The Nebraska softball team begins postseason play this week when the Huskers travel to Iowa, which is hosting the 2024 Big Ten Softball Tournament at Bob Pearl Field.

The Huskers ended the regular season with a 29-22 record and finished fourth in the Big Ten Conference with a 12-9 record. Nebraska earned the No. 4 seed and a first-round bye for the Big Ten Tournament. The Huskers will open play on Thursday at 1:30 p.m. in a quarterfinal matchup against either No. 5 seed Minnesota or No. 12 seed Illinois.

Nebraska has had success at the Big Ten Tournament since it was brought back in 2022 following a two-year absence due to the pandemic. The Huskers won the 2022 Big Ten Tournament and made the semifinals at last year's tournament. Nebraska and Northwestern are the only teams who have made the Big Ten Tournament semifinals each of the past two years.

Nebraska has won 10 conference tournaments in school history, including six in the Big Eight, three in the Big 12 and one in the Big Ten. The Huskers have made the championship game 15 times in their 39 all-time conference tournament appearances in program history, including two championship game appearances in their first nine Big Ten Tournaments.

Every game of the 2024 Big Ten Tournament will air live on the Big Ten Network. A free radio broadcast of every Nebraska game will also be available on Huskers.com and the official Nebraska Huskers app.

GRAY TIES RECORD WITH THIRD B1G PLAYER-OF-THE-WEEK AWARD

Sydney Gray was named the final Big Ten Player of the Week of the 2024 season on Monday. Gray was honored for the third time this season, which ties for the most player-of-the-week honors in a single season in Big Ten history.

- Gray is just the eighth player in Big Ten history to be named the Big Ten Player of the Week three times in one season. She is only the third player to win the award three times in a season since the Big Ten expanded to 12 teams beginning with the 2012 season.
- Gray is a four-time Big Ten Player of the Week in her career, which ties for the 10th-most awards in conference history.
- Gray was honored this week after an outstanding series at Minnesota last weekend, when she helped the Huskers to a 2-1 series victory and a top-four conference finish. Gray went 6-for-11 (.545) in the three-game series with two home runs and seven RBIs. She had at least two hits, one run and one RBI in each game of the series.
- In game one, Gray homered as part of a 2-for-4 day in Nebraska's 7-6 come-from-behind victory. The next day, Gray hit the go-ahead three-run homer in another comeback win and finished 2-for-3 with five RBIs. In the series finale, Gray went 2-for-4 with a run and an RBI.
- Led by Gray, Nebraska took home five player-of-the-week awards in 13 weeks this season. While Gray was a three-time winner of the award, Billie Andrews was named the Big Ten Player of the Week twice.

BIG RED COMEBACKS ON DISPLAY IN 2024

Nebraska has shown a knack for coming from behind this season. The Huskers have trailed in 18 of their 29 wins, including 11 times when Nebraska came back from a multi-run deficit. The Huskers' largest comeback this season has been five runs, twice.

- The Huskers have won four times when trailing after six innings this season. Nebraska is 4-13 when trailing after six innings in 2024 after a 3-74 record in the previous five seasons combined.
- Nebraska's four wins this season when trailing after six innings are its most since the 2016 team also won four times when trailing after six innings. Another win when trailing after six innings would give Nebraska its most such wins in a since at least the start of this century.
- Twice NU has won on a walk-off home run when trailing in the bottom of the seventh inning.

NAIL BITERS FOR THE BIG RED

Not surprisingly given its tough schedule, Nebraska has become accustomed to playing close games. The Huskers have played 18 games decided by one run (35 percent of their schedule).

- Nebraska's 18 one-run games are its most in 17 seasons since the 2007 Huskers played 25 games decided by one run.
- The Huskers are 11-7 in games decided by one run, its most one-run wins in a season since 2007, when the Huskers were 15-10 in one-run games.
- Eleven of Nebraska's 21 Big Ten games were decided by one run (52 percent). The Huskers were 6-5 in one-run games during the conference season.
- Nebraska has also played nine extra-inning games this season, which matches the total of extra-inning games the Huskers played in the 2022 and 2023 seasons combined.
- The nine extra-inning games for Nebraska this season are its most since the 1982 team - of which Rhonda Revelle was a member - played 11 extra-inning games.
- Nebraska is 5-4 in extra innings this season. The five extra-inning wins are the most by a Husker team since the 2007 squad went 6-2 in extra-inning games.
- The Huskers went 4-2 in extra innings during the Big Ten season.

NEBRASKA RANKS THIRD IN THE BIG TEN IN EXTRA-BASE HITS

Nebraska has hit 89 doubles, five triples and 55 home runs for a total of 149 extra-base hits. The Huskers rank second in the conference in doubles and third in extra-base hits.

- Nebraska is one just 11 teams in the country with 80 doubles and 50 home runs.

HUSKERS HAVE FACED BIG TEN'S TOUGHEST SCHEDULE

The fact that Nebraska earned a bye at the Big Ten Tournament is a testament to the toughness and fight the Huskers have shown this season. Not only did Nebraska finish fourth in the Big Ten standings while playing most of the conference schedule with 25 percent of its roster sidelined with injuries, the Huskers have also played the Big Ten's toughest schedule this year.

- In Monday's NCAA RPI ranking, Nebraska had the No. 37 strength of schedule in the country. The Huskers have faced the toughest schedule this season of any Big Ten team according to the RPI, as Penn State ranks second with a No. 44 strength of schedule.
- In conference play, Nebraska played each of the other top five seeds (Northwestern, Michigan, Rutgers and Minnesota). Ohio State and Michigan State were the only other Big Ten teams to play series against each of the top three seeds, while Nebraska and Ohio State were the only Big Ten teams to play series against four of the top five seeds.
- The Huskers not only played each of the other top five Big Ten teams, nine of their 11 games against those opponents were on the road.

OFFENSE RANKS HIGHLY IN SCHOOL HISTORY

Nebraska boasts one of the top offenses in school history this season. The Huskers also rank sixth nationally in doubles and 32nd in home runs.

- Nebraska's 89 doubles rank fourth in school history. The Huskers need five doubles to tie the school record (94) and six to set a new program record for doubles in a season.
- The Huskers are averaging 5.8 runs per game. That currently ranks as the fourth-highest scoring average in school history. Nebraska has a chance to become just the third team in school history to average 6.0 runs per game, joining the 2015 (6.9 runs per game) and 2022 (6.0 runs per game) teams.
- Nebraska has totaled 149 extra-base hits and is on pace for 152 extra-base hits this season. That extra-base hit total would rank fourth in school history.
- Nebraska owns a .480 slugging percentage that is on pace to rank fifth in school history.

HUSKERS HIT BY INJURY BUG

Nebraska has had its share of adversity this season, as the Huskers have dealt with multiple injuries. Six Huskers have suffered season-ending injuries and a total of 12 players have missed at least one game this season due to injury, including six returning all-region players.

- Abbie Squier, a returning All-Big Ten and all-region selection, is out for the season following offseason surgery. Squier had been the Huskers' starting right fielder the past two seasons and was a first-team All-Big Ten selection in 2022.
- Jordy Bahl suffered a knee injury in the first game that required season-ending surgery. A first-year transfer from Oklahoma, Bahl was a first-team All-American in both 2022 and 2023. She was the Big 12 Pitcher of the Year both seasons after going 44-2 with a 0.99 ERA.
- Caitlin Olensky suffered a season-ending injury against Illinois on March 22. She owns Nebraska's lowest ERA this season by nearly a full run.

BILLIE ANDREWS JOINS 40-40 CLUB & NEARS 50-50 MARK

Billie Andrews has joined Jennifer Lizama as the only players in program history to hit 40 career home runs and steal 40 career bases. With her next stolen bases, Andrews would become the first Husker with 50 career home runs and 50 career stolen bases.

- There are only nine active players with 40 career homers and 40 career stolen bases. Of those nine, Andrews is one of only four who has played her entire career in a power conference.

BILLIE ANDREWS NAMED NU'S FEMALE STUDENT-ATHLETE OF THE YEAR

ANDREWS LOOKING TO BECOME 4-TIME ALL-CONFERENCE PICK

Billie Andrews has earned All-Big Ten honors in each of her first three seasons. She was the only freshman to be a first-team all-conference selection in 2021. Andrews was a second-team All-Big Ten pick as a sophomore in 2022 before again earning first-team accolades in 2023.
