Huskers Have Fun on Run to Second NCAA Sweet 16

Nebraska spent the 2012-13 season solidifying its spot among the top 20 women's college basketball programs in the nation.

A young Husker team that featured just one senior starter and just two seniors overall on an 11-player roster, sprinted to its second NCAA Sweet 16 in the past four years. Despite playing the nation's No. 12 strength of schedule, the Huskers notched the second-most wins in school history with a 25-9 record.

NU also finished second in the regular-season Big Ten standings with a 12-4 conference mark, the second-most league wins in school history. Nebraska's success translated into a No. 16 RPI in the final NCAA rankings and a No. 18 final national ranking in the USA Today Coaches Top 25. It was NU's third top-25 finish in the last four seasons.

Nebraska's fan base also continued to grow in support of one of the nation's rising programs. The Huskers ranked 16th nationally in average home attendance with more than 5,200 fans per game watching Nebraska compete in its final season in the Bob Devaney Sports Center. The Huskers averaged nearly 6,600 fans per Big Ten home contest.

Throughout the season, senior Lindsey Moore and junior Jordan Hooper rewrote Nebraska history. The pair became the first Husker teammates to earn preseason mention on the Wade, Naismith and Wooden National Player-of-the-Year watch lists at the same time. At the end of the season, they became the first Husker teammates to earn All-America honors in the same year.

Moore continued to etch her name in Nebraska lore after the team's season ended with a loss to No. 5 Duke in the Norfolk Regional semifinal at the Constant Convocation Center. The 5-9 point guard from Covington, Wash., was selected in the first round of the WNBA Draft by the Minnesota Lynx.

From start to finish, the Huskers produced a memorable ride through 2012-13, but like any long journey, it wasn't always smooth.

"Considering where we started, we came a long way. We had a lot of injuries in September, October and November," Nebraska Coach Connie Yori said. "We weren't very healthy. We didn't have a lot of good practice time because we were not healthy. We really came a long way. We started out 2-3 in the Big Ten. It would have been easy to start pointing fingers, but I thought our kids did a really good job of pointing the thumb and saying, 'let's get better.' At that point, I thought we became a better practicing team and a better focused team and our players really bought in to what we were trying to do."

Nebraska's road through 2012-13 actually began in the 2012 postseason. Following the Huskers' run to the Big Ten Tournament title game, Nebraska limped into the NCAA Tournament.

Hooper and starter Hailie Sample did not practice in the two weeks leading up to NU's NCAA first-round loss because of foot injuries. Emily Cady battled a knee injury that required offseason surgery. Meghin Williams was slowed by a foot injury of her own. Center Adrianna Maurer was out after undergoing back surgery in January.

During the offseason, Cady's surgery limited her for six to eight weeks. Hooper and Sample spent weeks on the sidelines. Hooper eventually returned in early summer, but Sample missed the entire offseason with a back injury.

Seniors Meghin Williams (#10) and Lindsey Moore (#00) led Nebraska to three NCAA Tournament appearances, including NU's first two NCAA Sweet 16 bids during their four years in Lincoln.

For most of the summer, the only healthy Huskers were Moore, sophomore guards Tear'a Laudermill and Brandi Jeffery, sophomore forward Katie Simon and freshman guards Rachel Theriot, Sadie Murren and Courtney Aitken.

As summer turned to fall, health was still a major concern. Moore, Hooper and Cady were near 100 percent, but Sample did not return to the court until almost October. Just as Sample returned, Theriot was knocked out for a month with a foot injury of her own. That injury slowed her down for her entire freshman season.

During exhibition play, sophomore Rebecca Woodberry left the team. By early December, Aitken was knocked out for the year with a leg injury and Murren suffered a back injury of her own. Maurer, who battled back from her own back injury to play in nine non-conference games, experienced the return of significant pain and chose to end her playing career. Jeffery was also affected by the death of her grandmother at the end of November, before battling foot and knee injuries the rest of the season.

"Honestly, our preseason and early season practices were a joke," Yori said. "From day to day, we had no idea who was going to be on the floor available for practice, and that continued until January. We just had no consistency."

Amazingly, Moore, Hooper, Cady and Sample started every game together for the second straight year, and Theriot replaced Jeffery in the starting lineup in Nebraska's seventh game. Theriot went on to make the final 28 starts of the season.

Despite their early season limitations, the Huskers opened with a 68-50 win over North Carolina A&T at the Devaney Center Nov. 9. It was NU's eighth straight season-opening victory and it came against an A&T team that won 22 games - the first of 18 games for NU against 20-win teams.

Jeffery shined in the win over the Aggies. Making her first career start, she scored 10 points and grabbed three rebounds. She added 10 more points, four rebounds and two steals in the Huskers' victory over Temple two days later.

Nebraska added a win over Northern Arizona Nov. 16, which featured 15 consecutive points from Hooper to shoot NU to a 16-0 lead over the Lumberjacks. She finished with 27 points and seven rebounds in just 24 minutes.

NU hit the road for the first time against South Dakota State. The defending Summit League champions fought their way to a 60-55 win over the Huskers. SDSU won 25 games and captured another Summit League crown before advancing to the 2013 NCAA Tournament. It was the first of NU's 18 games against NCAA Tournament teams and the first of 11 contests against 2013 conference champions for the Huskers.

Nebraska defeated 2013 Southland Conference co-champion Sam Houston State, before a thrilling road win at USC moved NU to 5-1 on Nov. 23.

The wins over the Bearcats and the Trojans marked the emergence of Laudermill as a major player in the Huskers' 2012-13 fortunes. The 5-9 sophomore from Riverside, Calif., scored seven points in the win over SHSU on Nov. 20. Then against the Trojans, she buried a three-pointer from the right wing with one second left on the shot clock and 1:49 on the game clock to give the Huskers a 64-63 lead.

Those games marked a stretch of nine straight with five or more points for Laudermill. She finished with 23 such efforts on the year, averaging 5.9 points and 1.6 rebounds. Laudermill's speed, consistency and defensive ability added an important element for NU.

Moore also put her ability to close games on display at USC. She scored 17 points in the final 6:06 to put the Trojans away. Moore finished with 23 points, seven rebounds and four assists.

Nebraska returned home to face No. 11 Maryland. Theriot made her starting debut and made an instant impact with six points, six rebounds and four assists. But Terp All-American Alyssa Thomas was too much for NU. The 6-2 forward finished with 25 points, five rebounds, eight assists and six steals.

WNBA First-Rounder Moore Sets Career Standards

Nebraska rebounded with a 60-51 win over 2012 Big Sky champ Idaho State on Dec. 1, before suffering a 66-57 defeat at Creighton on Dec. 5. The Bluejays went on to share the Missouri Valley regular-season title and advance to the second round of the NCAA Tournament.

The loss to the Jays did include a career-high 20 points for Sample, but Hooper suffered through the only scoreless game of her career. NU hit just 2-of-13 threes as a team. The Huskers played without Jeffery for the second straight game as she dealt with a death in her family, and it marked the last game of the year for Aitken.

With a roster on the ropes, a star player coming off the worst performance of her career, and a 6-3 record, the Huskers faced back-to-back matchups with unbeaten teams from the state of Florida.

No. 24 Florida State came to Lincoln with a 7-0 record and took NU to the limit. But Hooper responded with her best game as a Husker, erupting for a career-high 36 points to go along with 12 rebounds. Hooper connected on a season-high six threes while going 12-of-20 from the field. In a duel with fellow All-America candidate Natasha Howard, Hooper outscored Howard 36-8 in NU's 78-77 win. FSU eventually advanced to the second round of the 2013 NCAA Tournament.

The Huskers carried the momentum to South Florida to face the 8-0 Bulls at the Sun Dome on Dec. 16. Hooper put up 24 points and 14 rebounds, while Moore added 20 points. The Huskers also employed a zone defense for the first time on the season, forcing USF into an 8-for-34 three-point performance in NU's 62-52 win. The Bulls also advanced to the 2013 NCAA Tournament second round.

Nebraska returned home to face its fourth straight 2013 NCAA Tournament team, posting an 80-67 win over Southland Conference co-champion Oral Roberts on Dec. 20. Hooper continued her torrid stretch with 33 points and nine rebounds in just 25 minutes. Moore added 15 points and eight assists, as Nebraska headed into the Holiday break with a 9-3 record.

NU closed non-conference play with an 84-39 win over Grambling State on Dec. 29. The Huskers then opened Big Ten action with a solid 70-52 victory over Wisconsin to improve to 11-3, setting up a top-25 showdown between the No. 25 Huskers and No. 14 Purdue.

Nebraska and the Boilermakers had played a pair of epic battles that covered five overtimes in 2012, and all signs pointed to another tight game in NU's first-ever CBS nationally televised game.

The two teams did not disappoint. With NU trailing 59-53 with 30 seconds left, Hooper hit a three to cut the deficit to 59-56. After a pair of missed free throws by Purdue, Hooper buried the game-tying three with 2.7 seconds left to send the 6,600 fans at the Devaney Center into a frenzy and another NU-Purdue game into overtime.

Hooper finished with 15 points and 14 rebounds, while Moore added 22 points and eight assists, but Purdue prevailed 69-66. The Huskers hung with Purdue despite opening the game 0-for-16 from the field, before Jeffery sparked NU with eight points and four assists off the bench.

Nebraska rebounded with a 67-38 run past Indiana that included career highs of 14 points from both Theriot and Lauderhill. Theriot added four rebounds and six assists.

A showdown at No. 8 Penn State followed, but the Huskers struggled in an 80-58 loss. NU returned home and was handed its only back-to-back losses of the season in a 62-52 setback to an improved Illinois squad on Jan. 17.

Those two losses put the Huskers at 12-5 overall and 2-3 in the Big Ten. It also put NU's season at a crossroads heading into a road game at Minnesota - a place the Huskers had never beaten the Golden Gophers.

A players-only meeting before the Minnesota game helped set the tone. A change in defensive approach from full-court man pressure to a mix of man and zone added to Nebraska's focus. An 84-63 triumph over the Gophers in front of more than 6,300 fans at Williams Arena and a Big Ten Network national television audience changed the course of Nebraska's season.

Moore shouldered the load, erupting for 26 points, seven rebounds, seven assists and three steals. Hooper added 17 points and eight boards, while Cady contributed a double-double with 12 points and 10 rebounds. Theriot was spectacular with 13 points and eight assists on her way to a second Big Ten Freshman-of-the-Week award.

The Huskers also held one of the Big Ten's most explosive offenses to just 63 points. More defense and several doses of Jordan Hooper followed. Hooper poured in 25 points in a 59-54 win over No. 25 Michigan State Jan. 24. She added 28 points and seven rebounds to shoot NU to a 62-53 win at Ohio State Jan. 31. An 80-56 home win over Minnesota in front of nearly 7,000 fans on Super Bowl Sunday in Lincoln, included 27 more from Hooper, as she led five Huskers in double figures. A 55-50 victory at Northwestern Feb. 7, gave NU four straight games holding foes in the fifties.

Hooper poured in 29 points and grabbed eight boards in a 76-75 shootout at Iowa Feb. 11 to stretch NU's winning streak to six games.

Nebraska then took its defense to another level. In a 58-39 win over Ohio State in Lincoln Feb. 14, the Huskers held the Buckeyes to their lowest point total of the Jim Foster coaching era at OSU. A week later, No. 24 Nebraska overcame a 22-18 halftime deficit to rout Michigan 58-39 in Ann Arbor, outscoring an NCAA second-round team by 22 in the second half. The 39 points allowed were NU's fewest in history in a regular-season conference road game.

A 66-46 pounding of Iowa that included a career-high 19 points from Theriot, and a 10-point, eight-assist, seven-rebound game from Moore, stretched NU's Big Ten winning streak.

The No. 20 Huskers closed Big Ten road play with a thrilling 55-53 win at Wisconsin to complete a perfect 7-0 February and push Nebraska's winning streak to 10 games. It also gave NU a 7-1 road record in regular-season league action.

The win against the Badgers set up a top-20 showdown with No. 7 Penn State for a share of the Big Ten title in the final home game in the history of the Devaney Center on Senior Night.

Moore led NU with 23 points, but Big Ten Player-of-the-Year Maggie Lucas closed the Devaney Center with the best shooting performance in the building's history. Lucas hit a Devaney Center record eight threes to finish with 34 points and secure the Big Ten regular-season crown for the Lady Lions.

However, the nearly 11,000 Husker fans who stayed after the game to hear speeches from Coach Yori, Moore and Williams were still excited by Nebraska's prospects for the postseason.

For their performances during the regular season, Yori was named the Big Ten Coach of the Year. Hooper captured first-team All-Big Ten accolades for the second straight year, while Moore settled for second-team honors. Cady was an honorable-mention All-Big Ten pick, while Theriot was a unanimous selection to the Big Ten All-Freshman Team.

As the No. 2 seed in the Big Ten Tournament, the Huskers earned a first-round bye before facing Iowa for the sixth time in two seasons.

A rested group of Huskers made it six in a row over the Hawkeyes with a 76-61 run in the quarterfinals at the Sears Centre Arena in Hoffman Estates, Ill., on March 8. Hooper continued to play at an All-America level with 24 points and seven rebounds. NU's lead ballooned to 72-45 with five minutes left before the Huskers rested their starters for a semifinal game with Purdue.

The Boilermakers spoiled Nebraska's Big Ten Tournament run with a 77-64 win. Purdue went on to claim its second straight tournament title. Despite the loss, Moore earned a spot on the Big Ten All-Tournament Team for the second straight year - the only player not in the championship game to earn a selection.

Nebraska returned to Lincoln to wait a week before finding out its NCAA Tournament destination. At 23-8 and ranked No. 24 in the polls with the nation's No. 16 RPI and No. 12 strength of schedule, the Huskers were being projected as a No. 3 or No. 4 seed in the tournament.

However, when pairings were announced, Nebraska received a No. 6 seed and a berth in the NCAA first and second round site at Reed Arena in College Station, Texas.

While the Huskers were a bit surprised by their seed, they approached the postseason in an excellent frame of mind.

"I kind of like the middle of the pack," Hooper said. "Honestly, I don't care. Whoever we play, we play. Wherever we go, we go."

Nebraska's first-round foe was No. 11 seed Chattanooga. The Lady Mocs rode a 19-game winning streak into the tournament as the Southern Conference champion. They also owned a victory over traditional national power Tennessee in the first game of the season.

The No. 24 Huskers were tied with Chattanooga at 32 at the half, before the Lady Mocs built a 47-38 lead early in the second half.

After a timeout, the Huskers made a defensive adjustment, and Hooper caught fire offensively.

Hooper poured in 18 of her game-high 21 points in the second half, including three consecutive three-pointers in a span of just 1:30. Hooper finished with 21 points and 12 rebounds for the 26th double-double of her career. Moore added 13 points, five rebounds and seven assists, while Theriot added 12 points. Cady also just missed a double-double of her own with 10 points and nine boards to help fuel Nebraska's 73-59 first-round win.

The win over Chattanooga and Texas A&M's win over Missouri Valley champion Wichita State, set up a showdown of former Big 12 Conference foes on the familiar floor of Reed Arena.

Texas A&M entered the NCAA Tournament as the SEC Tournament champions and the No. 9 team in the nation according to the AP. But WNBA first-round draft pick Kelsey Bone and the Aggies could not match the Huskers on March 25, 2013.

Moore was sensational, erupting for 20 points, 10 assists and six rebounds for her fifth career double-double. Hooper led NU with 21 points and eight boards while adding three steals in her matchup with Bone.

Sample, a native of Flower Mound, Texas, added the first double-double of her career with 10 points and 11 boards. Sample scored eight points in the game's final five minutes to help punch Nebraska's ticket to the NCAA Sweet 16 for the second time in school history.

Texas A&M Coach Gary Blair may have summed up Nebraska's performance best.

Most Valuable Offensive Player: Lindsey Moore

Most Valuable Defensive Player: Emily Cady

Kathy Branchaud Most Improved Rebounder:

Emily Cady, Hailie Sample

Husker Award: Jordan Hooper

Teammate Award: Meghin Williams, Katie Simon

"I'm not sure Nebraska can play any better than they did," Blair said. "When you look at the stats, they shot 45 percent, 8-out-of-19 from the three, 14-out-of-15 from the line and outrebounded us by 12. They really only had about four turnovers until the very end. It's hard to beat a team that was playing that well. Nebraska played awfully well. We only had two free throws for the whole ball game. A lot of that was their good defense."

The Huskers were faced with No. 5 Duke in the NCAA Norfolk Regional semifinals. Duke brought 32 wins, an ACC title and a roster filled with high school All-Americans.

In the week leading up to the game, Hooper suffered an ankle sprain and missed a pair of practices. However, she played at a high level in the game, pulling down 11 rebounds while adding six points. On her final shot of the day, Hooper resprained the ankle while landing after making a jumpshot that cut Duke's lead to 40-32 with 7:55 left. She missed the rest of the contest. Without their scoring leader, Nebraska turned to forwards Williams and Simon, who combined for six points off the bench down the stretch to trim Duke's lead to six on two occasions. But the Huskers finished just 3-for-24 from three-point range and hit just 30.3 percent of their shots in the game. NU's season ended with a 53-45 loss in a defensive struggle, but the loss did not take any of the lustre off the Huskers' accomplishments.

Moore led the Huskers with 11 points, five rebounds and six assists in her final game at Nebraska. Her six assists pushed her career total to 699, eclipsing the former record of 696 set by Meggan Yedsena (1991-94). Moore also tied Yedsena's single-season record of 195.

"Playing here at Nebraska has been an unbelievable experience and one that I will never forget," Moore said. "It has definitely been the best four years of my life. It was so exciting to be a part of this program. This is going to be a great program to watch in the future, because they have learned about being hungry, happy and healthy."

While Moore will always hold Nebraska in her heart, Yori recognized Moore's contribution to the Husker program.

"She's one of the best players who ever put a Nebraska uniform on. That's pretty clear," Yori said. "I wouldn't trade her for anyone. She's just such a competitor."

While Moore will be missed by Yori and the rest of the Huskers, Yori said her impact on the program and the rise Nebraska has experienced is expected to continue.

"I think we're playing at the highest level," Yori said. "Our RPI, our strength of schedule and two trips to the Sweet 16 in four years shows the work is paying off. We're going after another aggressive schedule. You may not win as many games, but if you look at our success in the Big Ten and the NCAA, you can see our schedule helped us prepare for the toughest teams in the country this year."

Senior Lindsey Moore (#00) and junior Jordan Hooper (#35) earned All-Big Ten honors for the second straight season. Moore, a two-time Nancy Lieberman Award finalist, earned second-team All-Big Ten honors in both 2012 and 2013. Hooper claimed spots on the five-player All-Big Ten first team in both 2012 and 2013. Hooper and Moore were both preseason candidates for the Wade, Naismith and Wooden National Player-of-the-Year awards and became the first Husker teammates to earn Associated Press All-America honors in the same season.

Game Highlights: Lindsey Moore scored a game-high 15 points, while Hailie Sample and Brandi Jeffery each added 10 points to lead the No. 18 Huskers to a 68-50 win over an experienced North Carolina A&T squad at the Devaney Center. Sample and Jeffery each produced the fourth double-figure scoring performances of their careers in a low-scoring, defense-dominated duel between the Huskers and Aggies. Jeffery, who made the first start of her career, joined Sample and Moore in helping the Huskers to a quick 11-4 lead. A&T responded with a 14-3 surge to take an 18-14 edge and led for the last time at 23-22, before the Huskers closed the half on a 12-3 spurt capped by Rachel Theriot's three-pointer at the buzzer. Jordan Hooper and Emily Cady each added seven points, as 10 Huskers found the scoring column on the night. Nebraska won its eighth straight season opener.

Game Highlights: Jordan Hooper produced her 18th career double-double with game highs of 12 points and 14 rebounds to power No. 18 Nebraska to a 64-39 win over Temple at the Devaney Center. Lindsey Moore and Brandi Jeffery each added 10 points, while Hailie Sample and Sadie Murren contributed eight apiece. The Huskers won handily despite shooting just 32.4 percent (23-71) from the field, including 24.1 percent (7-29) from three-point range. NU dominated the possession game, outrebounding Temple 53-40, while winning the turnover battle 22-10. Nebraska's suffocating defense held Temple to just 32.7 percent from the field, including 0-for-8 from long range. Murren and Moore teamed for 14 points in a 17-3 first-half spurt that turned a 14-6 lead into a 31-9 advantage with 3:50 left in the half. NU's lead grew to 29 points in the final minute of the game before settling for the 25-point win.

Game Highlights: Jordan Hooper scored 15 consecutive points in just 3:35 to help No. 15 Nebraska start the game on a 16-0 run and never look back in a 77-55 win over Northern Arizona. Hooper scored 22 of her game-high 27 points in the first half to help the Huskers to a 42-27 halftime lead. She hit 5-of-8 three-pointers, while adding seven rebounds, two assists and two steals in just 24 minutes against the Lumberjacks. Fellow forward Emily Cady added 13 points, seven rebounds and four steals, while Lindsey Moore pitched in 10 points and nine assists. Hooper (5), Moore (2), Cady (1) and Sadie Murren (3) combined to hit 11-of-17 three-pointers on the night for the Huskers, who finished at 50 percent (11-22). NU was also a solid 84.2 percent (16-19) from the free throw line. Nebraska outrebounded NAU, 37-33, while winning the turnover battle, 23-14. The Huskers turned NAU's turnovers into 25 points. Aubrey Davis managed a double-double with 13 points and 10 rebounds to lead the Lumberjacks.

Game Highlights: Lindsey Moore scored 21 points and dished out five assists but it wasn't enough to prevent No. 15 Nebraska from falling at South Dakota State, 60-55, at Frost Arena in Brookings. In a game that featured 16 lead changes and 11 ties, the Jackrabbits held on down the stretch in a game that never featured a lead by either team of more than three possessions. SDSU controlled the tempo of the game by digiting the clock and winning the battle of the boards. Neither team attempted 50 shots in the game, and the Jacks outrebounded NU, 38-27. Jordan Hooper scored 15 points and led the Huskers with seven rebounds, but no other Husker managed more than five points. Ashley Eide was the only Jackrabbit in double figures, erupting for a game-high 26 points to go along with four steals. Katie Lingle added nine points and eight rebounds, while Leah Dietel contributed two points and 10 boards. The Jackrabbit bench came up big, outscoring the Husker reserves, 22-7.

Game Highlights: Lindsey Moore scored 17 of her team-high 23 points in the final 6:06 to lead No. 23 Nebraska back from a 57-52 deficit to a 74-65 win over USC at the Galen Center. Moore hit three straight shots from the field and a pair of free throws to pull NU within 63-61, before Tear'a Laudermill hit the game's biggest shot with a three-pointer as the shot clock expired with 1:54 left to give NU the lead for good at 64-63. Rachel Theriot followed with a steal and an assist to Emily Cady for a strong finish to put NU up 66-63, before Moore scored NU's final eight points to seal the win. Moore went 5-of-8 from the field and 13-of-15 at the free throw line to lead the Huskers, while adding seven rebounds, four assists and two steals. Jordan Hooper added 19 points and seven rebounds, while Cady contributed 14 points and seven boards. Nebraska won despite hitting just 2-of-7 three-pointers by connecting on 28-of-32 free throws, including 17-of-18 shooting at the line in the second half. USC hit 7-of-16 threes, including 5-of-8 by Ariya Crook, who led all scorers with 25 points. Cassie Harberts added 13 points and eight boards for USC.

Game Highlights: Lindsey Moore had 17 points, five assists and four steals, but it was not enough to prevent Alyssa Thomas from leading No. 11 Maryland to a 90-71 victory over the No. 21 Huskers at the Devaney Center. Thomas, the 2012 ACC Player of the Year, led the Terrapins with 25 points, five rebounds, eight assists and six steals. Fellow All-America candidate Tianna Hawkins added a double-double with 21 points and 12 rebounds for the Terps. All-America candidate Laurin Mincy added 16 points and 4-of-4 shooting from three-point range before suffering a torn ACL in her knee with about 10 minutes left. In addition to Moore's 17 points, All-American Jordan Hooper produced 15 points and six rebounds for NU. Hailie Sample added nine points, six rebounds and three assists. Rachel Theriot contributed six points, six rebounds and four assists in her first career start. The Huskers led 31-27 with five minutes left in the first, but Maryland outscored the Huskers 19-6 to take control at halftime.

Game Highlights: Hailie Sample scored a career-high 20 points, but Creighton connected on 56.3 percent of its shots on its way to a 66-57 win over the Huskers at D.J. Sokol Arena in Omaha. CU's victory snapped Nebraska's seven-game winning streak in the CU series. Sample hit 9-of-14 shots from the field and both free throw attempts on her way to doubling her previous career high of 10 points. She added five rebounds, two assists and a steal in a solid all-around effort. Lindsey Moore added 15 points, six assists and three steals on the night, while hitting 6-of-11 shots from the field, including 2-of-3 three-pointers. But the rest of the Huskers went 0-for-10 from long range, including an 0-for-4 night from Jordan Hooper. The Husker All-American went 0-for-7 overall while being held scoreless for the first time in her career. Nebraska outrebounded CU, 33-28, and won the turnover battle, 14-11, attempting 11 more shots than Creighton on the night. But the Jays hit 9-of-22 three-pointers. Freshman Marissa Janning led CU with 19 points while McKenzie Fujan added 13 points. The duo combined to go 7-for-11 from long range.

Game Highlights: Jordan Hooper notched her fifth double-double of the year with game highs of 24 points and 14 rebounds to shoot Nebraska past previously undefeated South Florida, 62-52, at the Sun Dome. Lindsey Moore added her third 20-point scoring effort of the season with 20 points, four rebounds and three assists to help the Huskers improve to 8-3 on the year. Nebraska extended its winning streak against Florida schools to 13 games, including back-to-back wins over previously unbeaten Florida State and USF. Hooper, Moore and Tear'a Laudermill carried the Huskers after halftime. With the game tied at 36 early in the second, Moore scored seven points to fuel a 12-0 Husker run. Laudermill capped the run with a three-point play to push NU's lead to double digits for the first time. The Huskers shut out the Bulls for more than seven minutes during the surge. NU pushed its lead to 17 points at 60-43 with 5:08 left after five straight points from Hooper. The Huskers' zone defense frustrated USF in the second half, holding the Bulls to just two field goals in a 12-minute span.

Game Highlights: Jordan Hooper continued her torrid scoring stretch by pumping in 33 points in just 25 minutes in Nebraska's 80-67 run past Oral Roberts. Hooper, who had scored 36 points in her previous game at the Devaney Center, erupted for 22 first-half points on 9-of-14 shooting, including 4-of-6 from three-point range. Hooper powered NU to a 44-20 halftime lead, before extending the margin to 52-22 early in the second half. She added nine rebounds, while hitting a career-high 13 field goals. Hooper hit five of NU's season-high matching 11 threes in the game. Lindsey Moore added 15 points and eight assists, while moving past Nicole Kubik and Jina Johansen into No. 2 on Nebraska's all-time assist list. Emily Cady added eight points, four rebounds, five assists and three steals in a solid all-around effort, while Tear'a Laudermill continued her strong play off the bench with seven points, three assists and two steals. Laudermill's first-half defense set the tone for the Huskers, who forced 12 ORU turnovers while committing just six of their own in the opening period.

Game Highlights: Jordan Hooper scored 18 points to lead three Huskers in double figures, as Nebraska rolled to an 84-39 win over Grambling State. Emily Cady added 17 points and seven rebounds, while Rachel Theriot pitched in 12 points to help NU close non-conference play with a 10-3 record. Hooper scored eight points in the game's first 2:30 to help the Huskers jump to a 12-0 lead. Later in the half, Theriot hit back-to-back threes, and Cady added seven points to fuel a 15-0 run that turned a 23-12 lead into a 38-12 edge. Meghan Williams added a career-high eight points, including six in the first half, while Tear'a Laudermill contributed a career-high six rebounds. The Huskers outrebounded Grambling State 53-30, while winning the turnover battle 24-17. NU also held GSU without an assist in the game. Lindsey Moore had nine points and eight assists in just 20 minutes.

Game Highlights: Lindsey Moore scored a game-high 26 points and tied a career high with five three-pointers to lead No. 25 Nebraska past Wisconsin in the Big Ten Conference opener. Moore, who added four assists and four steals, hit her first four three-point attempts of the game to shoot NU to a 14-point lead after the Huskers' first possession of the second half. After Wisconsin cut NU's lead to 46-42 midway through the second half, Moore scored five straight points, including her fifth three, before hitting Jordan Hooper for another three-pointer to push NU's lead back to double digits at 54-44. The Badgers could not get the margin below 10 again, as the Huskers built the lead as large as 19 points. Hooper hit a trio of threes, while Emily Cady tied her career high with three triples of her own. Cady finished with her first double-double of the year and fourth of her career with 13 points and a career-high 14 rebounds. She added three assists, two steals and a block. Tear'a Laudermill turned up NU's defensive pressure in the second half, notching all four of her career-high matching four steals.

Game Highlights: Lindsey Moore had 22 points and eight assists and Jordan Hooper pitched in 15 points and 14 rebounds, but it was not enough to prevent No. 14 Purdue from escaping the Devaney Center with a 69-66 overtime win in NU's first-ever CBS nationally televised game. Nebraska opened 0-for-16 from the field in the first 8:40, before Brandi Jeffery hit NU's first field goal, a three-pointer, to cut Purdue's lead to 13-4. After threes by Moore and Jeffery less than three minutes later, the Huskers had the Boilermakers' lead to one at 15-14. Nebraska trailed 26-23 at the half, despite shooting just 21.6 percent (8-37) from the floor in the opening period. NU took its first lead on a Hooper three-pointer midway through the second half, and the Huskers owned a 49-45 edge with just over six minutes left. But Purdue responded with a 14-4 surge to take a 59-53 lead into the final minute. Hooper hit back-to-back threes in the final 30 seconds after missed free throws by Courtney Moses and KK Houser gave the Huskers hope. Hooper's final three came with 2.7 seconds left to send the game to overtime. Purdue controlled the overtime, but the game was still tied at 66 before the Boilermakers prevailed.

Game Highlights: Rachel Theriot scored 14 points and Tear'a Laudermill matched her career best with 14 of her own off the bench to help Nebraska to a 67-38 win at Indiana. Theriot hit 7-of-9 shots from the field, including all five of her attempts in the first half to shoot the Huskers to a 37-17 halftime edge. Laudermill added 6-of-9 shooting while sparking a suffocating Husker defense that held Indiana to just 24 points in the first 33 minutes. Jordan Hooper and Emily Cady each added their second Big Ten double-doubles of the year to help the Huskers dominate the Hoosiers on the glass. NU matched its season high with a plus-23 rebound margin, outworking the Hoosiers 50-27 on the boards. Nebraska held Indiana without a field goal for the game's first 8:40, but the Hoosiers trailed just 19-15 until a Cady three-pointer started an 18-2 NU surge in the final five minutes of the first half. The Huskers ended any Hoosier hopes of a second-half comeback by outscoring Indiana 15-2 in the first eight minutes of the second half. Nebraska took its biggest lead of the night at 62-24 with seven minutes left in the game.

Game Highlights: Emily Cady had 17 points and nine rebounds, but No. 8 Penn State used a 33-10 surge over an eight-minute stretch in the middle of the game to build a 26-point lead and cruise to an 80-58 win over the Huskers at the Bryce Jordan Center. The Huskers trailed just 26-23 with three minutes left in the first half, before the Lady Lions closed on a 14-4 surge capped by a halfcourt buzzer beater by Alex Bentley to take a 40-27 lead to the halftime. Bentley finished with 19 points and five steals. PSU built the lead to 59-33 five minutes into the second half and never looked back. Maggie Lucas added 19 points and three steals for PSU, while Ariel Edwards contributed 15 points off the bench. Jordan Hooper just missed a double-double with 11 points and nine rebounds, but hit just 5-of-16 shots from the field. Lindsey Moore also managed 11 points and five assists, but went 4-for-16 for the game. Penn State turned Nebraska's 13 first-half turnovers into 23 points, and finished with 28 points off 19 Husker miscues.

Game Highlights: Jordan Hooper led Nebraska with 17 points, but was the only Husker in double figures as Illinois scrapped to a 62-52 win. Hooper went just 6-for-22 from the field, including 3-for-11 from three-point range, as Nebraska struggled against the Fighting Illini's pressure defense. Illinois forced a season-high 26 turnovers by NU, snagging 16 steals. Illinois also held the Huskers to just 32.8 percent shooting, including 26.9 percent from long range. Nebraska's defense was nearly as effective, forcing 24 turnovers by the Illini, including 13 by sophomore point guard Alexis Smith. But led by Karisma Penn's 18 rebounds, including 10 on the offensive end, the Illini won the battle of the boards, 45-36. Illinois hit 21-of-61 shots from the floor, including 6-of-21 three-pointers to produce similar percentages as the Huskers. But the Illini connected on 14-of-15 free throws to seal the win. Emily Cady managed nine points and eight rebounds. Lindsey Moore pitched in nine points and three assists to become just the second Husker in history to reach the 600-assist mark in her career. Nebraska's 20 first-half points and 52 points for the game were both season lows up to that point in the year.

3FG: Nebraska 8-15 (Hooper 3-4, Theriot 3-5, Moore 2-5, Laudermill 0-1); Minnesota 7-17 (Banham 3-9, Mullaney 2-2, Noga 1-2, Bailey 1-4). 3FG%: Nebraska 53.3; Minnesota 41.2. FG%: Nebraska 48.3; Minnesota 37.5. FT%: Nebraska 78.3; Minnesota 80.0. Steals: Nebraska 7 (Moore 3); Minnesota 7 (Riche' 3). Blocked Shots: Nebraska 1 (Sample 1); Minnesota 3 (Riche', Hirt, Loberg 1). Turnovers: Nebraska 11; Minnesota 12. Technical Fouls: None. Officials: Mattingly, Blauch, Dickerson. Attendance: 6,361.

Game Highlights: Lindsey Moore led Nebraska's most complete effort of the year with season highs of 26 points and seven rebounds to power the Huskers to an 84-63 road win at Minnesota. Moore added seven assists and three steals while hitting 9-of-15 shots from the field, including a pair of three-pointers, and 6-of-7 free throws. She helped the Huskers to their first-ever win over the Golden Gophers at Williams Arena. But Moore, who pumped in 18 points in the second half, was far from a one-woman show. Jordan Hooper added 17 points, eight rebounds and two steals, while Emily Cady contributed her third Big Ten double-double of the year with 12 points and a game-high 10 boards. Rachel Theriot pitched in one of her best games of the year with 13 points and a career-high eight assists to go along with a career-best three three-pointers. Hailie Sample rounded out a tremendous effort from NU's starting five with nine points, six rebounds, two assists and a blocked shot. The Huskers shot a season-best 48.3 percent from the field, including a then-season-best 53.3 percent from three-point range. NU also outrebounded Minnesota 42-35 and won the turnover battle.

Game Highlights: Jordan Hooper produced game highs with 25 points and seven rebounds to lead Nebraska to a 59-54 win over No. 25 Michigan State. In a game controlled by the defenses, Hooper put up the most points by a Spartan opponent on the year by hitting 9-of-18 shots, including 3-of-7 three-pointers. She also went 4-for-4 at the free throw line. Hooper led a dominant Nebraska inside game that outscored the Spartans 34-18 in the paint, and outrebounded MSU 39-38. Michigan State entered the game with a plus-11.2 rebound margin in Big Ten play. With the Huskers scoring on the block, NU hit 44.2 percent of its attempts against a stingy Spartan defense that was allowing just 47 points per game. Hooper hit the only three-pointers by a Husker on the night, as NU went just 3-of-12 from long range and just 10-of-19 at the line, but still owned a double-digit lead over Michigan State heading into the final minute. Lindsey Moore added 12 points, six assists and three steals, as all eight Huskers who played in the game had at least two points and one rebound. Kiana Johnson led Michigan State with a then-career-high 22 points, including a career-best four threes. Johnson entered the game just 2-of-23 from beyond the arc.

Game Highlights: Jordan Hooper erupted for a game-high 28 points while knocking down 5-of-9 three-pointers to shoot Nebraska to a 62-53 win at Ohio State. Hooper scored seven straight points to fuel an 11-0 Husker run in the final three minutes of the first half to give NU a 10-point lead at the half. She added a 6-0 run on three straight short jumpers late in the second half to turn a seven-point NU lead into a 13-point edge at 62-49 in the closing minutes. Lindsey Moore added 11 points and six assists, while Emily Cady contributed 10 points and six rebounds. Ohio native Rachel Theriot pitched in nine points, five rebounds, six assists, a steal and a blocked shot while playing in front of dozens of family and friends. Theriot opened the game with a three-pointer as NU led from start to finish. She also pulled down four of her five rebounds late in the second half, including two on the offensive end that she turned into assists on Hooper jumpshots to seal Nebraska's third straight Big Ten win.

Game Highlights: Jordan Hooper led five Huskers in double figures with a game-high 27 points as Nebraska completed a season sweep of Minnesota with an 80-56 victory on Super Bowl Sunday at the Devaney Center. Hooper hit 10-of-17 shots from the field, including 3-of-7 three-pointers, while adding seven rebounds and a pair of steals in just 27 minutes. Tear'a Laudermill matched her career high for the second time in Big Ten play with 14 points off the bench, including a trio of three-pointers and a traditional three-point play. Lindsey Moore added 12 points and seven assists, while Rachel Theriot played a nearly flawless game with 11 points on 5-of-5 shooting from the field while adding five assists and no turnovers. Theriot also tied her career high with seven rebounds while adding two steals. Emily Cady rounded out the Huskers in double figures with 10 points, seven rebounds, two assists, two blocks and three steals. Nebraska used an 11-2 surge late in the first half to take control, then added 11-2 and 14-2 spurts in the second half to build a 28-point lead before settling for a 24-point win.

Game Highlights: Jordan Hooper and Lindsey Moore both crossed the 1,500 career-point plateau while leading Nebraska to a 55-50 road win at Welsh-Ryan Arena in Evanston. Hooper scored a game-high 19 points to go along with seven rebounds, while Moore added 16 points and a game-high four steals to power Nebraska to its fifth consecutive win. Hooper and Moore combined on four straight free throws in the final 20 seconds to seal Nebraska's fourth Big Ten road win. The Huskers led by as many as 15 points with just over eight minutes left, but went the final 7:26 without a field goal. Despite shooting just 32.7 percent from the field for the game and committing one more turnover than the Wildcats, the Huskers found a way to win on the road. Emily Cady added seven points and seven rebounds, while Rachel Theriot pitched in six points and three assists. Hailie Sample managed one point and a team-high nine boards. The Huskers held Northwestern to just 32 points in the game's first 32 minutes, before the Wildcats caught fire to make the game close down the stretch. The Huskers held Northwestern to just 29.7 percent shooting.

Game Highlights: Jordan Hooper scored a game-high 29 points and added eight rebounds to help shoot Nebraska to its sixth straight win in a thrilling 76-75 victory at Iowa. Hooper hit 11-of-23 shots from the field, including a pair of threes to help fuel NU's fourth straight Big Ten road win - the second-longest streak in school history. Hooper hit back-to-back threes in the first three minutes of the game to shoot the Huskers to an 11-2 lead. Iowa rallied to tie the game at 11, but a Hooper jumper gave NU the lead for good with just under 15 minutes left in the half. The Huskers pushed the lead to 41-32 at halftime thanks to seven first-half threes, including two each from Emily Cady and Brandi Jeffery, who matched her season high with 10 points. Cady finished with nine points and eight rebounds. Lindsey Moore scored all 14 of her points in the second half, while adding seven rebounds and seven assists against just one turnover. Moore's free throws with 12 seconds left pushed NU's edge to 76-72 and made Theairra Taylor's three-pointer at the buzzer meaningless to the outcome. Hailie Sample also hit a pair of free throws with less than 30 seconds left while dishing out a career-high six assists on the night.

Game Highlights: Nebraska used a stifling defense and a dominant rebounding effort to roll to its seventh straight victory with a 58-39 win over Ohio State at the Devaney Center. Playing in their annual Play 4Kay game, the Huskers held the Buckeyes to their lowest point total in Coach Jim Foster's 11 seasons in Columbus. NU limited OSU to just 25.4 percent (16-63) shooting from the field, including 3-for-16 from long range. The Huskers also controlled the glass, especially in the final 22 minutes. The game was tied at 15 with just over two minutes left in the first half and the Buckeyes were leading 22-14 on the boards. But Emily Cady, who notched her fourth double-double with 10 points and a career-high 16 rebounds, helped NU outwork OSU on the glass, 39-23 the rest of the way. Lindsey Moore added 14 points and a season-high eight rebounds, while Jordan Hooper pitched in eight points and 10 boards. Rachel Theriot and Tear'a Laudermill each added nine points for the Big Red.

3FG: Nebraska 10-23 (Moore 3-5, Jeffery 2-3, Laudermill 2-3, Hooper 2-7, Theriot 1-4); Michigan 3-23 (Arnold 1-2, Sheffer 1-5, Thompson 1-10, Ristovski 0-1, Harris 0-2, Jordan 0-2, Ryan 0-1). 3FG%: Nebraska 43.5; Michigan 13.0. FG%: Nebraska 39.6; Michigan 27.7. FT%: Nebraska 55.6; Michigan 0.0. Steals: Nebraska 5 (Moore, Theriot 2); Michigan 5 (Ryan 3). Blocked Shots: Nebraska 2 (Cady, Sample 1); Michigan 2 (Elmblad, Thompson 1). Turnovers: Nebraska 13; Michigan 10. Technical Fouls: None. Officials: Barb Smith, Marsh, Pethtel. Attendance: 1,971.

Game Highlights: No. 24 Nebraska used a 21-0 run in the first eight minutes of the second half to roll to a 57-39 victory at Michigan. Trailing the Wolverines 22-18 at the half, Nebraska stormed out of the locker room led by Jordan Hooper and Lindsey Moore. Hooper notched her eighth double-double of the season and third in Big Ten play with 14 points and 12 rebounds. Moore produced game highs of 15 points and eight assists, including a trio of second-half threes. NU hit 7-of-12 threes in the second half to bury Michigan from long range, as the Wolverines went just 3-for-23 for the game. NU finished 10-of-23 from beyond the arc, as Hooper, Brandi Jeffery and Tear'a Laudermill all pitched in a pair of threes. Defense was crucial to Nebraska's eighth straight win and fifth consecutive Big Ten road win. NU's 39 points allowed were the fewest in a regular-season conference road game in school history. It also gave Nebraska back-to-back Big Ten games holding foes to fewer than 40 points. Since regular-season conference (Big Eight) play began in 1982-83, NU had held opponents to less than 40 just two times.

Game Highlights: Rachel Theriot scored 15 of her career-high 19 points to help Nebraska turn a 38-36 lead with 13:20 left into a 66-46 win over Iowa at the Devaney Center. Theriot hit 9-of-16 shots from the field, including 7-of-9 in the second half to help the Huskers secure their ninth consecutive win. Lindsey Moore added 10 points, seven rebounds and eight assists, while Jordan Hooper pitched in 10 points, seven rebounds and three steals. Hooper also hit the 200th three-pointer of her career. Nebraska received contributions up and down the lineup at both ends of the floor in completing its second straight season sweep of the Hawkeyes. All nine Huskers who played in the game scored in the first half on their way to a 29-20 halftime lead. Sophomores Hailey Sample, Tear'a Laudermill and Katie Simon all contributed six points, while Emily Cady added four points and eight rebounds for the game. Nebraska's defense was great again, holding the Hawkeyes to a season-low 46 points. It marked the third straight Big Ten opponent that the Huskers had limited to a season-low point total.

Game Highlights: Hailie Sample's layup off an assist from Lindsey Moore with 43 seconds left in the game as the shot clock expired brought No. 20 Nebraska back from a late five-point deficit in a 55-53 win over Wisconsin. Sample's layup gave Nebraska a 54-53 lead after the Huskers had trailed 49-44. Moore, who finished with a team-high 13 points, added a free throw with 9.9 seconds left to give NU the final margin in its 10th consecutive victory. Moore added six rebounds, four assists and two steals, which gave her 200 steals in her career. Sample finished with six points. Rachel Theriot played a huge role for the Huskers down the stretch, hitting four field goals including a jumper with 1:36 left that gave Nebraska a 52-51 lead. Theriot, who hit four of NU's nine field goals in the second half, finished with 11 points and two assists. Emily Cady added eight points, 11 rebounds and a career-high four blocked shots, while Jordan Hooper pitched in seven points and 11 boards. NU's win and Penn State's loss later that night in Minnesota set up a potential conference championship game for the Huskers in their final game at the Bob Devaney Sports Center.

Game Highlights: Lindsey Moore scored a team-high 23 points on 9-of-11 shooting from the field, but it wasn't enough to prevent No. 20 Nebraska from falling to No. 7 Penn State, 82-67 in NU's final game at the Devaney Center. Nebraska finished the regular season with a 22-7 record and a 12-4 Big Ten mark, missing out on a share of the league title with Penn State. Moore hit back-to-back three-pointers to open the game, shooting the Huskers to a 6-2 lead, but the Lady Lions rallied behind the hot shooting of Big Ten Player of the Year Maggie Lucas. The junior hit a Devaney Center record eight three-pointers, finishing with 34 points on the night. Despite the huge game from Lucas, who led four Lady Lions in double figures, the Huskers trailed just 55-52 with 12:27 left after a layup from Moore. Penn State closed out the win by hitting 11 of its last 15 shots. Emily Cady produced a double-double with 15 points and 10 rebounds, while adding two assists, two steals and a block. Jordan Hooper added 14 points, nine rebounds and two blocks, while Tear'a Laudermill pitched in nine points and four rebounds. The game ended NU's 37-year run at the Devaney Center on Senior Night for Moore and Meghan Williams.

Game Highlights: Jordan Hooper erupted for 24 points and seven rebounds in 28 minutes to help No. 2 seed Nebraska roll to a 76-61 win over seventh-seeded Iowa in the quarterfinals of the Big Ten Tournament at Sears Center Arena in Hoffman Estates, Ill. Hooper hit 10-of-20 shots, including a trio of three-pointers. Lindsey Moore added 13 points, four rebounds, six assists, a block and a steal as the only other Husker in double figures. Nebraska received great balance with eight Huskers scoring five or more points on the afternoon. Hailie Sample, Tear'a Laudermill and Brandi Jeffery each scored eight points, while Emily Cady, Rachel Theriot and Meghan Williams all pitched in five points. Nebraska's lead ballooned to 27 points at 72-45 with about five minutes to play, giving the Huskers a chance to rest their starters. NU shot 46 percent from the field, including 35 percent from long range. The Huskers also dominated inside, outscoring Iowa 38-18 in the paint and outrebounding the Hawkeyes 44-30.

Game Highlights: Lindsey Moore scored 22 points, dished out eight assists and snagged two steals but it was not enough to prevent No. 2 seed Nebraska from falling to No. 3 seed Purdue, 77-64, in the Big Ten semifinals at Sears Centre Arena in Hoffman Estates, Ill. Jordan Hooper added 15 points and nine rebounds for NU, but no other Husker produced more than six points. Moore and Hooper combined to go 6-for-14 from three-point range, but the rest of the Huskers went 0-for-7 from beyond the arc. Nebraska received solid support from Emily Cady with six points, eight rebounds, four assists and three blocks, while Hailie Sample pitched in six points and four boards. Tear'a Laudermill added six points off the bench, while Rachel Theriot and Meghan Williams contributed four points apiece. However, Purdue played perhaps its best basketball of the season for the first 28 minutes, shooting nearly 60 percent against the Huskers on its way to a 17-point lead. NU cut Purdue's margin to 10 on several occasions but could not get it back to single digits in the second half. The Boilermakers went on to defeat Michigan State for the tournament title.

Game Highlights: Jordan Hooper poured in 18 of her game-high 21 points in the second half to lead No. 6 seed Nebraska to a 73-59 win over No. 11 seed Chattanooga in the first-round of the NCAA Tournament at Reed Arena. After opening the game 1-for-8 from the field, Hooper knocked down her last six shots, including three straight threes in the final five minutes. Hooper gave the Huskers a double-digit lead after trailing the hot-shooting Lady Mocs 47-38 early in the second half. Hooper added a game-high 12 rebounds for her ninth double-double of the year and 26th of her career. Emily Cady just missed a double-double with 10 points and nine boards, as NU controlled the boards 39-30. Lindsey Moore played a terrific all-around game with 13 points, five rebounds, seven assists and two steals, while Rachel Theriot added 12 points and two assists. Tear'a Laudermill helped NU off the bench with nine points.

Game Highlights: No. 24 Nebraska punched its ticket to its second NCAA Sweet 16 in the past four seasons with a dominant 74-63 win over No. 9 Texas A&M at Reed Arena in College Station. Jordan Hooper led all scorers with 21 points, eight rebounds and a game-high three steals, while Lindsey Moore notched her fifth career double-double with 20 points and 10 assists to go along with six rebounds. Texan Hailie Sample added her first career double-double with 10 points and a game-high 11 rebounds. Sample scored eight points in the final five minutes to help the Huskers seal the double-digit win. NU used a total team effort that included eight points and four boards from Emily Cady, seven points and three assists from Rachel Theriot, five points from Brandi Jeffery and a huge three from Tear'a Laudermill. The Huskers outrebounded the Aggies, 39-27, and outscored A&M 14-1 at the free throw line on third-seeded A&M's home court. NU led by as many as 16 late in the game.

Game Highlights: In a game dominated by defense, No. 24 Nebraska was unable to hit enough shots to knock off No. 5 Duke in the NCAA Norfolk Regional semifinal at the Ted Constant Convocation Center on the campus of Old Dominion. The Huskers led 18-11 midway through the first half, but missed their final eight shots of the half as the second-seeded Blue Devils closed on a 12-0 run to take a 23-18 halftime lead. Nebraska responded early in the second half, pulling within one on several occasions, the last time coming at 27-26 with 16:53 left. Duke took its first double-digit lead at 40-30 with 8:49 left, but Jordan Hooper responded with a jumper at the free throw line with 7:55 left. However, Hooper sprained her ankle as she landed and was knocked out of the game. Without their leading scorer, the Huskers continued to battle, getting four points off the bench from Katie Simon and two more from Meghin Williams to trim Duke's lead to six twice in the closing minutes. Lindsey Moore led NU with 11 points, five rebounds and six assists, becoming Nebraska's career assist leader with 699. She tied NU's season assist mark with 195.

Lindsey Moore put an exclamation point on one of the finest careers in Nebraska women's basketball history with her selection as the No. 12 overall pick in the first round of the 2013 WNBA Draft by the Minnesota Lynx. Moore became the third Husker in history to be chosen in the first round, and the second in the past four years. Moore's former Nebraska teammate, Kelsey Griffin, was the No. 3 overall pick of the 2010 WNBA Draft by the Minnesota Lynx before being traded to the Connecticut Sun. In her first professional season, Moore helped the Lynx advance to the WNBA Finals after winning their second consecutive Western Conference championship.

One of the nation's top point guards, Lindsey Moore played more minutes (4,360), started more games (132), and won more games (94) than any other Husker in history. Moore was the No. 12 overall pick in the first round of the 2013 WNBA Draft by the Minnesota Lynx on April 15.

A 2012 and 2013 Nancy Lieberman Award finalist, Moore earned AP honorable-mention All-America accolades. She was also a preseason candidate for the Wade, Naismith and Wooden national player-of-the-year awards in 2012-13.

As a senior, Moore led Nebraska to its second NCAA Sweet 16 by averaging 15.1 points, 3.6 rebounds, 5.7 assists and 1.8 steals. She tied NU's season record with 195 assists while becoming the Huskers' career assist leader with 699. She finished 11th in scoring (1,673), ninth in steals (207) and fourth in career three-pointers (173) at Nebraska.

Moore ranked among the top 15 players in the Big Ten in seven categories in 2012-13, including No. 1 in assist-to-turnover ratio (2.14-to-1). She ranked in the top 10 in field goal, three-point field goal and free throw percentage.

Moore capped her career with 11 points, five rebounds and six assists in the NCAA Sweet 16 loss to No. 5 Duke March 31. That followed her fifth career double-double with 20 points and 10 assists in NU's second-round win at No. 9 Texas A&M March 25. She added 13 points, five rebounds and seven assists in an opening-round win over Chattanooga March 23.

In the 2013 NCAA Tournament, Moore averaged 14.7 points, 5.3 rebounds and 7.7 assists.

Moore, whose five career double-doubles included the only triple-double in school history, produced 25 career 20-point games, including a pair of 30-point efforts.

She scored a season-high 26 points in NU's win over Wisconsin Jan. 2, when she tied a career high with five threes. She added four assists and four steals against UW. She added 26 points and seven boards at Minnesota Jan. 20. She also dished out seven assists and led NU with three steals.

She produced a 23-point effort against No. 7 Penn State on March 3, and added a 22-point, eight-assist game against Purdue March 9.

Moore had 22 points and eight assists in NU's overtime loss to No. 14 Purdue Jan. 5. She scored 23 points at USC Nov. 23, including 17 in the final 6:06. She tied career bests by going 13-of-15 at the line. Moore added 21 points and five assists at South Dakota State Nov. 18, before producing 20 points and three assists at South Florida Dec. 16.

She had 14 points, seven rebounds and seven assists while sealing a 76-75 win at Iowa on two free throws with 12 seconds left on Feb. 11.

Moore scored 14 points to go along with a season-high eight rebounds and four assists in a win over Ohio State Feb. 14, before adding game highs of 15 points and eight assists in a win at Michigan Feb. 21.

Moore had 10 points, seven rebounds and eight assists in a win over Iowa Feb. 24. She added a team-high 13 points and found Haillie Sample on the game-winning assist before sealing the win with a free throw in the final 10 seconds. Moore had 16 points and four steals while hitting two free throws in the final 20 seconds to seal NU's win at Northwestern Feb. 7.

She had 14 points, five boards, eight assists, and a season-high five steals in a win over No. 24 Florida State Dec. 8. She hit the game-winning free throws with 22 seconds left.

Junior (2011-12)

Moore earned second-team All-Big Ten honors by averaging 15.7 points, 5.1 assists and 2.2 steals per game as a junior. She produced double figures in 27 of 33 games, including a pair of double-doubles (points-assists).

For the season, Moore hit 42.6 percent of her field goal attempts, including 31.2 percent (48-154) of her three-pointers. Her shooting percentages dipped during the season because she was frequently Nebraska's final option in late-shot clock situations. She also hit a stellar 81.9 percent (145-177) of her free throws. Her free throws made and attempted both ranked among the top-10 single-season marks in Nebraska history.

Her 167 assists on the year ranked ninth in school history and third all-time among NU juniors. Her 72 steals just missed a top-10 season at Nebraska, as did her 48 three-pointers made.

She added a spot on the Big Ten All-Tournament Team by averaging 18.8 points, 4.8 assists and 2.8 steals while leading the Huskers to the Big Ten title game.

Moore had 27 points, five assists, four rebounds and two steals while playing a career-high 50 minutes in the Big Ten Championship Game against No. 21 Purdue. She added 26 points, six assists and five steals in the conference quarterfinal win over Iowa. Her performance against the Hawkeyes included a near-halfcourt three-pointer at the buzzer to close the first half.

She produced 10 20-point efforts on the year, including six with 26 or more points.

Moore opened her junior season by producing double figures in the first four games, including 10 points and a career-high six steals in just 22 minutes in a season-opening win over Arkansas-Pine Bluff. She added her first double-double of the season with 18 points and a career-high matching 11 assists in just 22 minutes in a win over Mississippi Valley State on Nov. 15. She went 7-of-7 from the field, including 2-of-2 from three-point range, while hitting both of her free throw attempts against the Devilettes.

She earned the first Big Ten Player-of-the-Week award in school history after her 22-point, six-assist effort in a win over No. 23 USC Nov. 18.

Moore was held to eight points but had eight assists and four steals in a win at Florida A&M, before producing 15 points, seven rebounds, five assists and three steals two days later at Florida State. She added 16 points, four assists and five steals in a loss at eventual NCAA Sweet 16 qualifier Georgia Tech on Nov. 30.

Moore erupted for one of the best efforts of her career with 31 points, nine assists, six rebounds and three steals in a double-overtime win at Northern Arizona Dec. 10. Moore, who joined Hooper (32) against NAU as the first Husker teammates in history to score 30 or more points in the same game, scored 25 points after halftime against the Lumberjacks.

Moore closed non-conference play with 27 points, six assists, four rebounds and two steals against South Dakota State Dec. 21.

Moore pumped in 26 points, including eight in the third overtime of Nebraska's 93-89 triple-overtime victory at No. 15 Purdue Feb. 2. Moore's 28-foot three-pointer from the left wing in the third overtime made her the 27th Husker in history to reach 1,000 career points. She added seven rebounds, two assists and two steals in 49 minutes against the Boilermakers.

She produced 28 points and five assists in a win at Wisconsin Jan. 12. Her effort against the Badgers followed a dominant performance at Iowa Jan. 8, when she led the Huskers in every category with 22 points, 11 assists, seven rebounds and three steals in a 77-72 win. It was her fourth career double-double and second of the season. She averaged 21.0 points, 5.0 rebounds, 6.7 assists and 4.0 steals in three wins over Iowa on the season.

Moore added 23 points against Michigan Feb. 9, including a career-high-matching five three-pointers. After a 12-point, five-assist effort at Minnesota, Moore suffered a bruised knee late in a loss to Northwestern. The injury limited her effectiveness during a four-game stretch where she averaged just 8.8 points to close the regular-season Big Ten schedule.

She recovered to earn All-Big Ten Tournament honors, before closing the year with 12 points, six rebounds and two assists in NU's first-round NCAA Tournament loss to Kansas.

Moore expanded her game throughout 2010-11 and earned honorable-mention All-Big 12 accolades. In Big 12 play, Moore ranked 10th in the league in scoring with 17.0 points per game, while ranking third in the league with 5.9 assists per contest.

She averaged 14.1 points per game, while ranking third in the Big 12 with 5.9 assists per contest. She added 3.8 rebounds per game and led the Huskers with 31 total steals. Moore hit 43.3 percent of her shots from the field, including 34.3 percent (49-143) of her three-pointers. She also connected on 77.9 percent of her free throws.

Over the final five games of her sophomore season, Moore averaged 21.0 points, 4.6 rebounds and 8.2 assists per game, including a career-high 33 points and five assists at Kansas on Feb. 26.

She added 23 points and nine assists against Colorado on March 2, and 23 points and eight assists in a win over Missouri on Feb. 22. Moore added her second career double-double with 13 points and 10 assists at eventual national champion Texas A&M in the regular-season finale on March 5.

Moore closed the year with 13 points and nine assists in the Big 12 Tournament against Iowa State on March 8. Her nine assists against the Cyclones set Nebraska's Big 12 Tournament single-game record.

Moore hit 55.4 percent of her field goals over the final five games, including 43.5 percent of her three-point attempts. She also went 13-for-14 (92.9 percent) at the free throw line during that stretch. Over the final five games Moore had a hand in 68.9 percent of NU's made baskets. She finished the year with a hand in 47.1 percent of NU's field goals. In Coach Connie Yori's first eight seasons at Nebraska no NU player had ever had a hand in 38 percent of NU's field goals in a season.

Moore made history with Nebraska's first-ever triple-double with 12 points, a career-high 10 rebounds, and a career-high matching 11 assists in a win over Florida A&M on Jan. 2. She was honored with the first Big 12 Player-of-the-Week award of her career on Jan. 3.

As a sophomore Moore played a school-record 1,164 minutes, averaging more than 37 minutes per game. She led the Big 12 with 39.3 minutes per game in league action, going the distance in 12 of the 16 regular-season league games, including a career-high 45 minutes in a win over Kansas on Jan. 16. She had 23 points, six rebounds and five assists against the Jayhawks.

Overall, she went the distance 16 times and spent just 29 minutes off the court in NU's final 25 games. She played the full 40 in each of Nebraska's final four games, and had a six-game stretch beginning with the Kansas game on Jan. 16 where she did not come off the floor.

Moore closed the season with double figures in 13 consecutive games. She scored in double figures 22 times on the year, including six games with 20 or more points. In addition to her career-high 33 points at Kansas, she poured in 27 against No. 23 Iowa State on Jan. 26. She notched 23 points in the second meeting with Kansas, while also scoring 23 in rematches with Missouri (Feb. 22) and Colorado (March 2). She posted the first 20-point effort of her career with 22 points and nine assists in NU's win over ACC regular-season champion Miami on Nov. 17.

Moore opened her sophomore season in record-setting fashion by knocking down a career-high five of Nebraska's school-record 17 three-pointers in a win over Vermont on Nov. 13. She finished with 17 points against UVM.

She helped the Huskers improve to 4-0 on the season with 15 points and five assists in a win at Washington State on Nov. 22. She improved to 35-0 in collegiate regular-season starts by helping the Huskers to a win over UNLV on Nov. 30. NU moved to 6-0 with that win before suffering its first defeat at Indiana on Dec. 5, when Moore had just one point and four assists in the first regular-season loss of her college career.

Freshman (2009-10)

Moore stepped into Nebraska's starting five after earning Washington High School Player-of-the-Year honors in 2009.

Not only did Moore earn a starting job for all 34 games and one of five spots on the Big 12 All-Freshman Team, she continued to show her improvement throughout the year. She averaged 8.9 points, 4.5 assists and 1.5 steals over the final 11 games, while shooting 50.8 percent (31-61) from the field, including 50 percent (14-28) from three-point range and 81.5 percent (22-27) from the free throw line during that stretch.

Moore, who notched nine double-figure scoring efforts, produced double digits in six of NU's last 11 games. She had a season-high 18 points against No. 13 Iowa State Feb. 17, when she hit a season-best four three-pointers.

She averaged 6.0 points, 2.1 rebounds, 4.5 assists and 1.3 steals per game. Moore ranked third on NU's freshman assist chart (154) and was the first Husker since 2005-06 to record 100 or more assists in a season. She also tied for fifth on NU's freshman three-point made list with 24.

In Big 12 play, Moore was even better, averaging 6.6 points, 4.6 assists and 1.4 steals per game.

In NCAA Tournament play, Moore averaged 9.7 points, 1.7 rebounds, 6.0 assists and 1.3 steals, while shooting 60 percent from the field and 62.5 percent (5-8) from three-point range. She was also 6-of-7 at the line. She produced double figures with 10 points each against Northern Iowa and Kentucky, and had nine points and a career-best 11 assists in a second-round win over No. 22 UCLA. She had eight points, seven assists and a season-high four steals against No. 11 Texas A&M in the Big 12 semifinals.

Moore had 14 points, three assists and three steals in just 24 minutes against Kansas (March 3). She added 11 points and a season-best eight rebounds to go along with five assists in a win over No. 10 Oklahoma State (Feb. 3). She added double figures with 10 points, three rebounds, four assists and two steals at Kansas State (March 6), after producing 10 points, four rebounds and four assists in NU's Big 12 title-clinching win over No. 11 Oklahoma (Feb. 24).

Moore had three steals at Kansas and Missouri, while hitting key free throws to seal the wins. She had nine assists, while adding four points, five boards and three steals in the win over KSU (Jan. 23). She produced 11 points while adding two steals in Nebraska's win over Creighton (Dec. 9). She produced double figures for the first time with 10 points in a 107-54 win over Washington State (Nov. 22). She added three rebounds, four assists, a steal and her first career blocked shot.

Moore had nine points, seven assists and just one turnover in a season-high 36 minutes in a 14-point win over No. 5 LSU (Dec. 20). She added eight points and a pair of assists in Nebraska's rout of RPI No. 14 Vermont

High School

One of the top high school point guards in the nation in 2008-09, Moore came to Nebraska after a dominant senior year at Kentwood High School in the state of Washington. Moore captured Washington High School Player-of-the-Year honors from Gatorade, the Seattle Times and the Tacoma Tribune, while leading Kentwood to a Class 4A (state's largest) state title. Moore powered the Conquerors to a 28-1 final record and a final No. 2 national ranking in the USA Today Super 25.

The 5-9 guard averaged 15.7 points and 7.5 assists per game as a high school senior to earn first-team all-state honors from every major publication in the state of Washington. Moore's success capped an impressive high school career that included a top-100 national recruit ranking from ESPN HoopGurlz heading into her senior season. ESPN HoopGurlz picked Moore as the No. 1 player in the Washington Class of 2009, earning the No. 97 overall pick on the ESPN HoopGurlz Hundred.

She went on to earn one of 27 invitations to the USA Basketball Women's U19 National Team Trials in Colorado Springs, Colo., May 14-17. Moore, who was the fourth-youngest player invited to the trials, was one of 12 2009 high school All-Americans and one of five 2009 state players of the year at the trials.

A true point guard with tremendous floor vision and leadership potential, Moore earned first-team Seattle Times All-Area honors in 2007 and 2009, and is a three-time first-team All-SPSL selection. She was also named the Tacoma Tribune's Area MVP in both 2008 and 2009.

As a junior in 2007-08, Moore averaged 17.8 points, 7.9 assists, 4.6 rebounds and 3.7 steals per game for Kentwood.

Personal

Lindsey is the daughter of Rich and Amy Moore and was born June 3, 1991. She has two older sisters, Chelsea and Erin. Moore earned her bachelor's degree from Nebraska in communication studies in May of 2013.

She was a three-time selection to the Big 12 Commissioner's Honor Roll.

Moore chose Nebraska over Washington, Iowa State, Boise State, Gonzaga and Montana.

Senior (2012-13)

Meghin Williams was a leader on and off the court for the Huskers in 2012-13. Williams, who was hampered by foot injuries throughout her career, averaged 2.2 points and 2.1 rebounds as a senior.

Despite her injuries, Williams played in all 67 games in her final two seasons, joining starters Lindsey Moore, Jordan Hooper, Emily Cady and Hailie Sample as the only Huskers to accomplish that feat.

Nebraska's Big Ten Sportsmanship Award winner for 2013, Williams closed her career with four points, four rebounds and a block in NU's NCAA Sweet 16 battle with No. 5 Duke March 31. She added two points, one rebound and an assist in NU's first-round NCAA Tournament win over Chattanooga March 23.

Williams produced a career-high eight points to go along with three rebounds, an assist, a block and a steal against Grambling State Dec. 29. She had five points and three rebounds at Minnesota Jan. 20, before adding three points, three boards and a steal in a win over No. 25 Michigan State Jan. 24. She matched career highs with two blocks and two steals while adding five rebounds in a win over Ohio State Feb. 14.

Williams scored in 23 games as a senior and grabbed at least one rebound in 28 contests.

Williams opened with six points, four rebounds, an assist and a block in 10 minutes in a win over North Carolina A&T on Nov. 9. She added six points and three boards at Creighton Dec. 5. She had five points and three boards in a win over Iowa March 8, before adding four points against Purdue March 9.

She had four points, four rebounds, an assist and a block against Sam Houston State Nov. 20. She had three points, two boards and an assist against No. 11 Maryland Nov. 28.

Junior (2011-12)

Williams averaged 2.2 points and 3.0 rebounds in 12 minutes per game as a junior. Her role increased with Adrianna Maurer's season-ending back injury 10 games into the 2011-12 campaign.

Williams, who was hampered by a foot injury throughout the season, surpassed her previous career totals in points (+27), rebounds (+65), assists (+12), blocks (+15) and steals (+7).

She produced the best game of her career with seven points and six rebounds on a perfect shooting night in a win at Iowa on Jan. 8. Williams scored five straight points, including her first three-pointer of the year, to tie the game at 58 in the second half. She added a six-point, four-rebound, two-assist effort in a win at Illinois Jan. 29. It was her sixth game with five or more points off the bench in 2011-12.

Williams had six points and two assists to go along with five rebounds and a steal in a career-high 18 minutes against Vermont Dec. 18. She added six points, five rebounds, an assist and a block in just 10 minutes in NU's first-ever Big Ten win at No. 16 Penn State on Dec. 30. She added five points, including her second three-pointer of the year, and three boards against PSU on Jan. 15.

She added five points, four rebounds and two steals in a win over Texas-Pan American Dec. 4. She pitched in three points, a career-high six rebounds and a blocked shot in a win over Savannah State on Nov. 21. She matched her career best again with six rebounds at No. 10 Ohio State Jan. 19.

After pulling down five rebounds against Northwestern Feb. 16, Williams had at least two points and two rebounds in four straight games from Feb. 19 to March 1.

Williams saw significant action in Nebraska's first-round NCAA Tournament loss to Kansas in Little Rock, Ark., March 18. She finished with two points, four rebounds and a pair of blocked shots in 14 minutes against the Jayhawks.

Williams was hampered by a foot injury and did not see action until making her first appearance in a win at Creighton on Dec. 8, when she had
