SCOUTING THE LINDENWOOD LIONS

Amy Eagan is leading an improved Lindenwood squad in her second season as the Lion head coach. She took over the top job at the St. Charles, Mo., school after guiding Drury to back-to-back 30-win seasons in 2021-22 and 2022-23, along with an NCAA Division II runner-up finish in 2020-21. Eagan posted an 87-9 record in three seasons at Drury.

The heart of the Lion lineup is made up of sophomores, including four starters and Lindenwood's top two contributors off the bench. Ellie Brueggemann, a 5-11 sophomore from Owasso, Okla., leads Lindenwood with 13.0 points per game. Brueggemann has hit a team-best 14 threes (.298) and 90.9 percent (10-11) of her free throws. She has added 2.0 assists and 1.5 steals per game.

Fellow sophomore Grace Wernli has added 11.3 points and 2.7 rebounds in her first season since transferring from Abilene Christian. The 5-9 guard from Bixby, Okla., has hit 21-of-22 free throws (.955).

Another sophomore newcomer, Brooke Coffey, has contributed 9.8 points, 6.2 rebounds and 2.7 assists as a starter. The 6-1 guard returned home to St. Charles after spending her freshman season at Illinois State. A high school teammate of Nebraska's Natalie Potts at Incarnate Word Academy, Coffey has scored in double figures four times this season, including a double-double with 11 points and 12 rebounds in a win over Bradley (Nov. 12).

Lindenwood's fourth sophomore starter is MyKayla Cunningham. The 5-10 point guard from Salina, Kan., is averaging 6.7 points, 3.5 rebounds and team bests of 3.5 assists and 1.8 steals in a team-high 31.0 minutes per game.

Senior Justis Odom, who averaged 9.2 points and a team-best 4.1 rebounds in her first season at Lindenwood in 2023-24, rounds out the starting five. The 6-2 transfer from Texas A&M-Corpus Christi is averaging 8.0 points and 5.2 rebounds this season. A graduate of Lawrence North High School in Indianapolis, Odom began her career at Garden City (Kan.) Community College. In 2022-23, she scored two points in 11 minutes in a 73-44 loss to Nebraska at the Puerto Rico Clasico.

Sophomore Mya Skoff (Bellevue East) is the top Lion off the bench, averaging 5.8 points and 2.8 rebounds in 24.1 minutes. Sophomore Alyssa Nielsen has added 5.7 points and 2.7 rebounds in 17.4 minutes.

HUSKERS FACE THIRD PRIDE OF LIONS

Nebraska plays its second game in a five-game home stand tonight when the Huskers clash with the Lindenwood Lions.

The meeting will be the first ever between Nebraska and Lindenwood in women's basketball, but it marks Nebraska's third opponent through the first eight contests this season against a team with a Lion for a mascot.

The Huskers defeated the Southeastern Louisiana Lady Lions, 78-68, in the second game of the season (Nov. 9), before beating the North Alabama Lions, 85-48, in the season's fifth game (Nov. 19).

Nebraska hopes to improve to 3-0 against opposing Lions while notching a sixth consecutive home win to open 2024-25. The Big Red improved to 5-0 at Pinnacle Bank Arena this season with an 84-38 run past Kansas City last Tuesday.

Callin Hake led five Huskers in double figures with 16 points while knocking down a career-high five three-pointers. Alberte Rimdal added a season-high 15 points, while Britt Prince contributed 13 points on 4-of-5 shooting.

Alexis Markowski contributed her third double-double of the season with 10 points and 10 rebounds, while freshman Amiah Hargrove pitched in her first double-figure scoring effort with career highs of 10 points and seven rebounds.

Nebraska put up its stingiest defensive effort of the season by holding Kansas City to just 38 points on 21.7 percent shooting. The Huskers also limited the Roos to just 1-for-14 from three-point range.

The Huskers, who scored 80 or more points for the fifth time through the first seven games this season, overcame their worst shooting performance of the season against Kansas City. Nebraska hit a season-low 37.9 percent from the field, but did connect on 12-of-29 threes (.414).

Lindenwood should provide a stiff test for the Big Red. The Lions come to Lincoln with a 4-2 record that includes wins over Missouri Valley Conference foes Bradley and Evansville, along with a win over Nebraska's last opponent, Kansas City.

The Lions opened the season with a 56-43 loss at Kansas (Nov. 6), and hung tough with the Jayhawks despite going 1-for-24 from three-point range. Since the KU loss, Lindenwood has connected on 29-of-89 threes (.326).

NEBRASKA VS. LINDENWOOD HISTORY

- Tonight's game is the first meeting between Nebraska and Lindenwood in women's basketball.
- The Nebraska men's basketball team rolled to an 84-52 win over Lindenwood in the 2023-24 season opener at Pinnacle Bank Arena (Nov. 6, 2023).
- Nathan Johnson Jr. is a senior on the 2024-25 Lindenwood men's roster. He is the son of former Husker men's basketball player Nate Johnson and former Husker women's basketball star Keasha (Cannon-Johnson) Bery.
- Mya Skoff, a 5-10 sophomore guard for the Lindenwood women, is a 2023 graduate of Bellevue East High School. Skoff was the first Division I women's basketball signee out of Bellevue East since Nebraska All-Big 12 guard Yvonne Turner in 2006. Turner, who is playing for Valencia in Spain, is in her 15th professional season in 2024-25.

FACTS & FIGURES

- Tonight's game is the 700th home game in Nebraska women's basketball history. The Huskers enter the game with a 524-175 all-time record at home. A victory would give Nebraska a winning percentage of exactly .750 at home.

THREE THINGS TO WATCH

- Alexis Markowski, who enters tonight's game with 1,011 rebounds, needs eight boards to match All-American Kelsey Griffin in fourth on Nebraska career rebound list with 1,019. Janet Smith (1979-82) owns the school record with 1,280 rebounds, while Emily Cady (2012-15) ranks second with 1,114. First-team All-American and 2014 Big Ten Player of the Year Jordan Hooper ranks third with 1,110.
- Markowski produced 10 points and 10 rebounds for her school-record 43rd career double-double in last Tuesday's win over Kansas City. Husker All-Americans Jordan Hooper (2011-14) and Kelsey Griffin (2006-10) are tied for second in career double-doubles with 40. Markowski owns three double-doubles this season.
- Nebraska has hit 10 or more three-pointers 43 times in the last 115 games, including a school-record 20 three-pointers in a win over South Dakota in Sioux Falls. The Big Red also hit 14 threes in a win over Southeastern Louisiana (Nov. 9) and 12 threes in the win over Kansas City (Nov. 26). NU set a school record with 292 made threes last season.
 - Nebraska has won its first five home games at Pinnacle Bank Arena this season by an average of 31.8 points per game (83.8-52).
 - The Huskers lead the Big Ten with a .434 three-point field goal percentage, while connecting on a conference-best 9.86 threes per game.
 - Britt Prince needs 15 points tonight to become the first freshman point guard in Husker history to reach 100 total points in her first seven games. The only freshmen in NU history to reach 100 points faster than seven games are Jessica Shepard (5), Jordan Hooper (6) and Debra Powell (6).
 - Prince is averaging 14.2 points on 61.5 percent shooting from the field. The last Nebraska freshman to average 13.0 points per game on a season was Jessica Shepard (NU freshman record 18.5 ppg) in 2015-16.
 - The Huskers have hit at least one three-pointer in 506 straight regular-season games dating back to a loss at UTEP on Dec. 20, 2009. Nebraska has hit at least two three-pointers in 385 consecutive games.
