RIFLE GLOSSARY

Air rifle - A gun that uses a .177 caliber lead pellet propelled by compressed air instead of a gunpowder charge. The rifles can weigh up to 12.12 pounds.

Cleaned – A perfect target, in which the shooter hits a 10 on each of the 10 targets on the sheet for a score of 100. Can also be used to refer to a perfect match.

Front sight – The sight attached to the end of the barrel of the rifle, holding the front aperture.

Electronic targets - A target system that uses microphones and sound waves from the bullet or pellet going through the paper to send to a monitor on each point.

Iron sights – Sights that employ no magnification.

Kneeling - Shooting from a kneeling position with a sling and kneeling roll to support the position.

Off hand - The unsupported standing position.

Perfect match score - In air rifle and smallbore, 600 is perfect.

Prone - Shooting from a lying position.

Record shots - Also known as "shots for record." those shots that are counted toward the match score, with "sighters" not included.

Relay - One group of shooters firing the match at the same time.

Shooting glove - A padded glove, with or without fingers, used to ensure the comfort of the nondominant hand (i.e., a right-handed shooter wears a glove on the left hand) as the shooter supports the rifle.

Shooting jacket - The jacket is made of leather or canvas and provides support and pads the shooter to minimize the effect of pulse and recoil. There are strict guidelines regarding the thickness.

Shooting boots - Boots designed for rifle shooting. They have the toe end of the sole and the heel cut flat for stability.

Shooting trousers - Snug canvas and/or leather pants usually worn over running tights or sweatpants. They often have padded reinforcements sewn on both knees and the seat to prevent the slipping of elbows and knees when firing from the kneeling position.

Sighting shots - Practice shots taken before going "for record." Sighting shots are unlimited and may be fired before the beginning of each position. Once a position's first record shot has been fired, no further sighting shots are permitted.

Sling - Adjustable strap with buckle adjustments and arm cuffs that provide stability. A sling is attached to the rifle and helps to support it in prone and kneeling positions.

Smallbore - A .22 caliber gun with an iron sight used in competition. It can be customized with special accessories and/or alterations (barrel length and style, stock, design, etc.) to fit the shooter's needs and comforts.

NEBRASKA RIFLE & PISTOL RANGE

In April 2006, Nebraska became just the second university in the nation to add electronic targets to its rifle facilities. First seen only in international and Olympic competition, the electronic targets were added to the U.S. Air Force Academy's facilities before the Huskers adopted the new technology.

Electronic targeting enables shooters to aim at only one target instead of 10 different targets. The machine contains a roll of black paper, which refills the open target with a clean piece of paper after every shot. Four microphones in the electronic targets sense the precision of the shot, transmitting the information to an online computer monitor.

"Electronic targets have allowed our rifle team to reach more viewers. It has been a great marketing tool to promote our sport as well as keep everyone across the country informed. With electronic targets you no longer have to be at the range to see what is going on; you are able to pull it up on the internet. With the information so readily available it helps to grow the support base for our team and our university," Coach Ashley Rose-MacAllister said.

Jaycee Carter and the rest of the Huskers benefit from an advanced electronic targeting system and some of the finest one-on-one coaching instruction in the nation.

"This target system benefits our athletes in a number of ways. We are able to get immediate results, which makes our day shorter compared to paper targets. Our athletes are also able to work on different types of mental training that is often hard to do without electronic targets. As a coach it is a great coaching tool - I am able to see tendencies in their shots to coach them on the line."

Coach Ashley Rose-MacAllister

"The targets allow matches to run more efficiently and to be scored more consistently.

Matches and training are quicker as the paper targets don't need to be scored manually. Also, they allow the shooter to have a single aiming point, instead of 10 different ones a paper target."

Assistant Coach Rick Johnson

The NU Rifle Range offers the best electronic targeting and state-of-the-art technology for Husker studentathletes to maximize their potential.

EXPERIENCED HUSKERS TAKE AIM AT NCAA TITLE

Head coach Ashley Rose-MacAllister returns from an impressive debut at Nebraska, leading the NU rifle team to a fourth-place finish at the 2015 NCAA Championships and producing an individual smallbore championship from Rachel Martin. The Huskers finished with an overall record of 17-10 that included a regular-season mark of 7-5.

Rose-MacAllister will be joined this year by assistant coach Rick Johnson, who spend four years at Army West Point, prior to coming to Nebraska. Johnson is eager to start making an immediate impact at Nebraska.

"I feel that I bring a good mix of technical skills and mental skills to help the team," Johnson said. "I enjoy working one-on-one with the athletes. Since starting with the team this season I've already seen some improvements with the athletes. I'm excited about this team and can't wait for the competitions to start."

Nebraska brings back six shooters from last season who are all upperclassmen. Denise Martin, Rachel Martin, Jaycee Carter, Marissa Major and Alexandrea Lorentz all have at least two years of collegiate experience, and four of the six have NCAA Championship experience as well.

"We have a strong leadership coming back from last year," Rose-MacAllister said. "I know with this leadership we will be headed in the right direction for this next year. [Our] fourth-place finish [in 2015] has given us the momentum to push forward. We know that everyday we are on the range striving to get better. We will continue to focus on the process and not the outcome, for when we get our process down the reward will be what we are looking for."

The team welcomes five newcomers to the team: Katie Brown, Rachel Yager, Hanna Virga, Nina Radulovic and Jordan Miller.

With such a successful 2014-15 season and claiming an individual championship, Rose-MacAllister and Johnson expect nothing less for this upcoming season.

Denise Martin, a returning two-time All-American, is one of four seniors who will help lead this Nebraska team. Martin has the most championship experience on the team. She competed at the 2013, 2014 and 2015 NCAA Championships and finished third as a sophomore at the 2014 NCAA Championships in smallbore.

Junior Rachel Martin claimed the NCAA smallbore championship in 2015, becoming only the third Husker to win an individual NCAA title.

Senior Magdalena Mical also has championship experience, competing at the 2015 NCAAs. As a junior, Mical tied her personal-best score in air rifle with a 589 and continued to shine in the classroom, earning academic All-Big Ten honors for the second consecutive year.

Marissa Major shattered both of her personal bests as a junior. In air rifle, she tallied a 584 and in smallbore she scored a 575. In the classroom, she earned academic All-Big Ten honors in 2015 and was named to the Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll in both the fall 2014 and spring 2015 semesters. The senior from Colorado looks for continued success this season both on and off the range.

Alexandrea Lorentz brings a competitive spark, which helped her succeed in 2014-15. The senior from Alaska recorded career-best scores in both smallbore (584) and air rifle (586) last season.

Lorentz was also recognized for her efforts off the range. She was named to the Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll in both semesters, was named a Big Ten Distinguished Scholar and earned the GARC Nebraska Scholar Athlete Award. She looks to build upon her achievements from last year.

Rachel Martin, one of the nation's top shooters, brought home the NCAA individual smallbore title as a sophomore. She earned All-America awards from the CRCA and the NRA. In the classroom, Martin excelled as well, earning academic All-Big Ten and being named to the Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll for the fall and spring semesters in 2014-15. After her success last year, Martin hopes to help the team return to nationals again in 2016.

NRA All-American Honorable Mention, Jaycee Carter built on her strong start at Nebraska and earned herself a spot to compete with the team at

GREAT AMERICA RIFLE CONFERENCE

Nebraska joined the Great America Rifle Conference in 2004-05 after seven years as an independent program. The conference, which enters its 18th year of operation, includes Nebraska, Army West Point, Kentucky, Memphis, Mississippi, West Virginia and North Carolina State.

Before joining the organization, the Huskers faced nearly a month-long break between qualifiers and the NCAA Championships. As a member of the GARC, Nebraska has the opportunity to compete for the conference championship in the interim, allowing it to gauge its performance before heading to nationals. Over the last 10 seasons since joining the GARC, Nebraska has finished as high as a program-best second place at the ensuing NCAA Championships.

For more information visit the conference web site at GARCRifle.com.

In her first season at Nebraska, Rose-MacAllister led the Huskers to their third consecutive NCAA Championship appearance, where the team finished fourth overall. Rose-MacAllister also coached Rachel Martin to an individual smallbore championship. Martin captured the title and became only the third Husker to win an individual championship. Under Rose-MacAllister, the team finished third in the conference and 7-5 during the regular season.

Before coming to Nebraska, Rose-MacAllister assisted in the day-to-day management of the Wildcat rifle program under Coach Harry Mullins. Rose-MacAllister coordinated practice plans, matches, team travel, equipment and facility management at Kentucky. She also assisted in recruiting. Rose-MacAllister helped the Wildcats to a third-place finish at the 2014 NCAA Championships.

Rose-MacAllister was a four-year letterwinner and a team captain at Murray State. Her career for the Racers included a third-place overall team finish in air rifle at the 2010 NCAA Championships. She was a member of the Ohio Valley Conference All-Newcomer Team in air rifle in 2009. She was a two-time second-team All-OVC selection in air rifle. She helped Murray State to a fifth-place team finish as a junior at the 2011 NCAA Championships and a seventh-place team finish in 2010.

Rose-MacAllister earned her bachelor's degree in political science from Murray State in May of 2012, before spending the 2012-13 season as a graduate assistant for the Racers rifle team. She assisted in the daily operations of the program, including the coordination of team travel and operation of the target system during team matches. She earned her master's degree in human development and leadership from Murray State in May of 2013. Rose-MacAllister also spent a year as an intern within the Murray State athletic department, gaining a working knowledge of each area in the department.

In addition to her experience at Murray State and Kentucky, Rose-MacAllister spent five years assisting with the Civilian Marksmanship Program. In the summers of 2012, 2013 and 2014, she served as assistant director, preparing for summer camps by hiring and training camp counselors, coordinating travel and managing the daily operations of the summer camps. She began her association with the Civilian Marksmanship Program in 2009 and 2010, serving as a camp counselor and teaching shooting skills to junior high and high school students.

GETTING TO KNOW COACH JOHNSON

What is your coaching philosophy?

"I like to keep things as simple as possible. This sport is so technical with all the specialized gear [and] it is easy to become lost in all that. Breathe, relax and shoot the middle of the target. What I mean by that is do all your hard work in training; match day is just about being relaxed and letting your training take over."

What are you most excited about this season?

"I see a lot of potential with this team. It has a great mix of juniors and seniors with two to three years of NCAA experience, along with a group of talented incoming freshmen. I'm excited to help this team work toward a championship."

What is your favorite part about being a coach?

"I enjoy working with each individual. Everyone thinks, acts and reacts differently to situations. I like figuring out how to best coach each individual athlete so that they can meet and surpass their goals."

What attracted you to come coach for Nebraska?

"Nebraska's rifle program has a tradition of being one of the top programs. It has been a few years since my former team has beaten the Nebraska team. Once I came here for a visit and saw the commitment the university has toward making sure all studentathletes have every opportunity for academic and athletic greatness, I was convinced I wanted to be a part of Nebraska athletics."

Shawn Eichorst came to the University of Nebraska in 2012 with an incredible passion for the University and for its student-athletes. As the leader of a tradition-rich program with 24 intercollegiate teams, 600-plus student-athletes and more than 300 full-time employees, Eichorst has relied on a strong value system and a student-centered approach to lead the Department. Nebraska's primary mission is to provide student-athletes with the resources and support they need to be successful in academics, athletics and life. The health, safety and welfare of student-athletes is Nebraska's top priority and at the essence of every decision made.

Nebraska has a history of providing first-class coaches, staff and facilities for its students. Additionally, since Eichorst arrived in Lincoln, resources and services in every student-athlete support unit have been improved and enhanced, including academics, athletic medicine, life skills, nutrition, sports psychology, strength and conditioning and in the Nebraska Athletics Performance Laboratory (NAPL).

Eichorst has continued to aggressively move Nebraska forward with several new initiatives to enhance the student-athlete experience. The Department will provide state-of-the-art laptop computers to all student-athletes beginning in the summer of 2015 and the University will now provide four-year, full cost of attendance-based scholarships for all scholarship student-athletes in every sport. Also beginning in the summer of 2015, every Husker letterwinner who graduates and has exhausted his or her eligibility will be provided assistance to either obtain an internship; study abroad or attend graduate or professional school.

Eichorst has made more than 350 public appearances around the state, and his monthly radio show and "Connecting on Campus" online column provide the opportunity for him to further connect and share the incredible activities, initiatives and accomplishments that take place at Nebraska. As a member of the Chancellor's Senior Administrative Team, Eichorst maintains a strong connection and collaboration between the University and Department of Athletics.

A highly respected national leader, Eichorst was appointed in 2015 to the Division I Football Oversight Committee. He was the first Director of Athletics from any conference to visit the Big Ten Conference-based Committee on Institutional Cooperation (CIC) at its Champaign, Ill., headquarters. The CIC is a highly successful academic-based consortium of 15 schools, including all 14 in the Big Ten Conference. Nebraska is leading the Big Ten and the CIC in several areas, including Digital Humanities and head injury research.

SHAWN EICHORST

Director of Athletics (Third Year) Wisconsin-Whitewater (1990)

Under Eichorst, Nebraska extended its nation-leading total of CoSIDA Academic All-Americans to 320 and its nation-leading total of NCAA Top Ten Award winners to 17, after Mary Weatherholt (women's tennis) earned the honor in 2014. In 2014-15, more than 400 awards were presented at the 25th Anniversary Student-Athlete Recognition Banquet-A Night at the Lied. Over three commencements, 118 student-athletes earned undergraduate or graduate degrees and the Big Ten Conference honored 205 Husker student-athletes with Academic All-Big Ten awards. For the first time in school history, all Nebraska teams had an NCAA Academic Progress Rate (APR) of 950 or higher, as reported in May of 2015. The Nebraska football (second consecutive year) and rifle (third consecutive year) programs received public recognition for having an APR in the top 10 percent in their respective sports. In addition, five Husker teams (women's basketball, softball, women's tennis, volleyball and women's golf) had a Graduation Success Rate (GSR) of 100 percent, as reported in the fall of 2014.

On Dec. 4, 2014, Eichorst announced the hiring of Mike Riley as the Huskers' new head football coach. As one of the most respected and sought-after coaches in the profession, Riley's hire was highly praised by prominent members of the national media, the coaching fraternity, Riley's former players, and current and former Nebraska student-athletes. In Riley, Eichorst secured one of the finest football minds in the world and great positive-thinking teacher of young men.

In 2014-15, the Nebraska women's bowling team earned the school's seventh national title and fifth since bowling became an NCAA sport in 2004. The Husker men's track and field team won the Big Ten Indoor Championship and 13 Husker teams competed in NCAA postseason action, including bowling, football, volleyball, women's basketball, wrestling, softball, men's and women's gymnastics, rifle, and men's and women's indoor and outdoor track and field. Nebraska produced 36 All-Americans who won 51 awards.

Nebraska's fan support continues to be unparalleled in college athletics. In fact, in 2014-15 top 15 national rankings for average attendance were reached across five sports—football, volleyball, men's and women's basketball and baseball. A tribute to loyal Husker fans, two sports lead the nation with consecutive home sellout streaks, including football (340) and volleyball for regular-season action (188).

In 2013-14, Nebraska became one of only two NCAA institutions — and the first Big Ten program in history — to qualify for a football bowl game, and advance to NCAA postseason in the major team sports of volleyball, soccer, men's and women's basketball, baseball and softball. Additionally, Nebraska was the only institution to win a postseason game in six of those seven sports.

Under Eichorst's leadership, Nebraska continues to focus on improving its facilities and the game-day experience at all athletic venues. In the summer of 2015, a world-class Soccer and Tennis Complex, located just north of the Devaney Center and Nebraska Innovation Campus, was completed. A new center-hungvideo board and us ound system was installed in the Devaney Centerin 2015 to improve the game-day experience for volleyball, wrestling and men's and women's gymnastics. In 2014, the largest wireless network system at a college football stadium in history was installed in Memorial Stadium, along with a state-of-the-art sound system.

In the summer of 2013, a Memorial Stadium expansion also added the innovative NAPL inside East Stadium next to the Center for Brain, Biology and Behavior (CB3). That same year, Nebraska's men's and women's basketball teams became the primary tenants at Pinnacle Bank Arena, and the renovated Devaney Center became the home for Husker volleyball, wrestling and the men's and women's gymnastics programs.

Eichorst came to Nebraska after serving as Director of Athletics at Miami in 2011 and 2012. He hired legendary men's basketball coach Jim Larrañaga, who led Miami to the NIT Second Round in his first season and ACC regular-season and tournament titles as well and the NCAA Sweet 16 in his second. The women's basketball program posted its highest national ranking in school history (No. 5) and advanced to the Second Round of the NCAA Tournament. The women's tennisteamadvanced to the NCAA Elite Eight for the fourth straight season, and the baseball team made its 40th consecutive NCAA appearance. The women's soccer team posted its first NCAA Tournament win in school history, and the volleyball team made its third straight NCAA Tournament trip.

Before heading to Miami, Eichorst was the Deputy Director of Athletics at Wisconsin. He was the Chief Operating Officer and oversaw the department's daily operations, as well as Bo Ryan's men's basketball program under the direction of Director of Athletics and former Husker Barry Alvarez.

From 2004 to 2006, Eichorst served as the Senior Associate Director of Athletics for Administration at South Carolina, overseeing the department's daily operations, as well as the football and baseball programs under legendary coaches Lou Holtz, Steve Spurrier and Ray Tanner, respectively.

From 1999 to 2003, Eichorst served as the Director of Athletics at Wisconsin-Whitewater, which produced four top 10-percent finishes in the NACDA Directors Cup, one NCAA team title and two NCAA runner-up finishes. The program also featured 11 CoSIDA Academic All-America selections.

A native of Lone Rock, Wis., Eichorst was an all-conference defensive back, three-time letterwinner and 1990 football team captain for the University of Wisconsin-Whitewater. He graduated magna cum laude in business from UW-Whitewater in 1990 and in 2015 was awarded the Distinguished Alumni Award for Professional Achievement. He earned a law degree from Marquette Law School in 1995, practiced law in Milwaukee until 1999 and is a past member of the State Bar of Wisconsin Board of Governors. He served as an assistant adjunct professor of law at Marquette, where he taught classes in sports law. He serves on the Marquette University National Sports Law Institute Board of Advisors and in 2006, Marquette warded Eichorst the Sports Law Alumnus of the Year Award. He is also a graduate of the Sports Management Institute and serves on its Executive Committee

HUSKERS EARN TOP-FOUR NCAA FINISH

The Nebraska rifle team produced a fourth-place finish at the 2015 NCAA Championships, marking an extremely successful debut for first-year coach Ashley Rose-MacAllister.

The Huskers, who made their third consecutive trip to the NCAA Championships, posted their top finish at nationals since 2008, when they also finished fourth. Nebraska's 4,667 was its best total in school history under the current scoring format, surpassing the 4,666 the Huskers shot as the NCAA runner-up in 2006. It was Nebraska's seventh top-five team finish in 11 all-time appearances at the NCAA Championships since rifle became a varsity sport at NU in 1998-99.

Individually, sophomore Rachel Martin shined at the NCAA Championships, becoming Nebraska's third national champion by winning the smallbore title. She led a trio of All-Americans that included Denise Martin and Jaycee Carter, all return for the Huskers in 2015-16.

Nebraska closed the regular season with a 7-5 record before embarking on a successful postseason run that included a third-place finish at the GARC Championships. The Huskers started the season by traveling to Colorado Springs to battle Air Force on Oct. 4. Despite a stellar performance by Carter in air rifle (592) and Lauren Phillips in smallbore (585), NU fell to the Falcons, 4,667-4,648.

The Huskers showed their resilience by bouncing back to reel off six consecutive victories, beginning with a 4,651-4,640 victory over Murray State at the NU Rifle Range on Oct. 10. Marissa Major tallied a personal-best smallbore score of 575 against the Racers, while Kelsey Hansen and Rachel Martin fired air rifle scores over 590 to help the Huskers get the

Two days later, Nebraska completed a weekend sweep with a victory over Ole Miss. The Huskers outscored the Rebels 4,653-4,576, thanks to Denise Martin and Rachel Martin who finished with smallbore scores of 580 and 579, respectively. Carter added a 590 in air rifle to give the Huskers a comfortable lead.

The following weekend, the Big Red traveled to South Carolina to take on NC State (Oct. 18) and Army (Oct. 19). The Huskers defeated the Wolfpack, 4,653-4,595 with team-best scores of 582 in smallbore and 592 in air rifle by sophomore Rachel Martin. Nebraska topped Army 4,659-4,620, thanks to a 589 by Carter in air rifle and a 583 in smallbore by Denise Martin.

The Huskers returned to the range two weeks later in Tennessee, defeating Memphis 4,667-4,625 on Nov. 1, before rolling past Ohio State, 4,675-4,628, the following day. Phillips tied her personal-best score in air rifle with a 593.

Nebraska headed to Alaska to face No. 2 Kentucky on Nov. 22. Denise Martin finished the day with a personal-best smallbore score of 587, while Maggie Mical shot a season-highHeat smallbore score of 578, but the Huskers were unable to pull off the upset, falling to the Wildcats 4,676-4,669.

The following day, the Huskers fell to Alaska-Fairbanks, 4,700-4,657. Although NU did not defeat the Nanooks, Rachel Martin shattered the program's previous individual air rifle record with her score of 597.

After nearly a two-month break from competition, the Huskers returned to action against No. 1 West Virginia in Morgantown on Jan. 17. Carter tied her career best in air rifle with a 593 to help the Huskers to a 2,352 team air rifle score, but it wasn't enough to prevent a 4,704-4,680 setback to the defending national champions.

Nebraska rebounded with a 4,660-4,627 win at No. 14 Akron in a match that was highlighted by a 596 in air rifle by Rachel Martin.

Nebraska concluded its regular season with a 4,678-4,666 loss to No. 4 TCU at the NU Rifle Range on Jan. 31. Alex Lorentz fired a personal-best 584 in smallbore against the Horned Frogs.

After a three-week break from action, the Huskers opened postseason competition at the NCAA Qualifiers in Lexington, Ky., on Feb. 22. Not only did Nebraska punch its ticket to a third straight NCAA Championships, the Huskers matched the second-best aggregate score in school history with a 4,690.

The Huskers stayed sharp by preparing for the NCAA Championships with a third-place showing at the 2015 GARC Championships in Oxford, Miss., Feb. 27-March 1. Rachel Martin captured second-team All-GARC honors in smallbore, air rifle and combined. Denise Martin added second-team honors of her own in smallbore while claiming honorable-mention recognition in combined. Lauren Phillips was also an honorable-mention selection on the combined team, and was the only Husker to competed as an individual at the GARC Championships, finishing fifth in smallbore. Lorentz was also recognized for her performance on and off the range as a GARC Scholar-Athlete, while adding a Big Ten Conference Sportsmanship Award.

Nebraska put an exclamation point on Coach Rose-MacAllister's successful first season with the Huskers by finishing fourth with a 4,667 at the NCAA Championships in Fairbanks, Alaska, March 13-14. West Virginia won its third consecutive team title with a 4,702, while the hosts from Alaska finished second at 4,700. TCU finished third.

Rachel Martin provided the biggest highlight for the Big Red by becoming the third Husker to win an NCAA individual title. After qualifying for the smallbore finals with a 584, she captured the national championship with a final score of 453.3.

Rachel Martin led a trio of Huskers who claimed All-America honors from the NRA and CRCA, by earning third-team accolades from the CRCA. She was a second-team NRA pick in air rifle while adding honorable mention in smallbore from the NRA. Denise Martin captured second-team honors in smallbore from the NRA, while Carter added honorable-mention recognition in air rifle from the NRA.

All three of Nebraska's All-Americans return to lead the Huskers in pursuit of a fourth straight NCAA appearance in 2016.

ATHLETIC MEDICINE

EXCEPTIONAL CARE FOR ALL STUDENT-ATHLETES

Providing expert care to more than 600 Husker student-athletes, Nebraska features one of the most well-trained and highly skilled athletic medicine staffs in the country. Under the guidance of Director of Athletic Medicine Dr. Lonnie Albers, Head Athletic Trainer and Physical Therapist Jerry Weber and Football Head Athletic Trainer Mark Mayer, the 2015-16 Nebraska athletic medicine staff consists of five doctors, two therapist/athletic trainers, 11 athletic trainers and seven graduate assistant athletic trainers.

Nebraska's medical facilities have long been among the nation's best, and NU's athletic medicine center within the Tom and Nancy Osborne Athletic Complex will keep the Huskers on the front line of technology for decades to come. In addition to Nebraska's North Stadium facility, Haymarket Park, the Bob Devaney Sports Center, Pinnacle Bank Arena and the Nebraska Soccer and Tennis Complex all feature athletic medicine areas. The Devaney Center's Athletic Medicine facility underwent an extensive expansion as part of the Hendricks Training Complex addition in 2011.

CARING FOR HUSKERS

ACADEMIC SUCCESS

Nebraska increased its nation-leading total of CoSIDA Academic All-America awards to 320, adding six Huskers in 2014-15. Junior guard Shavon Shields (Olathe, Kan.) became NU's first-ever first-team Academic All-American in men's basketball. Senior sprinter John Welk (Bismarck, N.D.), who was Nebraska's Male Student-Athlete of the Year, led three first-team CoSIDA Academic All-Americans for the men's track and field program. Welk, who was the Academic All-American of the Year in men's track and field, was joined by Levi Gipson (Lincoln, Neb.) and Drew Wiseman (Bismarck, N.D.). Junior gymnast Ethan Lottman (Omaha, Neb.) earned second-team Academic All-America status. Sophomore outfielder Ryan Boldt (Red Wing, Minn.) was a third-team Academic All-American in baseball.

In 2014-15, Lottman was one of three Huskers to win the NCAA Elite 89 Award, presented to the student-athlete with the highest cumulative grade-point average participating at the finals site for each of the NCAA's 89 championship events. Nebraska's other two recipients of the prestigious award were Wiseman and senior thrower Will Lohman (Chewelah, Wash.) who claimed the honors in indoor and outdoor men's track and field, respectively. Graduation is the ultimate achievement, and 118 Husker student-athletes earned undergraduate and graduate degrees in three commencement exercises at Pinnacle Bank Arena in 2014-15. At the conclusion of the academic year, Nebraska student-athletes posted an impressive 3.155 cumulative GPA.

HONORING ACHIEVEMENT

More than 400 student-athletes were honored at the academic banquet, including 68 gold (3.750 to 4.000 GPA), 61 silver (3.500 to 3.749 GPA) and 140 bronze (3.000 to 3.499 GPA) medallion winners. Six Huskers earned Outstanding Scholar Awards, presented to seniors exhausting their eligibility with a cumulative GPA of 3.900 or better. The honorees included: Mark Hilderbrand (Track and Field); Amanda Lauer (Women's Gymnastics); Jennifer Lauer (Women's Gymnastics); Will Lohman (pictured above, Track and Field); Jennifer Capt and John Welk (Track and Field).

Shavon Shields became the first Husker men's basketball player to earn first-team CoSIDA Academic All-America honors. Shields, who is a six-time member of the Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll, was one of six Husker student-athletes to capture CoSIDA Academic All-America awards in 2014-15, pushing NU's nation-leading total to 320 Academic All-Americans across all sports.

In 2014-15, 118 Huskers earned their degrees, including Ameer Abdullah (pictured above), who became the first male student-athlete across Nebraska's sports to earn a prestigious Senior CLASS Award. The honor is given annually to the sport's most outstanding senior student-athlete. The award recognizes achievements in four areas of excellence – classroom, community, character and competition. Previous Husker Senior CLASS Award winners were Kelsey Griffin (Women's Basketball, 2010) and Gina Mancuso (Volleyball, 2012).

The NCAA Elite 89 Award recognizes individuals who reach the pinnacle of competition at the national championship level and achieve the highest academic standard among their peers. Ethan Lottman captured the award at the 2015 NCAA Men's Gymnastics Championships, before adding CoSIDA Academic All-America honors. Drew Wiseman (Indoor, pictured) and Will Lohman (Outdoor) swept the honors for the men's track and field team in 2015.

The native of Stratford, Texas, earned a prestigious Big Ten Postgraduate Scholarship and was a three-time Big Ten Distinguished Scholar. A three-time academic All-Big Ten pick, Russell was the President of Nebraska's Student-Athlete Advisory Committee and was one of four Nebraska Heart & Soul Award winners for her commitment to NU's award-winning Life Skills program. (Bottom middle): Joyce Kim earned her bachelor's degree from Nebraska in May of 2013. The textiles, clothing and fashion design major was a two-time academic All-Big Ten selection and was named a Big Ten Distinguished Scholar in 2013. Kim was one of 58 Husker student-athlete graduates honored at a reception by Nebraska Director of Athletics Shawn Eichorst following commencement. (Bottom right): Former Husker ReAnn Wilson earned her bachelor's degree in child, youth and family studies from Nebraska in 2014. ACADEMIC EXPERIENCE

"What I love most about Nebraska is the elite support they give student-athletes. My coaches, teammates and advisers were always there to encourage me and help me find solutions to the challenges that I faced. I was often inspired by other student-athletes who were driven to perform well in their sport and in their studies."

Amanda Trujillo Scrivner, Eight-Time Rifle All-American (2000-03) Nebraska Athletics Hall of Fame Inductee (2015)

The athletic academic unit, located in the Dick and Peg Herman Family Student Life Complex, provides personal and academic support to ensure that student-athletes will get the most out of their years as Huskers. Featuring one of the most innovative and comprehensive academic support systems in the country, Nebraska is dedicated to helping its student-athletes become outstanding leaders in their chosen fields. The academic support team is composed of 14 full-time staff members and is certified by the National Association of Academic Advisors for Athletics (N4A).

ACADEMIC COUNSELING

Seven academic counselors, three learning specialists and two assistant academic counselors are in place to monitor daily academic progress, receive consistent course feedback, assist with the advising/registration process and monitor continuing eligibility and progress toward graduation.

TUTORIAL SUPPORT

A tremendous resource for all academic abilities, unlimited tutorial support from approximately 120 tutors on staff is available from day one up to college graduation in all subject areas. The tutorial program is certified as a model tutoring program by the College Reading and Learning Association.

STUDY HALL

Nebraska's study hall program is housed in the D.J. Sokol Enrichment Center within the Student Life Complex. Student-athletes attend a supervised, flex-time study hall that features day, evening and weekend hours. Student-athletes are required to complete a specific number of study hours each week as determined by their academic counselor and/or coach. Additional performance-based or tutor-based study hall also may be determined by the academic counselor.

MENTORING

Academic support staff serve as mentors to all incoming student-athletes and a select group of returning student-athletes. Student-athletes meet with their mentor weekly to develop time management skills, gather and report academic progress information, and discuss academic success strategies.

EDUCATIONAL ASSESSMENTS

Assessments are administered upon the request of the student-athlete, academic counselor, or coach. Learning specialists are available to administer and score informal assessments, which include a reading comprehension and a writing assessment. When more in-depth assessments are necessary, referrals are made to a consulting psychologist who conducts the assessments. If it is determined a student-athlete has a learning disability or another medical condition that impedes the student from reaching their academic potential, appropriate accommodations are implemented by the Office of Services for Students with Disabilities.

STUDENT-ATHLETE ORIENTATION

Each new student-athlete attends an orientation at the beginning of their academic career. Student-athletes are introduced to staff, faculty, administrators, and a variety of resources that help facilitate the transition into college while enhancing awareness of support services in the Athletic Department and across campus.

PERSONAL COUNSELING

Student-athletes will find a supportive and caring environment at Nebraska. Transitional issues, stress management, time management, academic focus and problem resolution are all addressed in a proactive manner throughout the year. If necessary, counseling referrals are also made to designated practitioners.

COMPUTER RESOURCES

The Herman Student Life Complex has two computer labs for student-athletes. The Scott Technology Center features two tech tables for use on group computer projects and group study sessions. Additionally, each student-athlete is provided a laptop for use throughout their academic career at Nebraska.

Top: The grand entrance to the Dick and Peg Herman Family Student Life Complex welcomes student-athletes to Memorial Stadium. The entrance highlights the achievements of many current student-athletes across all sports, while also featuring the trophies won by Nebraska's nation-leading 17 NCAA Top Ten Award winners.

STUDENT-ATHLETE LIFE

Nebraska Athletics is one of the few self-sustaining intercollegiate athletic programs in the country. In the 2014-15 fiscal year, Nebraska drew more than 1.3 million fans across all sports through the gates of our world-class facilities. This incredible interest and support enables Nebraska Athletics to invest in the student-athlete experience, as well as the overall game-day experience.

Nebraska is a leader in providing all the resources and support necessary for student-athletes to become successful in Academics, Athletics and Life. Nebraska will continue to strategically plan for avenues to strengthen the resources to support more than 600 Husker student-athletes.

In August of 2014, the NCAA Division I Board of Directors restructured the way member institutions and conferences, including the Big Ten, govern themselves. Nebraska has a great history and tradition of providing first-class benefits and support to our student-athletes. This change in governance, and subsequent legislation, has paved the way for Nebraska to enhance the benefits and experiences for our student-athletes even further. A few examples of these enhanced benefits are:

- All scholarship student-athletes across all sports will have their scholarship calculated based on the full cost of attendance.
- Every student-athlete receives an Apple MacBook Air laptop computer to enhance their learning opportunities (pictured top left).
- Nebraska has increased resources and support in all academic and performance related areas including but not limited to Academic Services, Life Skills, Athletic Medicine, Athletic Training, Strength and Conditioning, Nutrition and Dining Services (Training Table).
- Nebraska created the first-known posteligibility benefit program, where every student-athlete, who has graduated and exhausted their athletic eligibility, will have the opportunity to pursue an internship, participate in a study abroad program or attend graduate school with Nebraska's support.

RED CARPET EXPERIENCE

Nebraska's seniors (from left) Morgan Smejkal, Kelsey Hansen and Cassidy Stelzmiller reveled in the red carpet experience of "A Night at the Lied", Nebraska's annual academic and life skills awards banquet in April of 2015. All three led their respective teams both in the classroom and in competition.

LIFE SKILLS AWARDS

Alexandrea Lorentz captured a prestigious Nebraska Student-Athlete HERO Leadership Award in 2015. The award is presented to NU's most committed student-athletes to community service across all sports. Lorentz also claimed three other awards in 2015: GARC Nebraska Scholar Athlete, Big Ten Distinguished Scholar and Big Ten Sportsmanship Award.

EXPERIENCE THE WORLD

SERVICE TO A MUCH LARGER COMMUNITY

The Nebraska Life Skills program continued to expand its reach in 2015 by offering student-athletes a chance to impact other parts of the world. The annual service trip abroad program began with a trip to Guatemala in May of 2015, enabling nearly 20 current and former Huskers to positively influence the lives of youngsters in another country.

MARISSA MAJOR PARTICIPATES IN GUATEMALA SERVICE TRIP

"It was a once in a lifetime chance to learn about community and culture from the Guatemalan people. They broke down every stereotype we knew about poverty. I think all of us who went realized we have had unbelievable opportunities."

FOCUS ON SUCCESS IN LIFE OUTSIDE OF ATHLETICS

Nebraska's Life Skills program helps prepare the Huskers for life after the competition ends. Beginning in 2015-16, every student-athlete who letters and graduates will have a three-year window to benefit from post-eligibility opportunities to study abroad, complete an internship or begin graduate school in the University of Nebraska system, each valued at $7,500. Other career-enhancement opportunities include Networking Night and the Husker Hire Link program.

NEBRASKA LIFE SKILLS PROGRAM

Widely regarded as the premier and most comprehensive Life Skills program in college athletics, the Husker program is committed to providing proactive education, resources and support throughout college and beyond, promoting total person development and preparation for life after sports. Five full-time staff members and one graduate assistant coordinate a wide array of services benefiting Husker student-athletes.

PROACTIVE EDUCATION

The Life Skills team organizes orientations designed to acclimate student-athletes to college life. All new student-athletes also attend the fall semester Husker Life Seminar. The interactive class promotes responsible decision-making, personal brand, financial literacy, leadership, involvement and service.

INDIVIDUAL MEETINGS

Every Nebraska student-athlete is assigned a Life Skills Coordinator who will arrange multiple individual meetings throughout the academic year aimed at enhancing personal and career development. The meetings help each student-athlete identify a career focus and implement a plan to increase career marketability.

CAREER COMMITMENT

Annually, Nebraska Life Skills organizes a Student-Athlete Career Fair, Networking Night (pictured bottom right) and other career events aimed at connecting Huskers with companies desiring competitive, hard-working, accountable candidates. Athlete Network and Husker Hire Link provide opportunities to explore career opportunities across the country.

COMMUNITY OUTREACH

Nebraska student-athletes readily accept the role-model challenge collectively giving more than 6,500 hours annually to impact thousands, both young and old alike, throughout the entire state of Nebraska. Outreach events include but are not limited to hospital visits, mentoring, school assemblies, statewide rallies, Make-A-Wish, NFL Play 60 and Husker Heroes.

LEADERSHIP

Nebraska Life Skills provides student-athletes with endless opportunities to enhance leadership skills while distinguishing themselves from the competition. Student-athletes can be members of the Student-Athlete Advisory Committee, Uplifting Athletes Chapter or Husker Distinction Council. On campus, UNL offers more than 600 recognized student organizations allowing athletes to collaborate with other campus leaders for a common goal. Annually, Nebraska Life Skills funds and coordinates a one week service abroad trip allowing nearly 20 student-athletes to come together for a common goal while enriching cultural competencies.

RECOGNITION

In 2014-15, a record 37 Husker Football studentathletes were named to both the Tom Osborne Citizenship Team and Brook Berringer Citizenship Team for completing a minimum of six service projects in the calendar year. There are a host of other recognition opportunities both at the institutional, Big Ten and NCAA level which all reflect on the high ideals, character and servant leadership nurtured through community involvement.

POST-ELIGIBILITY OPPORTUNITIES

Effective December 2015 and beyond, studentathletes who letter and graduate will have a three-year window to benefit from one of three post-eligibility opportunities each valued at $7,500. Upon completion of required seminars, graduates can either study abroad, complete an internship or begin graduate school within the University of Nebraska system.

UNIVERSITY OF NEBRASKA

The University of Nebraska was chartered by the Nebraska Legislature in 1869 as the state's public university and land-grant institution. Founded in Lincoln, the University of Nebraska was expanded in 1968 into a state educational system now comprising four campuses under the guidance of a Board of Regents and a central administration.

Nebraska, which joined the Big Ten Conference in 2011, is a member of the Committee on Institutional Cooperation, a consortium of Big Ten universities and the University of Chicago, which has generated unique opportunities for students and faculty by sharing expertise, leveraging resources and collaborating on programs.

COMMITTEE ON INSTITUTIONAL COOPERATION

As a member of the Big Ten, the University of Nebraska-Lincoln (UNL) is a member of the Committee on Institutional Cooperation, which includes all 14 Big Ten Institutions and the University of Chicago. The Committee on Institutional Cooperation (CIC) and the institutions together have annual research expenditures topping $10.2 billion — more than the Ivy League and the University of California System combined — and they educate a total of nearly 600,000 students.
