

SELENIA R. IACCHELLI

seleniacchelli@hotmail.com

OBJECTIVE:

To gain admission into Physical Therapy school or a related career utilizing my college education, athletic experiences and desire to serve others.

EDUCATION:

Bachelor of Science in Education and Human Sciences, NUTRITIONAL SCIENCE AND DIETETICS, University of Nebraska-Lincoln, Expected Graduation: May 2009.

Minor: Chemistry

Cumulative GPA: 3.566

TRANSFERABLE ATHLETIC SKILLS:

- Leadership
- Team-Oriented
- Competitive
- Time Management
- Achievement-Oriented
- Energetic/Passionate
- Interpersonal Relations

EXPERIENCE:

Volunteer, Vancouver Orthopedic Sport Institute, Vancouver, BC, Summer 2008.

- Worked closely with Physical Therapist gaining diverse practical experience
- Provided direct patient assistance in facilitating rehabilitation procedures.
- Communicated and connected with patients from various backgrounds and with diverse injuries and age spectrums.
- Applied classroom knowledge to real-world setting.

Volunteer, Hand Print and Footsteps Physical Therapy Clinic, Lincoln, NE; Spring 2008.

- Observe physical therapy sessions specific to children.
- Exposure and experience with major disabilities including cystic fibrosis, paralysis and various other disorders.
- Establish rapport with Physical Therapist inquiring about all aspects of job.
- Gain valuable insights and experience with all daily operations of Physical Therapy clinic.

Volunteer, Emergency Room of Bryan LGH West, Fall 2007.

- Weekly volunteer in the emergency room observing crisis operations.

- Direct observation with Doctors working under extreme pressure and life threatening circumstances.
- Assisted with regular maintenance-related ER duties including cleaning and preparation.

Camp Instructor/Counselor, University of Nebraska Soccer Camps, Canadian National Team Camps and Alberta Provincial Soccer Camps – 2002 to Present.

- Instruct fundamental and advanced soccer skills to youth.
- Demonstrate specific techniques and moves to campers.
- Recognized as a role-model to youth.
- Inspire and encourage youth to further develop skills.
- Evaluate abilities and make recommendations for improvement.
- Work cooperatively with fellow coaches.
- Establish rapport and trust with youth from diverse backgrounds.

ACTIVITIES/HONORS:

- Student-Athlete, University of Nebraska Soccer, 2005 to Present.
- Elected Team Captain, Nebraska Soccer, 2007 and 2008 seasons.
- Full Scholarship Recipient, Nebraska Soccer, 2005 to Present.
- Three-Year Letterwinner, Nebraska Soccer.
- Recipient, HERO Leadership Award for dedicated service, 2008.
- Nominee, Women and Sports Fitness Celebration, Spring 2008.
- Big 12 Commissioners Academic Honor Roll, seven-time honoree.
- First-team Academic All Big 12, 2006 and 2007.
- Arthur Ashe Sports Scholar Team, 2006-07 and 2007-08.
- High Honors Academic Medallion, 2007 and 2008.
- Motivational Speaker, “School is Cool” Week.
- Motivational Speaker, American Education Week.
- Volunteer, Meet and Beat the Huskers, 2005, 2006 and 2007.
- Volunteer, UNL Dance Marathon to benefit the Children’s Hospital, 2007.
- Volunteer, Relay for Life to benefit Cancer research, 2007.
- Volunteer, Lincoln Retirement Center, 2006.
- Canadian National Soccer Team Member, 2001 to Present.
- Competed in U19 World Cup in Thailand, 2003.
- Competed in U20 World Cup in Russia, 2006.
- Competed in Pan America Games in Dominic Republic, 2003.
- Team Member, Canadian World Cup Training Olympic Team, 2008.
- Team Member, Vancouver White Caps (Semiprofessional), 2006, 2007 and 2008.

REFERENCES:

Available upon request.