HUSKERS FACE TOUGH FIELD AT LAS VEGAS CLASSIC

The Nebraska basketball team takes to the road for the fourth time this season as it heads West to take on a difficult field at the HoopTV Las Vegas Classic on Tuesday and Wednesday, Dec. 22-23.

Playing at the Orleans Arena in Las Vegas, the Huskers will face Conference USA preseason favorite Tulsa (9-1) in the first round on Dec. 22 at 4:30 p.m. CT/2:30 p.m. PT and then will match up with either BYU (10-1) or Nevada (6-4) the following day. Both of the Huskers' games this week will be heard live on the IMG Husker Sports Network and for free around the world on the Internet at Huskers.com. Veteran play-by-play man Kent Pavelka will call the action while former Husker Matt Davison adds color commentary.

The games this week will be video streamed on the Internet at HoopTV.net, with all eight games available for $10. The BYU and Nevada games will be televised in their local markets.

The Huskers bring a three-game win streak into their first holiday tournament since 2006. NU has held each of its last three opponents to 44 or fewer points, the first time NU has matched that feat since 1943. The Huskers should enter the week ranked first nationally in scoring defense, allowing just 53.5 points per game.

Despite having an inexperienced team – seven of Nebraska's 11 active scholarship players are freshmen or sophomores – the Huskers do understand the difficulties of playing away from home as NU has already made three road trips this season. The Huskers fell by 14 points at Saint Louis in their first road game and dropped a six-point contest in front of nearly 17,000 fans in an in-state battle with Creighton two weeks ago. Nebraska does own a win on the road with a last-second victory at USC when redshirt freshman Eshaunte Jones drilled a 3-pointer with 11.7 seconds left to give the Huskers a 51-48 victory.

The Cornhuskers are 4-4 in neutral site games under coach Doc Sadler, including 3-1 against non-conference opponents. The Huskers won two games against Wyoming and Houston to finish 2-1 at the 2006 Rainbow Classic, their most recent regular-season tournament.

BY THE NUMBERS

Nebraska has held each of its last three opponents to 44 or fewer points, including 39 points by Chicago State, 44 by Oregon State and 41 by Jackson State. The last time Nebraska held three straight teams to 44 or fewer points was 1943. The tough scoring defense has helped Nebraska move among the nation's elite defenses this year, as the Huskers are expected to have the top scoring defense in the nation this week when the official NCAA statistics are released.

200

Seniors Sek Henry and Ryan Anderson are each approaching 200 career assists. Henry needs five assists to reach the mark while Anderson still needs 21 to gain the milestone.

HUSKER QUICK SHOTS

*-- Nebraska has only one double-figure scorer (Ryan Anderson, 11.0 ppg), but is averaging 66.5 ppg as a team as seven other active Huskers have averaged at least 5.0 ppg.

*-- Anderson is closing in on the 1,000-point barrier as he has 884 career points in 101 games (8.8 ppg). He needs 28 rebounds to reach the 500-rebound plateau.

*-- Anderson is aiming to become the second player in Nebraska history with at least 1,000 points, 500 rebounds, 150 3-pointers, 150 assists and 150 steals. The only Husker to reach at that level was Erick Strickland, who went on to a nine-year career in the NBA.

*-- Anderson posted a career-high six steals against USC Upstate in the season opener. It was the most steals by a Husker since Cookie Belcher had eight in a game in 2001.

*-- Anderson added four steals in consecutive games at Southern California and vs. Texas-Pan American, moving him into the NU career top 10. He now has 135 career steals to rank eighth, two behind seventh place.

*-- On the year, junior point guard Lance Jeter has hit a team-best 54.8 percent (34-of-62) from the floor. He leads the team from 3-point range as well, hitting 11-of-19 (57.9 percent).

*-- Sek Henry leads the team with a 30-to-14 assist-to-turnover ratio while Brandon Richardson is second at 18-to-9. Jeter leads the team with 35 assists while Henry is second with 30.

*-- Henry missed the school's first-ever triple-double by three rebounds when he had 11 points, 11 assists and seven rebounds against TCU. His 11 assists are tied for the most in a single game by a Big 12 player this year.

*-- Jeter leads the team with 11 3-pointers and is tops in 3-point percentage, hitting 57.9 percent (11-of-19) from beyond the arc. He leads Eshaunte Jones who is second with nine 3-pointers on the year, including a game-winner with 11.7 seconds remaining at USC.

*-- Redshirt freshman Jorge Brian Diaz had 22 points off the bench against TCU, becoming the 21st Husker freshman ever to record a 20-point contest. Nebraska has three current players on that list, as seniors Ryan Anderson and Sek Henry each had a 20-point game as freshman as well.

*-- Diaz has had two double-figure rebounding games this season to lead Nebraska. He posted 11 boards in his first career game against USC Upstate and then added a season-best 12 boards against Chicago State. In both games, he scored nine points, leaving him one point shy of his first career double-double.

*-- Diaz is averaging 8.4 ppg and 4.7 rpg over the first 10 games, and is leading the team in blocked shots with 18. The Huskers' high last season was 18 blocks by Toney McCray in 30 games.

*-- Diaz ranks in the top five in the Big 12 Conference, and is already on the Nebraska freshman top-10 chart. He is just two blocks away from third place.

SCOUTING THE TULSA GOLDEN HURRICANE

Tulsa enters the holiday tournament riding a strong start as the Golden Hurricane own a 9-1 record including four straight victories. All but one of UT's victories have been by double figures and have come at home, while its only loss was an eight-point setback on the road against Missouri State, one of the last unbeaten teams in the country.

This season, UT owns a potent offense that has averaged 79.5 points per game while hitting a solid 47.7 percent from the field. The Golden Hurricane have proven a capable long-distance shooting team, as Tulsa has hit 40.9 percent from beyond the arc. UT is also making opponents pay at the free throw stripe as it has gotten to the line nearly twice as often as opponents and is hitting better than 70 percent on its charity shots.

Defensively, Tulsa has allowed just 58.4 points per game this season while limiting opponents ability from the field. Foes have hit just 35.7 percent against the difficult Golden Hurricane defense, including only 30.9 percent from 3-point range. In an amazing statistically oddity, the Golden Hurricane have blocked 77 shots through 10 games, while having just 17 of their own shots blocked.

Leading the defensive charge is 7-footer Jerome Jordan, a likely first-round NBA prospect. Jordan is among the top 10 shot blockers in the country this season as he averages 3.5 blocks per game. His 35 blocks are just four less than the Cornhuskers' team total in the same amount of games.

Jordan also pulls down 8.6 rebounds per game to go with 14.4 points per contest. He is one of three double-figure scorers for the Golden Hurricane, along with Ben Uzoh (16.3 ppg) and Justin Hurr (14.9 ppg). Uzoh adds 5.8 rebounds per contest, giving the Golden Hurricane four players with at least 5.8 rebounds per contest as UT holds a 44.4-30.7 rebounding advantage.

Uzoh has hit 49.5 percent from the floor and leads the squad with 45 assists and 12 steals. Hurr paces the team with 23 3-pointers, four more than Uzoh, and has connected on 78.6 percent at the charity stripe.

Tulsa is coached by Doug Wojcik (Navy, 1986), who is in his fifth year guiding the Golden Hurricane. Wojcik owns a 90-54 record at UT.

SERIES HISTORY VS. THE HOOPTV LAS VEGAS CLASSIC FIELD

Nebraska comes into the holiday tournament looking to make up ground in the series against the Las Vegas Classic field. The Huskers own a 4-6 all-time record against the other three teams in their bracket, including an 0-2 mark against Tulsa, a 1-3 deficit vs. Brigham Young and a 3-1 advantage over Nevada.

The last time the Huskers faced off against the Golden Hurricane was 1998, when they completed a home-and-home series in Lincoln. Tulsa pulled out a 52-49 victory to complete the two-game sweep of Nebraska.

The Huskers have not played BYU since the 1930s. All four games were played in a five-year span, including a pair of contests in the 1935-36 campaign. BYU took the first two matchups in Lincoln before Nebraska finally got a victory. The Cougars then won the last meeting to hold a 3-1 lead in the series.

It's nearly the opposite for the series with Nevada as the Huskers have won three straight over the Wolf Pack. The last meeting came in 1997 as the Huskers earned a 78-68 road victory over Nevada in the second round of the National Invitation Tournament (NIT). Before that, the teams met twice in the 1970s in Lincoln (both Husker wins) and started the series with a five-point Wolf Pack home victory in 1947.

The Cornhuskers own a 9-13 (.409) all-time record against current members of Conference USA, and hold a 35-21 advantage (.625) against teams from the Mountain West Conference. NU leads 17-14 (.548) against members of the Western Athletic Conference.

50 IS THE NEW 60

Nebraska has made it a habit of holding teams to 50 points or less since coach Doc Sadler took over in 2006-07. Since his arrival, the Huskers have held opponents to 50 or fewer points 22 times. In the first 10 years of the Big 12 era before Sadler arrived, Nebraska managed the feat on 26 occasions.

The most times NU has held teams to 50 or fewer points in a season under Sadler is nine times in 2007-08. This season, the Huskers have already held six teams below 50 points, including each of the last three straight. That defensive effort has helped the Huskers allow just 53.5 points per game, an average that is expected to lead the nation this week.

During Nebraska's current three-game win streak, the Huskers have held all three teams to 44 or fewer points, including 39 points by Chicago State, 44 by Oregon State and 41 by Jackson State. The last time a Nebraska squad matched that mark was 1943.

In fact, the last time the Cornhuskers even held three straight teams to below 50 points was 1958 as NU won three straight games over Colorado (41 points), No. 4 Kansas (41 points) and No. 1 Kansas State (48) as part of a four-game win streak. The Huskers have not held four straight teams below 50 points since a streak of seven straight games below 50 in 1948-49.

FAST STARTS

Nebraska has jumped out to fast starts under coach Doc Sadler. Each of his four seasons in Lincoln (including this year), the Huskers have opened with at least seven wins before picking up their third loss of the year.

This year's squad has tied the program's second-best mark through 10 games to open a season since the formation of the Big 12 Conference for the 1996-97 season. The only better mark through 10 games since then was in 2003-04 when the Huskers opened with a 9-1 mark. The last time the Huskers were 9-2 through 11 games was the 2007-08 campaign, when NU completed non-conference play with an 11-2 record.

DEFENSE TAKING SHAPE

Coach Doc Sadler's squads have led the Big 12 Conference in scoring defense each of the past two seasons and ranked among the top 25 defenses in the country at the end of those years. After giving up 69 points at Saint Louis and 77 at home against TCU, Sadler put the Cornhuskers back to work on the defensive end as they tried to continue their reputation of defensive dominance.

Sadler's efforts have been rewarded as Nebraska has held six of its last seven opponents to less than 55 points. The best mark came against Chicago State as the Huskers allowed only 39 points, the 10th fewest points given up by a Nebraska squad since 1947. It was the third time a Sadler-led Nebraska team held an opponent to less than 40 points.

Under Sadler, Nebraska is now 44-4 when holding teams to 60 or fewer points, including 37-1 at home.

The Husker defense is again tops in the Big 12 Conference, as the 53.5 points per game Nebraska has allowed ranks first in the league. The Huskers moved ahead of Texas (57.4 ppg) as the Longhorns allowed 90 points against North Carolina.

Nebraska entered the week expecting to be ranked No. 1 in the nation in scoring defense when the official statistics are released.

HUSKERS FINDING THE MARK

Nebraska coach Doc Sadler has said from Day One that he thought this team "could shoot the ball well," and through the first 10 games this season, they've proven their mentor right.

The Huskers are hitting a solid 47.3 percent from the field early in the season, knocking down 241-of-509 shots from the floor. Nebraska has hit at least 50.0 percent from the field five times in 10 games this season, including three of the past five contests. In 2008-09, NU hit at least 50.0 percent of its shots in just 5-of-13 games during non-conference play. At Creighton on Dec. 6, the Huskers hit 50.0 percent (24-of-48) from the floor for its best effort on the road since last season at Texas Tech.

Part of the Huskers' offensive effectiveness has come behind solid shooting from beyond the arc, where Nebraska has nailed 56-of-145 from 3-point range (38.6 percent). Despite going 6-of-33 from long range

COACHING STATS

Last year's Jack Moore Award winner as team MVP, Paul Velander recorded 26 of the team's 53 charges taken in 2008-09, a total that easily would have led the nation if it was officially tracked by the NCAA. In tribute to his hard work and effort, the Nebraska coaching staff will track charges and floor burns this season and post the results for every game on the Paul Velander Board in the Husker locker room.

UPON FURTHER REVIEW

In a change to what was published in the 2009-10 Nebraska media and recruiting guide, please note that redshirt-freshman Jorge Brian Diaz would like to be referred to by his full name instead of just Brian Diaz. Also, the pronunciation for freshman Ray Gallegos's last name should be Guy-eh-goes. The previous pronunciation listed in the media guide is incorrect. We appreciate the media's assistance in these matters.

OPENING UP

Nebraska opened the 2009-10 season at home against South Carolina Upstate with its ninth straight win in a season opener. A couple other notes about Husker season openers:

- The Nov. 14 opener was the second-earliest season-opening date in school history, only behind the Nov. 10 season opener in 2007. Nebraska has also opened a season on Nov. 14 twice before, in the 2006 and 1998 seasons.
- Nebraska has won nine straight season openers since an 87-83 setback at Oral Roberts in 2000. Overall, Nebraska is 12-2 in season openers during the Big 12 era, and 75-39 all-time.
- The last time Nebraska lost a season opener at home was 1980 when NU fell to Wyoming, 62-59, in overtime. The Huskers have won 20 straight season openers at home since that loss.

ANDERSON AIMS FOR TOP THREE

Senior guard Ryan Anderson is already assured of a spot in the Nebraska record books as he entered the season among the most accurate and most prolific long-distance threats in school history.

In his final season, Anderson owns 139 career 3-pointers to rank eighth in school history and needs just eight to move up two more spots on the career chart. With 50 treys – a total he reached in his sophomore season – Anderson would move into third place all-time.

Anderson is not only among the top 10 in made treys, but he is among the most accurate as he ranks ninth all-time by hitting 37.4 percent (139-of-372) over the past three-plus years.

over the last two games, Nebraska ranks among to the top 75 teams in the country in 3-point percentage this week.

Nebraska's strong shooting from outside was on display as it tied a Devaney Center record and set a team building record by hitting 75.0 percent (9-of-12) from 3-point range against Texas-Pan American on Dec. 2. The Huskers hit seven straight at one point and bettered the previous team mark of 66.7 percent set three times.

The Cornhuskers are led in the field by junior Lance Jeter, who has hit 54.8 percent (34-of-62) from the field. He has also hit a team-best 57.9 percent (11-of-19) from 3-point range. Jeter is one of three Huskers hitting at least 50 percent from the floor, including Ryan Anderson (50.0) and Jorge Brian Diaz (52.2).

BLOCK PARTY

Redshirt freshman Jorge Brian Diaz quickly made a name for himself as he posted one of just two Husker 20-point games this season when he had 22 points on 9-of-10 shooting against TCU in his third career game. But it is on the defensive end that he is quickly – and quietly – starting to look like one of the top freshmen in school history.

Diaz currently leads the Cornhuskers with 18 blocked shots, and his 1.8 blocks per game ranked fourth in the Big 12 Conference entering the week. His 18 blocks in 10 games match last year's team-leading total of 18 by Toney McCray reached in 30 games.

Diaz's 18 blocks are already tied for seventh in the Nebraska freshman record book. He is just two away from reaching third place on the rookie chart. Venson Hamilton (1996) and John Turek (2002) hold the Nebraska freshman record with 39 blocks in their initial season.

As a team, the Huskers own 39 blocked shots this season, averaging 3.9 per game. Last year, Nebraska had just 52 blocks in 31 games.

BENCH PRODUCTION

The Cornhuskers have spread the scoring around this season with only one player averaging double figures while eight other active Huskers are averaging at least 5.0 points per game. Much of that production has come from the bench, as Nebraska has a deeper roster than many recent seasons.

The Husker bench outscored opponents in each of the first eight games this season. The top production came as Nebraska held a +28 advantage in bench scoring against Chicago State and NU has had two other games (TCU, +19; UTPA, +20) with at least 19 more points off the bench than the opponent.

On the season, Nebraska has gotten 259 points from its bench. That's 38.9 percent of the production that has come from outside the starting lineup. The most points by a Husker off the bench this year is 22 by Jorge Brian Diaz, who went 9-of-10 against TCU after coming in as a sub.

SENIOR MOMENTS

Coach Doc Sadler has said that he's been trying to find ways to get his team to be more aggressive since the start of practice in September, letting them know that he wants them going after other teams and not sitting back and waiting for opponents to come at them. Senior guards Sek Henry and Ryan Anderson have each had a turn taking the coach's words to heart this season while leading their team to victory.

Henry's strong play was highlighted against TCU as he distributed the ball efficiently, posting a career-best 11 assists, becoming the first Husker since Charles Richardson Jr. (15 at Rutgers in 2006) to post more than 10 assists in a game. Overall, Henry's assist total ranks second on the Nebraska single-game chart for the Big 12 era, and ties for the ninth-best total by a Husker in any game since the 1983-84 season.

Along with his 11 assists, Henry posted 11 points, seven rebounds, three steals and two blocked shots in 30 minutes of action. He missed the school's first regular-season triple-double by three rebounds. The only known triple-double by a Husker came when Brennon Clemmons had 12 points, 11 rebounds and 10 assists in an exhibition game in 2002 vs. Northwest Sports Tours. In the 15 years before that, the closest a Husker came to a triple-double in a game that counted was Beau Reid's 14-point, 12-rebound, 8-assist performance against Toledo in 1990.

Henry came back the next contest against UMKC to produce a game-high 14 points on 4-of-6 shooting, including drilling both of his 3-point attempts. The treys came less than 30 seconds apart and started a game-changing 21-5 run to end the first half. Henry added five rebounds, four assists and two blocks against the Kanagroos.

Anderson had his first moment against Texas-Pan American on Dec. 2, as he helped bust the game open in the middle of the second half. After UTPA pulled within five, 45-40, Anderson guided Nebraska on a 22-2 run to put the game out of reach, scoring 11 points while adding three steals, two rebounds and an assist in less than four minutes. He finished the game with 21 points, the second-highest scoring effort of his career, on 8-of-9 shooting as Nebraska pulled away for an 81-53 win.

The Seattle, Wash., native added another veteran contest as he produced 16 points and a career-high 14 rebounds in the Huskers' 50-44 victory over Oregon State. Anderson had seven rebounds in the first eight minutes of the game and collected his final one of the night with less than five seconds remaining. He was fouled after grabbing the board and hit two free throws for the final margin, helping Nebraska defeat its second Pac-10 team of the season.

Anderson leads the squad with 11.0 points per game while getting to the free throw line more frequently than any Husker, where he has hit 24-of-31 (77.4 percent). He is also tops on the squad with 22 steals to rank second in the Big 12 Conference at 2.2 steals per game. Henry is fourth on the squad in scoring (7.8 ppg) and is second in assists (30) and rebounding (4.7 rpg) and third in 3-pointers (8).

OFF TO THE RACES

While the season is still young and the Huskers have yet to enter the meat-grinder portion of the schedule known as the Big 12 Conference slate, Nebraska has shown the potential to be an efficient force on the offensive end with its revamped roster.

The best example came as the Huskers posted 90 points against TCU, making it the highest-scoring game for the Huskers in the Doc Sadler era at Nebraska. In fact, the last time NU topped the 90-point plateau was 2006 when the Huskers earned a 93-77 victory over Colorado.

The Husker offense was running in high gear against the Horned Frogs as Nebraska hit 54.0 percent (27-of-50) from the field. The trend has continued as Nebraska has hit at least 50.0 percent from the field in four games at the Devaney Center, and five games overall.

The Huskers scored 81 points against Texas-Pan American on Dec. 2 while hitting 53.7 percent from the field, including tying the Devaney Center record by hitting 75.0 percent (9-of-12) from 3-point range. During the victory, the Huskers improved to 15-0 under Sadler when reaching 80 points.

In Nebraska's 74-39 win over Chicago State on Dec. 10, the Huskers hit a season-high 55.6 percent from the floor. The mark moved NU to 30-3 – including 28-0 at home – under Sadler when connecting on 50.0 percent of its shots from the floor.

Nebraska scored at least 70 points in each of five its first five home games this season (5-of-7 at home overall). Last year it took nine games at the Devaney Center before the Huskers recorded their fifth 70-point effort.

BOARD SUPPORT

Nebraska has won the rebounding advantage six times this season, all at home. The Huskers are 6-0 in those contests. In the three road games, Nebraska was outrebounded at USC and Creighton and tied with Saint Louis.

NU started the season on a strong note as it held a 39-27 rebounding advantage in the season opener against South Carolina Upstate. The total against USCU was the best for the Huskers since last season's opener when NU had 42 rebounds vs. San Jose State and the +12 advantage was also better than all but one game last year (+14 vs. Florida A&M).

Nebraska came back to post 35 boards against both Saint Louis and TCU, giving the Huskers three straight games of at least 35 rebounds for the first time since the final three games of non-conference play in the 2007-08 campaign. Last year, the Huskers did not have consecutive games with at least 35 rebounds.

Nebraska posted a season-high 41 rebounds against each Chicago State and Jackson State. Overall, the Huskers have recorded at least 35 rebounds in five of the first 10 games, after reaching the mark in only six games all of last year.

RECAPING NU VS. JACKSON STATE

Lincoln --- The Nebraska basketball team held its third straight opponent under 50 points and used a strong second-half effort from junior forward Quincy Hankins-Cole to hand the Huskers a 57-41 victory over Jackson State (0-8) Saturday night at the Devaney Center.

Hankins-Cole turned in 13 of his career-high 15 points after the intermission and joined Ryan Anderson (10 points) in double figures.

A Roosevelt, N.Y. native, Hankins-Cole's back-to-back buckets midway through the second half thwarted a Jackson State comeback effort that saw the Tigers close a 15-point halftime lead to seven, 27-20, with 13 minutes, 55 seconds remaining. The junior's 11 second-half points guided NU to its largest lead of 24 points (51-17) with six minutes to go.

While Hankins-Cole was doing work in the paint, the Husker defense turned in a solid performance, as it took Jackson State more than 22 minutes to reach double-digits on the scoreboard. By that point, the Huskers had built a 13-point lead, 24-11, and were able to hold off the comeback bid.

The Tigers finished the game 17-of-52 (32.7 percent) from the field, while Nebraska connected on 22-of-53 (41.5) shot attempts.

Postgame notes

*- Nebraska improved to 8-2 on the season with the 57-41 victory. The Huskers are now 7-0 at home this season.

*- JSU was the fifth straight team this season to come into the Devaney Center and be held below 55 points. Nebraska, which entered the week ranked in the top five nationally in scoring defense, has held three straight teams under 45 points.

*- Nebraska tied its season low with 24 points in a half, posting the mark in the first period. NU also had 24 points in the second period at USC and at home last weekend against Oregon State in the first half.

*- Nebraska allowed just nine points in the first period, with the final basket coming with less than 11 seconds remaining in the frame. The total was just one point off the building record of eight points allowed by North Carolina Central in 2007.

*- Nebraska's defense forced JSU into 16 straight missed shots and an 11:07 scoring drought in the first half. JSU hit its first shot at the 19:15 mark and did not record another point until 8:08.

*- Freshman guard Ray Gallegos made his first career start. He replaced sophomore Brandon Richardson, who sat out the game with a back injury. Gallegos had five points and two rebounds in a career-best 26 minutes.

*- Junior Quincy Hankins-Cole came off the bench to set a career high with 15 points and tied his high with six rebounds. He was 7-of-8 from the floor in 19 minutes.

*- Nebraska tied its season high with 41 rebounds, posting a 41-32 advantage on the glass.

*- The Huskers held JSU to 3-of-16 shooting (18.8 percent) from 3-point range. Over the last four games, opponents have hit just 6-of-48 (12.5 percent) from beyond the arc.

FRESH FACES

Nebraska had an inexperienced roster entering 2009-10, as the Huskers returned only four scholarship players from last season's 18-win campaign. Among the veterans on the squad are seniors Ryan Anderson and Sek Henry, along with sophomore Brandon Richardson. Sophomore Toney McCray also returned, but played just three games before sitting out the rest of the season with an injury.

When NU hit the court for its season opener, it had two freshmen – forward Brandon Ubel (true frosh) and center Jorge Brian Diaz (redshirt frosh) – in the starting lineup, marking the second time in coach Doc Sadler's tenure that NU had two freshman start a season opener. The last time that happened was Sadler's first year at Nebraska when Anderson and Henry opened in the starting lineup.

That season, Anderson and Henry started 14 games together, including the first nine. The duo was joined by former Husker Jay-R Strowbridge to make it three freshmen in the same starting lineup on Dec. 23, 2006, in a 70-56 win over Houston in the Rainbow Classic.

Ubel and Diaz were the seventh and eighth freshmen to start a season opener for Nebraska in the Big 12 era. However, they were only the second and third freshmen who stood over 6-4 to start for the Huskers in a season opener during that span, joining 6-11 Brian Conklin, who started six games as a redshirt freshman in 2000-01, including the opener at Oral Roberts. The full list of Nebraska's frosh starters in a season opener since 1996-97 includes:

- Jorge Brian Diaz, 6-11, C, 2009-10
- Brandon Ubel, 6-10, F, 2009-10
- Cookie Miller, 5-7, PG, 2007-08
- Sek Henry, 6-3, G, 2006-07
- Ryan Anderson, 6-4, G, 2006-07
- Marcus Walker, 6-2, PG, 2005-06
- Jake Muhleisen, 6-4, PG, 2001-02
- Brian Conklin, 6-11, F, 2000-01
- Cookie Belcher, 6-3, G, 1996-97

Against UMKC on Nov. 24 this season, another freshman made an appearance in the starting lineup as redshirt freshman Eshaunte Jones earned his first career start.

With Ray Gallegos' start against Jackson State, it marked the first time in the Big 12 era that Nebraska has had four different freshman start the same season. To date, they have combined for 16 starts this season, including Ubel with eight total starts, Diaz with six and Gallegos and Jones with one each.

Overall, Nebraska has now had 22 freshmen start games during the Big 12 era. That list includes:

Brandon Ubel, 2009-10 (8 starts); Jorge Brian Diaz, 2009-10 (6); Ray Gallegos, 2009-10 (1); Eshaunte Jones, 2009-10 (1); Toney McCray, 2008-09 (3); Alonzo Edwards, 2008-09 (1); Cookie Miller, 2007-08 (24); Ryan Anderson, 2006-07 (25); Sek Henry, 2006-07 (18); Jay-R Strowbridge, 2006-07 (13); Jamel White, 2005-06 (13); Marcus Walker, 2005-06 (12); Joe McCray, 2004-05 (24); Aleks Maric, 2004-05 (10); Charles Richardson Jr., 2003-04 (10); Jason Dourisseau, 2002-03 (3); Wes Wilkinson, 2002-03 (2); Jake Muhleisen, 2001-02 (27); John Turek, 2001-02 (15); Brian Conklin, 2000-01 (6); Chad Johnson, 1997-98 (10); Cookie Belcher, 1996-97 (33).

In the regular-season opener, Jorge Brian Diaz had 11 rebounds to go with nine points in his first career game. He added a second double-figure rebounding game with 12 boards against Chicago State and has recorded 8.0 boards per game over his last three contests.

At the time, Diaz's season high was the most by a Husker since 2007-08 as NU did not have a player with a double-double last season. Ryan Anderson had the team's high for single-game rebounds last year with 10 boards against Missouri on Jan. 10, when he had just eight points.

Diaz is currently second on the team with 4.7 rebounds per game, including three games with at least seven boards each. Senior Ryan Anderson jumped to the team lead after he produced 14 rebounds, including four offensive, in a six-point win over Oregon State. He is now averaging 5.2 rebounds per game this season, and needs 28 rebounds to reach 500 in his career.

VERSATILE ANDERSON IN ELITE COMPANY

Ryan Anderson joined an elite club last year as he became just the seventh Husker to record at least 100 3-pointers, 100 assists and 100 steals in a career. Among that short list are Eric Piatkowski, Tyronn Lue, Erick Strickland, Cookie Belcher, Cary Cochran and Jaron Boone, along with Anderson.

He showed exactly that versatility when he had an uncommon stat line that included five points, five rebounds, five assists and six steals in 27 minutes of action in the season opener against USC Upstate. The six steals were a career high for Anderson and were the most by a Husker since 2001 (Cookie Belcher had season high of eight that year).

For his career, Anderson now has 139 3-pointers, 135 steals and 179 assists and needs 11 treys and 15 steals to join Strickland as the only two Huskers ever with at least 150 in each of the three categories.

FRESHMAN HIGHLIGHT

A game after playing just four minutes at Saint Louis because of an injury that included a pair of loosened front teeth and a cut inside his mouth, redshirt freshman Jorge Brian Diaz made his presence felt early and often as the Huskers raced past TCU on Nov. 21 in a 90-77 victory.

The newcomer from Caguas, Puerto Rico, set a team season high with 22 points as Nebraska reached the 90-point plateau for the first time since 2006. He was the first Husker this season to hit the 20-point mark.

Diaz became the first freshman since Sek Henry in 2006 to post a 20-point contest for the Huskers. Henry's outburst came one day after Ryan Anderson put his name on the list with 29 points, the second-highest total by a Husker freshman ever.

Overall, Diaz is the 21st freshman to record a 20-point game for the Huskers since freshmen were reinstated by the NCAA for the 1972-73 season. Joe McCray set the record with the most 20-point games by a Husker freshman when he had 10 contests with at least 20 points in 2004-05. Only six Husker freshmen in history have had multiple 20-point contests.

Against TCU, Diaz connected on 9-of-10 shots from the floor, with only a first-half miss keeping him from the NU record book. The Husker single-game record for most field-goals attempted without a miss is nine set on five occasions, including last year by Ade Dagunduro. Diaz's .900 shooting percentage is the second highest in the Big 12 this season, trailing only Texas's Dexter Pittman, who hit 10-of-11 in a contest.

TAKING THE SHOT

With so many new faces on the squad, it was only a matter of time before one of the youngsters was asked to step up and make a game-changing play. At USC on Nov. 29, it was more than just a game-changing play... it was a game-deciding shot.

Redshirt freshman Eshaunte Jones, playing in his ninth career game, had made just two field goals in the first half and had only been off the bench for a total of five minutes in the second period before being called upon with less than a minute to play in a tie game. Jones didn't hesitate as he buried the game-winning shot from the corner, a 3-pointer with 11.7 seconds remaining. The shot was reviewed at length by the officials who determined it was indeed a 3-pointer. From there, the Huskers defended the perimeter well and USC only managed to get off an off-balance desperation shot at the buzzer.

Jones finished with seven points, and his 3-pointer gave the Huskers their first road win of the season, and just the second true road win over a non-conference opponent under fourth-year coach Doc Sadler. It was NU's first road victory over a non-conference BCS team since defeating Tennessee, 62-61, in Knoxville in 2004.

REACHING HIGHER

According to statistics provided by kenpom.com, Nebraska was the shortest team in Division I basketball (344 teams) last season. The Huskers' active roster in 2008-09 had just two scholarship players who stood at least 6-7, while the average height of the 20 players on the full roster was just over 6-4.

This season, Nebraska has a taller lineup across the board as the average height for all 18 players on the roster is 6-5 1/2. NU has four active players available in the non-conference slate who stand at least 6-8, with another – Christian Standhardinger – who will be eligible at the start of the Big 12 season. This season, kenpom.com lists the Huskers as No. 91 in average height.

STANDHARDINGER SITTING DOWN

Although it was expected all along, Nebraska is in the unenviable position to have to replace the scoring punch provided during the exhibition season by freshman forward Christian Standhardinger.

After leading the Cornhuskers with 17.5 points per game in the exhibition season, Standhardinger must sit out 50 percent of the Huskers' games this season – a total of 15 games, equalling all of the non-conference schedule – because of a ruling by the NCAA regarding his amateur status when he played with a club team in his native Germany. He will be allowed to practice with the Huskers during the non-conference slate but will not be able to travel with the team until he is eligible for competition on Jan. 9 at Texas A&M.

Standhardinger came from the same school and club team that produced sophomore center Christopher Niemann, who was forced to sit out all of his first season with the Huskers.

NIEMANN, MCCRAY OUT FOR SEASON

After making what looked to be a successful return from a torn ACL suffered in the final week of the regular season last year, 6-10, 265-pound sophomore center Christopher Niemann had a major setback as he tore the same ACL for a second time in the first week of September. After surgery to repair the damage that occurred during a non-basketball conditioning workout, Niemann will be out for all of the 2009-10 campaign.

Niemann is currently making good progress through rehab again, and is on pace to join the team for offseason workouts in late spring. He will have three years remaining on his original eligibility clock to play three seasons with the Huskers.

Nebraska coach Doc Sadler announced following Nebraska's game against UMKC on Nov. 24 that sophomore guard Toney McCray would have surgery on his elbow and be out for the remainder of the season. McCray injured the elbow in a pickup game in early September, sustaining a torn ligament. McCray tried to play through the pain as doctors assured him that it would get no worse if he waited until after the season to have surgery. But Sadler said that McCray indicated he had little confidence in his elbow and wasn't able to help the team the way he wanted to and thought it would be better to have surgery now and be ready for the offseason in the spring of 2010.

McCray had successful surgery on Dec. 7 to repair the UCL in his elbow. He started rehab that week and is doing well, as he is on pace to try to join the team in the spring during offseason workouts.

Both Niemann and McCray were looked at as possible starters heading into the start of the season. McCray averaged 6.3 points and 4.0 rebounds over three games this year, hitting 53.3 percent (8-of-15) from the field. He played 18.3 minutes per game. Niemann has yet to play a game in a Husker uniform.

NEBRASKA RECEIVES RARE WAIVER

Nebraska petitioned the NCAA with a waiver that was granted in early September, allowing the Huskers to have 14 players on scholarship for the 2009-10 season. The rare allowance given to NU is only for this season and Nebraska will be required to return to 13 scholarships for the 2010-11 season.

While the Huskers were able to receive the waiver, the stipulation was that one player had to redshirt to get the active roster down to 13 scholarship players. Unfortunately with Christopher Niemann's preseason injury, he is out for the year and it was determined that he would count as the one who would sit out.

HUSKERS ON THE RADIO

The IMG Husker Sports Radio Network is in its 15th year producing and marketing live broadcasts of University of Nebraska football, men's and women's basketball, volleyball, baseball and softball games.

The Husker Sports Network has created a large network of state and national affiliates. All regular-season men's basketball games and any postseason contests will be broadcast on a 32-station basketball network in 2009-10. KFAB (1110 AM) is the Omaha affiliate, KLIN (1400 AM) is the Lincoln affiliate and while KRVN (880 AM) in Lexington also serves as a primary state affiliate. All games can be heard around the world for free on Huskers.com and a great number of Nebraska's games will also be heard live on SIRIUS Satellite again this season.

Veteran radio announcer Kent Pavelka leads the NU men's basketball broadcast in 2009-10, along with former Husker letterwinner Matt Davison. Former Husker Andy Markowski will also fill in as the color analyst for a number of contests. Lane Grindle serves as the host of Sports Nightly, a live daily call-in show. Grindle will also host the Doc Sadler Radio Show on Monday nights throughout the season beginning at 7 p.m.

HUSKERS HEADING TO PUERTO RICO IN 2010

Lincoln (Nov. 19) -- The Nebraska basketball team will get a tough early season test when it plays in the 2010 O'Reilly Auto Parts Puerto Rico Tip-Off tournament next November. The tourney will run Nov. 18-21, 2010, and the Huskers will play three games, with all the tourney contests slated to be carried by ESPN or ESPN360.com.

The 2010 tourney field was announced during the opening games of the 2009 Puerto Rico Tip-Off. Rounding out the talented eight-team field alongside Nebraska next year will be North Carolina, West Virginia, Minnesota, Vanderbilt, Davidson, Western Kentucky and Hofstra. This season, the Tar Heels, Mountaineers and Golden Gophers are all ranked in the national top 25.

"This is going to be a test. With a field like that, you're going to find out real quick what kind of team you have," coach Doc Sadler said. "These early season tournaments are fun for the fans, but it's tough for the team because you have three games in four days and have to make that quick turnaround. Hopefully it will be something good for us with so many young guys coming back."

Nebraska will be playing in its first regular-season tournament since 2006-07 when the Huskers went 2-1 at the Rainbow Classic in Honolulu, Hawaii. The last time the Huskers played in San Juan was the 2000 San Juan Shootout, when NU won three straight games by a total of four points. NU had one-point wins over Iona and Kent State and won by two points over Southern Methodist to take the title. Overall, it will be Nebraska's eighth regular-season tournament away from home during the Big 12 era.

The Huskers currently have 12 scholarship players who are juniors, sophomores or freshmen who will have eligibility remaining after this season. Among those are six freshmen or redshirt freshmen, including center Jorge Brian Diaz, who is from Caguas, Puerto Rico.

NEW FACES LINE HUSKER ROSTER

While the Huskers will rely on their returning scholarship players for leadership early in the season, most of the eyes will be focused on the faces of several newcomers who will dot the inexperienced Nebraska roster.

Among those scholarship newcomers who have already seen action for the first time in their Husker careers are juniors Lance Jeter and Quincy Hankins-Cole, sophomore Myles Holley, redshirt freshman Jorge Brian Diaz and freshmen Ray Gallegos, Brandon Ubel and Adrien Coleman. Freshman Christian Standhardinger (sitting out because of NCAA ruling) is still counting the games until he becomes available to play on Jan. 9.

Including walk-ons Matt Karn and Mike Fox, more than 50 percent (9 of 15; 60.0 percent) of the Huskers who have recorded time during the regular season are playing for the first time in a Nebraska uniform. Another Husker - Eshaunte Jones - played only four games last year before an injury forced him to redshirt.

2009-10 Scholarship Breakdown

Seniors: 2 (returnees Sek Henry and Ryan Anderson)

Juniors: 2 (transfers Lance Jeter and Quincy Hankins-Cole)

Sophomores: 4 (returnees Toney McCray, Brandon Richardson and Christopher Niemann*; newcomer Myles Holley)

Redshirt Freshmen: 2 (Eshaunte Jones and Jorge Brian Diaz)

True Freshmen: 4 (Brandon Ubel, Ray Gallegos, Christian Standhardinger, Adrien Coleman)

sat out last season per NCAA ruling on amateur status; has not played at Nebraska*

YOUTH MOVEMENT

While Nebraska entered the season knowing it will have a number of young players in the lineup on any given night, it did not realize it would have two of the youngest players in their respective classes.

Freshman Brandon Ubel is the third-youngest player overall in the Big 12 Conference this season. Born on Aug. 29, 1991, only Jaye Crockett of Texas Tech (Oct. 16, 1991) and Tyler Stone of Missouri (Sept. 8, 1991) are younger than Ubel.

While Ubel is one of the youngest in the league, another Husker is the youngest for his class. Junior college transfer Quincy Hankins-Cole, who graduated high school when he was 16 and played the past two years at Polk (Fla.) CC, will not turn 20 years old until Feb. 18, 2010. The next youngest junior in the Big 12 is Kansas State's Jacob Pullen, who turned 20 on Nov. 10. In fact, Hankins-Cole is three months younger than redshirt-freshman Jorge Brian Diaz, who turned 20 on Friday, Nov. 13.

NU LOOKS FOR DEFENSIVE 3-PEAT

In 2009-10, Nebraska looks to continue its dominance on the defensive end under coach Doc Sadler. Each of the past two seasons, the Huskers have led the Big 12 Conference in scoring defense and ranked among the national leaders.

The Huskers started this year in solid fashion, allowing just 49 points on 19-of-49 shooting (38.8 percent) in the season opener against South Carolina Upstate. Over its next two games, Nebraska allowed 69 and 77 points, before getting back on track by holding three straight opponents under 55 points, including 48 (UMKC), 48 (USC) and 53 (Texas-Pan American) points.

Nebraska gave up a season-low 39 points to Chicago State and then held Oregon State to just 44 points before allowing only 41 points to Jackson State, including a season-low nine points in the first half. On the season Nebraska has now allowed opponents 53.5 points per game on 37.6-percent shooting. The Huskers' scoring defense was expected to enter the week ranked first nationally.

Last year, Nebraska allowed just 60.4 points per game to rank 22nd nationally while a year earlier, it gave up 60.7 ppg to rank No. 18 in the nation. Nebraska also led the league in conference-only defense in 2009 by giving up just 62.5 ppg to league teams.

The Huskers' top-ranked defense last year marked the first time NU had led the league in scoring defense in the Big 12 era. Dating to the 2007-08 season, Nebraska has held seven of its last 10 Big 12 Conference opponents in the Devaney Center to 57 or fewer points, including three times under 50 points. NU held five teams to less than 57 points in Big 12 play last year, including Missouri (51), Kansas State (51), at Colorado (53), Texas (55) and vs. Colorado (41).

NU LOOKING FOR FIFTH POSTSEASON BERTH IN SEVEN YEARS

Despite their lack of experience entering the year, the 2009-10 Huskers will be shooting for the program's fifth postseason berth in seven years and third straight under coach Doc Sadler. Overall, Nebraska's NIT bid at the end of the 2008-09 campaign was the Huskers' 22nd all-time postseason appearance. NU has 16 appearances in the NIT, including the 1996 title, and six berths in the NCAA Tournament.

HUSKERS LOOK TO BUILD ON 8-8 LEAGUE MARK

While the Huskers have more than six weeks before they start league action, Nebraska will have one thing in mind while it prepares for facing arguably the nation's toughest conference: continuing its upward momentum against Big 12 foes.

Last year, the Huskers finished with an 8-8 record in Big 12 Conference play, their best mark in a decade and just the third time since the formation of the league that NU has finished at .500 or better. That mark came as the Huskers won each of their last two regular-season games, giving Nebraska its third straight season with a better league mark. NU had six league wins in 2007 and seven in 2008.

Only three teams in the Big 12 have improved their win total in league play each of the past three years. That small group includes Nebraska, Oklahoma and Oklahoma State.

This year, Nebraska will try to do something done only once before in program history as the only other time the Huskers improved their conference win total for four straight years was from 1952 to 1955.

SADLER SETTING NEW MARKS

Nebraska coach Doc Sadler has said from the beginning that he hopes to do something at Nebraska that's never been accomplished before: get to the NCAA Tournament and win a game. Since he's been at NU, his record has spoken volumes as he has reached marks never before seen in Lincoln.

Over his first three years, Sadler had more victories than any Husker coach to open a career. Through his first three seasons, Sadler owned a 55-40 mark, two more wins than Moe Iba had in his first three years and four more than Danny Nee. Sadler also had the most wins in the first two years at NU (37) and is the first coach in school history to win at least 17 games in each of his first three years guiding the Cornhuskers.

The Huskers' win over Texas Tech on the road on Jan. 31, 2009, marked Sadler's 50th victory at Nebraska. He was the fourth-fastest coach to reach 50 wins at NU in program history and among the three who reached the mark faster at NU, two of those men coached in Lincoln before World War I.

HUSKERS SIGN 6-11, 315-POUND CENTER FOR 2010-11

Lincoln (Nov. 14) --- Fourth-year coach Doc Sadler added a big recruit for the 2010 signing class as 6-11, 315-pound Andre Almeida signed a National Letter of Intent to attend the University of Nebraska and join the Husker basketball team next fall.

One of the top post players in the junior college ranks last year, Almeida will add to what is expected to be a huge front court for the Huskers next season as Nebraska currently has three freshmen and sophomores who stand at least 6-10.

"Andre is as talented as he is big," Sadler said. "He has good hands and footwork and he knows how to get around in the paint and score. He has tremendous strength, and when you're that big, it's hard to be moved around. Andre will help us when we get into Big 12 play where we're facing great big men every night. He also has a tremendous work ethic and I think Nebraska fans will enjoy seeing him play alongside some of our other younger big guys."

A 2010 NJCAA Division preseason All-American, Almeida is the fifth international player to sign with the Cornhuskers under Sadler. A native of Sao Paulo, Brazil, Almeida recently played for current Nebraska assistant coach Walter Ruese, who served as the head coach of the Brazilian U24 national team that competed in the 2009 World University Games in Belgrade, Serbia, in July. Almeida also played under Ruese on the 2006 U18 national team that competed at the Copa America tournament in San Antonio, Texas, qualifying Brazil for the Junior World Cup in Belgrade. Brazil finished in fourth place in the world that year.

During his first season in the United States, Almeida led Arizona Western College to a 26-6 record in 2008-09, including an 18-4 mark in conference action, as AWC finished the year ranked 17th nationally in NJCAA Division I. The Matadors won their fourth regional title in five years before falling in the district finals. Almeida led the way as he averaged 13.8 points over 32 games while ranking first in the nation in field-goal percentage by hitting an outstanding 71.0 percent (184-of-261) from the floor. He also led the league in blocked shots with 3.5 per game (112 total) while adding 7.9 rebounds and 1.6 assists per contest.

After finishing with 11 double-doubles on the year, Almeida was honored as a second-team All-American and a first-team all-conference and all-region selection. He was also named the Arizona Community College Athletic Conference Player of the Year after helping coach Kelly Green and the Matadors to their second straight league regular-season title. Earlier in the season, Almeida was named the NJCAA Division I Player of the Week on Jan. 19 after averaging 20.0 points, 12.0 rebounds and 3.0 blocks per game while hitting 81.0 percent from the field over two games.

NEBRASKA GAME-BY-GAME NOTEBOOK (GAMES 1-8)

GAME 1 VS. USC UPSTATE (NU 76, USC 49)

The Nebraska Cornhuskers opened their 114th season in program history with a solid 76-49 victory over USC Upstate at the Devaney Center. The Huskers and Spartans swapped leads six times in the first half with NU heading into the locker room with a seven-point lead, 31-24, but a 25-2 run early in the second period sealed the Huskers' ninth straight season-opening victory. Nebraska, which hit 54.8 percent from the floor in the second half, started a pair of freshmen in Brandon Ubel and Jorge Brian Diaz, who combined for 21 points, 13 rebounds, three assists and three blocked shots. Another newcomer, junior college transfer Lance Jeter also made his first career start, leading the way with 17 points on 6-of-7 shooting including dropping in all three attempts from 3-point range as NU was 11-of-20 from beyond the arc. He added six assists and two steals. Senior Ryan Anderson also had a solid all-around performance, posting five points, five rebounds, five assists and a career-best six steals, the most steals by a Husker since 2001.

GAME 2 AT SAINT LOUIS (SLU 69, NU 55)

Saint Louis's Kwamain Mitchell scored 20 points, including 15 in the second half when the Billikens' defense held Nebraska to just 33.3 percent shooting, as SLU ran away with a 69-55 victory at Chaifetz Arena in St. Louis. In their first road game of the season, the Huskers fell behind early, but used a late first-half surge to pull within one, 28-27, at the half. NU allowed just one Billiken basket over the final 7:33 of the period before coming out of the locker room with a quick basket that gave Nebraska its only lead of the game, 29-28, less than a minute into the second period. From there, SLU hit four 3-pointers in the next five minutes, including three in a decisive 11-0 run as the Billikens led by double figures the rest of the way. Sek Henry led the Huskers with 14 points while Anderson had 10. Nebraska played all but four minutes without starting center Jorge Brian Diaz, who had a bloodied mouth and loosened teeth less than a minute into the game and did not return until just over eight minutes remained.

GAME 3 VS. TCU (NU 90, TCU 77)

In the highest scoring game in the Doc Sadler era at Nebraska, the Cornhuskers outraced TCU to the finish line, earning a 90-77 victory at the Devaney Center in a game that featured 11 ties and 13 lead changes. The Huskers shot the ball extremely well, hitting 60 percent in the second half and 54.0 percent for the game while reaching the 90-point plateau for the first time since 2006. Redshirt freshman Jorge Brian Diaz, who had two teeth knocked loose at Saint Louis where he played just four minutes three days earlier, came off the bench to hit 9-of-10 shots for a team-high 22 points, leading five Huskers in double figures. Diaz was the first NU freshman with a 20-point game since Sek Henry in 2006. Henry set Diaz up all day long, as he finished with 11 points and 11 assists for the first Husker double-double since Aleks Maric in 2008. Henry missed a triple-double by three rebounds as he added seven boards with three steals and two blocked shots. Brandon Richardson made his first career start and finished with career highs in points (15) and rebounds (4), helping Nebraska outrebound the Horned Frogs 35-24. With the game tied at 67-67 with five minutes to play, the Huskers put the accelerator down as they scored 23 points in the stretch run, including hitting 13-of-15 at the charity stripe in final 3:24.

GAME 4 VS. UMKC (NU 70, UMKC 48)

After a sluggish start, the Nebraska offense picked up and Huskers locked down the defense locked down as NU ran away with a 70-48 victory over UMKC in the Devaney Center. The teams were tied three times in the early going as the Roos forced four early turnovers and had the score within one, 20-19 with less than seven minutes remaining in the first half. But senior Sek Henry's back-to-back 3-pointers within 30 seconds ignited the offense, which went on to hit better than 53 percent for the game. The Huskers used a 21-5 run to end the first half with a 41-24 advantage and pushed the lead out to 28 points before clearing the bench in the final five minutes. Henry led all scorers with 14 points while adding five rebounds and four assists. Point guard Lance Jeter added 12 points on 5-of-6 shooting and Jorge Brian Diaz came off the bench to score double figures for the second straight game, adding 10 points with three blocked shots. The Huskers limited UMKC to 35.3 percent shooting and forced 14 turnovers while committing just seven miscues. Jay Cousinard was the only Kangaroo in double figures with 11 points but he fouled out with more than 11 minutes remaining in the game.

GAME 5 AT USC (NU 51, USC 48)

Redshirt freshman Eshaunte Jones made just one shot in the second half, but it was the biggest one of the game as he drilled a 3-pointer from the corner with 11.7 seconds left in the contest to give Nebraska a 51-48 victory over USC at the Galen Center. Playing in the first game of this year's Big 12/Pac-10 Hardwood Series, the Huskers and Trojans had eight ties and 20 lead changes as Nebraska evened its road record at 1-1 in November. Just two minutes before Jones' shot, the Huskers looked unlikely to capitalize on missed chances, including going just 3-of-11 at the free throw line. But Quincy Hankins-Cole made a strong play on an offensive rebound to record NU's first basket in nearly six minutes to pull the Huskers within one at 46-45. Ryan Anderson then gave the Huskers the lead less than 30 seconds later with a steal out near the top of the key and a layup before converting the traditional three-point play. USC tied the game at 48-all with less than 40 seconds remaining on a Nikola Vucevic putback, setting up Jones' exciting finish. Following a timeout, the Huskers worked the ball around the perimeter and got the clock down to under 15 before Jones got the ball and fired. Following a lengthy review by the officials, the shot was confirmed as a 3-pointer and NU defended the arc for the final 11 seconds before USC's desperation heave at the buzzer went wide. Anderson led all scorers with 14 points on 5-of-9 shooting, including three 3-pointers. He also had four of NU's 11 steals on 17 USC turnovers, while Nebraska committed just seven miscues.

GAME 6 VS. TEXAS-PAN AMERICAN (NU 81, UTPA 53)

Ryan Anderson posted 21 points on 8-of-9 shooting, including 11 points in a three-minute burst in the second half that pushed the Cornhuskers to an 81-53 victory at the Devaney Center. Anderson, a senior guard, led all scorers, although the Husker freshmen made their presence felt, combining for 46 points as the Huskers shot 53.7 percent from the floor, including a building record 75.0 percent (9-of-12) from 3-point range. Freshman Ray Gallegos (3-of-4) and redshirt freshman Eshuante Jones (3-of-3) combined to hit six 3-pointers, including helping the Huskers drain seven straight from downtown at one point. Gallegos finished with 13 points, three more than his first four career games combined, while Jones had 11 points along with 11 from redshirt freshman Jorge Brian Diaz. Anderson also had four steals to move into the Nebraska career top 10. The Huskers led just 40-32 at the intermission and UTPA pulled within five, 45-40, with 17:16 to play before a 22-2 Husker run put the game out of reach. During the six and one-half minute run, Anderson had 11 points, three steals, two rebounds and an assist. Sek Henry led the Huskers on the glass with eight rebounds as Nebraska outrebounded its fifth opponent of the season, 31-26.

GAME 7 AT CREIGHTON (CU 67, NU 61)

Nebraska turned the ball over 20 times while Creighton capitalized on 32 free throw attempts, making 26 as the Bluejays held off the Huskers for a 67-61 victory at the Qwest Center Omaha in front of a crowd of 16,739. The Huskers had 12 first-half miscues but stayed in the game as they shut down the Bluejay offense that came into the contest averaging 25 3-point attempts to open the season. Nebraska's improved perimeter defense harassed the Bluejays who finished 1-of-10 from long range. But Nebraska's struggles holding onto the ball were too much to overcome even while hitting 50.0 percent (24-of-48) from the floor. NU was outrebounded 31-25 and committed a season-high 25 fouls, helping CU to 26 free points. Lance Jeter scored 13 points and Sek Henry had 10, while the bench hit 11-of-13 shot attempts for 26 points. Kenny Lawson Jr. had his first career double-double for Creighton as he posted 25 points and 10 rebounds to help CU snap a three-game losing streak.

GAME 8 CHICAGO STATE (NU 74, CSU 39)

Nebraska held Chicago State to just 39 points on 24.2 percent shooting as the Huskers cruised to a 35-point victory, 74-39, at the Devaney Center. CSU connected on just 18.8 percent from the floor in the opening period and the Huskers capitalized, jumping to an 11-1 start before going into halftime ahead 30-14. An 18-1 Husker run to open the second period broke the game open as Nebraska shot 55.6 percent from the field on the game, moving ahead by as many as 39 points in the fourth quarter. Eleven players scored, led by Lance Jeter's 13 points while Brandon Richardson and Adrien Coleman each added 10. Jorge Brian Diaz came off the bench to post nine points, 12 rebounds and three blocks while Myles Holley helped the Huskers bust the CSU zone, finishing with nine points. Nebraska had a season-high 41 rebounds, but allowed CSU to post 37 boards, including 23 on the offensive end. Nebraska shot 55.6 percent from the field and had 17 assists on 25 baskets while holding CSU to 0-of-11 from 3-point range.

NEBRASKA GAME-BY-GAME NOTEBOOK (GAME 9-10)

GAME 9 VS. OREGON STATE (NU 50, OSU 44)

Senior guard Ryan Anderson posted his third career double-double and sealed a defensive battle with a rebound and then two free throws in the final five seconds as Nebraska held on for a 50-44 victory over Oregon State at the Devaney Center. Anderson finished with 16 points to pace the Huskers and tie for game-high honors as he hit 6-of-13 attempts from the field. The rest of the team was 13-of-39 against the difficult Oregon State zone defenses as the Huskers shot a season-low 36.5 percent from the floor. The Seattle native also added a career-best 14 rebounds, bettering his previous mark of 11 set on two occasions. It was the third time he posted a double-double, but the first since his sophomore year in 2008. Neither team was able to get into an offensive groove as the defenses, which rank among the best in the nation, were on display from the start. Nebraska got the better hand in the end as it turned the ball over just 11 times -- after averaging 18.5 turnovers over the past two games -- and held OSU to just 10 offensive rebounds. The Huskers also forced 16 turnovers and held even on the boards with a 34-34 tie.

GAME 10 VS. JACKSON STATE (NU 57, JSU 41)

Junior forward Quincy Hankins-Cole produced a career-high 15 points on 7-of-8 shooting and the Nebraska defense held Jackson State to nine first-half points on its way to a 57-41 victory at the Devaney Center. Hankins-Cole posted 13 points after the break and helped NU go ahead by as many as 24 points while holding JSU to 32.7 percent shooting. The Huskers grabbed a 41-32 advantage on the boards and forced 17 turnovers, but Nebraska did not execute well on offense, hitting just 41.5 percent for the game, allowing the Tigers to hang around. JSU was within seven points before Hankins-Cole spurred a 16-3 run midway through the second half to put the game out of reach. Senior guard Ryan Anderson added 10 points on 5-of-10 shooting and had five rebounds while Jorge Brian Diaz had five points, five rebounds, three blocked shots and three assists.
