BREAKING DOWN THE RAGIN' CAJUNS

Despite a 31-3 loss at ninth-ranked LSU last Saturday, Louisiana-Lafayette has proven to be a tough opponent for BCS Conference schools over the past two seasons. The Ragin' Cajuns defeated Big 12 foe Kansas State, 17-15, on Sept. 12 and last season, ULL lost by only three at 24th-ranked Illinois and by just eight at Kansas State.

Louisiana-Lafayette is led by its defense, as the Ragin' Cajuns have allowed fewer than 20 points in two of their three games. Offensively, ULL erupted for Louisiana-Lafayette Facts Location: Lafayette, La. Nickname: Ragin' Cajuns Enrollment: 15,035 Colors: Vermilion & White Conference: Sun Belt Stadium: Cajun Field Capacity: 31,000 Series Record: First Meeting Head Coach: Rickey Bustle Alma Mater (Year): Clemson (1976) Record at ULL: 34-51 (eight years) Career Record: 34-51 (eight years) Record vs. Nebraska: First meeting 42 points in its season opener, but the offense has managed just 20 points over its last two games. The Ragin' Cajuns are averaging 364 yards of total offense per game, including nearly 140 rushing yards. Through the air, ULL and Kentucky are the only Football Bowl Subdivision teams that have not allowed a sack this season. Louisiana-Lafayette is throwing for an average of 224.3 yards per game.

Defensively, ULL has been solid, allowing only 362.3 yards per game. But the Ragin'

Cajuns have lacked pressure, as they are averaging just 0.3 sacks per game and only 3.3 tackles-for-loss per contest. Those totals have Louisiana-Lafayette ranked next-to-last in the country in sacks and 111th out of 120 FBS teams in tackles-for-loss.

ULL opened its season with a 42-19 home win over Southern before using a late 48-yard field goal to get past Kansas State, 17-15, the following week. Last Saturday, the Ragin' Cajuns suffered their first loss of the season, falling at No. 9 LSU, 31-3. LSU only outgained Louisiana-Lafayette 330-272, but ULL committed three turnovers. Only one of LSU's five scoring drives covered more than 60 yards.

Series History

Nebraska and Louisiana-Lafayette will be meeting for the first time tonight. In fact, each of the Huskers' three non-conference games at Memorial Stadium this season come against first-time Sun Belt opponents. Nebraska opened the season on Sept. 5 with a 49-3 victory over Florida Atlantic and the Huskers defeated Arkansas State, 38-9, the following week.

Louisiana-Lafayette Head Coach Rickey Bustle

Rickey Bustle is in his eighth season as a head coach, with all eight seasons coming on the Louisiana-Lafayette sideline. He owns a career record of 34-51, but Bustle has guided the Ragin' Cajuns to six wins - and bowl eligibility - in three of the last four seasons.

Bustle made an immediate impact at ULL. In his first five seasons from 2002 to 2006, Bustle posted 23 victories after the program had won only nine games in the five years prior to his arrival. He led the Ragin' Cajuns to their first winning record in a decade in 2005, and the 12 games Louisiana-Lafayette won in 2005 and 2006 marked the program's most victories in a two-year span since 1994-95.

Before taking over at Louisiana-Lafayette, Bustle spent seven seasons as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Virginia Tech. During his time with the Hokies, Bustle was on the sidelines for the 1996 Orange Bowl, when the Huskers defeated Virginia Tech, 42-20, in between national championship seasons for NU.

Overall, Bustle spent all but one season at Virginia Tech from 1987 to 2001 with the exception of the 1994 season when he served a one-year stint as the offensive coordinator at South Carolina.
