The Nebraska softball team will play at home for the first time in more than two weeks Tuesday when the Huskers host the Iowa Hawkeyes for a doubleheader at Bowlin Stadium.

First pitch for game one is at 4 p.m. with game two set to start 30 minutes following game one. Tickets for Tuesday's game can be purchased at huskers.com/softball, calling 1-800-8-BIG-RED or at the Bowlin Stadium ticket office beginning one hour prior to first pitch.

Fans can also watch both games of the doubleheader live on the Big Ten Network or the Fox Sports app. A free radio broadcast of Tuesday's doubleheader - and every game this season - will be available on Huskers.com or the official Huskers app.

The Huskers are coming off a 2-4 road trip that included a series win at Rutgers and a winless series at Michigan last weekend. NU has lost three straight games, just the second time this season Nebraska has lost more than two games in a row.

Two of Nebraska's three losses at Michigan last week were one-run defeats. Close games have been a common theme for the Huskers in conference play even with three run-rule victories. Four of Nebraska's eight Big Ten losses have been by a single run while seven of the Huskers' 14 conference contests have been one-run games (3-4 record). Nebraska has also played five extra-inning games in Big Ten play (3-2 record), with at least one game going to extra innings in each of the Huskers' first five conference series.

LEADING OFF

- Six of Nebraska's 24 players (25 percent of the roster) are out for the season with an injury (list on page 6).
- NU is 3rd nationally with 27 double plays.
- Seven of Nebraska's 14 Big Ten games have been one-run games (3-4 record).
- Only 18 players in the 14-team Big Ten Conference have 20 extra-base hits, and three of those players are Huskers.

- The Huskers have won eight of the nine Big Ten meetings against Iowa in Lincoln.
- Eight of the last 10 games in the series have been played in Iowa City.
- NU is No. 49 in this week's NCAA RPI.
- Billie Andrews is two home runs shy of becoming the sixth player in Big Ten history with 60 career home runs.
- Billie Andrews is expected to make her 200th career start - all at shortstop - in game one on Tuesday.
- Billie Andrews and Sydney Gray are the only players to win multiple Big Ten Player of the Week awards this season.
- Katelyn Canada is expected to make her 100th career start - all at second base - in game one on Tuesday.

OFFENSE RANKS HIGHLY IN SCHOOL HISTORY

Nebraska boasts one of the top offenses in school history this season. The Huskers rank sixth nationally in doubles per game, 30th in home runs per game and 35th in scoring.

- Nebraska's 80 doubles already rank sixth in school history. The Huskers are on pace for 96 doubles, which would break the school record of 94 doubles set in 1995 and matched in 2023.
- Nebraska owns a .482 slugging percentage that is on pace to rank fifth in school history.
- The Huskers are averaging 5.9 runs per game. That currently ranks as the third-highest scoring average in school history. Only twice in program history has Nebraska averaged 6.0 runs per game: 2015 (6.9 runs per game) and 2022 (6.0 runs per game).
- Nebraska has totaled 133 extra-base hits and is on pace for 160 extra-base hits this season. That extra-base hit total would rank fourth in school history.

KINNEY SHOULDERING BIG WORKLOAD IN THE CIRCLE

Kaylin Kinney has pitched in 33 of Nebraska's 44 games (75 percent), ranking 17th nationally in appearances. Kinney has pitched in 15 of Nebraska's last 17 games and in 12 of the Huskers' 14 Big Ten Conference games. She has started 15 games and thrown 130.2 innings this season after combining for 14 starts and 114.1 innings in her first three seasons.

- Kinney is 15-12 this season with four saves. She has earned either the win of the save in 19 of Nebraska's 25 victories. Kinney has been involved in the decision in 14 of Nebraska's last 16 games, posting a 7-4 record with three saves during that stretch.
- Kinney is one of only eight Division I pitchers with at least 15 wins and four saves this season.

BILLIE ANDREWS BREAKS HUSKER HOME RUN RECORD

Billie Andrews ranks 11th nationally in home runs per game (0.4) with 15 homers in 40 games. She is Nebraska's all-time home run leader with 58 career homers.

- Andrews hit the record-breaking 55th home run of her career against Illinois on March 22. Nebraska's previous home run record was 54, set by Taylor Edwards (2011-14).
- Andrews has also tied another home run record. She has seven games with multiple homers in her career, tying Tristen Edwards (2017-21) for the most multi-homer games in NU history.
- Andrews has 15 home runs this season. She is the first Husker to hit 15 or more home runs in three different seasons and just the second to have two 15-homer seasons.
- Andrews ranks 12th among all active Division I players with 58 career home runs.

BILLIE ANDREWS BECOMES SECOND HUSKER IN 40-40 CLUB

Billie Andrews has joined Jennifer Lizama as the only players in program history to hit 40 career home runs and steal 40 career bases. With three more stolen bases, Andrews would become the first Husker with 50 career home runs and 50 career stolen bases.

- Nationally, there are only nine active Division I players with 40 career home runs and 40 career stolen bases. Of those nine, Andrews is one of only four players who has played her entire career in a power conference.
- With three more stolen bases, Andrews would become just the fourth active player with 50 career home runs and 50 career stolen bases. The only three active players with 50 career homers and steals entering this week are: Addison Barnard (Wichita State), Kiki Milloy (Tennessee) and Karli Spaid (Miami [Ohio]).
