SCOUTING THE NORTHWESTERN STATE LADY DEMONS

Head Coach Anna Nimz enters her fourth season at Northwestern State. The Lady Demons come to Lincoln from Natchitoches, La., after posting an 11-18 overall record that included a 7-11 Southland Conference mark last season. Nimz and her coaching staff are no strangers to the Midwest. She played and coached collegiately at Pittsburg State in Kansas, while assistant coach Addae Houston played and coached at Northwest Missouri State. Houston spent last season as an assistant at Nebraska Wesleyan. Assistant coach Mike Brown graduated from Drake and was the head coach at Iowa Central Community College, Upper Iowa and William Penn. On the court, the Lady Demons will be challenged to replace their top two scorers from a year ago - Candice Parramore (13.5 ppg) and Shelby Rayner (8.9 ppg) along with six other players from their 2022-23 roster. However, they return three key starters, led by guard Sharna Ayres. The 5-10 guard from Melbourne, Australia was the only Lady Demon to start all 29 games a year ago, averaging 8.1 points and 4.2 rebounds, while hitting a team-best 55 three-pointers. She also connected on 92 percent (23-25) of her free throws on the season. Jasmin Dixon, a 6-3 junior forward, joined Ayres in the starting lineup for 25 games, averaging 3.2 points and 4.0 rebounds while leading NSU with 1.0 blocks per game. Dixon hit 50.6 percent of her field goals on the year. Senior Jiselle Woodson is Northwestern State's top returning scorer. The 5-5 guard averaged 8.4 points, 2.9 rebounds and a team-best 2.4 assists last season. She also led the Lady Demons with 32 steals and connected on 36.1 percent of her three-pointers (22-61). Northwestern State features a pair of Alaskans - senior forward Jordan Todd and junior guard Mikaila Pickard - on its 16-player roster. The teammates at Anchorage Christian High School are 4,160 miles (68-hour drive) away from home. NSU also has two newcomers from Spain - Carla Celaya (Montbau) and Ane Astarloa (Berriz) - and two players from New Jersey - Jordan Brown (Plainsboro) and Niaisya Ervin (Newark). Three Lady Demons earned roster spots at their home state school, including Nia Hardison (Natchitoches) and Jermesha Frierson and Jordan McLemore (Shreveport).

HUSKERS FACE LADY DEMONS IN OPENER

Nebraska tips off its 2023-24 regular season today when the Huskers play host to Northwestern State at Pinnacle Bank Arena. The Huskers made their first appearance last Sunday at PBA with an 83-47 exhibition victory over Dakota Wesleyan (Oct. 29). Freshman Natalie Potts led the Big Red off the bench with a team-high 15 points to go along with eight rebounds. Senior Annika Stewart added 14 more points off the bench, while newcomer Darian White led Nebraska's starters with 13 points, seven rebounds and game highs of eight assists and four steals. The Huskers return starters Jaz Shelley, Alexis Markowski and Maddie Krull from last year's team that finished 18-15 overall and advanced to the Super 16 in the Postseason WNIT. Shelley scored eight points and hit a pair of threes against the Tigers, while Markowski contributed six points and a game-high 12 rebounds. Krull also pitched in six points on a pair of threes, as the Huskers connected on nine triples on the afternoon. All 11 available Huskers scored at least two points and grabbed at least one rebound in the exhibition victory.

Nebraska was set to welcome back Allison Weidner, who started NU's first 13 games a year ago before suffering a season-ending injury in the fourth quarter of a triple-overtime win over No. 20 Kansas (Dec. 21). Weidner averaged 10.2 points, 6.2 rebounds and 2.4 assists in her shortened sophomore season.

Weidner's recovery and rehabilitation had gone well to her left leg, but she suffered a season-ending injury to her right leg in practice on Friday, Oct. 13. She underwent surgery on Oct. 25 and will redshirt during the 2023-24 season.

Shelley is Nebraska's top returning scorer after averaging 14.5 points, 4.8 rebounds and a team-best 6.2 assists while starting all 33 games for the Huskers last season. The 5-9 graduate guard ranked No. 3 in the Big Ten in assists and No. 3 in three-pointers made last season. She earned first-team All-Big Ten honors a year ago.

Markowski joined Shelley on the preseason All-Big Ten team this season after averaging 11.9 points and a Big Ten-best 9.8 rebounds as a sophomore. The 6-3 center out of Lincoln Pius X High School was the only Big Ten player to average a double-double during regular-season conference play a year ago. She also led all Big Ten post players in double-doubles with 15 on the season.

White is expected to make a major impact in the backcourt. The three-time first-team All-Big Sky selection scored more than 1,700 points at Montana State.

Potts, a two-time Missouri MaxPreps Player of the Year, could play a significant role this season. The 6-2 forward led Incarnate Word Academy to three state championships and a 100-game winning streak to close her high school career, while scoring 2,108 points and grabbing 1,008 rebounds over four seasons. In her strong exhibition game performance, Potts started the second half for the Big Red.

Three-time North Dakota Gatorade High School Player of the Year Logan Nissley also could make an immediate impact to the Big Red backcourt. The 6-0 guard averaged 20.8 points, 7.4 rebounds, 2.5 assists and 3.9 steals as a senior at Bismarck Century. She led the Patriots to three straight trips to the state championship game, including a title in 2021.

Australian National Program forward Jessica Petrie also hopes to contribute. The 6-2 freshman from Gold Coast is one of the top young players in Australia. She averaged 17.6 points and 9.1 rebounds for the Basketball Centre of Excellence in the NBL1 in 2023.
