

2009 CORNHUSKER FOOTBALL GAME DAY

Welcome to Memorial Stadium

I wanted to take a moment to welcome you to the 2009 Nebraska football season and say thank you for planning to join us at Memorial Stadium this year. We hope that it will be another exciting season as Coach Pelini and his staff look to add to the momentum the team created at the end of 2008.

Memorial Stadium is known throughout the country as one of the finest venues in all of college football and much of that attention and good-will has been bestowed on this program because of you, the fans. Your loyalty to the Cornhuskers and support of good sportsmanship are greatly appreciated. We hope you will continue those high standards this fall.

Nebraska's game-day atmosphere has been touted as the best in the country for decades and this year there will be some improvements we hope will add to it. You will notice two new video replay boards on the north end of the stadium and new ribbon boards spanning the east and west sides. Also noticeable when viewing the screens will be the upgrade to high definition to bring you the best video quality available. Hopefully you will enjoy these new amenities.

And finally, I want to express my gratitude for your enthusiasm in following the Huskers. Throughout the years, fans have poured into Memorial Stadium with unmatched loyalty and supported Nebraska in victory and defeat, while saluting our opponents for their play. It was a great moment in Husker history on Sept. 26, as Nebraska's continuing NCAA-record sellout streak reached 300 consecutive games. The stadium has been sold out since 1962 and that is a testament to you, the fans, and your loyal support.

Best Wishes,

Tom Osborne
