She played and coached collegiately at Pittsburg State in Kansas, while assistant coach Addae Houston played and coached at Northwest Missouri State. Houston spent last season as an assistant at Nebraska Wesleyan. Assistant coach Mike Brown graduated from Drake and was the head coach at Iowa Central Community College, Upper Iowa and William Penn.

SHELLEY NAMED TO MEYERS-DRYSDALE WATCH LIST

• Nebraska's Jaz Shelley was named to the Ann Meyers-Drysdale Shooting Guard of the Year Watch List when the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame announced its list of 20 preseason candidates for the award on Oct. 17.

• Shelley, a 5-9 guard from Moe, Australia (pronounced MO-ee), has been one of the nation's best guards in each of her first two seasons as a Husker. The graduate student earned first-team All-Big Ten honors last season after averaging 14.5 points and 4.8 rebounds per game. She also ranked third in the Big Ten in both assists (6.2 apg) and three-pointers per game (2.4).

• Shelley, who also earned recognition on the Ann Meyers-Drysdale Preseason Watch List a year ago, opened her Husker career by claiming second-team All-Big Ten accolades in 2022. She was also a member of the Big Ten All-Defensive Team while leading Nebraska to the 2022 NCAA Tournament. She averaged 13.1 points, 6.1 rebounds and 5.0 assists per game.

• Shelley is one of five Big Ten Conference shooting guards on the 2023 Meyers-Drysdale Watch List, joining 2021 award winner Ashley Owusu, who claimed the honor at Maryland. She spent the 2023 season at Virginia Tech, before transferring to Penn State for the 2023-24 campaign.

• Michigan's Laila Phelia, Indiana's Sara Scalia and Ohio State's Celeste Taylor join Shelley on the watch list.

• A group of returning AP All-Americans also fills the list, including Paige Bueckers (UConn), Sonia Citron (Notre Dame), Shaylee Gonzales (Texas), Ta'Niya Latson (Florida State), Charisse Leger-Walker (Washington State), Charisma Osborne (UCLA), Owusu, Taylor and Hailey Van Lith (LSU). Bueckers (first team) and Owusu (second team) were AP All-Americans in 2021, while the rest of the previously named group earned honorable-mention accolades from the AP in either 2022 or 2023.

• A national committee of top college basketball personnel determined the watch list of 20 candidates for the Ann Meyers-Drysdale Award. In late January, the watch list of 20 players for the 2023 Ann Meyers-Drysdale Award was narrowed to 10. In late February a final list of five candidates will be selected. In March, the five finalists will be presented to Meyers-Drysdale and the Hall of Fame selection committee with a winner being selected.

• Shelley is one of 14 graduate students (9) or seniors (5) among the 20 Ann Meyers-Drysdale Award candidates, while five juniors also fill the list. The lone sophomore in the group is Florida State's Latson. The list of candidates will be narrowed to 10 in late January, with plans to announce five finalists for the award in late March.

• The Ann Meyers-Drysdale Award, presented by the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame and the WBCA, honors the nation's top shooting guard in NCAA Division I women's basketball. It is named after the first player, male or female, selected to an All-America team in four straight college seasons (UCLA, 1975-78).

WHITE READY FOR HUSKER REGULAR-SEASON DEBUT

• Nebraska expects to get an immediate boost in the backcourt from three-time first-team All-Big Sky guard Darian White.

• The 5-6 graduate student transferred into the Husker program during the summer after averaging 14.3 points, 5.1 rebounds, 3.7 assists and 2.2 steals over 120 starts in four seasons at Montana State.

• The No. 2 scorer in Montana State history, White finished with 1,716 points, 612 rebounds, 449 assists and 260 steals.

• White was the 2022 Big Sky Tournament MVP, leading the Bobcats to the conference title and a trip to the 2022 NCAA Tournament.

• She was also a two-time Big Sky Defensive Player of the Year (2021, 2022) and the 2020 Big Sky Freshman of the Year.

• White was the 2019 Idaho Gatorade High School Player of the Year and joins three-time North Dakota Gatorade Player of the Year Logan Nissley, two-time Missouri MaxPreps Player of the Year Natalie Potts and Australian National Program forward Jessica Petrie in Nebraska's group of four newcomers for 2023-24.

• White took the court for the first time at Pinnacle Bank Arena in Nebraska's exhibition win over Dakota Wesleyan (Oct. 29), producing 13 points, seven rebounds and game highs of eight assists and four steals.

RETURNING STARTER WEIDNER OUT FOR SEASON

DOUBLE-HEADER BRINGS BACK HUSKER STAR CANNON

- For the second straight season, the Nebraska men's and women's basketball programs open the year with a home, day-night double-header at Pinnacle Bank Arena.

- After the women take on Northwestern State Monday at noon, the Husker men will face visiting Lindenwood at 7 p.m.

- Last season, the Husker women opened the year with a 100-36 win over Omaha at noon, following the Nebraska Life Skills Sportsmanship Pep Rally, before the men's team worked its way to a 79-66 season-opening victory over Maine on Monday, Nov. 7.

- This season's double-header is expected to bring back former Husker star Keasha Cannon (Berry), who was a two-year starter at guard for Nebraska in 2002 and 2004. Cannon, a Kansas City native who played junior college basketball at Penn Valley CC before starting her career under Coach Paul Sanderford in Lincoln, was the 2002 Big 12 Newcomer of the Year as a Husker.

- As a junior, Cannon led Nebraska in scoring (12.9 ppg), rebounding (8.4 rpg), assists (4.0 apg) and steals (2.1 spg). After redshirting in 2002-03, Cannon returned for her final season to average 11.1 points, 8.4 rebounds, 3.3 assists and 1.4 steals while helping Coach Connie Yori's club to the second round of the Postseason WNIT.

- Cannon was a two-time honorable-mention All-Big 12 pick for the Huskers after winning a pair of junior college All-America awards at Penn Valley.

- Cannon's son, Nathan Johnson Jr., is in his first season on the roster at Lindenwood after spending his first two seasons at Coffeyville CC in Kansas. Johnson was born in Lincoln on April 8, 2003. Nate Johnson Sr., led Nebraska with 12.8 points per game as a senior in 2004. Johnson averaged 13.3 points per game as a junior and was a two-time honorable-mention All-Big 12 selection.

HUSKERS FACED HISTORIC STRENGTH OF SCHEDULE

- Nebraska finished 2022-23 with an 18-15 record after facing arguably its strongest schedule in school history with 12 games against Associated Press Top 25 opponents at game time.

- Since joining the Big Ten (2011-12), the Huskers had not played more than eight games in a season vs. AP Top 25 foes prior to 2022-23.

- Nebraska's second game with Iowa (Feb. 18) was its fifth against an AP Top 10 team in 2022-23. The Huskers have never faced more than five AP Top 10 teams in the same season. In fact, Nebraska played six games against teams that entered the NCAA Tournament ranked in the AP top seven nationally, including No. 2 Indiana (1), No. 3 Iowa (2), No. 4 Virginia Tech (1) and No. 7 Maryland (2).

- Nebraska's Big Ten road wins at No. 25 Illinois (90-57, +33, Feb. 22) and at No. 20 Maryland (90-67, +23, Dec. 4) represent the largest road victory margins in school history against AP Top 25 teams.

HUSKER ROSTER FILLED WITH STATE PLAYERS OF THE YEAR

• The 2023-24 Nebraska women's basketball roster features five state players of the year in basketball, who won their respective awards from their home states from 2019 to 2023. The group of five combined for eight state basketball player-of-the-year honors, while adding three state volleyball player-of-the-year awards. Nebraska's group does not include Allison Weidner, who was the state of Nebraska's overall girls athlete of the year across all sports in 2021.

• Freshman Logan Nissley carries the most state player-of-the-year honors with her to Lincoln. The 6-0 guard from Bismarck was a three-time North Dakota Gatorade High School Player of the Year in basketball. She led Bismarck Century to three straight state championship game appearances, including a title in 2022. Nissley was also the North Dakota Volleyball Player of the Year as a junior (2021) and senior (2022).

• Fellow freshman Natalie Potts added a pair of Missouri MaxPreps High School Player of the Year honors in 2021 and 2023. She was also the Gatorade Player of the Year in 2021. Potts, a 6-2 forward from O'Fallon, Mo., led Incarnate Word Academy to a 100-game winning streak to close her career. She finished her high school career with 2,108 points and 1,008 rebounds - just the third player in Missouri high school history to achieve that combined milestone.

• Junior center Alexis Markowski was the 2021 Nebraska Gatorade and MaxPreps High School Player of the Year at Lincoln Pius X. One of 10 semifinalists for the Lisa Leslie Center of the Year Award in 2023, Markowski was the 2022 Big Ten Freshman of the Year at Nebraska. She is a two-time preseason All-Big Ten selection and a two-time second-team All-Big Ten choice. Before arriving at Nebraska, Markowski led Pius X to back-to-back Class A state titles in 2020 and 2021 as the captain of the Class A All-Tournament team.

• Sophomore center/forward Maggie Mendelson was the Utah High School Player of the Year in both basketball and volleyball in 2021. Mendelson graduated from Fremont High School in Utah a year early and joined the Nebraska volleyball and women's basketball programs for the 2022-23 season. She has helped the volleyball team to a current No. 1 national ranking. In the summer of 2021, Mendelson helped the U.S. Under 16 National Team to gold at the FIBA Americas Championship in August. She also played for the U.S. Under 18 National Volleyball Team at the FIVB U18 World Championships a month later, before winning volleyball gold with the U.S. Under 19 National Team at the Pan American Cup in July of 2022. She played in 22 basketball games for the Huskers as a freshman.

• Graduate transfer Darian White was the 2019 Idaho Gatorade Player of the Year at Mountain View High School. The 5-6 point guard averaged 15.2 points, 5.7 rebounds, 3.2 assists and 3.4 steals on her way to All-Idaho Player-of-the-Year honors. She led Mountain View to a 25-1 record and a state runner-up finish as a senior, before earning 2020 Big Sky Freshman-of-the-Year accolades at Montana State. She went on to be a three-time first-team All-Big Sky selection at Montana State (2021, 2022, 2023) and a two-time Big Sky Defensive Player of the Year (2021, 2022). She was also the Big Sky Tournament MVP in 2022.

• Junior Allison Weidner was not a state basketball player of the year, but she was Nebraska's overall Girls High School Athlete of the Year in 2021. The two-time first-team all-class all-state pick in basketball was a two-time Class D2 first-team all-state volleyball player and an eight-time Nebraska state track and field champion at Humphrey St. Francis.

HUSKERS TO PLAY AT LEAST 10 GAMES ON BIG NETWORKS

- Nebraska will play a minimum of 10 games on conference-affiliated television networks during the 2023-24 regular season.
- The television appearances will come early and often for the Big Red, beginning with a Sunday, Nov. 19 clash with Creighton at Pinnacle Bank Arena that will be televised live by the Big Ten Network with a tip time set for 1 p.m. (CT). It is the first of at least eight regular-season games for the Huskers to be televised by BTN, and each of Nebraska's first four televised home games during the stretch will come against 2023 NCAA Tournament qualifiers (Creighton, Maryland, Indiana, Illinois).
- Nebraska's Big Ten Conference opener at Michigan State on Saturday, Dec. 9 also will be televised by BTN. Tip time in East Lansing is set for 1 p.m. (CT). In fact, each of NU's first five Big Ten contests will be carried by BTN, including its Big Ten home opener with Maryland, Sunday, Dec. 31 at 1 p.m. (CT). The Huskers will be back on BTN on Thursday, Jan. 4 at Wisconsin. Tip time in Madison will be 8 p.m. (CT).
- Nebraska will face Indiana at Pinnacle Bank Arena on Sunday, Jan. 7 in a game televised by BTN. Game time between the Huskers and Hoosiers will not be announced until late-December, as networks await decisions regarding TV time slots in Week 18 of the NFL season.
- The Huskers will wrap up their fifth consecutive Big Ten game on BTN by playing host to Illinois at Pinnacle Bank Arena on Thursday, Jan. 11 at 7 p.m. (CT).
- The Big Red will be back on BTN when the Huskers travel to Iowa City to battle the Hawkeyes on Saturday, Jan. 27 at 1 p.m. (CT). The rematch between Nebraska and Iowa is set for Sunday, Feb. 11 at Noon (CT) at Pinnacle Bank Arena in a game televised by FS1 on Super Bowl Sunday. The NFL's championship game does not kick off until 5:30 p.m. (CT), so Husker fans will have plenty of time to come and participate in Play4Kay Day - Nebraska's Pink Game - to promote cancer awareness and support cancer survivors and those currently battling cancer.
- The Huskers will make their first-ever appearance on Peacock when they travel to Ohio State on Wednesday, Feb. 14. Tip off on Valentine's Day in Columbus against the Buckeyes is set for 6 p.m. (CT).
- Nebraska will make its eighth scheduled BTN appearance against Northwestern at Pinnacle Bank Arena on Tuesday, Feb. 20 at 8 p.m. (CT).
- The Big Red could be back on BTN for a ninth time in the regular-season finale at Illinois on Sunday, March 3, but that network designation and tip time will not be announced until February.
- All rounds of the Big Ten Tournament at the Target Center in Minneapolis (March 6-10) will be televised by the conference's television partners. All first-round games will be televised by Peacock on Wednesday, March 6, before BTN carries every game from the second round through the semifinals (March 7-9). The Big Ten Championship Game will be televised by CBS on Sunday, March 10.
- All of Nebraska's non-televised home games and all of the Big Red's non-televised Big Ten road games will be live streamed to subscribers of B1G+.

• The NCAA announced the release of its annual Graduation Success Rate report Nov. 15, 2022, and Nebraska was a national leader in women's basketball for the 18th straight season, dating back to the initial public tracking of the GSR since 2004-05.

• The Nebraska women's basketball program joins the Husker women's tennis and volleyball programs as Husker teams that have produced perfect 100 percent rates each of the last 18 years.

• Overall, the Nebraska Athletic Department produced a record-tying-high GSR of 95 percent.

• Nebraska continues to lead NCAA Division I in Academic All-Americans across all sports (351) and NCAA Today Top Ten Award winners (18). More than 100 Huskers have also earned NCAA Postgraduate Scholarships in history.

• The Huskers Radio Network is in its second season of producing and marketing the live broadcasts of Nebraska women's basketball in 2023-24, but play-by-play announcer Matt Coatney and color commentator Jeff Griesch team up for their 23rd season as the Husker broadcast team.

• The Huskers Radio Network will carry every game, home and away, around the world for free on Huskers.com, marking the 23rd year that all of Nebraska's women's basketball games have been free and available to fans. In addition to carrying every women's basketball game free on Huskers.com, the Huskers Radio Network flagship stations B107.3 FM-KBBK (Lincoln) and ESPN 590 AM-KXSP (Omaha) provide strong signals for Husker women's basketball. When a network conflict occurs in Omaha, the Huskers also can be heard on CD105.9 FM-KKCD. 880-AM-KRVN (Lexington) also provides a huge AM signal statewide in central Nebraska, while more than 20 stations carry the Huskers Radio Network's women's basketball coverage across the state and the Midwest.

- Nebraska's game with Northwestern State will be Coatney and Griesch's 734th women's basketball broadcast together, more than any other Husker radio broadcast team across all sports in history. The 2022-23 regular-season opener with Omaha was their 700th broadcast together.
- Griesch also has an active streak of 693 consecutive Husker games called dating back to Jan. 5, 2003. The last game he missed came against Penn State on Dec. 30, 2002 at the Surf & Slam in San Diego, following the birth of he and his wife Emily's first child, Hollan. She is now a junior at the University of Nebraska and has three younger brothers, Jackson (19), Brennan (15) and Isaac (10).
- Griesch continued his streak in 2022-23 despite undergoing open heart surgery on Sept. 28 to replace his aortic valve. Less than five weeks later, he was on air with Coatney for Nebraska's exhibition game with Washburn. Griesch also had open heart surgery as a junior in high school on May 1, 1990.
