HUSKERS START DIFFICULT TWO-GAME ROAD SWING

Nebraska extends its run against nationally ranked teams to four straight this weekend when it heads South to take on No. 14/14 Texas on Saturday, Feb. 13. The Huskers and Longhorns will tip off at 3:01 p.m. in a game seen in select markets around the country on the Big 12 Network, and nationally on ESPN FullCourt. Dave Armstrong (play by play) and Reid Gettys (analyst) will call the action.

The game, which will be the first of two straight road contests at top-15 opponents (also at No. 9 KSU next Wednesday), will be streamed live on the Internet at ESPN360.com and can be heard live around the state of Nebraska on the IMG Husker Sports Radio Network (Kent Pavelka, play by play; Matt Davison, color). The audio and live stats will be available for free the Internet at Huskers.com.

The Huskers are looking to break back into the win column when they face the talented Longhorns after dropping each of their last three contests, all against ranked squads. Nebraska has played well in each of its last two contests, leading No. 1 Kansas on the road with less than 16 minutes to play and holding a three-point lead in the final two minutes Wednesday before seeing Baylor score the final five points of the game.

A close contest could be on tap in Austin again as the Huskers and Longhorns have played tightly contested battles since coach Doc Sadler has taken over the NU program. Each of the past three matchups have been decided by four or fewer points, with NU owning a 1-2 record including a 58-55 win over No. 16 Texas last year.

Nebraska will need its Big 12-leading scoring defense to be at its best for a second straight game after holding Baylor, one of the nation's top scoring teams, to a season-low 55 points on Wednesday. The Huskers have allowed just 61.3 points per game this year and lead league-only games with 66.4 points per contest, including allowing the fewest field goals and field-goal attempts in conference play.

While it will need its starters to pick up the pace compared to Wednesday's results, Nebraska has seen solid production from the bench, which ranks third in the league in scoring at 27.2 ppg. Sophomore Myles Holley, who had just 15 points in Big 12 play entering Wednesday's contest, led the Huskers with 11 points against the Bears. He provided a boost of energy on both ends and gave a pair of highlight reel plays that showcased his athleticism and explosive leaping ability.

BY THE NUMBERS

2003

Nebraska enters the weekend with a 1-8 record in league play. The only other time in the Big 12 era that NU has started with just one win its first nine contests was 2003 when Nebraska started 1-11 before going 2-2 over the final four games to finish 3-13 in Big 12 action. The following season, NU went 18-13 and won two games in the NIT.

41.1

Nebraska's freshman class has been productive this season as it has accounted for 41.1 percent of the Huskers' scoring load. The NU freshmen have posted 648 of Nebraska's 1,578 points this season. Center Jorge Brian Diaz leads the way with about one-third of the freshman total with 214 points.

HUSKER QUICK SHOTS

» Nebraska leads the Big 12 in scoring defense during league-only games at 66.4 ppg, but is last in scoring offense at 58.7 ppg.

» Nebraska is hitting 39.4 percent from 3-point range, a total that is on pace to set the NU single-season record.

» The Huskers tied the school record with just three turnovers against No. 24 Baylor, including only one in the first half. It was the second time a Doc Sadler-led Husker squad tied the mark.

» Senior guard Ryan Anderson reached the 1,000-point barrier as he has now has 1,010 career points in 114 games (8.8 ppg). He reached the milestone with 12 points at No. 1 Kansas on 4-of-5 shooting from 3-point range. He also reached the 500-rebound plateau on Jan. 16 when he had eight boards against Iowa State (currently 528) and crossed the 200-assist plateau at Colorado (currently 208).

» Anderson became the second player in Nebraska history with at least 1,000 points, 500 rebounds, 150 3-pointers, 150 assists and 150 steals in a career. The only Husker to reach at that level was Erick Strickland, who went on to a nine-year career in the NBA.

» Anderson is tied for first in the Big 12 Conference with 1.9 steals per game this season and is tied for sixth in league-only games with 1.6 spg. Anderson, who has six games this year with at least four steals, now has 156 career steals to rank sixth in NU history. He needs three more to move into fifth place.

» Junior guard Lance Jeter has averaged 5.0 rebounds per game over the past seven contests, including twice tying his career high with seven boards. He also had six rebounds in two more games during that stretch.

» Nebraska has had four different scholarship freshmen in the starting lineup in a game this season, and six scholarship freshmen have played in games overall. Three freshmen - Jorge Brian Diaz, Brandon Ubel and Eshaunte Jones - have each started at least one game in Big 12 play this year.

» NU had three scholarship freshmen in the same starting lineup against BYU when Jorge Brian Diaz, Brandon Ubel and Ray Gallegos earned the nod. Eshaunte Jones has also started twice this year.

» The scholarship freshman class has accounted for 39 games started (of 120 total) this season, while adding 648 of the team's 1,578 points, or 40.8 percent of the scoring.

» Redshirt freshman Jorge Brian Diaz had 22 points off the bench against TCU, becoming the 21st Husker freshman ever to record a 20-point contest. He was only the seventh Husker with multiple 20-point games when he posted 20 points on 9-of-17 shooting at No. 1 Kansas on Feb. 6.

» Redshirt freshman Eshaunte Jones joined Diaz in the rookie group as he became the 22nd Husker frosh with a 20-point game when he posted 21 points, including five 3-pointers, against BYU.

» Diaz is the top freshman in the league in blocked shots with 33 and ranks eighth in the Big 12 Conference. He needs six blocks to tie the Nebraska freshman record.

SERIES HISTORY VS. TEXAS

Nebraska and Texas are meeting for only the 21st time in history, the second-shortest series for the Huskers against a current conference opponent. The only series that has seen fewer games has been Nebraska vs. Texas A&M, which stands at 18 games after the teams faced off in the Big 12 Conference opener in the beginning of January.

» Texas leads the series by an overall mark of 15-5, including an 11-3 mark since the formation of the Big 12 Conference.

» Texas has won seven of the past eight matchups, including seven straight before last year's 58-55 victory by Nebraska in Lincoln.

» Nebraska's victory over No. 16 Texas was the Huskers' lone win over a ranked squad last season, extending their streak to nine straight seasons with a win over a ranked team. Overall, it was the third win for NU over a ranked Longhorn squad, as the Huskers also won in 1996 (UT ranked No. 23) and 2001 (UT ranked No. 23).

» The teams have also met once in the postseason as Texas earned a 67-48 victory at home in the 1978 postseason National Invitation Tournament (NIT). The Longhorns went on to win the NIT title that season.

» Texas leads the series 10-0 when playing at home, including a perfect 7-0 record in the Frank Erwin Center. Despite not winning a game there, the Huskers have played well against UT in Austin, as two of the last three contests in the Erwin Center have been decided by four or fewer points.

» NU had the last shot and a chance to win but hit the rim on a last-second 3-point heave before losing by two, 63-61, against No. 18 Texas in 2004. Two years ago, Nebraska pushed No. 9 Texas to the final seconds before UT held on for a 70-66 win.

SCOUTING THE TEXAS LONGHORNS

Texas comes into the weekend matchup with a No. 14 national ranking but having lost five of its last seven contests in league action after opening the season with 17 straight wins to ascend to the No. 1 spot in the rankings for the first time in school history. UT has lost two straight after falling at Oklahoma last weekend, 80-71, and then dropping a Big Monday contest against current No. 1 Kansas at home, 80-68.

The Longhorns started the game against KU on a strong note and held a 14-8 lead before the Jayhawks rolled off a 22-0 run to break the game open. UT fought back in the second half but could not overcome the deficit as it dropped just its second home contest this season. The other loss was an 80-77 setback against the Huskers' opponent earlier this week, Baylor.

Against the Jayhawks, J'Covan Brown came off the bench to score a game-high 28 points on 9-of-19 shooting while Big 12 Player-of-the-Year candidate Damion James posted 24 points, 10 rebounds and five blocked shots. UT shot just 37.3 percent from the field and was outrebounded 45-34 while also committing 17 turnovers.

James leads the Longhorns this season with 18.0 points per game including an impressive 19.6 points per contest in Big 12 play. He has hit 50.2 percent from the floor this season and has gotten to the free throw line a team-high 161 times (made 105, 65.2 percent). In comparison, Nebraska does not have a player with more than 66 free throw attempts this season. James also leads the team with 10.9 rebounds per game (11.6 rpg in league play) and 39 steals, one of three Longhorns with at least 30 steals.

Avery Bradley (12.1 ppg), Dexter Pittman (11.1 ppg) and Brown (10.2 ppg) have averaged double figures this season, although only Bradley (14.0 ppg) has averaged double figures with James in league action. As a team, UT has averaged 78.9 points per game in Big 12 play while allowing 76.7 points per contest. The Longhorns have gotten to the free throw line 234 times against Big 12 teams but have hit only 59.4 percent while league opponents have connected on 70.7 percent.

The Longhorns are coached by Rick Barnes (Lenoir-Rhyne, 1977). He owns a 289-110 record in 12 years at Texas and is 491-244 in his 23rd year as a head coach.

RECENT MEETINGS – NEBRASKA AND TEXAS

Texas has dominated the series, winning seven of the past eight matchups, and holds a 15-5 series lead overall. Despite the large series advantage, the teams have played tight contests on several occasions, including each of the three seasons with coach Doc Sadler on the sideline. NU is 1-2 in those contests, and the three games have been decided by a total of eight points.

▶▶ Last year in Lincoln, Nebraska made a furious rally from a 12-point second-half deficit to defeat the No. 16/17 Texas Longhorns 58-55. Ade Dagunduro scored 17 points and grabbed a career-high nine rebounds against one of the tallest lineups in the Big 12 to spark the Huskers to their third straight conference win and lone win over a ranked opponent on the season.

Trailing 34-22 with 17:21 to play and Texas firing on all cylinders, Nebraska slowly began chipping away at the Longhorn lead. The Huskers reeled off eight straight points in a span of 3:35 to pull within 34-30. Texas pushed its lead back to double digits at 42-32 with an A.J. Abrams 3-pointer with 10:57 to play.

While Texas looked to have taken control of the game at that point, NU refused to give up. Five straight Husker free throws cut the Longhorn lead in half, and after a Damion James 3-pointer, Nebraska connected on four more free throws to make the Longhorn lead just 45-41 with 8:29 left.

Back-to-back baskets gave NU its first lead since the 2:35 mark of the first half. Dagunduro then hit a jumper to put NU up 48-45 and cap an 11-0 Husker run. Texas reclaimed the lead at 50-48 with 2:57 to play on a put-back dunk by Gary Johnson. Sek Henry then hit his only field goal of the game, a long-range 3-pointer as the shot clock expired to put NU up by a point.

The teams traded jumpers and it looked to go down to the wire but Dagunduro gave NU a little breathing room with a huge shot. He hit his only 3-point attempt of the game with 51 seconds left to give NU a four-point advantage. It was only his second 3-pointer in league play.

A.J. Abrams answered with a 3-pointer of his own with 38 seconds to play to pull UT back within one. Dagunduro hit one-of-two free throws to make it 57-55 with 30 seconds left and NU then came up with a key stop before Henry was fouled on the rebound. Henry hit one free throw to make it 58-55, and Justin Mason missed a 3-point attempt as time expired, giving NU its third straight victory.

▶▶ Two years ago in Austin, Nebraska erased a 17-point, second-half deficit and had the game tied with less than 60 seconds to play, but Texas' A.J. Abrams hit a huge 3-pointer and added four free throws in the final 23 seconds as the No. 9 Longhorns held on for a 70-66 victory over the visiting Huskers.

The Frank Erwin Center crowd saw a double-figure UT lead at the intermission quickly disappear as the Huskers came out in the second half as the aggressors and pushed the Longhorns to the brink of just their second home loss of the season. But behind Abrams' clutch shots and D.J. Augustin's strong play, Texas shot 53.8 percent from the floor in the opening frame and set the tone.

Augustin and Damion James each poured in 14 points before the break. Nebraska trailed 38-25 at halftime and fell behind by 16 just seconds into the second period. After a Nebraska free throw, James scored his only basket of the second period as UT took a 17-point lead, 43-26. But Nebraska would not go away, hounding the Longhorns on the defensive end while shots started to fall on offense. Nebraska hit 50.0 percent from the floor in the second half with the primary point of attack coming from beyond the arc where NU hit 6-of-10 3-point attempts in the second frame to climb back into the game.

After trailing by 17 points, Ade Dagunduro and Steve Harley made layups on consecutive possessions sandwiched around a UT turnover before the long ball started to really fall. Ryan Anderson's 3-pointer at the 17:58 mark started the barrage, with Paul Velander and Harley each adding treys over the next three minutes to pull Nebraska within six.

After Abrams hit a jumper to push the Texas lead back to eight, Aleks Maric added a dunk and Velander dropped in his third 3-pointer of the game to get NU back within three. Sek Henry's layup with 9:39 to play finally pulled Nebraska even at 50-50. With the score tied, UT drilled a pair of 3-pointers and eventually pushed the lead back to seven, 61-54, with 4:45 to play. The Huskers then made three straight defensive stops and scored on the other end with Anderson drilling a 3-pointer and Maric adding a pair of baskets to knot the score at 61-61 with 1:39 to play.

Abrams' 3-pointer from the right wing put Texas ahead 64-61 with 41 seconds remaining. Velander missed on his 3-point attempt to tie and the Huskers were forced to foul. After two free throws, Henry again made things interesting with a long 3-pointer from the top of the key, pulling NU back within two with 18 seconds to play. But Texas knocked down its last four attempts at the charity stripe to seal the victory.

COACHING STATS

Last year's Jack Moore Award winner as team MVP, Paul Velander recorded 26 of the team's 53 charges taken in 2008-09, a total that easily would have led the nation if it was officially tracked by the NCAA. In tribute to his hard work and effort, the Nebraska coaching staff will track charges and floor burns this season and post the results for every game on the Paul Velander Board in the Husker locker room.

CHART CLIMBING

Senior guard Ryan Anderson is already assured of a spot in the Nebraska record books as he entered the season among the most accurate and most prolific long-distance threats in school history.

In his final season, Anderson owns 163 career 3-pointers to rank sixth in school history. Anderson is not only among the top 10 in made treys, but he is among the most accurate as he ranks ninth all-time by hitting 38.1 percent (163-of-428) in his career.

» In addition to his long-range exploits, Anderson has also climbed into the Nebraska career top 10 for steals this season. A Big 12 All-Defense Team member last season by the sportswriters, Anderson has 156 steals to rank seventh at NU.

» Anderson became the 25th Husker in program history to reach 1,000 career points with 12 points at No. 1/1 Kansas on Feb. 6. He reached the 500-rebound plateau with eight boards against Iowa State on Jan. 16.

RANKINGS GAME

Nebraska has had plenty of chances over the past two weeks but has come up short as it tries to extend a streak of knocking off ranked teams to 10 straight seasons. The Huskers have played three straight games against opponents that were ranked among the national top 25 in the Associated Press poll, and will extend that streak to five straight games with matchups against No. 14 Texas and No. 9 Kansas State.

» The Huskers have beaten at least one ranked team in each of the past nine seasons since the 2000-01 campaign. Since the start of the streak, Nebraska is 13-43 against ranked teams, including 3-29 against top-15 squads. Nebraska is 8-9 against teams ranked between Nos. 20 and 25 during the streak, and 2-5 against teams from Nos. 16-19.

» The current stretch of five straight games against ranked teams - vs. No. 10 Kansas State (lost), at No. 1 Kansas (lost), vs. No. 24 Baylor (lost), at No. 14 Texas on Saturday, and next week at (currently) No. 9 Kansas State - will be Nebraska's longest stretch of consecutive games (5) against ranked teams in school history.

» The Huskers have previously faced four consecutive ranked squads on four separate occasions, but have never faced five straight. Nebraska's best mark in a four-game stretch vs. AP ranked teams was 2-2 in 1991-92. NU also went 1-3 in 1994-95 and 1996-97, and was 0-4 in 1999-2000.

» Overall, Nebraska is 5-15 against ranked squads under coach Doc Sadler with one victory last season, a 58-55 home win over No. 16 Texas.

» The Huskers own a 55-208 all-time record against ranked teams, including a 19-110 mark against teams ranked in the top 10 and an 11-63 mark against top-five squads. The Huskers are 19-63 against ranked teams in the Big 12 era, including 2-30 against top-10 teams and 1-19 against top-five squads.

» Nebraska has won at least two games against ranked teams in two of the past five seasons, and the three wins in 2007-08 against ranked teams were the most for the Huskers since going 4-1 in 1998-99.

» The Cornhuskers' last win over a top-five team came in 2005, when the Huskers defeated No. 4 Oklahoma State, 74-67, at the Devaney Center. That was NU's first win against a top-five team since the 1994 Big Eight Tournament, when the Huskers knocked off No. 3 Missouri, and the first home win over a top-five team since 1993, when the Huskers beat No. 3 Kansas.

» Nebraska has played a top-three ranked team 11 times (0-11 record) in the Big 12 era, with all of the matchups coming against Kansas. In the Big 12 era, Nebraska is 0-5 against KU when the Jayhawks are ranked No. 1, 0-3 when ranked No. 2 and 0-3 when ranked No. 3. Two of those 10 games were decided by one field goal (once at home, 2002; once in Lawrence, 2005).

DIAZ RANKING AMONG TOP NU FRESHMAN POST PLAYERS

Redshirt freshman center Jorge Brian Diaz has become more comfortable with his role in the Nebraska offensive attack over the past month and the results have been positive for the Huskers.

» Diaz has posted five double-figure scoring games in league action, including three of the past four contests. He is averaging 12.3 points per game over the last four contests while hitting 22-of-46 shots from the field and pulling down 5.0 rebounds per game in that span.

» With his recent surge, Diaz has improved his season scoring average to 8.9 points per game to rank second on the team. In league action, Diaz has scored a team-high 9.6 points per game.

» Here is a breakdown of Diaz's season stats compared with those of a few other notable Husker freshman post players. Diaz ranks favorably in several categories against the other top freshman post players in NU history, including the school's all-time scoring leader (Dave Hoppen) and three others who went on to rank among the top 15 scorers all-time at Nebraska (Andre Smith, Aleks Maric and Venson Hamilton):

ANDERSON REACHES 1,000-POINT CLUB

Senior guard Ryan Anderson joined Nebraska's 1,000-point club when he posted his first basket of the day against No. 1 Kansas at Allen Fieldhouse on Feb. 6. Anderson joined one of the Huskers' elite fraternities as he became only the 25th Husker ever to cross the 1,000-point barrier

▶▶ Anderson is first Husker to join the 1,000-point club at Nebraska since Aleks Maric did it his junior year in 2006-07. Overall, Anderson is only the sixth Husker to reach the mark while playing in the Big 12 era, including just the fourth to play his whole career after the formation of the conference. The other Huskers to cross the plateau while playing against current Big 12 Conference teams include:

- Aleks Maric (No. 5 all-time, 1,630 points, 2005-08)
- Tyronn Lue (No. 8, 1,577 points, 1996-98)
- Cookie Belcher (No. 9, 1,552 points, 1997-2001)
- Venson Hamilton (No. 11, 1,416, 1996-99)
- Cary Cochran (No. 23, 1,082, 1999-2002)

▶▶ During his career, Anderson has posted 283 points (10.1 ppg) as a freshman, 278 points (8.4 ppg) as a sophomore, 213 points (7.1 ppg) as a junior and has 236 points (10.3 ppg) so far as a senior.

VERSATILE ANDERSON IN ELITE COMPANY

Even before Ryan Anderson joined the 1,000-point club at No. 1 Kansas on Feb. 6, he was already among an elite list with some of his on-court accomplishments over the past three-plus seasons.

▶▶ With his 12 points at No. 1 Kansas on Feb. 6, Anderson became one the ninth player in the Big 12 era – and second of three this season – to surpass 1,000 points, 500 rebounds and 150 3-pointers in a career. He is the first Cornhusker in the Big 12 era to do it and will be just the third Husker ever, joining Eric Piatkowski and Erick Strickland. The other players to play solely in the Big 12 era and reach those three marks are (as of Feb. 12):

- Tony Crocker (Oklahoma, 2007-present): 1,268 points, 505 rebounds, 190 3-pointers
- Ryan Anderson (Nebraska, 2007-present): 1,010 points, 528 rebounds, 163 3-pointers
- Obi Muonelo (Oklahoma State, 2007-present): 1,226 points, 547 rebounds, 213 3-pointers
- Terrel Harris (Oklahoma State, 2005-09): 1,319 points, 512 rebounds, 153 3-pointers
- Josh Carter (Texas A&M, 2005-09): 1,566 points, 509 rebounds, 299 3-pointers
- Brandon Rush (Kansas, 2006-08): 1,477 points, 602 rebounds, 205 3-pointers
- Richard Roby (Colorado, 2004-08): 2,001 points, 659 rebounds, 214 3-pointers
- Cartier Martin (Kansas State, 2003-07): 1,546 points, 540 rebounds, 178 3-pointers
- Rickey Paulding (Missouri, 2000-04): 1,673 points, 526 rebounds, 191 3-pointers
- Kirk Hinrich (Kansas, 2000-03): 1,753 points, 532 rebounds, 236 3-pointers

▶▶ Last year Anderson became just the seventh Husker to record at least 100 3-pointers, 100 assists and 100 steals in a career. Among that short list are Eric Piatkowski, Tyronn Lue, Erick Strickland, Cookie Belcher, Cary Cochran and Jaron Boone, along with Anderson. For his career, Anderson now has 163 3-pointers, 156 steals and 208 assists. With his five steals against Iowa State on Jan. 16, Anderson joined Strickland as the only two Huskers ever with at least 150 in each of those three categories.

▶▶ Anderson reached the 500-rebound mark when he posted a team-high eight boards against Iowa State on Jan. 16. The 6-4 Anderson will not reach the NU career top 10 (10th place is 679 boards by Rex Ekwall in 1955-57), but to his credit, Anderson has battled and persevered at the 4 spot each year despite giving up 6-8 inches and 50-80 pounds to most Big 12 opponents and still has moved his way into all-time top 25 rebounders at Nebraska. His 528 rebounds are currently No. 19 on the list.

▶▶ Anderson crossed the 200-assist plateau with three assists at Colorado this season. He now has 208 assists in his career to rank No. 22 on the Husker all-time list.

▶▶ With at least 40 steals in each of his final three seasons, including 43 steals and counting this year, Anderson has climbed

RECAPPING NU VS. NO. 24 BU

Lincoln, Neb. --- The Nebraska men's basketball team put up a valiant defensive effort and got a huge performance from its bench, but it wasn't enough as the 24th-ranked Baylor Bears held off the Huskers, 55-53, Wednesday night at the Bob Devaney Sports Center.

NU led 53-52 with under a minute to play, but Baylor center Ekpe Udoh hit a jumper in the lane with just under 26 seconds left to give Baylor a 54-53 lead. After NU's Lance Jeter misfired on a 3-pointer, Quincy Acy extended the Bears' lead to 55-53 with a free throw with nine seconds left. Jeter and Brandon Richardson also each had a look at a 3-pointer in the final 12 seconds, but Acy rejected Jeter's final shot - one of Baylor's nine blocked shots on the night - sending the Huskers to their third straight loss and second straight at home.

With the win, Baylor improved to 5-4 in Big 12 play and 18-5 overall. The 53 points was a season-low for Baylor, which came into the game averaging 78.6 points per game in conference play, good for third in the Big 12. NU dropped to 1-8 in Big 12 play, and 13-11 overall.

Myles Holley led NU with a career-high 11 points, and Eshaunte Jones and Richardson each had 10 points each, all part of a 37-point effort by Nebraska's bench. LaceDarius Dunn led all scorers with 19 points.

For the game, NU hit a season-low 32 percent from the field. However, the Huskers led for a 16:35 stretch spanning both halves, thanks to a record-setting low of three turnovers in the game, two of which came on offensive fouls. The mark tied the school record set on two previous occasions, including once under coach Doc Sadler.

Postgame notes

▶▶ The loss was just Nebraska's sixth game of the season decided by 10 or fewer points, with the Huskers falling to 3-3 in those contests.

▶▶ The Cornhuskers had just three turnovers in the game, tying the Nebraska school record. The Huskers have had just three turnovers in a contest two other times, including once in 2009 by the coach Doc Sadler-led Huskers.

▶▶ The Huskers held the Bears to just 55 points on the game, Baylor's lowest point total of the season after coming into the game averaging more than 79 points per contest on the season, including 78.6 points per game to rank third in Big 12 play. The previous BU low as 61 points on Nov. 16 against Southern.

▶▶ Baylor's 55 points marked the third time this season NU has held a conference opponent to under 60 points at home. In fact, Nebraska has held 10 of its last 15 Big 12 foes at the Devaney Center to 57 or fewer points.

▶▶ Sophomore Myles Holley posted six first-half points to lead the Huskers and finished with a team-high 11 points on 5-of-11 shooting. He came into the game with just 15 points on 6-of-12 shooting in Big 12 play this season.

▶▶ Redshirt freshman Eshuante Jones had 10 points on the night after posting 11 points in his last five games played. He was 2-of-5 from 3-point range and moved into a tie for sixth on the NU freshman 3-point chart. He now has 35 treys this season to match the freshman output of Jake Muhleisen in 2002.

FRESH FACES

Nebraska had an inexperienced roster entering 2009-10, as the Huskers returned only four scholarship players from last season's 18-win campaign. Among the veterans on the squad are seniors Ryan Anderson and Sek Henry, along with sophomore Brandon Richardson. Sophomore Toney McCray also returned, but played just three games before sitting out the rest of the season with an injury.

When Nebraska hit the court for its season opener, it had two freshmen – forward Brandon Ubel (true frosh) and center Jorge Brian Diaz (redshirt frosh) – in the starting lineup, marking the second time in coach Doc Sadler's tenure that NU had two freshman start a season opener. The last time that happened was Sadler's first year at Nebraska when Anderson and Henry opened in the starting lineup.

» Ubel and Diaz were the seventh and eighth freshmen to start a season opener for Nebraska in the Big 12 era. However, they were only the second and third freshmen who stood over 6-4 to start for the Huskers in a season opener during that span, joining 6-11 Brian Conklin in 2000-01. The full list of Nebraska's frosh starters in a season opener since 1996-97 includes:

- Jorge Brian Diaz, 6-11, C, 2009-10
- Brandon Ubel, 6-10, F, 2009-10
- Cookie Miller, 5-7, PG, 2007-08
- Sek Henry, 6-3, G, 2006-07
- Ryan Anderson, 6-4, G, 2006-07
- Marcus Walker, 6-2, PG, 2005-06
- Jake Muhleisen, 6-4, PG, 2001-02
- Brian Conklin, 6-11, F, 2000-01
- Cookie Belcher, 6-3, G, 1996-97

» Against UMKC on Nov. 24 this season, another freshman made an appearance in the starting lineup as redshirt freshman Eshaunte Jones earned his first career start. With Ray Gallegos' start against Jackson State on Dec. 19, it marked the first time in the Big 12 era that Nebraska has had four different freshmen start in the same season.

» On Dec. 23 this season against BYU, Nebraska started three freshmen with Diaz, Ubel and Gallegos on the floor for the opening tip. It was the second time in the Big 12 era that NU had three freshmen start in the same contest. On Dec. 23, 2006, in a 70-56 win over Houston in the Rainbow Classic, former Husker Jay-R Strowbridge to make it three freshmen in the same starting lineup as he joined regulars Anderson and Henry to start the game.

» Overall, Nebraska has now had 22 freshmen start games during the Big 12 era. That list includes:

Jorge Brian Diaz, 2009-10 (18 starts); Brandon Ubel, 2009-10 (16); Ray Gallegos, 2009-10 (3); Eshaunte Jones, 2009-10 (2); Toney McCray, 2008-09 (3); Alonzo Edwards, 2008-09 (1); Cookie Miller, 2007-08 (24); Ryan Anderson, 2006-07 (25); Sek Henry, 2006-07 (18); Jay-R Strowbridge, 2006-07 (13); Jamel White, 2005-06 (13); Marcus Walker, 2005-06 (12); Joe McCray, 2004-05 (24); Aleks Maric, 2004-05 (10); Charles Richardson Jr., 2003-04 (10); Jason Dourisseau, 2002-03 (3); Wes Wilkinson, 2002-03 (2); Jake Muhleisen, 2001-02 (27); John Turek, 2001-02 (15); Brian Conklin, 2000-01 (6); Chad Johnson, 1997-98 (10); Cookie Belcher, 1996-97 (33).

among the top 10 in Husker history for career steals. His 156 career steals rank sixth currently and he needs just five more to set a personal season high and reach No. 5 on the list.

RICHARDSON MAKING A CHARGE

Last year, guard Brandon Richardson missed the first four games of league play because of a shoulder injury suffered in the non-conference finale. After he came back, it took him a little while to settle in and start to gain some confidence back on both ends of the court.

This season, Richardson has still had health problems with a bad back that forced him to miss a game as well as having the flu and suffering a thigh bruise all during the first week of league play. Despite the roadblocks, he's quietly slid into a comfort zone and has provided the Huskers a spark, especially when coming off the bench.

» The talented Richardson has been Nebraska's second-leading scoring leader over the last 15 games, including posting a career-best four-game stretch scoring in double figures heading into league play. Overall he has scored double figures eight times in the last 15 games.

» A 2,000-point scorer in high school, Richardson has led the team with 9.9 points per game in the last 15 contests while hitting 48.2 percent (41-of-85) from the floor.

» During that 15-game stretch, Richardson has knocked down 17-of-40 3-point attempts (42.5 percent) and 39-of-46 tries (84.8 percent) at the charity stripe. He also has 22 assists while adding 13 steals, all while playing just 23.4 minutes of action per game.

» Richardson set a career high with 18 points to lead Nebraska in a 12-point loss against No. 3 Kansas on Jan. 13. Despite missing the previous two days with the flu which caused him to lose about eight pounds, Richardson hit 5-of-6 shots from the floor, including 3-of-4 from 3-point range, and was 5-of-5 at the free throw line in 21 minutes off the bench.

» Richardson added another strong contest as he helped the Huskers to their first Big 12 Conference win of the season when he had 16 points off the bench in a 63-46 victory over Oklahoma. He hit 6-of-11 shots from the field including 2-of-5 from 3-point range and added three rebounds and two steals in 28 minutes of action.

» While coming off the bench eight times in the past 15 games, Richardson has averaged 10.1 points per game on 50.0 percent (22-of-44) shooting, including 50.0 percent (10-of-20) from 3-point range. He has nailed 27-of-31 (87.1 percent) from the line while coming off the bench in that stretch.

BOARD SUPPORT

Despite struggling on the glass in league play, Nebraska has won the rebounding advantage 11 times this season, including nine times at home. The Huskers are 10-1 in those contests. Senior Ryan Anderson and redshirt freshman Jorge Brian Diaz have led the way for the Huskers this season, averaging 4.7 and 4.2 rebounds per game, respectively.

» Anderson has been a mainstay on the backboards for the Huskers the past four years. While he will not break into the career top 10, the 6-4 Seattle native moved past the 500-rebound plateau on Jan. 16 against Iowa State when he had a team-high eight boards. Anderson became the 24th Husker in history to record at least 500 rebounds, and he has moved into the top 20 all-time as he now has 528 rebounds.

» Anderson posted a career-best and team season-high 14 rebounds to go with 16 points in a win over Oregon State in December. It was his sixth career double-figure rebounding game and his third career double-double.

» In the regular-season opener, Diaz had 11 rebounds to go with nine points in his first career game. He added a second double-figure rebounding game with 12 boards against Chicago State. At the time, Diaz's season high was the most by a Husker since 2007-08.

Nebraska All-Time Rebounds List (min. 500 rebounds)

23. Dapreis Owens, 1989-92.....	505
24. Erick Strickland, 1993-96.....	503

» Diaz narrowly missed his first career double-double when he posted 20 points and nine rebounds against No. 1 Kansas in Lawrence on Feb. 6. It was his highest rebounding total since mid-December.

» Along with Diaz and Anderson, sophomore Myles Holley is the only other Husker with a double-figure rebounding game this year. He had 11 boards and seven points against Southern Utah.

» As a team, Nebraska posted a season-high 41 rebounds against each Chicago State and Jackson State. Overall, the Huskers have recorded at least 35 rebounds in eight games, including two of the past four contests. The total is already two more than last year's season total.

» Nebraska posted a rebounding advantage in two straight games against Colorado and Oklahoma after opening Big 12 play with four straight contests trailing on the glass. NU held a 36-27 advantage on the glass against Oklahoma, when guard Lance Jeter and center Jorge Brian Diaz each led the Huskers with seven rebounds apiece.

MYLES WORTH OF EFFORT

Sophomore Myles Holley has seen limited minutes off the bench this season but has taken full advantage of every opportunity he has received. The highlight of that effort came on Feb. 10 against No. 24 Baylor when he came off the bench to lead the Huskers with 11 points in the narrow, 55-53, loss.

» Holley, a 6-4, 190-pounder who basically plays the 4 spot for the Huskers, came in to effectively help break the strong Baylor zone defense, posting two powerful dunks and hitting three short-range jumpers as he finished 5-of-11 from the field for a career-high 11 points. Holley had scored just 15 points in the first six games he played against Big 12 competition this season.

» Holley also set a career best with 21 minutes played on Wednesday, after playing just 35 minutes in his other six appearances in league action. His previous high was 14 minutes on four occasions in non-conference play. In four of his other six league appearances, he played six or fewer minutes.

» The Norfolk, Va., native showed his typical aggressive play, finishing with one offensive rebound, a blocked shot and a steal, as well as at least one other deflection and took the team's only charge. He's had at least one offensive rebound in four of his seven games played in Big 12 action despite the limited minutes.

» During non-conference play, Holley showed his athleticism as he posted a career-best 11 rebounds (the team's third-best individual total this season) and added seven points on 3-of-4 shooting against Southern Utah.

DIAZ STACKING UP NICELY

Center Jorge Brian Diaz has been fairly strong in the scoring department for a freshman although he is still looking to become more consistent night in and night out in league play. The 6-11, 235-pounder has averaged 8.9 points per game on the season to rank second on the squad and has been one of the top shot blockers in the league this season.

» On the year, Diaz has posted 10 double-figure scoring games, including three of the last four league contests, and has had four other games with between seven and nine points. He is the leading Husker freshman with 214 points this season, and is currently on pace to challenge for a spot on the Nebraska freshman scoring list. Tenth place is Jamel White with 8.7 points per game in 2006.

» In conference play, Diaz has hit 48.2 percent (40-of-83) from the field. He knocked down 12 of his first 17 shots from the field (70.4 percent) over two games before going 6-of-20 from the floor over the next three contests.

» After struggling for three games, Diaz hit 5-of-9 attempts against Oklahoma including a pair of dunks as the Huskers won their first league game of the year. He then came back to add 13 points on 5-of-12 shooting against No. 10/11 Kansas State and 20 points on 9-of-17 shooting at No. 1 Kansas.

» Diaz matched his season high with three blocks vs. Iowa State and now has 10 blocks in nine league games to rank 10th (1.1 bpg) in league-only games while ranking eighth (1.4 bpg) in the overall season stats. He is the highest-ranking freshman on each listing.

» While his scoring numbers continue to climb, Diaz has also been more aggressive on the boards in recent games. His best rebounding effort during league play came with nine boards against No. 1 Kansas in his first-ever trip to Allen Fieldhouse. He also had seven rebounds including two offensive boards while helping the Huskers to their first league win with a 63-46 victory over Oklahoma a week earlier.

HUSKERS ON THE RADIO

The IMG Husker Sports Radio Network is in its 15th year producing and marketing live broadcasts of University of Nebraska football, men's and women's basketball, volleyball, baseball and softball games.

The Husker Sports Network has created a large network of state and national affiliates. All regular-season men's basketball games and any postseason contests will be broadcast on a 32-station basketball network in 2009-10. KFAB (1110 AM) is the Omaha affiliate, KLIN (1400 AM) is the Lincoln affiliate and while KRVN (880 AM) in Lexington also serves as a primary state affiliate. All games can be heard around the world for free on Huskers.com and a great number of Nebraska's games will also be heard live on SIRIUS Satellite again this season.

Veteran radio announcer Kent Pavelka leads the NU men's basketball broadcast in 2009-10, along with former Husker letterwinner Matt Davison. Former Husker Andy Markowski will also fill in as the color analyst for a number of contests. Lane Grindle serves as the host of Sports Nightly, a live daily call-in show. Grindle will also host the Doc Sadler Radio Show on Monday nights throughout the season beginning at 7 p.m.

HUSKERS HEADING TO PUERTO RICO IN 2010

Lincoln (Nov. 19) -- The Nebraska basketball team will get a tough early season test when it plays in the 2010 O'Reilly Auto Parts Puerto Rico Tip-Off tournament next November. The tourney will run Nov. 18-21, 2010, and the Huskers will play three games, with all the tourney contests slated to be carried by ESPN or ESPN360.com.

The 2010 tourney field was announced during the opening games of the 2009 Puerto Rico Tip-Off. Rounding out the talented eight-team field alongside Nebraska next year will be North Carolina, West Virginia, Minnesota, Vanderbilt, Davidson, Western Kentucky and Hofstra. This season, the Tar Heels, Mountaineers and Golden Gophers are all ranked in the national top 25.

"This is going to be a test. With a field like that, you're going to find out real quick what kind of team you have," coach Doc Sadler said. "These early season tournaments are fun for the fans, but it's tough for the team because you have three games in four days and have to make that quick turnaround. Hopefully it will be something good for us with so many young guys coming back."

Nebraska will be playing in its first regular-season tournament since 2006-07 when NU went 2-1 at the Rainbow Classic in Honolulu, Hawaii. The last time the Huskers played in San Juan was the 2000 San Juan Shootout, when NU won three straight games by a total of four points. The Huskers had one-point wins over Iona and Kent State and won by two points over Southern Methodist to take the title. Overall, it will be Nebraska's eighth regular-season tournament away from home during the Big 12 era.

The Huskers currently have 11 scholarship players who are juniors, sophomores or freshmen who will have eligibility remaining after this season. Among those are five freshmen or redshirt freshmen, including center Jorge Brian Diaz, who is from Caguas, Puerto Rico.

RARE ROAD WIN

The Cornhuskers made all the shots when they counted the most, whether at the charity stripe or from the field, as Nebraska defeated one of the favorites in Conference USA, downing Tulsa 74-70 on Dec. 22. The victory was rare, however, as in recent history, it has not been often that Nebraska has grabbed wins away from Lincoln when allowing 70 or more points.

To put it in perspective, the win marked the first time in the coach Doc Sadler era that NU allowed at least 70 points and still won a road/neutral game. In fact, the last time Nebraska won a game away from Lincoln while giving up 70 or more points was a one-point victory at Creighton, 71-70, in the first round of the 2004 National Invitation Tournament (NIT).

Since the start of the Big 12 era in the 1996-97 campaign, Nebraska has now won just eight contests away from home while giving up 70 or more points.

STANDHARDINGER SHOWING FLASHES

After sitting out the non-conference slate, freshman forward Christian Standhardinger jumped right into the action as conference play got started on Jan. 9 at Texas A&M. The 6-8, 210-pounder quickly made his presence felt as he had a team-high 13 points and seven rebounds vs. the Aggies.

» Coming off the bench to provide a lift in energy and effort, Standhardinger has averaged 7.1 points and 3.4 rebounds per game in league play. Of his 27 rebounds, 14 have come on the offensive end.

» Averaging 14.6 minutes per game, Standhardinger has hit just 36.2 percent (17-of-47) from the floor, but he is fourth on the team in scoring as he has gotten to the free throw line in Big 12 play 25 times, hitting 21 charity shots (84.0 percent). He is second on the squad in free throw attempts in league play despite the limited minutes.

» Standhardinger made his career debut just over seven minutes into the A&M game and had five points and three rebounds in the opening period. His 3-pointer in the second half gave Nebraska a 42-40 lead and his free throw less than a minute later gave NU its final lead of the game, 43-42.

» In his second career game, Standhardinger posted eight points on 2-of-7 shooting with two rebounds (both offensive) in 19 minutes off the bench against No. 3 Kansas on Jan. 13. In the rematch, he had eight points with three assists and two steals in 18 minutes in Allen Fieldhouse.

» Standhardinger posted his most efficient game yet at Colorado, when he had 14 points in 12 minutes off the bench although much of that came in the second half when NU was down by double figures late in the game. Showcasing his slashing European style of play, Standhardinger made nine trips to the free throw line in his limited minutes, converting eight attempts, and hit 3-of-5 shots from the floor. He also added four rebounds, including three offensive boards.

» An NCAA amateurism ruling mandated that the freshman forward had to sit out the first 15 games of the season because the club team he played on in his native Germany included a professional. It was the same team that produced fellow Husker Christopher Niemann, who had to sit out all of last season because of the NCAA's ruling at the time. Standhardinger was not allowed to travel with the team, but practiced with the Huskers during the non-conference season.

JETER DOES A LITTLE OF EVERYTHING

Coming into the season, there was some question about who would become Nebraska's floor general as, after last season, two-year starting point guard Cookie Miller decided to transfer and go to school back in his home state of West Virginia. More than half way through Big 12 Conference action, there is no question who that commander is as point guard Lance Jeter has made his presence felt both on and off the court.

» Jeter leads the team with 94 assists and his 3.9 assists per game are 10th in the Big 12 Conference. He has had at least four assists in 10 of the past 15 games.

» In conference play, the 6-3, 225-pound native of Beaver Falls, Pa., is sixth entering the weekend with 3.9 assists per game. He posted a career high in each of his first two career Big 12 games with seven assists at Texas A&M and then eight against No. 3 Kansas at home.

» He also has shown good decision-making as he is fifth in the league this season with a 2.2 assist-to-turnover ratio (94 to 43). Entering the week, Jeter ranked 56th nationally in assist-to-turnover ratio and his assist average placed him 145th in the nation.

» Jeter has had at least five assists in eight games this season, including six straight between Dec. 23 and Jan. 13. The six straight games with at least five assists is the longest streak by a Husker in the Big 12 era, surpassing the five straight games Charles Richardson Jr. had at least five assists in 2006-07.

» While Jeter is not looked at as a primary scoring option, he has shown the ability to get to the basket and provide an offensive spark on occasion. He has posted five double-figure scoring games, including 12 points on 6-of-13 shooting against Iowa State on Jan. 13. Prior to that game, Jeter had scored just 13 points in the previous six games combined while going 4-of-27 from the field.

» Jeter can also be a force on the glass as he has shown the past seven games. While he has had just 19 assists in the last seven contests (2.5 apg), he has posted 35 rebounds (5.0 rpg), setting a career best three times. He posted a then-best six boards against Iowa State and had a team- and career-high seven boards twice, at Missouri and at home against Oklahoma. He also added six boards against Baylor.

HUSKERS HITTING AT RECORD PACE

Although Nebraska struggled early in the league slate, the Cornhuskers are still hitting at a record pace from 3-point range.

» Nebraska has drained 154-of-391 attempts from 3-point range this season, good for 39.4 percent. That average would be a school record if the season ended today as the current mark stands at 38.9 percent by the 2003-04 squad. That team hit 210-of-540 attempts beyond the arc.

» NU has hit at least 50 percent from 3-point range in seven games this season, including three times in Big 12 play. In two home games, the Huskers drained 11-of-21 (52.4 percent) against No. 3 Kansas and 5-of-9 (55.6 percent) against No. 10 Kansas State. NU also did it on the road at Allen Fieldhouse, connecting on 10-of-17 3-point attempts (58.8 percent) against the No. 1 Jayhawks on Feb. 6.

» The strong season mark has come despite hitting less than 30 percent from 3-point range in four of the past seven contests. Nebraska hit a conference-low 19.0 percent (4-of-21) in a two-point loss against No. 24 Baylor. The only game the Huskers shot a lower percentage came in game No. 2 of the season when NU hit just 14.3 percent (1-of-7) from long range at Saint Louis.

» Redshirt freshman Eshaunte Jones is second in the Big 12 Conference on the season by hitting 44.3 percent (35-of-79) from 3-point range this season. His 35 treys are a team high and tie for sixth in the NU freshman record book. He is also 11th in 3-point percentage in league-only games (36.4 percent, 12-of-33).

» Along with Jones, Ryan Anderson (32), Brandon Richardson (21), Sek Henry (20), Lance Jeter (16) and Ray Gallegos (12) have each recorded double figures for 3-pointers this season. The Huskers have 154 treys this year and are currently on pace to finish with at least 202 3-pointers, a total which would rank in the top six in school single-season history. They need 22 more 3-pointers to move into the NU single-season top 10.

TAKING CARE OF THE BALL

Coach Doc Sadler's teams at Nebraska have always been noted for their blue-collar work ethic and their attitude toward having a stalwart defense, but over the past couple years another area has become a trademark of a Sadler-led program: ball security.

Last season, the Cornhuskers ranked 18th nationally and first in the Big 12 Conference in turnovers per game, giving up the ball just 11.5 times per contest. NU was one of only two teams (also Texas) to give up less than 12 turnovers per game in 2009 Big 12 Conference play as the Huskers led the league with just 185 turnovers in league action (11.6 tpg).

» This season, Nebraska is holding on to the ball nearly as well. NU entered the week ranked 48th nationally in turnovers per game, and is currently averaging just 11.8 turnovers per contest despite giving up at least 16 miscues in three of its last five contests.

» Nebraska has averaging 11.8 turnovers per game in Big 12 play. The mark is second in league play as the Huskers are one of only three teams averaging less than 12.0 turnovers per game against conference foes.

» After posting 19 miscues at Kansas on Feb. 6 – its most in league play this year and one off its season high – Nebraska came back in its next game to tie the school record with only three turnovers against Baylor. The Huskers tied the school record after posting one miscue in the first half and two in the second.

» The Huskers have turned the ball over seven or fewer times in five games, and less than 10 times on eight occasions. Nebraska set this year's season low and tied the school record with just three miscues against No. 24 Baylor. NU had one turnover in the first half and two in the second, marking the third time in school history a Husker squad posted three turnovers in a game, and the second time under coach Doc Sadler.

DEFENSE TAKING SHAPE

Coach Doc Sadler's squads have led the Big 12 Conference in scoring defense each of the past two seasons and ranked among the top 25 defenses in the country at the end of those years. This year has been much of the same despite having just three returning scholarship players available from last year's NIT squad.

» Entering the weekend, the Husker defense leads the league in overall scoring defense by allowing 61.3 points per game. Nebraska entered the week ranked 37th nationally in scoring defense after giving up 76 and 75 points, respectively against top-10 opponents Kansas State and Kansas last week.

» In conference-only games, the Huskers are allowing 66.4 points per contest to lead the Big 12. Kansas (68.1 ppg) is second in scoring defense in Big 12 games, while Texas A&M (69.9 ppg) is the only other team allowing less than 70 points per game in Big 12 play.

HUSKERS SIGN 6-11, 315-POUND CENTER FOR 2010-11

Lincoln (Nov. 14) --- Fourth-year coach Doc Sadler added a big recruit for the 2010 signing class as 6-11, 315-pound Andre Almeida signed a National Letter of Intent to attend the University of Nebraska and join the Husker basketball team next fall.

One of the top post players in the junior college ranks last year, Almeida will add to what is expected to be a huge front court for the Huskers next season as Nebraska currently has three freshmen and sophomores who stand at least 6-10.

"Andre is as talented as he is big," Sadler said. "He has good hands and footwork and he knows how to get around in the paint and score. He has tremendous strength, and when you're that big, it's hard to be moved around. Andre will help us when we get into Big 12 play where we're facing great big men every night. He also has a tremendous work ethic and I think Nebraska fans will enjoy seeing him play alongside some of our other younger big guys."

A 2010 NJCAA Division I preseason All-American, Almeida is the fifth international player to sign with the Cornhuskers under Sadler. A native of Sao Paulo, Brazil, Almeida recently played for current Nebraska assistant coach Walter Roese, who served as the head coach of the Brazilian U24 national team that competed in the 2009 World University Games in Belgrade, Serbia, in July. Almeida also played under Roese on the 2006 U18 national team that competed at the Copa America tournament in San Antonio, Texas, qualifying Brazil for the Junior World Cup in Belgrade. Brazil finished in fourth place in the world that year.

During his first season in the United States, Almeida led Arizona Western College to a 26-6 record in 2008-09, including an 18-4 mark in conference action, as AWC finished the year ranked 17th nationally in NJCAA Division I. The Matadors won their fourth regional title in five years before falling in the district finals. Almeida led the way as he averaged 13.8 points over 32 games while ranking first in the nation in field-goal percentage by hitting an outstanding 71.0 percent (184-of-261) from the floor. He also led the league in blocked shots with 3.5 per game (112 total) while adding 7.9 rebounds and 1.6 assists per contest.

After finishing with 11 double-doubles on the year, Almeida was honored as a second-team All-American and a first-team all-conference and all-region selection. He was also named the Arizona Community College Athletic Conference Player of the Year after helping coach Kelly Green and the Matadors to their second straight league regular-season title. Earlier in the season, Almeida was named the NJCAA Division I Player of the Week on Jan. 19 after averaging 20.0 points, 12.0 rebounds and 3.0 blocks per game while hitting 81.0 percent from the field over two games.

NU LOOKING FOR FIFTH POSTSEASON BERTH IN SEVEN YEARS

Despite their lack of experience entering the year, the 2009-10 Huskers will be shooting for the program's fifth postseason berth in seven years and third straight under coach Doc Sadler. Overall, Nebraska's NIT bid at the end of the 2008-09 campaign was the Huskers' 22nd all-time postseason appearance. NU has 16 appearances in the NIT, including the 1996 title, and six berths in the NCAA Tournament, although none since 1998.

SADLER SETTING NEW MARKS

Nebraska coach Doc Sadler has said from the beginning that he hopes to do something at Nebraska that's never been accomplished before: get to the NCAA Tournament and win a game. Since he's been at NU, his record has spoken volumes as he has reached marks never before seen in Lincoln.

Over his first three years, Sadler had more victories than any Husker coach to open a career. Through his first three seasons, Sadler owned a 55-40 mark, two more wins than Moe Iba had in his first three years and four more than Danny Nee. Sadler also had the most wins in the first two years at NU (37) and is the first coach in school history to win at least 17 games in each of his first three years guiding the Cornhuskers.

The Huskers' win over Texas Tech on the road on Jan. 31, 2009, marked Sadler's 50th victory at Nebraska. He was the fourth-fastest coach to reach 50 wins at NU in program history and among the three who reached the mark faster at NU, two of those men coached in Lincoln before World War I.

REACHING HIGHER

According to statistics provided by kenpom.com, Nebraska was the shortest team in Division I basketball (344 teams) last season. The Huskers' active roster in 2008-09 had just two scholarship players who stood at least 6-7, while the average height of the 20 players on the full roster was just over 6-4.

This season, Nebraska has a taller lineup across the board as the average height for all 17 players on the roster is just under 6-5 1/2. NU has five active players available for conference play who stand at least 6-8. The web site kenpom.com lists the Huskers as No. 91 in average height (as of Dec. 22) in 2009-10.

» Earlier in the season, the Huskers had the nation's top-ranked defense as Nebraska entered the Las Vegas Classic on Dec. 22 allowing just 54.1 ppg. The Huskers held the distinction for just one week as they gave up 70 and 88 points, respectively, while splitting games with Tulsa and BYU on a neutral court.

» The magic mark under Sadler seems to be the 60-point plateau. Nebraska now has a sterling 46-6 record under Sadler when holding teams to 60 or fewer points, including an impressive 40-3 mark at home, although two of those losses have come in conference play this season.

» The Huskers have allowed more than 70 points to a conference team just 12 times in 44 games (including the conference championship) since the start of the 2008 Big 12 slate. Six of those contests have been at home and six have been on the road.

» The Huskers held Oklahoma to 46 points in NU's first league win of the season. The total marked the fifth time in coach Doc Sadler's tenure that NU has held a Big 12 opponent to 50 or fewer points, including twice against Oklahoma.

» Nebraska allowed a season-low 39 points to Chicago State, the 10th fewest points given up by a Nebraska squad since 1947. It was the third time a Sadler-led Nebraska team held an opponent to less than 40 points.

BLOCK PARTY

Redshirt freshman Jorge Brian Diaz has made a name for himself on the offensive end with a pair of 20-point contests this season, including a 20-point, nine-rebound effort at Allen Fieldhouse against No. 1 Kansas on Feb. 6. He owns two of the Huskers' four 20-point games this season as he also added 22 points on 9-of-10 shooting against TCU in his third career game. But it is on the defensive end that he is looking like one of the top freshmen in school history.

Diaz, who is the top-ranked freshman in blocks in the league, currently leads NU with 33 blocked shots. His 1.3 blocks per game are 10th in the Big 12 Conference on the season, and his 1.1 bpg in Big 12 play rank eighth.

» Diaz's 33 blocks in 24 games are 15 more than NU's individual high last year (18 by Toney McCray) in 31 games.

» Diaz already ranks third in the Nebraska freshman record book with his 33 blocks. The only two rookies to ever record more are Venson Hamilton (1996) and John Turek (2002), who hold the Nebraska freshman record with 39 blocks each in their initial season.

» Diaz has had a career high with three blocked shots in five contests this season including the Huskers' contest against Iowa State at home, his high in league play.

» As a team, the Huskers own 72 blocked shots this season in 24 games, averaging 3.0 blocks per game. Last year, Nebraska had just 52 blocks in 31 games (1.7 bpg).

BENCH PRODUCTION

The Cornhuskers have spread the scoring around this season with only one player averaging double figures while six other active Huskers are averaging at least 5.0 points per game. Much of that production has come from the bench, as Nebraska has a deeper roster than many recent seasons.

» The Husker bench outscored opponents in each of the first eight games and 18 times overall this season.

» Nebraska posted its top bench production when it got 37 points from the non-starters against No. 24 Baylor. The Husker bench players outscored Baylor's bench 37-7, and NU's bench accounted for 69.8 percent of its scoring. The Huskers also had a tremendous effort from the bench at Colorado, when the bench scored 35 points for 58.3 percent of its 60 points scored against the Buffs.

» The Huskers' production of 37 points against Baylor was one of 15 games when the Huskers had at least 25 points off the bench.

» On the season, Nebraska has gotten 652 points (of 1,578 on the season) from its bench. That's 41.3 percent of the production that has come from outside the starting lineup.

» The 27.2 points per game the Huskers have been getting from the bench are the third-most in the Big 12 Conference this season.

» The most points by a Husker off the bench this year is 22 by Jorge Brian Diaz, who went 9-of-10 against TCU, while Eshaunte Jones added 21 points, including five 3-pointers, in a loss to BYU. Brandon Richardson also had 18 points off the bench against No. 3 Kansas and 16 points against Oklahoma, while Christian Standhardinger had 14 points in 12 minutes off the bench at Colorado.

» Nebraska had three players score in double figures off the bench against No. 24 Baylor. Myles Holley led all Nebraska scorers with 11 points while Eshaunte Jones and Brandon Richardson each had 10 points.

FRESHMAN HIGHLIGHTS

Nebraska has had season-ending injuries to two players – Toney McCray and Christopher Niemann – who could have each earned starting roles this year. Add on to that the fact that seven of Nebraska's 11 active scholarship players are freshmen and sophomores, and it's easy to see why one of the least experienced teams in the Big 12 has had to rely on a number of youngsters in the early portion of the season.

Two of those players – redshirt freshmen Jorge Brian Diaz and Eshaunte Jones – have shown promise as they had performances that stack up among the best in NU freshman history.

» Diaz made his presence felt early and often as the Huskers raced past TCU on Nov. 21 in a 90-77 victory, just one game after he took an elbow to the face and had a pair of front teeth knocked loose and suffered a cut inside his mouth in the opening minute at Saint Louis. The Caguas, Puerto Rico, native set a team season high with 22 points vs. TCU as Nebraska reached the 90-point plateau for the first time since 2006.

» Against TCU, Diaz connected on 9-of-10 shots from the floor, with only a first-half miss keeping him from the NU record book. The Husker single-game record for most field-goals attempted without a miss is nine set on five occasions, including last year by Ade Dagunduro. Diaz's .900 shooting percentage is the third highest single-game mark by a Big 12 player this season.

» Diaz became the first freshman since Sek Henry in 2006 to post a 20-point contest for the Huskers. Henry's outburst that season came one day after Ryan Anderson put his name on the list with 29 points, the second-highest total by a Husker freshman ever.

» Jones followed as he produced 21 points on 6-of-11 shooting in a loss to BYU in the HoopTV Las Vegas Classic. He hit 5-of-7 3-point attempts while adding three rebounds and two assists without a turnover.

» Diaz became just the seventh Husker freshman with multiple 20-point contests as he posted 20 points on 9-of-17 shooting in his first-ever trip to Allen Fieldhouse as the Huskers played at No. 1 Kansas on Feb. 6. He added nine rebounds, two steals and two blocks, helping NU to a four-point lead with less than 16 minutes remaining before the Huskers fell by 11.

» Overall, Diaz and Jones are the 21st and 22nd freshmen to record a 20-point game for the Huskers since freshmen were reinstated by the NCAA for the 1972-73 season. Joe McCray set the record with the most 20-point games by a Husker freshman when he had 10 contests with at least 20 points in 2004-05.

TAKING THE SHOT

With so many new faces on the squad, it was only a matter of time before one of the youngsters was asked to step up and make a game-changing play. At USC on Nov. 29, it was more than just a game-changing play... it was a game-deciding shot.

» Redshirt freshman Eshaunte Jones, playing in his ninth career game, had made just two field goals in the first half and had only been off the bench for a total of five minutes in the second period before being called upon with less than a minute to play in a tie game. Jones didn't hesitate as he buried the game-winning shot from the corner, a 3-pointer with 11.7 seconds remaining. The shot was reviewed at length by the officials who determined it was indeed a 3-pointer. From there, the Huskers defended the perimeter well and USC only managed to get off an off-balance desperation shot at the buzzer.

» Jones finished the USC game with seven points, and his 3-pointer gave the Huskers their first road win of the season, and

RICHARDSON, JONES NAMED TO ALL-TOURNEY TEAM

Las Vegas (Dec. 23) --- Sophomore Brandon Richardson and redshirt freshman Eshaunte Jones were named to the HoopTV Las Vegas Classic All-Tournament team for their play while helping the Cornhuskers to the championship game of the eight-team event.

Nebraska won a pair of games at home over Chicago State and Jackson State as part of the Classic and then defeated Tulsa, 74-70, in Las Vegas to earn a shot at the title. NU fell in the championship matchup, dropping an 88-66 battle against BYU, which has since earned a top-20 national ranking.

During the two games in Las Vegas, Jones led the Husker attack by averaging 16.5 points per game on 62.5 percent (10-of-16) shooting. He scored a career-best 21 points including five 3-pointers in the loss to BYU and had 12 points on four treys against Tulsa as the Huskers earned their second win away from Lincoln this season. He was 9-of-12 (75 percent) from 3-point range in the two games and added 2.0 rebounds and 1.0 assist per game.

Richardson's numbers were more subtle as he played just 19.5 minutes per game, but his defensive effort and intensity on the court helped drive the Huskers to the win over the Golden Hurricane. Richardson averaged 11.0 points per game but his just 4-of-6 shots from the field, including both of his 3-point attempts. Most of his offensive damage came at the free throw line where he knocked down 12-of-14 attempts, including hitting six straight charity shots in the final 18 seconds to ice the victory over Tulsa. He also had five assists against one turnover and a pair of steals.

NU LOOKS FOR DEFENSIVE 3-PEAT

In 2009-10, Nebraska looks to continue its dominance on the defensive end under coach Doc Sadler.

» Each of the past two seasons, the Huskers have led the Big 12 Conference in overall scoring defense and ranked among the national top 25 each season.

» The Huskers' also played well in conference action last year, as NU had the best scoring defense in league-only games for the first time in the Big 12 era.

» Last year, Nebraska allowed just 60.4 points per game to rank 22nd nationally while a year earlier, it gave up 60.7 ppg to rank No. 18 in the nation. Nebraska also led the league in conference-only defense in 2009 by giving up just 62.5 ppg to league teams.

HUSKERS LOOK TO BUILD ON LEAGUE MARK FOR THIRD STRAIGHT SEASON

Heading into Big 12 Conference action, the Huskers had one thing in mind despite facing 16 games in arguably the nation's toughest conference: continuing their upward momentum against Big 12 foes.

» Last year, the Huskers finished with an 8-8 record in Big 12 Conference play, their best mark in a decade and just the third time since the formation of the league that NU has finished at .500 or better. The mark came as the Huskers won each of their last two regular-season games, giving Nebraska its third straight season with an improved league mark. NU had six league wins in 2007 and seven in 2008.

» Only three teams in the Big 12 have improved their win total in league play each of the past three years. That small group includes Nebraska, Oklahoma and Oklahoma State.

» This year, Nebraska will try to do something done only once before in program history as the only other time the Huskers improved their conference win total for four straight years was from 1952 to 1955.

KARN REGAINS YEAR

Walk-on guard Matt Karn recently was informed by the NCAA that he will receive another year of eligibility to complete his playing career in 2010-11. Listed as a senior at the start of this season (his fifth of college eligibility), Karn will now be able to come back next year as part of the Huskers' 2011 senior class, and has accordingly been changed to junior in class.

The Philpot, Ky., native joined the Huskers last season and sat out with a knee injury. It was his fourth season of eligibility after three years at junior college. However, Karn only played on the court one season of junior college ball as he was injured as a true freshman in 2005-06 and then again in his third season (redshirt sophomore, 2007-08) at Shawnee (Ill.) Community College.

In the one year he played at junior college, Karn averaged 17.5 points per game and ranked among the top 50 scorers in NJCAA Division II. He was 19th in the nation in free throw percentage and had eight games with at least four 3-pointers, ranking second in his conference for 3-pointers.

This year, Karn has made it to the court in nine games for the Huskers, and has hit 3-of-5 3-point attempts for nine points.

just the second true road win over a non-conference opponent under fourth-year coach Doc Sadler. It was NU's first road victory over a non-conference BCS team since defeating Tennessee, 62-61, in Knoxville in 2004.

» Jones also led the Huskers in scoring in both games at the HoopTV Las Vegas Classic just before Christmas. He posted 12 points on 4-of-5 shooting, all from 3-point range, to lead the Huskers to a victory over Tulsa, and came back a night later to record a career-best 21 points. He hit 6-of-11 shots from the field with five made baskets from 3-point range (seven attempts).

» Jones is second in the Big 12 in 3-point percentage on the season as he has connected on 44.3 percent (35-of-79) from beyond the arc this year. His 35 3-pointers are sixth on the NU freshman top 10 list.

50 IS THE NEW 60

Nebraska has made it a habit of holding teams to 50 points or less since coach Doc Sadler took over in 2006-07. In the four seasons since Sadler's arrival in Lincoln, the Huskers have held opponents to 50 or fewer points 23 times. In the first 10 years of the Big 12 era before Sadler arrived, Nebraska managed the feat on 26 occasions.

The most times NU has held teams to 50 or fewer points in a season under Sadler is nine times in 2007-08. This season, the Huskers have held seven teams below 50 points. That defensive effort has helped the Huskers allow just 61.3 points per game, an average leads the Big 12 Conference entering the weekend and was 37th nationally entering the week.

» Dating to the 2007-08 season, Nebraska has held 10 of its last 15 Big 12 Conference opponents in the Devaney Center to 57 or fewer points, including four times under 50 points. Two of those four games holding a Big 12 opponent to less than 50 points came against Oklahoma.

» Overall, NU held six teams to 57 or fewer points in Big 12 play last year, including Missouri (51), Kansas State (51), at Colorado (53), Texas (55), Colorado (41) and Texas A&M (57). The Huskers have added three to the list this year as Iowa State posted only 56 points, Oklahoma had just 46 points and Baylor was limited to 55 points, more than 20 points under its season average.

» During Nebraska's three home games between Dec. 10 and Dec. 19, the Huskers held all three teams to 44 or fewer points, including 39 points by Chicago State, 44 by Oregon State and 41 by Jackson State. The 39 points by Chicago State tied for the 10th lowest point total allowed by the Huskers since 1947.

» The last time a Nebraska squad matched a streak of three straight games holding teams to below 45 points was the 1943 season. In fact, the last time the Cornhuskers even held three straight teams to below 50 points was 1958 as NU won three straight games over Colorado (41 points), No. 4 Kansas (41 points) and No. 1 Kansas State (48) as part of a four-game win streak.

NIEMANN, MCCRAY OUT FOR SEASON

After making what looked to be a successful return from a torn ACL suffered in the final week of the regular season last year, 6-10, 265-pound sophomore center Christopher Niemann had a major setback as he tore the same ACL for a second time in the first week of September. After surgery to repair the damage that occurred during a non-basketball conditioning workout, Niemann will be out for all of the 2009-10 campaign.

Niemann is currently making good progress through rehab again, and is on pace to join the team for offseason workouts in late spring. He will have three years remaining on his original eligibility clock to play three seasons with the Huskers.

» Nebraska coach Doc Sadler announced following Nebraska's game against UMKC on Nov. 24 that sophomore guard Toney McCray would have surgery on his elbow and be out for the remainder of the season. McCray injured the elbow in a pickup game in early September, sustaining a torn ligament. McCray tried to play through the pain as doctors assured him that it would get no worse if he waited until after the season to have surgery. But Sadler said that McCray indicated he had little confidence in his elbow and wasn't able to help the team the way he wanted to, and thought it would be better to have surgery now and be ready for the offseason in the spring of 2010.

McCray had successful surgery on Dec. 7 to repair the UCL in his elbow. He started rehab that week and is doing well, as he is on pace to try to join the team in the spring during offseason workouts.

» Both Niemann and McCray were looked at as possible starters heading into the start of the season. McCray averaged 6.3 points and 4.0 rebounds over three games this year, hitting 53.3 percent (8-of-15) from the field. He played 18.3 minutes per game. Niemann has yet to play a game in a Husker uniform.

NEW FACES LINE HUSKER ROSTER

While the Huskers will rely on three returning scholarship players for leadership – seniors Ryan Anderson and Sek Henry, and sophomore Brandon Richardson – most of the eyes will be focused on the faces of several newcomers who dot the inexperienced Nebraska roster.

» Freshman Christian Standhardinger, who was forced to sit out the first 15 games of the season because of an NCAA amateurism ruling, became eligible for the league opener at Texas A&M. He is the eighth scholarship Husker to play his first game for Nebraska this season.

» Including walk-ons Matt Karn and Mike Fox, more than 60 percent (9 of 14 active players; 64.2 percent) of the Huskers who have recorded time during the regular season are playing for the first time in a Nebraska uniform this year. Another Husker – Eshaunte Jones - played only four games last year before an injury forced him to redshirt.

2009-10 Scholarship Breakdown

Seniors: 2 (returnees Sek Henry and Ryan Anderson)

Juniors: 2 (transfers Lance Jeter and Quincy Hankins-Cole)

Sophomores: 4 (returnees Toney McCray, Brandon Richardson and Christopher Niemann*; newcomer Myles Holley)

Redshirt Freshmen: 2 (Eshaunte Jones and Jorge Brian Diaz)

True Freshmen: 3 (Brandon Ubel, Ray Gallegos, Christian Standhardinger)

**sat out last season per NCAA ruling on amateur status; has not played at Nebraska*

YOUTH MOVEMENT

While Nebraska entered the season knowing it will have a number of young players in the lineup on any given night, it did not realize it would have two of the youngest players in their respective classes.

» Freshman Brandon Ubel is the third-youngest player overall in the Big 12 Conference this season. Born on Aug. 29, 1991, only Jaye Crockett of Texas Tech (Oct. 16, 1991) and Tyler Stone of Missouri (Sept. 8, 1991) are younger than Ubel.

» While Ubel is one of the youngest in the league, another Husker is the youngest for his class. Junior college transfer Quincy Hankins-Cole, who graduated high school when he was 16 and played the past two years at Polk (Fla.) CC, will not turn 20 years old until Feb. 18, 2010. The next youngest junior in the Big 12 is Kansas State's Jacob Pullen, who turned 20 on Nov. 10. In fact, Hankins-Cole is three months younger than redshirt-freshman Jorge Brian Diaz, who turned 20 on Nov. 13.

HUSKERS NAMED TO BIG 12 COMMISSIONER'S HONOR ROLL

The Nebraska basketball team had seven current members named to the Big 12 Commissioner's Fall Honor Roll for the first semester of the 2009-10 academic year.

Among the honorees for the fall were: Jorge Brian Diaz, Mike Fox, Quincy Hankins-Cole, Myles Holley, Lance Jeter, Matt Karn and Brandon Ubel. Also earning the honor was former Husker Paul Velandar who was completing his undergraduate degree.

The eight hoops players were part of 359 Nebraska student-athletes who were named to the Big 12 Commissioner's Honor Roll. The honor roll recognizes those student-athletes who achieved a 3.0 or better grade-point average during the fall semester.

NEBRASKA GAME-BY-GAME NOTEBOOK (GAMES 1-8)

GAME 1 VS. USC UPSTATE (NU 76, USC 49)

The Nebraska Cornhuskers opened their 114th season in program history with a solid 76-49 victory over USC Upstate at the Devaney Center. The Huskers and Spartans swapped leads six times in the first half with NU heading into the locker room with a seven-point lead, 31-24, but a 25-2 run early in the second period sealed the Huskers' ninth straight season-opening victory. Nebraska, which hit 54.8 percent from the floor in the second half, started a pair of freshmen in Brandon Ubel and Jorge Brian Diaz, who combined for 21 points, 13 rebounds, three assists and three blocked shots. Another newcomer, junior college transfer Lance Jeter also made his first career start, leading the way with 17 points on 6-of-7 shooting including dropping in all three attempts from 3-point range as NU was 11-of-20 from beyond the arc. He added six assists and two steals. Senior Ryan Anderson also had a solid all-around performance, posting five points, five rebounds, five assists and a career-best six steals, the most steals by a Husker since 2001.

GAME 2 AT SAINT LOUIS (SLU 69, NU 55)

Saint Louis's Kwamain Mitchell scored 20 points, including 15 in the second half when the Billikens' defense held Nebraska to just 33.3 percent shooting, as SLU ran away with a 69-55 victory at Chaifetz Arena in St. Louis. In their first road game of the season, the Huskers fell behind early, but used a late first-half surge to pull within one, 28-27, at the half. NU allowed just one Billiken basket over the final 7:33 of the period before coming out of the locker room with a quick basket that gave Nebraska its only lead of the game, 29-28, less than a minute into the second period. From there, SLU hit four 3-pointers in the next five minutes, including three in a decisive 11-0 run as the Billikens led by double figures the rest of the way. Sek Henry led the Huskers with 14 points while Anderson had 10. Nebraska played all but four minutes without starting center Jorge Brian Diaz, who had a bloodied mouth and loosened teeth less than a minute into the game and did not return until just over eight minutes remained.

GAME 3 VS. TCU (NU 90, TCU 77)

In the highest scoring game in the Doc Sadler era at Nebraska, the Cornhuskers outraced TCU to the finish line, earning a 90-77 victory at the Devaney Center in a game that featured 11 ties and 13 lead changes. The Huskers shot the ball extremely well, hitting 60 percent in the second half and 54.0 percent for the game while reaching the 90-point plateau for the first time since 2006. Redshirt freshman Jorge Brian Diaz, who had two teeth knocked loose at Saint Louis where he played just four minutes three days earlier, came off the bench to hit 9-of-10 shots for a team-high 22 points, leading five Huskers in double figures. Diaz was the first NU freshman with a 20-point game since Sek Henry in 2006. Henry set Diaz up all day long, as he finished with 11 points and 11 assists for the first Husker double-double since Aleks Maric in 2008. Henry missed a triple-double by three rebounds as he added seven boards with three steals and two blocked shots. Brandon Richardson made his first career start and finished with career highs in points (15) and rebounds (4), helping Nebraska outrebound the Horned Frogs 35-24. With the game tied at 67-67 with five minutes to play, the Huskers put the accelerator down as they scored 23 points in the stretch run, including hitting 13-of-15 at the charity stripe in final 3:24.

GAME 4 VS. UMKC (NU 70, UMKC 48)

After a sluggish start, the Nebraska offense picked up and Huskers locked down the defense locked down as NU ran away with a 70-48 victory over UMKC in the Devaney Center. The teams were tied three times in the early going as the Roos forced four early turnovers and had the score within one, 20-19 with less than seven minutes remaining in the first half. But senior Sek Henry's back-to-back 3-pointers within 30 seconds ignited the offense, which went on to hit better than 53 percent for the game. The Huskers used a 21-5 run to end the first half with a 41-24 advantage and pushed the lead out to 28 points before clearing the bench in the final five minutes. Henry led all scorers with 14 points while adding five rebounds and four assists. Point guard Lance Jeter added 12 points on 5-of-6 shooting and Jorge Brian Diaz came off the bench to score double figures for the second straight game, adding 10 points with three blocked shots. The Huskers limited UMKC to 35.3 percent shooting and forced 14 turnovers while committing just seven miscues. Jay Couisnard was the only Kangaroo in double figures with 11 points but he fouled out with more than 11 minutes remaining in the game.

GAME 5 AT USC (NU 51, USC 48)

Redshirt freshman Eshaunte Jones made just one shot in the second half, but it was the biggest one of the game as he drilled a 3-pointer from the corner with 11.7 seconds left in the contest to give Nebraska a 51-48 victory over USC at the Galen Center. Playing in the first game of this year's Big 12/Pac-10 Hardwood Series, the Huskers and Trojans had eight ties and 20 lead changes as Nebraska evened its road record at 1-1 in November. Just two minutes before Jones' shot, the Huskers looked unlikely to capitalize on missed chances, including going just 3-of-11 at the free throw line. But Quincy Hankins-Cole made a strong play on an offensive rebound to record NU's first basket in nearly six minutes to pull the Huskers within one at 46-45. Ryan Anderson then gave the Huskers the lead less than 30 seconds later with a steal out near the top of the key and a layup before converting the traditional three-point play. USC tied the game at 48-all with less than 40 seconds remaining on a Nikola Vucevic putback, setting up Jones' exciting finish. Following a timeout, the Huskers worked the ball around the perimeter and got the clock down to under 15 before Jones got the ball and fired. Following a lengthy review by the officials, the shot was confirmed as a 3-pointer and NU defended the arc for the final 11 seconds before USC's desperation heave at the buzzer went wide. Anderson led all scorers with 14 points on 5-of-9 shooting, including three 3-pointers. He also had four of NU's 11 steals on 17 USC turnovers, while Nebraska committed just seven miscues.

GAME 6 VS. TEXAS-PAN AMERICAN (NU 81, UTPA 53)

Ryan Anderson posted 21 points on 8-of-9 shooting, including 11 points in a three-minute burst in the second half that pushed the Cornhuskers to an 81-53 victory at the Devaney Center. Anderson, a senior guard, led all scorers, although the Husker freshmen made their presence felt, combining for 46 points as the Huskers shot 53.7 percent from the floor, including a building record 75.0 percent (9-of-12) from 3-point range. Freshman Ray Gallegos (3-of-4) and redshirt freshman Eshuante Jones (3-of-3) combined to hit six 3-pointers, including helping the Huskers drain seven straight from downtown at one point. Gallegos finished with 13 points, three more than his first four career games combined, while Jones had 11 points along with 11 from redshirt freshman Jorge Brian Diaz. Anderson also had four steals to move into the Nebraska career top 10. The Huskers led just 40-32 at the intermission and UTPA pulled within five, 45-40, with 17:16 to play before a 22-2 Husker run put the game out of reach. During the six and one-half minute run, Anderson had 11 points, three steals, two rebounds and an assist. Sek Henry led the Huskers on the glass with eight rebounds as Nebraska outrebounded its fifth opponent of the season, 31-26.

GAME 7 AT CREIGHTON (CU 67, NU 61)

Nebraska turned the ball over 20 times while Creighton capitalized on 32 free throw attempts, making 26 as the Bluejays held off the Huskers for a 67-61 victory at the Qwest Center Omaha in front of a crowd of 16,739. The Huskers had 12 first-half miscues but stayed in the game as they shut down the Bluejay offense that came into the contest averaging 25 3-point attempts to open the season. Nebraska's improved perimeter defense harassed the Bluejays who finished 1-of-10 from long range. But Nebraska's struggles holding onto the ball were too much to overcome even while hitting 50.0 percent (24-of-48) from the floor. NU was outrebounded 31-25 and committed a season-high 25 fouls, helping CU to 26 free points. Lance Jeter scored 13 points and Sek Henry had 10, while the bench hit 11-of-13 shot attempts for 26 points. Kenny Lawson Jr. had his first career double-double for Creighton as he posted 25 points and 10 rebounds to help CU snap a three-game losing streak.

GAME 8 CHICAGO STATE (NU 74, CSU 39)

Nebraska held Chicago State to just 39 points on 24.2 percent shooting as the Huskers cruised to a 35-point victory, 74-39, at the Devaney Center. CSU connected on just 18.8 percent from the floor in the opening period and the Huskers capitalized, jumping to an 11-1 start before going into halftime ahead 30-14. An 18-1 Husker run to open the second period broke the game open as Nebraska shot 55.6 percent from the field on the game, moving ahead by as many as 39 points in the fourth quarter. Eleven players scored, led by Lance Jeter's 13 points while Brandon Richardson and Adrien Coleman each added 10. Jorge Brian Diaz came off the bench to post nine points, 12 rebounds and three blocks while Myles Holley helped the Huskers bust the CSU zone, finishing with nine points. Nebraska had a season-high 41 rebounds, but allowed CSU to post 37 boards, including 23 on the offensive end. Nebraska shot 55.6 percent from the field and had 17 assists on 25 baskets while holding CSU to 0-of-11 from 3-point range.

NEBRASKA GAME-BY-GAME NOTEBOOK (GAMES 9-18)

GAME 9 VS. OREGON STATE (NU 50, OSU 44)

Senior guard Ryan Anderson posted his third career double-double and sealed a defensive battle with a rebound and then two free throws in the final five seconds as Nebraska held on for a 50-44 victory over Oregon State at the Devaney Center. Anderson finished with 16 points to pace the Huskers and tie for game-high honors as he hit 6-of-13 attempts from the field. The rest of the team was 13-of-39 against the difficult Oregon State zone defenses as the Huskers shot a season-low 36.5 percent from the floor. The Seattle native also added a career-best 14 rebounds, bettering his previous mark of 11 set on two occasions. It was the third time he posted a double-double, but the first since his sophomore year in 2008. Neither team was able to get into an offensive groove as the defenses, which rank among the best in the nation, were on display from the start. Nebraska got the better hand in the end as it turned the ball over just 11 times -- after averaging 18.5 turnovers over the past two games -- and held OSU to just 10 offensive rebounds. The Huskers also forced 16 turnovers and held even on the boards with a 34-34 tie.

GAME 10 VS. JACKSON STATE (NU 57, JSU 41)

Junior forward Quincy Hankins-Cole produced a career-high 15 points on 7-of-8 shooting and the Nebraska defense held Jackson State to nine first-half points on its way to a 57-41 victory at the Devaney Center. Hankins-Cole posted 13 points after the break and helped NU go ahead by as many as 24 points while holding JSU to 32.7 percent shooting. The Huskers grabbed a 41-32 advantage on the boards and forced 17 turnovers, but Nebraska did not execute well on offense, hitting just 41.5 percent for the game, allowing the Tigers to hang around. JSU was within seven points before Hankins-Cole spurred a 16-3 run midway through the second half to put the game out of reach. Senior guard Ryan Anderson added 10 points on 5-of-10 shooting and had five rebounds while Jorge Brian Diaz had five points, five rebounds, three blocked shots and three assists.

GAME 11 VS. TULSA (NU 74, UT 70)

Sophomore Brandon Richardson hit six free throws in the final 20 seconds and redshirt freshman Eshaunte Jones nailed a career-best four 3-pointers to lead Nebraska past Conference USA favorite Tulsa in the Las Vegas Classic. After heading into halftime tied at 31-31, the Huskers used a strong second half shooting performance to earn their second win away from Lincoln this season. NU hit 53.8 percent after the intermission, including three treys from Jones. Nebraska went ahead by 13 points in the second frame before a seven-minute field-goal drought helped UT get back into the game. Ben Uzoh had 16 second-half points for the Golden Hurricane, but it was not enough as Nebraska hit just enough shots and Richardson connected at the stripe to push the Huskers in the tournament championship game. Ryan Anderson and Jorge Brian Diaz added 11 points each while seven Huskers had at least eight points.

GAME 12 VS. BYU (BYU 88, NU 66)

Redshirt freshman Eshaunte Jones produced a career-best 21 points and sophomore Brandon Richardson added 13 points but the Huskers dug too deep a hole while watching BYU run away with an 88-66 victory in the championship game of the HoopTV Las Vegas Classic at the Orleans Arena in Las Vegas. Jones knocked down five 3-pointers while helping Nebraska fight back from a 37-5 deficit to open the game. NU cut the Cougar advantage to 14 points at the intermission, but that was as close as they could get as BYU hit 61.2 percent from the field, including 66.7 percent in the opening half. The Cougars drained 15 of their first 17 shots to open the contest before Nebraska reeled off a 20-3 run to cut into the lead before the break. Jones added 12 second-half points, including 3-of-3 beyond the arc, as NU hit 52.2 percent from the field after the intermission.

GAME 13 VS. SOUTHERN UTAH (NU 94, SUU 61)

Quincy Hankins-Cole matched his season-high as Nebraska's bench came up big in a 94-61 victory over Southern Utah at the Devaney Center. Hankins-Cole led Nebraska (10-3) with 15 points on 6-of-8 shooting, as the Huskers put up their highest offensive total in five years. NU, which is a perfect 8-0 at home, relied on a bench that put up 48 points, including 15 by Hankins-Cole in just 11 minutes of action. Jorge Brian Diaz added nine points and four rebounds in 15 minutes, while Myles Holley came up big with seven points and a career-best 11 rebounds in just 14 minutes of action. All 13 players who saw action broke into the scoring column, as the Huskers ended the first half on a 19-6 spurt and cruised to a 33-point victory. Hankins-Cole was one of four players to finish in double figures, as freshman Brandon Ubel added 12 points, while Sek Henry and Brandon Richardson chipped in 12 and 10 points, respectively. Nebraska shot 68 percent over the final 20 minutes and was sharp with the basketball all night, dishing out 18 assists and committing a season-low four turnovers, while harassing Southern Utah (4-9) into 19 turnovers on the night.

GAME 14 VS. MARYLAND EASTERN SHORE (NU 74, UMES 60)

Ryan Anderson posted 17 points in 24 minutes and sparked the Husker offense in the second half as Nebraska pulled away for a 74-60 victory over Maryland Eastern Shore in the first game after the New Year. Anderson hit 6-of-9 shots from the field and was one of four Huskers with at least four assists as the Huskers improved to 11-3 to open the season, including 9-0 at home. After leading 30-26 at the intermission on his 3-pointer with 30 seconds to play, Anderson came out in the second half and had five points and two assists in the first six minutes of the period as Nebraska used a 15-2 run to break the game open. Jorge Brian Diaz had 11 points off the bench and Brandon Richardson added 10 points, including eight in the first half. Richardson hit 2-of-4 from 3-point range as the Huskers drained 40.0 percent (8-of-20) beyond the arc. Lance Jeter had five assists against one turnover, as the Huskers posted a season-high 20 assists while forcing UMES into an opponent season-high 21 turnovers. The Hawks also had an opponent high 40 rebounds, taking an eight-board advantage on the glass.

GAME 15 VS. SOUTHEASTERN LOUISIANA (NU 77, SLU 59)

Sophomore guard Brandon Richardson came out strong, scoring six of the Huskers' first 11 points and had 11 points in the opening period before finishing with a career-high 15 as the Cornhuskers cruised past Southeastern Louisiana 77-59 at the Devaney Center. Richardson and senior guard Ryan Anderson combined for 29 points on 15-of-24 shooting, including hitting 3-of-4 apiece from long range. They helped the Huskers shoot 63.2 percent (12-of-19) from 3-point range, including a sizzling 7-of-8 from beyond the arc in the second period. After SLU pulled within eight, 49-41, following a 7-0 run, the Huskers responded with Sek Henry's 3-pointer and went on to stay ahead by double figures the rest of the way. The Huskers posted 19 assists on 27 baskets and had just six turnovers -- two off their season low -- while forcing SLU into 20 turnover. Nebraska turned the miscues into a 22-4 advantage in points off turnovers, while also holding a 17-8 lead in second-chance points.

GAME 16 AT TEXAS A&M (A&M 64, NU 53)

Nebraska trailed for the first 30 minutes of the game and when it finally got over the hump, Texas A&M responded with authority, rolling off an 18-6 run to seal a 64-53 victory in both teams' Big 12 opener. Freshman Christian Standhardinger made his career debut after being forced to sit out the first 15 games of the season under an NCAA ruling, and he did not disappoint. The 6-8, 210-pound German produced a team-high 13 points and seven rebounds in 22 minutes of action, including a 3-pointer that gave NU its last lead of the game at 43-42. Redshirt freshman Jorge Brian Diaz added 10 points on 5-of-7 shooting but neither Nebraska nor A&M were able to top the 40-percent plateau as both defenses were in top form. NU held the Aggies to just 3-of-21 shooting from 3-point range, but A&M pulled away for its fourth win in the last five games in the series by hitting 25-of-33 at the free throw line. Nebraska 6-of-9 at the charity stripe. Donald Sloan led all scorers with 26 points for the Aggies, who also held a 40-28 advantage on the boards.

GAME 17 VS. NO. 3 KANSAS (KU 84, NU 72)

Nebraska saw its 11-game home winning streak snapped as third-ranked Kansas used a pair of 8-0 second-half runs to erase a one-point halftime deficit and pull away from the Huskers for a 84-72 victory. Nebraska, which had jumped to a 12-1 lead in the first four minutes of the game, led 44-43 at the half thanks to a strong first-half shooting performance. The Huskers hit eight 3-pointers and shot 55.6 percent from the field but NU nailed only 30.8 percent in the second half while getting outscored 41-28. Kansas shot the ball well in both halves, connecting on 57.8 percent in the game, including 13-of-21 from behind the arc. Kansas used the strong shooting to become only the second Big 12 team in the five seasons to score 80 points at the Devaney Center. Four Jayhawks were in double figures, led by 22 points from Sherron Collins and 19 from Marcus Morris. Nebraska was led by Brandon Richardson, who scored a career-high 18 points on 5-of-6 shooting from the field. Richardson was also 2-of-3 from the 3-point line and hit all five of his free throws. Jorge Brian Diaz added 15 points, while Eshaunte Jones nailed four 3-pointers to chip in 12 points.

GAME 18 VS. IOWA STATE (ISU 56, NU 53)

The Cornhuskers fought back from a 12-point first-half deficit to take a one-point lead at the intermission and the teams battled back and forth throughout the second period until Iowa State knocked down a couple of late shots and NU misfired in the final minute as the Cyclones snapped a 17-game conference road losing streak with a 56-53 victory. NU held All-Big 12 forward Craig Brackins in check, allowing just six points and 11 boards, but newcomer Marquis Gilstrap had a game-high 15 points and 12 rebounds, helping ISU earn a 45-36 advantage on the glass. NU hit just 5-of-19 from 3-point range. Ryan Anderson led the Huskers with 13 points, eight rebounds and five steals while Lance Jeter had 12 points in his best scoring effort in a month.

NEBRASKA GAME-BY-GAME NOTEBOOK (GAMES 19-24)

GAME 19 AT MISSOURI (MU 70, NU 53)

Senior guard Sek Henry led Nebraska with 15 points on 5-of-8 shooting, but Missouri used a key 15-1 run late in the second half to pull away for a 70-53 victory at a sold-out Mizzou Arena. The Huskers trailed by just one, 45-44, on Ray Gallegos' 3-pointer with 10:46 to play, but Nebraska failed to convert another field goal until Henry's layup with 3:25 to play and the damage was done. Missouri hit just 39.3 percent but had just five turnovers and knocked down 18-of-21 free throw attempts, including 17 made shots at the charity stripe after the intermission, to win their 31st straight home game, a streak that ranked third nationally. Along with Henry, sophomore Brandon Richardson added 11 points while point guard Lance Jeter had seven points and a career-best seven rebounds. Nebraska trailed by nine points early but chipped away at the Tiger lead, cutting the deficit to just two points, 28-26, at halftime. In the second period, Gallegos had all eight of his points and helped the Huskers get off to a strong start, but NU could not keep up the pace as Missouri pulled away.

GAME 20 AT COLORADO (CU 72, NU 60)

Colorado came out the aggressor, forcing 16 Husker turnovers and limiting Nebraska to just 39.6 percent shooting as the Buffs took a 72-60 victory at the Coors Events Center. Nebraska struggled scoring in the first six minutes of each half, including opening the game with just one field goal over the first seven minutes. The Huskers finally got into a groove in the second period, but a late first-half 10-2 run gave the Buffs a 10-point margin at the break, which they extended to 20 points in the second period by connecting on 17-of-22 shots at the free throw line after intermission. CU hit 48.8 percent from the field and had just 11 turnovers. Nebraska held a rebounding advantage against a conference opponent for the first time this year, 30-26, while also hitting a season-best 81 percent (17-of-21) at the charity stripe. Freshman Christian Standhardinger hit 8-of-9 from the line and 3-of-5 from the floor for a team-high 14 points in just 12 minutes off the bench. Senior Ryan Anderson added nine points, six boards, three assists and two steals for the Huskers, who saw their losing streak stretch to five games, marking their worst start to league action in the Big 12 era.

GAME 21 VS. OKLAHOMA (NU 63, OU 46)

Sophomore Brandon Richardson led Nebraska on offense and the Huskers showed a more aggressive, hard-nosed approach on defense as NU ran away with a 63-46 victory over Oklahoma at the Devaney Center to snap a five-game losing streak. The Huskers' first league win came behind a defensive effort that held OU to just 34.9 percent shooting and forced 15 turnovers while the offense drained 51.7 percent after intermission to cruise to their first Big 12 win in January. Richardson paved the way with 16 points, including 10 in the second half when Nebraska went ahead by as many as 19 points. Senior Ryan Anderson added 11 points and redshirt freshman Jorge Brian Diaz has one of his best all-around games of the year with 10 points on 5-of-9 shooting to go with seven boards, two assists, a block and a steal in 30 minutes. Nebraska shot 44.4 percent for the game including 45.5 percent beyond the arc and 71.4 percent at the line while holding a 36-27 advantage on the boards. Nebraska dominated the glass which led to a 30-10 margin in the paint.

GAME 22 VS. NO. 10/11 KANSAS STATE (KSU 76, NU 57)

Kansas State used an efficient offensive effort to wear down the Huskers as the No. 10/11 Wildcats snapped a three-game NU series win streak in Lincoln with a 76-57 victory at the Devaney Center. KSU led by 14 at the intermission, but Nebraska came out strong, scoring the first seven points of the second half to force a timeout. The Wildcats responded and put the game away as Denis Clemente posted a game-high 23 points, including 12 in the second period with four 3-pointers. Clemente led four Wildcats in double figures, including Jamar Samuels, who came off the bench to produce 15 points on 7-of-12 shooting while leading all players with nine boards. Nebraska shot just 41.7 percent from the floor, and had 16 turnovers, including 11 in the opening frame, as the Huskers fell to 1-6 in league action. Jorge Brian Diaz led the Huskers with 13 points on 5-of-12 shooting.

GAME 23 AT NO. 1/1 KANSAS (KU 75, NU 64)

Top-ranked Kansas hit 48.1 percent from the floor and used a key 15-1 run midway through the second half to take control before holding on for a 75-64 victory over Nebraska at Allen Fieldhouse. The Cornhuskers kept falling behind and then charging back, trailing by four at halftime, 37-33, before using a 10-2 run to open the second period and take a 42-39 lead before the Jayhawks rattled off 28 of the next 33 points to win for the 15th straight time over Nebraska. Redshirt freshman Jorge Brian Diaz dominated the paint, scoring 20 points on 9-of-17 shooting while adding nine rebounds, two steals and two blocks for the Huskers, who played a top-10 team for the second straight game. Senior Ryan Anderson added four 3-pointers for 12 points and became the 25th Husker in program history to top the 1,000-point mark for his career. Anderson helped NU hit 58.8 percent (10-of-17) from long range.

GAME 24 VS. NO. 24 BAYLOR (BU 55, NU 53)

Sophomore Myles Holley led a 37-point attack from the bench and the Huskers shut down one of the most explosive offenses in the Big 12, but it wasn't enough as No. 24/- Baylor hung on for a 55-53 victory at the Devaney Center. The game was the fourth straight regular-season contest between the teams decided by four points or less. Holley posted a career-high 11 points on 5-of-11 shooting, after coming into the game with just 15 points in Big 12 play this season. He led three Huskers in double figures, all off the bench. He was joined by Eshaunte Jones and Brandon Richardson who each had 10 points despite combining to go 3-of-10 from beyond the arc. As a team, the Huskers hit just 4-of-21 (19.0 percent) from 3-point range after entering the game on a school-record pace at 40.5 percent. The Huskers held a three-point lead in the last two minutes after Richardson's trey pushed NU ahead 53-50. The Huskers missed three 3-point attempts in the final minute and BU's Ekpe Udoh hit the game-winning jumper with 25 seconds remaining. Quincy Acy had a free throw for the final margin and then blocked the Huskers' last shot attempt to seal the victory. The Huskers tied the school record with just three turnovers but shot only 31.6 percent from the field while holding Baylor to 40 percent and a season-low point total.
