The Nebraska softball team travels to Minneapolis this weekend for a three-game series against Minnesota to close out the regular season. Friday's opener will start at 6 p.m. with Saturday's game slated for a 2 p.m. first pitch and Sunday's finale set for Noon.

Nebraska (27-21) and Minnesota (26-22) are both battling to be one of the four teams that receives a bye for next week's Big Ten Tournament. The Gophers enter the final weekend in fourth place in the Big Ten standings with a 12-8 conference record. The Huskers are just a half game behind in fifth place with a 10-8 Big Ten record.

It should be a close series as Nebraska and Minnesota are similar on paper. Both teams boast one of the top offenses in the Big Ten. The Huskers are hitting .290 as a team and average 5.7 runs per game while the Gophers are batting .292 and score an average of 6.1 runs per game. Nebraska has hit 86 doubles and 52 home runs while Minnesota has totaled 83 doubles and hit 51 home runs.

In the circle, Minnesota's team ERA of 4.22 is nearly identical to Nebraska's 4.26 ERA, and the Gophers allowed 4.8 runs per game compared to 4.9 runs per game by the Huskers. The teams are also the top two fielding teams in the Big Ten as Minnesota leads the league with a .972 fielding percentage and Nebraska ranks second, fielding at a .971 clip.

The first two games of the series will air on the Big Ten Network while Sunday's final game can be seen with a subscription to Big Ten+, with subscriptions starting at $9.99 a month.

A BATTLE FOR A BIG TEN TOURNAMENT BYE

Heading into the final weekend of the Big Ten season, no team has been officially eliminated from the Big Ten Tournament and nine teams are still in contention for a top four seed and a first-round bye at the conference tournament.

- Northwestern and Michigan have already clinched two of the four byes in next week's Big Ten Tournament. The Wildcats and Wolverines are guaranteed to be the No. 1 and No. 2 seeds, although which team will be the top seed is still undetermined.
- Rutgers, Minnesota, Nebraska, Indiana, Penn State, Purdue and Ohio State are all still in contention for the final two byes, although the best the Buckeyes could finish is a tie for fourth place, where the Big Ten Tournament seeds would be sorted out via tiebreakers.
- Nebraska must win this weekend's series in order to be in contention for a top four seed.
- A sweep this weekend and Nebraska would be guaranteed to be either the No. 3 or No. 4 seed at the Big Ten Tournament.
- A 2-1 series victory would put Nebraska in strong position for a top four seed but would not guarantee the Huskers a top-four seed. With a series win, the Huskers would fall below the No. 4 seed only if either Indiana swept Northwestern or Purdue swept Michigan State.

NEBRASKA'S PATH TO A BIG TEN TOURNAMENT BYE

Seed	NEB vs. MINN	Other Results Needed to Secure Seed
No. 3	3-0	Rutgers loses at least 1 game to Penn St.
No. 3	2-1	Rutgers goes 1-2 AND Indiana & Purdue lose at least 1 game
No. 4	3-0	Rutgers sweeps series against Penn St.
No. 4	2-1	Indiana, Penn St. & Purdue all lose at least 1 game

Note: The above scenarios are unofficial and assume all games are played this weekend

HUSKERS HAVE FACED BIG TEN'S TOUGHEST SCHEDULE

The fact that Nebraska enters the final weekend in a strong position to secure a top four seed at the Big Tournament is a testament to the toughness and fight the Huskers have shown this season. Not only has Nebraska remained near the top of the Big Ten standings while playing most of the conference schedule with 25 percent of its roster sidelined with injuries, the Huskers have also played the Big Ten's toughest schedule.

- In Wednesday's NCAA RPI ranking, Nebraska had the No. 38 strength of schedule in the country. The Huskers have faced the toughest schedule this season of any Big Ten team according to the RPI, as Purdue ranks second with a No. 43 strength of schedule.
- In conference play, Nebraska and Ohio State are the only Big Ten team who have played - or will play - each of the top four teams in the current conference standings.
- The Huskers not only played - or will play - each of the current top four Big Ten teams, nine of their 11 games against those opponents were on the road. Nebraska hosted only Northwestern in its four series against the top four teams but the third game of that series was unable to be completed after Nebraska built a 5-0 lead after three innings.
- On the flip side, NU played only four games against the current bottom four teams in the conference standings. Maryland and Nebraska are the only two teams who have played - or will play - fewer than five games against the bottom four teams in the Big Ten standings.
- Nebraska's eight Big Ten opponents - including Minnesota - boast an 87-71 record in conference play entering this weekend. For comparison's sake, the Golden Gophers' eight conference opponents enter the weekend with a combined 66-91 record in Big Ten play.

BIG RED COMEBACKS ON DISPLAY IN 2024

Nebraska has shown a knack for coming from behind this season. The Huskers have trailed in 16 of their 27 wins, including nine times when Nebraska came back from a multi-run deficit. The Huskers' largest comeback this season has been five runs, twice.

- The Huskers have won four times when trailing after six innings this season. Nebraska is 4-12 when trailing after six innings in 2024 after a 3-74 record in the previous five seasons combined.
- Nebraska's four wins this season when trailing after six innings are its most since the 2016 team also won four times when trailing after six innings. Another win when trailing after six innings would give Nebraska its most such wins in a since at least the start of this century.
- Twice NU has won on a walk-off home run when trailing in the bottom of the seventh inning.

NAIL BITERS FOR THE BIG RED

Not surprisingly given its tough schedule, Nebraska has become accustomed to playing close games. The Huskers have played 17 games decided by one run (35 percent of their schedule).

- Nebraska's 17 one-run games are its most in 11 seasons since the 2013 Huskers played 18 games decided by one run - in 13 more games than this year's team.
- The Huskers are 10-7 in games decided by one run, its most one-run wins in a season since 2007, when the Huskers were 15-10 in one-run games.
- Nebraska has also played nine extra-inning games this season, which matches the total of extra-inning games the Huskers played in the 2022 and 2023 seasons combined.
- The nine extra-inning games for Nebraska this season are its most since the 1982 team - of which Rhonda Revelle was a member - played 11 extra-inning games.
- Nebraska is 5-4 in extra innings this season. The five extra-inning wins are the most by a Husker team since the 2007 squad went 6-2 in extra-inning games.
- Ten of Nebraska's 18 Big Ten games have been decided by one run (56 percent). The Huskers are 5-5 in one-run games during the conference season.
- The Huskers have also played six extra-inning games in their first 18 conference games. Nebraska is 4-2 in extra innings in Big Ten play.

OFFENSE RANKS HIGHLY IN SCHOOL HISTORY

Nebraska boasts one of the top offenses in school history this season. The Huskers are also tied for the national lead with an average of 1.8 doubles per game.

- Nebraska's 86 doubles already rank fourth in school history. The Huskers are on pace for 93 doubles, which would be one shy of the school record (94).
- The Huskers are averaging 5.7 runs per game. That currently ranks as the fourth-highest scoring average in school history. Nebraska has a chance to become just the third team in school history to average 6.0 runs per game, joining the 2015 (6.9 runs per game) and 2022 (6.0 runs per game) teams.
- Nebraska has totaled 143 extra-base hits and is on pace for 155 extra-base hits this season. That extra-base hit total would rank fourth in school history.
- Nebraska owns a .477 slugging percentage that is on pace to rank fifth in school history.

Two of the nation's top shortstops will be on the field this weekend in Minneapolis in Nebraska senior Billie Andrews and Minnesota sophomore Jess Oakland.

- On Wednesday, Softball America released its updated list of the top 10 shortstops in the country and Oakland came in at No. 2 on the list while Andrews was No. 4.

BILLIE ANDREWS NAMED NU'S FEMALE STUDENT-ATHLETE OF THE YEAR

Billie Andrews won Nebraska's most coveted award at the Huskers' annual recognition banquet on Sunday when she was named the 2023-24 Nebraska Female Student-Athlete of the Year. With the honor, Andrews will be the Huskers' Big Ten Medal of Honor recipient this season.

- Andrews is just the third softball player to be named the Female Student-Athlete of the Year in the 34 years the award has existed. The other softball players to win the honor were Mattie Fowler (2016) and Jenny Smith (1998).
- Andrews owns the distinction of being chosen as both the Nebraska Female Athlete of the Year (2022) and the Female Student-Athlete of the Year (2024). She joins volleyball player Mikaela Foecke and diver Abigail Knapton as the only three women to win both awards.

YOUNG HUSKERS SWINGING HOT BATS

Nebraska's regular starting lineup features five juniors and seniors. But recently, it's been two Husker freshmen and one sophomore who have stood out at the plate.

- Over the past 10 games, the only three Huskers hitting .300 are freshmen Emmerson Cope and Samantha Bland and sophomore Katelyn Caneda. Together, that trio has combined for seven doubles, six homers and 19 RBIs while hitting .349. The rest of the Husker roster has produced nine doubles, four home runs and 25 RBIs with a .245 average.

NEBRASKA BY THE NUMBERS

65 NCAA TOURNAMENT WINS
Nebraska has won 65 games in its 26 NCAA Tournament appearances (65-56). The 65 postseason wins rank 20th in NCAA history.

30 ACADEMIC ALL-AMERICANS
Huskers have combined to earn 30 Academic All-America honors, a total that ranks third among all Division I softball programs.

29 ALL-AMERICANS
A total of 18 Huskers have combined for 29 All-America awards, including seven multi-time All-Americans.

26 NCAA TOURNAMENTS
The Huskers have made 26 appearances in the NCAA Tournament, including 13 straight from 1995 to 2007. Nebraska's 26 postseason appearances rank 14th in NCAA history.

23 REVELLE ALL-AMERICANS
Rhonda Revelle has guided 15 players to a total of 23 All-America awards in her first 31 seasons as Nebraska's head coach.

20 CONFERENCE TITLES
Nebraska has won a total of 20 conference championships. The Huskers won 12 Big Eight titles, six Big 12 crowns and have captured a pair of Big Ten titles.

15 TOP-25 RANKINGS
Nebraska has been ranked in the final NFCA poll in 15 of the 29 years the poll has existed. The Huskers were one of only six teams nationally to be ranked in the final poll in each of the first 12 years it existed (1995 to 2006).

14 REVELLE ACADEMIC ALL-AMERICANS
Rhonda Revelle has produced 14 academic All-Americans at Nebraska. That total ranks fourth among all active Division I softball head coaches.

7 WCWS APPEARANCES
Nebraska has advanced to the Women's College World Series seven times to rank 15th in NCAA history.

4 SOFTBALL OLYMPIANS
Four former Huskers have competed in the Olympics, combining for five Olympic Games. A fifth Husker (Taylor Edwards) was a 2020 Olympic alternate for Team USA.

BILLIE ANDREWS BREAKS HUSKER HOME RUN RECORD

Billie Andrews ranks 23rd nationally in home runs per game (0.3) with 15 homers in 44 games. She is Nebraska's all-time home run leader with 58 career homers.

- Andrews hit the record-breaking 55th home run of her career against Illinois on March 22. Nebraska's previous home run record was 54, set by Taylor Edwards (2011-14).
- Andrews has also tied another home run record. She has seven games with multiple homers in her career, tying Tristen Edwards (2017-21) for the most multi-homer games in NU history.
- Andrews has 15 home runs this season. She is the first Husker to hit 15 or more home runs in three different seasons and just the second to have two 15-homer seasons.
- Andrews ranks 14th among all active Division I players with 58 career home runs.

BILLIE ANDREWS JOINS 40-40 CLUB & NEARS 50-50 MARK

Billie Andrews has joined Jennifer Lizama as the only players in program history to hit 40 career home runs and steal 40 career bases. With two more stolen bases, Andrews would become the first Husker with 50 career home runs and 50 career stolen bases.

- Nationally, there are only nine active Division I players with 40 career home runs and 40 career stolen bases. Of those nine, Andrews is one of only four players who has played her entire career in a power conference.
- With two more stolen bases, Andrews would become just the fourth active player with 50 career home runs and 50 career stolen bases. The only three active players with 50 career homers and steals entering this week were: Addison Barnard (Wichita State), Kiki Milloy (Tennessee) and Karli Spaid (Miami [Ohio]).

BILLIE ANDREWS IN THE BIG TEN RECORD BOOK

Billie Andrews' production at the plate is leaving its mark in the Big Ten record book. Andrews already finds herself on the Big Ten's all-time home runs list and she is also looking for a place on the Big Ten's career slugging percentage top 10.

- Andrews' 58 career home runs rank sixth in Big Ten history. Andrews is on pace to finish her career with 60 home runs. If she reaches the mark, she would become just the sixth player in Big Ten history to hit 60 career home runs.
- Andrews owns a .669 career slugging percentage and it would take a .678 slugging percentage to move into 10th place in Big Ten history.

BILLIE ANDREWS WITH MORE CAREER HITS THAN GAMES PLAYED

Billie Andrews has produced 230 hits in only 203 career games. She ranks eighth all-time at Nebraska in hits and has played fewer career games than every player ahead of her on the list.

- Andrews is guaranteed to become just the seventh four-year Husker to finish with more hits than games played. Andrews has 26 more hits than games played, a difference that ranks third in school history behind multi-time All-Americans Ali Viola and Tobin Echo-Hawk.
