BROADCAST RIGHTS

The University of Nebraska-Lincoln and the Playfly Huskers Radio Network own exclusive radio broadcast rights to all of the University of Nebraska women's basketball games. Other than the Huskers Radio Network and the University of Nebraska student station (KRNU), the only stations or networks that will be allowed to broadcast Nebraska games from the Pinnacle Bank Arena are those that have rights to broadcast games played by the opposing team. All radio stations and networks broadcasting from the Pinnacle Bank Arena must be approved by the University and are subject to a rights fee. Any representative of a radio station or network that has not purchased such rights shall not air live game action or description of any game while it is in progress, nor shall such representatives air tape-recorded or live commentary of Nebraska coaches or players for one hour before or after a game. Only stations that have purchased broadcast rights may install telephones on press row, or use telephones on press row for reporting on games. By accepting media credentials, representatives of stations and networks that have not purchased broadcast rights signify their agreement to the above stipulations.

Any media member wishing to place a telephone on press row should contact Alex Malone, Pinnacle Bank Arena by email at jmack@smglincoln.com or by calling (402) 904-5660. He can also be reached by fax at (402) 904-5922. Please contact Mack at least two weeks before the game.

BROADCAST TELEPHONE LINES

Media are welcome to have their own telephone lines installed on press row and may do so by contacting Pinnacle Bank Arena's Joe Mack at amalone@pinnaclebankarena.com or by calling (402) 904-5660. The Huskers Radio Network installs phone lines for visiting official broadcasters or teams and charges a fee for the use of those lines for non-conference games (Big Ten official stations receive the use of the lines free of charge as part of a cooperative).

PLAYFLY HUSKERS RADIO NETWORK

The Playfly Huskers Radio Network was established Oct. 1, 2022, and is headquartered in the production studio on Memorial Stadium's East side. Playfly became Nebraska's exclusive multimedia rights holder, signing a 15-year agreement.

Nebraska's partnership with Playfly leverages the company's multimedia rights expertise and taps into its expansive suite of marketing and media solutions to further grow the Huskers brand regionally, nationally and globally. Together, Nebraska and Playfly work to maximize traditional MMR assets, such as in-venue signage and broadcast feature elements, in addition to leveraging Playfly's full capabilities to enhance Nebraska's digital footprint and fan experience. General manager Jason Rathe and his staff oversee all sales and sponsorship fulfillment for the Playfly Huskers Radio Network.

Playfly handles the broadcast efforts for Husker football, volleyball, men's and women's basketball, baseball and softball. In addition, the Huskers Radio Network produces Sports Nightly and podcasts. Sports Nightly airs Monday-Friday (6-8 p.m., CT) year-round across the network. During football season, Sports Nightly features a weekly football radio show on Tuesday evenings with Coach Rhule and Husker assistant coaches.

In the state of Nebraska, KXSP AM 590 ESPN (590 AM) and KEZO Z-92 (92.3 FM) serve as Omaha affiliates. KXSP-AM's strong signal reaches a good portion of the Midwest day and night, including parts of Iowa, Minnesota, Missouri and Kansas. KBBK (B107.3 FM) and KLIN (1400 AM) serve as the Lincoln affiliates for women's basketball with 98.1 FM also carrying the football broadcast. KRVN (880 AM) is a powerful central Nebraska affiliate that reaches around the state. In addition, the network has several dozen locally based affiliates across Nebraska. All broadcasts are streamed live for free on Huskers.com and the Huskers mobile app.

The on-air talent for Nebraska women's basketball is Matt Coatney, a veteran sportscaster who enters his 24th full season as the play-by-play voice of the Huskers. He also serves as the host of Nebraska football's Big Red Reaction. Jeff Griesch will provide women's basketball color commentary for the 27th season. COMPLIANCE GUIDELINES FOR BOOSTERS

The University of Nebraska Athletic Department takes great pride in abiding by the National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA) and the Big Ten Conference rules and guidelines that govern Division I competition. For the benefit of the many alumni, fans and booster club members who are so active in supporting and assisting the Huskers throughout the year, we would like to remind everyone of a few definitions and rules that apply to all athletic representatives and boosters.

NCAA PRINCIPLES

Institutional Control

It is the responsibility of the University of Nebraska to control its intercollegiate athletic program in compliance with the rules and regulations of the NCAA.

Responsibility

The University of Nebraska's responsibility for the conduct of its program includes responsibility for the actions of its staff members and for the actions of any other individual, booster or organization engaged in activities promoting the athletic interests of the institution.

Compliance

The University of Nebraska must monitor its program to assure compliance and to identify and report to the NCAA instances in which compliance has not been achieved. An institution found to have violated NCAA rules is subject to disciplinary and corrective actions as determined by the NCAA.

Questions and Answers for Fans, Boosters, Alumni and Representatives of Athletic Interests

DEFINITIONS

Q: What is a booster?

A: Someone who belongs to a University of Nebraska athletic booster club; promotes or makes financial donations to the athletic department or a specific Husker team; assists in the recruitment of prospective student-athletes; employs, gives benefits to, or provides services to a student-athlete, a prospective student-athlete or the relative/friends of either.
REPRESENTATIVE OF ATHLETIC INTEREST (I.E. BOOSTERS), NCAA BYLAW 13

Q: Who is a Prospective Student-Athlete?

A: A prospective student-athlete is a student who has started classes for the ninth grade or above, including students in prep schools and junior colleges as well as students who have officially withdrawn from a four-year institution and plan to transfer to another institution. In addition, a student who has not started classes for the ninth grade becomes a prospective student-athlete if the institution or a Nebraska booster provides the individual or the individual's relatives or friends with any financial assistance or benefits that the institution does not provide to prospective students in general. A good rule of thumb is to treat ALL STUDENTS as prospects.

Q: Who is a Student-Athlete?

A: A student-athlete is a student whose enrollment was solicited by a member of the Nebraska athletic staff or other representative of athletic interests with a view toward the student's ultimate participation in the intercollegiate athletic program.

Q: What is Contact?

A: Contact is ANY face-to-face encounter between a prospect, or the prospect's parent or legal guardian, and a Nebraska staff member or athletic representative during which any dialogue occurs.

Q: What is Recruiting?

A: Recruiting is any solicitation of a prospect or a prospect's family member (or guardian) by an institutional staff member or by athletic representative of the institution, for the purpose of securing the prospect's enrollment and ultimate participation in Nebraska's intercollegiate athletic program.

GUIDELINES

Q: Who is a Booster?

A: Someone who belongs to a University of Nebraska athletic booster club; promotes or makes financial donations to the athletic department or a specific Husker team; assists in the recruitment of prospective student-athletes; employs, gives benefits to, or provides services to a student-athlete, a prospective student-athlete or the relative/friends of either.
REPRESENTATIVE OF ATHLETIC INTERESTS (I.E., BOOSTERS), NCAA BYLAW 13

Q: What constitutes impermissible contact by a Booster?

A: Phone calls to prospects (9th to 12th grade) and their relatives placed for recruiting purposes (questions about the athletic program at Nebraska must be directed to the coach); writing, paging, text messages or instant messages to a prospect to encourage Nebraska attendance; contact with a prospect at a high school or club contest; contact with a prospect or his/her coach, principal, or counselor to evaluate the prospect; visiting the prospect's educational institution to pick up videotape or transcripts for evaluation purposes; contacting a prospect to congratulate him/her for signing a National Letter of Intent to attend Nebraska; giving anything of value to a prospect to induce him/her to attend Nebraska; contact of any kind while the prospect is on the Nebraska campus for an official or unofficial visit.
RECRUITING CONTACTS, NCAA BYLAW 13

Q: What are the rules of employment for a student-athlete?

A: A student-athlete may be employed during the academic year or summer vacation period; receive compensation equal to the going rate for similar services in the locale; receive compensation only for work performed; accept employment from more than one employer and earn unlimited income; receive benefits provided to all other employees; teach sport-related individual skill instruction or fee-for-lesson sessions. A student-athlete may not conduct personal sport camps or promote, market, advertise or endorse a commercial business or product.

Only benefits that are authorized by NCAA legislation shall be provided to and accepted by a student-athlete. It is not permissible for a student-athlete to receive a benefit that is the result of a "special" arrangement by an institutional employee, booster, employer or fan.
EMPLOYMENT, NCAA BYLAW 12

Q: What are non-permissible benefits?

A: Free or reduced-fee housing/rent including the use of vacation or seasonal homes; free or reduced-fee meals; loans or cash advances in pay or salary; tuition costs or school supply expenses; gifts or presents of any type regardless of the occasion or purpose; use of telephone for long distance or use of telephone cards and cell phones; free use of any motor vehicle, boat or recreational vehicle; free use of services (i.e., automobile repair, hair care, laundry, copying, faxing, etc.); free or reduced-fee memberships at golf courses, health clubs, etc. (This list is not exhaustive. Only benefits authorized by NCAA legislation shall be provided to and accepted by a student-athlete. It is not permissible for a student-athlete to receive a benefit that is the result of a "special" arrangement by an institutional employee, booster, employer or fan).
BENEFITS AND PREFERENTIAL TREATMENT, NCAA BYLAW 16

Q: What types of promotional activities may the student-athlete be permitted to participate?

A: Charitable, educational or non-profit promotions and events with requested approval from the Athletic Compliance Office prior to the event.

Q: What types of promotional activities are not permissible?

A: Any fundraising activity that supports a high school organization or group that assists prospective-aged students; use of his/her name or picture; or appear to promote or market a commercial business or product.
PROMOTIONAL ACTIVITIES, NCAA BYLAW 12

HUSKERS SHOOT FOR RETURN NCAA TRIP

Three-time All-Big Ten selection Alexis Markowski hopes to cement her place in Husker history while leading Nebraska back to the NCAA Tournament in 2025. The Lisa Leslie Award candidate and first-team all-conference center will contend for All-America honors in an expanded 18-team Big Ten.

Nebraska shoots for its fifth consecutive trip to the postseason in 2024-25, after producing its best season in a decade in 2023-24.

The Huskers ran to the second round of the 2024 NCAA Tournament and finished with a 23-12 overall record after battling their way to the Big Ten Tournament Championship Game.

The Big Red, which finished with an 11-7 regular-season conference mark, reeled off consecutive wins over Purdue, Michigan State and Maryland at the conference tournament, before forcing eventual NCAA runner-up Iowa to overtime at the Target Center in Minneapolis.

Led by first-team All-Big Ten center Alexis Markowski, second-team All-Big Ten guard Jaz Shelley and Big Ten Freshman of the Year Natalie Potts, the Huskers added a victory over Texas A&M in the first round of the NCAA Tournament in Corvallis, Ore.

Although the 2024-25 Huskers must adjust to the loss of Shelley after three outstanding seasons in Lincoln, along with the departures of guards Darian White and Maddie Krull, Nebraska has plenty of reasons for optimism entering a new season in an expanding Big Ten.

Markowski, a two-time Lisa Leslie Award candidate and a three-time preseason first-team All-Big Ten choice, returns to anchor Nebraska inside. A year ago, Markowski led the Big Red with 15.7 points and 10.5 rebounds per game.

One of the Big Ten's most physical post players, the 6-3 Markowski notched 19 double-doubles on the year and enters her fourth season as a Husker starter tied for the school record of 40 career double-doubles with former Nebraska first-team All-Americans Kelsey Griffin and Jordan Hooper.

Markowski is closing in on 1,000 career rebounds and has a legitimate chance of breaking Nebraska's more than 40-year-old school rebounding record held by Janet Smith (1,280) established from 1979 to 1982.

The Huskers should be even more solid inside with the return of Potts. The 6-2 sophomore forward from O'Fallon, Mo., burst onto the Big Ten scene by averaging 10.2 points and 5.5 rebounds while starting all 35 games last season. The Big Ten Freshman of the Year and a unanimous choice to the Big Ten All-Freshman Team, Potts was an eight-time Big Ten Freshman of the Week.

Potts, who spent the offseason expanding her game and adding strength, could play an even greater role in Nebraska's fortunes in 2024-25.

Fellow sophomore Jessica Petrie gives Nebraska more size, depth and experience inside. The 6-2 forward from Gold Coast, Australia played in all 35 games last year alongside Markowski and Potts, averaging 3.8 points and 2.0 rebounds per contest.

While Nebraska features three known quantities inside, competition in the Husker backcourt is more open. However, the Big Red guards could be more versatile, explosive and deep than last year's group.

Shelley's 13.4 points, 4.3 rebounds and 5.7 assists per game will be difficult for one Husker to replace. Her leadership, energy and stamina were also cornerstones of Nebraska's success down the stretch last season.

But fellow graduate guards Krull and White both battled injuries late last season, which limited their contributions over the final 10 games when Nebraska surged.

Kendall Moriarty stepped into a starting role, while Callin Hake became Nebraska's most consistent guard off the bench.

Logan Nissley also emerged as one of the Big Ten's best young three-point shooters while stepping into a starting role in mid-February.

Nissley went on to join Potts on the Big Ten All-Freshman Team by averaging 7.0 points and 2.1 rebounds per game. She also hit nearly 40 percent of her three-pointers on the season.

Hake, who enters her junior season for the Huskers, added 6.1 points, 2.8 rebounds and 1.9 assists, while knocking down nearly 38 percent of her three-point tries.

Moriarty, a 6-1 senior who has played 98 career games for the Huskers, including 17 starts a year ago, will be expected to supply strong defense.

Kendall Coley, a 6-2 wing who has played 105 games as a Husker, gives Nebraska more versatility while adding another potent three-point threat after knocking down better than 42 percent of her triples last season.

Coach Amy Williams and the Husker staff also went out and found a knock-down three-point shooter from the transfer portal during the offseason. Alberte Rimdal, who was a significant contributor for three seasons at Florida, played 96 career games for the Gators, including 50 starts over the past two years. The senior from Koge, Denmark, hit 33.7 percent of her threes and nearly 90 percent of her free throws while averaging 6.8 points, 1.7 rebounds and 1.6 assists in her three seasons in Gainesville.

In her first season at Florida in 2021-22, Rimdal was the USBWA National Freshman of the Week (Jan. 25, 2022) after going 11-for-12 from three-point range in consecutive games against Alabama, Kentucky and LSU.

BIG RED SET FOR 18-TEAM BIG TEN BATTLE

While those five Huskers will all likely play significant roles in the backcourt, the most anticipated appearances for the guards could come from a pair of Nebraskans.

Redshirt junior Allison Weidner, who helped Nebraska to the 2022 NCAA Tournament before suffering a midseason ACL tear in 2022-23 hopes to make her way back to the starting five after another ACL tear in 2023-24.

The 5-10 guard from Humphrey, Neb., averaged 7.2 points and 3.7 rebounds while starting nine games for the Big Red as a true freshman. She started Nebraska's first 13 games as a sophomore before tearing the ACL in her left knee in the fourth quarter of a triple-overtime win over No. 20 Kansas at Pinnacle Bank Arena (Dec. 21). She averaged 10.2 points, 6.2 rebounds and 2.3 assists in her injury-shortened sophomore season.

After undergoing successful surgery on Jan. 10, 2023 and making nearly a full recovery, Weidner tore the ACL in her right knee in practice on Oct. 13, 2023.

Her recovery has gone well again, and a more seasoned Weidner is chomping at the bit to get back on the court for her beloved Big Red.

Weidner's intelligence, athleticism, rebounding ability and willingness to get to the rim could alter Nebraska's offense in 2024-25. She is also an outstanding defender.

Freshman Britt Prince brings even more Cornhusker State flavor to the backcourt as one of the most highly touted recruits Nebraska has ever produced.

The 5-11 guard out of Elkhorn North High School was one of the top 30 recruits in the nation as a two-time Nebraska High School Player of the Year. The four-time super-stater totaled a Nebraska Class B record 2,491 points while leading Elkhorn North to four consecutive state titles. As a senior, she averaged 27.0 points, 10.3 rebounds, 6.3 assists and 2.9 steals. A lights-out shooter, Prince hit 29-of-40 shots from the field overall, including 10-of-14 threes, and all 16 of her free throw attempts as a junior in the state tournament.

Prince may be counted on to make an immediate impact for the Huskers.

Fellow freshmen Amiah Hargrove and Petra Bozan also could play roles for the Huskers early in their careers.

Hargrove, a 6-2 forward from Christopher, Ill., averaged 28.7 points, 10.7 rebounds, 2.9 steals and 1.9 assists as a high school senior. The three-time Southern Illinois Player of the Year totaled 2,774 points and 1,096 rebounds at Class 1A Christopher High School.

Hargrove's physicality and toughness give her a chance to make the challenging transition to the Big Ten right away.

Bozan is the most recent addition to the Husker roster, arriving on campus the day before fall classes started in August. The 6-3 forward/center from Split, Croatia brings a strong international resume' with her to Lincoln after competing for the Croatian U18 National Team in both 2023 and 2024.

At the 2023 U18 European Championships in Sofia, Bulgaria, Bozan earned a spot on the All-Star Five after averaging 12.4 points, 9.0 rebounds and 3.4 assists.

In the 2024 U18 Women's Eurobasket in Portugal in early August, she averaged 16.1 points, 10.0 rebounds, 1.6 blocks and 1.3 assists.

Kennadi Williams rounds out Nebraska's 2024-25 roster. The 5-4 guard out of Lincoln Southwest High School expects to redshirt as a true freshman after suffering an ACL tear following her senior season of basketball.

Williams, who is the daughter of Husker head coach Amy Williams, was one of the top all-around athletes in the state and will be on the roster of both the Nebraska women's basketball and softball teams in 2024-25.

After beginning the season with Big Ten Women's Basketball Media Day in Chicago (Oct. 2), and a special Opening Night event for men's and women's basketball outside Pinnacle Bank Arena (Oct. 4), the Huskers tip the season on the court with an exhibition game against Doane University at PBA on Sunday, Oct. 27.

The Big Red, which ranked 15th nationally with an average home attendance of 6,088 fans per game a year ago, open the regular season on Monday, Nov. 4, when the Huskers play host to Omaha. Tip time with the Mavs is set for noon, following Nebraska's annual Life Skills Sportsmanship Pep Rally at Pinnacle Bank Arena earlier that morning.

The Huskers continue home action against Southeastern Louisiana (Nov. 9) and Southern (Nov. 12), before traveling to the Sanford Pentagon in Sioux Falls to face off with South Dakota (Nov. 16).

The Big Red return to Lincoln to face North Alabama (Nov. 19), before a key non-conference road battle with Creighton in Omaha (Nov. 22).

The Huskers then begin a five-game home stand by facing Kansas City (Nov. 26) and Lindenwood (Dec. 3), before opening Big Ten Conference action with Minnesota (Dec. 8).

Nebraska continues the stand with non-conference matchups against Tarleton (Dec. 11) and Chattanooga (Dec. 15).

The Huskers head to Atlanta to battle Georgia Tech (Dec. 21) to close non-conference play, before jumping head first into a full slate of Big Ten action at UCLA (Dec. 29) and USC (Jan. 1) in Los Angeles over the holiday break.

Nebraska's 18-game Big Ten schedule, which will feature 15 games against 2024 postseason teams, continues with home contests against Penn State (Jan. 5) and Michigan State (Jan. 8), before traveling to Rutgers (Jan. 12) and Iowa (Jan. 16).

The Huskers are back at PBA for clashes with Wisconsin (Jan. 20) and defending league champion Ohio State (Jan. 26), before back-to-back road games in Indiana against Purdue (Jan. 30) and Indiana (Feb. 2).

Key home games against Michigan (Feb. 6) and Iowa (Feb. 10), will be followed by road tilts at Maryland (Feb. 13) and Illinois (Feb. 16). The Big Red close its home season against Oregon (Feb. 19) and Washington (Feb. 23) before ending the regular season at Northwestern (March 2).

The 2025 Big Ten Tournament moves to Gainbridge Fieldhouse in Indianapolis, March 5-9. The tournament is also set to be held in Indianapolis in 2026.

Natalie Potts, the 2024 Big Ten Freshman of the Year, hopes to give Nebraska one of the strongest and most reliable front courts in the conference as a sophomore in 2024-25.

BIG TEN CONFERENCE

Known as one of intercollegiate sports' most successful undertakings, the Big Ten Conference is home to a lineage of legendary names and an ongoing tradition of developing strong leaders. Even in its infancy, the conference established itself as the preeminent collection of institutions in the nation, where the pursuit of academic excellence prevailed as the definitive goal.

The history of the Big Ten traces back more than 125 years to the Palmer House hotel in Chicago where, on Jan. 11, 1895, Purdue President James H. Smart and leaders from the University of Chicago, Illinois, Michigan, Minnesota, Northwestern and Wisconsin set out to organize and develop principles for the regulation of intercollegiate athletics.

At that meeting, a blueprint for the administration of college athletics under the direction of appointed faculty representatives was outlined. The presidents' first known action "restricted eligibility for athletics to bona fide, full-time students who were not delinquent in their studies." That important legislation, along with other legislation that would follow in the coming years, served as the primary building block for intercollegiate athletics.

On Feb. 8, 1896, one faculty member from each of those seven universities met at the same Palmer House and officially established the fundamentals of the conference, which was officially incorporated as the "Intercollegiate Conference Athletic Association" in 1905.

Indiana and the State University of Iowa became the eighth and ninth members in 1899. In 1908, Michigan briefly withdrew its membership, and in 1912 Ohio State joined the conference, bringing the membership total back to nine. Upon Michigan's return in 1917, the conference was first referred to as the "Big Ten" by media members, a name that was eventually incorporated in 1987.

As the 1900s dawned, faculty representatives established rules for intercollegiate athletics that were novel for the time. As early as 1904, the faculty approved legislation that required eligible athletes to meet entrance requirements and to have completed a full year's work, along with having one year of residence.

In 1901, the first Big Ten Championship event was staged when the outdoor track and field championships were conducted at the University of Chicago. The debut event marked what is now a staple of conference competition. Today, the Big Ten sponsors 28 official sports, 14 for men and 14 for women. Big Ten schools compete in a total of 42 different sports, furthering the conference's commitment to broad-based programming and providing more participation opportunities than any conference in the country.

One of the conference's proudest traditions began in 1902 when Michigan took on Stanford in the Rose Bowl, the nation's first bowl game. Big Ten teams only appeared in Pasadena twice before the conference signed an exclusive contract with the Tournament of Roses in 1946, making it the first bowl game with permanent conference affiliations. But Michigan's appearance in 1902 cultivated a relationship that has endured for more than a century.

Coupling the academic goals set forth by leaders of the charter members of the conference and their steadfast commitment to athletics, the conference instituted the Big Ten Medal of Honor in 1915, the first award to demonstrate support for the educational emphasis placed on intercollegiate athletics. It is awarded annually by each conference institution to one male and one female student of the graduating class who have attained the greatest proficiency in scholarship and athletics. For more than 100 years, it has been the most prestigious honor a Big Ten student-athlete can receive.

In 1922, Major John L. Griffith became the conference's first "Commissioner of Athletics." Griffith was the first of seven men to assume the role of commissioner in the conference's history, followed by Kenneth L. "Tug" Wilson in 1945, Bill Reed in 1961, Wayne Duke in 1971, Jim Delany in 1989, Kevin Warren in 2020, and current commissioner Tony Petitti in 2023.

After nearly 30 years with 10 members, the conference consolidated to nine schools when Chicago formally withdrew its membership in 1946. Michigan State was added to the Big Ten three years later, bringing the number of affiliated conference schools to 10 once again.

In 1955, the Big Ten formulated a revenue-sharing model designed to pool all football television rights of its members and share those proceeds equally. The conference and its members continue to utilize a revenue-sharing model, dividing media rights, bowl payouts and other profits among all institutions.

While academics have always played an integral role in the conference, presidents of the Big Ten member institutions formalized the primacy of academics with the establishment of the Big Ten Academic Alliance (formerly the Committee on Institutional Cooperation) in 1958. The Big Ten Academic Alliance is an academic consortium of all Big Ten universities. Annually, the schools currently constituting the Big Ten Academic Alliance produce over $10 billion in funded research, doubling any other conference.

In one of Duke's first actions as commissioner, he oversaw the adoption of the Big Ten Advisory Commission in 1972, designed to study conference programs and make suggestions which would further Big Ten objectives. The Advisory Commission enlists former students that competed in Big Ten athletics to serve as liaisons to the NCAA's Diversity and Inclusion Department, the Big Ten Student-Athlete Advisory Commission and other organizations.

In 1981, the conference presidents and chancellors endorsed a proposal that enabled universities to affiliate their women's intercollegiate programs with the conference, and the first conference championships for women were staged that fall. The Big Ten was the first conference to voluntarily adopt male and female participation goals after launching its Gender Equity Action Plan in 1992.

In December of 1989, the conference agreed in principle to invite Pennsylvania State University for membership. On June 4, 1990, the Council of Presidents officially voted to integrate Penn State into the conference, giving the Big Ten 11 members.

In 2004, the Big Ten implemented a pilot program of instant replay for college football. Following the season, the conference forwarded replay proposals to the NCAA regarding the future use of the pioneering technology, where it approved country-wide testing in 2005. In 2006, the NCAA approved the use of instant replay for all conferences.

In 2006, Delany announced the creation of the first conference-owned television network, a 20-year agreement with FOX Networks to create the Big Ten Network (BTN). Launched on Aug. 30, 2007, BTN now produces more than 2,200 live events across all platforms each year. The 24/7 network is the ultimate destination for Big Ten fans and alumni across the country and around the world, allowing them to see their favorite teams, regardless of where they live.

On June 11, 2010, the Big Ten Council of Presidents/Chancellors (COP/C) approved a formal membership application by the University of Nebraska, expanding the conference to 12 institutions. Nebraska officially joined the Big Ten on July 1, 2011.

The conference expanded its footprint further in 2012 when the COP/C approved formal membership applications from Maryland and Rutgersy on Nov. 19 and 20, respectively. Maryland and Rutgers became official Big Ten members on July 1, 2014, giving the conference almost 9,500 students participating in intercollegiate athletics and more than 11,000 participation opportunities on 350 teams.

In recent years the Big Ten has worked to meet the educational needs of modern student-athletes to allow them to excel in all areas of their lives. In May of 2020, the conference announced the formation of the Big Ten Mental Health and Wellness Cabinet, featuring representation from all 14 member institutions, as well as sport affiliate members. The goal of the cabinet is to promote optimal mental health for Big Ten student-athletes through a comprehensive, systemic and interdisciplinary approach to establishing mental health programs, while also providing counsel, advice and expertise to the conference office.

In June of 2020 the conference launched the Big Ten Equality Coalition. This group, which features student-athletes, coaches, athletic directors, chancellors, presidents and other members of the Big Ten family from all 14 member institutions, has a stated goal of seeking tangible ways to actively and constructively combat racism and hate around the world, while also empowering student-athletes to express their rights to free speech and peaceful protest. One product of conversations emerging from the coalition was the creation of the Big Ten Voter Registration Initiative. This non-partisan, conference-wide collaboration encourages student-athletes to take part in the electoral process and is led by a Voter Registration Committee that includes representatives from all 14 Big Ten institutions. The Voter Registration Committee has partnered with the National Lawyers' Committee for Civil Rights Under Law to develop educational programming and outreach tools, and to collaborate with other established civic platforms.

On June 30, 2022, the Big Ten Conference furthered its legacy of transformation when the Big Ten Council of Presidents/Chancellors (COP/C) voted unanimously to admit UCLA and USC to the conference effective Aug. 2, 2024. Competition will begin for all conference sports in the 2024-25 academic year.

In July of 2022, the Big Ten traveled a delegation of student-athletes and administrators from its member institutions to Selma and Montgomery, Alabama, for an immersive experience entitled: "Big Life Series: Selma to Montgomery." The pilgrimage to one of the key centers of the civil rights movement was highlighted by a march across the Edmund Pettus Bridge in Selma, which is the site of the 1965 Bloody Sunday attack. The delegation also visited the Montgomery Interpretive Center on the campus of Alabama State University to learn more about the profound impact that students had on the civil rights movement, and the significance of the Knight vs. Alabama landmark trial which ended the segregation of funding in higher education across the State of Alabama.

In April of 2023, the Big Ten announced that Petitti was selected as the conference's seventh commissioner. With nearly four decades of sports, business and media industry acumen, he served as deputy commissioner and chief operating officer of Major League Baseball and president and chief executive officer of MLB Network. A 14-time National Sports Emmy Award winner, Petitti also held senior executive roles at CBS Sports and ABC Sports overseeing rights acquisition deals for a variety of sports leagues and collegiate and professional sports events, including the NCAA Men's Basketball Tournament, regular season men's basketball, college football, NFL, PGA Tour, the Masters, U.S. Open Tennis Championships, and the Little League World Series, as well as leading in the creation of the Bowl Championship Series to determine college football's national champion.

On Aug., 4, 2023, the Big Ten Council of Presidents/Chancellors voted unanimously to admit the University of Oregon and the University of Washington to the conference effective Aug. 2, 2024, with competition to begin in all sports for the 2024-25 academic year. With the schools' admission, Oregon and Washington would also join the Big Ten Academic Alliance (BTAA), a consortium of world-class research institutions dedicated to advancing their academic missions.

More than 125 years after its inception, the Big Ten remains a national leader in intercollegiate athletics on and off the field. Big Ten programs have combined to win more than 450 team and 1,800 individual national championships, consistently taking home individual honors for athletic and academic accomplishments and fulfilling the Big Ten's mission of academic achievement and athletic success.

PERFORMANCE NUTRITION

The purpose of the Performance Nutrition department is to provide services that enhance the student-athlete's overall health and recovery.

GOALS

- To offer a variety of food and beverage products that are readily available and accessible for all student-athletes.
- To provide a wealth of education and resources that each student-athlete can utilize to enhance their overall level of knowledge and awareness as it pertains to fueling their body for competition and recovery.

DESCRIPTION OF SERVICES

Performance Nutrition seeks to provide fueling options and education to Husker student-athletes, so they are adequately prepared and knowledgeable on the impact nutrition can have in their lives as athletes and after sport.

NUTRITION OVERVIEW

Our Training Table is the primary resource for student-athletes to seek out holistic fueling options. Our Training Table operates and sets its menus with a student-athlete first mentality. We seek to provide healthy, accommodating nutrition options for all our athletes at breakfast, lunch and dinner. The Training Table also features a demo kitchen, allowing our student-athletes to practice their culinary skills and learn more about making nutritious meals.

Our fueling stations are the secondary resource for student-athletes to fulfill their fueling needs. The primary goal of our fueling stations is to provide quick and easy sources of nutrition and hydration to supplement training and competition.

Husker Bucks are provided to student-athletes to supplement meals on their own.Athletes have the chance to purchase a meal at local restaurants or to use for groceries at the grocery store.

EDUCATION AND CONSULTATION

Each team has a sport specific dietitian who oversees the nutritional needs per team. Our dietitians are a great resource for education and consultation to our student-athletes. The dietitians conduct DEXAs for bone density and lean mass trending, hydration testing, consult with athletes individually, provide nutrition education team talks (hydration, pre-workout fueling, recovery nutrition), host cooking classes and grocery store tours, and assist with fueling options surrounding competitions.

HUSKERS & FLIK

Flik athletics specializes in fueling athletes. Flik Athletics currently fuels over 25 professional teams across NFL,NBA,WNBA, MLB, MLS and USL Championship league. Nebraska will be the first college athletic program they have partnered with. In partnership with team dietitians, trainers, and coaches, Flik's team of chefs and dietitians create customized hospitality services and programming that elevate the athlete's culinary experience.

ACADEMIC COUNSELING
A team of 14 academic staff members are in place to monitor daily academic progress, promote skill development, receive consistent course feedback, assist with the advising/registration process and monitor eligibility and progress toward graduation.

TUTORIAL SUPPORT
A tremendous resource for all academic abilities, tutorial support is available from day one up to college graduation in all subject areas. Tutorial support is provided both in-person and virtually. Nebraska's tutorial program is certified by the College Reading and Learning Association.

STUDY HALL
Student-athletes attend a supervised study hall within the newly-opened Osborne Legacy Complex that features day, evening and weekend hours. Student athletes are required to complete a specific number of study hours each week and/or a list of academic tasks as determined by their academic counselor, learning specialist and coach.

MENTORING
Academic staff serve as mentors to all incoming student-athletes and select returning student-athletes. The student-athletes meet with their mentor weekly to develop time management skills, gather and report academic progress information and discuss academic success strategies.

EDUCATIONAL ASSESSMENTS
Assessments are administered upon the request of the student-athlete, academic counselor or coach. Learning specialists are available to administer and score informal assessments, which include a reading comprehension and a writing assessment. When more in-depth assessments are necessary, referrals are made to a neuropsychologist who conducts the assessments. If it is determined a student-athlete has a learning disability or another medical condition that impedes the student from reaching their academic potential, appropriate accommodations are implemented by the Office of Services for Students with Disabilities.

STUDENT-ATHLETE ORIENTATION
Each new student-athlete attends an orientation at the beginning of their academic career. Student-athletes are introduced to staff, faculty, administrators and a variety of resources that help facilitate the transition into college while enhancing awareness of support services in the Athletic Department and across campus.

PERSONAL COUNSELING
Student-athletes will find a supportive and caring environment at Nebraska. Transitional issues, stress management, time management, academic focus and problem resolution are all addressed in a proactive manner throughout the year. If necessary, counseling referrals are also made to designated practitioners.

COMPUTER RESOURCES
All student-athletes are provided the opportunity to have a laptop for use during their academic career at Nebraska. The Osborne Legacy Complex has printers and desktop computers available for student-athletes to use in the facility. A full-time computer specialist is on-site and available to assist with technology needs.

THE UNIVERSITY OF NEBRASKA

THE UNIVERSITY OF NEBRASKA

Chartered in Lincoln by the Nebraska Legislature in 1869, the University of Nebraska was expanded in 1968 into a university system now comprising four campuses under the guidance of a Board of Regents and a central administration. The flagship University of Nebraska–Lincoln is an educational institution of international stature. Nebraska is classified within the Carnegie "R1: Doctoral Universities – Highest Research Activity" category. Nebraska is also a land-grant university and a member of the Association of Public and Land-grant Universities. The university is accredited by the Higher Learning Commission.

BIG TEN ACADEMIC ALLIANCE

As a member of the Big Ten, the University of Nebraska–Lincoln is a member of the Big Ten Academic Alliance (BTAA), which is the academic consortium of the universities in the Big Ten Conference. The BTAA includes all 18 Big Ten Institutions and partners with the University of Chicago. Being in the Big Ten Academic Alliance gives Nebraska several advantages, including: access to library collections across the conference, reduced costs through tech collaborations, lower student costs on course materials through collective purchasing and licensing, and study abroad partnerships and course-sharing agreements — students can take courses across Big Ten institutions.

JEFFREY P. GOLD, M.D.

University of Nebraska President First Season Cornell (1974)

Jeffrey P. Gold, M.D., became the ninth president of the University of Nebraska System on July 1, 2024, following a national search by the Board of Regents.

As president, Gold leads a four-campus university system that enrolls nearly 50,000 students and employs 16,000 faculty and staff on campuses in Lincoln, Omaha and Kearney, plus academic divisions and research and extension centers across the state. He serves as chief spokesman and chief executive officer for the system, which operates on a $3 billion annual budget and includes a flagship Big Ten institution, a world-renowned academic health sciences center, Division I athletics programs, and preeminent institutes focused on water and agriculture, national security and defense, infectious disease and early childhood education.

He is a nationally recognized higher education and health care leader and advocate. He was the chancellor of the University of Nebraska Medical Center (UNMC) and board chair for the Nebraska Medicine Health System from 2014 to 2024. As UNMC's chief operating officer, Dr. Gold was responsible for all aspects of campus leadership, program quality and operation—including 7 colleges, 37 institutes and centers, 5,429 faculty and staff and 4,700 health professions students.

In July 2021, Dr. Gold was named the Provost and Executive Vice President of the University of Nebraska System in addition to his ongoing UNMC/Nebraska Medicine responsibilities. In this role, he served as the chief academic officer of the University of Nebraska System and liaison to the Board of Regents for academic affairs. From May 2017 through June 2021, Dr. Gold served as the chancellor of the University of Nebraska at Omaha, the state's only public metropolitan university—a role he held concurrently with being UNMC's chancellor.

He holds tenured faculty appointments in UNMC's College of Medicine and in the College of Public Health, where his research interests in health care policy, population health and epidemiology are concentrated. He has authored over 200 peer-reviewed manuscripts, 350 national presentations, 40 books and chapters and engaged in over 300 invited professorships and keynote presentations.

Dr. Gold is a first-generation student; he graduated from the Cornell University College of Engineering with a bachelor's degree in Theoretical and Applied Mechanics. He earned his M.D. from the Weill Cornell College of Medicine and completed his general surgery residency at The New York–Presbyterian Hospital and Memorial Sloan Kettering Cancer Center. He completed his cardiothoracic surgical fellowship training at the Brigham and Women's Hospital in Boston, with additional training in pediatric cardiac surgery at the Boston Children's Hospital, both of the Harvard Medical School.

He has been certified by the American Board of Surgery and by the American Board of Thoracic Surgery, specializing in adult and pediatric cardiac surgery. Dr. Gold is licensed in Nebraska, Ohio, New York and New Jersey.

Dr. Gold leads several key economic development boards for the State and the University System, including the Greater Omaha Chamber, University Tech Development Corp, the University Tech Transfer Corp, and UNeTech Corp.

His national leadership roles have included more than 50 national professional committees and more than 100 national organizations, volunteer boards, government and public health councils. He has worked extensively with national- and state-level elected and appointed governing and administrative bodies as an advisor and trusted resource in the areas of higher education, research and clinical care.

Dr. Gold has been married for more than forty years to a medical school classmate. He has two adult children and two grandchildren.

RODNEY BENNETT

University of Nebraska-Lincoln Chancellor Second Season Middle Tennessee State (1990)

Dr. Rodney D. Bennett began his work as the 21st chancellor of the University of Nebraska–Lincoln on July 1, 2023. He is a 30-year veteran of higher education with a track record of growing research, increasing student success and building impactful partnerships.

In his first year at Nebraska, the University experienced rising retention and graduation rates, demonstrated positive signs related to enrollment, and expanded its research and creative activity efforts. In the fall of 2023, almost 4,700 first-time freshmen enrolled at UNL - an increase of 1.3 percent from 2022.

Spring 2024 overall enrollment reversed a trend of five straight years of spring enrollment declines.

Over the last five years, UNL retention from first to second year has increased 2.3 percent and the four-year graduation rate has increased more than 8.5 percent.

In 2023, the University's total research expenditures grew to $366 million, a 37 percent increase over the past decade. UNL has also experienced tremendous growth in externally sponsored federal funding, increasing to a record $163 million in 2023.

Chancellor Bennett came to Nebraska after nine years of successful leadership at the University of Southern Mississippi. During his tenure as president, USM was reclassified from a Carnegie R2 to an R1 university, signaling growth in research prestige and funding. Dr. Bennett also invested in programs to support student recruitment, retention and outcomes, including for the 30 percent of USM's first-generation students. His efforts led to an improvement in the university's six-year graduation rate.

Prior to his role at Southern Miss, Dr. Bennett served at the University of Georgia for more than a decade. He was the senior administrator for student programs and services for Georgia's 34,000-plus students; oversaw $150 million in capital projects; and made key staff and programmatic investments in extracurriculars, mental health programs and other areas to better support students.

Dr. Bennett also has been the dean of students at Winthrop in Rock Hill, South Carolina, and associate dean of student life at Middle Tennessee State.

Chancellor Bennett values community leadership and service. He has served on numerous boards, including the Mississippi Aquarium, Northeast Georgia Girl Scouts of America, Catholic Health East (Philadelphia), and St. Mary's Health Care System in Athens, Georgia. Troy Dannen, a leading voice in collegiate athletics with extensive experience as an athletic director and deep ties to the Midwest, is in his first year as Nebraska's Director of Athletics. Dannen was hired on March 20, 2024, and has hit the ground running in Lincoln.

Nebraska Athletics enjoyed success during Dannen's first championship season, as the Husker baseball program won its first Big Ten Tournament title and reached the 40-win plateau for the first time since 2014 while the Husker track teams put together impressive showings. The Husker men won the Big Ten Outdoor title and earned their best NCAA Championship finish since 2016 with a 13th-place finish, while the Husker women posted their second straight top-10 NCAA finish and placed ninth at the national meet. Nebraska finished 22nd in the final 2023-24 Learfield Director's Cup, the program's highest finish since 2010.

Dannen has been a leader in charting the course for a new era of collegiate athletics, serving from 2021 to 2023 as a member of the NCAA Constitution Committee and the Division I Transformation Committee. Dannen also previously served as the chair of the NCAA Football Competition Committee and was an Executive Committee member of the Football Oversight Committee. In total, Dannen has served on seven NCAA committees.

In 2022, Dannen was a finalist for Sports Business Journal's Athletic Director of the Year award, and he received the Distinguished American Award from the Sugar Bowl Chapter of the National Football Foundation.

Dannen came to Lincoln after serving as Director of Athletics at the University of Washington. He helped guide the Huskies' transition to the Big Ten Conference and oversaw a football program that reached the College Football Playoff National Championship Game in January of 2024.

He arrived at Washington in the fall of 2023 after serving as Director of Athletics at Tulane University since 2015. While at Tulane, Green Wave student-athletes earned 49 All-America honors, a national championship, 21 conference championships and 41 postseason appearances.

In 2022-23, Tulane football won its first American Athletic Conference football championship and won the Cotton Bowl over USC, which was ranked ninth in the nation at that time. The men's basketball program won 20 regular-season games for the first time in two decades. Additionally, men's tennis advanced to its sixth NCAA Tournament in seven years, both bowling and beach volleyball finished ranked in the top 20, and baseball won the conference championship.

Tulane's football program participated in an unprecedented three consecutive bowl games from 2018 to 2020, winning back-to-back bowl games for the first time in 128 years of football at the University.

In the classroom, Tulane student-athletes excelled at a high-level. At the end of the 2022-23 academic year, over 68 percent of Green Wave student-athletes earned a 3.0 GPA or better, with a 93 percent Graduation Success Rate and a record-setting department Academic Progress Report of 992, with seven teams earning a perfect 1000 APR score.

Dannen spearheaded fundraising efforts and numerous capital projects at Tulane. He helped secure the largest unrestricted gift in Tulane Athletics history, an endowment gift that funded the operation of a new sport (sailing), and a $10 million lead gift for capital renovations, which was the second-largest gift in department history. In addition, marketing and licensing revenue grew four-fold, and in 2022-23, Tulane football, basketball and volleyball set ticket sales and revenue records. Under Dannen's leadership, the Green Wave Club Annual Fund grew by 40 percent in terms of donors, and 45 percent in terms of dollars.

Increases in fundraising and major gift donors positively impacted capital project development and completion. A $13 million renovation to the Reilly Natatorium, home of the swimming and diving program, as well as $8 million in renovations to locker rooms and the sports medicine area inside the Wilson Center were completed in 2023. Dannen also oversaw construction of a new dining facility, weight room, basketball and volleyball locker rooms. Tulane also completed a $2.4 million academic center renovation and a $5 million television and digital production center.

Dannen came to Tulane after serving eight years as the Director of Athletics at the University of Northern Iowa (UNI) from 2008 to 2015. During his tenure, the Panthers enjoyed success at both the conference and national levels, highlighted by an NCAA Sweet 16 appearance in 2010 by the UNI men's basketball team. During his eight-year tenure, UNI was recognized with 39 All-Americans, 13 Coaches of the Year and nine Missouri Valley Conference (MVC) Players of the Year. UNI football, men's basketball, women's basketball, volleyball and softball combined to reach 15 NCAA tournaments and 20 postseason berths during that stretch. For his efforts, Dannen was recognized as NACDA's FCS Athletic Director of the Year in 2014.

Prior to his time at UNI, Dannen served as the Iowa Girls High School Athletic Union's Executive Director for seven years, overseeing 400 high schools and 10 sports.

A proven program builder, Amy Williams completed her eighth season at Nebraska by guiding the Huskers to their most successful season in a decade. The Big Red captured a first-round NCAA Tournament victory over Texas A&M after claiming a No. 6 seed in March Madness. The victory followed Nebraska's run to its first Big Ten Championship Game appearance since 2014.

The tough Huskers secured a win over Purdue before notching double-digit wins over NCAA Tournament-bound Michigan State and Maryland to set up a third showdown with No. 3 Iowa in the title game. The Huskers controlled the action in much of the contest and took the Hawkeyes to overtime before falling 94-89 in the championship. Despite the setback, the Huskers booked their second NCAA Tournament ticket in the past three seasons while making their fourth consecutive postseason tournament appearance.

Nebraska finished with a 23-12 overall record that included an 11-7 Big Ten mark to take fifth in the final conference regular-season standings. Nebraska's regular season was highlighted by an 82-79 win over then-No. 2 Iowa in front of a sellout crowd of more than 15,000 at Pinnacle Bank Arena (Feb. 11). The victory over the Hawkeyes matched the highest-ranked team the Huskers have ever defeated. It was one of five wins over NCAA Tournament teams the Huskers notched from Feb. 6 through the end of the season, as Nebraska went 9-4 down the stretch with road losses to No. 2 Ohio State and No. 12 Oregon State, along with a loss to No. 3 Iowa in Minneapolis. NU's only other setback was a one-point loss at Illinois, which won the WBIT Championship.

During Nebraska's late-season surge, the Huskers completed a season sweep of NCAA Tournament-bound Michigan (Feb. 6) and their first-ever sweep of NCAA-bound Maryland (March 9) in the Big Ten Tournament. The Huskers also locked up a season sweep of NCAA Tournament-bound Michigan State (March 8), and a three-game season sweep of WNIT Great Eight participant Purdue (Feb. 17, March 7). The Big Red added a 19-point home win over WNIT semifinalist Minnesota (Feb. 24).

The Huskers finished No. 25 in the NET rankings with 17 of their 23 wins coming against postseason qualifiers, including eight over NCAA teams, three over WBIT qualifiers and six over WNIT teams.

Nebraska's success in 2023-24 came despite losing projected starting guard Allison Weidner to a season-ending injury in mid-October, and an injury to returning starter and graduate guard Maddie Krull prior to the start of the season. Krull's injury not only kept her out of the first three games, it limited her contributions throughout the season. The Huskers also were hindered by an injury to reserve post Annika Stewart that limited her training and kept her out of the lineup for eight games early in the season.

Despite the challenges, Nebraska continued to improve throughout the season in large part to the consistency of first-team All-Big Ten center Alexis Markowski and the leadership of second-team All-Big Ten guard Jaz Shelley. Two of the top players at their positions in the country, Markowski and Shelley both claimed All-Big Ten honors for the third consecutive seasons before earning spots on the Big Ten All-Tournament Team. Shelley went on to be the No. 29 pick in the WNBA Draft by the Phoenix Mercury.

Nebraska's most experienced players also got help from a pair of award-winning freshmen. Natalie Potts emerged as the Big Ten Freshman of the Year after capturing eight Big Ten Freshman-of-the-Week awards during the season. She added honorable-mention All-Big Ten accolades from the conference media while being joined on the Big Ten All-Freshman Team by Logan Nissley.

In addition to the individual awards won by the Huskers, Nebraska's success also came out in the record book, including a school-record 292 made three-pointers while ranking second in school history with a plus-7.8 rebound margin. The 2023-24 Huskers also ranked fifth in school history with 2,533 points, fourth in rebounds (1,431) and third in assists (580).

Nebraska also continued to be one of the biggest draws in all of women's college basketball with an average home attendance of 6,088 to rank 15th in NCAA Division I. It marked the 14th consecutive season the Huskers have ranked in the top 25 nationally in average home attendance. Every game in the 2024 Big Ten Tournament drew more than 18,000 fans at the Target Center in Minneapolis, while NU's Big Ten Tournament Championship Game appearance attracted 4.77 million viewers on CBS - the highest TV ratings for a women's basketball game on the network in well over two decades.

Williams, who earned a contract extension through the 2028-29 season, also led Nebraska to the Big Dance in 2022, after the Huskers ran to a 24-9 record that included a final No. 23 NET ranking and a trip to the 2022 Big Ten Tournament semifinals. In 2022-23, the Huskers overcame multiple season-ending injuries to starting guards to advance to the WNIT Super 16 and finish with an 18-15 overall record.

Shelley earned first-team All-Big Ten honors, while Markowski captured second-team All-Big Ten accolades for the second straight year in 2023. Three-time honorable-mention All-Big Ten forward Isabelle Bourne also helped Nebraska meet its challenges head on before embarking on her professional career in Australia.

In 2021-22, the Huskers put one of the most complete teams in school history on the floor, ranking 10th nationally in scoring (77.8 ppg), 13th in assists (17.4 apg), 18th in scoring margin (+13.5 ppg), while leading the Big Ten, setting a school record and ranking 21st nationally in three-pointers made per game (8.5). NU also led the Big Ten and ranked 23rd in the nation in rebounding (41.8 rpg), while leading the Big Ten in field goal percentage defense (.385).

Nebraska fans also showed up in droves to watch their beloved Big Red despite continued challenges caused by the COVID pandemic, as the Huskers ranked 14th nationally in total home attendance

Overall, Nebraska notched four wins on the year against Sweet Sixteen teams, including a victory over Michigan in the Big Ten Tournament quarterfinals.

Nebraska's three wins over top-10 teams (No. 8 Michigan, 79-58, Jan. 4; No. 5 Indiana, 72-55, Feb. 14; No. 10 Michigan, 76-73, March 4) marked just the second time in school history the Big Red posted multiple wins over top-10 teams in the same season. Nebraska's 21-point home win over the Wolverines matched the largest victory margin in NU history over a top-10 foe, while the 17-point win over the Hoosiers marked Nebraska's largest margin ever against a top-five opponent.

Four Huskers earned All-Big Ten honors in 2021-22, led by newcomers Shelley (Second Team/All-Defensive) and Markowski (Second Team/Big Ten Freshman of the Year) and captains Sam Haiby and Isabelle Bourne, who both claimed honorable-mention accolades.

Nebraska, which continues to feature a 100 percent Graduation Success Rate in women's basketball, also set a program record with nine Academic All-Big Ten selections in 2021-22. They added eight Academic All-Big Ten picks in both 2022-23 and 2023-24.

Williams, who proved herself as a winner and a program builder in her first nine seasons as a collegiate head coach, returned to her alma mater to lead a new stage in the Husker program when she was hired as Nebraska's head coach on April 11, 2016.

In her second season with the Big Red, Williams showed she could get a program moving forward in a hurry. Williams captured 2018 Big Ten Coach-of-the-Year honors after leading the nation's biggest turnaround. The Huskers earned a bid into the 2018 NCAA Tournament and finished with a 21-11 record - a nation-leading 14-game turnaround in the win column over 2016-17.

Nebraska was plus-eight in the win column in Big Ten play, finishing with an 11-5 mark and claiming the No. 3 seed in the Big Ten Tournament. The Huskers then knocked off No. 24 Michigan in the league tournament quarterfinals to advance to the conference semifinals for the first time since 2014.

Defensively, Nebraska led the Big Ten with a school-record field goal percentage defense (.371) while also leading the conference in three-point field goal percentage defense (.299). The Huskers improved 12.7 points per game defensively over the 2016-17 campaign and were six points per game better on the offensive end.

In 2019-20, Williams led the Huskers back to postseason eligibility with a 17-13 overall record before the season abruptly ended because of the COVID-19 outbreak. Nebraska's 17 wins represented a three-game improvement in the win column, despite facing a Big Ten Conference that produced its strongest collection of teams in a decade. The Big Ten was poised to send eight teams to the NCAA Tournament and several more to the WNIT, as 11 teams finished in the top 64 in the Massey Ratings.

Nebraska revamped its roster and continued to battle the best teams in the Big Ten, notching five victories over top-25 Big Ten teams in an abbreviated 2020-21 season. The Huskers were anchored inside by Kate Cain. The 6-5 center was an honorable-mention All-Big Ten performer as a senior in 2020-21. Nebraska's career leader in blocked shots (352), Cain also claimed her third appearance on the Big Ten All-Defensive Team. She was a three-time Lisa Leslie Award candidate and one of 15 finalists for the Naismith National Defensive Player of the Year award.

Cain, who completed her fourth season on the court at Nebraska following her early graduation in the summer of 2020, signed a free agent training camp contract with the WNBA's Las Vegas Aces in 2021 before starting her professional career overseas in 2021-22.

Haiby and Bourne joined Cain in collecting All-Big Ten honors in 2020-21. Nebraska's MVP, Haiby captured second-team All-Big Ten accolades as the only player to rank among the conference's top 15 in scoring (11th, 16.8 ppg), rebounding (15th, 6.8 rpg) and assists (8th, 4.4 apg). Haiby's game-winning putback at the buzzer against Northwestern was named ESPN SportsCenter's Top Play on New Year's Eve, giving Nebraska one of its five wins on the year against top-25 opponents.

Bourne, a 6-2 forward from Canberra, Australia, also produced a breakout season for the Big Red by earning honorable-mention All-Big Ten recognition. Bourne averaged 13.6 points, 7.5 rebounds and 2.5 assists while proving herself as one of the most versatile players in the Big Ten.

Williams was a four-year letterwinner (Amy Gusso, 1995-96-97-98) at Nebraska, playing for coaches Angela Beck and Paul Sanderford before embarking on a career in coaching. The academic All-Big 12 honoree earned her bachelor's degree from Nebraska as a biology and mathematics major in 1998, before earning her master's degree in sports administration from Nebraska-Kearney in 2002.

Williams spent four successful seasons (2013-16) as the head coach at South Dakota, where she led the Coyotes to four straight postseason appearances. She led USD to a 32-6 record that culminated with a WNIT Championship in 2015-16. The Coyotes won the Summit League regular-season title with a 15-1 mark, and she was named the Summit League Coach of the Year for the second consecutive season.

Her gritty pack of Coyotes posted a Division I school-record 32 wins (32-3), surpassing the 26 her Yotes totaled in 2014-15, when she won her first Summit League Coach-of-the-Year award. Over Williams' final two seasons at USD, her teams went 58-14 (.806), including 28-4 in the Summit League with a pair of regular-season conference crowns.

She led USD to a school-record 16 straight wins before falling to South Dakota State in the Summit League title game. The Coyotes defeated the same SDSU team that advanced to the NCAA Tournament second round twice during the season. Five of USD's six losses in 2015-16 came to teams that advanced to postseason play, including a loss to NCAA Women's Final Four qualifier Washington.

Williams' team rolled to a WNIT title with six straight wins, including wins over Creighton, Minnesota, Northern Iowa, Western Kentucky and a whopping 34-point victory over Oregon before beating Florida Gulf Coast.

She finished her four-year stint in Vermillion with the second-most victories in program history (96), averaging 24 victories per year in her first stop as an NCAA Division I head coach. She led the Coyotes to four straight Summit League championship games.

In 2014-15, Williams guided USD to a 26-8 mark that included a trip to the second round of the WNIT. The Coyotes went 13-3 on their way to a Summit League regular-season title. Their 2014-15 success represented a seven-game improvement in the win column over 2013-14 (19-14), when they won the Summit League Tournament title. That team earned an automatic bid to the 2014 NCAA Tournament before falling to Stanford in the first round.

In her first season at South Dakota, Williams finished with a 19-16 record and earned a trip to the Women's Basketball Invitational semifinals.

Williams, began her head coaching career with a unique opportunity at Rogers State in Oklahoma. She was named the first-ever head women's basketball coach for the fledgling program in 2007-08 and built the program from the ground up. Her stay at the Claremore, Okla., school culminated with a trip to the NAIA Elite Eight in 2011-12. In five years with the Hillcats, Williams went 97-65, including the school's first trip to the NAIA Tournament in 2010-11.

Williams started her coaching career as a graduate assistant at Nebraska-Kearney (1998-99 to 1999-2000), before earning a full-time assistant coaching role at the University of Texas San Antonio in 2000-01. She spent four seasons as an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator at Oklahoma State (2001-02 to 2004-05), before working in a similar role at Tulsa (2005-06 to 2006-07).

Williams helped the Golden Hurricane claim its first Conference USA regular-season and tournament championships in 2006. The Hurricane also earned its first trip to the NCAA Tournament and won its first tournament game on its way to a 26-6 record.

Williams served as the top assistant and recruiting coordinator at Oklahoma State, and brought the 2003 Big 12 Newcomer of the Year to Stillwater in a class that was ranked No. 19 by All-Star Girls Report. A native of Spearfish, S.D., Williams and her husband, Lloyd, have two daughters Kennadi and Bentli. A long-time NCAA Division I assistant with a track record of success around the country, Julian Assibey (pronounced ah-SEE-bay) completed his first season as an assistant at Nebraska by helping the Huskers to their most successful campaign in a decade.

The Big Red captured a first-round NCAA Tournament victory over Texas A&M after claiming a No. 6 seed in March Madness. The victory followed Nebraska's run to its first Big Ten Championship Game appearance since 2014.

The tough Huskers secured a win over Purdue before notching double-digit wins over NCAA Tournament-bound Michigan State and Maryland to set up a third showdown with No. 3 Iowa in the title game. The Huskers controlled the action in much of the contest and took the Hawkeyes to overtime before falling 94-89 in the championship. Despite the setback, the Huskers booked their second NCAA Tournament ticket in the past three seasons while making their fourth consecutive postseason tournament appearance.

Nebraska finished with a 23-12 overall record that included an 11-7 Big Ten mark to take fifth in the final conference regular-season standings. Nebraska's regular season was highlighted by an 82-79 win over then-No. 2 Iowa in front of a sellout crowd of more than 15,000 at Pinnacle Bank Arena (Feb. 11). The victory over the Hawkeyes matched the highest-ranked team the Huskers have ever defeated. It was one of five wins over NCAA Tournament teams the Huskers notched from Feb. 6 through the end of the season, as Nebraska went 9-4 down the stretch with road losses to No. 2 Ohio State and No. 12 Oregon State, along with a loss to No. 3 Iowa in Minneapolis. Nebraska's only other setback was a one-point loss at Illinois, which won the WBIT Championship.

During Nebraska's late-season surge, the Huskers completed a season sweep of NCAA Tournament-bound Michigan (Feb. 6) and their first-ever sweep of NCAA-bound Maryland (March 9) in the Big Ten Tournament. The Huskers also locked up a season sweep of NCAA Tournament-bound Michigan State (March 8), and a three-game season sweep of WNIT Great Eight participant Purdue (Feb. 17, March 7). The Big Red added a 19-point home win over WNIT semifinalist Minnesota (Feb. 24).

The Huskers finished No. 25 in the regular-season NET rankings with 17 of their 23 victories coming against postseason tournament qualifiers, including eight wins over NCAA Tournament teams, three over WBIT qualifiers and six over WNIT teams.

Nebraska's success in 2023-24 came despite losing projected starting guard Allison Weidner to a season-ending injury in mid-October, and an injury to returning starter and graduate guard Maddie Krull prior to the start of the season. Krull's injury not only kept her out of the first three games, it limited her contributions throughout the season. The Huskers also were hindered by an injury to reserve post Annika Stewart that limited her training and kept her out of the lineup for eight games early in the season.

Despite the challenges, Nebraska continued to improve throughout the season in large part to the consistency of first-team All-Big Ten center Alexis Markowski and the leadership of second-team All-Big Ten guard Jaz Shelley. Two of the top players at their positions in the country, Markowski and Shelley both claimed All-Big Ten honors for the third consecutive seasons before earning spots on the Big Ten All-Tournament Team.

Nebraska's most experienced players also got help from a pair of award-winning freshmen. Natalie Potts emerged as the Big Ten Freshman of the Year after capturing eight Big Ten Freshman-of-the-Week awards during the season. She added honorable-mention All-Big Ten accolades from the conference media while being joined on the Big Ten All-Freshman Team by Logan Nissley.

In addition to the individual awards won by the Huskers, Nebraska's success also came out in the record book, including a school-record 292 threes while ranking second in school history with a plus-7.8 rebound margin. The 2023-24 Huskers also ranked fifth in NU history with 2,533 points, fourth in total rebounds (1,431) and third in assists (580).

Nebraska also continued to be one of the biggest draws in all of women's college basketball with an average home attendance of 6,088 to rank 15th in NCAA Division I. It marked the 14th consecutive season the Huskers have ranked in the top 25 nationally in average home attendance. Every game in the 2024 Big Ten Tournament drew more than 18,000 fans at the Target Center in Minneapolis, while NU's Big Ten Tournament Championship Game appearance attracted 4.77 million viewers on CBS - the highest TV ratings for a women's basketball game on the network in well over two decades.

Assibey came to Lincoln after spending three years as an assistant coach at Florida, where he helped the Gators to three consecutive postseason berths. In his first season (2020-21) in Gainesville, Assibey helped the Gators to their first postseason berth since a 2016 NCAA Tournament bid, and their first postseason victory since 2014. In 2021-22, Assibey helped guide the Gators to a 21-11 record and a trip to the first round of the NCAA Tournament. In 2022-23, Florida finished with a 19-15 overall record that included three wins to advance to the Postseason WNIT Great Eight.

Assibey went to Florida after spending four successful seasons (2016-20) at Montana State, where he helped the Bobcats to a pair of Big Sky regular-season titles and one conference tournament crown. In addition to his assistant coaching duties, Assibey served as the recruiting coordinator for the Bobcats, who produced nine all-conference honorees including a pair of Big Sky players of the year in his four seasons.

In 2019-20, Montana State produced one of the best seasons in school history, finishing with a 25-6 record that included a Big Sky regular-season title with a 19-1 mark. The Bobcats advanced to the Big Sky Tournament title game against Idaho, but the game was canceled due to the COVID-19 pandemic. Fallyn Freije was named the 2020 Big Sky Player of the Year. In Assibey's first year at Montana State (2016-17), the Bobcats rolled to Big Sky regular-season and tournament titles, led by league player of the year Peyton Ferris. The Bobcats earned an automatic bid to the 2017 NCAA Tournament and finished the season with a 25-7 record that included a 15-3 Big Sky mark.

Assibey previously served the 2014-15 season as the video coordinator at Colorado, before advancing to a full-time assistant role for the Buffaloes in 2015-16. He returned to the state of Colorado after a pair of previous stops at Western Colorado (2010-11) and two years at Metro State Denver (2007-09).

Following his season at Western Colorado, Assibey traveled to Andover, Mass., where he spent three seasons as an assistant at Merrimack College. The Warriors posted a 12-game improvement in the win column from his first season (5-21) in 2011-12 to his second season (17-12) in 2012-13.

Born and raised in Ghana, West Africa, Assibey grew up in Downey, Calif., before earning four letters in men's basketball while also competing in track and field (long jump, triple jump, 4x100-meter relay) at William Penn in Oskaloosa, Iowa. He earned his bachelor's degree in sports administration and strength and conditioning in 2005. Following his two seasons as an assistant coach at Metro State Denver (2007-09), he spent one season on staff as an assistant coach at William Penn (2009-10). While coaching at Merrimack, Assibey completed his master's degree in coaching and athletic administration from Concordia University in 2013.

Julian and his wife, Kaylee, have two sons, Malachi and Elijah.

Coley, who committed to Nebraska in April of 2020, averaged 15.5 points, 7.4 rebounds and 3.7 assists as a junior at St. Louis Park High School.

She chose to graduate from high school in mid-January of 2021 and enroll early at Nebraska after the high school basketball season in Minnesota was delayed by the pandemic for nearly two months.

Coley joined the Nebraska roster on Jan. 19, and became immediately eligible to play. She went through her first practice on Jan. 21, and was in uniform for NU's win at Illinois (Jan. 25), but did not play in the game. She made her first appearance in Nebraska's win over Wisconsin in Lincoln (Jan. 28) and also saw game action at Rutgers (Feb. 7) and against Iowa (Feb. 11).

She finished with two points, a rebound and an assist in 10 minutes of action against No. 9 Maryland (Feb. 14).

Coley hit her first three-pointer, grabbed two rebounds and added a block in NU's win over Penn State (Feb. 21). She followed with a season-high six points on 2-for-2 three-point shooting at Minnesota (Feb. 24).

She added six more points on a pair of threes while grabbing a season-high four rebounds against the Golden Gophers in the Big Ten Tournament in Indianapolis (March 10). Coley hit both of her threes in an 18-3 Husker surge midway through the first half to take control of the game. She continued to contribute with three points in 13 minutes of a win over UT Martin in the Postseason WNIT (March 19). She added a pair of rebounds against Colorado the next night in the WNIT.

Coley played double-figure minutes in each of Nebraska's four postseason games in the Big Ten and WNIT tournaments. For the season, Coley averaged 1.9 points and 1.0 rebound in just under eight minutes per game over 12 contests.

HIGH SCHOOL

Coley averaged 15.5 points, 7.4 rebounds and 3.7 assists as a junior at St. Louis Park High School to earn All-Metro West Conference honors. The honorable-mention All-Minnesota selection was named her team's MVP and Most Improved Player, while also winning the team's Oriole Award for her outstanding team spirit.

A multi-sport athlete, Coley earned four letters in basketball and four letters in volleyball at St. Louis Park.

She played AAU basketball for FBC North.

PERSONAL

The daughter of Tylor Coley and the late-Kelli Jo Behrens-Coley, Kendall was born Nov. 3, 2002, in Minneapolis. Kendall has an older sister, Chase, who was a starting forward at Iowa. Their mother lettered as a basketball player at Minnesota in 1983 and 1984 before playing professionally in France and Australia. She was also Minnesota Miss Basketball runner-up in 1982. Tylor Coley was a basketball player at Grace College (NAIA) in Indiana and played professionally in Germany and Australia. Kendall has a younger brother, Khaysen, and a younger sister, Cade. Kendall's best friend since preschool, Kennadi Orr, was a setter on the U.S. Youth National Team and was the 2019 Gatorade Minnesota Volleyball Player of the Year. OUTLOOK (2024-25)

Alexis Markowski earned preseason first-team All-Big Ten honors for the third consecutive year ahead of the 2024-25 season. The 6-3 center out of Lincoln Pius X High School has been a leader for her hometown Huskers the past three seasons and hopes to battle for national honors while leading Nebraska to a fourth straight postseason bid.

Markowski captured first-team All-Big Ten honors as one of the nation's top centers in 2023-24. She added a spot on the Big Ten All-Tournament Team after a monster effort in leading the Huskers to three wins before pushing No. 3 Iowa to overtime in the Big Ten Championship Game.

Markowski was a Lisa Leslie Award contender before producing a career-high 19 double-doubles and averaging career bests of 15.7 points and 10.5 rebounds as a junior. She ranked third in the Big Ten in rebounding and seventh in scoring on the year.

She tied the Nebraska career double-doubles record held by first-team All-America forwards Kelsey Griffin (2006-10) and Jordan Hooper (2011-14) by notching her 40th double-double with 23 points and 13 rebounds to go along with five assists against No. 3 Iowa in the Big Ten Championship Game (March 10).

In four games at the TIAA Big Ten Tournament at the Target Center in Minneapolis, Markowski averaged 16.5 points, 11.3 rebounds and 3.8 assists.

Markowski's 45 rebounds at the 2024 Big Ten Tournament were nine more than any other Husker in a single conference tournament in history. Her 66 points tied for the fourth-most by a Husker in any tournament, and her 15 assists ranked fifth by a Husker at a league tournament, trailing only the three best point guards in NU history - Lindsey Moore (19, 2012), Jaz Shelley (34, 2024; 16, 2022) and Rachel Theriot (30, 2014, Tournament MVP).

In a Big Ten quarterfinal win over Michigan State (March 8), Markowski produced 22 points, 12 boards and four assists.

Nebraska's team co-MVP along with Shelley during the season, Markowski notched eight 20-point games in 2023-24, including a 20-point, 21-rebound effort in a win at Purdue (Feb. 17). The 21 boards were a career high and tied for the fourth-best rebounding total in Husker history.

SENIOR (2024-25)

Kendall Moriarty will be counted on to provide solid defense and leadership in the Husker backcourt as a senior in 2024-25. The 6-1 guard from Wheaton, Ill., played in all 35 games with 17 starts a year ago, including each of the final 13 games as Nebraska fought its way to the Big Ten Championship Game and the second round of the NCAA Tournament.

Moriarty opened 2023-24 by starting Nebraska's first four games, before returning starter Maddie Krull came back to action after suffering a foot injury in preseason practice.

Moriarty returned to the starting lineup for the final 13 games. Nebraska went 12-5 with her in the starting lineup on the year, while she averaged 3.1 points, 1.3 rebounds and 1.1 assists over 35 games with 17 starts.

She matched her career high with 11 points in a win over Purdue (Jan. 31) after establishing her season high with 11 points in a win over Michigan (Jan. 17). She also had eight points on perfect shooting against Rutgers (Feb. 3), after getting seven points at Penn State (Jan. 21). Her previous season high came with six points against Alcorn State (Nov. 14). She also had five points against Florida Atlantic (Nov. 29). She pitched in four points, three rebounds and two assists in a win over UNCW (Dec. 5).

"Kendall fits perfectly into all aspects of our program," Nebraska Coach Amy Williams said. "She is a long, tough, gritty player with great versatility. She is a talented scorer, but her willingness to do all the dirty work on the court is what separates her. She is a great teammate and will lay it on the line for her team to win."

Moriarty played a greater role for the Huskers in her second season, more than doubling her points (111-45), knocking down more than six times as many threes (19-3), snagging more than seven times the steals (22-3) and grabbing more than four times the rebounds (54-12) in 2022-23 than she did as a freshman.

She played in all 33 of Nebraska's games as a sophomore, making her first career start in Nebraska's WNIT Super 16 appearance at Kansas (March 23). Moriarty produced the second double-digit scoring performance of her career with 10 points on 4-of-6 shooting, including a pair of threes, against the eventual WNIT champion Jayhawks at Allen Fieldhouse. She added two steals while playing a career-high 28 minutes.

Moriarty ended her sophomore season by averaging 3.4 points and 1.6 rebounds, while adding 27 total assists and 22 steals on the season.

She produced the best week of her career by averaging 10.0 points, 2.5 rebounds and 1.5 assists in 24 minutes per game off the bench in wins over Wisconsin (Dec. 7) and Samford (Dec. 10). She hit 5-of-8 threes in the two games, including a career-best 3-for-3 from beyond the arc in the second half to finish with a career-high 11 points in the win over Samford. It followed a then-career-high nine points in the win over Wisconsin.

CAREER GAME-BY-GAME STATS

Moriarty added eight big points off the bench in Nebraska's road rally to a 71-64 win at Purdue (Jan. 18). She also scored eight big points while adding a career-high five rebounds in NU's overtime win over eventual NCAA Tournament qualifier Mississippi State in Puerto Rico (Nov. 26). She also had eight points in Nebraska's win over Tarleton (Nov. 22) helping ease the loss of starter Allison Weidner, who suffered an eye injury in the opening minute and was not able to return.

Moriarty also provided one of the most memorable moments of the 2022-23 season for the Huskers when she drained an unlikely, running half-a-hook shot from beyond half court on a baseline inbounds play as the shot clock expired in the closing seconds of Nebraska's win over Penn State (Jan. 11). The shot provided Moriarty with her only points of the night, while earning recognition as Scott Van Pelt's "Best Thing I Saw Today" on ESPN.

Moriarty's efforts helped Nebraska overcome the absences of starters Isabelle Bourne, Sam Haiby, Trinity Brady and Weidner at different points in 2022-23. In three Postseason WNIT games, Moriarty averaged 6.7 points, 1.3 rebounds and 2.3 steals, while hitting 8-of-11 field goal attempts, including 4-of-7 three-point tries.

Moriarty competed in 30 of Nebraska's 33 games as a true freshman, averaging 1.5 points and shooting 48.8 percent (20-41) from the field in 2021-22.

She matched her season high with six points on 3-of-3 shooting from the field in Nebraska's 77-44 win over Wisconsin (Jan. 27). She added two rebounds, an assist and a steal in 12 minutes against the Badgers.

Her performance against Wisconsin followed five points and a career-high four assists in a career-high 20 minutes at Iowa (Jan. 16), when the Huskers played without starting guards Jaz Shelley (COVID protocols) and Sam Haiby (injury). She also had five points and a steal in a win over Minnesota (Feb. 20), and she scored five points with an assist in a win over Alabama A&M (Nov. 14).

Moriarty established her career highs with six points and two rebounds in a win over North Carolina Central (Nov. 20). She hit her first career three-pointer in NU's win over Creighton (Nov. 17), before adding three-pointers against Minnesota (Feb. 20) and against Gonzaga in the first round of the NCAA Tournament. She finished with three points in eight minutes against the Bulldogs. She found the scoring column in 12 games as a freshman.

PERSONAL

The daughter of Margaret Moriarty and Sean Moriarty, Kendall has an older brother, Peyton, and an older sister, Lexi. Kendall is majoring in advertising and public relations/sports media and communication and earned Academic All-Big Ten honors in 2023 and 2024. She is also a five-time Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll selection and a three-time member of the Tom Osborne Citizenship Team.

She chose Nebraska over Iowa, Wisconsin, Penn State, Illinois, Marquette, Vanderbilt, Northwestern and DePaul.

"I chose Nebraska because of the family atmosphere and the culture the coaches and players create," Moriarty said. "Nebraska has amazing fan support for their athletic programs, which I love. All of the coaches are great people who will push me to become a great player and even a better person. Visiting Nebraska just made me feel at home."

OUTLOOK (2024-25)

Alberte Rimdal (pronounced al-BER-tee RIM-doll) joined the Nebraska women's basketball program on April 13, 2024, after spending her first three collegiate seasons at Florida. A member of the Danish National Team, the 5-9 guard enters her senior season hoping to bolster a Nebraska backcourt that lost graduate students Jaz Shelley, Maddie Krull and Darian White after the trio helped the Huskers to the second round of the 2024 NCAA Tournament.

A native of Koge, Denmark (pronounced Koo), Rimdal brings a reputation as a knockdown shooter with her from Florida, where she started 50 games over the past two seasons for the Gators. In three years at Florida, Rimdal scored in double figures 27 times in 96 career games, averaging 6.8 points, 1.7 rebounds and 1.6 assists in her three seasons. A consistent three-point threat, Rimdal hit 33.7 percent (114-338) of her threes and 89.3 percent (67-75) of her free throws at Florida.

"We are thrilled to add Alberte to our Husker family," Nebraska Head Coach Amy Williams said. "She is a great fit both on and off the basketball court. She is an experienced, high IQ, skilled athlete who makes great decisions. She can impact a game in several ways, and her versatility will be extremely valuable for our team."

JUNIOR (2023-24, FLORIDA)

Rimdal made 17 starts while playing in 30 of Florida's 32 games as a junior in 2023-24. She averaged 7.2 points, 1.5 rebounds and 1.6 assists while hitting 37-of-116 three-pointers (.319).

She scored a season-high 20 points at Gardner-Webb (Dec. 17), as one of 10 double-figure scoring efforts on the season. Rimdal added 13 points against Florida State (Nov. 17), Michigan (Dec. 20) and at Mississippi State (Feb. 11), while pitching in 12 points against Mississippi State (Jan. 22) and Missouri (March 6), and 11 at Tennessee (Jan. 11).

Rimdal contributed 10-point games at Georgia Tech (Nov. 29) and at Alabama (Feb. 29).

As a sophomore in 2022-23, Rimdal started 33 of 34 games for the Gators while averaging career bests of 8.5 points, 2.3 rebounds and 2.2 assists. She knocked down 38.2 percent (50-131) of her three-point attempts while connecting on 89.4 percent (42-47) of her free throws in 28.1 minutes per game for a Florida team that finished 19-15 and advanced to the Postseason WNIT quarterfinals.

OUTLOOK (2024-25)

Allison Weidner (pronounced WIDE-ner) hopes to make her return to the court as a leader in the Husker backcourt after missing nearly two years with back-to-back knee injuries.

The redshirt junior from the small Northeast Nebraska town of Humphrey (pop. 832) has had outstanding rehabs on both her left and right knees, and enters the season hungry to pick up where she left off as a true sophomore.

The 5-10 guard averaged 10.2 points, 6.2 rebounds and 2.4 assists while starting Nebraska's first 13 games in 2022-23, before suffering a left ACL tear against No. 20 Kansas (Dec. 21, 2022). She was ready for the start of practice before the 2023-24 season, but suffered a right ACL tear in practice on Oct. 13, 2023.

Nebraska's Lifter of the Year last season, Weidner is one of the best all-around athletes in state history as a seven-time all-state selection in basketball (4) and volleyball (3) and an eight-time state champion in track and field.

In 10 career Big Ten starts as a freshman (8) and sophomore (2), Weidner helped Nebraska to a 7-3 record including a pair of wins over top-20 teams (No. 10 Michigan, No. 20 Maryland) away from Pinnacle Bank Arena. In those 10 starts, Weidner averaged 10.8 points, 4.4 rebounds and 3.6 assists.

REDSHIRT (2023-24)

Weidner was on track to return to Nebraska's starting lineup as a junior in 2023-24 before suffering a right knee injury in practice on Oct. 13, 2023. She underwent surgery on Oct. 25, and was with the Huskers on the sideline while redshirting in 2023-24.

Her recovery and rehab after surgery went well on her left knee before suffering her right knee injury just three weeks before the start of the 2023-24 regular season.

Weidner showed major improvements to her all-around game while taking on a greater leadership role in her second season. She averaged 10.2 points, 6.2 rebounds and 2.4 assists while starting each of Nebraska's first 13 games of 2022-23. She scored in double figures in four consecutive games before suffering a season-ending leg injury early in the fourth quarter of NU's triple-overtime win over No. 20 Kansas (Dec. 21). She underwent successful surgery on Jan. 10, 2023.

Weidner had 13 points, seven rebounds and three assists in a win over Wyoming (Dec. 18). It followed her second double-double of the season with 15 points, 11 rebounds and a career-high five steals in a win over Samford (Dec. 10).

She notched her first career double-double with 13 points and a career-high 15 rebounds in Nebraska's upset of No. 20 Maryland in College Park (Dec. 4). Weidner, who added five assists against the Terps, scored all 13 of her points and grabbed eight of her rebounds in the second half alone, as NU outscored Maryland 59-31 in the second half. Weidner's effort helped the Huskers secure their first-ever win over Maryland, which went on to advance to the NCAA Elite Eight.

Weidner added 13 points, five rebounds and seven assists in an 82-54 win over Wisconsin (Dec. 7) to help the Huskers improve to 2-0 in Big Ten play despite the absence of starters Isabelle Bourne, Trinity Brady and Sam Haiby - who all missed the game with injuries.

Weidner opened the season with 19 points and a then-career-high nine rebounds in a win over Omaha (Nov. 7). She made a career-high nine field goals in just 11 attempts against the Mavs. She added her second career 20-point performance with 20 points and seven boards in a win over Houston Christian (Nov. 11).

She was injured on an offensive rebound on the first possession of the game against Tarleton (Nov. 22), but still finished the play with a bucket in the opening minute before she left the court. Weidner, who played 59 seconds, did not return to the game after suffering an eye injury. She did return to the starting lineup three days later in NU's win over Texas A&M-Corpus Christi at the Puerto Rico Clasico (Nov. 25). She had 13 points and five rebounds against the Islanders.

Weidner joined Alexis Markowski as freshman starters in Nebraska's lineup down the stretch in 2021-22. Weidner averaged 7.2 points, 3.7 rebounds and 2.2 assists while playing in all 33 games for the 24-9 Huskers in 2021-22.

She moved into Nebraska's starting five for the final eight games of the season and

She is a five-time Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll selection and a three-time member of the Tom Osborne Citizenship Team.

Weidner chose Nebraska over Creighton, South Dakota, South Dakota State, Duquesne, Omaha, Denver, Toledo, North Dakota State and Wyoming.

"I chose Nebraska because of the family atmosphere that the coaches and staff provide," Weidner said. "The support that Nebraska provides to its student-athletes is something that stood out to me. As a child I always dreamed of playing for Nebraska and representing my home state. It is truly an honor to be a Husker. Go Big Red!"

OUTLOOK (2024-25)

Callin Hake (pronounced CAL-in HAKE) will continue to be counted on to provide leadership and stability in Nebraska's backcourt in her third season as a Husker in 2024-25.

The 5-8 junior from Victoria, Minn., played in all 35 games with five starts a year ago while helping Nebraska to the Big Ten Championship Game and a trip to the second round of the NCAA Tournament.

Hake hit 37.7 percent of her three-point attempts on her way to averaging 6.1 points, 2.8 rebounds and 1.9 assists.

Hake could again challenge for a starting spot in the backcourt or provide a significant presence in a deep rotation of Big Red guards.

"Callin is a versatile guard that can bring a lot of things to our team on the basketball court," Nebraska Coach Amy Williams said. "I love that she is committed to playing hard at both ends of the court. Not only is Callin the perfect fit for us on the court, but she fits our family. She is not afraid to work and understands how to be a great teammate."

One of the Big Ten's most improved players, Hake averaged 6.1 points, 2.8 rebounds and 1.9 assists, producing more points (+79), rebounds (+60), assists (+49), steals (+15) and blocks (+1) than 2022-23. She also hit 37.7 percent (40-106) of her three-point attempts.

She notched her seventh double-figure scoring performance with 15 points, including 12 in the second half, in Nebraska's 64-56 win over Purdue at the Big Ten Tournament (March 7). Hake averaged 8.3 points and 3.3 rebounds, while hitting 7-of-15 threes (.467) in Nebraska's run to a Big Ten Tournament runner-up finish.

Hake had 11 points and four rebounds at No. 5 Iowa (Jan. 27). She had a career-high-tying 16 points on 4-of-7 three-point shooting in NU's first-ever home win over Maryland (Dec. 31).

OUTLOOK (2024-25)

A member of the Big Ten All-Freshman Team by both the coaches and the media in 2024, Logan Nissley hopes to be a regular contributor in the Nebraska backcourt again as a sophomore in 2024-25.

The 6-0 guard from Bismarck, N.D., averaged 7.0 points and 2.1 rebounds while shooting nearly 40 percent from three-point range as a freshman, despite battling foot injuries for much of her first season.

Nissley underwent offseason surgery to alleviate the pain associated with her injuries and missed much of summer training while recovering.

She has continued to increase her activity since the start of the fall semester and hopes to be ready to contribute to a deep Husker backcourt this season.

Nissley increased her production throughout the season and joined Nebraska's starting lineup down the stretch as a freshman. She played in all 35 games for the Huskers, including 10 starts to end the season.

She averaged 7.0 points, 2.1 rebounds and 1.1 assists while sinking the second-most three-pointers by a freshman (59) in Nebraska history. The only Husker to hit more threes as a freshman than Nissley was first-team All-American and 2014 Big Ten Player of the Year Jordan Hooper with 67 in 2010-11.

Nissley played a major role in Nebraska's first-round NCAA Tournament win over Texas A&M by matching Alexis Markowski with a team-high 16 points. Nissley buried 4-of-6 threes against the Aggies, while adding three rebounds and two steals in the 61-59 victory. Her two free throws with 17 seconds left gave the Huskers a 60-59 lead.

Her four threes against Texas A&M tied her season high for the fifth time, including a 4-for-10 effort from long range in the Big Ten Championship Game against No. 3 Iowa, when she finished with 13 points and five assists in a career-high 34 minutes. She also went 4-for-6 from long range on her way to 12 points and a career-high six assists in a win over Northwestern (Feb. 20), after going 4-for-5 from beyond the arc in a win over Southern (Dec. 17). Nissley established her career best by hitting 4-of-6 threes on her way to a career-high 18 points in a win over UNCW (Dec. 5).

The three-time North Dakota Gatorade High School Player of the Year matched her career scoring high with 18 points in a road win at Purdue (Feb. 17) in her first career start.

OUTLOOK (2024-25)

Natalie Potts hopes to increase her productivity while joining returning All-Big Ten center Alexis Markowski on Nebraska's front line for the second season in 2024-25.

Potts, a 6-2 sophomore from O'Fallon, Mo., burst on the scene a year ago to claim 2024 Big Ten Freshman-of-the-Year honors from the conference coaches. A unanimous choice on the Big Ten All-Freshman Team, Potts started all 35 games alongside Markowski and averaged 10.2 points and 5.5 rebounds.

The eight-time Big Ten Freshman of the Week, showed the ability to finish at a team-best rate during the regular season and was a key to Nebraska's run to the Big Ten Championship Game and the second round of the NCAA Tournament.

"Natalie is a great fit for us both on and off the basketball court," Nebraska Coach Amy Williams said. "She has an incredible motor, and her competitive spirit matches the values we have for our team. She is versatile and a proven winner from one of the most successful high school programs in the country."

The 2024 Big Ten Freshman of the Year as voted by the conference coaches, Potts was a unanimous choice on the Big Ten All-Freshman Team and claimed honorable-mention All-Big Ten accolades from the league media.

The eight-time Big Ten Freshman of the Week ranked among the top freshman scorers (10.2 ppg) and rebounders (5.5 rpg) in the conference. Potts was one of only 10 freshmen in Husker history to start every game.

Potts, who tied the Nebraska Big Ten Tournament record with nine blocks over four games, followed with her second career 20-point performance, just missing a double-double with 21 points and nine rebounds in the Big Ten Championship Game against No. 3 Iowa (March 10). It was her 20th game scoring in double figures in 2023-24.

She produced game highs of 18 points, including 13 in the third quarter, and 10 rebounds in Nebraska's win over Northwestern (Feb. 20).

As a sophomore, Williams averaged 11.9 points, 3.2 assists and 3.0 steals to earn second-team Super-State and All-Nebraska honors. She was also the 2022 Lincoln Journal Star Girls Basketball Player of the Year. She helped the Silver Hawks to a state runner-up finish by scoring 24 points in a quarterfinal win Omaha Central. Southwest finished with a 21-6 record that included a semifinal victory over Millard South, before suffering a loss to Fremont in the state championship game.

Williams sparked an upstart Southwest team as a freshman, averaging 8.9 points, 1.9 assists and 2.6 steals in helping the Silver Hawks to a 19-3 record and a berth in the Class A state tournament first round. Williams earned honorable-mention Class A all-state accolades from both the Lincoln Journal Star and Omaha World-Herald in 2021.

She led Southwest to a Class A state semifinal appearance as a senior softball player in the fall of 2023, leading Class A with 18 runs scored while batting .450 with 18 RBIs and 17 stolen bases. She earned first-team All-Nebraska and Super-State recognition along with first-team Class A all-state honors as a senior.

She missed her junior softball season in the fall of 2022 after suffering a knee injury in summer basketball. As a sophomore, Williams batted .362 with six home runs, seven doubles and 29 RBIs as a shortstop and center fielder to help the Silver Hawks to a Class A state championship in the fall of 2021. She was an honorable-mention Class A all-state choice as a sophomore.

She was a member of Lincoln Southwest's soccer program that advanced to the Class A state soccer tournament in the spring of 2021, 2022, 2023 and 2024.

BIG RED EARNS NCAA TOURNAMENT WIN

Jaz Shelley (#1), Annika Stewart (#21), Maddie Krull (#42) and Darian White (#0) celebrated Senior Day with a 70-51 victory over Minnesota in front of 7,101 fans at Pinnacle Bank Arena (Feb. 24). It was one of six home crowds of more than 6,500 for the Huskers in 2023-24.

Four Huskers earned All-Big Ten recognition for the third consecutive year to help Nebraska to one of its most successful seasons in a decade in 2023-24.

Nebraska, which battled its way to a 23-12 overall record, fought its way to the Big Ten Championship Game before earning a trip to the second round of the 2024 NCAA Tournament.

Along the way, the Huskers made history with an 82-79 win over No. 2 and eventual NCAA runner-up Iowa in front of a school-record crowd of 15,042 in the first women's basketball sellout at Pinnacle Bank Arena on Feb. 11. For the season, Nebraska ranked 15th nationally with an average home attendance of 6,088.

The Huskers played to huge crowds home and away all season and continued to set television viewership records, including 4.77 million viewers for its overtime battle with Iowa in front of a sold-out crowd at the Target Center in Minneapolis. The television audience was the largest for a women's basketball on CBS in over two decades.

The interest in the Huskers and women's sports as whole was further confirmed by Nebraska leading the nation in four-sport (women's basketball, volleyball, soccer, softball) attendance in 2023-24, attracting an NCAA-best 418,198 fans during the year.

The drawing power of the Huskers came in large part to the stars Nebraska continues to put on the court.

Alexis Markowski captured first-team All-Big Ten honors for the Big Red by averaging team bests of 15.7 points and 10.5 rebounds per game. The 6-3 center and hometown Husker was a beast inside, producing 19 double-doubles on the season to tie Nebraska's career record with 40 in just three seasons. She will enter her senior year tied with former Husker first-team All-Americans Kelsey Griffin and Jordan Hooper for Nebraska's all-time lead in that category.

Markowski, who was a Lisa Leslie Award candidate for the second straight season, also earned a spot on the Big Ten All-Tournament Team. In four tournament games, Markowski averaged 16.5 points, 11.3 rebounds and 3.8 assists, including 23 points, 13 rebounds and five assists in the Big Ten Championship Game against No. 3 Iowa.

Markowski's 45 rebounds at the Big Ten Tournament were nine more than any other Husker in a single conference tournament in history. Her 66 points and 15 assists also ranked among the top five Huskers in history at any league tournament.

Nebraska's team co-MVP along with graduate guard Jaz Shelley, Markowski produced eight 20-point games, including a monster 20-point, 21-rebound effort in a road win at Purdue (Feb. 17).

Markowski finished with 369 rebounds in 2023-24 for the third-highest total in school history trailing only Nebraska career rebound leader Janet Smith's top two totals (417, 1980-81; 372, 1979-80).

Markowski will enter her senior season with a chance to challenge Smith's school record of 1,280 career rebounds.

Shelley was nearly as consistent and spectacular for the Huskers throughout the season. The second-team All-Big Ten selection was electric in the conference tournament, averaging 20.5 points, 4.5 rebounds and 8.5 assists over four games in Minneapolis.

The 5-9 guard from Moe, Australia, secured her spot on the Big Ten All-Tournament Team with her 30-point, nine-assist effort in a semifinal victory over Maryland when she knocked down a season-high six three-pointers. She followed with a double-double with 16 points and 13 assists in the championship game against Iowa.

Shelley, who was a first-team All-Big Ten choice in 2022-23, closed her Husker career at No. 4 in school history with 244 threes, while ranking fifth with 565 assists. She closed her career as Nebraska's No. 16 all-time scorer with 1,364 points in just three seasons.

Shelley averaged 13.4 points, 4.3 rebounds and team bests of 5.7 assists and 1.6 steals as a senior. The two-time Ann Meyers Drysdale Award candidate also became the first Husker in history to be named the Associated Press National Player of the Week following her 23-point, five-assist performance in Nebraska's upset of No. 2 Iowa in Lincoln. Shelley scored 10 points in the fourth quarter against the Hawkeyes to lead the Big Red back from a 14-point fourth-quarter deficit. She also held National Player of the Year Caitlin Clark scoreless in the final period for the only time in her career.

Earlier in the season, Shelley became the first Husker to record two career triple-doubles, producing 19 points, 10 rebounds and 11 assists in little more than a half in a win over UNC Wilmington (Dec. 5). She recorded her first triple-double against North Carolina Central (Nov. 20, 2021) with 14 points, 10 rebounds and 10 assists.

Shelley capped her Nebraska career by being selected with the No. 29 overall pick by the Phoenix Mercury in the 2024 WNBA Draft.

While Shelley and Markowski continued to carry Nebraska for the third years of their careers, newcomers Natalie Potts and Logan Nissley demonstrated Nebraska's prospects for a bright future as well.

Potts, who came to Nebraska as a two-time Missouri High School Player of the Year while leading national powerhouse Incarnate Word Academy to 100 consecutive wins to end her career, brought a winning edge to the Huskers.

The 6-2 forward was an eight-time Big Ten Freshman of the Week on her way to becoming the 2024 Big Ten Freshman of the Year. An honorable-mention all-conference choice by the league media and a unanimous selection to the Big Ten All-Freshman Team, Potts averaged 10.2 points and 5.5 rebounds while starting a Nebraska freshman-record 35 games alongside Markowski.

Potts produced five double-doubles on the season, including a 17-point, 13-rebound effort in Nebraska's win over Maryland at Pinnacle Bank Arena (Dec. 31).

She added another key double-double with 13 points and 10 boards in a low-scoring win over Michigan (Jan. 17), before going for 18 points and 10 boards in a victory over Northwestern (Feb. 20).

Potts just missed a double-double with 21 points and nine rebounds in the Big Ten Championship Game against Iowa.

Overall, she produced double-figure points on 20 occasions, while grabbing double-digit rebounds six times. Potts also set the Nebraska record with nine blocked shots over four Big Ten Tournament games.

Nissley joined Potts on the Big Ten All-Freshman Team by providing huge plays and big shots late in the season. The three-time North Dakota High School Player of the Year started Nebraska's final 10 games, beginning with a career-high 18 points in a road win at Purdue (Feb. 17).

She followed with 12 points and a career-high six assists in a win over Northwestern (Feb. 20), before adding 11 big points in a Big Ten quarterfinal win over Michigan State (March 8).

Nissley added 13 points and five assists in the Big Ten Championship Game against Iowa, before erupting for 16 points on 4-of-6 three-point shooting to help Nebraska to its NCAA Tournament first-round win over Texas A&M in Corvallis, Ore. (March 24).

For the season, Nissley averaged 7.0 points and 2.1 rebounds while hitting 39.9 percent (59-148) of her three-point attempts. Her 59 made threes ranked No. 2 among freshmen in Nebraska history, trailing only first-team All-American and Nebraska Athletic Hall of Famer Jordan Hooper (67, 2010-11).

While Nebraska's four Big Ten award winners fueled the Huskers, it was truly a team effort night in and night out for Big Red.

Senior guard Maddie Krull, who battled foot injuries throughout the season, showed her grit, toughness and leadership by playing in 32 games with 16 starts. Despite her injuries, Krull continued to lock down one of the opposition's top guards on a nightly basis.

Graduate transfer Darian White, also provided sparks throughout the season. White, who was also hobbled by a late-season knee injury, competed in 34 games with 23 starts. She averaged 6.6 points, 3.5 rebounds and 2.4 assists. In Nebraska's NCAA Tournament win over Texas A&M, White scored eight big points and grabbed four rebounds in 19 minutes off the bench.

Kendall Moriarty stepped up at every opportunity and showed her stellar defensive ability. The junior guard from Wheaton, Ill., started 17 games on the year and averaged 3.1 points and 1.3 rebounds. Her career-high 11-point performances in home wins over Michigan (Jan. 17) and Purdue (Jan. 31) helped ignite key Big Ten series sweeps of both the Wolverines and the Boilermakers.

Junior Kendall Coley added versatility and showed her ability to make key plays in critical moments throughout the season. In Nebraska's Big Ten-opening win at Michigan State, Coley pumped in a season-high eight points, including a pair of first-half buzzer-beaters.

Sophomore Callin Hake emerged as one of the Big Ten's most improved players. The 5-8 guard played in all 35 games with five starts and averaged 6.1 points, 2.1 rebounds and 1.9 assists. Hake knocked down 37.7 percent of her threes on the year and showed her willingness to step up and hit big shots time and time again.

In Nebraska's Big Ten Tournament-opening win over Purdue (March 7), Hake pumped in 15 points on 3-of-6 three-point shooting to help the Huskers pull away and complete a three-game season sweep of the Boilers.

In Nebraska's regular-season home win over Maryland (Dec. 31), Hake erupted for a career-high 16 points on 4-of-7 three-point shooting, while adding five rebounds. She finished the season with seven double-figure scoring efforts while dishing out at least one assist in 33 of Nebraska's 35 games.

Logan Nissley earned a spot on the Big Ten All-Freshman Team by playing all 35 games with 10 starts in 2023-24. She led Nebraska with 16 points in an NCAA Tournament win over Texas A&M.

Senior forward Annika Stewart battled injury early in the season that significantly limited her playing time. She continued to work and found ways to contribute down the stretch. Stewart capped her Husker career with eight points and three rebounds in 10 minutes in the second-round NCAA Tournament loss at No. 12 Oregon State (March 24). She added four big points in the 61-59 win over Texas A&M (March 22). She also pumped in nine points on 4-of-6 shooting in a Big Ten Tournament semifinal win over Maryland (March 9).

Stewart's early season injury also created an opportunity for freshman Jessica Petrie. The 6-2 forward from Gold Coast, Australia was one of eight Huskers to play in all 35 games during the season. She averaged 3.8 points and 2.0 rebounds in just over 10 minutes per contest.

Petrie made her biggest impact in a Big Ten regular-season opening win at Michigan State, when she pumped in a career-high 11 points for the second straight game (Dec. 9). Petrie went 5-for-7 from the field. She added seven big points in a low-scoring win at Michigan (Feb. 6) to help the Huskers secure another crucial conference road win.

Nebraska entered the 2023-24 season with high hopes surrounding the return of starting guard Allison Weidner. The junior from Humphrey, Neb., started NU's first 13 games in 2022-23 before suffering a season-ending knee injury against Kansas in mid-December.

Her recovery went well and she was moving at full speed before suffering a knee injury to her other leg in practice on Oct. 13, 2023.

At the same time, Krull and Nissley were struggling with foot injuries and Nebraska's deep backcourt suddenly looked thin.

Nebraska opened with wins over Northwestern State and at Wyoming, before the Huskers got a scare with a lower leg injury to Shelley early in a win over Alcorn State.

The injury kept Shelley out of the starting lineup for the only time all season in a 79-74 loss to No. 22 Creighton (Nov. 19), but she did play 32 minutes off the bench. Shelley aggravated the injury several times throughout the non-conference season, which limited her early season production.

Despite the challenges, Nebraska entered Big Ten play at 7-2 before getting a big 80-74 win at Michigan State. The Huskers improved to 9-2 with a win over Southern before a disappointing 69-52 loss at Kansas (Dec. 20).

However, Nebraska bounced back with its first-ever home win over Maryland and a road win at Wisconsin to improve to 3-0 in the conference and 11-3 overall.

The entire state of Nebraska celebrated the retirement of Jordan Hooper's No. 35 jersey on Jan. 7, when the Huskers faced No. 14 Indiana. Unfortunately, Indiana ruined the party with a 91-59 win over the Huskers.

Nebraska showed its resiliency again by bouncing back with a 56-48 win over Illinois (Jan. 11).

The Huskers battled to a 6-5 record before getting huge wins over Michigan and No. 2 Iowa. Those wins ignited a final stretch where Nebraska won nine of 13 games, with its only losses at No. 2 Ohio State, against No. 3 Iowa in OT, at No. 12 Oregon State and at WBIT Champion Illinois.

Jaz Shelley was Nebraska's first AP National Player of the Week (Feb. 12) after earning Big Ten Player-of-the-Week honors following her 23-point performance in NU's win over No. 2 Iowa (Feb. 11). Earlier in 2023-24, Shelley became the first Husker to produce two career triple-doubles with her 19 points, 10 rebounds and 11 assists in a 108-35 win over UNCW (Dec. 5). A member of the Ann Meyers-Drysdale Award watch list for the second straight year, Shelley was named to the Naismith Trophy and Wooden Award watch lists. A preseason first-team All-Big Ten choice, Shelley earned second-team All-Big Ten honors honors before being named to the 2024 Big Ten All-Tournament Team.

Game Highlights: Jaz Shelley scored a game-high 17 points on 4-of-7 three-point shooting, while Alexis Markowski added her 10th double-double to help power Nebraska to a 56-48 win over Illinois at Pinnacle Bank Arena. In a game dominated by defense, Nebraska built an 18-4 lead in the game's first 7:30, only to see Illinois hit three straight threes to close the first quarter and cut NU's margin to 18-13. Illinois stayed hot in the second quarter, cutting the margin to 30-29 at the half. The Huskers missed 14-of-15 shots to end the first half, but never lost the lead thanks to tremendous defense and strong rebounding. Nebraska rebuilt the margin to 12 points late in the third after a Shelley three with 45 seconds left. The Huskers then went 10 minutes without a field goal before Markowski got a layup off an assist from Shelley with 45 seconds left in the game. That basket and five free throws in the final 2:33 were enough to hold off the Illini, as NU's defense allowed just a Makira Cook jumper in the game's final 5:45. Markowski finished with 14 points and 15 rebounds, while Natalie Potts added eight points. Brynn Shoup-Hill led Illinois with 14 points on 4-of-7 three-point shooting.

Nebraska's final miss came with 0.6 seconds left on a right sideline out-of-bounds lob pass from Jaz Shelley to the left side of the rim to Alexis Markowski who got a clean catch and uncontested shot, but it did not fall. Six seconds earlier, Shelley got a wide open look at a three-pointer. With nine seconds left, Darian White got a running left-handed shot at the rim from the block. Game Highlights: Alexis Markowski produced 18 points and nine rebounds to lead Nebraska in a hard-fought 65-59 win to complete a season sweep of Michigan at the Crisler Center. Markowski hit 8-of-11 shots and made the two biggest plays of the game on offensive rebounds on missed free throws in the fourth quarter. Michigan led 50-48 before Jaz Shelley hit a shot inside and was fouled to tie the game. Shelley missed the free throw, but Markowski rose above the Wolverines and tapped the ball in to complete a four-point possession and give Nebraska the lead for good at 52-50 with 6:51 left. Six Huskers combined for Nebraska's final 13 points, before Markowski pulled down another offensive board on a missed Husker free throw in the closing seconds to end any Michigan comeback hopes. Nebraska trailed by seven at the end of the first quarter after scoring a season-low eight points. Michigan's lead grew to 20-11 before Maddie Krull and Shelley hit back-to-back threes to spark the NU offense. The Big Red cut the margin to 29-28 at the half, before taking a 46-43 lead to the fourth. Natalie Potts finished with 12 points, while Shelley closed with 10. The Huskers won without Darian White, who missed the game with injury.

Game Highlights: Jaz Shelley scored 10 of her 23 points to help Nebraska rally from a 14-point fourth-quarter deficit for an 82-79 win over No. 2 Iowa. Playing in front of the first women's basketball sellout at Pinnacle Bank Arena with a school-record 15,042 fans and a FOX national TV audience on Super Bowl Sunday, the Huskers got a 10-0 run from Shelley and Logan Nissley late in the fourth quarter to turn a 77-70 deficit into an 80-77 lead. Shelley's fifth three with 31 seconds left gave Nebraska its first lead at 78-77, before she sank a pair of free throws with 19 seconds left to cap the 10-0 run. She closed out the scoring with two more free throws to seal the win. The victory matched the highest-ranked foe the Huskers had ever beaten, joining a 103-99 3OT win over No. 2 and eventual NCAA champion Baylor on Jan. 12, 2005 in Lincoln. Nissley finished with 15 points and seven rebounds, while Natalie Potts added eight of her 14 points and five of her six rebounds in the fourth. Alexis Markowski added her 14th double-double with 15 points and 11 rebounds to keep the Huskers within striking distance early. Caitlin Clark led Iowa with 31 points, 10 assists and eight rebounds but did not score in the fourth quarter for the first time in her career.

GRADUATE (2023-24)

Maddie Krull returned for her second season as a Husker and fourth year of college basketball in 2023-24. The 5-9 guard from Omaha joined Alexis Markowski and Allison Weidner as Nebraska natives on the NU roster.

Despite battling a foot injury throughout the season, Krull was a leader on and off the court. She helped Nebraska earn a trip to the second round of the NCAA Tournament after advancing to the Big Ten Championship Game. Along the way, she earned Nebraska's Big Ten Sportsmanship Award.

Krull missed Nebraska's first three regular-season games after suffering a foot injury in practice Nov. 4. She returned to score five points and grab four rebounds in 21 minutes off the bench against No. 22 Creighton (Nov. 19).

She added a strong performance in NU's first-ever home win over Maryland (Dec. 31) with five points, four rebounds, four assists, two steals and a block. Krull then contributed a season-high seven points to go with four rebounds and two assists in a win over Illinois (Jan. 11).

Krull averaged 2.0 points, 1.6 rebounds and 1.2 assists on the season.

She closed her four-year college career with 125 games played and 100 starts, including 65 games as a Husker with 40 starts. She averaged 5.9 points, 2.8 rebounds and 1.8 assists over her career.

Krull, who earned her bachelor's degree from Nebraska in August of 2023, earned CSC Academic All-District and Academic All-Big Ten accolades in 2024.

JUNIOR (NEBRASKA, 2022-23)

Krull started 24 of Nebraska's final 25 games and helped the Huskers advance to the Postseason WNIT Super 16. She averaged 6.1 points, 2.0 rebounds and 1.8 assists in her first season as a Husker, joining the starting lineup for the first time in Nebraska's first-ever win at No. 20 Maryland (Dec. 4) after Trinity Brady was lost for the season to an injury at No. 9 Virginia Tech (Dec. 1). Krull remained in the starting five throughout the season following a triple-overtime win over No. 20 Kansas (Dec. 21) that included a season-ending injury to starting guard Allison Weidner.

Krull provided a stabilizing presence throughout the season that allowed the Huskers to overcome injuries in the backcourt to Brady, Weidner and fifth-year starter Sam Haiby.

Krull opened her Husker career with 18 points, including a career-high-tying four three-

GRADUATE (2023-24)

Jaz Shelley was selected with the 29th overall pick in the 2024 WNBA Draft by the Phoenix Mercury after leading Nebraska to the second round of the NCAA Tournament and igniting the Husker run to the Big Ten Championship Game.

The 5-9 guard from Moe, Australia (pronounced MO-ee) closed her career No. 4 in Husker history with 244 three-pointers while ranking fifth with 565 assists. Her 1,364 points in three seasons also ranked 16th in NU history.

Shelley captured a spot on the Big Ten All-Tournament Team by averaging 20.5 points, 4.5 rebounds and 8.5 assists over four games in Minneapolis, including a 30-point, nine-assist effort in a semifinal win over Maryland. She knocked down a season-high six three-pointers in the win over the Terps.

She followed with a double-double in the championship game against No. 3 Iowa, producing 16 points and 13 assists to go along with six rebounds, two steals and two blocks in the overtime loss to the Hawkeyes.

Shelley opened the tournament with 19 points, seven rebounds and seven assists in a win over Purdue (March 7), before adding 17 points and five assists in a win over Michigan State (March 8).

Earlier in the season, Shelley was named Nebraska's first-ever Associated Press National Player of the Week by putting up 23 points and five assists in an 82-79 win over No. 2 Iowa in Lincoln (Feb. 11). She scored 10 points in the fourth quarter against the Hawkeyes to lead Nebraska back from a 14-point fourth-quarter deficit. She also played a key roll in holding National Player of the Year and NCAA all-time scoring leader Caitlin Clark scoreless in the fourth quarter for the only time in her career. Shelley was also named the Big Ten Player of the Week (Feb. 12).

A three-time All-Big Ten choice in her career, Shelley was a second-team All-Big Ten pick in 2023-24 after averaging 13.4 points, 4.3 rebounds and team bests of 5.7 assists and 1.6 steals in her third season at Nebraska and fifth college season overall.

figures 22 times, including each of the final 14 games of 2020-21.

White opened the season with 22 points against North Dakota (Dec. 6), before scoring a then-career high 24 points at Portland, when she also pulled down 11 rebounds and dished out nine assists. She also snagged five steals against the Pilots (Dec. 17). It was her third 20-point effort in the first four games as a sophomore, joining a 21-point performance at Utah (Dec. 11).

She closed the season with three 20-point efforts and three double-doubles, including 16 points and 10 rebounds at Eastern Washington (Feb. 11) and 10 points and 10 boards against Northern Colorado (Jan. 9).

White put together arguably the best freshman season in Montana State history by ranking second on the team in scoring (12.7 ppg) and third in rebounding (4.8 ppg), while leading the Bobcats in both assists (3.4 apg) and steals (2.5 spg). She was named the Big Sky Freshman of the Year and was an honorable-mention All-Big Sky choice. Playing alongside Big Sky Player of the Year Fallyn Freije (13.7 ppg, 7.7 rpg), White helped Montana State to the conference regular-season title and a trip to the Big Sky Tournament Championship Game. However, the tournament title game was canceled by the onset of COVID-19, as the Bobcats finished with a 25-6 overall record and a 19-1 Big Sky mark. She averaged 19.0 points, 4.5 rebounds, 2.5 steals and 2.0 assists in two Big Sky Tournament games.

White scored in double figures 25 times, including each of the final 10 contests of the year. She scored a season-high 23 points to go with nine rebounds, seven assists and five steals in 45 minutes at Eastern Washington (Jan. 18). White produced a pair of double-doubles on the year, including 13 points and a career-high 11 assists against Sacramento State (Feb. 27). She notched her first career double-double with 12 points and 10 boards against Sacramento State (Dec. 28).

HIGH SCHOOL

A native of Boise, White was the 2019 Idaho Gatorade Player of the Year at Mountain View High School. The Idaho Press Player of the Year, White averaged 15.2 points, 5.7 rebounds, 3.2 assists and 3.4 steals on her way to 5A All-Idaho Player of the Year honors. She was also named the 5A Southern Idaho Conference Player of the Year. She led Mountain View to a 25-1 record and a state runner-up finish as a senior in 2018-19. As a junior, White was second-team 5A All-Idaho after averaging 12.1 points, 5.5 rebounds, 2.5 assists and 3.5 steals. She played her club basketball for Idaho Hoop Dreams.

Nebraska drew its first sellout crowd for women's basketball with 13,595 fans at the Devaney Center on Feb. 27, 2010. The Huskers, who drew 10 straight crowds of more than 10,000 fans to close 2010, defeated Missouri 67-51.

HUSKERS CELEBRATED FINAL SEASON AT DEVANEY IN 2012-13

NEBRASKA FACED UTAH AT DEVANEY ON NOV. 23, 2014

For 37 seasons (1976-2013) the Nebraska women's basketball team called the Bob Devaney Sports Center home. In 2013-14, the Huskers made a successful move into Pinnacle Bank Arena, tying the school record with 16 home victories while ranking No. 8 nationally in total attendance (110,892). Nebraska made its regular-season debut at the 15,000-seat Pinnacle Bank Arena with a resounding 77-49 victory over Pac-12 power UCLA on Nov. 8, 2013.

Little more than a year later, the Huskers returned to their old home court to face another Pac-12 foe, when Nebraska defeated Utah, 66-43, at the Devaney Center on Nov. 23, 2014. The game against the Utes was the first played by the Huskers on their old home court since the Devaney Center was completely renovated for volleyball prior to the 2013 season.

In Nebraska's final season of women's basketball at the Devaney Center (2012-13), the building featured a seating capacity of 13,595. The nearly $20 million in renovations at the Devaney Center reduced capacity to 7,907 with standing room approaching nearly 8,500. The Husker volleyball program led the nation in home attendance in 2013 with 8,175 fans per match.

The renovations to the Devaney Center continued with significant upgrades to the outside of the building in 2014. Inside, ceiling trusses have been added to provide an historic feel, while five luxurious suites and large new 10MM video screens have been installed to help create an electric atmosphere.

Although the Huskers no longer compete at the Devaney Center as their permanent home, the team's impressive practice facility, the Hendricks Training Complex, is attached to the Devaney Center. Not only do the Huskers continue to utilize the Devaney Center for summer camps, the building also serves as a host site, along with Pinnacle Bank Arena, for the Nebraska Boys and Girls State Basketball Tournaments.

Named after Nebraska Hall of Fame football coach and athletic director Bob Devaney (1962-93), the Devaney Center opened in the fall of 1976 and is located on NU's Innovation Campus (formerly the Nebraska State Fairgrounds). The building currently houses Nebraska's volleyball, track, swimming, wrestling and gymnastics teams.

In 2009-10, Nebraska ranked seventh nationally with a school-record average home attendance of 7,390 fans per game. The Huskers also led the Big 12 in league games only by averaging 11,383 fans per contest, including seven consecutive crowds of more than 10,000 fans to close the season. NU sold out the Devaney Center for women's basketball with 13,595 on hand for a win over Missouri on Feb. 27, 2010. The Huskers have regularly ranked among the top 30 teams in average attendance, including 16th in 2012-13.

TRADITION

HUSKERS GROW TRADITION WITH WILLIAMS

By Mike Babcock & Jeff Griesch

"This team of Huskers likes to practice. And they say practice makes perfect. And now they are. Perfect regular season! Perfect regular season! Nebraska finishes the regular season perfect - 29-0!"

As those words boomed from the voice of Husker play-by-play announcer Matt Coatney, the Huskers completed the first unbeaten regular season by a Big 12 men's or women's basketball team in history in 2009-10.

Nebraska's win came with more than 2,000 Big Red fans on hand at Bramlage Coliseum in Manhattan, Kan., on a day that All-American Kelsey Griffin erupted for a career-high 36 points on 15-of-19 shooting from the field in an 82-72 win over the Wildcats on March 6, 2010.

For Griffin and the Huskers, it was another step in a history-making season that left the Nebraska record book in turmoil and the Husker Nation in a fan frenzy.

The win over Kansas State also capped a perfect 16-0 conference campaign that gave the Huskers their first-ever Big 12 crown. Nebraska clinched that title at the Lloyd Noble Center in Norman, Okla., as the No. 3 Huskers ran past No. 11 and defending Big 12 champion Oklahoma, 80-64 on Feb. 24.

Griffin, the 2010 Big 12 Player of the Year, dominated the Sooners as well, pouring in 30 points while pulling down 13 rebounds, as NU improved to 13-0 in league play.

Nebraska returned home to power past Missouri, 67-51, as Griffin led the Huskers with 19 points and career highs of 17 rebounds and five blocked shots.

Following the game, the first-ever sellout crowd of 13,595 fans at the Devaney Center stayed to witness the presentation of the Big 12 regular-season trophy and a net-cutting ceremony on the Huskers' homecourt.

After the ceremony, Griffin and the Huskers signed autographs for nearly 1,000 fans until almost midnight in the hallway near the locker room.

"We were sorry to keep them waiting so long, and we just couldn't stop signing," Griffin said. "Our fans have been awesome and it was an amazing night. We wanted to celebrate with them and send them home happy."

Griffin and the 2010 Huskers sent the fans home happy one more time on Senior Night with a 77-52 win over Kansas to complete a perfect 16-0 home campaign. Griffin and fellow first-team All-Big 12 selections Cory Montgomery and Yvonne Turner, along with seniors Kala Kuhlmann, Nicole Neals and Nikki Bober were honored as the largest and most successful senior class in school history.

More than 12,000 fans were on hand for their finale, the seventh consecutive crowd exceeding 10,000 to end the season - matching the total number of crowds of greater than 10,000 in the previous 35 seasons of Nebraska women's basketball.

The Huskers stretched their school-record winning streak to 30 games before falling in the Big 12 Tournament semifinals to No. 11 Texas A&M.

At 30-1, the Huskers earned the first No. 1 seed in the NCAA Tournament in school history, before beating Northern Iowa and UCLA at Williams Arena in Minneapolis to advance to the program's first NCAA Sweet 16.

Nebraska's breakthrough 32-2 season ended with a loss to No. 19 Kentucky at the Sprint Center in Kansas City. But the loss did not define the 2010 Huskers or their impact on Nebraska women's basketball.

In the locker room in the moments following the loss, Coach Connie Yori focused on the history and memories her team made.

"In the years to come when we look back on this year, we are going to remember everything that we accomplished," Yori said. "But you all know I've said this all along, when you look back on your time at Nebraska, you won't remember the wins and losses. You are going to remember all the great times you had with your teammates on and off the court."

Nebraska's focus on team chemistry, love and respect for one another, character, effort and mental toughness, allowed the Huskers to succeed at the highest levels of any team in school history.

Nebraska's first winner of the Senior CLASS Award in any sport, Griffin produced one of the best senior seasons in school history by averaging 20.1 points and 10.4 rebounds per game. She led an unprecedented hardware haul by Husker players by being named a first-team All-American by the WBCA, AP, USBWA and the Wooden Award.

Amy Williams, who led Nebraska to NCAA bids in 2018, 2022 and 2024, was named Nebraska's 10th women's basketball coach on April 11, 2016. A four-year letterwinner at Nebraska (Amy Gusso, 1995-98), Williams was the 2018 Big Ten Coach of the Year and the Summit League Coach of the Year at South Dakota (2015, 2016).

A Wade and Naismith Trophy and Wooden Award finalist, Griffin was a three-time first-team All-Big 12 selection. She was joined by Montgomery and Turner on the first team, while Dominique Kelley earned honorable-mention accolades and Lindsey Moore was named to the Big 12 All-Freshman Team.

Griffin and Turner were both named to the league's five-player All-Defensive Team, while Turner was named the Big 12 Co-Defensive Player of the Year.

The Huskers continued to make history after the season ended, as Griffin was chosen as the No. 3 overall pick in the 2010 WNBA Draft. Selected by the Minnesota Lynx and then traded to the Connecticut Sun, Griffin became the highest Husker draft pick in history.

A little more than one hour later, Montgomery joined Griffin as the first pick of the third round with the No. 25 overall pick to the New York Liberty.

"It was truly a special season - a season that we will all remember for the rest of our lives," Yori said. "This was the hardest working team and the best practicing team I have ever coached, and the results were obvious. This team deserved every win and every award it received."

Yori was named the WBCA, AP, USBWA, Naismith and Kay Yow National Coach of the Year. She also earned Big 12 Coach of the Year honors. She added Big Ten Coach-of-the-Year honors in 2013 and 2014.

In 2014, Nebraska captured its first-ever conference tournament title by winning the Big Ten crown at Bankers Life Fieldhouse in Indianapolis. Jordan Hooper, who replaced Griffin in Nebraska's starting lineup, earned Big Ten Player-of-the-Year honors and first-team WBCA All-America accolades - just like her predecessor.

Hooper, a 6-2 forward from Alliance, Neb., tied Griffin's school record with 40 double-doubles and was named a first-team Senior CLASS All-American. A tremendous outside shooter, Hooper also smashed NU's three-point record with 295 in her career. She averaged 20.4 points and 9.1 rebounds per game to lead the Huskers to the second round of the NCAA Tournament. In 2013, Hooper helped the Big Red to their second NCAA Sweet 16, after leading NU to an NCAA Tournament bid in 2012. In her final three seasons, Hooper's Husker teams averaged 25 wins per season, the best three-year stretch in Nebraska history. Hooper went on to be the No. 13 overall pick in the 2014 WNBA Draft by the Tulsa Shock.

Hooper's selection, which followed Lindsey Moore's No. 12 pick by the 2013 WNBA champion Minnesota Lynx, gave the Huskers three top-15 WNBA picks and six All-America awards claimed by the Huskers from 2010 to 2014.

Like the 2010 team, the 2014 Huskers featured All-Big Ten players from top-to-bottom in their starting five. Rachel Theriot earned honorable-mention All-America accolades after being named the Big Ten Tournament MVP and a first-team All-Big Ten choice. Emily Cady and Tear'a Laudermill added second-team All-Big Ten awards, while Hailie Sample claimed a spot on the Big Ten All-Defensive Team.

Although the Huskers lost Hooper to graduation and Theriot to injury 21 games into the 2014-15 campaign, Nebraska's senior class of Cady, Laudermill, Sample and Brandi Jeffery continued the Huskers' NCAA Tournament tradition. The four seniors became the most successful class in history by becoming the first group of Huskers to advance to four consecutive NCAA tournaments. They also became the first class to produce four straight 20-win seasons on their way to a four-year program record 96 wins.

In 2015-16, Yori's 14 seasons at Nebraska came to an end with an 18-13 record that included a trip to the Postseason WNIT. She finished as the winningest coach in Nebraska women's basketball history with 280 victories, averaging 20 wins per season.

Yori had come to Nebraska on June 24, 2002. She took over following back-to-back losing seasons under Coach Paul Sanderford, and struggled to an 8-20 mark with only a handful of scholarship players in 2002-03. In her second season, Nebraska improved to 18-12 overall and made its first of seven straight postseason tournament appearances.

The Huskers added a postseason trip in 2004-05, despite featuring four first-time starters. Sophomore Kiera Hardy earned first-team All-Big 12 honors, while Jelena Spiric claimed Big 12 Newcomer-of-the-Year accolades. NU was also back in the top 25 in the national attendance rankings, averaging more than 4,000 fans per game.

The Huskers also produced the biggest win in school history with a 103-99 triple overtime victory over eventual national champion Baylor at Devaney on Jan. 12.

Nebraska made a third straight Postseason WNIT trip in 2005-06, again featuring Hardy as a first-team All-Big 12 guard, while adding Big 12 All-Freshman selection Kelsey Griffin at forward.

Hardy and Griffin helped the Huskers to a 19-13 mark in 2005-06, but still came up a win or two short of their goal of getting Nebraska back to the Big Dance.

BIG RED BUILD TITLE TRADITION IN BIG TEN

That mission was accomplished in 2007, as Hardy earned first-team All-Big 12 honors for the third straight season while shattering NU's career three-point record. Griffin joined Hardy with first-team All-Big 12 accolades, and the Huskers finished with a 22-10 overall record and a trip to the 2007 NCAA Tournament in Raleigh, N.C.

The Huskers fell in the first round to Temple, but it set up a repeat trip to the Big Dance in 2008. This time around, the 21-12 Huskers, again led by first-team All-Big 12 forward Griffin, knocked off Xavier in the first round.

After picking up just the third NCAA Tournament win in school history, the Huskers battled top-seeded Maryland down to the wire on the Terps' homecourt.

Griffin was the only returning starter on the 2008 team, as she was joined by senior Danielle Page, sophomore Yvonne Turner, junior college transfer Tay Hester and freshman Dominique Kelley in the Husker starting five.

The Huskers entered 2008-09 with high hopes, but those aspirations were tempered by a preseason foot injury to Griffin. Her injury required a pair of surgeries and she was forced to redshirt. Nebraska's inside depth was further challenged by a season-ending knee injury to Nikki Bober near the end of non-conference play. Starting forward Cory Montgomery played the entire season, but battled multiple injuries that limited her practice time early in the year. Turner also played through a shoulder injury, while Kaitlyn Burke, a part-time starter at shooting guard, struggled with a broken finger on her shooting hand.

Despite starting conference play 1-8, the Huskers refused to surrender and closed the Big 12 campaign as one of the league's hottest teams. NU finished the regular season with a 15-14 mark and a 6-10 Big 12 record to secure a seventh straight postseason trip.

Griffin, Turner, Montgomery and Kelley all returned to the starting lineup in 2009-10, and added Moore, the 2009 Washington High School Player of the Year at the point guard spot. The starting five, along with experienced senior reserves Kala Kuhlmann and Nicole Neals, and juniors Catheryn Redmon and Jessica Periago gave the Huskers the talent and depth to contend on the national level.

After injuries and graduation left the Huskers short-handed in 2010-11, a young Nebraska squad began a new building process in 2011-12. In the Huskers' first-ever Big Ten Conference season, a roster that featured six freshmen among just 10 active players rolled to the fourth-highest victory total in school history with a 24-9 record. After posting a 10-6 Big Ten regular-season mark, the Huskers stormed to the Big Ten Tournament Championship Game before falling in two overtimes to Purdue.

The young Huskers advanced to the school's 10th NCAA Tournament after posting nine wins over 2012 NCAA Tournament teams. Not only did the Huskers have to overcome their own inexperience, all five starters overcame injuries to start every game during the season.

Hooper became the first sophomore in school history to reach 1,000 career points, while becoming the first NU sophomore to produce 600 points and 300 rebounds in a season. Nebraska's first-ever first-team All-Big Ten selection, Hooper also claimed honorable-mention All-America honors from the AP and the WBCA.

A candidate for the Wade and Naismith National Player-of-the-Year awards, Hooper was joined on the Naismith watch list by Moore. The 5-9 junior was also one of eight finalists for the Nancy Lieberman Award as the nation's top point guard. A second-team All-Big Ten pick, Moore joined Hooper on the Big Ten All-Tournament Team and in Nebraska's 1,000-point club.

Cady earned a spot on the Big Ten All-Freshman team after producing one of the best rookie seasons in school history. The 6-2 forward from Seward, Neb., joined Sample in becoming the first freshmen in school history to start every game together during their rookie seasons.

The duo went on to join Hooper in the starting five for 100 consecutive games in Nebraska's first three seasons of Big Ten play.

That trio, along with Nebraska's career assist leader and 2013 honorable-mention All-American Moore, fueled the Huskers to their second NCAA Sweet 16. NU's four returning starters were joined by another Big Ten All-Freshman selection, Rachel Theriot, in powering the Huskers to a 25-9 record and a 12-4 Big Ten mark.

All-American Kelsey Griffin earned Big 12 Player-of-the-Year honors while leading the Huskers to 30 straight wins and a No. 1 seed in the NCAA Tournament. She had her jersey retired on Jan. 29, 2014.

The Huskers played for a share of the Big Ten regular-season title in the final home game at the Devaney Center. Although they came up short, the Huskers went on to defeat Chattanooga, 73-59 in the first round of the NCAA Tournament at College Station, Texas. Two nights later, the sixth-seeded Huskers pulled one of the biggest upsets of the tournament, knocking off SEC Tournament champion and No. 9 ranked Texas A&M, 74-63, on the Aggies' homecourt at Reed Arena.

Moore closed her amazing career with her fifth double-double, producing 20 points and 10 assists. Sample made a triumphant return to her home state with 10 points and 11 rebounds to add her first career double-double.

Moore, who led NU to three NCAA tournaments including a pair of Sweet 16 bids, started more games (132) and played more minutes (4,360) than any player in school history. She also set the school record with 699 career assists, while adding 1,673 points.

Hooper was the lone senior on NU's 2013-14 squad, but she was joined by juniors Cady, Sample and Laudermill, and sophomore honorable-mention All-America point guard Theriot in the starting five.

The 2014 Huskers finished with a 26-7 overall record for the second-best winning percentage in school history, while adding a 12-4 Big Ten mark. NU played for a share of the Big Ten regular-season title again on the final day of the season, but came up short at Purdue.

After having a nine-game conference winning streak snapped in West Lafayette, the Huskers rallied for three straight convincing wins over Minnesota, No. 19 Michigan State and No. 23 Iowa at the Big Ten Tournament.

After earning their first-ever NCAA Tournament automatic bid, the Huskers claimed a No. 4 seed and defeated Fresno State, 74-55, at Pauley Pavilion in Los Angeles. NU moved one game away from a chance to compete as a host in the NCAA Sweet 16 in its new Pinnacle Bank Arena, but came up short in an 80-74 loss to BYU.

The Cougars joined 2014 NCAA champion Connecticut, Texas A&M and DePaul for the NCAA Lincoln Regional in 2014 - the first NCAA Tournament basketball games in Lincoln since 1993.

Nearly 17,000 fans watched the three games in Lincoln, leading UConn Coach Geno Auriemma to acknowledge and praise the rise of women's basketball at Nebraska.

"Everybody's heard about the crowds here, the facilities here. Everything that's going on here. Every day's been great. The people are phenomenal. The building is spectacular. This is really, really, really nice. There's no doubt in my mind there will be another regional here, no question. Most places are fans of their team, not necessarily fans of the game. Here I think they take tremendous pride in their team, their school and the community, and they showed it."

The move into the new Pinnacle Bank Arena in downtown Lincoln brought even more excitement to Husker basketball. The $179 million arena held a school-record-tying 16 home wins in 2013-14, along with the 11th-highest average home attendance (6,161) in NCAA women's basketball. Nebraska's total attendance of more than 110,000 ranked eighth nationally and was the second-best total in school history, trailing only the 2010 season.

The Big Red attracted more than 6,000 fans per game to Pinnacle Bank Arena again in 2014-15, and ranked among the top 10 nationally in total attendance in each of the Huskers' first three seasons in the new building.

The current atmosphere is a far cry from its humble beginnings on the UNL campus. In March of 1898, a university women's team played a game against an outside opponent for the first time. The opposition was provided by a team from Council Bluffs, Iowa. The contest was played at the Nebraska armory, Grant Memorial Hall.

HUSKERS BUILD POSTSEASON TRADITION

Among the matters to be resolved before the game was whether men's rules or those of Smith College should apply. In 1894, only three years after Dr. James Naismith established the rules for basketball, Senda Berenson, director of physical education at Smith College in Massachusetts, modified Naismith's game for women.

In contrast to the Nebraska team, the captain of which was graduate student Louise Pound, the team from Council Bluffs had been playing by the more physical men's rules. A compromise was reached. The first half would by played by men's rules, the second by Smith College rules. The teams played six on a side: two centers, two guards and two forwards. Pound played center.

Another issue was whether men should be allowed to attend. Administrators decided that any "gentleman'' accompanied by a "lady'' would be admitted, but single men might be prohibited lest the game attract the wrong kind of audience. The unflattering bloomers women wore in gym classes were regarded as inappropriate dress for mixed company, regardless of the circumstances. As a result, intramural track and field competition involving women was held indoors until 1904.

Early basketball games involving the university women were well-attended, and there was "always a goodly surplus in the treasury,'' according to the Nebraska State Journal. The gymnasium was filled well in advance of the game's start.

The Council Bluffs team, made up of girls who were "slighter of build and younger,'' proved to be no match for Pound and her university teammates. Pound, who also was the first all-university tennis champion, accounted for three field goals and five free throws in a 15-7 win.

The play of Nebraska's Harriet Cooke and Marie Beach drew mention in newspaper accounts. Cooke, like Pound, played center and accounted for Nebraska's other points. Beach was a guard, along with Marie Kennedy. The Council Bluffs forwards were much shorter and had difficulty passing the ball over Beach and Kennedy to their centers, who were responsible for scoring goals. Bertha du Teil and Helen Welch were Nebraska's forwards. Rose Long was a substitute.

Basketball was introduced in the university's physical education classes for sophomore women in 1896. As was the case with male students, class teams competed against each other. The first all-university women's team was organized in 1896, according to the Nebraska State Journal. It included the best players regardless of their class, among them Welch, the only player from that first team who participated in the contest against the Council Bluffs team in March of 1898. Welch and her five teammates were "trained'' by Anne Louise Barr and played other inter-class teams.

The first women's game played before an audience was part of NU's sixth annual gymnasium exhibition in the spring of 1897, according to Phyllis Kay Wilke's "Physical Education for Women at Nebraska University, 1879-1923,'' published in the spring 1975 issue of Nebraska History.

Pound was the driving force in women's basketball at the university, organizing as well as playing on the earliest teams. She was a member of the team in the 1898-99 school year. It didn't play any opponents from outside of the university and very few intramural opponents, for that matter, because a large pipe organ donated by an alumni group was stored in the gym.

In April of 1901, the university sponsored a women's state tournament under Pound's direction at Grant Hall. Nebraska was represented by a first and second team in a field that included teams from the Omaha YWCA, Lincoln High and Wahoo High. The university's first team, led by captain Eleanore Miller, won the two-day competition.

Karen Jennings earned the 1993 Wade Trophy and was Nebraska's first first-team All-American. Jennings was a two-time Academic All-American of the Year for women's basketball and was inducted into the Academic All-America Hall of Fame in 2008.

In November of 1901, Nebraska played a team from the University of Missouri at Grant Hall, "the first intercollegiate match for girls ever played in the west,'' according to the Nebraska State Journal. Missouri was no match for its experienced opponent. Miller, who was still on the varsity team, had been succeeded as captain by Hannah Pillsbury. Nebraska won 31-4. The varsity team had yet to lose in its brief history.

Nebraska's varsity team didn't play against outside competition again until 1903, when it defeated the Omaha YWCA in Omaha 18-9 and a team from the Haskell Indian School in Lawrence, Kan., 42-8. The University second team also played that day, defeating Baker University, 22-1.

Efforts were being made to encourage intercollegiate competition for women, according to the Nebraska student yearbook for 1902, The Sombrero. The next university yearbook, published two years later, noted that women's basketball was experiencing dramatic growth.

In 1904, Nebraska suffered its first defeat, losing to the University of Minnesota at Minneapolis after opening an abbreviated schedule by shutting out the Lincoln YWCA 16-0. NU avenged the loss two weeks later in Lincoln.

Nebraska was 3-0 in 1905, against the Haskell Indian School, Missouri and the Omaha YWCA, the last two games on the road. The season was short but successful, the student yearbook noted: "Owing to an inability to schedule games with desirable teams, only three games were played.'' In 1907, no women's varsity team was picked.

In March of 1908, Nebraska played games against Minnesota, home-and-home, two weeks apart. Nebraska lost them both, 9-3 and 28-22, after a five-minute overtime. Earlier, NU had defeated a team from Nebraska Wesleyan to finish its final season with a 1-2 record.

Despite their remarkable success, the university women were allowed to play basketball only in physical education classes after April 24, 1908. In response to the concerns of faculty members, who considered such activity inappropriate, the Board of Regents abolished intercollegiate athletics for women. More than 60 years passed before the University sponsored women's teams.

Women's club teams were formed beginning in 1970. In 1974-75, such a team coached by Jan Callahan won nine of 16 games. Only three of the games were against opponents from outside the state. The team played on the small court in Mabel Lee Hall, which was named for the women's physical education director from 1924 to 1952. A typical audience might be 30, mostly friends and relatives of the players.

The modern era of women's basketball at Nebraska more accurately dates from 1975, with the arrival of Aleen Swofford as women's athletic director and the offering of scholarships. The total budget for women's athletics was less than $40,000.

George Nicodemus, an Iowa native who had directed John F. Kennedy College in Wahoo, Neb., to a pair of AAU women's national titles, succeeded Callahan as volunteer coach of NU's fledgling program in 1975. With seven scholarships and Jan Crouch, his tallest starter at 5-foot-11, Nicodemus produced a 22-9 record in his first season. The Huskers finished third in the Big Eight Tournament in Manhattan, Kan., in February of 1976. They won the state collegiate tournament held at Midland College in Fremont, Neb.; lost in the second round of an Association of Intercollegiate Athletics for Women (AIAW) regional tournament in Fargo, N.D.; and finished by winning two consolation games at the National Women's Invitational Tournament at Amarillo, Texas.

"We are only a couple of tall girls away from winning a national championship,'' Nicodemus said after his first year. Nicodemus, whose duties also included the softball program, became a paid coach his second season at Nebraska, receiving an annual salary of $12,000. The Huskers finished 20-14 and took second to Kansas State at the league tournament in Boulder, Colo. Nebraska's season ended with a 74-54 loss at Nebraska-Omaha in the first round of the state tournament.

The UNO game was Nicodemus' last as NU's coach. Dr. June Davis, who had served for two years as women's sports information director at the university, succeeded Swofford as women's athletic director and set about replacing Nicodemus. He passed away on Sept. 3, 2016, at the age of 92.

Davis hired Marcia Walker, who had spent two years at Dakota Wesleyan. Walker announced she would resign with about a third of a 12-14 season remaining. The team would have four more coaches in the next nine years, including Lorrie Gallagher, Colleen Matsuhara, Kelly Hill and Angela Beck, who finally brought stability to the program in 1986.

Gallagher followed Walker and coached two 20-win seasons, both of which earned the Huskers AIAW regional tournament berths. The first of Matsuhara's three teams advanced to an AIAW regional, making it three in a row. NU would have only one winning season in the next five.

The Huskers lost nearly twice as often as they won during the next two years, which preceded the promotion of Dr. Barbara Hibner to women's athletic director and Beck's arrival from Bradley.

Among the dominant Nebraska players of the late 1970s and early 1980s were 1,000-point career-scorers Jan Crouch, Diane DelVigna, Janet Smith, Kathy Hagerstrom, Cathy Owen, Debra Powell, Stacy Imming and Angie Miller. Powell finished her four-year career in 1984-85 with 1,843 points.

Powell was the first Husker to earn first-team All-Big Eight honors, earning the award as a junior. DelVigna was the most prolific of the eight scorers, averaging 19.1 points per game during her two seasons at NU. Smith, who played on the three consecutive AIAW regional qualifiers coached by Gallagher and Matsuhara, pulled down a school-record 1,280 rebounds and scored 1,284 points.

The 29-year-old Beck, a native of Decatur, Ill., had been an All-American at Millikan, an NCAA Division III school in her hometown. Beck inherited two players who helped the Huskers make history by capturing their first Big Eight regular-season title, the best record in school history and the first NCAA Tournament bid in 1988.

The two players, both Nebraskans, were Maurtice Ivy and Amy Stephens. The 5-foot-9 Ivy joined the Huskers in 1984, after a remarkable career at Omaha Central. She was a three-time Super-State basketball player and was chosen by the Lincoln Journal Star as the state's outstanding female high school athlete for 1984. Stephens arrived a year later from Alliance, Neb., where she enjoyed a high school career as much publicized as that of Ivy. Both were prolific scorers.

Ivy was the first player to score 2,000 career points at Nebraska. She reached that total, appropriately enough, at the Bob Devaney Sports Center on "Maurtice Ivy Night" in February of 1988. Mayor Bernie Simon had declared Feb. 17, "Maurtice Ivy Day" in Omaha. A proclamation to that effect was read before the game against Kansas. Ivy received a plaque from Omaha's Lewis and Clark Junior High, and her high school coach announced that her No. 22 jersey was being retired by Omaha Central.

Proving her sense of the dramatic was as keen as her shooting eye, Ivy hit a free throw with 23 seconds left for point No. 2,001. That point also secured what would be a 76-72 victory. Ivy hit three more free throws before game's end. The win was crucial to Nebraska winning the conference crown and earning an at-large bid in the NCAA Tournament. The season and Ivy's Nebraska career ended at 22-7 with a 100-82 loss at USC in the first round of the regional at Los Angeles. Ivy was chosen as the 1988 Big Eight Player of the Year. Beck was the conference coach of the year, and Kim Harris, a transfer from Bradley, earned Big Eight Newcomer-of-the-Year honors.

Ivy, whose career point total reached 2,131, was named to the Big Eight's all-decade women's basketball team for the 1980s. Stephens, who finished just 24 points shy of 2,000, received honorable mention on the all-decade team.

Karen Jennings was recruited from Persia, Iowa, in 1989, after playing six-on-six, half-court basketball at Tri-Center High School in Neola, Iowa, where she averaged an astonishing 59 points per game as a senior. Jennings adapted quickly to five-on-five basketball, leading the Huskers to back-to-back 20-win seasons as a junior and senior. She was voted the Big Eight Player of the Year both seasons, and in 1992-93, after Nebraska earned an NCAA regional bid, was chosen a first-team WBCA All-American.

Nebraska finished second in the Big Eight, then lost to Kansas 64-60 in the conference championship game at Salina, Kan., to enter NCAA play with a 22-7 record. The Huskers defeated San Diego in Lincoln, 81-58, before losing to USC, 78-60, in Los Angeles.

During a ceremony at halftime of a victory against Iowa State at the Bob Devaney Sports Center in January of 1995, Karen Jennings' No. 51 jersey was retired. Jennings was the first woman basketball player in the history of the University of Nebraska to be so honored.

Given Jennings' accomplishments in four seasons as a Husker, the honor was a slam dunk. She was the first woman in school history to be chosen as a first-team basketball All-American. She was awarded the Margaret Wade Trophy after her senior season. Wade was the first women's coach to be inducted into the National Basketball Hall of Fame in Springfield, Mass. The trophy named in her honor is presented annually by the WBCA to the women's collegiate player voted to be the nation's best.

Jennings twice was honored as the Big Eight Conference Player of the Year. She finished as Nebraska's career scoring leader and the second-leading scorer in conference history. She was first-team all-conference three times, and she led the Huskers to the NCAA Tournament in 1993.

Jennings distinguished herself in the classroom as well. She was a three-time Academic All-American. She earned Big Eight and NCAA post-graduate scholarships, and her academic success, combined with her athletic accomplishments, earned her recognition as the Big Eight Female Athlete of the Year in 1993.

Jennings continued to thrive following her tremendous athletic and academic accomplishments at Nebraska. After a successful career as a physical therapist, she changed gears and thrived in the real estate business in Omaha. Along the way, she contributed thousands of hours of community service and began to raise a family. For her success as a collegiate student-athlete and her accomplishments after her career, Jennings was honored with induction into the Academic All-America Hall of Fame in the summer of 2008.

Described as "the best of the best of the best" by longtime Academic All-America Hall of Fame spokesman and award-winning broadcaster Dick Enberg, fewer than 300 student-athletes all-time, across all-sports have been honored with Hall of Fame induction.

She also was selected to the inaugural class of the University of Nebraska Athletics Hall of Fame in 2015.

Beck, who added a freshman walk-on from Spearfish, S.D., named Amy Gusso to her 1994-95 roster, coached Nebraska to the 1996 NCAA Tournament before leaving for the fledgling (and now defunct) American Basketball League after the 1996-97 season. Beck was replaced by Paul Sanderford, who had taken Western Kentucky to the NCAA Tournament 12 times in 15 years as a coach. His Hilltoppers advanced to the semifinals three times and lost in the 1992 title game.

The 1997-98 squad led by Anna DeForge included fellow senior Gusso and tied then-school records for wins (23) and conference victories (11) and advanced to an NCAA sub-regional at Norfolk, Va., where it defeated New Mexico before bowing out against perennial power Old Dominion.

In 1998-99, the Nicole Kubik-led Huskers finished 21-12 and advanced to the NCAA Tournament, losing to Kentucky 98-92. In 1999-2000, the Huskers achieved another school first by advancing to their third consecutive NCAA Tournament, while Kubik capped her career by finishing as the school's No. 7 all-time scorer while ranking in the top 25 in NCAA Division I history with 418 career steals.

Kubik joined fellow seniors Brooke Schwartz and Charlie Rogers in becoming the first Nebraska natives from the same recruiting class to all score 1,000 points. Keeping the best of Nebraska's players at home has continued.

Yvonne Turner, the 2006 Nebraska High School Player of the Year, finished her NU career with 1,101 points, while becoming just the sixth guard in Husker history with more than 1,000 points, 200 assists and 200 steals. Dominique Kelley, the 2007 Nebraska High School Player of the Year, joined Turner in the 1,000-point club one year later.

Jordan Hooper was the 2008 and 2010 Nebraska High School Player of the Year, and finished her Husker career No. 2 in points (2,357) and rebounds (1,110). Emily Cady became the 13th native Nebraskan in NU's 1,000-point club and closed her outstanding four-year career with 1,461 points, 1,114 rebounds and 305 assists as one of the most versatile players in school history.

The Huskers began a new chapter in their women's basketball history with the return of Coach Amy (Gusso) Williams in 2016-17. A hard-working former Husker who earned back-to-back Summit League Coach-of-the-Year honors at South Dakota (2015, 2016), Williams began a substantial rebuilding project in 2016-17.

In her second season at Nebraska, Williams captured Big Ten Coach-of-the-Year honors by leading the nation's top turnaround while guiding the Huskers to the NCAA Tournament in 2018.

Nebraska was postseason eligible again in 2020 before the COVID-19 pandemic ended seasons around the world. NU rebuilt again to earn a trip to the 2021 WNIT, before advancing to the 2022 NCAA Tournament. The Huskers earned WNIT trip again in 2023 before running to the second round of the 2024 NCAA Tournament. NU's 2024 trip to March Madness followed a push to the Big Ten Championship Game. The Huskers finished with the 19th 20-win season in school history and their 16th NCAA Tournament bid.

Alexis Markowski, Jaz Shelley and Natalie Potts earned All-Big Ten honors in 2023-24. Markowski and Shelley claimed All-Big Ten honors for the third straight seasons and were both named to the Big Ten All-Tournament Team as well. Potts was the 2024 Big Ten Freshman of the Year, joining Markowski in giving the Huskers two of the last three league freshmen of the year.

Shelley, who was chosen in the second round of the WNBA Draft by the Phoenix Mercury, closed her career in the top five in school history in three-pointers and assists. Markowski enters her senior season in 2024-25 poised to challenge 2,000 career points and the Nebraska career rebounding record.

As the popularity of women's basketball at Nebraska continues to grow, the Huskers are confident that the best in the growing tradition of Big Red basketball is yet to come.

The most decorated women's basketball player in school history, Karen Jennings earned the Margaret Wade Trophy as the nation's outstanding player and WBCA/Kodak First-Team All-America honors in 1993. The 6-2 forward from Persia, Iowa, was a four-year starter and led Nebraska to the second round of the 1993 NCAA Tournament. The first Husker to have her jersey retired, Jennings' No. 51 was retired in 1994 and formally put on display at the Devaney Center in 2006. A giant banner displaying her name and No. 51 are now on permanent display alongside Maurtice Ivy's No. 30, Kelsey Griffin's No. 23 and Jordan Hooper's No. 35 at Pinnacle Bank Arena.

In March of 2015, she was named to the inaugural class of the University of Nebraska Athletics Hall of Fame - one of 22 athletes across all sports.

Jennings was one of the top student-athletes in NU history. She captured College Sports Communicators Academic All-American-of-the-Year honors in 1992 and 1993, while claiming CSC First-Team Academic All-America honors three times (1991, 1992, 1993). A two-time Big Eight Conference Player of the Year (1992, 1993) and a three-time first-team all-conference pick, Jennings was the Big Eight Newcomer of the Year in 1990.

The captain of Nebraska's All-Century Team announced in February of 2000, Jennings closed her career as the first player in school history to score more than 2,000 points and record 1,000 rebounds.

Jennings was also chosen as one of 25 Women of Distinction honored during the Nebraska Athletic Department's Silver Anniversary celebration of 25 years of women's athletics at NU in 1999-2000.

Jennings averaged 20.2 points and 8.4 rebounds per game in her career, while ranking first in points (2,405). She also ranks fifth in career rebounds (1,000), first in field goals made (981), second in field-goal percentage (.568), third in field goals attempted (1,726), tied for fourth in free throws attempted (570) and fifth in free throws made (426).

Jennings' 810 points and 25.3 points per game average in 1991-92 rank as the top single-season totals in school history, while her 10.0 rebounds per game allowed her to average a double-double as a junior. She also owns NU's single-game scoring mark with 48 points in an 87-82 win at Kansas State on Jan. 21, 1992.

In her freshman season, the Huskers struggled to a 10-18 overall record, but with Jennings as a nucleus, NU improved to 17-11 the next season. She set the Husker sophomore record for scoring average at 20.5 points per game (574 points).

NU continued to improve in Jennings' record-setting junior campaign, posting a 21-11 mark and advancing to the National Women's Invitational Tournament.

In her final season, Jennings helped Nebraska to its first NCAA Tournament win in history with 14 points and eight rebounds in an 81-58 win over San Diego at the Bob Devaney Sports Center on March 17, 1993.

Jennings added 16 points and 13 rebounds in a 78-60 loss at Southern California in the tournament's second round. NU finished with a 23-8 record and a second-place finish with a 10-4 mark in the Big Eight.

Jennings also claimed a spot on the Big Eight All-Tournament team after leading the Huskers to the tournament championship game.

Following a career in physical therapy, Jennings became a highly successful real estate agent in Omaha. Jennings was also the first Nebraska female student-athlete to be inducted into the College Sports Communicators Academic All-America Hall of Fame in 2008.

The most athletic forward in Nebraska women's basketball history, Jordan Hooper finished No. 2 at NU in points (2,357) and third in rebounds (1,110) while smashing the Husker record with 295 threes.

She became the fourth Husker in history to be honored with a jersey retirement, when her No. 35 was raised on Jan. 7, 2024, at Pinnacle Bank Arena alongside Karen Jennings (51), Maurtice Evy (30) and Kelsey Griffin (23).

The 6-2 forward from Alliance, Neb., was not only one of the top three-point shooters in Big Ten Conference history, she was also one of only three players in Big Ten history to achieve the combined milestones of 2,300 points and 1,100 rebounds. She was the first Husker to ever accomplish that feat.

Hooper, who tied Kelsey Griffin's school record with 40 career double-doubles, became Nebraska's first Big Ten Player of the Year in 2014, joining Griffin (Big 12, 2010), Karen Jennings (Big Eight, 1993) and Maurtice Ivy (Big Eight, 1988) as the only Huskers to claim conference player-of-the-year awards.

As a senior, Hooper became the third first-team All-American in Nebraska history, joining fellow 2,000-point scorers Jennings (1993) and Griffin (2010). A standout on the court, in the classroom and in the community, Hooper was one of five Senior CLASS Award first-team All-Americans. She was a second-team All-American by the Associated Press before being selected by Tulsa with the No. 13 pick in the WNBA Draft.

Hooper led the Big Red to the most successful three-year stretch in school history. NU finished with a 26-7 overall record during Hooper's senior season. The Huskers played for a share of the regular-season Big Ten title in the final game of the year for the second straight season before settling for third with a 12-4 league mark in 2013-14.

NU played for a share of the regular-season crown, going 25-9 overall and 12-4 in the Big Ten in 2012-13.

As a sophomore, Hooper helped the Huskers to a 24-9 mark and a trip to the Big Ten Tournament title game. After coming up short in those first three championship game appearances, Hooper and the Huskers claimed Nebraska's first-ever conference tournament title with a 72-65 win over Iowa on March 9, 2014, in Indianapolis.

Hooper also led the Big Red to three straight NCAA appearances from 2012 through 2014, including the school's second NCAA Sweet 16 bid in 2013. The 2013 and 2014 Huskers also became the first teams in NU history to win NCAA Tournament games in consecutive seasons. Overall, Nebraska averaged 25 wins per season in Hooper's last three years. Prior to her arrival as a two-time Nebraska Gatorade High School Player of the Year (2008, 2010), only one Husker team had ever won more than 23 games in a season.

A three-time All-American by both the WBCA and the Associated Press, Hooper was a three-time Wade and Naismith trophy candidate. She was a finalist for the Wade and Wooden awards in 2014. She was a three-time first-team All-Big Ten and a two-time Big Ten All-Tournament choice. Hooper was also a three-time academic All-Big Ten selection and NU's Big Ten Sportsmanship Award winner in 2014.

As a senior, Hooper averaged 20.4 points and 9.1 rebounds to push her career averages to 18.0 points and 8.5 boards per game. She started all 131 games of her career to rank third in NU history, while becoming one of just three Huskers to play 4,000 career minutes.

The first pick of the second round of the 2014 WNBA Draft by Tulsa, Hooper averaged 5.8 points and 2.4 rebounds per game as a rookie, before helping the Shock to the playoffs in her second WNBA season. She played for the Dallas Wings in 2016, before splitting time with Connecticut, Atlanta and Chicago in 2017.

In addition to her four seasons in the WNBA, Hooper was a professional overseas for nine years. She played for Besiktas (Turkey) in 2014-15, averaging 13.1 points and 6.0 rebounds per game.

Hooper played 15 games for Atenienses de Manat in Puerto Rico before starring for Southeast Queensland in Australia's WNBL in 2015-16. She ranked third in scoring (18.5 ppg) and seventh in rebounding (8.6 rpg) in the league.

She went back to Turkey to play for the University of Istanbul Club in 2016-17, averaging 12.5 points and 6.2 rebounds over 25 games, before returning to the WNBL to average 11.8 points and 5.0 rebounds for the Canberra Capitals in 2017-18.

She spent four of her last five seasons in Israel, including Elitzur Holon (18.1 ppg, 8.6 rpg, 2018-19), and A.S. Ramat Hasharon (13.0 ppg, 9.7 rpg, 2019-20), before spending 2020-21 with BK Tsmoki-Minsk in the Belarus Premier League (15.3 ppg, 8.8 rpg). She returned to Israel for Hapoel Petka Tikva (15.7 ppg, 9.0 rpg, 2021-22) and Hapoel Rishon Le-Zion (13.4 ppg, 8.6 rpg, 2022-23).

Hooper earned her bachelor's degree in psychology from Nebraska in May of 2014.

One of the most athletic players in Nebraska history, Maurtice Ivy was the first player in Husker history to surpass the 2,000-point barrier.

Ivy, who became the second Husker to have her jersey retired (Jan. 16, 2011), joins fellow 2,000-point scorers Karen Jennings (No. 51, 1994), Kelsey Griffin (No. 23, 2014) and Jordan Hooper (No. 35, 2024) in being honored with giant banners featuring their names and numbers on display at Pinnacle Bank Arena.

Ivy also became the second women's basketball player inducted into the Nebraska Athletics Hall of Fame in 2020.

Ivy was one of five players chosen to Nebraska's All-Century Team in February of 2000, and one of the "25 Women of Distinction" selected in 1999-2000 as part of the school's silver anniversary of women's athletics.

The athletic wing player from Omaha Central High School was the first Husker to earn Big Eight Player-of-the-Year honors after leading Nebraska to the Big Eight title in 1988. Ivy also earned a spot on the Big Eight All-Tournament team in 1986-87 and 1987-88.

A three-time first-team All-Big Eight pick, Ivy's 19.2 points per game rank second on Nebraska's career charts, while her 778 career rebounds rank 10th on the Huskers' all-time list. She is also tied for ninth in Husker history with 21 career double-doubles, including 10 as a sophomore in 1985-86.

Although Ivy was only 5-9, her outstanding leaping ability and court awareness made her a fierce shot blocker, as she ranks seventh on NU's all-time list with 104 blocked shots. Ivy also ranks, second in career field goals made (847) and attempted (1,799), third in free throws made (431), tied for fourth in free throws attempted (570) and eighth in career steals (215).

Ivy's 23.6 points per game average in 1986-87 rank as the second-best single-season scoring average in school history, and her 683 points as a junior rank as the fourth-highest total at Nebraska. Her 153 made free throws and 196 free throws attempted in 1986-87 were single-season Nebraska records until Kelsey Griffin and Dominique Kelley both eclipsed those marks in 2009-10.

Ivy produced one of the greatest performances in Husker history when she erupted for 46 points in Nebraska's 100-87 loss to Illinois at Maples Pavilion in Stanford, Calif., on Dec. 30, 1986.

It was one of eight 30-point scoring efforts in Ivy's career, including a pair of 35-point performances against Oklahoma and Kansas in 1987.

She added the 12th-best rebound total in school history with 19 boards to go along with 23 points in a 104-63 win over Brigham Young at the Illinois Invitational in Champaign, Ill., on Dec. 14, 1985. She also had 29 points and 14 rebounds at Iowa State on Feb. 22, 1986.

Along with leading the Huskers to their first conference title, Ivy guided Nebraska to its first NCAA Tournament appearance in 1988.

Ivy led the Huskers in the 100-82 loss at USC with a team-high 22 points to go along with nine rebounds, four assists, one blocked shot and one steal in her final game in a Nebraska uniform. Ivy served as an assistant coach at Nebraska-Omaha from the summer of 2004 through the end of the 2006-07 season, before becoming the head coach at Peru State College in the summer of 2007. She coached for six seasons at Peru State. She currently lives in Omaha.

One of the most decorated players in Nebraska history, Kelsey Griffin joins Karen Jennings (51), Maurtice Ivy (30) and Jordan Hooper (35) with Husker retired jerseys. Griffin's No. 23 was put on permanent display at Pinnacle Bank Arena on Jan. 29, 2014.

Griffin also joined Jennings and Ivy with induction into the Nebraska Athletics Hall of Fame in 2021.

Griffin produced one of the best senior seasons in school history on her way to first-team All-America honors in 2009-10. The 6-2 forward from Eagle River, Alaska, averaged 20.1 points and 10.4 rebounds per game while leading Nebraska to its best season in school history. The 2010 Big 12 Player of the Year, Griffin earned first-team All-America honors from the WBCA, Associated Press, U.S. Basketball Writers Association and the Wooden Award while powering Nebraska to its first NCAA Sweet 16 and its first Big 12 regular-season title.

Along the way, Griffin was named a finalist for every major national player-of-the-year award (Wade, Naismith, Wooden, Honda) and was Nebraska's first Senior CLASS Award winner in any sport. She was also a finalist for the V Foundation Comeback Award and the National Consortium on Academics and Sports Giant Steps Courageous Student-Athlete Award.

Griffin, who led Nebraska to its highest national rankings and first NCAA Tournament No. 1 seed, closed her career with a then-school-record 127 starts. She ranks fourth in school history with 2,033 points and 1,019 rebounds. She joins 1993 Wade Trophy winner Karen Jennings and 2014 first-team All-American Jordan Hooper as the only Huskers in history with 2,000 points and 1,000 boards. Griffin and Hooper also share the NU career record of 40 double-doubles with current Husker star Alexis Markowski. Griffin produced a single-season record 20 double-doubles as a senior in 2009-10.

A three-time first-team All-Big 12 pick, Griffin earned a spot on the Big 12 All-Defensive Team as a senior with single-season career bests of 60 steals, 26 blocks and a remarkable 29 charges drawn.

Griffin erupted for a career-high 36 points at Kansas State on March 6 to carry NU to the first perfect season in Big 12 history, helping the Huskers improve to 29-0 overall and 16-0 in the league. She hit 15-of-19 shots against the Wildcats. It was Griffin's fifth career 30-point effort, including her fourth as a senior (31 points, 11 rebounds vs. Creighton; 30/14 vs. No. 5 LSU; 30/13 at No. 11 Oklahoma).

Griffin earned six Big 12 Player-of-the-Week awards as a senior, including four straight to end the season. She finished with 104 career double-figure scoring efforts, including each of Nebraska's three games in the 2010 NCAA Tournament, when she averaged 18.3 points and 11.7 rebounds per game.

After a sensational start as a freshman, Griffin battled illness down the stretch, limiting her playing time during the last half of the 2006 Big 12 season.

In 2006-07, she was challenged by a breathing condition with effects similar to asthma. In 2007-08, Griffin played the entire year with a protective vest after cracking a rib in an exhibition game.

The rib injury and breathing condition could not stop Griffin from averaging 16.8 points and 8.2 rebounds. They also couldn't stop her from carrying NU to its first NCAA Tournament win since 1998.

Griffin erupted for 26 points going head-to-head with Xavier's post duo of 6-6 Ta'Shia Phillips and 6-5 Amber Harris to guide NU to a win over the Musketeers in College Park, Md.

However, in 2008-09 Griffin was forced to miss the entire season with a foot injury that required a pair of surgeries. She returned to full health before the start of the 2009-10 campaign.

Following her collegiate career, Griffin was the No. 3 overall pick in the WNBA Draft by the Minnesota Lynx. She was traded to the Connecticut Sun, where she earned one of five spots on the 2010 WNBA All-Rookie Team. Griffin spent her fifth and final WNBA season with the Sun in 2014. In 2013, Griffin started all 34 games while averaging 8.7 points and 5.0 rebounds. She played 133 WNBA games with 61 starts in her first four seasons, while averaging 5.0 points and 3.9 boards per game in her career.

Griffin has continued to be one of the top professionals in the world as a three-time WNBL champion (2013, 2014, 2019) and a three-time WNBL Grand Final MVP (2013, 2014, 2019). The 2019 WNBL MVP, she is a three-time first-team All-WNBL choice (2015, 2016, 2019) and earned second-team honors in 2022. She was voted the WNBL Defensive Player of the Year in 2015.

Griffin played in Hungary in 2010-11 and Israel in 2011-12, before joining the Bendigo Spirit in Australia's WNBL in 2012-13. She led Bendigo to the WNBL title and was named MVP of the championship series in 2013 and 2014. Griffin was a member of the WNBL All-Star Five and the league's Defensive Player of the Year in 2014-15, averaging 16.0 points and 9.2 rebounds. She played alongside former Husker teammate and Canadian Olympian Chelsea Aubry in Bendigo for three seasons (2012-13 to 2014-15).

In 2015-16, Griffin ranked fourth in the WNBL in scoring (17.9 ppg), third in rebounding (10.0 rpg), fourth in steals (41) and ninth in blocks (20) despite battling a hamstring injury. In 2016-17, she averaged 15.1 points and 7.7 rebounds, before spending her sixth season in Bendigo in 2017-18.

In 2018-19, Griffin was the WNBL MVP after leading the Canberra Capitals to the title. She led the WNBL in scoring (19.7 ppg) and rebounding (12.3 rpg) while ranking fifth in steals (1.7 spg) and eighth in blocks (1.0 bpg). She had 29 points and 15 rebounds in the championship game win over Adelaide, hitting five three-pointers. She was the MVP of the Grand Final, averaging 25.0 points and 16.7 rebounds in the series.

In 2020, the WNBL season was just six weeks (COVID-19), and Griffin appeared in 12 games, averaging 12 points and 8.1 rebounds for Canberra.

As a co-captain for the Capitals in 2021-22, Griffin earned second-team All-WNBL honors with 15.1 points, 8.1 rebounds and 2.2 assists. She returned to Bendigo in 2022-23, averaging 15.3 points, 7.4 rebounds, 2.3 assists and 2.6 steals. She completed her 14th pro season in 2023-24, averaging team bests of 15.9 points, 7.7 rebounds and 1.4 steals for Bendigo over 17 games. It was her 12th season in Australia.

She claimed her permanent citizenship in Australia in 2015, and earned MVP honors at the 2017 Asia Cup in her first Australian National Team appearance. She also competed for the Opals at the Commonwealth Games in 2018. She was scheduled to represent Australia in the first FIBA 3x3 Olympic Qualifying Tournament in India (March 18-22, 2020) before it was canceled by the coronavirus outbreak.

KIERA HARDY

2004-07
5-6, Guard
Kansas City, Mo.
(O'Hara)
1,930 Points (6)

Perhaps the most explosive player and creative shot-maker in Nebraska history, Kiera Hardy closed her career as one of the most prolific three-point shooters in Husker history.

Hardy, who earned WBCA Region 5 All-America honors as a senior, ranks sixth on Nebraska's all-time scoring list with 1,930 points. She also held NU's career three-point mark with 267 until Jordan Hooper hit 295 from 2011 to 2014. Hardy, Hooper, Hannah Whitish and Jaz Shelley are the only Huskers with more than 200 career threes.

A three-time first-team All-Big 12 pick, Kiera Hardy was one of the most explosive players in the Big 12 Conference in her three years as a starter.

Hardy tied Amy Stephens for second on the school single-season three-point list with 85 as a sophomore in 2004-05. Hardy added the junior single-season record with 81 in 2005-06.

A three-time first-team All-Big 12 selection for the Huskers, Hardy joins Hooper, Karen Jennings, Maurtice Ivy and Kelsey Griffin as the only three-time first-team all-conference selections in NU history. She also joined Chelsea Aubry as the first two Huskers to earn four straight postseason tournament bids.

Before Hardy's arrival on campus, the Huskers had failed to advance to postseason play for three consecutive seasons.

As a freshman, Hardy came off the bench to average 9.1 points per game in 27 contests. She helped NU to the postseason after the Huskers went 8-20 the year before she arrived in Lincoln. As a sophomore, Hardy made a splash on the Big 12 and national scene by averaging 19 points per game. She grabbed national headlines with her 37-point eruption against eventual national champion Baylor, as the Huskers knocked off the then-No. 2 Lady Bears, 103-99 in triple overtime, on Jan. 12, 2005.

Hardy's effort against Baylor marked a career high and was one of four 30-point performances in her career. She capped her sophomore season by tying a then-school record with seven threes against Iowa in the Postseason WNIT.

After leading NU to a third straight WNIT trip as a junior, Hardy guided the Huskers to their first NCAA Tournament berth since 2000 as a senior. She produced the third-highest scoring total by a Husker in the NCAA Tournament with 23 points in a loss to Temple. Hardy was a third-round pick of the Connecticut Sun in the 2007 WNBA Draft.

Hardy played professionally for Haukar in Iceland before playing for Strakonice in the Czech Republic in 2009-10. She also played for the Kansas City Queenz in the WBCBL in 2010. She was an assistant coach at Texas-Pan American in 2012-13. She earned her master's degree from Grand Canyon in 2019. She completed her fourth season as the head girls basketball coach at St. Teresa's Academy in Kansas City in 2023-24.

NICOLE KUBIK

1997-2000
5-10, Guard
Cambridge, Neb.
(Cambridge)
1,867 Points (7)

Nicole Kubik's success on the court was almost criminal. The 5-10 guard from Cambridge, Neb., was a two-time first-team defensive All-American by the Women's Basketball News Service, and ranks 21st all-time in NCAA Division I with 418 career steals. As a junior, she set the school record with a nation-leading 136 steals to earn Women's Basketball News Service National Defensive Player-of-the-Year honors.

Nicole Kubik was a two-time defensive All-American for the Huskers and a first-round WNBA Draft pick.

Kubik added 108 steals as a senior and 104 steals as a sophomore, giving her the top three single-season totals in school history.

Defense was just a small part of Kubik's game. She led the Huskers in scoring as a junior and a senior and ranks seventh in NU history with 1,867 points. She ranks sixth in school history with 563 career assists. A dangerous penetrator, Kubik had a knack for getting to the free throw line. Her 440 made free throws rank No. 2 on the Husker charts, while her 586 free throw attempts rank third. Her 119 career starts rank ninth.

As a senior, Kubik was one of 10 finalists for the Nancy Lieberman-Cline Award honoring the nation's top point guard. She earned first-team All-Big 12 and Big 12 All-Tournament honors and was chosen for the WBCA All-Star Challenge. She was also honored as one of five players on Nebraska's All-Century Team announced in February of 2000.

Kubik became the first Husker player ever chosen in the WNBA Draft in 2000. She was taken with the 15th overall pick in the first round by the Los Angeles Sparks. One of the most prolific passers in Nebraska history, Meggan Yedsena dished out 696 assists during her career for a record 5.8 assists per game. Yedsena owns four of the top 14 season assist totals in the Nebraska record books, including 195 in 1991-92, which stood as a school record until 2013-14.

Meggan Yedsena started all 120 games of her career, dishing out 696 assists, while scoring 1,116 points.

Nebraska's all-time leading scorer Karen Jennings and 1,000-point club member Nafeesah Brown were the two major beneficiaries of Yedsena's passing proficiency.

Yedsena's 696 assists stood as an NU career record from 1993-94 until 2012-13, when Lindsey Moore totaled 699.

Yedsena's skill helped her earn Big Eight Newcomer-of-the-Year honors in 1990-91. She was a three-time second-team All-Big Eight pick, after earning honorable-mention all-league accolades as a freshman. Yedsena was also first-team academic All-Big Eight in 1991-92 and 1992-93.

The 5-8 point guard started 120 straight games, averaging 9.3 points to finish with 1,116 points to rank 26th on Nebraska's all-time list. Her 297 steals were a Husker career mark until 1998-99. Yedsena set a career best with 12 assists in a 95-67 win over Oklahoma at the Bob Devaney Sports Center on Jan. 26, 1991, and tied that mark in an 87-60 win at Arizona State on Jan. 4, 1994. Both totals are tied for 10th all time on the Nebraska single-game charts. Amazingly, Yedsena never scored 20 points in a single game, recording a career high 19 points in Nebraska's 76-67 win over Kansas State on Feb. 11, 1994. Yedsena helped the Huskers to the first NCAA Tournament victory in school history with six points, seven assists and four rebounds in an 81-58 win over San Diego in Lincoln on March 17, 1993.

The Gatorade Pennsylvania Player of the Year and a third-team Parade All-American in 1990, she finished her career at Mahanoy Area High School with 2,751 points, including a 1,000-point season. 1,107 Points (28)

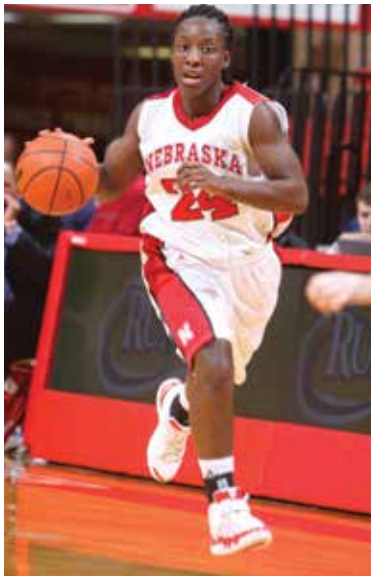
A four-year starter, Dominique Kelley was an outstanding all-around player who had her senior season cut short by knee injuries. The 2007 Nebraska High School Player of the Year at Lincoln Northeast, Kelley finished with 1,107 points despite missing nearly all of NU's final 20 games of the 2010-11 season.



Dominique Kelley started the first 109 games of her career. She was one of the top free throw shooters in school history.

As a starter in Nebraska's first 11 games as a senior, Kelley averaged 15.0 points, 5.0 rebounds and 3.5 assists. She was on pace to finish among the top 15 players in school history in scoring, while also smashing the school record for career starts. However, a knee injury kept her off the floor for all but eight minutes in the Big 12 opener against Oklahoma on Jan. 8. She also earned a start on Senior Night against Colorado, when she played eight seconds.

Kelley is one of only eight freshmen in NU history to start every game. As a rookie in 2007-08, she made 33 starts and averaged 6.4 points and 2.9 rebounds while helping the Huskers to the second round of the 2008 NCAA Tournament. Kelley showed improvement as a sophomore, increasing her averages to 9.7 points and 3.3 rebounds per game, while helping an injury-ravaged NU team to the second round of the 2009 Postseason WNIT.

An honorable-mention All-Big 12 choice as a junior, Kelley started every game and helped the Huskers to the best year in school history. She increased her averages to 12.6 points and 3.9 rebounds, while continuing her lock-down defense. In the 2010 NCAA Tournament, Kelley helped NU to its first Sweet 16 with 22 points against No. 22 UCLA. In the round of 16, she added 22 points against No. 19 Kentucky. In three 2010 NCAA Tournament games, Kelley averaged 18.3 points, 3.3 rebounds, 2.7 assists and 1.0 steal. She hit 18-of-30 shots, including 3-of-4 threes. She also went 16-of-22 at the free throw line.

One of the top free throw shooters in NU history, Kelley's 90.7 percent (68-75) shooting as a senior ranks third in the Husker record book. She ranks 10th in career free throws made (383) and attempted (490).

Kelley earned her bachelor's degree in broadcasting from Nebraska in 2012. She earned her master's degree in education administration in 2014, after spending the 2012-13 and 2013-14 seasons as an NU graduate assistant. She was the coordinator of basketball operations at Drake in 2014-15, before being promoted to assistant coach in 2015-16. She returned to Lincoln in 2016. She and her husband, Clyde Johnson, have two children. She was the head coach at Lincoln High School for five seasons, leading the Links to a Class A runner-up finish as the 2023 Nebraska State Coach of the Year. She was named the CEO of the Boys & Girls Club of Lincoln in October 2023.
