LOBOS CAPTURE FIRST LEAGUE CHAMPIONSHIP IN 15 YEARS

Picked to finish 5th in the MWC preseason poll, the Lobos won their final five games of the regular season to tie BYU and Utah for the regular season title at 12-4. BYU and Utah are both playing in the NCAA Tournament.

Just two years removed from a 4-12 league mark and losing in the MWC Tournament play-in game, New Mexico claimed its first conference crown in 15 years, since winning the 1994 Western Athletic Conference championship at 14-4.

After a 73-62 loss at BYU on Feb. 17, the Lobos were 7-4 in the MWC and knew they had to run the table to give themselves a chance at a championship.

The Lobos blasted San Diego State at home 75-49 in arguably their most complete game of the season. That was followed by a 76-62 home win over TCU.

Trailing at Colorado State by five with 13 seconds left in regulation, the title chase was in serious jeopardy. However, UNM pulled out an 81-79 triumph in double overtime.

A roof-raising sellout crowd of 18,018 and senior Tony Danridge's career-high 29 points willed UNM to a 77-71 victory over league leader Utah on March 3. It was Dandridge elevating his game again March 7, scoring another 29 as the Lobos escaped Laramie with a 74-73 decision over Wyoming and a share of the title.

STEVE ALFORD NAMED MWC COACH OF THE YEAR

University of New Mexico head coach Steve Alford has been named the 2008-09 Mountain West Conference Coach of the Year after leading the Lobos to a share of the league title at 12-4. UNM was picked to finish 5th in the preseason poll.

Alford is the first Lobo head coach to earn the award in the MWC. The last UNM coach to be honored was Dave Bliss, who was recognized by the Western Athletic Conference in 1993-94 and 1995-96.

Surprisingly, this is Alford's first accolade at the NCAA Div. I level. He was a three-time Indiana Collegiate Conference coach of the year in 1993, '94 and '95 while at NCAA Div. III Manchester (Ind.) College.

Senior Tony Danridge earned a spot on the All-Mountain West Conference first team. Fellow senior Daniel Faris was named to the second team while senior Chad Toppert and junior Roman Martinez received honorable mention recognition.

AN AMAZING JOB BY ALFORD IN 2 SEASONS

The list of superlatives in just two years are extremely impressive for the former Indiana All-American:

2007-08 (Season No. 1 / 24-9 / 11-5 MWC / 3rd)

- Set a school record for most wins by a New Mexico head coach in his first season and tied the record for most victories by any Lobo coach during the regular season

- New Mexico was a +9 in wins from the previous season, the 5th-biggest improvement in school history...UNM was a +7 in conference games, from 4-12 to 11-5

- UNM held opponents to just 41.0% shooting from the floor, the 4th-lowest surrendered by a Lobo team in the previous 43 years

- An 8-6 road record, tying a school record set three other times: 8-4 in 1972-73, 8-2 in 1977-78 and 8-3 in 1995-96

- Broke three long losing streaks in road games: 7 in a row at Air Force, 10 straight at Wyoming and an 18-game drought at Utah

- Mentored his first NBA 1st-round draft choice in MWC co-Player of the Year J.R. Giddens, who was taken by the World Champion Boston Celtics

2008-09 (Season No. 2 / 21-11 / 12-4 MWC / T1st)

- UNM's first conference championship in 15 years...it's also Alford's

first in 14 seasons as a head coach at the NCAA Div. I level...he won two titles with NCAA Div. III Manchester (Ind.) College in 1994-95

- 45 wins, the most by a New Mexico head coach in his first two seasons

- A school record 14 road wins (8-6 and 6-6) in consecutive seasons...the previous record was 13 in 1973 and '74...UNM was 14-60 on the road in 7 seasons before Alford arrived

- 9-7 in MWC road games...UNM was 9-42 in MWC road tilts in 7 seasons before Alford arrived

- 23 conference wins, the most in consecutive years since 25 in 1996 (14) and 1997 (11)

AND QUITE A BURST BY TONY DANRIDGE

The quiet senior made a strong bid for MWC Player of the Year honors over the last month of the season. He really closed his final regular season with a bang, lifting the Lobos to a pair of wins and a share of the MWC regular season title.

Danridge scored a career-high 29 points in a 77-71 victory over league-leader Utah, then matched that total with 29 in a 74-73 win at Wyoming.

Against Utah, Danridge scored 18 of his 29 points in the second half as the Lobos forced a tie atop the MWC standings with the first-place Utes. He connected on 13 of 16 free throws, career-highs in both categories. At Wyoming, Danridge converted a career-best 14 of 20 shots from the floor.

For the week, Danridge scored 58 points on 22 of 35 FGs and 14 of 18 free throws. He added 6 rebounds, 8 assists and 4 steals in 72 minutes of action. The 58 points in consecutive games is the most since J.R. Giddens had 58 a year ago against Wyoming and San Diego State.

PIT GETTING $60 MILLION RENOVATION

On Nov. 6, 2008, the University of New Mexico Vice President for Athletics Paul Krebs outlined details of the $60 million renovation to University Arena that are currently underway. Images are available at www.golobos.com.

"Our goal is to create the best collegiate basketball venue in the nation," said Krebs.

Financing is coming from three sources: 1) $25 million in debt service which is the responsibility of athletics; 2) $18 million in state capital outlay which was committed several years ago; and 3) $17 million from private fundraising given specifically for this project.

The focus of the design, led by the Albuquerque architectural firm of Molzen-Corbin & Associates, was to maintain and improve the fan experience but not change The Pit. The planning committee was charged with keeping The Pit intimate, respecting its history, keeping the mystique of the arena, maintaining great site lines and the current bowl seating mix and embracing new technology. As a result, the renovation will include:

- 60,000 square feet of new space
- Doubling the number of concessions points of sale
- Doubling the total number of rest rooms
- Expanding the concourse to enhance pedestrian traffic flow

- Extensive glasswork as well as increased ceiling height that will allow patrons to take advantage of views including the Sandia Mountains and downtown Albuquerque

- New state-of-the art locker room facilities for both men's and women's basketball teams

- Addition of new weight room and training room dedicated to men's and women's basket ball

- Addition of a Lettermen's lounge to provide access to UNM letterwinners from all sports

- Increase technology to enhance the fan experience, including video boards, ribbon boards and digital signage throughout the arena

- Extensive signage and graphics package to highlight the history of Lobo athletics

- Addition of 40 luxury suites and more than 300 club seats

- New commissary to support improved concessions as well as club and suites

- The Lobo Store will nearly double its current size

- Ticket office will be expanded and relocated

NOTES TO KNOW ENTERING THE NIT

- The Lobos are 38-2 in their last 40 non-conference home games...the losses came this season against Central Florida and UTEP
  - Head coach Steve Alford has regularly talked about how much this Lobo team has gradually improved since the Thanksgiving trip to Cancun...after dropping games to Virginia Commonwealth and Drake on consecutive nights in late November, UNM sat at 3-4...Alford had a lengthy team meeting after the loss to Drake to get some answers...in hindsight, the meeting must have been fruitful since New Mexico is 18-7 since
  - UNM has allowed 70-plus points in four straight games for only the second time under head coach Steve Alford...one of those games - Colorado State - went into double OT
  - The leader in the MWC in 3-point shooting most of the season, the Lobos have connected on just 24% (14-58) the past 3 games
  - Also the leader in FG% defense most of the season, opponents have hit 51.6% (63-122) of their shots the past 3 games, including 48% (24-50) from 3-point
  - The Lobos made 22 of 26 FTs against Wyoming in the MWC Tournament and are above 70% accuracy for only the second time this season...UNM was at 70.8% after the first game of the year...the Lobos are currently at 70.2% after converting 77% (54-70) the past 3 games
  - UNM's 12 conference wins were by an average of 14.3 points while its 4 losses - all on the road at UNLV, San Diego State, Utah and BYU - were by a combined 19 points, or 4.8 points
  - For the first time since 2005, the Lobos were undefeated (8-0) in home MWC games, winning by an average of 17.7 points...in four of those games, UNM held the opponent to a season scoring low: BYU (62), Colorado State (50), Wyoming (57) and San Diego State (49)...a look at the numbers in the 8 MWC home games:
- | Opponent        | Result           | Opp. FG%            |
|-----------------|------------------|---------------------|
| Air Force       | W, 78-53         | 18-46 .391          |
| BYU             | W, 81-62         | 21-54 .389          |
| Colorado State  | W, 68-50         | 16-35 .457          |
| Wyoming         | W, 86-57         | 17-48 .354          |
| UNLV            | W, 73-69 (OT)    | 23-58 .397          |
| San Diego State | W, 75-49         | 18-49 .367          |
| TCU             | W, 76-62         | 19-43 .442          |
| Utah            | W, 77-71         | 22-39 .564          |
| Averages | 76.8-59.1 | 154-372 .414 |
- Including last year's home win over UNLV, the Lobos have won 9 straight MWC home games...the victory margin in those games is an impressive 17.9 points
  - Big Shots for Faris: Senior Daniel Faris' improbable shot Feb. 28 that sent the Colorado State game into overtime was really his third biggie of the season...he made a 6-footer in the lane with 39 seconds left at New Mexico State that gave UNM a 68-66 victory...he tied the UNLV game at 69-all with a bucket with 47.5 seconds left in OT...UNM won 73-69
  - Danridge Rollin': After a career-best 29 points against Utah and Wyoming, senior Tony Danridge has averaged 20.4 points in the past 9 games...with 1,237 career points, he is 17th on UNM's all-time scoring list...Tony needs 10 points to pass Marvin Johnson (1,246) for 16th
  - Toppert Surpasses 1,000 Points: Senior Chad Toppert has become the 26th member of UNM's 1,000-point club...teammate Tony Danridge was the 25th Lobo to do so earlier this season...what's unique about Toppert is that he has only started 28 games in his 125-game career...every other Lobo to reach 1,000 points has started at least 53 games

• UNM was 9-0 in MWC games this year when Toppert scored in double figures

• FG% defense has been a strength of UNM teams under Steve Alford...last year, UNM held opponents to 41.0%, the 4th-lowest by a Lobo team in the past 43 years...it's slightly better this season at 40.9%...opponents have shot just 40.98% (1,327-3,238) in 65 games against Alford's Lobo teams

• Stay in the Game Ro: Prior to the MWC Tournament loss to Wyoming, the Lobos had been 15-1 this season - with 15 consecutive wins - when junior Roman Martinez plays more than 30 minutes...he played 36 minutes against Wyoming...the only other loss was at Creighton on Nov. 16...that means UNM is 6-9 when "Ro" plays 30 minutes or less

• Keep 'Em Below 60: The Lobos have won 31 straight games when allowing less than 60 points, and they are 51-2 in such games since 2004-05...the last loss was 51-46 at Air Force on Feb. 22, 2006

• New Mexico is 5-4 when trailing at half this year, 3-0 at home and 2-4 on the road...the wins came over Southern Miss, Oral Roberts and UNLV...the road wins came at Air Force and Colorado State

• Of UNM's 33 games in 2007-08, six were decided by 3 points or less, and it went 2-4...the 2008-09 squad has surpassed that total for nail-biters, recording a 6-3 mark

• Three Lobos did not play basketball last season: senior Tony Danridge was out with a broken leg while freshmen Will Brown and A.J. Hardeman were tending to academics

• UNM has the top single-game assist total in the MWC this year: 29 vs. Ole Miss

• New Mexico had to rally from 12 or more points twice during a 4-game winning streak in December...UNM trailed Southern Miss 30-18, before prevailing 60-58...there was a 34-19 hole against Oral Roberts, but the Lobos rallied for a 66-63 victory

• Four true scholarship freshmen will letter for UNM in 2008-09: Will Brown, Nate Garth, A.J. Hardeman and Phillip McDonald...that has happened only once: 1983-84 when five Lobos - Paul Connery, Hunter Greene, Larry Markland, Kelvin Scarborough and Mike Winters - did so...freshmen became eligible for the varsity in 1973-74

MWC TOURNAMENT RECAP VS. WYOMING

Brandon Ewing made four 3-pointers while scoring 20 points, and sixth-seeded Wyoming upset third-seeded New Mexico 75-67 Thursday night in the Mountain West Conference tournament quarterfinals.

Sean Ogirri added 17 points with five more baskets from behind the 3-point line, where the Cowboys made half of their field goals.

Dairese Gary scored 20 points for New Mexico, which shared the regular season conference title with BYU and Utah. The Lobos were just 3-of-23 on 3-pointers.

UNM HEAD COACH STEVE ALFORD

Steve Alford, 44, is in his second season in charge of Lobo hoops and his 18th year as a collegiate head coach. He was named UNM's 19th head coach on March 23, 2007.

Alford, who has never been an assistant coach in his career, has a 353-203 (64%) career record in his 18th season as a head coach, 45-20 at New Mexico. His teams have qualified for postseason play 12 times, produced 15 winning seasons and reached 20 wins on 10 occasions.

Prior to New Mexico, Alford spent eight seasons at the University of Iowa where he compiled a 152-106 record, including a school-record seven consecutive winning seasons and six postseason appearances. The Hawkeyes won two Big Ten Conference tournament titles (2001 and '06).

Prior to Iowa, Alford posted a 78-29 record in four seasons (1992-95) at NCAA Division III Manchester (Ind.) College and a four-year (1996-99) record of 78-48 at Southwest Missouri State (now Missouri State). The Bears defeated Wisconsin and Tennessee to advance to the Sweet 16 of the 1999 NCAA Tournament before losing to top-ranked Duke in the regional semifinals. In 1997 Alford led the Bears to a 24-9 record (second in the Missouri Valley Conference) and a trip to the National Invitation Tournament.

Manchester advanced to the 1995 NCAA Division III championship game before suffering its first defeat in 32 games to place second in the nation. Alford was named Indiana

THREE-YEAR EXTENSION FOR ALFORD

University of New Mexico Vice-President for Athletics Paul Krebs announced March 31, 2008, that Steve Alford has agreed to a three-year contract extension that will keep him on the Lobo sidelines through the 2015-16 season. Alford finished the first year of a six-year contract in 2008.

ALFORD INDUCTED INTO INDIANA BASKETBALL HALL OF FAME

University of New Mexico head coach Steve Alford has been inducted into the 2009 Indiana Basketball Hall of Fame. If you are wondering what took so long for Alford's induction, there is a 26-year waiting period after high school graduation so he is a first ballot selection. In fact, Alford is just the eighth honoree to be selected in his first year of eligibility. Joining Alford in the 2009 class are NBA coaches Gregg Popovich (Merrillville) and Scott Skiles (Plymouth). Popovich coaches the San Antonio Spurs and Skiles the Milwaukee Bucks.

Alford is a 1983 graduate of New Castle Chrysler High School where he played for his father, Sam. Steve earned Indiana's Mr. Basketball Award as a senior when he averaged 37.7 points a game. Alford went on to become an All-American at Indiana University, leading the Hoosiers to the 1987 NCAA title.

"I'm deeply honored to be recognized," said Alford. "This is a very prestigious award considering the previous inductees."

The banquet in March 25, 2009, in Indianapolis.

SENIORS IMPRESSIVE ON AND OFF THE COURT

UNM's three seniors - Tony Danridge (San Bernardino, Calif.), Daniel Faris (Albuquerque) and Chad Toppert (Albuquerque) - are scheduled to graduate in May with a bachelor's degree.

Danridge is majoring in University Studies, Faris in Mass Media/Communications and Toppert in Business. The trio has participated in at least 121 games in their careers at New Mexico: Danridge (127), Toppert (125) and Faris (121). They have combined to score 3,118 points.

UNM HITS 20 WINS FOR THE 22ND TIME; ALFORD'S 10TH

UNM has won 20+ games in a season 22 times - all since 1964. After a 24-9 record last year, the Lobos have posted back-to-back 20-win seasons for the first time since four in a row from 1996-99. It's head coach Steve Alford's 10th 20-win campaign in 17 full seasons as a head coach.

UNBELIEVABLE FINISH IN FORT COLLINS

The Lobos completed a 6-1 February slate with a Houdini-like 81-79 double-overtime victory at Colorado State. Down 62-57 with 13 seconds left in regulation, the Lobos used the following script to send it into overtime:

- A 3-pointer from Chad Toppert with 7.6 seconds left
- On the in-bounds play, Roman Martinez forced a held ball/turnover with 5.3 seconds left
- Grabbing a partially deflected 3-point attempt by Toppert, Daniel Faris scored on an over-the-head putback with 0.7 seconds remaining to tie the score at 62

First OT: Knotted at 71, the two teams played on when UNM survived a charging call by Dairese Gary with 5.9 seconds. Marcus Walker then missed a 3-pointer that would have won it for the Rams.

Second OT: UNM led 81-79 following a made FT by Toppert with 7.2 ticks left. The Lobos escaped for the final time when CSU's Willis Gardner missed a short runner and Travis Franklin's tip rolled off as the clock expired. Walker led the CSU with 33 points.

Toppert paced the Lobos with 19 points on five 3-pointers. Gary scored all 18 of his points and dished six of his game-high eight assists after halftime. Junior Roman Martinez notched his 4th double-double with 12 points and 12 boards, tying a career-high.

New Mexico led 30-16 before the Rams came storming back. They closed the half with a 7-0 run to trim the deficit to 30-23. CSU held a 53-45 advantage with five minutes to go.

GRANGER AN NBA ALL-STAR

Former University of New Mexico All-American Danny Granger (2003-05) was chosen as a Eastern Conference reserve for the 58th NBA All-Star Game played Feb. 15 in Phoenix. Granger is in his fourth year with the Indiana Pacers. He was a 1st-round draft pick in 2006.

One of league's top scorers, Granger is the first former Lobo to play in an NBA All-Star game. Mel Daniels (1965-67) was a 7-time ABA All-Star, ironically, six times when he played with the Indiana Pacers.

GARY, GARTH REACH 10 ASSISTS IN SAME GAME

Sophomore Dairese Gary (11) and true freshman Nate Garth (10) each reached double-digits in assists in the 103-70 victory over Ole Miss on Dec. 13. The last time that happened was Nov. 23, 1990, when Jimmy Taylor and Ike Williams each had 10 in the Lobos' 136-99 victory over Texas-Arlington. That's the most points UNM has scored in a game.

Gary's total remains the highest in the Mountain West Conference this season.

Garth became just the fifth Lobo freshman to reach 10 assists in a game, joining Phil Smith, David Gibson, John Robinson II and Marlon Parmer.

MORE ON ASSISTS; 29 vs. OLE MISS

Thanks to Gary and Garth, the Lobos recorded a season-high 29 assists in the win against Ole Miss. That's the most assists since Dec. 29, 1997, when UNM dished 32 in a 112-61 victory over Holy Cross.

GOTTA FINISH

Five of the Lobos' losses this season have been a bit tough to stomach. On Nov. 16 in Omaha, New Mexico held a 59-43 lead over Creighton with 10:17 remaining. The margin was still nine points in UNM's favor at 72-63 with 3:39 left before the Bluejays went on an improbable 17-0 run that led them to an 82-75 victory.

The Lobos lost to Central Florida 72-71 on Nov. 22 when the Knights nailed a 3-pointer with 4.6 seconds to play. New Mexico had a 69-60 advantage after two made free throws with 2:07 to go. UCF outscored UNM 12-2 down the stretch to shock the home crowd.

Against VCU in Cancun, UNM overcame first-half deficits of 10-0 and 21-10 to lead 43-37 with 14:06 remaining. The Rams responded with a 13-0 run and eventually won 67-55.

The next night, the Lobos got off to a 15-7 lead over Drake. It was 36-33 in UNM's favor early in the second half before the Bulldogs went on a big run for a 64-48 lead. New Mexico stormed back to trim the margin to 64-59, but came up short in the 68-62 loss.

New Mexico held a 27-14 advantage over Wyoming in the first half of the MWC Championship in Las Vegas. The Lobos, however, went cold in the second half - 8-29 FGs and 0-11 from 3-point - in the 75-67 setback to the Cowboys.

NO. 600 IN THE PIT

New Mexico won its 600th game in The Pit by beating Grambling State 96-50 on Nov. 20. The first game was played on Dec. 1, 1966. A look at the Lobos' landmark wins in their home arena:

No. 1	Dec. 1, 1966	beat Abilene Christian, 62-53
No. 100	Feb. 14, 1974	beat Arizona State, 89-72
No. 200	Nov. 26, 1982	beat New Mexico Highlands, 122-84
No. 300	Jan. 5, 1989	beat BYU, 88-84
No. 400	Nov. 17, 1995	beat Simon Fraser, 81-67
No. 500	Nov. 23, 2001	beat Pacific, 85-66
No. 600	Nov. 20, 2008	beat Grambling State, 96-50

NON-CONFERENCE STREAK COMES TO AN END

When Central Florida shocked the Lobos with a 72-71 loss in The Pit on Nov. 22, it put an end to New Mexico's 33-game winning streak in non-conference home games. The last loss before UCF was to No. 5 Wake Forest on Dec. 22, 2004. At the time, UNM's streak was the fifth longest in the nation at the time.

SEASON TICKETS INCREASE

Lobo fans purchased 10,392 season tickets for 2008-09. That's the highest total in four years. UNM sold 10,598 in 2003-04. The number was 10,094 last year.

SEASON NO. 106

The University of New Mexico men's basketball program is in its 106th season. The Lobos first laced up the hightops on Feb. 2, 1900, when they lost 8-6 to the Albuquerque Guards. While this season is actually the 110th anniversary of that inaugural year, UNM did not field a team for various reasons in 1900-01, 1903-04, 1917-18 and 1920-21.

The Lobos have been playing continuously since the 1921-22 season and have compiled an all-time record of 1,309-1,017 (.562).

New Mexico was 418-495 (.458) from 1900-62, but has gone 891-522 (.629) over the past 47 seasons, an average of nearly 19 wins per year. The Lobos have made 28 trips to the postseason during that span, including 11 appearances in the NCAA Tournament and 17 showings in the NIT.

GRANGER DONATES $500,000 TO PIT RENOVATION

By Richard Stevens - Senior Writer/GoLobos.com - Sept. 17, 2008

If you know that much about ex-Lobo Danny Granger, it doesn't come as a surprise that he is willing to dig deep into his pockets, pluck out $500,000, and hand it over to the University of New Mexico in the school's quest to renovate University Arena.

Because Danny Granger loves The Pit. He loves Lobos basketball, too.

"This is something I've wanted to do ever since I got drafted," said the former UNM star, about to begin his fourth season in the NBA with the Indiana Pacers. "New Mexico is a second home to me and the University of New Mexico gave me a lot of opportunities and I attribute so much to them for all the things I've been able to make of myself.

"The Pit holds a special place in my heart for all the love The Pit showed, not just to me, but to the whole team. I want to give something back to the school because I'm a Lobo fanatic and this is a great way for me to do that."

Granger's donation of $500,000 will come in five annual donations of $100,000. It is part of the $17 million UNM needs to raise from the private sector to reach the $60 million price tag on The Pit's face-lift.

Larry Ryan, a UNM associate athletics director in charge of development, said Granger's donation will be one of the largest donations to ever come to UNM athletics from an individual.

Ryan said once final approval is granted by the UNM Board of Regents and the naming committee, Granger's name will become part of the renovated locker rooms in The Pit.

"I met with (UNM President David J. Schmidly) and he was telling me about some of the things he is planning to do at UNM," said Granger. "He is really planning some great things and I wanted to be a part of this one (Pit renovation)."

Granger played for the Lobos from 2004-05. He was All-Mountain West Conference in 2004 and 2005 and All-American (Basketball Times) in 2005 after leading UNM to the 2005 MWC tourney title. The Lobos stunned No. 15-ranked Utah 60-56 in the MWC championship game. Granger averaged 19.5 points as a Lobo in 2003-04 and 18.8 points in 2004-05.

Granger was noted for his all-around play on the court and for his humility and sportsmanship off the court.

One of the best insights into Granger, as a person and as a teammate, came during a practice session in which former Lobos coach Ritchie McKay was making point guard Javin Tindall run a few extra sprints to the far baseline and back.

McKay sent Tindall on the sprint by himself while the rest of the Lobos watched. When Tindall finished his solo run, McKay said, "Again." When Tindall returned to his waiting teammates, McKay said, "Again." This time Tindall did not sprint alone. Granger had joined him and ran along side his teammate. McKay did not say, "Again," when Granger and Tindall finished their sprint.

That was very much the type of player and teammate Granger was at UNM. Those qualities are also why Granger is putting some of his NBA money into renovating his former home court.

"The Pit needs to remain a special place," said Granger. "I was so amazed when I got to UNM. I had never played in a place like that before where the crowd can make such a huge difference."

Granger's success at the NBA level is no surprise to the thousands of Lobo fans who watched him star for UNM for two seasons.

Granger is all-around. The 6-foot-8 forward/wing can rebound, pass, defend, score inside, score outside and can put the ball on the floor.

He averaged 7.5 points and 4.9 rebounds his rookie NBA season in 2005-06. He scored 13.9 points and pulled down 4.6 rebounds per game in 2006-07. This past season his numbers jumped to 19.6 and 6.1. He shot .855 percent from the free throw line.

"My role has changed and increased every season," said Granger. "I'm expecting an even bigger role next season (2008-09)."

"I'm happy with the way things have been going. I didn't play that much my first year, but I did get some pretty good minutes. My second year, they brought me off the bench more and I became a starter and kind of got the baptism by fire. That was a big adjustment.

"Before last season (2007-08), I really worked to sculpture my off-season workouts to fit the role as a starter getting a lot of minutes. I was more prepared last year and I did pretty well. This is going to be only my fourth season. I know there is a lot more to learn, but I have a pretty good grasp of where I am with the team and where I'm at as a player.

"I'm really looking forward to this coming year. I expect us to do some great things."

And thanks, in part, to Danny Granger, the Lobos are closer to doing some great things to his old stomping grounds = The Pit.

3s AND COUNTING

UNM has made a 3-pointer in 613 straight games, the 11th-longest active streak in NCAA Div. I. UNLV is 1st at more than 730. The last time UNM failed to connect from long range was Jan. 3, 1991, missing on 8 attempts against Colorado State in The Pit.

2008-09 FRESHMAN CLASS LARGEST IN 24 YEARS

The five scholarship newcomers - Will Brown, Curtis Dennis, Nate Garth, A.J. Hardeman and Phillip McDonald - brought in by the Lobos' coaching staff is UNM's largest true freshmen contingent in 24 years. Back in 1984-85, head coach Gary Colson signed Bob Arnold, Shawn Brooks, Paul Lawson, Rob Loeffel and Randal Moos.

THE PIT

One of college basketball's most famous and recognizable buildings, University Arena is the home of New Mexico basketball.

The 2008-09 season marks the 43rd year of basketball in The Pit/Bob King Court, which was opened Dec. 1, 1966. UNM has an all-time mark of 613-144 (81%) in the building that resides 37 feet below street level. The Lobos have had a winning record in The Pit in 42 of their 43 years, including a school-record 41-game home winning streak from 1996-98.

Since the beginning of the 2004-05 season, the Lobos are 77-12 (86%) at home. What is even more impressive about UNM's home court is that more than 11.6 million fans have flocked into the sunken edifice to see their beloved Lobos play basketball. The Lobos have averaged more than 15,500 fans the past 43 years, an amazing 95% of capacity.

ALBUQUERQUE 1 OF 5 FINALISTS FOR FUTURE MWC CHAMPIONSHIPS

The Mountain West Conference future basketball championships site subcommittee announced finalist cities to host the 2011-13 men's and women's basketball championships. The five finalists are Albuquerque, Denver, Las Vegas, Salt Lake City and San Diego. These cities will be moved forward in the Request for Proposal (RFP) process with an expected awarding of the future site to take place in June 2009. Denver (2004-06) and Las Vegas (1999-2003, 2008-10) have previously hosted the MWC Basketball Championships.

"The Mountain West Conference Basketball Championships is a signature event that highlights our student-athletes," said Craig Thompson, MWC Commissioner. "We are pleased with all of the cities that showed interest in this event and the subcommittee is eager to begin reviewing the proposals from each finalist and move forward in the selection process."

Sixteen cities, featuring twenty-seven different facilities, received the initial RFP on July 15, 2008. Final proposals and bid specs were due in February 2009. After a thorough analysis and breakdown of each proposal, the Mountain West Conference subcommittee will convene to review the proposals and make a recommendation for the MWC Joint Council to review during its meeting in Phoenix in May 2009. The Joint Council decision will be forwarded to the Mountain West Conference Board of Directors for final approval during its June 2009 meeting. It is anticipated an announcement will be made at the completion of the Board of Directors meetings.

DOUGLAS, GRANGER NAMED TO MWC'S 10TH ANNIVERSARY TEAM

Former Lobos Ruben Douglas and Danny Granger were named Oct. 13 to the Mountain West Conference 10th anniversary team, as selected by a combined panel of media, institutional and conference personnel and on-line fan poll. In order to be eligible for consideration, candidates must have been an all-Mountain West first team selection at least once in their careers.

Douglas enjoyed one of the most prolific offensive seasons in school history in 2002-03, becoming the first Lobo to lead the nation in scoring at 27.96 ppg. He was chosen Mountain West Conference Player of the Year following his senior season. Douglas has played professionally on the international level since leaving UNM.

Granger led UNM to the 2005 MWC Tournament championship and the NCAA Tournament. He was named MVP of the MWC tournament and was a 3rd team All-American by Basketball Times. In 2004-05, Granger was the only player in the NCAA to average 18.8 points, 8.9 rebounds, 2 blocks, 2 steals and 2 assists, and he became the first player in school history to record 60 assists, blocks and steals in a season.

Granger is in his fourth season with the Indiana Pacers.

2007-08 SEASON RECAP

The University of New Mexico's 105th season of basketball ended with a tough 68-66 loss at Cal in the 1st round of the MasterCard NIT. Despite falling in its last two games, the Lobos had a remarkable turnaround under rookie head coach Steve Alford, posting a 24-9 overall record. That was a 9-win improvement from the previous season.

What happened during the 2007-08 season had to have been difficult for even the most optimistic Lobo fan to imagine.

Alford inherited four returning starters from a somewhat unpredictable bunch that finished 15-17 in 2006-07, just the program's 2nd losing season in the past 24 years. Picked to finish 5th in the MWC, New Mexico was 4-12 in the Mountain West, tying TCU for last place. The Lobos lost 12 conference games for the first time since 1959, and were 2-12 away from The Pit, 1-10 in true road games.

On Oct. 4, 2007, one of the team's returning starters - senior wing Tony Danridge - broke his leg and would miss the 2007-08 season. The steady Danridge was a three-year starter who averaged 12.5 points as a junior and was expected to be a tremendous complement to J.R. Giddens on the perimeter.

With essentially the same players as last year, except for starting freshman point guard Dairese Gary, Alford's first Lobo team finished 24-9, tying the school mark for wins during the regular season and a 9-win improvement from a year ago. UNM won 8 road games, tying a program record and equaling the entire total for the previous five seasons (8-43).

Picked to finish 4th in the MWC, the Lobos went from worst to 3rd by closing the conference season with 8 wins in 9 games. The Lobos produced their most league wins (11-5) in nine years as a member of the Mountain West Conference. The 11 conference victories are the most by UNM in 10 years, since getting 11 in the Western Athletic Conference in 1998.

New Mexico and Air Force were the only two MWC teams to finish higher than what was predicted in the preseason. The poll said 4th, but UNM ended 3rd. Air Force was 5th after the poll said 8th.

The final 25 games, only one starter from the previous year - Giddens - was in the starting lineup. Giddens was unworldly and the consummate teammate in his final collegiate season. Gary was a steadying influence at the point. Heady sophomore Roman Martinez probably made more non-box score plays than anyone on the team while junior post Daniel Faris stepped up when UNM needed him the most. Two returning starters - senior guards Darren Prentice and Jamaal Smith along with 3-pointer marksman Chad Toppert - averaged more than 26 points off the bench.

Even Alford was mildly shocked at the response from his team and the slightly unexpected results.

UNM held opponents to just 41.0% shooting from the floor in 2007-08. That's the 4th-lowest surrendered by a Lobo team in the past 43 years. Opponents averaged 62.7 points a game, the 2nd-lowest since 1983-84.

AN UNBELIEVABLE SEASON FOR J.R. GIDDENS

A 1st-round draft choice of the World Champion Boston Celtics last summer, senior J.R. Giddens had a remarkable season in 2007-08.

	All Games	Rank	MWC Games	Rank

• The perimeter-oriented Giddens was the first guard to lead the MWC in rebounding...he and Andrew Bogut (a 7-footer) are the only two players in the 9-year history of the league to lead the conference in scoring and rebounding in MWC games

• In 2008, Giddens posted single-game highs in the league for scoring (36 vs. Wyoming), rebounds (15 vs. UNLV) and steals (6 vs. Wyoming)

• The honors for J.R.:

- Co-MWC Player of the Year
- District VIII Player of the Year by the USBWA
- MWC Player of the Year by ESPN.com
- 1st team all-district by the NABC
- Associated Press honorable mention All-America

• Despite ranking 8th in the league in minutes played at 32.2, Giddens was the only player in the MWC who ranked in the top-10 in the MWC in scoring, rebounding, FG pct., assists, steals and blocks

• Giddens is the only Lobo to ever reach 500 points, 250 rebounds, 100 assists, 40 steals and 30 blocks in a season

• Giddens was named MWC Player of the Week a record 5 times in 2007-08

PROTECTING THE BALL

The Lobos finished 1st in the MWC with a turnover margin of +5.6 in MWC games. They had 10 or fewer turnovers 16 times, and it happened 11 times in 16 MWC games. UNM averaged just 10.5 turnovers in MWC play, and 8.9 in the last 9 games.

STATISTICAL LEADERS

In all games, the Lobos led the MWC in scoring (74.1 ppg), scoring margin (+11.4), 3-point FGs (8.21 pg) and 3-point percentage (42.0%).

In MWC games only, New Mexico led the league in scoring (72.9 ppg), scoring margin (+9.4), 3-point FGs made (8.5), 3-point FG pct. (43.0%), turnover margin (+5.63) and assist/turnover ratio (1.54).

RALLY TIME

When the Lobos beat Wyoming 99-92 in double overtime on Jan. 5, 2008, they staged the largest second-half comeback in a road game in school history. UNM trailed 48-32 at halftime. It ranks as the 5th largest deficit overcome regardless of location. New Mexico's largest comeback was Jan. 15, 1993, at Hawai'i when it rallied from 20 points (31-11) to win 61-58.

HAPPY NEW YEAR

The Lobos began the New Year in style by doing something it had never done before: prevailing in consecutive overtime games, and on the road no less.

UNM squeaked past a fired-up UTEP squad 86-85 in overtime on Jan. 2. That was followed by a grind-it-out 99-92 double-overtime victory at Wyoming on Jan. 5, the Lobos' first win over the Cowboys at the Arena-Auditorium since 1995. New Mexico trailed Wyoming 48-32 at halftime, so it marked the largest second-half comeback on the road in school history.

BIG-TIME DEFENSE AGAINST WEBER STATE

When New Mexico side-swiped Weber State 62-32, the 32 points ties for the fewest by a Lobo opponent in The Pit, which opened in December of 1966. UNM beat BYU 74-32 on Feb. 3, 1997.

It also ties for the fewest points allowed by a Steve Alford-coached team during his 17-year coaching career. On March 12, 1999, Alford's Southwest Missouri State squad beat Wisconsin 43-32 in the 1st round of the NCAA Tournament in Charlotte N.C.

It was 34-12 UNM at halftime. The 12 points are the fewest by a UNM opponent in the first half since Dec. 29, 1972, when the Lobos had a 40-9 halftime lead over Dartmouth.

HEAD COACH STEVE ALFORD

Steve Alford was named New Mexico's 19th head men's basketball coach on March 23, 2007. Alford spent the previous eight seasons as the head coach at the University of Iowa.

Alford, 44, has a 353-203 (64%) career record in 18 seasons as a collegiate head coach. His teams have qualified for postseason play 11 times, produced 14 winning seasons and reached 20 wins on 10 occasions.

In eight seasons at Iowa, Alford compiled a 152-106 record with a school-record seven consecutive winning seasons, and six postseason appearances. The Hawkeyes won two Big Ten Conference tournament titles (2001 and '06). Iowa was 17-14 in 2006-07. It was 9-7 in the Big Ten, tied with NCAA teams Illinois and Purdue for fourth place.

Prior to Iowa, Alford posted a 78-29 record in four seasons (1992-95) at NCAA Division III Manchester (Ind.) College and a four-year (1996-99) record of 78-48 at Southwest Missouri State (now Missouri State). The Bears defeated Wisconsin and Tennessee to advance to the Sweet 16 of the 1999 NCAA Tournament before losing to top-ranked Duke in the regional semifinals. In 1997 Alford led the Bears to a 24-9 record (second in the Missouri Valley Conference) and a trip to the National Invitation Tournament.

The Bears were 16-12 in Alford's first season at the Division I level in 1995-96. In 1997-98 Southwest Missouri won 12 of its final 18 games, posting a final record of 16-16 while advancing to the title game of the MVC postseason tournament for the second straight season. Alford joined the collegiate coaching ranks at Manchester College in 1992, taking over a team that had lost its first eight games. After winning four of 20 games that season, Alford led Manchester to a 20-8 mark in his first full year of 1992-93.

The following season Manchester was 23-4 followed by a 31-1 mark in his fourth and final season. Manchester won three straight conference tournament titles from 1993-95, advancing to the NCAA Division III Tournament all three seasons.

Manchester advanced to the 1995 NCAA Division III championship game before suffering its first defeat in 32 games to place second in the nation. Alford was named Indiana Collegiate Conference coach of the year in 1993, 1994 and 1995 and his record was 74-13 over his final three seasons.

A native of New Castle, Ind., Alford was a prep standout for his father, Sam Alford, at New Castle Chrysler High School. He earned Indiana's Mr. Basketball Award in 1983 after averaging 37.7 points per game as a senior.

During his collegiate career at Indiana, Alford started all but five of 125 games, helping the Hoosiers post a four-year mark of 92-35. Alford served as head coach Bob Knight's team captain in 1987 when Indiana posted a 30-4 overall record and won the national championship.

Alford concluded his college career as Indiana's all-time scoring leader with 2,438 points and he became the first player to win the Indiana MVP award four times. He is also Indiana's career leader in steals and three-point field goal percentage. Alford was a consensus first team all-America selection and the Big Ten MVP as a senior.

Alford earned first team all-Big Ten honors in each of his final three seasons and also earned all-America honors as a junior. He was named to the NIT all-tourney team as a sophomore when the Hoosiers finished second to UCLA. His career free throw percentage of .897 (535-596) ranked fourth best in NCAA history and he led the nation in free throw percentage as a freshman.

Alford was named to the all-tournament team at the 1987 NCAA Final Four and to the NCAA tournament all-decade team for the 1980s. He set an NCAA Final Four record when he made 7 of 10 3-point baskets in the 1987 championship game victory over Syracuse. In 1997, Alford was inducted into the Indiana University Athletics Hall of Fame and in 2001 he was one of 15 players selected to Indiana's all-Century team. He was one of five players named to ESPN's Big Ten Conference Silver Anniversary team in 2004. The Sporting News recently published Legends of College Basketball, a publication that recalled the careers of the 100 greatest Division I college basketball players. Alford was No. 35 on the list.

Following his freshman season at Indiana, Alford was selected to play for the United States basketball team at the 1984 Olympic Games in Los Angeles. Alford shot 64.4% percent from the field, averaged 10.3 points per game and was second on the team in assists as the U.S. collegians won the gold medal.

Alford was born Nov. 23, 1964, in Franklin, Ind. He holds a bachelor's degree in business from Indiana University. Alford is married to the former Tanya Frost, whom he has known since the two were schoolmates in grade school in New Castle. The Alford's have three children: Kory, Bryce and Kayla.
