COMING BACK TO NEBRASKA

Dalmagro becoming the 10th head coach in the history of the Husker program. Dalmagro's time as associate head coach at Nebraska was a rousing success. He helped the Huskers earn a top-60 national ranking in each of his five seasons, including a high of No. 21 in the 2017-18 season. The women's tennis program also excelled academically during his tenure, as the tennis team earned the Herman Award for the top GPA among all women's programs in both 2014 and 2018.

BEFORE NEBRASKA

Dalmagro comes to Nebraska after spending the 2023 season as the head coach of the Arkansas State women's program, adding head coaching experience to a strong resume of success throughout his career. He returns to Lincoln after serving as the Huskers' associate head coach for five seasons from 2014 to 2018, when he helped Nebraska improve its win total every season.

ALBERTS ON DALMAGRO

"We are excited to welcome German and his family back to Nebraska and look forward to him leading our women's tennis program. German has a strong record of recruiting and developing outstanding players, and he has extensive experience in the Big Ten Conference including his previous success at Nebraska. He was also an excellent collegiate singles and doubles player, allowing him to relate well to the players in his program."

Dalmagro has nearly two decades of overall collegiate coaching experience, including nine seasons in the Big Ten Conference.

GERMAN DALMAGRO

Head Coach | First Season | Córdoba, Argentina

Before taking over the Arkansas State program in January of 2023, Dalmagro was the associate head coach at Illinois for four seasons.

Dalmagro has helped the Illini secure top-25 ranked recruiting classes two out of his final three years in Champaign. In 2022, Illinois wrapped up the regular season with a 15-8 overall record and finished tied for third with an 8-3 record in the Big Ten Conference.

In the 2020-21 campaign, Illinois was 9-9 playing a conference-only schedule, finishing the season with a 4-3 victory over seventh-ranked Northwestern. In November of 2022, he helped the doubles team of Kate Doung and Meagan Heuser win their first professional tournament at the Fighting Illini Women's Open USTA/ITF 15k in Champaign, marking the first pro tournament title by a doubles team in school history.

In Dalmagro's first season in 2018-19, Illinois posted a 16-12 overall record, earning three wins over top-20 programs and seven wins over top-50 opponents. The Illini advanced to the Big Ten Tournament Finals for the first time since 2001 and made the NCAA Tournament.

While with the Illini, Dalmagro assisted in the development of the second All-American in program history, Asuka Kawai. Kawai was the first Illini individual since 2005 to qualify for the NCAA Singles Tournament, reaching the quarterfinals for the best finish in program history. Dalmagro served as assistant women's tennis coach at Kansas from 2006 to 2013 helping the program earn seven All-Big 12 singles and doubles honors. The Jayhawks reached the Elite 8 in doubles at the All-American Championships in 2009. The program had 13 Academic All-Big 12 players in his tenure with the Jayhawks.

Dalmagro began his coaching career at the University of West Florida for the 2005-06 season. As an assistant coach for men's and women's tennis, he helped both squads reach the semifinals of the NCAA Tournament. Both squads attained a top-five national ranking as Gulf South CONFERENCE CHAMPIONS.

COLLEGE CAREER

Dalmagro was a standout player at West Florida and Abrahama Baldwin Agricultural College. He helped lead West Florida to back-to-back NCAA Division II Championships in 2004 and 2005 and was part of the 2005 Gulf South Conference champion team and 2004 Gulf South runner-up squad. His career was highlighted by All-America honors in 2004 (doubles), 2003 (singles and doubles) and 2002 (SINGLES AND DOUBLES). He was ranked nationally as high as No. 3 in doubles and No. 11 in singles.

DALMAGRO ON HIS OUTLOOK FOR THE SEASON

"I am very grateful, humbled and honored to represent the Huskers and to keep building the team to new heights. We will work hard in recruiting and developing our players on and off the courts to represent the 'N' with integrity, pride and grit. I am very excited for this opportunity to lead the team, and I can't wait to get started."

MADDIE KOBELT

Associate Head Coach | First Season | New Albany, Ohio

COLLEGE COACHING

During her coaching career at Syracuse, they had really good results, and I know her passion, work ethic and coaching philosophy will help us maximize our team potential. We have a talented group that is eager to get to work, and I'm very thankful Maddie believed in my vision and the direction we can take the team. We have a lot of resources at Nebraska and having her on board will help us achieve goals as we strive to make Nebraska great."

After her college career, Kobelt played professionally and reached career-high ITF rankings of No. 893 in singles and No. 294 in doubles, while earning 12 career professional doubles titles.

Kobelt was an assistant coach at Kenyon College (2018-20), helping lead the team to a No. 11 ITA Division III ranking and two NCAC Conference Championships. She is the sister of Nebraska men's tennis coach Peter Kobelt.

KOBELT ON NEBRASKA

I would like to thank Head Coach German Dalmagro and Executive Associate AD Keith Zimmer for this amazing opportunity to join the Nebraska family. I am honored to represent the Huskers and excited to start working with Coach Dalmagro and this outstanding group of young women. Nebraska's commitment to excellence and incredible support of their student athletes are unmatched. The possibilities are endless for what this team can achieve."

Kobelt has spent the last three years as an assistant coach at her alma mater, Syracuse. In 2022-23, Kobelt helped the Orange to a season-high ITA ranking of No. 16. In her time as an athlete at Syracuse, Kobelt was a team captain, played No. 1 singles and doubles, and reached a career-high ITA ranking in doubles of No. 32. Kobelt was also named to the 2013 All-Big East Team and the 2014 All-ACC Second Team.

TREV ALBERTS

Vice Chancellor, Director of Athletics (Third season) Nebraska

Division I postseason appearance in 2014 with a berth in the CollegenInsider.com Postseason Tournament.

During UNO's time in the Division I ranks under Alberts tenure, the Mavericks had six teams and four student-athletes qualify for the NCAA Tournament, including hockey advancing to the Frozen Four in 2015 and men's soccer reaching the second round of the NCAA Tournament in the spring of 2021. He also expanded opportunities, adding men's golf and men's soccer in 2011 and Omaha will begin a men's swimming and diving program in 2021-22.

Throughout his tenure in Omaha, Alberts was focused on enhancing the student-athlete experience, including the construction and staffing of the Hamilton Academic Excellence Room and the development of the Ethel S. Abbott Student-Athlete Development Wing. Those efforts paid off in Nebraska-Omaha student-athletes posting consistent collective semester grade point averages above 3.3 for 18 consecutive semesters, including at least a 3.5 in each of his final three semesters.

The facilities around Omaha Athletics received a major uplift during his tenure. Maverick Park opened in March of 2021 to rave reviews as the home to the Mavericks' baseball and softball programs. Funding for the complex, which includes a 1,500-seat baseball facility and a 650-seat softball facility, were raised privately and provided both programs a permanent on-campus home for the first time.

Another crowning achievement was the opening of Baxter Arena in 2015. Alberts directed efforts to secure community support and funding to build the on-campus arena, which allowed the nationally prominent hockey program to play on campus and also serve as the home of the men's and women's basketball and volleyball programs. Caniglia Field underwent renovations in 2012, making it one of the finest collegiate soccer facilities in the country, highlighted by a FIFA 2-star rated playing surface and one of the largest LED videoboards in a soccer-only college facility.

Alberts' work on behalf of hockey, UNO's established Division I sport, also paid dividends. He successfully guided the Mavericks into the new National Collegiate Hockey Conference in 2013-14. The following year, Omaha reached the 2015 NCAA Frozen Four.

In addition, Alberts and his team led Omaha Athletics into a partnership with Learfield, a national leader in the marketing of collegiate athletics, and developed Omaha Sports Properties. As the exclusive corporate sponsorship sales unit for UNO Athletics, Omaha Sports Properties further enhanced revenue and increased brand prominence locally, regionally and nationally.

As part of UNO's reclassification to Division I, Alberts oversaw the rebranding of UNO athletics with new primary and secondary logos and a greater focus on strengthening the Maverick brand both regionally and nationally.

As a student-athlete, Alberts was an All-American on and off the football field as a Husker Blackshirt. He was Nebraska's first Butkus Award winner in 1993, helping Coach Tom Osborne's Huskers to an undefeated regular season and an Orange Bowl appearance against Florida State. A first-team All-American by every major publication in 1993, he was also the Football News National Defensive Player of the Year, the Big Eight Male Athlete of the Year, and the Big Eight Defensive Player of the Year. His No. 34 jersey was retired at the 1994 Red-White Spring Game. In 2015, he was elected to the College Football Hall of Fame.

Off the field, Alberts earned the NCAA's highest honor, The Today's Top Six Award. A three-time academic All-Big Eight honoree, he was a CoSIDA Academic All-American in 1993. He graduated from Nebraska before his senior season.

Alberts was the fifth pick in the 1994 NFL Draft by the Indianapolis Colts and played for the Colts until 1996. Following his NFL career, he served as an analyst on college and professional football games for major national networks, including ESPN, CNN/SI and CBS Sports Network.

Alberts and his wife Angela have three children – Chase, Ashtynne and Breanna.

PERSONAL

Nebraska, B.A.

Family: Angela (wife); Chase (son); Ashtynne and Breanna (daughters)

A veteran administrator and College Football Hall of Famer, Trev Alberts was named Vice Chancellor for Athletics at the University of Nebraska on July 14, 2021. Alberts returned to his alma mater after spending 12 years at Nebraska-Omaha, guiding the program through a successful transition to the Division I level.

Alberts' tenure leading UNO athletics was marked by successes in competition and in academics; by transitioning the university's athletic programs to NCAA Division I in 2011; and by establishing new homes for many UNO athletics teams, including Baxter Arena, the Maverick Park baseball/softball complex and the soccer pitch at Caniglia Field.

Alberts took the bold step in announcing that Omaha would reclassify from Division II to Division I in all sports in 2011 and simultaneously securing conference affiliation with the Summit League for all of the department's then-Division II programs. His vision for UNO's reclassifying teams was demonstrated even before the four-year transition period had ended. The Omaha baseball team won back-to-back Summit League regular-season championships in 2013 and 2014, while the men's basketball team made its first

KEITH ZIMMER

Senior Associate A.D. Life Skills/Tennis Administrator

Keith Zimmer enters his 34th year at Nebraska directing the Life Skills and Enrichment program while also serving as sports administrator for women's basketball, softball, men's tennis and women's tennis.

A member of the Big Ten Sports Management Committee, Zimmer works closely with the College of Business to assist with the administration of the Master's in Intercollegiate Athletic Administration program. Since 2015, Nebraska Life Skills implemented the Post Eligibility Scholarship provided to Huskers who have lettered, graduated and exhausted eligibility at Nebraska. Zimmer hired Nebraska Athletics Diversity and Inclusion Director DaWon Baker and together numerous initiatives have been implemented within campus and the community promoting respect acceptance and unity.

Additional critical components of Nebraska Life Skills includes individual student-athlete career meetings, required 4 year tiered proactive education, community outreach, postgraduate scholarship awards life after sports transition and the offering of four leadership organizations. The N-Vest mentoring group, Inner Circle, N-Volved and the Student-Athlete Advisory Committee further develop leadership qualities of more than 150 student-athletes annually. Zimmer also assists with the direction of Nebraska's annual student-athlete achievement event, "A Night at the Lied." Zimmer is the Life Skills sport contact for football, volleyball, softball, swimming and diving, men's tennis and women's tennis.

Zimmer, who worked in Nebraska's Academic Services area from 1987 to 2006, while pioneering Nebraska's Life Skills program, is regarded as a national leader in the life skills area. He received one of the top honors in college athletics, being selected as the Life Skills Administrator of the Year and has also received the Chancellor's Award for Exemplary Service to Students and is an honorary member of both Golden Key National Honor Society and Mortar Board.

Zimmer earned his bachelor's degree at Wayne State College and his master's in education from Springfield (Mass.) College. Zimmer and his wife Michelle, have two sons, Logan and Caden.

MARQUITA ARMSTEAD

Deputy Associate A.D./SWA

Marquita Armstead was hired as Nebraska's Executive Associate Athletic Director and Senior Woman Administrator on Dec. 16, 2021, and she officially began her duties on Feb. 1, 2022. Armstead came to Nebraska from the University of South Florida, where she served in a similar role.

Armstead was a member of the South Florida athletics administration from March of 2016 to January of 2022. She originally joined USF as Associate Athletic Director for Compliance, before being elevated to Senior Associate Director of Athletics/Senior Woman Administrator in August of 2017.

In her role with the Bulls, Armstead serves as the sport administrator for men's and women's basketball, and had previous sport oversight of softball, men's soccer, women's tennis and as the secondary sport administrator for football. Armstead also oversees several USF student-athlete support departments, including academic services, student-athlete enhancement, sports medicine, nutrition, sport psychology, student rights and responsibilities and Title IX.

In her position with the Huskers, Armstead has sport supervision for men's basketball and volleyball. She will be a member of the Big Ten Sport Management Council, and has oversight of athletic medicine, sports psychology, the athletic performance lab (NAPL), strength and conditioning, performance nutrition, Title IX and gender equity.

In addition to her work at USF, Armstead has a strong athletic administration background at four other schools. Before her time at South Florida, Armstead worked at Georgia Tech from 2012 to 2016, where she served as Director of Compliance for her final three years in Atlanta. Prior to Georgia Tech, Armstead was the Director of Compliance at the University of Tennessee Chattanooga for six years. She also served internships in compliance at Mississippi State and Ohio University.

Armstead earned her bachelor's degree from Mississippi State in 2005 and earned a master's of sports administration from the school in 2006. She received a Master of Business Administration degree from Tennessee Chattanooga in 2013 and is a 2012 NCAA Leadership Institute graduate. Armstead is married to Demetric Armstead and the couple has a son, Braylon.

He succeeds current Chancellor Ronnie Green, who is retiring. Bennett's appointment follows a series of public forums and other meetings over the last month during which more than 1,400 members of the extended UNL community were able to meet him, ask questions and hear about his vision for Nebraska's flagship university.

"The chance to serve the University of Nebraska-Lincoln as chancellor is the opportunity I have been preparing for for over 30 years," Bennett said. "I'm so thankful to President Ted Carter for selecting me for this role, and to the Board of Regents for their vote of confidence today."

RODNEY D. BENNETT

UNL Chancellor (First Year) University of Southern Mississippi (2014)

"I continue to be excited about the university's ability to set a new standard of excellence among flagship and land-grant institutions across our country and beyond. UNL is truly unique in building vibrant, economically competitive communities across Nebraska while preparing students to be successful in an evolving world in which they will live and work.

Bennett most recently served as president of the University of Southern Mississippi, a comprehensive public research institution that enrolls 14,000 students across multiple campuses. As president from 2013 to 2022, Bennett brought Southern Miss into the top tier of research institutions, delivered improved student outcomes, invested in faculty and high-growth academic programs, and stabilized the budget through fiscally conservative management – all qualities that attracted Carter during the national search for a successor to current Chancellor Ronnie Green, who is retiring.

Bennett led Southern Miss' reclassification from a Carnegie R2 to an R1 university, signaling its growth in research prestige and funding. He also improved the academic quality of the student body, expanded high-demand programs and elevated technology transfer efforts. A strong champion of student access and success, Bennett invested in programs to support recruitment, retention and outcomes. He invested in new faculty positions in high-growth areas, increased the average salary for full-time faculty, and launched between athletics and faculty, NCAA compliance, developing and responding to NCAA legislative proposals and representing the university at related NCAA and Big Ten Conference meetings.

The half-time position - which was restructured to an expected term of five years - reports directly to Chancellor Ronnie Green and consults with the Athletic Director. The representative splits academic year time equally between academic responsibilities and faculty representative duties.

Fuess, the Steinhart Distinguished Professor of Business and former chair of the College of Business' economics department, has worked at the University of Nebraska-Lincoln since 1986. He serves on the Faculty Senate's Intercollegiate Athletics Committee, having chaired the committee for 2018-19 and a sub-committee in 2017-18.

In August 2018, Fuess was named director of the university's cross-disciplinary master's degree program that offers a specialization in intercollegiate athletics administration. The program - which has been completed by 48 Huskers - is built on MBA coursework, allowing students to earn hands-on experiences through

BIG TEN CONFERENCE

The Big Ten Conference Council of Presidents and Chancellors (COP/C) announced that Tony Petitti has been named the seventh commissioner of the Big Ten Conference. He replaces Commissioner Kevin Warren. Warren was named president and chief executive officer of the Chicago Bears.

Tony Petitti
Commissioner

Petitti is a proven leader who brings nearly four decades of sports, business and media industry acumen to the Big Ten Conference. He served as deputy commissioner and chief operating officer of Major League Baseball and president and chief executive officer of MLB Network.

A 14-time National Sports Emmy Award winner, Petitti has held senior executive roles at CBS Sports and ABC Sports overseeing rights acquisition deals for a variety of sports leagues and collegiate and professional sports events, including the NCAA Men's Basketball Tournament, regular season men's basketball, college football, NFL, PGA Tour, the Masters, U.S. Open Tennis Championships, and the Little League World Series, as well as leading in the creation of the Bowl Championship Series to determine college football's national champion.

The search for the seventh Big Ten Conference commissioner was led by the Big Ten Council of Presidents and Chancellors' Executive Search Committee. University of Maryland President Darryll J. Pines served as chair alongside University of Minnesota President Joan Gabel, The Ohio State University President Kristina M. Johnson, and Chair of the Council of Presidents and Chancellors and University of Illinois Chancellor Robert Jones.

"I would like to thank all the candidates who spent time with us during the commissioner search process as each illustrated outstanding leadership qualities and a breadth of experience," President Pines said. "The Big Ten Conference is in an extraordinary position of strength. Tony's capabilities to navigate the complexities of changing marketplace environments, history as a collaborative leader, and passion for academics and collegiate athletics made him the right leader, at the right time, for the Big Ten Conference."

TurnkeyZRG, a leading talent recruitment firm in sports, entertainment, music, and media assisted the Big Ten Conference Council of Presidents and Chancellors. TurnkeyZRG conducted a comprehensive and inclusive recruitment process that delivered a diverse slate of potential candidates from within collegiate athletics, professional sports, media, government and more.

"We are at a time in collegiate athletics that we need leaders with innovative forethought, the highest principles, and a spirit of fairness and partnership," Chancellor Jones said. "Tony brings a dynamic style of leadership and impeccable integrity to the conference. The entire Council of Presidents and Chancellors is thrilled to have him serve as the seventh commissioner in Big Ten Conference history."

The 14 current Big Ten Conference member institutions, in addition to the two new members who will join the conference in 2024, participated in the interview process and the final selection of Petitti.

"At this important and transformational time in collegiate athletics, it is truly my great honor to be chosen by the Council of Presidents and Chancellors as the commissioner of the Big Ten Conference," Petitti said. "I am energized to work alongside the best athletics directors, coaches, conference staff and board in the country as – together – we continue to elevate the academic and athletic experiences and resources for our 14, soon-to-be 16, world-class universities with nearly 10,000 incredible student-athletes. Thank you to the extraordinary people and places that have led me to this next challenge in my career. I am ready to get to work for the Big Ten Conference community."

Most recently Petitti was recruited by Liberty Media and The Baupost Group to serve as an advisor to evaluate sports and media properties.

As Deputy Commissioner and Chief Operating Officer for Major League Baseball (2014-2020), Petitti was involved in all aspects of MLB including leading broadcast and digital media, special events (All-Star Game, Home Run Derby, MLB postseason scheduling and operations), MLB Network, MLB social media, consumer products and licensing, marketing, youth development, international, and security.

He closely collaborated with 30 MLB team owners and presidents, and key business and operational partners to incorporate ideas and feedback to improve the creation and execution of strategic initiatives. Petitti also participated on MLB's Competition Committee.

As President and Chief Executive Officer of MLB Network (2008-2014), Petitti led the imagination, creation, buildout and launch of MLB Network in 50 million homes which, at the time, was the largest launch of a cable network in history. Petitti's vision touched every aspect of content and operations including programming, on-air talent, production team, studio creation, and supporting facilities.

Prior to MLB, Petitti was the executive vice president of CBS Sports (2002-2008) and was an integral part of the network's NFL coverage. He led the sports programming division and had added responsibility as executive producer for all CBS Sports telecasts.

BEFORE NEBRASKA

Maria Taranova joined the Huskers from Volgograd, Russia. Previously, Taranova reached a high of #21 in Juniors under-19 national rankings in Russia. In 2021, Taranova made top 15 in Juniors under-17 national rankings.

Taranova competed in the semifinals of the 2022 Russian Junior Championships where she defeated Ekaterina Khayrutdinova, whose career high ITF Junior World Ranking is 36, in the quarterfinals. She also defeated #97 Arina Bulatova in the round robin stage.

Taranova qualified for two semifinals of ITF G3 tournaments in Cholpon-Ata in July 2022 and in Ust-Kamenogorsk in November 2022. She also won an ITF G4 tournament in Tbilisi and reached two doubles finals in ITF J5 and J3. Taranova has reached a high of #292 in the World ITF Junior Rankings.

PERSONAL

The daughter of Viacheslav and Olga, Maria was born on June 9, 2005 in Volgograd, Russia. Maria has one sister, Visilisa, and plans to major in Nutrition and Health Science.

Taranova's family has an impressive athletic history. Both of Taranova's parents were professional track and field athletes. Her mother, Olga, placed fourth in the 2000 Olympics in Sydney and her father, Viacheslav, won the 1997 European Championships among youth under 22 in Turku, Finland.

WHY SHE CHOSE NEBRASKA

"I chose Nebraska because I'm excited to be a member of Nebraska's family because of the great team and experienced coaches. All these factors can help me to increase my tennis level. Also, the University of Nebraska is very interesting in academics and I'm looking forward to starting my education there!"

ANA ZAMBUREK

Junior | Santo Domingo, Dominican Republic | Baylor

2022-23: SOPHOMORE

During her first year with the Huskers, Ana Carmen Zamburek posted a 4-20 overall singles record. She played three different positions, earning a 1-6 record at No. 3, a 1-3 mark at No. 2 and a 0-5 record at No. 1. In doubles, Carmen Zamburek earned an overall doubles record of 15-7 with her partners Raphaëlle Lacasse, Lucy Loy and Isabel Adrover Gallego.

Off the court, Carmen Zamburek earned a spot on the 2023 Tom Osborne Citizenship Team.

BEFORE NEBRASKA

Ana Zamurek, a native of Santo Domingo, Dominican Republic, brings an impressive resume to Nebraska

She spent her freshman season at Baylor, helping the Bears to a season-high No. 11 ranking and a regular season record of 15-8. Zamburek saw action in both singles and doubles and was a major contributor at both No. 2 and No. 3 doubles.

In her junior career, the member of the Dominican Republic Fed Cup Team was a doubles finalist in a 25K pro tournament, had a career-best ITF singles rankings at No. 247 in March of 2021 and made it to four singles finals and nine doubles finals.

PERSONAL

The daughter of Martin Zamburek and Alexandra Martes Low, Ana was born on March 16, 2003 in Guayacanes, San Pedro de Macoris. Ana has one sister, Eva, and plans to major in textiles and apparel design.

WHY ANA CHOSE NEBRASKA

"I felt instant chemistry with the coaches and fell in love with what is waiting."

CHAMPIONS IN ATHLETICS, ACADEMICS, LIFE

The Nebraska women's tennis program has established itself as a national contender. In 2013, the Huskers advanced to the NCAA Sweet 16 and played host to the first and second rounds of the NCAA Tournament for the first time. It was Nebraska's sixth NCAA appearance in an eight-year span.

Coach Scott Jacobson is in his 31st season as the winningest coach in Nebraska tennis history. He helped 2013 All-American Mary Weatherholt to a second-place finish at the 2013 NCAA Singles Championship. Weatherholt added an NCAA Elite Eight finish alongside fellow 2013 All-American Patricia Veresova in doubles. Weatherholt also captured the 17th of Nebraska's NCAA-leading 18 NCAA Top Ten Award, after being named Nebraska's Female Student-Athlete of the Year.

Left: Mary Weatherholt set the all-time record for career wins at 208, the first and only women's player in Nebraska history to surpass the 200-win mark. Weatherholt was the 2013 NCAA Singles runner-up, 2013 NCAA/ITA All-American in both singles and doubles, Big Ten Women's Tennis Athlete-of-the-year in both 2012 and 2013 and earned the NCAA Top Ten Award for her performance on the court, in the classroom and community.

Right: Gitte Ostermann (top) was a three-time All-Big 12 pick and led NU to its first-ever NCAA Tournament team appearance in 2005. Imke Reimers (bottom) was a two-time CoSIDA Academic All-American at Nebraska and earned a prestigious NCAA Postgraduate Scholarship in 2008.
