HUSKERS SET TO TAKE ON BUFFALOES IN ROAD TEST

The Nebraska basketball team hits the road for the second straight game and third time in league action as it heads to Boulder, Colo., to take on the Colorado Buffaloes on Wednesday, Jan. 27. The Huskers and Buffs will tip off at 9:07 p.m. CT (8:07 p.m. MT) at the Coors Events Center.

The game can be heard on the IMG Husker Sports Radio Network with Kent Pavelka (play by play) and Matt Davison (color) calling the action. The contest can also be heard around the world for free on the Internet at Huskers.com, and Wednesday's game will also be televised in Colorado by FS Rocky Mountain with Tom Helmer calling the action, Ceal Barry adding color and Alanna Rizzo serving as sideline reporter. The Buffs' telecast will be played on a one-hour tape delay basis within the state of Nebraska and can be seen on FS Midwest (10 p.m. CT start).

Despite scoring more than 53 points only once in the first four league games, the Cornhuskers have been within four points of the lead in the final nine minutes of every Big 12 contest. The inexperienced Huskers - Nebraska had only three players enter the season having played against a Big 12 team - will be aiming to put together their first complete game on Wednesday as they shoot for their fourth straight victory over Colorado and second consecutive win in Boulder. The Huskers snapped a three-game losing streak on the road against CU last season with a hard-fought 55-53 victory at the Coors Events Center.

The Huskers will likely need to see their offensive production pick up to earn their first league win in 2010 as Colorado comes into the contest averaging 77.2 points per game in conference play. The Buffs have hit nearly 49 percent from the floor, including better than 38 percent from long range. While the Buffaloes are fourth in scoring offense in league-only games, they are last in scoring defense by allowing 83.6 points per game as Big 12 teams have connected on better than 49 percent from the field.

That is nearly the opposite of the Huskers, who are again among the conference's defensive leaders (3rd in league-only scoring defense, 68.5 ppg) but rank last in scoring offense in league-only games at 57.8 points per contest. Nebraska has given up just 60.4 points per game on the season to rank 25th nationally in scoring defense. The Huskers are vying for their third straight top-25 national defensive ranking, and second straight defensive scoring title in league action.

BY THE NUMBERS

Despite struggling from beyond the arc the past two games, the Cornhuskers are still hitting on a school-record pace from downtown. Currently, Nebraska has hit 39.6 percent (125-of-316) from long range, a total that, if the season ended today, would be the best average in school history. The current record is 38.9 percent by the 2003-04 squad.

30

Redshirt freshman Jorge Brian Diaz has blocked 30 shots this season to rank as the only freshman in the top 10 in the Big 12 Conference for blocks per game (1.7 bpg overall, 7th; 1.6 bpg in Big 12-only games, 9th). He is the third Husker freshman ever to post 30 blocks and needs 10 more to break the NU frosh mark.

HUSKER QUICK SHOTS

» Nebraska has had four different scholarship freshmen in the starting lineup in a game this season, and six scholarship freshmen have played in games. Three freshmen – Jorge Brian Diaz, Brandon Ubel and Eshaunte Jones – have each started at least one game in Big 12 play this year.

» NU had three scholarship freshmen in the same starting lineup against BYU when Jorge Brian Diaz, Brandon Ubel and Ray Gallegos earned the nod. Eshaunte Jones has also started twice this year.

» Overall, the scholarship freshman class has accounted for 30 games started (of 95 total) this season, while adding 491 of the team's 1,281 points, or 38.3 percent of the scoring.

» Senior guard Ryan Anderson is closing in on the 1,000-point barrier as he has 968 career points in 109 games (8.9 ppg). He reached the 500-rebound plateau on Jan. 16 when he had eight boards against Iowa State (currently 511).

» Anderson is aiming to become the second player in Nebraska history with at least 1,000 points, 500 rebounds, 150 3-pointers, 150 assists and 150 steals. The only Husker to reach at that level was Erick Strickland, who went on to a nine-year career in the NBA.

» Anderson posted a career-high six steals against USC Upstate in the season opener. It was the most steals by a Husker since Cookie Belcher had eight in a game in 2001. Anderson, who has six games this year with at least four steals, now has 153 career steals to rank seventh in NU history and needs six more to move into fifth place.

» After going 1-of-9 from the floor against Oregon State, sophomore Brandon Richardson has since hit 58.8 percent (30-of-51) from the field while averaging 11.1 ppg in the last 10 contests. He has hit 14-of-26 from 3-point range and 26-of-30 at the charity stripe in that span, including posting a career-high 18 points against No. 3 Kansas.

» Redshirt freshman Jorge Brian Diaz had 22 points off the bench against TCU, becoming the 21st Husker freshman ever to record a 20-point contest. Redshirt freshman Eshaunte Jones joined the group to become the 22nd Husker frosh with a 20-point game as he recorded 21 points, including five 3-pointers, against BYU.

» Jones leads the Big 12 Conference by hitting an outstanding 45.5 percent (30-of-66) from 3-point range this season. Possibly his biggest trey came at USC when he hit the game-winner with 11.7 seconds remaining. He already ranks eighth on the NU freshman top-10 list.

» Diaz has had two double-figure rebounding games this season to lead Nebraska. The only other Huskers with double-figure rebound games this season are Ryan Anderson (team season high 14 rebounds vs. Oregon State) and Myles Holley.

» Diaz is leading the team in blocked shots with 30. The Huskers' high last season was 18 blocks by Toney McCray in 30 games. Diaz is the top freshman in the league and ranks eighth in the Big 12 Conference for blocks. He is already on the Nebraska freshman top-10 chart, currently sitting in third place. He needs nine blocks to tie for first.

SCOUTING THE COLORADO BUFFALOES

Colorado enters the mid-week matchup a half game in front of the Huskers as it holds a 1-4 mark in Big 12 Conference play. The Buffs have dropped three straight games, including the last two on the road, to fall to 10-9 on the season overall.

Last weekend, Colorado lost a 67-63 contest at Texas A&M. It was CU's third straight league loss and fifth loss in its last seven games, sandwiching home wins against Miami (Ohio), 67-65, and nationally ranked Baylor, 78-71. Against the Aggies, Cory Higgins and Alec Burks again shouldered the load, posting 19 points apiece while combining to hit 14-of-27 shots from the field and 10-of-11 at the charity stripe. The rest of the squad went a combined 10-of-29 from the floor.

Higgins and Burks have led the way all season for the Buffaloes' rejuvenated offensive attack. Higgins has been among the league leaders all season by averaging 18.6 points per game while hitting 50.9 percent from the field and 83.2 percent at the free throw line. He is also adding 2.5 assists and 1.8 steals while playing 32.9 minutes per game.

A freshman from Grandview, Mo., Burks has been one of the top rookies in the conference, averaging 16.9 points per game while connecting on an impressive 53.2 percent from the floor. He has hit only 9-of-34 (26.5 percent) outside the arc but has drained 99-of-169 (58.6 percent) from two-point range. Trailing only Higgins in free throw attempts (125 to 123), Burks has hit 78.9 percent, helping the Buffs rank among the conference leaders at the charity stripe by hitting at a 76.8-percent clip as a team. CU is also third in the league this season in field-goal percentage, hitting 48.6 percent as a squad.

Along with Higgins and Burks, newcomer Marcus Relphorde has been the team's third double-figure scorer by providing 10.5 points per game. His average has improved to 12.6 ppg in league play, joining Higgins (19.0 ppg), Burks (18.8 ppg) and Dwight Thorne II (11.0 ppg) in double figures vs. the Big 12. Colorado has the fourth-highest scoring offense in the league during Big 12 play (77.2 ppg), but has gotten off to a difficult start on the defensive end where the Buffs rank last by allowing 83.6 ppg in league action as opponents have hit 49 percent from the floor.

Much like the Huskers, the Buffaloes have struggled on the glass this season, allowing teams to hold a 34.6-28.7 rebounding advantage on the year. That margin has increased to -14.2 (39.4 to 25.2) in Big 12 action as teams have had 76 offensive rebounds compared to 36 offensive boards by the Buffaloes.

The Buffs are coached by Jeff Bzdelik (Illinois-Chicago, 1967), who is in his third year on the Colorado bench. He owns a 31-51 record in Boulder, and is 106-98 overall in seven years as a head coach.

SERIES HISTORY VS. COLORADO

Nebraska and Colorado will be meeting for the 145th time this season when they square off in Boulder on Wednesday. The Huskers hold a slim 76-68 advantage in the series that dates back to the 1902-03 campaign. While the teams' first meeting was more than 100 years ago, it wasn't until 1947-48 during Big Seven Conference play that the teams started facing each other every season.

» Nebraska has won 33 of the last 49 meetings overall.

» The series between the Huskers and Buffaloes is NU's second shortest among former Big Eight teams at 144 games. The only team in the old Big Eight Conference that NU has faced fewer times is Oklahoma State at 114 matchups (NU leads 62-52).

» Nebraska has swept Colorado 10 times since the 1985 season, including four times in Big 12 play. The last sweep came last season when the Huskers won 55-53 in Boulder and 46-41 in Lincoln. Colorado's season sweep of Nebraska in 2003-04 was its first against the Huskers since 1972-73.

» While the Huskers own the overall series advantage, Colorado leads in the matchups that have taken place in Boulder. CU owns a 40-25 overall advantage on its home court, although Nebraska has played well in the Coors Events Center where the teams have played to a 15-15 tie.

Phillips 66 Big 12 Championship

» Nebraska's 46-41 victory over Colorado last season marked the fewest combined points ever recorded in a Big 12 contest. It surpassed the previous record of 89 points set on two occasions, both in 2006.

» The 41 points allowed by NU were the fewest by a league opponent since 1984. It was the fifth time in the past six meetings that the Huskers had held the Buffaloes to 55 or fewer points. Colorado's 41 points marked the fewest Nebraska has allowed against a conference opponent since giving up just 41 in a two-point loss at home during the 1984 Big Eight Tournament.

» The Huskers' 46 points were the fewest by Nebraska in a victory since 1966, when NU defeated Oklahoma State 45-41 in overtime in Stillwater, Okla.

LAST YEAR'S MEETINGS - NEBRASKA AND COLORADO

If recent results are any indication, this year's Nebraska vs. Colorado matchups will likely be defensive struggles as neither team has been able to get a solid offensive foothold against the other in the past few seasons. Last year, the teams set the Big 12 record for fewest combined points in a game with NU's win in Lincoln. The first one was nearly identical as the teams slugged their way to a two-point contest.

» After leading by as many as seven points in the final minute, the Nebraska Cornhuskers had to hold on down the stretch to pick up their second straight road win with a 55-53 victory at Colorado. In a sloppy game at the Coors Events Center that featured 31 combined turnovers, the Huskers held off the Buffs just long enough to improve 4-4 in Big 12 Conference play and 14-7 on the season. It marked just the fourth time in the Big 12 era Nebraska has finished the first half of the league slate with a .500 or better record, and the first time since 2006.

The win also marked the second time under coach Doc Sadler that Nebraska has won two straight road games in league play, but only the fifth time for NU in the Big 12 era. The Huskers won at Colorado for the first time since 2005.

Nebraska, which had a season-high 18 turnovers including 10 in the first half, led by seven points with 1:21 remaining in the game but Colorado hit some big shots down the stretch. After Steve Harley connected the second of two free throws to push NU to a 52-45 advantage, CU's Nate Tomlinson hit a big 3-pointer to cut the deficit to four points. The Huskers then started to struggle at the line, hitting just 3-of-8 at the charity stripe from that point forward as CU outscored Nebraska 9-4 in the last minute. Overall, the Huskers hit just 4-of-11 free throws in the final 1:02 and were just 13-of-24 (54.2 percent) at the line in the game.

After hitting 52.6 percent from field in the first half, Nebraska drained just 42.1 percent from the floor in the second period. The Huskers made up for it by holding a 30-22 rebounding advantage, the first time in league play Nebraska led on the glass.

» In the most recent meeting, Ade Dagunduro scored 18 points and made several key plays down the stretch to lead Nebraska past Colorado, 46-41, in a defensive slugfest at the Bob Devaney Sports Center. In fact, the game was the lowest-scoring contest for two teams (87 combined points) in Big 12 history.

Nebraska shot just 34.8 percent from the field, but the Huskers' defensive effort improved their overall record to 16-8, including a 6-5 record in Big 12 play. Colorado hit only 31.0 percent of its shots while slipping to 9-16 overall and 1-10 in the Big 12. The Huskers may not have shot well, but they did an outstanding job taking care of the ball, finishing with just six turnovers. Nebraska did not commit a turnover in the first half and had just two over the final 13 minutes of the contest. The Huskers forced Colorado into 16 turnovers, which led to 17 NU points. Nebraska also tied a season high with six blocks in the contest.

Dagunduro led the offense by hitting 7-of-12 shots to score in double figures for the fifth time in his last six games. Dagunduro also paced NU with six rebounds and two blocks in 30 minutes of action. Ryan Anderson earned the start and scored six points while dishing out a game-high five assists.

WELCOME TO THE LEAGUE

Nebraska coach Doc Sadler inserted 10 players into the rotation in the Huskers' Big 12 Conference opener at Texas A&M on Jan. 9. In that contest, seven Huskers made their career Big 12 debuts as only three current Huskers – Ryan Anderson, Sek Henry and Brandon Richardson – had ever faced a league squad.

» The Huskers had five freshmen (three true, two redshirts) play in the Texas A&M contest, half of their total players to get into the game. At one point midway through the game, Nebraska had a lineup on the floor that included four freshmen – Jorge Brian Diaz, Christian Standhardinger, Eshaunte Jones and Ray Gallegos – and a junior college transfer – Lance Jeter – who had combined for zero minutes in Big 12 action before that day.

COACHING STATS

Last year's Jack Moore Award winner as team MVP, Paul Velander recorded 26 of the team's 53 charges taken in 2008-09, a total that easily would have led the nation if it was officially tracked by the NCAA. In tribute to his hard work and effort, the Nebraska coaching staff will track charges and floor burns this season and post the results for every game on the Paul Velander Board in the Husker locker room.

UPON FURTHER REVIEW

In a change to what was published in the 2009-10 Nebraska media and recruiting guide, please note that redshirt-freshman Jorge Brian Diaz would like to be referred to by his full name instead of just Brian Diaz. Also, the pronunciation for freshman Ray Gallegos's last name should be Guy-eh-goes. The previous pronunciation listed in the media guide is incorrect. We appreciate the media's assistance in these matters.

CHART CLIMBING

Senior guard Ryan Anderson is already assured of a spot in the Nebraska record books as he entered the season among the most accurate and most prolific long-distance threats in school history.

In his final season, Anderson owns 154 career 3-pointers to rank sixth in school history. Anderson is not only among the top 10 in made treys, but he is among the most accurate as he ranks 10th all-time by hitting 37.6 percent (154-of-410) over the past three-plus years.

» In addition to his long-range exploits, Anderson has also climbed into the Nebraska career top 10 for steals this season. A Big 12 All-Defense Team member last season by the sportswriters, Anderson has 153 steals to rank seventh at NU.

» Anderson will also have a chance to become the 26th Husker in program history to reach 1,000 career points (needs 32 points). He reached the 500-rebound plateau with eight boards against Iowa State on Jan. 16.

» Nebraska has started three freshmen in league play through three games. Redshirt freshman Jorge Brian Diaz has started all three contests while redshirt freshman Eshaunte Jones and freshman Brandon Ubel have each started once.

» Coach Doc Sadler has seen solid production out of his youngsters early in the league slate. Through four games, Nebraska's freshman class consisting of Jorge Brian Diaz (8.3 ppg), Christian Standhardinger (7.7 ppg), Eshaunte Jones (7.0 ppg), Ray Gallegos (2.7 ppg) and Brandon Ubel (2.0 ppg) have combined for 27.7 points per game.

» As a team, Nebraska is averaging 57.8 ppg in Big 12 play, meaning the freshmen have produced 36.8 percent of the total points (85 of 231). The freshmen also have 35 of the team's 115 rebounds (30.4 percent) against league squads.

» In addition to the freshmen, Jeter along with junior Quincy Hankins-Cole and sophomore Myles Holley have also made their career debuts in Big 12 play this season.

RICHARDSON MAKING A CHARGE

Last year, guard Brandon Richardson missed the first four games of league play because of a shoulder injury suffered in the non-conference finale. After he came back, it took him a little while to settle in and start to gain some confidence back on both ends of the court.

This season, Richardson has still had health problems with a bad back that forced him to miss a game as well as having the flu and suffering a thigh bruise all during the first week of league play. Despite the roadblocks, he's quietly slid into a comfort zone over the last 10 games that has provided the Huskers a spark at the start of Big 12 Conference action.

» The talented Richardson has tied as Nebraska's scoring leader over the last 10 games, including posting a career-best four-game stretch scoring in double figures heading into league play. Overall he has scored double figures six times in the last 10 games.

» A 2,000-point scorer in high school, Richardson has averaged 11.1 points per game in the last 10 games while hitting an impressive 58.8 percent (30-of-51) from the floor.

» During that 10-game stretch, Richardson has knocked down 14-of-26 3-point attempts (53.8 percent) and 26-of-30 tries (86.7 percent) at the charity stripe. He also has 15 assists against just five turnovers in those contests while adding eight steals. All of this has come in only 22.4 minutes of action per game.

» Richardson set a career high with 18 points to lead Nebraska in a 12-point loss against No. 3 Kansas. Despite missing the previous two days with the flu which caused him to lose about eight pounds, Richardson hit 5-of-6 shots from the floor, including 3-of-4 from 3-point range, in 21 minutes off the bench. He also drained all five free throw attempts.

DIAZ ENJOYING SOLID START TO BIG 12 PLAY

Center Jorge Brian Diaz has been fairly consistent this season in the scoring department for a freshman. The 6-11, 235-pounder has averaged 8.5 points per game on the season, third on the team. Despite going up against veteran big men like Bryan Davis of Texas A&M and preseason All-American Cole Aldrich of Kansas early in the Big 12 slate, Diaz has been able to hold his own.

» Diaz is tied for third on the team by averaging 8.3 points per game through the first four Big 12 contests, including posting 15 points against No. 3 Kansas with a variety of post moves as well as a number of mid-range jumpers. It was his highest scoring output since posting a career-best 22 points against TCU at the end of November.

» In conference play, Diaz has hit 48.5 percent (16-of-33) from the field. He knocked down 12 of his first 17 shots from the field (70.4 percent) over two games before going 4-of-16 from the floor the past two contests. He is still among the top 10 in the Big 12-games only standings for field-goal percentage.

» Despite struggling from the field against Iowa State and Missouri, Diaz had five combined blocked shots, including matching his career high for the fifth time this season with three blocks vs. Iowa State. He now has seven blocks in four league games to tie for ninth (1.7 bpg) in league-only games while ranking seventh (1.6 bpg) in the overall season stats. He is the highest-ranking freshman on each listing.

» The Caguas, Puerto Rico, native has come on strong the past couple weeks since Christmas, leaving coach Doc Sadler to note that Diaz is "starting to get it not just physically, but mentally too. It's starting to click with him and it shows." That is notable as Diaz has scored double figures in three of the past six games after posting double figures four times in the first 13 games of his career.

» Since facing potential first-round NBA pick Jerome Jordan of Tulsa in the Las Vegas Classic just before Christmas, Diaz has hit 36-of-66 (54.5 percent) from the floor.

BOARD SUPPORT

Despite struggling on the glass in league play, Nebraska has won the rebounding advantage nine times this season, including eight times at home. The Huskers are 9-0 in those contests. Senior Ryan Anderson and redshirt freshman Jorge Brian Diaz have led the way for the Huskers this season, averaging 5.1 and 4.0 rebounds per game, respectively.

» Anderson has been a mainstay on the backboards for the Huskers the past four years. While he will not break into the career top 10, the 6-4 Seattle native moved past the 500-rebound plateau on Jan. 16 against Iowa State when he had a team-high eight boards. Anderson became the 24th Husker in history to record at least 500 rebounds, and he will likely finish in the top 20 all-time as he now has 511.

» Anderson posted a career-best and team season-high 14 rebounds to go with 16 points in a win over Oregon State in December. It was his sixth career double-figure rebounding game and his third career double-double.

» In the regular-season opener, Diaz had 11 rebounds to go with nine points in his first career game. He added a second double-figure rebounding game with 12 boards against Chicago State. At the time, Diaz's season high was the most by a Husker since 2007-08.

» Along with Diaz and Anderson, sophomore Myles Holley is the only other Husker with a double-figure rebounding game this year. He had 11 boards and seven points against Southern Utah.

» As a team, Nebraska posted a season-high 41 rebounds against each Chicago State and Jackson State. Overall, the Huskers have recorded at least 35 rebounds in five games, after reaching the mark in only six games all of last year.

VERSATILE ANDERSON IN ELITE COMPANY

Ryan Anderson joined an elite club last year as he became just the seventh Husker to record at least 100 3-pointers, 100 assists and 100 steals in a career. Among that short list are Eric Piatkowski, Tyronn Lue, Erick Strickland, Cookie Belcher, Cary Cochran and Jaron Boone, along with Anderson.

» For his career, Anderson now has 154 3-pointers, 153 steals and 199 assists. With his five steals against Iowa State on Jan. 16, Anderson joined Strickland as the only two Huskers ever with at least 150 in each of those three categories.

» Anderson is also reaching other heights as he is nearing the 1,000-point plateau. He currently has 968 career points, leaving him 32 points from becoming only the 25th Husker ever to cross the 1,000-point barrier, and the first since Aleks Maric did it his junior year in 2006-07.

» Anderson reached the 500-rebound mark when he posted a team-high eight boards against Iowa State on Jan. 16. The 6-4 Anderson will not reach the NU career top 10 (10th place is 679 boards by Rex Ekwall in 1955-57), but to his credit, Anderson has battled and persevered at the 4 spot each year despite giving up 6-8 inches and 50-80 pounds to most Big 12 opponents and still

RECAPPING NU VS. MU

Columbia, Mo. --- After the Cornhuskers fought to a one-point game with under 11 minutes remaining in the contest, Missouri used a key 15-1 run to pull away for a 70-53 victory in front of a sellout crowd at Mizzou Arena.

With the loss, the Huskers fell to 0-4 in the conference standings (12-7 overall), matching their longest conference-opening losing streak in the Big 12 era. The 2007-08 Huskers also opened league play 0-4 but rebounded to go 7-5 down the stretch, posting the third-best record in the league during that frame.

Missouri extended its homecourt winning streak to 31 straight games, the third-longest active streak in the nation. The Tigers improved to 15-4 on the season and 3-1 in league play.

Missouri was led by Miguel Paul's 15 points off the bench as he hit 5-of-6 shots from the field. Paul scored all 10 of his second-half points in the decisive run as Missouri won for the third straight time over the Huskers. A Zaire Taylor free throw started the run, and Paul had three of the next four field goals to pace the Tigers.

Senior Sek Henry led the offensive effort for the Huskers, who hit just 40.9 percent from the field. Henry opened the game with a trey and had all six of Nebraska's final points while finishing with 15 points on 5-of-8 shooting. Sophomore Brandon Richardson added 11 points on 3-of-5 shooting and freshman Ray Gallegos had a strong second half, posting all eight of his points, including a pair of 3-pointers, in the frame.

Missouri struggled from the field, hitting just 39.3 percent (22-of-56) including only 28.6 percent (8-of-28) from 3-point range. But the Tigers nailed 18-of-21 free throws, including making six in the final three minutes to put the game out of reach.

Nebraska trailed 28-26 at the intermission and saw the Tigers jump ahead 36-29 on Michael Dixon's 3-pointer. The Huskers then shut down MU, holding the Tigers without a field goal for nearly five minutes as Gallegos started to heat up.

The rookie from Utah had five quick points for the Huskers, pulling NU within two, 40-38, with just under 14 minutes remaining. Lance Jeter added a three-point play and Gallegos' second trey with 10:49 to play pulled the Huskers within one, 45-44. But that was as close as they'd get as MU's defense forced a combination of turnovers and bad shots over the final 10 minutes as the Huskers had just two field goals from that point forward.

Postgame notes

» Nebraska dropped its fourth straight game to start league play 0-4 for the second time in the Big 12 era, and second time in three years.

» Senior guard Sek Henry had a season-high 15 points on 5-of-8 shooting.

» Junior guard Lance Jeter led Nebraska with a career-high seven rebounds. He has had a career high in either rebounds or assists in each of the past four contests.

» Freshman Ray Gallegos had eight points on 3-of-7 shooting. He had posted 12 points combined in his last six games.

FRESH FACES

Nebraska had an inexperienced roster entering 2009-10, as the Huskers returned only four scholarship players from last season's 18-win campaign. Among the veterans on the squad are seniors Ryan Anderson and Sek Henry, along with sophomore Brandon Richardson. Sophomore Toney McCray also returned, but played just three games before sitting out the rest of the season with an injury.

When Nebraska hit the court for its season opener, it had two freshmen – forward Brandon Ubel (true frosh) and center Jorge Brian Diaz (redshirt frosh) – in the starting lineup, marking the second time in coach Doc Sadler's tenure that NU had two freshman start a season opener. The last time that happened was Sadler's first year at Nebraska when Anderson and Henry opened in the starting lineup.

» Ubel and Diaz were the seventh and eighth freshmen to start a season opener for Nebraska in the Big 12 era. However, they were only the second and third freshmen who stood over 6-4 to start for the Huskers in a season opener during that span, joining 6-11 Brian Conklin in 2000-01. The full list of Nebraska's frosh starters in a season opener since 1996-97 includes:

- Jorge Brian Diaz, 6-11, C, 2009-10
- Brandon Ubel, 6-10, F, 2009-10
- Cookie Miller, 5-7, PG, 2007-08
- Sek Henry, 6-3, G, 2006-07
- Ryan Anderson, 6-4, G, 2006-07
- Marcus Walker, 6-2, PG, 2005-06
- Jake Muhleisen, 6-4, PG, 2001-02
- Brian Conklin, 6-11, F, 2000-01
- Cookie Belcher, 6-3, G, 1996-97

» Against UMKC on Nov. 24 this season, another freshman made an appearance in the starting lineup as redshirt freshman Eshaunte Jones earned his first career start. With Ray Gallegos' start against Jackson State on Dec. 19, it marked the first time in the Big 12 era that Nebraska has had four different freshmen start in the same season.

» On Dec. 23 this season against BYU, Nebraska started three freshmen with Diaz, Ubel and Gallegos on the floor for the opening tip. It was the second time in the Big 12 era that NU had three freshmen start in the same contest. On Dec. 23, 2006, in a 70-56 win over Houston in the Rainbow Classic, former Husker Jay-R Strowbridge to make it three freshmen in the same starting lineup as he joined regulars Anderson and Henry to start the game.

» Overall, Nebraska has now had 22 freshmen start games during the Big 12 era. That list includes:

Jorge Brian Diaz, 2009-10 (13); Brandon Ubel, 2009-10 (12 starts); Ray Gallegos, 2009-10 (3); Eshaunte Jones, 2009-10 (2); Toney McCray, 2008-09 (3); Alonzo Edwards, 2008-09 (1); Cookie Miller, 2007-08 (24); Ryan Anderson, 2006-07 (25); Sek Henry, 2006-07 (18); Jay-R Strowbridge, 2006-07 (13); Jamel White, 2005-06 (13); Marcus Walker, 2005-06 (12); Joe McCray, 2004-05 (24); Aleks Maric, 2004-05 (10); Charles Richardson Jr., 2003-04 (10); Jason Dourisseau, 2002-03 (3); Wes Wilkinson, 2002-03 (2); Jake Muhleisen, 2001-02 (27); John Turek, 2001-02 (15); Brian Conklin, 2000-01 (6); Chad Johnson, 1997-98 (10); Cookie Belcher, 1996-97 (33).

has moved his way into all-time top 25 rebounders at Nebraska. His 511 rebounds are currently No. 21 on the list, and he needs just nine to move into the top 20.

» If Anderson reaches 1,000 points, 500 rebounds and 150 3-pointers, he would become one of only a handful of players in the Big 12 era to surpass each of those marks in a career. He will be the first Cornhusker in the era to do it and will be just the third Husker ever, joining Piatkowski and Strickland. The other eight players to play solely in the Big 12 era and reach those three marks are (as of Jan. 25):

- Obi Muonelo (Oklahoma State, 2007-present): 1,175 points, 527 rebounds, 204 3-pointers
- Terrel Harris (Oklahoma State, 2005-09): 1,319 points, 512 rebounds, 153 3-pointers
- Josh Carter (Texas A&M, 2005-09): 1,566 points, 509 rebounds, 299 3-pointers
- Brandon Rush (Kansas, 2006-08): 1,477 points, 602 rebounds, 205 3-pointers
- Richard Roby (Colorado, 2004-08): 2,001 points, 659 rebounds, 214 3-pointers
- Cartier Martin (Kansas State, 2003-07): 1,546 points, 540 rebounds, 178 3-pointers
- Rickey Paulding (Missouri, 2000-04): 1,673 points, 526 rebounds, 191 3-pointers
- Kirk Hinrich (Kansas, 2000-03): 1,753 points, 532 rebounds, 236 3-pointers

Entering the mid-week contests, Oklahoma's Tony Crocker needed 12 boards to join the group.

COOL HAND LANCE

Coming into the season, there was some question about who would become Nebraska's floor general as, after last season, two-year starting point guard Cookie Miller decided to transfer and go to school back in his home state of W. Va. As the non-conference slate has now turned to league play, there is no question who that commander is as point guard Lance Jeter has made his presence felt throughout the program.

The 6-3, 225-pound native of Beaver Falls, Pa., has been a steady force for the Huskers, taking turns knocking down big shots and learning when to pass the ball to his new teammates. That second talent has been on display at the highest level in the past few weeks as Jeter has posted 47 assists against just 15 turnovers in the Huskers' past 10 games.

» Jeter leads the team with 78 assists and his 4.1 assists per game are 10th in the Big 12 Conference. He has had at least four assists in eight of the past 10 games and has had more than one turnover in a game just four times in that span.

» In conference play, Jeter is fifth entering the week with 4.5 assists per game. He posted a career high in each of his first two career Big 12 games with seven assists at Texas A&M and then eight against No. 3 Kansas.

» He also has shown good decision-making as he owns a 2.29 assist-to-turnover ratio (78 to 34). Entering the week, Jeter ranks 48th nationally and fifth in the Big 12 in assist-to-turnover ratio. His 4.1 apg placed him 128th in the nation.

» Jeter has had at least five assists in eight games this season, including six straight between Dec. 23 and Jan. 13. The six straight games with at least five assists is the longest streak by a Husker in the Big 12 era, surpassing the five straight games Charles Richardson Jr. had at least five assists in 2006-07.

» While Jeter is not looked at as a primary scoring option, he has shown the ability to get to the basket and provide an offensive spark on occasion. He has posted five double-figure scoring games, including 12 points on 6-of-13 shooting against Iowa State on Jan. 13. Prior to that game, Jeter has scored just 13 points in the previous six games combined while going 4-of-27 from the field.

» Jeter can also be a force on the glass as he has shown the past two games. While he has had just three assists in the last two contests, he has posted 13 rebounds, setting a career best in each game. He posted a then-best six boards against Iowa State and had a team- and career-high seven boards at Missouri.

HUSKERS HITTING AT RECORD PACE

Although Nebraska has struggled in the past two games by hitting just 9-of-35 (25.7 percent) beyond the arc, the Cornhuskers are still hitting at a record pace from 3-point range.

» Nebraska has drained 125-of-316 attempts from 3-point range this season, good for 39.6 percent. That average would be a school record if the season ended today as the current mark stands at 38.9 percent by the 2003-04 squad. That team hit 210-of-540 attempts beyond the arc.

» NU has hit at least 50 percent from 3-point range in five games this season, including once in Big 12 play when the Huskers drained 11-of-21 (52.4 percent) against No. 3 Kansas.

» Redshirt freshman Eshaunte Jones leads the Big 12 Conference by hitting 45.5 percent (30-of-66) from 3-point range this season. His 30 treys are a team high and rank eighth in the NU freshman record book.

» Along with Jones, Ryan Anderson (23), Brandon Richardson (18), Sek Henry (17), Lance Jeter (11) and Ray Gallegos (11) have each recorded double figures for 3-pointers this season. The Huskers have 125 treys this year and are currently on pace to finish with 211 3-pointers, a total which would rank fourth in school single-season history.

STANDHARDINGER MAKES DEBUT

After sitting out the non-conference slate, freshman forward Christian Standhardinger jumped right into the action as conference play got started on Jan. 9 at Texas A&M. The 6-8, 210-pounder quickly made his presence felt for the Huskers as he had a team-high 13 points and seven rebounds vs. the Aggies.

» Standhardinger made his career debut just over seven minutes into the A&M game and had five points and three rebounds in the opening period. His 3-pointer in the second half gave Nebraska a 42-40 lead and his free throw less than a minute later gave NU its final lead of the game, 43-42.

» In his second career game, Standhardinger posted eight points on 2-of-7 shooting with two rebounds (both offensive) in 19 minutes off the bench against No. 3 Kansas, but had a more difficult time against Iowa State, scoring two points on 1-of-7 shooting while adding two rebounds, a steal and an assist.

» Standhardinger led Nebraska in scoring in each of the two exhibition games, finishing the pre-season with 17.5 points per contest while shooting 11-of-18 (61.1 percent) from the floor to raise fan expectations around the state. He nailed 13-of-15 free throw attempts, including 9-of-11 in his first appearance, while adding 7.0 rebounds per game. In Nebraska's final exhibition game, Standhardinger got a spot in the starting lineup where he hit 7-of-11 shots from the field for 18 points and seven rebounds in 20 minutes of action.

» An NCAA amateurism ruling mandated that the freshman forward had to sit out the first 15 games of the season because the club team he played on in his native Germany included a professional. It was the same team that produced fellow Husker Christopher Niemann, who had to sit out all of last season because of the NCAA's ruling at the time. Standhardinger was not allowed to travel with the team, but practiced with the Huskers during the non-conference season.

TAKING CARE OF THE BALL

Coach Doc Sadler's teams at Nebraska have always been noted for their blue-collar work ethic and their attitude toward having a stalwart defense, but over the past couple years another area has become a trademark of a Sadler-led program: ball security.

Last season, the Cornhuskers ranked 18th nationally and first in the Big 12 Conference in turnovers per game, giving up the ball just 11.5 times per contest. NU was one of only two teams (also Texas) to give up less than 12 turnovers per game in 2009 Big 12 Conference play as the Huskers led the league with just 185 turnovers in league action (11.6 tpg).

» This season, Nebraska is holding on to the ball nearly as well. NU entered the week ranked 25th nationally in turnovers per game, averaging just 11.6 turnovers per contest.

» Nebraska has been even better in its first four conference games as the Huskers are averaging just 10.8 turnovers per game in Big 12 play. NU ranks second in assist-to-turnover ratio (1.21, 52 assists, 43 turnovers) in Big 12-only games.

» The Huskers have turned the ball over seven or fewer times in four games, and less than 10 times on six occasions including two of the past three games. Nebraska set this year's season low with four turnovers against Southern Utah, one off the Nebraska all-time single-game record of three (set twice, including once by a Sadler-led club in 2009). NU also had just six turnovers in the non-conference finale.

HUSKERS ON THE RADIO

The IMG Husker Sports Radio Network is in its 15th year producing and marketing live broadcasts of University of Nebraska football, men's and women's basketball, volleyball, baseball and softball games.

The Husker Sports Network has created a large network of state and national affiliates. All regular-season men's basketball games and any postseason contests will be broadcast on a 32-station basketball network in 2009-10. KFAB (1110 AM) is the Omaha affiliate, KLIN (1400 AM) is the Lincoln affiliate and while KRVN (880 AM) in Lexington also serves as a primary state affiliate. All games can be heard around the world for free on Huskers.com and a great number of Nebraska's games will also be heard live on SIRIUS Satellite again this season.

Veteran radio announcer Kent Pavelka leads the NU men's basketball broadcast in 2009-10, along with former Husker letterwinner Matt Davison. Former Husker Andy Markowski will also fill in as the color analyst for a number of contests. Lane Grindle serves as the host of Sports Nightly, a live daily call-in show. Grindle will also host the Doc Sadler Radio Show on Monday nights throughout the season beginning at 7 p.m.

HUSKERS HEADING TO PUERTO RICO IN 2010

Lincoln (Nov. 19) -- The Nebraska basketball team will get a tough early season test when it plays in the 2010 O'Reilly Auto Parts Puerto Rico Tip-Off tournament next November. The tourney will run Nov. 18-21, 2010, and the Huskers will play three games, with all the tourney contests slated to be carried by ESPN or ESPN360.com.

The 2010 tourney field was announced during the opening games of the 2009 Puerto Rico Tip-Off. Rounding out the talented eight-team field alongside Nebraska next year will be North Carolina, West Virginia, Minnesota, Vanderbilt, Davidson, Western Kentucky and Hofstra. This season, the Tar Heels, Mountaineers and Golden Gophers are all ranked in the national top 25.

"This is going to be a test. With a field like that, you're going to find out real quick what kind of team you have," coach Doc Sadler said. "These early season tournaments are fun for the fans, but it's tough for the team because you have three games in four days and have to make that quick turnaround. Hopefully it will be something good for us with so many young guys coming back."

Nebraska will be playing in its first regular-season tournament since 2006-07 when NU went 2-1 at the Rainbow Classic in Honolulu, Hawaii. The last time the Huskers played in San Juan was the 2000 San Juan Shootout, when NU won three straight games by a total of four points. The Huskers had one-point wins over Iona and Kent State and won by two points over Southern Methodist to take the title. Overall, it will be Nebraska's eighth regular-season tournament away from home during the Big 12 era.

The Huskers currently have 11 scholarship players who are juniors, sophomores or freshmen who will have eligibility remaining after this season. Among those are five freshmen or redshirt freshmen, including center Jorge Brian Diaz, who is from Caguas, Puerto Rico.

RARE ROAD WIN

The Cornhuskers made all the shots when they counted the most, whether at the charity stripe or from the field, as Nebraska defeated one of the favorites in Conference USA, downing Tulsa 74-70 on Dec. 22. The victory was rare, however, as in recent history, it has not been often that Nebraska has grabbed wins away from Lincoln when allowing 70 or more points.

To put it in perspective, the win marked the first time in the coach Doc Sadler era that NU allowed at least 70 points and still won a road/neutral game. In fact, the last time Nebraska won a game away from Lincoln while giving up 70 or more points was a one-point victory at Creighton, 71-70, in the first round of the 2004 National Invitation Tournament (NIT).

Since the start of the Big 12 era in the 1996-97 campaign, Nebraska has now won just eight contests away from home while giving up 70 or more points.

DEFENSE TAKING SHAPE

Coach Doc Sadler's squads have led the Big 12 Conference in scoring defense each of the past two seasons and ranked among the top 25 defenses in the country at the end of those years. This year has been much of the same despite the fact that the Huskers have just three returning scholarship players available from last year's NIT squad.

» Entering the week, the Husker defense is ranked second in the league by allowing 60.4 points per game, as only one team in the Big 12 (Kansas) has allowed less than 60 points per game on the season. Nebraska entered the week ranked 25th nationally in scoring defense.

» Earlier in the season, the Huskers had the nation's top-ranked defense as Nebraska entered the Las Vegas Classic on Dec. 22 allowing just 54.1 ppg. The Huskers held the distinction for just one week as they gave up 70 and 88 points, respectively, while splitting games with Tulsa and BYU on a neutral court.

» The magic mark under Sadler seems to be the 60-point plateau. Nebraska now has a sterling 45-5 record under Sadler when holding teams to 60 or fewer points, including an impressive 39-2 mark at home.

» The Huskers have allowed more than 70 points to a conference team just 10 times in 39 games (including the conference championship) since the start of the 2008 Big 12 slate. Five of those contests have been at home and five have been on the road.

» Nebraska allowed a season-low 39 points to Chicago State, the 10th fewest points given up by a Nebraska squad since 1947. It was the third time a Sadler-led Nebraska team held an opponent to less than 40 points.

HUSKERS FINDING THE MARK

Nebraska coach Doc Sadler has said from Day One that he thought this team "could shoot the ball well," and through the first 19 games this season, they've proven their mentor right. The Huskers are hitting a solid 45.6 percent from the field midway through the season, including hitting at least 50.0 percent from the field six times.

Nebraska hit a season-high 55.6 percent against Chicago State and had its best half of the year against Southern Utah when it hit 67.9 percent (19-of-28) after the intermission. At Creighton on Dec. 6, the Huskers hit 50.0 percent (24-of-48) from the floor for its best effort on the road since last season at Texas Tech.

» Despite struggling recently in league play, Nebraska's current percentage of 45.6 would be the fifth-highest by a Husker squad during the Big 12 era.

» Part of the Huskers' offensive effectiveness has come behind solid shooting from beyond the arc, where Nebraska has nailed 125-of-316 from 3-point range (39.6 percent), including draining a season-high 12 treys (on 19 attempts) against Southeastern Louisiana in the non-conference finale.

» Nebraska ranked 21st nationally in 3-point percentage entering the week after hitting at least 40 percent from beyond the arc in five of the past nine games.

» Nebraska's strong shooting from outside was on display as it tied a Devaney Center record and set a team building record by hitting 75.0 percent (9-of-12) from 3-point range against Texas-Pan American on Dec. 2. The Huskers hit seven straight at one point and bettered Nebraska's previous building record of 66.7 percent set three times.

BLOCK PARTY

Redshirt freshman Jorge Brian Diaz quickly made a name for himself as he posted one of just three Husker 20-point games this season when he had 22 points on 9-of-10 shooting against TCU in his third career game. But it is on the defensive end that he is quickly – and quietly – looking like one of the top freshmen in school history.

Diaz currently leads NU with 30 blocked shots, and his 1.6 blocks per game are seventh in the Big 12 Conference on the season, where he is the top-ranked freshman. Diaz's 30 blocks in 19 games are 12 more than NU's individual high last year (18 by Toney McCray) in 31 games.

» Diaz already ranks third in the Nebraska freshman record book with his 30 blocks. The only two rookies to ever record more are Venson Hamilton (1996) and John Turek (2002), who hold the Nebraska freshman record with 39 blocks each in their initial season.

» Diaz has had a career high with three blocked shots in five contests this season including the Huskers' contest against Iowa State at home.

» As a team, the Huskers own 63 blocked shots this season in 19 games, averaging 3.3 blocks per game. Last year, Nebraska had just 52 blocks in 31 games (1.7 bpg).

BENCH PRODUCTION

The Cornhuskers have spread the scoring around this season with only one player averaging double figures while eight other active Huskers are averaging at least 5.0 points per game. Much of that production has come from the bench, as Nebraska has a deeper roster than many recent seasons.

» The Husker bench outscored opponents in each of the first eight games and 14 times overall this season. The top production came as Nebraska held a +28 advantage in bench scoring against Chicago State and NU has had three other games (TCU, +19; UTPA, +20; SJU, +21) with at least 19 more points off the bench than the opponent.

» On the season, Nebraska has gotten 517 points from its bench. That's 40.4 percent of the production that has come from outside the starting lineup.

» The most points by a Husker off the bench this year is 22 by Jorge Brian Diaz, who went 9-of-10 against TCU, while Eshaunte Jones added 21 points, including five 3-pointers, in a loss to BYU. Brandon Richardson also had 18 points off the bench against No. 3 Kansas.

OFF TO THE RACES

Nebraska has the potential to be an efficient force on the offensive end with its revamped roster. One of the prime examples came as the Huskers posted 90 points against TCU. It was the first time NU topped the 90-point plateau since 2006 when the Huskers earned a 93-77 victory over Colorado.

The Husker offense was running in high gear against the Horned Frogs as Nebraska hit 54.0 percent (27-of-50) from the field. The trend has continued as Nebraska has hit at least 50.0 percent from the field in five games at the Devaney Center, and six games overall.

» The Huskers scored 81 points against Texas-Pan American on Dec. 2 while hitting 53.7 percent from the field, including tying the Devaney Center record by hitting 75.0 percent (9-of-12) from 3-point range. In Nebraska's 74-39 win over Chicago State on Dec. 10, the Huskers hit a season-high 55.6 percent.

» Against Southern Utah, Nebraska moved NU to 31-3 – including 29-0 at home – under Sadler when connecting on 50.0 percent of its shots from the floor as it nailed 54.1 percent from the field, including 67.9 percent (19-of-28) in the second half. The Huskers won the contest 94-61, making it the Huskers' highest-scoring game in the Doc Sadler era at Nebraska while also helping NU improve to 17-0 under Sadler when reaching at least 80 points.

» Nebraska scored at least 70 points in each of its first five home games this season (9-of-12 at home overall). Last year, it took nine games at the Devaney Center before the Huskers recorded their fifth 70-point effort.

HUSKERS SIGN 6-11, 315-POUND CENTER FOR 2010-11

Lincoln (Nov. 14) --- Fourth-year coach Doc Sadler added a big recruit for the 2010 signing class as 6-11, 315-pound Andre Almeida signed a National Letter of Intent to attend the University of Nebraska and join the Husker basketball team next fall.

One of the top post players in the junior college ranks last year, Almeida will add to what is expected to be a huge front court for the Huskers next season as Nebraska currently has three freshmen and sophomores who stand at least 6-10.

"Andre is as talented as he is big," Sadler said. "He has good hands and footwork and he knows how to get around in the paint and score. He has tremendous strength, and when you're that big, it's hard to be moved around. Andre will help us when we get into Big 12 play where we're facing great big men every night. He also has a tremendous work ethic and I think Nebraska fans will enjoy seeing him play alongside some of our other younger big guys."

A 2010 NJCAA Division I preseason All-American, Almeida is the fifth international player to sign with the Cornhuskers under Sadler. A native of Sao Paulo, Brazil, Almeida recently played for current Nebraska assistant coach Walter Roese, who served as the head coach of the Brazilian U24 national team that competed in the 2009 World University Games in Belgrade, Serbia, in July. Almeida also played under Roese on the 2006 U18 national team that competed at the Copa America tournament in San Antonio, Texas, qualifying Brazil for the Junior World Cup in Belgrade. Brazil finished in fourth place in the world that year.

During his first season in the United States, Almeida led Arizona Western College to a 26-6 record in 2008-09, including an 18-4 mark in conference action, as AWC finished the year ranked 17th nationally in NJCAA Division I. The Matadors won their fourth regional title in five years before falling in the district finals. Almeida led the way as he averaged 13.8 points over 32 games while ranking first in the nation in field-goal percentage by hitting an outstanding 71.0 percent (184-of-261) from the floor. He also led the league in blocked shots with 3.5 per game (112 total) while adding 7.9 rebounds and 1.6 assists per contest.

After finishing with 11 double-doubles on the year, Almeida was honored as a second-team All-American and a first-team all-conference and all-region selection. He was also named the Arizona Community College Athletic Conference Player of the Year after helping coach Kelly Green and the Matadors to their second straight league regular-season title. Earlier in the season, Almeida was named the NJCAA Division I Player of the Week on Jan. 19 after averaging 20.0 points, 12.0 rebounds and 3.0 blocks per game while hitting 81.0 percent from the field over two games.

NU LOOKING FOR FIFTH POSTSEASON BERTH IN SEVEN YEARS

Despite their lack of experience entering the year, the 2009-10 Huskers will be shooting for the program's fifth postseason berth in seven years and third straight under coach Doc Sadler. Overall, Nebraska's NIT bid at the end of the 2008-09 campaign was the Huskers' 22nd all-time postseason appearance. NU has 16 appearances in the NIT, including the 1996 title, and six berths in the NCAA Tournament, although none since 1998.

SADLER SETTING NEW MARKS

Nebraska coach Doc Sadler has said from the beginning that he hopes to do something at Nebraska that's never been accomplished before: get to the NCAA Tournament and win a game. Since he's been at NU, his record has spoken volumes as he has reached marks never before seen in Lincoln.

Over his first three years, Sadler had more victories than any Husker coach to open a career. Through his first three seasons, Sadler owned a 55-40 mark, two more wins than Moe Iba had in his first three years and four more than Danny Nee. Sadler also had the most wins in the first two years at NU (37) and is the first coach in school history to win at least 17 games in each of his first three years guiding the Cornhuskers.

The Huskers' win over Texas Tech on the road on Jan. 31, 2009, marked Sadler's 50th victory at Nebraska. He was the fourth-fastest coach to reach 50 wins at NU in program history and among the three who reached the mark faster at NU, two of those men coached in Lincoln before World War I.

REACHING HIGHER

According to statistics provided by kenpom.com, Nebraska was the shortest team in Division I basketball (344 teams) last season. The Huskers' active roster in 2008-09 had just two scholarship players who stood at least 6-7, while the average height of the 20 players on the full roster was just over 6-4.

This season, Nebraska has a taller lineup across the board as the average height for all 17 players on the roster is just under 6-5 1/2. NU has five active players available for conference play who stand at least 6-8. The web site kenpom.com lists the Huskers as No. 91 in average height (as of Dec. 22) in 2009-10.

» To date, Nebraska has 10 70-point efforts this season after posting 24 70-point games over the past two years (12 each season). Overall, the Huskers have reached the 70-point plateau in five of the last nine contests, including posting 72 points against No. 3 Kansas, which entered the game with the second-rated scoring defense in the Big 12 Conference by allowing just over 60 points per game at the time.

FRESHMAN HIGHLIGHTS

Nebraska has had season-ending injuries to two players - Toney McCray and Christopher Niemann - who could have each earned starting roles this year. Add on to that the fact that eight of Nebraska's 13 scholarships are held by freshmen and sophomores, and it's easy to see why one of the least experienced teams in the Big 12 has had to rely on a number of youngsters in the early portion of the season.

Two of those players - redshirt freshmen Jorge Brian Diaz and Eshaunte Jones - have shown promise as they had performances that stack up among the best in NU freshman history.

» Diaz made his presence felt early and often as the Huskers raced past TCU on Nov. 21 in a 90-77 victory, just one game after he took an elbow to the face and had a pair of front teeth knocked loose and suffered a cut inside his mouth in the opening minute at Saint Louis. The Caguas, Puerto Rico, native set a team season high with 22 points vs. TCU as Nebraska reached the 90-point plateau for the first time since 2006.

» Against TCU, Diaz connected on 9-of-10 shots from the floor, with only a first-half miss keeping him from the NU record book. The Husker single-game record for most field-goals attempted without a miss is nine set on five occasions, including last year by Ade Dagunduro. Diaz's .900 shooting percentage is the third highest single-game mark by a Big 12 player this season.

» Diaz became the first freshman since Sek Henry in 2006 to post a 20-point contest for the Huskers. Henry's outburst that season came one day after Ryan Anderson put his name on the list with 29 points, the second-highest total by a Husker freshman ever.

» Jones followed as he produced 21 points on 6-of-11 shooting in a loss to BYU in the HoopTV Las Vegas Classic. He hit 5-of-7 3-point attempts while adding three rebounds and two assists without a turnover.

» Overall, Diaz and Jones are the 21st and 22nd freshmen to record a 20-point game for the Huskers since freshmen were reinstated by the NCAA for the 1972-73 season. Joe McCray set the record with the most 20-point games by a Husker freshman when he had 10 contests with at least 20 points in 2004-05. Only six Husker freshmen in history have had multiple 20-point contests.

TAKING THE SHOT

With so many new faces on the squad, it was only a matter of time before one of the youngsters was asked to step up and make a game-changing play. At USC on Nov. 29, it was more than just a game-changing play... it was a game-deciding shot.

» Redshirt freshman Eshaunte Jones, playing in his ninth career game, had made just two field goals in the first half and had only been off the bench for a total of five minutes in the second period before being called upon with less than a minute to play in a tie game. Jones didn't hesitate as he buried the game-winning shot from the corner, a 3-pointer with 11.7 seconds remaining. The shot was reviewed at length by the officials who determined it was indeed a 3-pointer. From there, the Huskers defended the perimeter well and USC only managed to get off an off-balance desperation shot at the buzzer.

» Jones finished the USC game with seven points, and his 3-pointer gave the Huskers their first road win of the season, and just the second true road win over a non-conference opponent under fourth-year coach Doc Sadler. It was NU's first road victory over a non-conference BCS team since defeating Tennessee, 62-61, in Knoxville in 2004.

» Jones also led the Huskers in scoring in both games at the HoopTV Las Vegas Classic just before Christmas. He posted 12 points on 4-of-5 shooting, all from 3-point range, to lead the Huskers to a victory over Tulsa, and came back a night later to record a career-best 21 points. He hit 6-of-11 shots from the field with five made baskets from 3-point range (seven attempts).

▶▶ Jones leads the Big 12 Conference in 3-point percentage as he has connected on 45.5 percent (30-of-66) from beyond the arc this year. His 30 3-pointers tie for eighth on the NU freshman top 10 list.

50 IS THE NEW 60

Nebraska has made it a habit of holding teams to 50 points or less since coach Doc Sadler took over in 2006-07. Since his arrival, the Huskers have held opponents to 50 or fewer points 22 times. In the first 10 years of the Big 12 era before Sadler arrived, Nebraska managed the feat on 26 occasions.

The most times NU has held teams to 50 or fewer points in a season under Sadler is nine times in 2007-08. This season, the Huskers have already held six teams below 50 points. That defensive effort has helped the Huskers allow just 60.4 points per game, an average that ranks second in the Big 12 Conference this year and is among the national leaders.

▶▶ During Nebraska's three home games between Dec. 10 and Dec. 19, the Huskers held all three teams to 44 or fewer points, including 39 points by Chicago State, 44 by Oregon State and 41 by Jackson State. The 39 points by Chicago State tied for the 10th lowest point total allowed by the Huskers since 1947.

▶▶ The last time a Nebraska squad matched a streak of three straight games holding teams to below 45 points was the 1943 season. In fact, the last time the Cornhuskers even held three straight teams to below 50 points was 1958 as NU won three straight games over Colorado (41 points), No. 4 Kansas (41 points) and No. 1 Kansas State (48) as part of a four-game win streak.

▶▶ Dating to the 2007-08 season, Nebraska has held eight of its last 12 Big 12 Conference opponents in the Devaney Center to 57 or fewer points, including three times under 50 points. NU held six teams to 57 or fewer points in Big 12 play last year, including Missouri (51), Kansas State (51), at Colorado (53), Texas (55), Colorado (41) and Texas A&M (57), and have added one to the list this year as Iowa State posted only 56 points on Jan. 13.

NIEMANN, MCCRAY OUT FOR SEASON

After making what looked to be a successful return from a torn ACL suffered in the final week of the regular season last year, 6-10, 265-pound sophomore center Christopher Niemann had a major setback as he tore the same ACL for a second time in the first week of September. After surgery to repair the damage that occurred during a non-basketball conditioning workout, Niemann will be out for all of the 2009-10 campaign.

Niemann is currently making good progress through rehab again, and is on pace to join the team for offseason workouts in late spring. He will have three years remaining on his original eligibility clock to play three seasons with the Huskers.

▶▶ Nebraska coach Doc Sadler announced following Nebraska's game against UMKC on Nov. 24 that sophomore guard Toney McCray would have surgery on his elbow and be out for the remainder of the season. McCray injured the elbow in a pickup game in early September, sustaining a torn ligament. McCray tried to play through the pain as doctors assured him that it would get no worse if he waited until after the season to have surgery. But Sadler said that McCray indicated he had little confidence in his elbow and wasn't able to help the team the way he wanted to, and thought it would be better to have surgery now and be ready for the offseason in the spring of 2010.

McCray had successful surgery on Dec. 7 to repair the UCL in his elbow. He started rehab that week and is doing well, as he is on pace to try to join the team in the spring during offseason workouts.

▶▶ Both Niemann and McCray were looked at as possible starters heading into the start of the season. McCray averaged 6.3 points and 4.0 rebounds over three games this year, hitting 53.3 percent (8-of-15) from the field. He played 18.3 minutes per game. Niemann has yet to play a game in a Husker uniform.

RICHARDSON, JONES NAMED TO ALL-TOURNEY TEAM

Las Vegas (Dec. 23) --- Sophomore Brandon Richardson and redshirt freshman Eshuante Jones were named to the HoopTV Las Vegas Classic All-Tournament team for their play while helping the Cornhuskers to the championship game of the eight-team event.

Nebraska won a pair of games at home over Chicago State and Jackson State as part of the Classic and then defeated Tulsa, 74-70, in Las Vegas to earn a shot at the title. NU fell in the championship matchup, dropping an 88-66 battle against BYU, which has since earned a top-20 national ranking.

During the two games in Las Vegas, Jones led the Husker attack by averaging 16.5 points per game on 62.5 percent (10-of-16) shooting. He scored a career-best 21 points including five 3-pointers in the loss to BYU and had 12 points on four treys against Tulsa as the Huskers earned their second win away from Lincoln this season. He was 9-of-12 (75 percent) from 3-point range in the two games and added 2.0 rebounds and 1.0 assist per game.

Richardson's numbers were more subtle as he played just 19.5 minutes per game, but his defensive effort and intensity on the court helped drive the Huskers to the win over the Golden Hurricane. Richardson averaged 11.0 points per game but his just 4-of-6 shots from the field, including both of his 3-point attempts. Most of his offensive damage came at the free throw line where he knocked down 12-of-14 attempts, including hitting six straight charity shots in the final 18 seconds to ice the victory over Tulsa. He also had five assists against one turnover and a pair of steals.

NU LOOKS FOR DEFENSIVE 3-PEAT

In 2009-10, Nebraska looks to continue its dominance on the defensive end under coach Doc Sadler.

▶▶ Each of the past two seasons, the Huskers have led the Big 12 Conference in overall scoring defense and ranked among the national top 25 each season.

▶▶ The Huskers' also played well in conference action last year, as NU had the best scoring defense in league-only games for the first time in the Big 12 era.

▶▶ Last year, Nebraska allowed just 60.4 points per game to rank 22nd nationally while a year earlier, it gave up 60.7 ppg to rank No. 18 in the nation. Nebraska also led the league in conference-only defense in 2009 by giving up just 62.5 ppg to league teams.

HUSKERS LOOK TO BUILD ON LEAGUE MARK FOR THIRD STRAIGHT SEASON

Heading into Big 12 Conference action, the Huskers had one thing in mind despite facing 16 games in arguably the nation's toughest conference: continuing their upward momentum against Big 12 foes.

» Last year, the Huskers finished with an 8-8 record in Big 12 Conference play, their best mark in a decade and just the third time since the formation of the league that NU has finished at .500 or better. The mark came as the Huskers won each of their last two regular-season games, giving Nebraska its third straight season with an improved league mark. NU had six league wins in 2007 and seven in 2008.

» Only three teams in the Big 12 have improved their win total in league play each of the past three years. That small group includes Nebraska, Oklahoma and Oklahoma State.

» This year, Nebraska will try to do something done only once before in program history as the only other time the Huskers improved their conference win total for four straight years was from 1952 to 1955.

KARN REGAINS YEAR

Walk-on guard Matt Karn recently was informed by the NCAA that he will receive another year of eligibility to complete his playing career in 2010-11. Listed as a senior at the start of this season (his fifth of college eligibility), Karn will now be able to come back next year as part of the Huskers' 2011 senior class, and has accordingly been changed to junior in class.

The Philpot, Ky., native joined the Huskers last season and sat out with a knee injury. It was his fourth season of eligibility after three years at junior college. However, Karn only played on the court one season of junior college ball as he was injured as a true freshman in 2005-06 and then again in his third season (redshirt sophomore, 2007-08) at Shawnee (Ill.) Community College.

In the one year he played at junior college, Karn averaged 17.5 points per game and ranked among the top 50 scorers in NJCAA Division II. He was 19th in the nation in free throw percentage and had eight games with at least four 3-pointers, ranking second in his conference for 3-pointers.

This year, Karn has made it to the court in nine games for the Huskers, and has hit 3-of-5 3-point attempts for nine points.

NEBRASKA RECEIVES RARE WAIVER

Nebraska petitioned the NCAA with a waiver that was granted in early September, allowing the Huskers to have 14 players on scholarship for the 2009-10 season. The rare allowance given to NU is only for this season and Nebraska will be required to return to 13 scholarships for the 2010-11 season.

While the Huskers were able to receive the waiver, there was one stipulation as it said that one player had to redshirt this season to get the active roster down to 13 scholarship players. Unfortunately with Christopher Niemann's preseason injury, he is out for the year and it was determined that he would count as the one who would count toward that provision.

» While NU received the extra scholarship, it enters Big 12 play already down to the 13-scholarship limit, including only 11 active scholarship players. Toney McCray and Christopher Niemann are out for the season with injury, while freshman Adrien Coleman transferred out of the program at the end of the first semester.

» Nebraska has two seniors leaving it with 11 scholarship players eligible to return next season. In the fall, the Huskers signed 6-11, 315-pound Brazilian center Andre Almeida, who is in his second and final season playing for Arizona Western College this season.

NEW FACES LINE HUSKER ROSTER

While the Huskers will rely on three returning scholarship players for leadership – seniors Ryan Anderson and Sek Henry, and sophomore Brandon Richardson – most of the eyes will be focused on the faces of several newcomers who dot the inexperienced Nebraska roster.

» Among the scholarship newcomers who have seen action for the first time in their Husker careers this season are juniors Lance Jeter and Quincy Hankins-Cole, sophomore Myles Holley, redshirt freshman Jorge Brian Diaz and freshmen Ray Gallegos and Brandon Ubel. Freshman Adrien Coleman also played in the first semester before transferring at the holiday break.

» Freshman Christian Standhardinger, who was forced to sit out the first 15 games of the season because of an NCAA amateurism ruling, became eligible for the league opener at Texas A&M. He is the eighth scholarship Husker to play his first game for Nebraska this season.

» Including walk-ons Matt Karn and Mike Fox, more than 60 percent (9 of 14 active players; 64.2 percent) of the Huskers who have recorded time during the regular season are playing for the first time in a Nebraska uniform this year. Another Husker – Eshaunte Jones – played only four games last year before an injury forced him to redshirt.

YOUTH MOVEMENT

While Nebraska entered the season knowing it will have a number of young players in the lineup on any given night, it did not realize it would have two of the youngest players in their respective classes.

» Freshman Brandon Ubel is the third-youngest player overall in the Big 12 Conference this season. Born on Aug. 29, 1991, only Jaye Crockett of Texas Tech (Oct. 16, 1991) and Tyler Stone of Missouri (Sept. 8, 1991) are younger than Ubel.

» While Ubel is one of the youngest in the league, another Husker is the youngest for his class. Junior college transfer Quincy Hankins-Cole, who graduated high school when he was 16 and played the past two years at Polk (Fla.) CC, will not turn 20 years old until Feb. 18, 2010. The next youngest junior in the Big 12 is Kansas State's Jacob Pullen, who turned 20 on Nov. 10. In fact, Hankins-Cole is three months younger than redshirt-freshman Jorge Brian Diaz, who turned 20 on Nov. 13.

NEBRASKA GAME-BY-GAME NOTEBOOK (GAMES 1-8)

GAME 1 VS. USC UPSTATE (NU 76, USC 49)

The Nebraska Cornhuskers opened their 114th season in program history with a solid 76-49 victory over USC Upstate at the Devaney Center. The Huskers and Spartans swapped leads six times in the first half with NU heading into the locker room with a seven-point lead, 31-24, but a 25-2 run early in the second period sealed the Huskers' ninth straight season-opening victory. Nebraska, which hit 54.8 percent from the floor in the second half, started a pair of freshmen in Brandon Ubel and Jorge Brian Diaz, who combined for 21 points, 13 rebounds, three assists and three blocked shots. Another newcomer, junior college transfer Lance Jeter also made his first career start, leading the way with 17 points on 6-of-7 shooting including dropping in all three attempts from 3-point range as NU was 11-of-20 from beyond the arc. He added six assists and two steals. Senior Ryan Anderson also had a solid all-around performance, posting five points, five rebounds, five assists and a career-best six steals, the most steals by a Husker since 2001.

GAME 2 AT SAINT LOUIS (SLU 69, NU 55)

Saint Louis's Kwamain Mitchell scored 20 points, including 15 in the second half when the Billikens' defense held Nebraska to just 33.3 percent shooting, as SLU ran away with a 69-55 victory at Chaifetz Arena in St. Louis. In their first road game of the season, the Huskers fell behind early, but used a late first-half surge to pull within one, 28-27, at the half. NU allowed just one Billiken basket over the final 7:33 of the period before coming out of the locker room with a quick basket that gave Nebraska its only lead of the game, 29-28, less than a minute into the second period. From there, SLU hit four 3-pointers in the next five minutes, including three in a decisive 11-0 run as the Billikens led by double figures the rest of the way. Sek Henry led the Huskers with 14 points while Anderson had 10. Nebraska played all but four minutes without starting center Jorge Brian Diaz, who had a bloodied mouth and loosened teeth less than a minute into the game and did not return until just over eight minutes remained.

GAME 3 VS. TCU (NU 90, TCU 77)

In the highest scoring game in the Doc Sadler era at Nebraska, the Cornhuskers outraced TCU to the finish line, earning a 90-77 victory at the Devaney Center in a game that featured 11 ties and 13 lead changes. The Huskers shot the ball extremely well, hitting 60 percent in the second half and 54.0 percent for the game while reaching the 90-point plateau for the first time since 2006. Redshirt freshman Jorge Brian Diaz, who had two teeth knocked loose at Saint Louis where he played just four minutes three days earlier, came off the bench to hit 9-of-10 shots for a team-high 22 points, leading five Huskers in double figures. Diaz was the first NU freshman with a 20-point game since Sek Henry in 2006. Henry set Diaz up all day long, as he finished with 11 points and 11 assists for the first Husker double-double since Aleks Maric in 2008. Henry missed a triple-double by three rebounds as he added seven boards with three steals and two blocked shots. Brandon Richardson made his first career start and finished with career highs in points (15) and rebounds (4), helping Nebraska outrebound the Horned Frogs 35-24. With the game tied at 67-67 with five minutes to play, the Huskers put the accelerator down as they scored 23 points in the stretch run, including hitting 13-of-15 at the charity stripe in final 3:24.

GAME 4 VS. UMKC (NU 70, UMKC 48)

After a sluggish start, the Nebraska offense picked up and Huskers locked down the defense locked down as NU ran away with a 70-48 victory over UMKC in the Devaney Center. The teams were tied three times in the early going as the Roos forced four early turnovers and had the score within one, 20-19 with less than seven minutes remaining in the first half. But senior Sek Henry's back-to-back 3-pointers within 30 seconds ignited the offense, which went on to hit better than 53 percent for the game. The Huskers used a 21-5 run to end the first half with a 41-24 advantage and pushed the lead out to 28 points before clearing the bench in the final five minutes. Henry led all scorers with 14 points while adding five rebounds and four assists. Point guard Lance Jeter added 12 points on 5-of-6 shooting and Jorge Brian Diaz came off the bench to score double figures for the second straight game, adding 10 points with three blocked shots. The Huskers limited UMKC to 35.3 percent shooting and forced 14 turnovers while committing just seven miscues. Jay Couisnard was the only Kangaroo in double figures with 11 points but he fouled out with more than 11 minutes remaining in the game.

GAME 5 AT USC (NU 51, USC 48)

Redshirt freshman Eshaunte Jones made just one shot in the second half, but it was the biggest one of the game as he drilled a 3-pointer from the corner with 11.7 seconds left in the contest to give Nebraska a 51-48 victory over USC at the Galen Center. Playing in the first game of this year's Big 12/Pac-10 Hardwood Series, the Huskers and Trojans had eight ties and 20 lead changes as Nebraska evened its road record at 1-1 in November. Just two minutes before Jones' shot, the Huskers looked unlikely to capitalize on missed chances, including going just 3-of-11 at the free throw line. But Quincy Hankins-Cole made a strong play on an offensive rebound to record NU's first basket in nearly six minutes to pull the Huskers within one at 46-45. Ryan Anderson then gave the Huskers the lead less than 30 seconds later with a steal out near the top of the key and a layup before converting the traditional three-point play. USC tied the game at 48-all with less than 40 seconds remaining on a Nikola Vucevic putback, setting up Jones' exciting finish. Following a timeout, the Huskers worked the ball around the perimeter and got the clock down to under 15 before Jones got the ball and fired. Following a lengthy review by the officials, the shot was confirmed as a 3-pointer and NU defended the arc for the final 11 seconds before USC's desperation heave at the buzzer went wide. Anderson led all scorers with 14 points on 5-of-9 shooting, including three 3-pointers. He also had four of NU's 11 steals on 17 USC turnovers, while Nebraska committed just seven miscues.

GAME 6 VS. TEXAS-PAN AMERICAN (NU 81, UTPA 53)

Ryan Anderson posted 21 points on 8-of-9 shooting, including 11 points in a three-minute burst in the second half that pushed the Cornhuskers to an 81-53 victory at the Devaney Center. Anderson, a senior guard, led all scorers, although the Husker freshmen made their presence felt, combining for 46 points as the Huskers shot 53.7 percent from the floor, including a building record 75.0 percent (9-of-12) from 3-point range. Freshman Ray Gallegos (3-of-4) and redshirt freshman Eshuante Jones (3-of-3) combined to hit six 3-pointers, including helping the Huskers drain seven straight from downtown at one point. Gallegos finished with 13 points, three more than his first four career games combined, while Jones had 11 points along with 11 from redshirt freshman Jorge Brian Diaz. Anderson also had four steals to move into the Nebraska career top 10. The Huskers led just 40-32 at the intermission and UTPA pulled within five, 45-40, with 17:16 to play before a 22-2 Husker run put the game out of reach. During the six and one-half minute run, Anderson had 11 points, three steals, two rebounds and an assist. Sek Henry led the Huskers on the glass with eight rebounds as Nebraska outrebounded its fifth opponent of the season, 31-26.

GAME 7 AT CREIGHTON (CU 67, NU 61)

Nebraska turned the ball over 20 times while Creighton capitalized on 32 free throw attempts, making 26 as the Bluejays held off the Huskers for a 67-61 victory at the Qwest Center Omaha in front of a crowd of 16,739. The Huskers had 12 first-half miscues but stayed in the game as they shut down the Bluejay offense that came into the contest averaging 25 3-point attempts to open the season. Nebraska's improved perimeter defense harassed the Bluejays who finished 1-of-10 from long range. But Nebraska's struggles holding onto the ball were too much to overcome even while hitting 50.0 percent (24-of-48) from the floor. NU was outrebounded 31-25 and committed a season-high 25 fouls, helping CU to 26 free points. Lance Jeter scored 13 points and Sek Henry had 10, while the bench hit 11-of-13 shot attempts for 26 points. Kenny Lawson Jr. had his first career double-double for Creighton as he posted 25 points and 10 rebounds to help CU snap a three-game losing streak.

GAME 8 CHICAGO STATE (NU 74, CSU 39)

Nebraska held Chicago State to just 39 points on 24.2 percent shooting as the Huskers cruised to a 35-point victory, 74-39, at the Devaney Center. CSU connected on just 18.8 percent from the floor in the opening period and the Huskers capitalized, jumping to an 11-1 start before going into halftime ahead 30-14. An 18-1 Husker run to open the second period broke the game open as Nebraska shot 55.6 percent from the field on the game, moving ahead by as many as 39 points in the fourth quarter. Eleven players scored, led by Lance Jeter's 13 points while Brandon Richardson and Adrien Coleman each added 10. Jorge Brian Diaz came off the bench to post nine points, 12 rebounds and three blocks while Myles Holley helped the Huskers bust the CSU zone, finishing with nine points. Nebraska had a season-high 41 rebounds, but allowed CSU to post 37 boards, including 23 on the offensive end. Nebraska shot 55.6 percent from the field and had 17 assists on 25 baskets while holding CSU to 0-of-11 from 3-point range.

NEBRASKA GAME-BY-GAME NOTEBOOK (GAMES 9-18)

GAME 9 VS. OREGON STATE (NU 50, OSU 44)

Senior guard Ryan Anderson posted his third career double-double and sealed a defensive battle with a rebound and then two free throws in the final five seconds as Nebraska held on for a 50-44 victory over Oregon State at the Devaney Center. Anderson finished with 16 points to pace the Huskers and tie for game-high honors as he hit 6-of-13 attempts from the field. The rest of the team was 13-of-39 against the difficult Oregon State zone defenses as the Huskers shot a season-low 36.5 percent from the floor. The Seattle native also added a career-best 14 rebounds, bettering his previous mark of 11 set on two occasions. It was the third time he posted a double-double, but the first since his sophomore year in 2008. Neither team was able to get into an offensive groove as the defenses, which rank among the best in the nation, were on display from the start. Nebraska got the better hand in the end as it turned the ball over just 11 times -- after averaging 18.5 turnovers over the past two games -- and held OSU to just 10 offensive rebounds. The Huskers also forced 16 turnovers and held even on the boards with a 34-34 tie.

GAME 10 VS. JACKSON STATE (NU 57, JSU 41)

Junior forward Quincy Hankins-Cole produced a career-high 15 points on 7-of-8 shooting and the Nebraska defense held Jackson State to nine first-half points on its way to a 57-41 victory at the Devaney Center. Hankins-Cole posted 13 points after the break and helped NU go ahead by as many as 24 points while holding JSU to 32.7 percent shooting. The Huskers grabbed a 41-32 advantage on the boards and forced 17 turnovers, but Nebraska did not execute well on offense, hitting just 41.5 percent for the game, allowing the Tigers to hang around. JSU was within seven points before Hankins-Cole spurred a 16-3 run midway through the second half to put the game out of reach. Senior guard Ryan Anderson added 10 points on 5-of-10 shooting and had five rebounds while Jorge Brian Diaz had five points, five rebounds, three blocked shots and three assists.

GAME 11 VS. TULSA (NU 74, UT 70)

Sophomore Brandon Richardson hit six free throws in the final 20 seconds and redshirt freshman Eshaunte Jones nailed a career-best four 3-pointers to lead Nebraska past Conference USA favorite Tulsa in the Las Vegas Classic. After heading into halftime tied at 31-31, the Huskers used a strong second half shooting performance to earn their second win away from Lincoln this season. NU hit 53.8 percent after the intermission, including three treys from Jones. Nebraska went ahead by 13 points in the second frame before a seven-minute field-goal drought helped UT get back into the game. Ben Uzoh had 16 second-half points for the Golden Hurricane, but it was not enough as Nebraska hit just enough shots and Richardson connected at the stripe to push the Huskers in the tournament championship game. Ryan Anderson and Jorge Brian Diaz added 11 points each while seven Huskers had at least eight points.

GAME 12 VS. BYU (BYU 88, NU 66)

Redshirt freshman Eshaunte Jones produced a career-best 21 points and sophomore Brandon Richardson added 13 points but the Huskers dug too deep a hole while watching BYU run away with an 88-66 victory in the championship game of the HoopTV Las Vegas Classic at the Orleans Arena in Las Vegas. Jones knocked down five 3-pointers while helping Nebraska fight back from a 37-5 deficit to open the game. NU cut the Cougar advantage to 14 points at the intermission, but that was as close as they could get as BYU hit 61.2 percent from the field, including 66.7 percent in the opening half. The Cougars drained 15 of their first 17 shots to open the contest before Nebraska reeled off a 20-3 run to cut into the lead before the break. Jones added 12 second-half points, including 3-of-3 beyond the arc, as NU hit 52.2 percent from the field after the intermission.

GAME 13 VS. SOUTHERN UTAH (NU 94, SUU 61)

Quincy Hankins-Cole matched his season-high as Nebraska's bench came up big in a 94-61 victory over Southern Utah at the Devaney Center. Hankins-Cole led Nebraska (10-3) with 15 points on 6-of-8 shooting, as the Huskers put up their highest offensive total in five years. NU, which is a perfect 8-0 at home, relied on a bench that put up 48 points, including 15 by Hankins-Cole in just 11 minutes of action. Jorge Brian Diaz added nine points and four rebounds in 15 minutes, while Myles Holley came up big with seven points and a career-best 11 rebounds in just 14 minutes of action. All 13 players who saw action broke into the scoring column, as the Huskers ended the first half on a 19-6 spurt and cruised to a 33-point victory. Hankins-Cole was one of four players to finish in double figures, as freshman Brandon Ubel added 12 points, while Sek Henry and Brandon Richardson chipped in 12 and 10 points, respectively. Nebraska shot 68 percent over the final 20 minutes and was sharp with the basketball all night, dishing out 18 assists and committing a season-low four turnovers, while harassing Southern Utah (4-9) into 19 turnovers on the night.

GAME 14 VS. MARYLAND EASTERN SHORE (NU 74, UMES 60)

Ryan Anderson posted 17 points in 24 minutes and sparked the Husker offense in the second half as Nebraska pulled away for a 74-60 victory over Maryland Eastern Shore in the first game after the New Year. Anderson hit 6-of-9 shots from the field and was one of four Huskers with at least four assists as the Huskers improved to 11-3 to open the season, including 9-0 at home. After leading 30-26 at the intermission on his 3-pointer with 30 seconds to play, Anderson came out in the second half and had five points and two assists in the first six minutes of the period as Nebraska used a 15-2 run to break the game open. Jorge Brian Diaz had 11 points off the bench and Brandon Richardson added 10 points, including eight in the first half. Richardson hit 2-of-4 from 3-point range as the Huskers drained 40.0 percent (8-of-20) beyond the arc. Lance Jeter had five assists against one turnover, as the Huskers posted a season-high 20 assists while forcing UMES into an opponent season-high 21 turnovers. The Hawks also had an opponent high 40 rebounds, taking an eight-board advantage on the glass.

GAME 15 VS. SOUTHEASTERN LOUISIANA (NU 77, SLU 59)

Sophomore guard Brandon Richardson came out strong, scoring six of the Huskers' first 11 points and had 11 points in the opening period before finishing with a career-high 15 as the Cornhuskers cruised past Southeastern Louisiana 77-59 at the Devaney Center. Richardson and senior guard Ryan Anderson combined for 29 points on 15-of-24 shooting, including hitting 3-of-4 apiece from long range. They helped the Huskers shoot 63.2 percent (12-of-19) from 3-point range, including a sizzling 7-of-8 from beyond the arc in the second period. After SLU pulled within eight, 49-41, following a 7-0 run, the Huskers responded with Sek Henry's 3-pointer and went on to stay ahead by double figures the rest of the way. The Huskers posted 19 assists on 27 baskets and had just six turnovers -- two off their season low -- while forcing SLU into 20 turnover. Nebraska turned the miscues into a 22-4 advantage in points off turnovers, while also holding a 17-8 lead in second-chance points.

GAME 16 AT TEXAS A&M (A&M 64, NU 53)

Nebraska trailed for the first 30 minutes of the game and when it finally got over the hump, Texas A&M responded with authority, rolling off an 18-6 run to seal a 64-53 victory in both teams' Big 12 opener. Freshman Christian Standhardinger made his career debut after being forced to sit out the first 15 games of the season under an NCAA ruling, and he did not disappoint. The 6-8, 210-pound German produced a team-high 13 points and seven rebounds in 22 minutes of action, including a 3-pointer that gave NU its last lead of the game at 43-42. Redshirt freshman Jorge Brian Diaz added 10 points on 5-of-7 shooting but neither Nebraska nor A&M were able to top the 40-percent plateau as both defenses were in top form. NU held the Aggies to just 3-of-21 shooting from 3-point range, but A&M pulled away for its fourth win in the last five games in the series by hitting 25-of-33 at the free throw line. Nebraska 6-of-9 at the charity stripe. Donald Sloan led all scorers with 26 points for the Aggies, who also held a 40-28 advantage on the boards.

GAME 17 VS. NO. 3 KANSAS (KU 84, NU 72)

Nebraska saw its 11-game home winning streak snapped as third-ranked Kansas used a pair of 8-0 second-half runs to erase a one-point halftime deficit and pull away from the Huskers for a 84-72 victory. Nebraska, which had jumped to a 12-1 lead in the first four minutes of the game, led 44-43 at the half thanks to a strong first-half shooting performance. The Huskers hit eight 3-pointers and shot 55.6 percent from the field but NU nailed only 30.8 percent in the second half while getting outscored 41-28. Kansas shot the ball well in both halves, connecting on 57.8 percent in the game, including 13-of-21 from behind the arc. Kansas used the strong shooting to become only the second Big 12 team in the five seasons to score 80 points at the Devaney Center. Four Jayhawks were in double figures, led by 22 points from Sherron Collins and 19 from Marcus Morris. Nebraska was led by Brandon Richardson, who scored a career-high 18 points on 5-of-6 shooting from the field. Richardson was also 2-of-3 from the 3-point line and hit all five of his free throws. Jorge Brian Diaz added 15 points, while Eshaunte Jones nailed four 3-pointers to chip in 12 points.

GAME 18 VS. IOWA STATE (ISU 56, NU 53)

The Cornhuskers fought back from a 12-point first-half deficit to take a one-point lead at the intermission and the teams battled back and forth throughout the second period until Iowa State knocked down a couple of late shots and NU misfired in the final minute as the Cyclones snapped a 17-game conference road losing streak with a 56-53 victory. NU held All-Big 12 forward Craig Brackins in check, allowing just six points and 11 boards, but newcomer Marquis Gilstrap had a game-high 15 points and 12 rebounds, helping ISU earn a 45-36 advantage on the glass. NU hit just 5-of-19 from 3-point range. Ryan Anderson led the Huskers with 13 points, eight rebounds and five steals while Lance Jeter had 12 points in his best scoring effort in a month.

NEBRASKA GAME-BY-GAME NOTEBOOK (GAME 19)

GAME 19 AT MISSOURI (MU 70, NU 53)

Senior guard Sek Henry led Nebraska with 15 points on 5-of-8 shooting, but Missouri used a key 15-1 run late in the second half to pull away for a 70-53 victory at a soldout Mizzou Arena. The Huskers trailed by just one, 45-44, on Ray Gallegos' 3-pointer with 10:46 to play, but Nebraska failed to convert another field goal until Henry's layup with 3:25 to play and the damage was done. Missouri hit just 39.3 percent but had just five turnovers and knocked down 18-of-21 free throw attempts, including 17 made shots at the charity stripe after the intermission, to win their 31st straight home game, a streak that ranked third nationally. Along with Henry, sophomore Brandon Richardson added 11 points while point guard Lance Jeter had seven points and a career-best seven rebounds. Nebraska trailed by nine points early but chipped away at the Tiger lead, cutting the deficit to just two points, 28-26, at halftime. In the second period, Gallegos had all eight of his points and helped the Huskers get off to a strong start, but NU could not keep up the pace as Missouri pulled away.
