The Nebraska softball team travels to Piscataway, N.J., this weekend for a three-game Big Ten series against the Rutgers Scarlet Knights at the Rutgers Softball Complex.

The Rutgers series is the first of two consecutive Big Ten road series for the Huskers. Including this weekend, three of the four Big Ten series between Nebraska and Rutgers have been played in Piscataway. The Huskers hold a 5-2 record at the Rutgers Softball Complex, but the Scarlet Knights have won the last two meetings in Piscataway.

Nebraska brings a 23-15 record into the series, and the Huskers sit in fourth place in the Big Ten standings. Rutgers is 25-16 overall and in sixth place in the Big Ten standings (7-4). Nebraska is coming off a series loss at home last weekend to Penn State. The Nittany Lions hit a game-winning two-run homer in the sixth inning of game one before hitting a game-tying two-run homer in the seventh inning of game three, which they won in 10 innings.

This weekend's matchup pits two of the Big Ten's best sluggers against each other. Rutgers' Morgan Smith leads the Big Ten with 30 extra-base-hits and 17 home runs, while Nebraska's Billie Andrews ranks second in the conference with 25 extra-base hits and 14 homers.

Fans can watch all three games this weekend with a subscription to Big Ten+, with subscriptions starting at $9.99 per month. A free radio broadcast of every game of the series - and every game this season - will be available on Huskers.com or the official Huskers app.

LEADING OFF

- This weekend will mark Nebraska's third conference series in Piscataway while Rutgers has come to Lincoln just once.
- Nebraska is averaging 6.0 runs per game this season. Only twice in program history (2015 and 2022) has a Husker team averaged 6.0 runs per game.
- Nebraska is tied for the Big Ten lead and ranks eighth nationally with 70 doubles.
- The Huskers rank ninth nationally with 21 double plays this season.
- NU leads the Big Ten with 116 extra-base hits. Individually, Billie Andrews ranks second in the Big Ten with 25 extra-base hits behind Rutgers' Morgan Smith (30).
- Nebraska has won four games when trailing after six innings this season, its most such wins in a season this century.
- Billie Andrews needs one more home run to become the first player in school history to have three seasons with 15 or more home runs.
- Billie Andrews and Sydney Gray are the only players to win multiple Big Ten Player of the Week awards this season.
- Brooke Andrews enters this weekend's series with 99 career RBIs.
- Kaylin Kinney is one of four pitchers to rank in the top 25 nationally in victories and saves.

HUSKERS TO WATCH

HUSKERS SHOWING COMEBACK ABILITY IN 2024

Nebraska has shown a knack for coming from behind this season. The Huskers have trailed in 14 of their 23 wins, including eight times when Nebraska came back from a multi-run deficit.

- The Huskers have won four times when trailing after six innings this season. Nebraska is 4-9 when trailing after six innings this season after a 3-74 record in the previous five seasons.
- Nebraska's four wins this season when trailing after six innings match the 2016 team for the most wins in a season when trailing after six innings since at least 2000.
