goals, led by junior forward Kirsten Birkhold, who also has a pair of assists. Texas looks to be one of the most disciplined teams in the Big 12, as it has the lowest totals in the conference in both fouls (7.5 per game) and offsides (1.29 per game).

On Friday night, Nebraska could play in front of the biggest crowd it has seen this season, as the Longhorns are averaging 835 fans per game, including two crowds over 1,000 against Houston and Washington State. The largest attendance the Huskers have seen so far this year is 855 at Colorado on Sept. 25.

Head coach Chris Petrucelli is in his 11th season at Texas, where he has gone 140-70-20. The Longhorns were 13-4-4 last season and made it to the second round of the NCAA Tournament.

N Husker History vs. Texas A&M

Nebraska and Texas A&M have one of the most competitive series in the Big 12 Conference as the Huskers lead the all-time count, 13-11-0. From 1998-2001, Nebraska and Texas A&M met nine times (regular season and Big 12 Tournament), with the Huskers winning eight contests. The Aggies have controlled recent years by taking the past six meetings, including the last matchup in Lincoln in 2007 (4-1).

In 2008, No. 7 Texas A&M defeated Nebraska, 2-0, in College Station. Whitney Hooper scored both goals for the Aggies in the second half after a scoreless first period.

Scouting the Texas A&M Aggies

Texas A&M is ranked No. 14 in the latest NSCAA Top 25 poll. The Aggies have not lost a game since Sept. 27 at Oklahoma (3-2) as they are 9-4-1 overall with a 3-1-1 Big 12 record to place them third in the league standings. Texas A&M has posted three wins over opponents who were ranked at the time of the matchups (No. 8 USC, No. 2 Portland and No. 19 Kansas).

Junior forward Whitney Hooper and sophomore midfielder Katie Hamilton are two of the Big 12's top goal scorers, as Hooper is tied for fourth with seven and Hamilton is tied for 10th with five. Hooper holds

John Walker

- 16th Year
- 233-88-21 Record
- 14th in winning pct. for active D-I coaches
- Current Canadian National Team Staff Coach
- Only head coach in Nebraska soccer history

In his 16th year at the helm for the Huskers, Walker has produced the 14th-best career winning percentage among active Division I women's soccer coaches at .712 (225-86-17) at the start of the 2009 season. He also ranks 14th for all-time coaches and 20th among active Division I women's soccer coaches in victories with 225.

Under Walker, The Huskers have become perennial Big 12 Conference and national title contenders. NU has posted at least 10 victories every season in the history of the program. The Huskers have made NCAA Sweet 16 appearances in eight of the last 12 years, including two trips to the Elite Eight. They have won three Big 12 regular-season crowns and five Big 12 Tournament titles. NU swept both conference titles in 1996, 1999 and 2000.

the team lead with 16 points (7 goals, 2 assists) to rank No. 5 in the Big 12 Conference, while she is tied with Texas Tech's Brittney Harrison in game-winning goals this season with four. Junior midfielder Katie Shipley is tied for the third-most assists in the league with 14.

As a team, the Aggies are tied for second in the Big 12 in shutouts as they have held five opponents scoreless, including their most recent conference win at Oklahoma State (1-0) on Friday. They are second in the league behind Nebraska in assists with 31.

Texas A&M went 18-5-1 in 2008 and made it to the quarterfinals of the NCAA Tournament before being defeated by eventual national champion North Carolina. The Aggies are led by 17th-year head coach G. Guerrieri (Tulsa '85), who holds a 282-82-16 record.

N Marlborough Breaks Freshman Single-Season Goal Record, Climbs Charts

Following a hat trick in Nebraska's 5-2 victory over Oklahoma on Sunday, Morgan Marlborough set the Nebraska freshman single-season goal record as she increased her nation-leading total to 19. The previous record of 17 was set in 1996 by both Lindsay Eddleman and Isabelle Morneau.

Marlborough's 19 goals are the fifth-most overall by a Husker in a single season, while she has led the NCAA in goals since the first rankings were released on Sept. 14.

Sunday's hat trick was her second of the year, as the Lee's Summit, Mo., native tied the single-game school record with four goals against Akron on Sept. 18. Only 14 games into her freshman season, Marlborough is one of only seven Huskers in school history to produce multiple hat tricks in a career.

Aside from leading the NCAA in goals, Marlborough is also No. 1 in goals per game (1.357), points (42) and points per game (3.00). Her 42 points are tied for the ninth-most ever by a Husker in single season.

Marlborough was voted Big 12 Offensive Player and Newcomer of the Week on Sept. 15 after she turned in six goals and two assists in wins over North Dakota (Sept. 11) and Akron (Sept. 13). It marked just the third time in Big 12 history that a player has earned two awards in the same week.

Aside from holding four nation-best marks, Marlborough is also the Big 12 leader in shots per game (4.86 pg), third in game-winning goals (3) and tied for seventh in assists (4). Her four-goal performance against Akron is the tied for the best single-game performance in the Big 12 Conference this season. Colorado's Nikki Marshall matched Marlborough's four-goal game in the Buffs' 5-1 win over Oklahoma on Oct. 2.

Marlborough has scored in all but four games this season (vs. Lehigh, at Colorado, vs. Oklahoma State, vs. Baylor) and has six multiple-goal games, the seventh-most by a Nebraska player in program history.

N Huskers Tied for First Nationally in Scoring

Nebraska scored six goals in its two Big 12 games last week and now ranks in a tie for first nationally in scoring offense with 50 goals.

The Huskers are averaging 3.57 goals per game (2nd NCAA) and have already scored the most goals by a NU team in a season since 2002. The Huskers have scored 41 times at home, shattering the previous Nebraska Soccer Field season record of 26, which was set in both 2005 and 2005.

Nebraska's five goals against Oklahoma on Sunday were the most in a Big 12 game since a 5-1 win over Iowa State on Sept. 26, 2003.

On Sept. 27, NU scored three goals in the first half at Texas Tech to mark the most first-half goals in a Big 12 game by the Huskers since Oct. 30, 2005 (also at Texas Tech). Nebraska's nine goals in a 9-0 victory over South Dakota on Sept. 18 is the best single-game total in the Big 12 Conference this season.

N Powell Coming on Strong in Conference Play

Nebraska's leading goal scorer the past two seasons looks to have found her offensive rhythm again, as senior Shay Powell has scored three goals in the Huskers' first five Big 12 games.

Powell produced just one goal in Nebraska's first nine contests, but has increased her offensive production to reach the double-digit point plateau on four goals and five assists (13 points). She had one of the biggest goals of the season on Oct. 4 against Oklahoma State, as she knocked in the game-winner in the 10th minute. Last Friday, Powell's goal in the 46th minute forced a 1-1 tie versus Baylor, while she added an assist against the Sooners.

Powell was the Huskers' leading scorer in 2007 (11 points) and 2008 (19 points).

N Thomas Continues to Lead Offensively

Sophomore Molly Thomas continues to emerge as one of Nebraska's best offensive players in recent history. The Omaha, Neb., native has six goals and five assists (17 points) this season after a solid two-game stretch last weekend when she contributed an assist in each of Nebraska's contests against Baylor and Oklahoma.

A member of the 2008 Big 12 All-Newcomer team, Thomas turned in a career-best two-goal, two-assist game in Nebraska's 9-0 win against South Dakota on Sept. 18.

N Peetz, Caniglia Head Down Final Stretch

Senior defenders Carly Peetz and Anna Caniglia are bidding to end their collegiate careers having started every single game as a Husker. Now in their fourth seasons, the duo has each started all 73 games from 2006 to 2009. The seniors are primary reasons NU has held opponents to 1.21 goals per game this year. If Peetz and Caniglia continue their starting streaks, they will enter the Nebraska all-time top 10 list for career starts.

Perhaps even more impressive has been the offensive production. Peetz has a career-high eight points this season, including one of the biggest goals of her career against the Cowgirls on Oct. 4, as Peetz headed in a free kick from Caniglia to wrap up Nebraska's 2-0 victory. Caniglia is sixth in the Big 12 with five assists (sophomore Blair Slapper, 4th, six assists), but Caniglia has the highest total among defenders. The Omaha native also has a pair of goals in 2009.

N Freshmen See Playing Time in First Year with Huskers

Freshman Jordan Jackson has played in all 14 games this season, scoring four goals on 29 shots, while also tallying two assists. Freshman Bri Exstrom saw her first game action of the 2009 season against South Dakota on Sept. 18 and made the most of her opportunity by notching a goal in the 82nd minute. The freshman class was responsible for four of Nebraska's five goals in the win over Oklahoma last Sunday and has 24 on the season (Marlborough-19, Jackson-4, Exstrom-1).

Nebraska has high hopes for its freshman class, which includes goalkeeper Emma Stevens, forward/midfielder Stacy Bartels, defender/midfielder Taylor Houck and defender Bri Badje.

N Review: Marlborough's Hat Trick Leads Huskers Over Oklahoma

Morgan Marlborough scored three times and the Husker offense reached the 50-goal mark in 2009, as Nebraska ran away from Oklahoma in the second half for a 5-2 victory on Sunday, Oct. 11 at the Nebraska Soccer Field.

With their second Big 12 victory of the season, Sunday's win looks to help the Huskers in their quest to climb up the league standings, while Marlborough continues her own climb up the record charts.

The Lee's Summit, Mo., native's three-goal effort increased her nation-leading total to 19, while she became the freshman school record holder for single-season goals, passing the previous mark of 17 set in 1996 by both Lindsay Eddleman and Isabelle Morneau. The 19 goals are also the fifth-most overall by a Husker in a single season in school history.

Nebraska fell behind 1-0 for the second straight game, but Marlborough led the comeback effort with her first goal on a header from freshman Jordan Jackson to tie the contest in the 18th minute. Six minutes later, Marlborough earned one of her most impressive goals of the season after she was taken down by an OU defender on the right side of the penalty box. Marlborough then recovered to keep control of the possession and dribbled through the Sooner defense before beating OU goalkeeper Kelsey Devonshire with a shot off the far post to give Nebraska a 2-1 halftime lead.

Unbeaten when leading at the intermission (8-0-2), the Huskers struck quickly in the final period to ensure that streak would not be broken. Jackson produced her fourth goal of the season just 89 seconds into the second half when she connected on a straight-on shot from 15 yards away to make it a two-goal Nebraska lead (3-1).

Marlborough's efforts were nearly countered by OU junior forward Whitney Palmer, who kept the Sooners in the match with the game's first goal in the 16th minute and another goal in the 61st minute to close the Husker lead to 3-2 with under 30 minutes remaining.

Nebraska separated itself from Oklahoma with 15 minutes left, when junior Blair Slapper's shot from 35 yards away was saved by Devonshire, but the deflection bounced off the crossbar and landed an Marlborough's feet for her third goal of the game.

The hat trick was Marlborough's second of the year, as the freshman also reached the three-goal plateau against Akron on Sept. 13 when she tied the single-game school record with four goals. Only 14 games into her freshman season, Marlborough is one of only seven Huskers in school history to produce multiple hat tricks in a career.

The Huskers added an insurance goal on a well-executed play in the 83rd minute, as sophomore Molly Thomas skipped a pass through the OU defense from the short corner to senior defender Anna Caniglia, who knocked in her second goal of the season.

Sunday's victory makes Nebraska 12-2-0 all-time against Oklahoma, while it also ended a strong four-game homestand in which the Huskers finished with a 3-0-1 record.

Notes: The Huskers began the 2009 season on a strong note Aug. 22, defeating Northern Colorado, 3-0, at Jackson Stadium in Greeley, Colo.

It was only the third time in school history that the Huskers have opened the season on the road (4-0 win at Minnesota in 2000; 4-3 loss at Northwestern in 2008), but Nebraska (1-0-0) outshot Northern Colorado (0-1-0) and posted its first shutout since last October.

The Huskers used strong performances from two of its youngsters, as sophomore Molly Thomas recorded a pair of goals, while freshman Morgan Marlborough also scored one goal and added an assist in her Husker debut.

Marlborough accounted for the game-winning score, as she found the net on a rebound just 16 seconds before halftime. Thomas took advantage of a rebound as well, as she made it a 2-0 lead just two minutes later. Thomas added her second goal of the evening with 16 minutes remaining, receiving a pass from Marlborough for the final margin.

Marlborough is coming off a solid preseason in which she was one of Nebraska's most impressive freshmen, while Thomas is building on a strong first season in which she was named to the Big 12 All-Newcomer Team.

Junior transfer Tara Macdonald was superb in the net for NU, playing all 90 minutes at goalkeeper and stopping eight shots for her first shutout as a Husker.

The victory improved head coach John Walker's record to 9-5-2 in season openers.

Notes: Nebraska took 11 shots on goal and junior Colleen Goetzmann tallied her first score of the season, but the Husker soccer team couldn't overcome an early deficit as Nebraska dropped a 3-1 decision to Lehigh on Aug. 28 at the Villanova Classic.

Goetzmann's goal came in the 66th-minute when she found the bottom left corner of the net on an assist from freshman Jordan Jackson. The goal cut a 2-0 Mountain Hawk lead in half, but Lehigh was able to hold off Nebraska following an insurance score with just over four minutes remaining in the game.

Nebraska took 19 shots overall, but had a tough time getting past Lehigh goalkeeper Lauren Mains, who played all 90 minutes and stopped 10 of the 11 shots Nebraska fired on goal. Senior defender Anna Caniglia had a team-high four shots for the Huskers, while freshman Morgan Marlborough led NU in shots on goal with three.

Lehigh got on the board 10 minutes into the game when Natalie Hojnacki converted from the left side of the box off a pass from Jana Basubas. Nebraska controlled the ball in the first half, as it outshot Lehigh, 9-3, but still went into the locker room trailing 1-0.

The Mountain Hawks struck quickly again in the second half, as Liz Carlos used a header on a rebound in the 54th minute to give Lehigh a 2-0 lead. Following Goetzmann's goal to make it a 2-1 contest, Lehigh's Genna Pepe put the game away with 4:36 remaining on a goal from the middle of the box.

Nebraska's 11 shots on goal were the most in a game in nearly a year, when the Huskers also had 11 in a 2-1 win over Stephen F. Austin on Sept. 21, 2008. Goetzmann's goal was the second of her career as she also scored in Nebraska's 3-1 win against Iowa State last season.

Notes: Nebraska carried a one-goal lead into the final minute, but the Huskers gave up a score with nine seconds remaining in regulation as they battled to a 2-2 double overtime tie against Villanova on Aug. 30 in Villanova, Pa.

Senior defenders Carly Peetz and Anna Caniglia teamed up for what looked to be the game-winning score in the 77th minute, when Caniglia sent a free kick from the right sideline directly in front of the goalie box. Congestion ensued in front of the net, but Peetz was able to push the ball past Villanova goalkeeper Molly Williams to give the Huskers a 2-1 lead.

Villanova forward Katie Ryan then turned up the heat and took four shots in the final minutes, including one attempt in the 89th minute that slid near the post before Nebraska goalkeeper Tara Macdonald snagged the ball from crossing the goal line. Sixty-two seconds later, Ryan made good on her final opportunity when she chased down a long ball near the top of the penalty box and sent it over Macdonald's head for the game-tying score.

Neither team was able to convert in the overtime periods, as both teams had ample opportunities to score with seven shots apiece in the extra sessions, including three shots on goal.

Notes: Nebraska opened the home season in fine fashion on Friday, Sept. 4 as it ran past the Lamar Cardinals, 7-1, at the Nebraska Soccer Field. The Huskers played strong defense by limiting Lamar to just six total shots, while the offensive power came from senior Lauren Isenhower and freshman Morgan Marlborough, who each scored two goals.

The Huskers' seven goals set a Nebraska Soccer Field record and also marked the most NU has scored in a game since the 2004 NCAA Sweet 16 squad had seven against Northern Colorado.

Isenhower's scores broke the game open near the end of the first half as she found the net twice on assists from junior Michaela Fulmer within a span of five minutes to give the Huskers a 4-1 lead at the break.

The Cardinals' lone goal came at the 34:30 mark of the first half after NU jumped out to an early 2-0 lead on scores from Marlborough and senior Shay Powell in the first 14 minutes of the contest. Marlborough added her second goal just 95 seconds into the second half on a penalty kick that beat Lamar goalkeeper Jennifer Gibbs on the right side of the net and increase the Husker lead to 5-1.

Marlborough finished the game with five points as she assisted on Powell's score, while Fulmer and Isenhower turned in four-point performances. Marlborough increased her team-leading goal total to four.

The Huskers had 27 shots overall, including 15 on goal. Junior goalkeepers Tara Macdonald and Jessica Mills split time in net for NU, with Mills recording each of the Huskers' two saves.

Notes: The Huskers turned in another offensive outburst Sept. 11, scoring six goals in 10 attempts on net to defeat North Dakota, 6-1, at the Nebraska Soccer Field.

Freshman Morgan Marlborough increased her team-leading goal total to six in the win, as she found the net twice to lead Nebraska to its second straight victory. The Huskers' 13 goals in the last two games are the most in a two-game span since 2000.

Nebraska put the game out of reach 10 minutes into the second half when the Huskers scored three goals in just over six minutes.

Junior Colleen Goetzmann began the outburst when she scored on an assist from Marlborough (26:49) directly in front of the North Dakota goalkeeper. Freshman Jordan Jackson then used a deflection in the goalie box to find the net (51:55), before Marlborough added her second and most impressive goal on a sliding cross shot from the left side of the penalty box (53:07).

Marlborough's first goal came from the top of the penalty box with 18 minutes remaining in the first half to give NU a 2-0 lead before North Dakota's Rhaya Ballon cut the margin in half seven minutes later. The Huskers' scoring barrage started on an own goal that deflected off a North Dakota player in front of the Fighting Sioux net just 4:24 into the game.

For the second straight game, junior Michaela Fulmer added Nebraska's last goal (77:35) to produce the final score.

The Huskers took 25 shots overall, while connecting on six of 10 shots on goal. The NU defense was strong again, limiting the Fighting Sioux to eight shots.

Juniors Tara Macdonald and Jessica Mills split time in goal for the Huskers, as Macdonald played the first 59 minutes (4 saves, 1 goal allowed) before Mills shut out the Sioux for the remainder of the game, as NU's defense held North Dakota without a shot on goal with Mills at the back.

Notes: Freshman forward Morgan Marlborough tied the single-game school record with four goals as she led the Huskers to a 7-1 win over Akron on Sept. 13 at the Nebraska Soccer Field.

Marlborough was nearly unstoppable versus the Zips, scoring four times on six shots to match Kim Essenger (vs. Baylor; Nov. 7, 1997) and Meghan Anderson (vs. Oral Roberts; Sept. 3, 1999) for the most goals in a single game in Husker history. The Lee's Summit, Mo., native already ranks No. 6 on the Nebraska freshman all-time charts for goals and points in a season.

Marlborough struck early and often on Sunday, as she scored her first goal just 3:25 into the contest when she slipped past the Akron goalkeeper at the top of the penalty box. The freshman added her second score following a corner kick midway through the first half, before accounting for both of Nebraska's goals to begin the final 45 minutes. Seniors Shay Powell and Lauren Isenhower assisted on the second-half goals as each sent the ball to Marlborough from the corner to help the Huskers mount a commanding 6-0 lead.

Nebraska held a 4-0 halftime advantage after senior defender Carly Peetz cleaned up a loose ball in front of the net following a corner kick with 2:54 remaining.

Sophomore forward Molly Thomas had an impressive outing as well, scoring two goals on six shots. A member of the 2008 Big 12 All-Newcomer team, Thomas gave Nebraska a 2-0 lead 6 1/2 minutes into the game when she took a pass from junior Brittany Goosen and fired a shot past the Akron goalkeeper from the right side of the penalty box.

Thomas added a second score off another long assist when junior goalkeeper Jessica Mills sent a free kick to the top of the penalty box where Thomas beat the Zip goalkeeper for Nebraska's final goal of the game.

Notes: Nebraska tied the school record for goals in a half as it scored seven times in the final 45 minutes to defeat South Dakota, 9-0, on Sept. 18 at the Nebraska Soccer Field. The win was the fourth in a row for the Huskers.

Nebraska upped its season goal total to 35, four more than the entire 2008 season. The Huskers entered the weekend as the nation's third-best scoring team, featuring freshman Morgan Marlborough, who added to her NCAA-leading goal total with two scores.

Marlborough was one of three Huskers with a multi-score game, as sophomore Molly Thomas and freshman Jordan Jackson also registered a pair of goals.

Thomas continued a spectacular start to her second season, adding two assists versus South Dakota to finish with six points in the contest. The Omaha, Neb., native now has 15 points (6 goals, 3 assists) to surpass her freshman total of 11. Jackson and Thomas were the driving force in the second half as they scored all their goals in Nebraska's stretch of seven scores over the final 45 minutes.

Junior Colleen Goetzmann gave Nebraska a 2-0 lead with 24:56 to go in the first half when senior Anna Caniglia contributed the first of two assists in the game to pull into a tie for the team lead with four on the season.

Nebraska used a total team-effort to spread the margin in the second half, including a goal by junior Jaclyn White on a penalty kick to give the Huskers a 6-0 lead with 27:46 remaining.

Husker freshmen scored five of Nebraska's nine goals, as Bri Exstrom made the most of her first appearance of the season, scoring with 8:24 left off Caniglia's cross into the penalty box.

South Dakota attempted just four shots, including one on goal to mark season-best totals for the Husker defense in both categories.

Notes: Freshman Morgan Marlborough found the back of the net with 16 seconds remaining in the first half, but Nebraska was unable to hold off Arizona State as the Huskers and Sun Devils fought to a 1-1 double overtime tie at the Nebraska Soccer Field on Sept. 20.

Marlborough's NCAA-leading 13th goal of season came after she gained control near the top left side of the penalty box and beat an ASU defender to score from 15 yards away. With 13 goals and 30 points this season, the freshman has already put up the highest season totals by a Husker in both categories since 2005.

Nebraska held on to the 1-0 lead for the next 36 minutes behind solid goalkeeping by junior Tara Macdonald. The Husker goalie played all 110 minutes and did not allow a goal until 14:06 to go in the game when Arizona State's Taylor McCarter scored from nearly the same spot as Marlborough's goal in the first half. Macdonald finished the game with four saves, including three in the final 15 minutes of the first half.

Although Nebraska finished with two shots on goal, the offensive production was greater than the final stats indicate. Following a corner kick just 14 minutes into the game, junior Anna White headed a shot off the right post, before Marlborough hit the left post from 18 yards out two minutes later. Arizona State outshot Nebraska, 21-16 overall, with both teams registering three shots apiece in the overtime periods.

Aside from the goal, the Huskers' other shot on net came off the leg of junior midfielder Colleen Goetzmann with 2:42 remaining in the first half.

The tie was the second overtime game of the season for the Huskers, as Nebraska also tied Villanova, 2-2, on Aug. 30.

Notes: Nebraska outshot Colorado, 21-13, but the Buffaloes found some offensive punch in the second half to score the game-winning goal with 22 minutes remaining and drop the Huskers in their Big 12 Conference opener.

The Huskers were in control offensively for the majority of the first half, outshooting Colorado, 11-5. Sophomore Molly Thomas had four shots in the first 45 minutes, including one attempt in the 36th minute that hit the cross bar, but Nebraska found itself in a scoreless game at halftime for the first time this season.

Junior goalkeeper Tara Macdonald dealt with a more aggressive Buffalo offense in the second half, which took advantage of a rare scoring opportunity in the 68th minute. Macdonald was forced to come out of the goalie box to make a save, but was caught in cluster of players from both teams after she deflected the ball into the air. Colorado's Kassidy Fitzpatrick gained control of the loose ball and fired a shot into the open net for the game's only goal and eventually send Nebraska to its first loss since Aug. 28.

The Buffaloes took eight shots on goal to the Huskers' five, led by a pair from junior Colleen Goetzmann. Thomas, sophomore Blair Slapper and freshman Morgan Marlborough also registered shots on net for Nebraska, which was held scoreless for the first time this season.

Macdonald finished the game with seven saves.

Notes: Nebraska jumped out to a 3-1 halftime lead, but Texas Tech scored two second-half goals as the Huskers and Red Raiders battled to a 3-3 double-overtime tie in Lubbock, Texas, the highest scoring Big 12 Conference game since Nov. 5, 2008.

Freshman Morgan Marlborough led a strong offensive attack with two goals to move into a tie for 10th all-time on the Nebraska single-season scoring charts with 15 goals this year. Marlborough's efforts helped the Huskers to a 3-1 halftime lead, but the advantage disappeared quickly after the break as the Red Raiders scored twice in the first 12 minutes of the second half to produce the final 3-3 score.

Marlborough struck early when she knocked in a 25-yard shot off the left post just 1:40 into the game, before scoring her second goal at the 22:50 mark after she cleaned up a missed header and beat Texas Tech goalkeeper Erin Wikelius.

The Red Raiders cut the lead to 2-1 with five minutes remaining in the first half on Leanne Mihelich's first of two goals in the game.

Powell responded for the Huskers just over a minute later on an open net goal after Wikelius was attempting to clear the ball out of the penalty box. The goal gave Nebraska a 3-1 halftime lead and marked the most scoring in a first half by the Huskers since Oct. 30, 2005 at Texas Tech.

Leading by two, the Huskers were unable to slow down a high-paced game as Texas Tech midfielder Taylor Lytle found the net 35 seconds into the second half before Mihelich scored her second goal of the game in the 56th minute.

After a combined six goals in the first 56 minutes of the game, the two teams went scoreless over the last 64 minutes.

The Huskers' offensive attack was slowed down with only two shots on goal in the second half after taking six in the first 45 minutes. Nebraska outshot Texas Tech overall, 18-13.

Notes: Cold temperatures and strong winds swept through the Lincoln area on Oct. 2, but that did not slow the Huskers in their final non-conference game of the season, as Nebraska defeated Green Bay, 3-1, at the Nebraska Soccer Field.

Morgan Marlborough broke a scoreless game at the 32:28 mark with her nation-leading 16th goal of the season to put herself in a tie with Christine Latham (2002) for the ninth-most single-season goals in school history.

Also a native of Lee's Summit, Mo., Fulmer was able to shield off a defender in the penalty box as she received a pass from Jaclyn White and scored from 15 yards out to become the fifth Husker to reach the three-goal plateau this season.

Following the break, defender Anna Caniglia cashed in on an offensive opportunity 4 1/2 minutes into the action, as she fielded an overpass on the left side of the net and easily knocked in Nebraska's third goal of the game. Caniglia and defender Carly Peetz both tallied two shots on goal Friday night in each starting their 70th consecutive game.

Jessica Mills started in the net for the Huskers, tallying three saves and allowing one goal to improve her season goals-allowed average to 1.17 per contest.

Nebraska entered the weekend as the nation's second-highest scoring team and now has 42 this season for an average of 3.82 goals per game. The victory over the Phoenix lifted NU to a final non-conference record of 6-1-2.

Notes: Nebraska used one of its most complete-game efforts of the season to earn its first Big 12 victory with a 2-0 win over Oklahoma State on Oct. 4 at the Nebraska Soccer Field.

The Huskers were a determined team in their Big 12 home opener after beginning conference play with a pair of road games, dropping a 1-0 battle at Colorado and fighting to a 3-3 tie at Texas Tech.

Shay Powell put the Huskers on the scoreboard quickly, when her shot from 10 yards away hit the crossbar and bounced over the line to put Nebraska on top, 1-0, at the 10:24 mark of the first half.

Nebraska held OSU to two shots in the first half and a 1-0 lead into halftime that it would not relinquish behind a strong effort in the net from goalkeeper Jessica Mills. The Houston, Texas native played one of the best games of her career to keep a talented Cowgirl squad scoreless for just the third time this season.

Oklahoma State nearly broke up Mills' shutout with 13 minutes remaining, but a Seira Strawser shot from 15 yards away was snagged by the Husker goalkeeper on the left side of the net for her most notable save of the game.

The NU defense aided Mills' effort by holding OSU to eight total shots, and was responsible for the Huskers' second goal of the afternoon as Carly Peetz and Anna Caniglia teamed up to ensure Nebraska would go home with its first Big 12 win of the season.

Just two minutes after Mills' diving save, Caniglia took a free kick from 30 yards out near the Husker bench, which Peetz headed into the top-right corner of the net to give Nebraska an important insurance goal en route to its sixth home victory of the year and third shutout in 2009.

Notes: Nebraska found itself in a 1-0 deficit just 20 minutes into the game, but an early second-half goal by senior forward Shay Powell forced a 1-1 double-overtime tie against the Baylor Bears Fri., Oct. 9 at the Nebraska Soccer Field.

The draw is the first tie in the 18-game series between Nebraska and Baylor (NU leads, 12-5-1), while the even score marks the fourth tie in 2009, tying the Nebraska single-season school record (also four in 2007).

Powell's goal in the 46th minute was the only one the Huskers could put in the net against a Baylor defense that ranks first in the Big 12 Conference in goals allowed with 0.64 per game and had posted five shutouts coming into the contest.

Sophomore forward Molly Thomas contributed heavily to Nebraska's goal, as she outran the Baylor defense down the ride sideline before centering the ball to Powell in the goalie box. The senior from Dallas, Texas then knocked in her fourth goal of the season and more impressively her third goal in the first four Big 12 Conference games.

Thomas nearly scored herself in final minutes of the first half, but her sailing shot from the right side of the penalty box toward the far post was saved by a Bear defender one yard in front of the goal line. Junior midfielder Anna White had a quality scoring opportunity as well in the 58th minute when she cleaned up a loose ball in the goalie box and fired a shot through the congestion before it was snagged by Baylor goalkeeper Gianna Quintana.

With the game tied at 1-1 in the 96th minute (1st overtime), Nebraska momentarily thought it had earned its eighth victory of the season, but freshman Jordan Jackson's goal from 12 yards out was waved off due to a Husker foul.

Baylor took a 1-0 lead in the 20th minute when junior forward Lotto Smith headed a ball from Bethany Johnson just past the reach of NU goalkeeper Jessica Mills for the Bears' lone goal of the game.

Nebraska outshot its opponent for the 12th time in 13 games this season, taking 25 shots, while the Bears attempted 14. Quintana and Mills ended the game with four saves apiece.

Nebraska dominated corner kicks with a 12-3 advantage.

Notes: Freshman forward Morgan Marlborough scored three times and the Husker offense reached the 50-goal mark in 2009, as Nebraska ran away from Oklahoma in the second half for a 5-2 victory on Sunday, Oct. 11 at the Nebraska Soccer Field.

With their second Big 12 victory of the season, Sunday's win looks to help the Huskers in their quest to climb up the league standings, while Marlborough continues her own climb up the record charts.

The Lee's Summit, Mo., native's three-goal effort increased her nation-leading total to 19, while she became the freshman school record holder for single-season goals, passing the previous mark of 17 set in 1996 by both Lindsay Eddleman and Isabelle Morneau. The 19 goals are also the fifth-most overall by a Husker in a single season in school history.

Nebraska fell behind 1-0 for the second straight game, but Marlborough led the comeback effort with her first goal on a header from freshman Jordan Jackson to tie the contest in the 18th minute. Six minutes later, Marlborough earned one of her most impressive goals of the season after she was taken down by an OU defender on the right side of the penalty box. Marlborough then recovered to keep control of the possession and dribbled through the Sooner defense before beating OU goalkeeper Kelsey Devonshire with a shot off the far post to give Nebraska a 2-1 halftime lead.

Unbeaten when leading at the intermission (8-0-2), the Huskers struck quickly in the final period to ensure that streak would not be broken. Jackson produced her fourth goal of the season just 89 seconds into the second half when she connected on a straight-on shot from 15 yards away to make it a two-goal Nebraska lead (3-1).

Marlborough's efforts were nearly countered by OU junior forward Whitney Palmer, who kept the Sooners in the match with the game's first goal in the 16th minute and another goal in the 61st minute to close the Husker lead to 3-2 with under 30 minutes remaining.

35 yards away was saved by Devonshire, but the deflection bounced off the crossbar and landed at Marlborough's feet for her third goal of the game.

The hat trick was Marlborough's second of the year, as the freshman also reached the three-goal plateau against Akron on Sept. 13 when she tied the single-game school record with four goals. Only 14 games into her freshman season, Marlborough is one of only seven Huskers in school history to produce multiple hat tricks in a career.

The Huskers added an insurance goal on a well-executed play in the 83rd minute, as sophomore Molly Thomas skipped a pass through the OU defense from the short corner to senior defender Anna Caniglia, who knocked in her second goal of the season.

The victory made Nebraska 12-2-0 all-time against Oklahoma, while it also ended a strong four-game homestand in which the Huskers finished with a 3-0-1 record.
