

LUKE J. GORSETT

lgorsett@msn.com

OBJECTIVE:

To gain a professional business-related position relying upon my college education, student-athlete experience, and interpersonal communication skills.

EDUCATION:

Bachelor of Arts Degree, COMMUNICATION STUDIES, University of Nebraska-Lincoln, Graduation. May 2011. Minor: Greek

TRANSFERABLE ATHLETIC SKILLS:

- Self-Motivated
- Competitive
- Team-Oriented
- Work-Ethic
- Adaptable

EXPERIENCE:

Student-Athlete, University of Nebraska Baseball; 2005-2006

- Balanced school with Division I athletics
- Performed under pressure
- Accountability, leadership, and discipline
- Related with teammates from different cultures
- Strived for excellence on a daily basis

Professional-Athlete, St. Louis Cardinals; 2006-2009

- Served as positive role model and ambassador for organization
- Public relations/ Community outreach activities
- Adapted to intricacies of different coaching styles
- Affective in communicating with teammates from all over the world

Security Guard, Signal 88 Security, 2008 to present

- Responsible for maintaining a safe work environment for employees
- Interact with human resources department regarding new hires, and terminations
- Judgment skills

ACTIVITIES/HONORS:

- Volunteer vocabulary teacher, Clinton Elementary School, Fall 2009
- Volunteer server, Lincoln's People City Mission, Spring 2010
- Seventh-Round Pick in 2006 Major League Baseball Draft (St. Louis Cardinals)
- 2006 NCBWA Division I District VI Player of the Year
- Principle Cellist for the Denver Young Artist Orchestra, Fall 2002

REFERENCES:

Available upon request.