RIFLE GLOSSARY

Air rifle – A gun that uses a .177 caliber lead pellet propelled by compressed air instead of a gunpowder charge. The rifles can weigh up to 12.12 pounds.

Cleaned – A perfect target, in which the shooter hits a 10 on each of the 10 targets on the sheet for a score of 100. Can also be used to refer to a perfect match.

Front sight – The sight attached to the end of the barrel of the rifle, holding the front aperture.

Electronic targets – A target system that uses microphones and sound waves from the bullet or pellet going through the paper to send to a monitor on each point.

Iron sights – Sights that employ no magnification.

Kneeling – Shooting from a kneeling position with a sling and kneeling roll to support the position.

Off hand – The unsupported standing position.

Perfect match score – In air rifle and smallbore, 600 is perfect.

Prone - Shooting from a lying position.

Record shots – Also known as "shots for record," those shots that are counted toward the match score, with "sighters" not included.

Relay – One group of shooters firing the match at the same time.

Shooting glove – A padded glove, with or without fingers, used to ensure the comfort of the non-dominant hand (i.e., a right-handed shooter wears a glove on the left hand) as the shooter supports the rifle.

Shooting jacket – The jacket is made of leather or canvas and provides support and pads the shooter to minimize the effect of pulse and recoil. There are strict guidelines regarding the thickness.

Shooting boots – Boots designed for rifle shooting. They have the toe end of the sole and the heel cut flat for stability.

Shooting trousers – Snug canvas and/or leather pants usually worn over running tights or sweatpants. They often have padded reinforcements sewn on both knees and the seat to prevent the slipping of elbows and knees when firing from the kneeling position.

Sighting shots – Practice shots taken before going "for record." Sighting shots are unlimited and may be fired before the beginning of each position. Once a position's first record shot has been fired, no further sighting shots are permitted.

Sling – Adjustable strap with buckle adjustments and arm cuffs that provide stability. A sling is attached to the rifle and helps to support it in prone and kneeling positions.

Smallbore – A .22 caliber gun with an iron sight used in competition. It can be customized with special accessories and/or alterations (barrel length and style, stock, design, etc.) to fit the shooter's needs and comforts.

SCORING SYSTEM

AIR RIFLE

Course of Fire – Competitors stand and shoot lead pellets from .177 caliber rifles at targets 10 meters away.

Rifle – Air rifles can be either air or gas powered and weigh up to 12.12 pounds by NCAA regulations.

Time – Competitors have 75 minutes to fire 60 shots from the standing position.

Perfect Match Score – A perfect match score of 600 is the maximum for air rifle.

HUSKERS START FRESH WITH NEW COACH

The Nebraska rifle program begins a new era in 2019-20 under first-year Head Coach Rachel Martin. A former Husker All-American and the 2015 NCAA smallbore champion, Martin spent the past season as the assistant coach for Army West Point. Martin is joined by assistant coach Mindy Miles, a former TCU shooter. Martin and the Huskers will be looking to secure a trip to the NCAA Championships after missing out in 2018-19, breaking a streak of six straight topeight finishes. Martin and Miles hope to lead the Huskers back to the NCAAs in their debut season.

"I definitely expect us to make the NCAA Championships," Martin said. "I don't say that lightly. I think it's going to be hard and take a lot of work, but I think they're up to it, and we're going to help them get there."

The largest portion of the team are the seniors with four. The team will look to seniors Kayla Gadeken, Maddie Korthas, Samantha Peterson, and Bailey Powell for leadership. All five will be relied upon as the primary sources of leadership for Nebraska this season on and off the range following the graduation of NCAA Championships competitor Hannah Virga.

Peterson returns in 2019-20 as a two-time All-American and source of consistency on the range. In 2018-19, Peterson was named second team All-American in Smallbore and second team All-GARC in Combined Guns. She has been a key competitor during her three years in Lincoln and as a senior will look to cap her Husker career with a strong season.

Gadeken looks to continue her role as one of the Huskers' most important leaders. During her junior season she emerged as a valuable contributor. Gadeken was a squadded member in 12 matches last season. She was also an academic All-Big Ten selection and earned a Sam Foltz Hero 27 Leadership Award.

Powell made an immediate impact in her first season as a Husker, appearing in 15 matches. She returns as a key contributor in 2019-20 as one of the Huskers' senior leaders. Powell will be counted on for consistency on and off the range.

Korthas returns in 2019-20 as a valued member of a strong senior class. As a junior, she was a squadded member for three matches.

Senior Samantha Peterson will be relied upon for leadership as the only returning All-American on the 2019-20 Nebraska rifle team. Peterson competed in 15 matches last season and had the highest average smallbore score on the team (580.53).

Korthas is also a two-time academic All-Big Ten choice.

"I expect the seniors to make up the majority of our scoring team," Miles said. "For leadership, we have Maddie [Korthas] and Kayla [Gadeken] as team captains and they've been doing an amazing job. That helps us as a new coaching staff coming in. They've made our job a lot easier."

Juniors Mari Butler, Emily Cheramie, and Elizabeth Ewert are all looking to improve from last season. Cheramie competed in all of Nebraska's events, while Butler and Ewert will be looking to become consistent parts of the starting lineup.

Cheramie returns as a key contributor for the Huskers. After competing as a squadded member in all 15 Husker matches as a sophomore, she will be relied upon for leadership on the range. Cheramie was honorable mention GARC All-

Conference in Combined Guns in 2018-19.

Ewert saw considerable action during 2018-19 and will look to build upon her success. She competed in both disciplines in five matches last season and will be counted on for leadership on and off the range.

Butler hopes to compete for regular action in both disciplines as a junior. She was a squadded team member for five matches in 2018-19 and will look to play a part in Nebraska's rotation.

Sophomores Kinga Aletto, Elena Flake and Elizabeth Lorentz round out the list of returners. Lorentz saw the most action in 2018-19 as a squadded member for 10 matches. Aletto and Flake saw limited action in 2018-19 but will look to be regular contributors in 2019-20.

One incoming freshman joins the returners. Macey Way (Colorado Springs, Colo.) will look to be a regular contributor to the team in her debut season after competing at the ISSF World Cup in 2019.

Nebraska will open the 2019-20 season with a match against Ohio State in Fort Wayne, Ind., on Oct. 5.

The next weekend NU will host the first home match of the season against West Virginia on Oct. 12.

The Huskers will round out October by traveling to Colorado Springs, Colo., to face Kentucky and Air Force on Oct. 26, then Air Force and UTEP on Oct. 27.

The Huskers will next host Army on Nov. 9.

The next weekend, NU will travel to Fort Worth, Texas, to face Memphis and TCU on Nov. 16, then Memphis again on Nov. 17.

Nebraska will begin 2020 in Annapolis, Md., with a match against Ole Miss on Jan. 18, before facing Navy on Jan. 19.

The following week the Huskers will host TCU on Jan. 25. The match against TCU will serve as Nebraska's Senior Day.

One week later, NU will travel to Raleigh to face North Carolina State on Feb. 2.

The next week Nebraska will face Akron in Ohio on Feb. 8.

Following two bye weeks the Huskers will compete in their NCAA Qualifier match in Murray, Ky., on Feb. 23.

The GARC Championships will take place Feb. 27-28 in Memphis, Tenn.

The NCAA Championships will be hosted by Kentucky on March 13-14.

Nebraska joined Great America Conference in 2004-05 after seven years as an independent program. The conference, which enters its 23rd year of operation, includes Nebraska, Army West

Point, Kentucky, Memphis, Mississippi, West Virginia, Navy, Akron and North Carolina State. Before joining the organization, the Huskers faced nearly a month-long break between qualifiers and the NCAA Championships. As a member of the GARC, Nebraska can compete for the conference championship in the interim, allowing it to gauge its performance before heading to nationals. Since joining the GARC, Nebraska has finished as high as a program-

RACHEL MARTIN

Head Coach (First Year) Nebraska (2017)

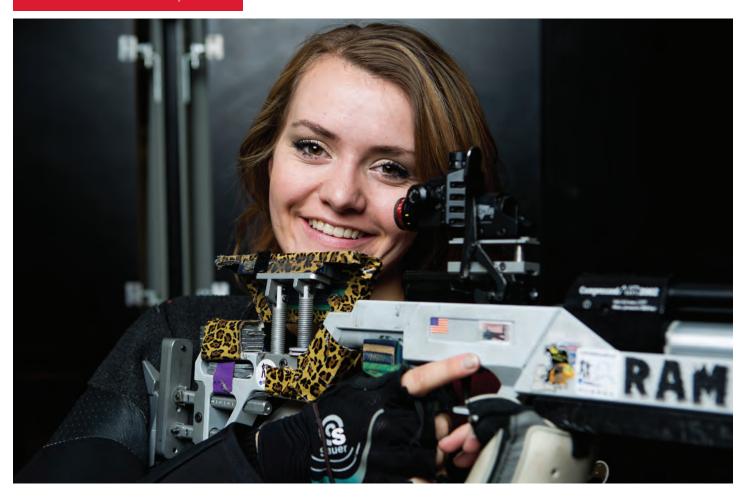

Rachel Martin was named the sixth head coach in the history of the Nebraska rifle program on April 9, 2019. She begins her first season in 2019-20 after finishing her Husker career as a student-athlete in 2016-17.

Martin brings extensive experience to Lincoln as a competitive shooter, and she also excelled in her first season as a collegiate rifle coach. Martin spent the 2018-19 season as an assistant coach at Army, where she helped the Black Knights to a sixth-place finish at the 2019 NCAA Championships, the program's first NCAA appearance in four seasons. Individually, Martin helped Payne Nunn post the highest air rifle score in program history en route to second-team All-America honors.

Martin is no stranger to high air rifle scores herself, as she owns the highest air rifle score in Nebraska history. She was also an NCAA champion and a seven-time All-American for the Huskers from 2014 to 2017. Martin earned All-America honors in both disciplines and was the 2015 NCAA smallbore champion. She competed in both disciplines at the NCAA Championship all four years of her career, posting a top-10 finish in both smallbore and air rifle. Her individual success helped Nebraska to four consecutive top-eight team finishes at the national meet, including a pair of top-five finishes.

After graduating from Nebraska in 2017, Martin moved to Colorado Springs to train at the United States Olympic Training Center. Martin has been a member of the USA Shooting World Cup team since 2013 and is a seven-time national champion. She spent more than a year as a resident athlete at the U.S. Olympic Training Center, during which time she also participated in a year-long internship with the 4th Judicial District Attorney's office in Colorado Springs.

Originally from Peralta, New Mexico, Martin was a three-time academic All-Big Ten selection and made the Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll every semester of her career as a religious studies major and political science, global studies and national security studies minor. In addition to excelling in the range and in the classroom, Martin was also an active member of the community during her Husker career, as she was a four-year member of the Tom Osborne Citizenship Team.

MINDY MILES

Assistant Coach (First Year) TCU (2018)

Five-time All-American and 2020 Olympic hopeful Mindy Miles was hired as an assistant coach in April of 2019.

Miles was a three-time first-team NRA All-American in the air rifle for the Horned Frogs from 2016 through 2018. She was also a two-time NRA All-American in smallbore during her career (2017, 2018). She finished fifth in the air rifle and added a third-place NCAA finish in the smallbore to help TCU to a third-place team finish at the 2018 NCAA Championships.

Her 597.4 air rifle average as a senior ranked No. 2 in the nation, while her 583.7 smallbore average ranked No. 7 nationally in 2017-18.

As a junior in 2016-17, Miles led the nation in air rifle average (596.53), including a score of 599 at Alaska on Oct. 8. She finished fourth in the air rifle at the 2017 NCAA Championships with a score of 596.

Miles was the NCAA air rifle runner-up as a sophomore in 2016, while posting a season average of 594. She added the 2016 NCAA Sportsmanship Award.

As a freshman in 2015, Miles became just the fifth shooter in NCAA history and the second at TCU to shoot a perfect 600, which came in the air rifle at the Patriot Rifle Conference Championships on Feb. 8 to help the Horned Frogs to the team title. She added a second perfect 600 against Nebraska and Memphis on Oct. 28, 2017. Miles was a four-time Patriot Rifle Conference champion.

A 2020 U.S. Olympic hopeful, Miles secured a quota spot for the United States at the Olympic Games in Tokyo by winning gold in the air rifle at the Championship of the Americas in Guadalajara, Mexico in November of 2018. She won the competition with a score of 248.4 to lead a 1-2 finish for the United States along with silver medalist Alison Weisz. Miles is scheduled to compete again for the United States at the 2019 Pan American Games.

She was a two-time U.S. team member at the World Championships (2014, 2018).

Originally from Weatherford, Texas, Miles won the Texas State Junior Olympic Air Rifle titles in 2012 and 2013, while adding a smallbore championship in 2013. She was a Junior World Cup finalist in Suhl, Germany.

At the 2013 Junior Olympics, she earned a silver medal in air rifle and a bronze in smallbore. She was also a bronze medalist at the Rocky Mountain Air Rifle Championships in 2013.

Miles earned her bachelor's degree from TCU in May of 2018 after majoring in strategic communications with an emphasis in public relations and advertising and a minor in business. She was named the TCU Breakout Athlete of the Year in 2015 and was the TCU Pop Boone Award recipient in 2017.

Honor the past. Live the present. Create the future.

Nine simple words that carry impressive significance and undeniable responsibility. Words that Nebraska's athletic director uses to lead his programs and set the tone for building champions in competition and in life.

William H. (Bill) Moos was named Nebraska's Athletic Director on Oct. 15, 2017, and fully assumed those responsibilities on Oct. 23.

Moos, who became the 15th athletic director in the history of the storied Cornhusker program, brought nearly 25 years of experience as an athletic director at three Division I schools (Washington State, Oregon, Montana) with him to Nebraska. More importantly, he brings an impressive track record of success in building outstanding programs, developing long-term relationships, and for doing what is best for his schools, its fans and most importantly, its student-athletes.

"When you name the top three, four, five athletic programs in the great positions as an athletic director, Nebraska is in that same breath," Moos said at his introductory press conference at Memorial Stadium. "I want you to know that my motto has always been, in the 25 years I have been a Division I athletic director and it will be here too is very simple - honor the past, live the present, create the future."

In his first six months at Nebraska, Moos made three coaching hires. He drew universal praise for hiring Scott Frost, the 2017 consensus national coach of the year, as Nebraska's head football coach in December. Following the spring semester, Moos also hired Mark Hankins to coach the men's golf team and Sean Maymi to lead the men's tennis program.

and Sean Maymi to lead the men's tennis program. Nebraska made national headlines with the hiring of Fred Hoiberg as its new men's basketball coach in 2019. Moos made another impact move with the hiring of former Husker Will Bolt to lead the baseball program, after Major League All-Star, Gold Glove award winner and World Series champion Darin Erstad stepped down from his head coaching position after leading the Huskers to the 2019 NCAA Tournament.

BILL MOOS

Athletic Director (Third Year) Washington State (1973)

Moos hired Lisa Johnson to lead the women's golf program after the retirement of long-time coach Robin Krapfl. He also hired long-time Husker assistant Paul Klempa to guide the nationally dominant bowling program after the retirement of the legendary Bill Straub, who led the program to five NCAA titles since 2004.

Former Husker national champions Heather Brink (women's gymnastics) and Rachel Martin (rifle) were also hired by Moos to lead those national championship-contending programs.

In competition, the Nebraska volleyball team claimed the 2017 NCAA title just months after Moos was hired, before adding an NCAA runner-up finish in 2018. Both the men's and women's gymnastics teams finished in the top six at the 2018 NCAA Championships, before the men added a third-place team finish in 2019 - its best team showing since 1999. The bowling team has added top-three national finishes each of the last two years, and the wrestling team has produced top-10 NCAA finishes both seasons. The women's basketball team made the NCAA Tournament in 2018, while the baseball team advanced to NCAA Tournament play in 2019.

Nebraska also has continued its excellence in the classroom, producing nine CoSIDA Academic All-Americans over the last two years, bringing NU's nation-leading total to 338 all-time CoSIDA Academic All-Americans across all sports.

Moos came to Lincoln after spending seven-plus years at Washington State (2010-17). He previously served 12 highly successful seasons as the athletic director at Oregon (1995-2007).

During his time at his alma mater, Moos wasted little time in making his impact felt in Cougar Athletics, spearheading a department-wide rebranding effort with Nike while securing a 10-year, $35 million marketing rights agreement with IMG College.

In addition, the 2004 WSU Alumni Achievement Award winner gained Regents approval for a $130 million addition and remodel of Martin Stadium, featuring a remodeled press box with luxury seating, including suites, loge boxes and club room.

Also included in the project was a state-of-the-art video board and an 80,000-square-foot football operations building that served as the stadium's showpiece and opened in May 2014.

As the dean of Pac-12 athletic directors, Moos was at the forefront of the conference's procurement of a 12-year, $3 billion television contract with FOX and ESPN, a landmark agreement in college athletics. Under Moos' direction, the Cougar Athletic Fund's Annual Giving program saw an 81 percent increase in gifts while CAF donor members rose from nearly 4,000 to more than 7,500.

Additional facility enhancements under Moos included a center-hung video board in Beasley Coliseum that was installed prior to the 2011-12 season, giving Cougar basketball one of the premier fan experiences in the conference. An indoor golf hitting facility was also completed in early 2013, and Lower Soccer Field underwent a major renovation making the venue TV-ready while also providing one of the best playing surfaces on the West Coast, along with the addition of lights and a new scoreboard.

Other enhancements were made to the Moobery track facility, Bailey-Brayton Field, the basketball practice gym, Gibb Pool and the Simmelink Indoor tennis courts. In Moos' seven years at WSU, Cougar student-athletes and coaches accounted for 805 academic all-conference selections, 130 all-conference accolades, 45 All-America honors and three Pac-12 Coach-of-the-Year honors.

Moos served as Oregon's director of athletics from July of 1995 to 2007. While at Oregon he oversaw a 17-sport athletic department that grew to national prominence during his tenure. Oregon's annual athletic department budget grew from $18.5 million in his first year to more than $40 million by 2007, becoming 100 percent self-sufficient during that time. Under his direction the Duck Athletic Fund donor base increased from 4,930 to 12,290, resulting in an annual gifts increase from $4.1 million to $15.3 million.

Moos initiated more than $160 million in facility improvements while at Oregon. Included in that was the $90 million Autzen Stadium renovation in 2002, which added 12,000 new seats, 32 new suites, a new Club at Autzen and a new press box to the stadium. In his 12 years, the Ducks ranked first in Pac-10 football attendance 11 times, reaching 100 percent capacity in each of those seasons.

During Moos' tenure, Oregon athletics captured 13 Pac-10 championships across six different sports. He increased opportunities for women by adding two intercollegiate programs, soccer and lacrosse, and negotiated an all-inclusive shoe and apparel contract with Nike, one of only 14 in the country at the time. From an academic standpoint during Moos' tenure, Oregon student-athletes collected 722 academic all-conference selections, 34 Academic All-America selections, nine NCAA Postgraduate Scholarship recipients and one NCAA Top Ten Award.

During his first stint as a collegiate athletic director at Montana (1990-95), Moos created an academic support program and hired its first athletic academic coordinator, developed a facility enhancement plan that created more than $4 million in improvements, and lifted the school's fund-raising efforts to show a 300 percent increase in private and corporate gifts.

Academically, Montana student-athletes were equally successful as the athletic department achieved a graduation rate 20 percent higher than the general university enrollment. Under Moos' watch Montana garnered 269 academic all-conference selections, five Academic All-Americans and two NCAA Postgraduate Scholarship recipients.

Moos began his athletic career as an athletic administrator in 1982 as assistant athletic director at Washington State. He also served as the school's associate athletic director (1988-90).

At Washington State, he was director of development for more than five years and associate director for nearly two years, supervising all external operations. Prior to that, he managed and owned private businesses in Washington and Oregon for eight years. He was a student assistant football coach at Washington State for the 1973 season, then spent part of 1974 in Washington, D.C., serving as a government intern.

Raised on a wheat and cattle ranch in eastern Washington, Moos attended high school in Olympia when his father served in the governor's cabinet. Moos earned his bachelor's degree in history from WSU and was a three-year letterman in football before concluding his collegiate career by representing Washington State in the 1972 East-West Shrine All-Star Game in San Francisco.

He served as co-captain on the Cougars' 1972 squad and garnered first-team All-Pac-8 Conference honors. Moos and his wife Kendra have three daughters: Christa, Brittany and Kaiti; and two sons, Bo and Benjamin.
