NAIL BITERS FOR THE BIG RED

Nebraska has become accustomed to playing close games this season. The Huskers have played 16 games decided by one run (35 percent of their schedule)

- Nebraska's 16 one-run games this season are its most since NU played 17 one-run games during the 2016 season. The last time Nebraska played more than 17 one-run games in a season was 2013, when the Huskers played 18 games decided by one run.
- The Huskers are 10-6 in one-run games this season. The last time Nebraska won more than 10 one-run games in a season was 2016 (11). NU has not won more than 11 one-run games in a season since 2007 (15 one-run wins).
- Nebraska has also played nine extra-inning games this season, which matches the total of extra-inning games the Huskers played in the 2022 and 2023 seasons combined.
- The nine extra-inning games for Nebraska this season are its most since the 1982 team - of which Rhonda Revelle was a member - played 11 extra-inning games.
- Nebraska is 5-4 in extra innings this season. The five extra-inning wins are the most by a Husker team since the 2007 squad went 6-2 in extra-inning games.
- In 16 Big Ten games this season, Nebraska has played nine one-run games. The Huskers are 5-4 in one-run games during the conference season.
- The Huskers have also played six extra-inning games in their first 16 conference games. Nebraska is 4-2 in extra innings in Big Ten play.
- In each of Nebraska's first six Big Ten series - including Tuesday's doubleheader against Iowa - at least one game has gone to extra innings in every series.

HUSKERS SHOWING COMEBACK ABILITY IN 2024

Nebraska has shown a knack for coming from behind this season. The Huskers have trailed in 16 of their 27 wins, including nine times when Nebraska came back from a multi-run deficit.

- The Huskers have won four times when trailing after six innings this season. Nebraska is 4-11 when trailing after six innings in 2024 after a 3-74 record in the previous five seasons.
- Nebraska's four wins this season when trailing after six innings match the 2016 team for the most wins when trailing after six innings since at least 2000.

TAYLOR EDWARDS TO HAVE HER JERSEY RETIRED ON SATURDAY

Nebraska will retire the No. 12 jersey of Taylor Edwards in a post-game ceremony on Saturday. Edwards will become the sixth Husker to have her jersey retired.

- Edwards was a four-year starting catcher from 2011 to 2014. A three-time all-conference performer, Edwards earned third-team All-America accolades as a freshman in 2011, when she was one of 25 finalists for the USA Softball Player of the Year Award.
- Edwards earned All-America recognition again as a senior in 2014, when she was named a first-team All-American. Edwards was just the sixth Husker to be named a first-team All-American. She was also chosen as the nation's top catcher as a senior, becoming the first Husker to win the Diamond Sports/NFCA Division I Catcher of the Year award.
- Edwards ended her career with 17 school records and a pair of NCAA records. The national records she held included most grand slams in a game (2 in 2013) and most consecutive games with a home run (6 in 2011). Edwards ended her time at Nebraska with Husker career records with 54 home runs (since passed by Billie Andrews), four grand slams, 150 walks and 39 hit-by-pitches. She also owned three Husker season records (walks, hit-by-pitches and grand slams) and three game records (runs, walks, RBIs and hit-by-pitches).
- In her career, Edwards hit .327 with 220 hits, 177 runs, 41 doubles, 54 home runs, 202 RBIs and 150 walks. She posted a .471 on-base percentage and a .629 slugging percentage.
