TEXAS TECH

RED RAIDERS (4-25; 2-18)

The 2010 Texas Tech volleyball season was one marked by ups and downs, but at the end of a tumultuous year, the Red Raiders showed signs of improvement that will benefit the young squad in a year to come.

THE RED RAIDERS

Texas Tech finished the season 4-23 overall and 2-18 after back-to-back 3-1 losses at the hands of 16th-ranked Iowa State and Baylor. The Red Raiders played the final nine matches under the direction of interim head coach Beth Falls who was 1-8 during that span.

Amanda Dowdy led the Red Raiders with 424 kills at a 4.12 kills per set rate, finishing tied for 27th in the nation in the statistic. Dowdy chipped in 243 digs on the year with a team-high 10 double-doubles. With 55 blocks as well, Dowdy averaged 468.5 points per set, fourth highest in the Big 12.

Karlyn Meyers wrapped the year with a team-high 9.07 assists per set, which ranked ninth in the Big 12. Following Dowdy, Meyers found Miara Cave and Aubree Piper most often as Cave recorded a 1.91 kills per set average and Piper added 1.40 k/s. Jackie Vincent led the Tech back row all season, finishing with 351 digs, including 60 over the final three matches, while Barbara Conceicao made her presence known on the net with a team-high 93 blocks at a 1.03 blocks per set average, 10th-highest in the conference.

SENIORS GO OUT IN STYLE

Tech's 2010 senior class of Caroline Courtney, Barbara Conceicao, Alexxa Roberts, and Jackie Vincent might have played their final match in a Red Raider uniform, but the group leaves the program in better shape than when each first arrived. Backed by the play of its four seniors, Tech took sets from three NCAA Championship teams in the final five matches while also defeating Colorado on Nov. 20 in Boulder.

RED RAIDERS SNAP SEVERAL STREAKS

Entering the season, the biggest question facing the Tech volleyball program was when would the Red Raiders snap its conference losing that expanded nearly three seasons. Tech fans got their answer on Oct. 2 when the Red Raiders dropped Kansas in five sets, ending a 64-match conference losing streak. In its Nov. 20 victory at Colorado, Tech claimed its first conference road victory since Oct. 28, 2006, at Kansas.

DOWDY NAMED TO ALL-BIG 12 FIRST TEAM

Amanda Dowdy became the first Texas Tech player to be named to the All-Big 12 first team since Kelly Johnson did so in 2002 in the conference's annual postseason awards. Dowdy, a junior from Lexington, Texas, finished second in the Big 12 in kills per set and fourth for points per set.

UNDERCLASSMEN EXPECTED TO RETURN

With only four seniors on the roster, the Red Raiders could return up to 13 letterwinners next season as 10 of Tech's 17 players this season were classified as either a freshman or sophomore.

BIG 12 CONTINUES TO SHINE NATIONALLY

The Big 12 Conference continued its tradition of being one of the strongest volleyball leagues in the nation as five conference schools earned NCAA Championship bids. Led by No. 2 seed Nebraska, the Big 12 will have four schools host first and second round matches in the Huskers, No. 9 seed Texas, and Oklahoma, while Missouri will travel to Northern Iowa for the Tigers' first round matchup and Iowa State goes to Minneapolis, Minn. to face Creighton.

FALLS STEERS TECH TO SUCCESS IN SHORT TIME

With only nine matches on her head coaching resume, interim head coach Beth Falls may not have the total number of wins she might have liked, but the Red Raiders showed improvement under the fifth-year assistant coach. Tech won eight sets after Falls took over on an interim basis prior to the Texas A&M match on Oct. 27. Tech had previously won six sets in its first 11 conference matches this season. The Red Raiders won four sets total during conference last year compared to the eight won in 2008 and nine in 2007. Under Falls, Tech was able to take sets against two ranked teams - No. 7 Texas and No. 16 Iowa State - along with one against Missouri, an NCAA Championship squad.

NON-CONFERENCE SEEMS TOUGHER NOW

All nine of Tech's non-conference opponents this season finished with at least a .500 record with three schools advancing to the NCAA Championship. UTSA, who Tech defeated 3-1 at the Rice Invitational, claimed the Southland Tournament title and will face Texas in the first round, while Colorado State claimed the Mountain West Conference crown and will face Cal State Fullerton in the opening round. Ole Miss claimed an at-large berth from the South-eastern Conference and will open with North Carolina. Tech's non-conference opponents combined for a 180-97 record, a .650 winning percentage.

SEVEN NAMED TO ACADEMIC ALL-BIG 12

Texas Tech had seven student-athletes named to the Academic All-Big 12 teams that were announced towards the end of the season. Senior Caroline Courtney was honored on the first team for the third time in her career, while juniors Amanda Dowdy and Karlyn Meyers were second-time honorees. Senior Alexxa Roberts and sophomores Tory Vaughan and Aleah Hayes earned first team honors for the first time in their careers, while sophomore Miara Cave was also named to the second team for the first time.

VINCENT'S DIG NUMBERS SOAR LATE IN SEASON

With the way Jackie Vincent played in Tech's final three matches, the senior probably did not want to see the season end as she recorded 60 digs over Tech's final three matches, including a career-high 21 at Colorado. The Dallas native recorded 19 or more digs in four of Tech's final five matches.

CAVE BUILDING TOWARD JUNIOR SEASON

Miara Cave's ending to her sophomore season should give Tech fans some encouragement for the junior in 2011. Cave posted double-digit kills in three of Tech's final four matches. Her lone match out of double-digits during the span was against Iowa State where she finished with nine.

DOWDY CHASING SEVERAL RECORDS IN 2011

Amanda Dowdy will begin her senior season chasing several school records, including the career marks for kills and attempts. Already a member of the 1,000 career kills club, Dowdy finished the 2010 season ranked fifth all-time in career kills and sixth in attempts. Her numbers this season placed her into the top 10 for single season kills and attempts.

MEYERS IN THE RECORD BOOK AS WELL

Like teammate Amanda Dowdy, Karlyn Meyers entered the Tech record book this fall as the junior setter finished the year eighth in career assists and seventh for assists per set average. With a similar senior year, Meyers might narrow the gap between eighth and seventh as 488 assists stand in the way.

PIPER OVERCOMES PRESEASON INJURY

While the rest of her teammates were hard at work during preseason practices, freshman Aubree Piper could often be found on a stationary bike or observing from a chair as the freshman suffered a foot injury the first couple days of drills. By the time the Amarillo native recovered, Tech was in its second non-conference tournament, forcing Piper immediately into action. Piper ended the year as Tech's third-leading scorer with 140 kills and should benefit from her first round of spring practices.

SPRING SHOULD HELP YOUNG TEAM

With up to 13 players returning next year, Tech's young squad should benefit from spring drills that focus on individual training and building certain skill sets. Tech will be looking to fill spots both in the middle and at the libero position due to the graduation of the program's four seniors.

"SEEBO" SHINES ON SENIOR NIGHT

Barbara "Seebo" Conceicao wrapped her career inside the United Spirit Arena with a memorable performance against No. 16 Iowa State. The senior from Rio de Janeiro, Brazil was a consistent obstacle on the net, recording a season-high 10 blocks in the match while adding five kills. Conceicao ended the year with 16 blocks in Tech's final three matches.

ROBERTS ADDS MEMORABLE FINAL PERFORMANCE

Alexxa Roberts added to the list of Red Raiders who had memorable final matches in a Tech uniform as the Carrollton native recorded six blocks to go with seven kills in the season finale at Baylor. A week earlier, Roberts sparked Tech at Colorado with nine kills and five blocks in the five-set victory.

Athletic Trainer: Imelda Garcia

Student Manager: Matt Chester

HUSKEY SEES ACTION LATE IN THE YEAR

Tech coaches have praised the athletic ability and ultimate potential of Brandy Huskey since the freshman first stepped onto campus. With a quality setter in front of her in Karlyn Meyers, Tech interim head coach Beth Falls found a way to get Huskey into matches late in the year as a defensive specialist who could also fill outside hitter spots late in sets. The move worked at Baylor as Huskey recorded eight digs, her second-highest total of the year.

BIG 12 HONORS HAYES FOR WORK OFF COURT

Sophomore Aleah Hayes was honored for her work in the community late in the season as Texas Tech's representative on the Big 12 Fall Chick-fil-A Community of Champions list. The conference recognizes one student-athlete from each school during the fall, winter, and spring terms for leadership and involvement in community activities as well as work in the classroom.

THREE RANKED TEAMS CLOSE HOME SCHEDULE

Tech closed its home schedule at the United Spirit Arena with the Big 12's three ranked programs in No. 5 Nebraska, No. 7 Texas, and No. 16 Iowa State. The Red Raiders fell to Nebraska, 3-0, and 3-1 to Texas. Tech closes its home schedule with a 3-1 loss to Iowa State on Wednesday night.

MEYERS EXCELLS AT COLORADO

Karlyn Meyers notched possibly her best match in a Red Raider uniform at Colorado as the junior setter finished with 53 assists to go along with a career-high 23 digs which were almost 10 more than her previous high of 14. The double-double was Meyers' fourth of the season.

RED RAIDERS END ROAD WOES

Tech's 3-2 victory over Colorado was not only its first road win of the season, but also its first conference road win since defeating Kansas, 3-2, on Oct. 28, 2006.

VINCENT, HAYES BOTH POST CAREER HIGHS

Jackie Vincent and Aleah Hayes both added to the career nights of their teammates at Colorado as the senior libero recorded a career-high 21 digs in the match and Hayes added another 12 of her own. Vincent's prior high was 19 set twice this season, while Hayes had previously posted 10 twice during her two seasons, including at Missouri a few weeks ago.

VAUGHAN ADDS TO THE ACTION AS WELL

Not to be forgotten, Tory Vaughan recorded her best dig performance of the season at Colorado, scooping up 12 balls, one shy of her career high set last year at Texas State.

RED RAIDERS TAKE SET AGAINST TEXAS

Tech took a set from Texas for only the fourth time since 2004 last weekend. The Red Raiders overcame an early deficit in the second set to win, 25-20, sending both teams into the intermission with a 1-1 tie. Texas rebounded to win each of the next two sets to close the match, though, but Tech interim head coach praised her team following the match for their determination in staying with the No. 7 Longhorns.

OFFENSE ACCURATE AT MISSOURI

Tech's offense shined in the first two sets against Missouri with a .333 hitting percentage, its highest through two sets this season. The Red Raiders eventually ended with a .222 hitting percentage, fueling interim head coach Beth Falls' message to the team "to finish sets."

TECH DEFENSE SHINES AGAINST HUSKERS

Even in a 3-0 loss, the Red Raiders were able to accomplish one feat no other Tech team has done since 1999 - hold Nebraska to a .240 hitting percentage. The Huskers' most-previous low against Tech was a .169 percentage on Sept. 24, 1999.

MEYERS, DOWDY ADD DOUBLE-DOUBLES

Karlyn Meyers and Amanda Dowdy each recorded double-double performances at Kansas State with Meyers finishing with 32 assists and 13 digs, while Dowdy totaled 21 kills and 12 digs. The double-double was the third of Meyers' career, all of which that have come this season, and the seventh for Dowdy this year and ninth of her career.

BURGESS SPARKS TECH OFF THE BENCH

With Tech needing a boost of energy at Kansas, interim head coach Beth Falls inserted Sheridan Burgess into the rotation and the freshman delivered with a career-high eight kills. Burgess, who can play almost any spot on the floor, added a career-high three blocks in the match.

GANDY PROMOTED TO ASSISTANT COACH

Texas Tech interim head coach Beth Falls filled the program's open coaching slot with the promotion of director of operations Amy Gandy to assistant coach. After ending her four-year playing career at Tech in 2006, Gandy was hired during the 2009 season to handle to business dealings of the program.

YOUNG FINDS SUCCESS AGAIN VERSUS OU

Justine Young has recorded her best two matches in Big 12 play against Oklahoma with nine kills and a season-high eight blocks against the Sooners on Sept. 22 that was followed by her 10 kill, four block performance on Oct. 23.

DOWDY'S NIGHT TO REMEMBER - PART 2

For those who considered Amanda Dowdy's 25-kill performance against Kansas the best of her career, they might have to reconsider their opinion now. Dowdy unleashed a Texas Tech record 37 kills against Colorado while also adding a career-high 20 digs for her eighth career double-double and fifth one of the season. The junior attempted 87 attacks on the night, six shy of the Tech and Big 12 record. The conference record for most kills in a match is 40.

DOWDY TOPS IN THE BIG 12

Amanda Dowdy's 37 kills easily surpassed the previous Big 12 season high of 29 set by Paola Ampudia of Missouri in the Tigers' 3-1 loss to Oklahoma. Through four sets against Colorado, Dowdy had 30 kills before adding seven more in the final frame. Her 87 attempts also easily topped the previous conference high of 73 by Kelsey Black of Texas A&M.

DON'T FORGET MEYERS

With all the individual success in the Kansas and Colorado matches, some may forget about the person who calls all the action - the setter. Karlyn Meyers recorded 48 assists against the Jayhawks and added a career-high 67 assists against the Buffaloes, trumping her previous high of 51 set against Texas State.

ROBERTS PROVIDES AN ADDED SPARK

Alexxa Roberts seems to know the best way to provide a spark. Just over a week after posting a career-high nine blocks in Tech's victory over Kansas, the senior was at it again against Colorado, but this time on the offensive end. Roberts finished with a career-high 14 kills in the match, providing setter Karlyn Meyers another option besides Amanda Dowdy.

NEILL SETS CAREER HIGH AGAINST BUFFALOES

The Red Raiders received a nice boost on the back row from Candice Neill as the sophomore recorded a career-high 16 digs against Colorado. Neill's previous career high was 11 digs set against Baylor.

DEFENSE STEPS UP AGAINST JAYHAWKS

One of the bigger factors behind Tech's victory over Kansas was the Jayhawks .090 hitting percentage, the lowest for a Tech opponent this season. Tech led the match in practically every statistical category, including a 30-16 advantage in blocks. The Red Raiders kept the Jayhawks on their heels with nine service aces in the match, four more than their previous season high set against Texas State.

A NIGHT TO REMEMBER FOR DOWDY

Prior to Tech's match versus Kansas, no one on the Tech staff could definitely say what kind of impact Amanda Dowdy would have. Coming off an ankle injury the match before against Baylor, Dowdy put away any doubt early as the junior posted a double-double in only two sets. The junior finished with a career-high 25 kills to along with 15 digs, while also posting a season-high .283 hitting percentage. The double-double was Dowdy's fourth of the season and seventh of her Tech career.

DOWDY EARNS PRESEASON ALL-BIG 12 HONORS

One of the more versatile players in the country, Amanda Dowdy earned Preseason All-Big 12 accolades prior to the season in a vote of the conference coaches. Dowdy recorded 316 kills and 177 digs a year ago while splitting time between outside hitter and middle blocker.

YOUNG EARNS PRESEASON RECOGNITION

After a highly successful two-year career at Des Moines Area Community College, Justine Young transferred to Tech in the fall and immediately earned recognition by the conference coaches as she was named the Big 12 Preseason Newcomer of the Year. Young was one of the top middle blockers in the junior college ranks.

VINCENT NAMED TO SMU TOURNAMENT TEAM

Jackie Vincent might have had one of her best performance in a Tech uniform at the SMU Tournament as the senior libero posted a career-high 19 digs in Tech's win over Texas State. Vincent was named to the all-tournament team following the match.

DOWDY NAMED TO ALL-TOURNAMENT TEAM

Following her stellar performance at the Rice Invitational, junior Amanda Dowdy was named to the all-tournament team by Rice officials. Dowdy led all Tech players with 38 kills, while adding 24 digs.

MEYERS, DOWDY NAMED TEAM CAPTAINS

Junior Karlyn Meyers and Amanda Dowdy were named team captains for the 2010 season prior to the year in a vote by their teammates.

Interim Head Coach Beth Falls

5th Season • SMU '05

Beth Falls was named the interim head coach of the Texas Tech volleyball program on Oct. 25, 2010, after nearly five seasons as an assistant coach.

The seventh Tech head coach in the AIAW/NCAA era, Falls had previously been an assistant coach under Trish Knight since the start of the 2009 season after working under Nancy Todd during the 2006-08 seasons.

Known as one of the top assistant coaches in the country, Falls has assisted in all aspects of the program, including recruiting, scouting, and game-planning. On top of her duties with the Red Raiders, Falls is heavily involved as a coach and clinician in the Lubbock club volleyball scene.

Falls entered the coaching profession after a successful playing career at SMU. An outside hitter for the Mustangs from 2001-04, Falls finished among the all-time SMU greats as she currently ranks third on the career kills and points lists and second for career attacks. She was named to the All-WAC team three times and earned first team honors her senior season.

Her senior year was particularly memorable as she averaged 4.62 kills per set, which is the third-highest figure in SMU single-season history. Falls ended the year ranked 40th in the nation in kills per set and was also named to the SMU Invitational and Fremont Investment and Loan Invitation all-tournament teams.

Falls graduated from SMU in 2005 with a degree in business management and a minor in psychology. Following her college career, Falls played professionally in France for Lyon Saint Fons Volley from August 2005 to May 2006.

Prior to joining the Mustangs, Falls starred at Caldwell High School where she led the Hornets to two Texas state titles and picked up state tournament MVP honors her senior year. The University Interscholastic league honored Falls, who was then Beth Karasek, on its all-decade team last May. Falls' sister, Jane Anne Giese, is currently the head volleyball coach for Caldwell High School.

Falls and her husband Jeremy reside just outside of Lubbock in Ropesville.

11 AMANDA DOWDY6-3 • Junior • OH/MB
Lexington, Texas (Lexington HS)

2010 (Junior): Continued to be Tech's top offensive weapon in her junior season ... was a Preseason All-Big 12 selection in a vote by the conference coaches ... elected a team captain prior to the season ... joined Jackie Vincent as the only two Tech players to play every set this season ... posted double-digit kills in all but four of Tech's matches ... broke the Texas Tech school record for most kills in a match with 37 against Colorado ... the total surpassed the previous school record of 35 set by Kelly Johnson in 2002 ... also posted a career-high 20 digs in the match for her fifth double-double of the season ... had 87 attempts in the match, six off the Big 12 and Tech records ... both her attempts and kill figures were tops among Big 12 players this season ... even with the amount of swings, still managed to finish with a .287 hitting percentage ... was coming off another solid performance in Tech's most-previous home match against Kansas ... finished with 25 kills and 15 digs in the match to lead Tech to a 3-2 victory ... a gutsy performance that came only days after injuring her ankle in Tech's loss to Baylor ... her three other double-doubles have come against Texas State, Northeastern, and Oklahoma ... also recorded a season-high .314 hitting percentage against Texas State ... added her seventh double-double of the season at Kansas State with 21 kills and 12 digs ... recorded another double-double a week later at Missouri with 21 kills and 11 digs ... came close to adding another double-double against Texas, connecting on 12 kills with nine digs ... recorded ninth double-double of the year at Colorado with 34 kills and 14 digs ... moved over the 1,000 career kill mark against the Buffaloes ... added 10th double-double of the season with 13 kills and 11 digs against Iowa State ... finished second in the Big 12 in kills per set and fourth for points per set ... second in the conference in kills per set for conference matches only ... third in points per set in Big 12 matches ... had at least 30 swings in all but three matches ... surpassed her career high for kills, attempts, and digs in a season ... will enter 2011 fifth on the school's career chart for kills and sixth for career attempts ... finished sixth for single-season attempts and 10th in kills in the Tech record book ... Acadedemic All-Big 12 first team ... All-Big 12 first team selection ... was Tech's first team selection since 2002.

13 AUBREE PIPER

6-1 • Freshman • MB/OH

Amarillo, Texas (Randall)

2010 (Freshman): A true offensive threat in only her freshman season ... third on the team in total kills and attempts ... posted these numbers despite missing the first three matches of the season due to a pre-season leg injury ... appeared in 26 matches with 14 starts ... shined in only her second collegiate match against UC Davis, nailing seven kills off 12 attempts and one error for a season-high .500 hitting percentage ... continued the trend the following day against Texas State with seven kills also ... hit double-digits for the first time against Northeastern, dropping 10 kills while adding a season-high eight blocks ... approached double-digits against Baylor but ended the night with nine kills ... posted 11 kills the following match against Kansas ... also finished with a .400 hitting percentage against the Jayhawks to go along with five blocks ... recorded a season-high 13 kills against Colorado ... posted 10 kills against Texas off 30 attempts, which matched her season high ... finished the year with eight kills at Baylor ... started in all but five matches in Big 12 play.
