HUSKERS TO FIGHT ILLINI IN BIG TEN SECOND ROUND

- Nebraska continues play in the 2025 TIAA Big Ten Women's Basketball Tournament by taking on Illinois in Thursday's second round in Indianapolis.
- Tip-off between the No. 10 seed Huskers (20-10, 10-8 Big Ten) and the No. 7 seed Fighting Illini (21-8, 11-7 Big Ten) at Gainbridge Fieldhouse is set for 5:30 p.m. (CT).
- Live television coverage will be provided by the Big Ten Network with Sloane Martin, Christy Winters Scott and Elise Woodward on the call.
- Nebraska fans can listen across the Huskers Radio Network, including 107.3 FM in Lincoln, 590 AM in Omaha, Huskers.com and the Huskers App. Matt Coatney and Jeff Griesch will be on the radio call with pregame beginning at 5 p.m. (CT).
- The Huskers, who have won three of their last four games, advanced to Thursday's second round with an impressive 84-60 win over Rutgers on Wednesday evening. Alexis Markowski led four Huskers in double figures with 19 points and 10 rebounds for her 52nd career double-double and 12th of the season. Amiah Hargrove tied a career high with 13 points, while Alberte Rimdal contributed 12 points and a career-high-tying eight assists. Britt Prince rounded out the quartet in double digits with 10 points and five assists.
- Nebraska buried 13-of-31 threes against the Scarlet Knights - NU's third consecutive Big Ten Tournament game with double-digit threes. The Huskers own four of the top seven three-point performances in Big Ten Tournament history (13 or more made threes), including a tournament-record-tying 15 against Illinois (March 3, 2022), 14 against Iowa in last year's Big Ten Championship Game and 13 against Illinois (March 1, 2017).
- The Huskers are led by four-time All-Big Ten center Alexis Markowski, who is surging down the stretch for the Big Red. The Lisa Leslie Award midseason finalist has averaged 23.8 points and 9.9 rebounds over the last eight games to increase her team-leading averages to 16.9 points and 8.2 boards. She owns five double-doubles in the last eight games.
- Big Ten All-Freshman Britt Prince has averaged 12.5 points and 5.5 assists the past two games after missing two games (Oregon, Washington) with a lower leg injury suffered in the closing minutes of a 77-68 loss at Illinois (Feb. 16). The 5-11 point guard ranks second among the Huskers in scoring (12.9 ppg), while leading the Big Red in assists (3.6 apg) and steals (1.9 spg).

Third Season at Illinois (62-33)

11th Season Overall (218-108)

HUSKER NUGGETS

• The 113 points scored by Nebraska against South Dakota in Sioux Falls tied for the fourth-highest point total in school history and marked just the second time since the turn of the century that NU had scored 110 or more points (also North Carolina Central, 113, Nov. 20, 2021).

• Nebraska's 20 threes in the win over USD (Nov. 16) shattered the previous school record of 17, which came in the 2010-11 season opener against Vermont at the Devaney Center on Nov. 13, 2010.

• The 30 combined three-pointers by Nebraska (20) and South Dakota (10) were the most in a game in school history, eclipsing the previous school record of 27 (twice). The Huskers (15) and Oregon (12) matched the second-highest total in school history with 27 (Feb. 19).

• The Huskers have hit at least one three in 529 straight games dating back to a loss at UTEP on Dec. 20, 2008. Nebraska has hit at least two threes in 408 consecutive games.

• Nebraska has hit 10 or more threes 50 times in the last 138 games, including 10 times in 2024-25, highlighted by a school-record 20-of-34 threes in a win over South Dakota (Nov. 16). The Huskers also tied a Pinnacle Bank Arena record with 16-of-32 threes in a win over Wisconsin (Jan. 20). NU hit 15-of-29 threes in a win over Oregon (Feb. 19) and sank 14-of-29 threes in a win over Southeastern Louisiana (Nov. 9). The Huskers hit 13-of-30 threes in a win at Iowa (Jan. 16), and 13-of-31 in a win over Rutgers in the Big Ten Tournament (March 5). NU also sank 12-of-21 triples in a win at No. 17 Maryland (Feb. 13), 12-of-28 threes in a win over Minnesota (Dec. 8), and 12-of-29 triples in a win over Kansas City (Nov. 26). The Huskers hit 10-of-22 threes in a win at Northwestern (March 2). NU hit double-digit threes 12 times in 2023-24, including 14 against Iowa in the Big Ten Championship Game (March 10), after hitting 13 in a win over Maryland (March 9).

• Through the first 20 seasons with the three-point shot in women's basketball (1988-2007), Nebraska hit 10 threes in a game just six times (591 games).

NEBRASKA'S 20-WIN SEASONS

• Nebraska produced its third 20-win season in the last four years by improving to 20-10 with Wednesday's win over Rutgers.

• The 2024-25 season marks Nebraska's 20th 20-win season in history, including a top victory total of 32 in 2009-10. Nebraska owns nine 20-win campaigns from 2009-10 to 2024-25.

• Nebraska owns four 20-win seasons under Coach Amy Williams, including a 23-12 record in 2023-24.

• The Nebraska men's basketball team (23-11) also notched a 20-win season in 2023-24, giving the two teams 20-win seasons in the same year for the first time since 2017-18, when the men finished 22-11, and the women went 21-11.

• The Husker men's and women's teams had never achieved 22 wins in the same season before 2023-24. Both teams recorded 23 victories a year ago.

HUSKER HOT TAKES

• The Huskers will be looking to advance to a third game at the Big Ten Tournament for the third time in four years, including three wins a year ago to advance to the Big Ten Championship Game at the Target Center in Minneapolis.

• Nebraska owns five NET Top 50 wins over No. 21 Michigan State, at No. 25 Maryland, at No. 27 Iowa, over No. 38 Minnesota and over No. 40 Oregon along with top-100 wins over No. 91 Penn State and No. 95 Southeastern Louisiana.

• All 10 of NU's losses have come to NET Top 50 teams, including five true road games - at No. 5 UCLA, at No. 6 USC, at No. 29 Georgia Tech, at No. 30 Creighton, at No. 31 Illinois and at No. 39 Indiana - along with home losses to No. 18 Ohio State, No. 27 Iowa, No. 28 Michigan and No. 43 Washington.

• Alexis Markowski continues her solid play with team bests of 16.9 points and 8.2 rebounds per game. The four-time All-Big Ten center ranks second in career points (1,870), rebounds (1,202) and double-doubles (52) among the national center-of-the-year finalists, trailing only Kansas State's seventh-year center Ayoka Lee.

• Lisa Leslie Award finalist Alexis Markowski has averaged 23.4 points and 9.9 rebounds over the last eight games while hitting 14-of-28 three-pointers (.500). Markowski has produced double digits in 15 of the last 16 games, including a career-high 35 points and a season-15 rebounds in a win over Oregon (Feb. 19). She added 30 points at Northwestern (March 2), after going for then-career highs of 28 points in NU's 85-80 win over No. 20 Michigan State (Jan. 8) and at Illinois (Feb. 16). Markowski owns a school-record 52 double-doubles, which ranks fourth among active NCAA Division I players. Her most recent double-double came with 19 points and 10 rebounds against Rutgers in the Big Ten Tournament first round (March 5).

• Britt Prince claimed a spot on the Big Ten All-Freshman Team and honorable-mention All-Big Ten honors from both the coaches and the media when awards were announced by the conference on Tuesday, March 4. Prince ranks second among the Huskers in scoring (12.9 ppg), while leading the Big Red in assists (3.6 apg) and steals (1.9 spg), which ranks 10th in the Big Ten.

• Prince, who was the USBWA National Freshman of the Week (Jan. 21), is the most recent of four 2024-25 Huskers to earn Big Ten All-Freshman honors, including Alexis Markowski (2022 Freshman of the Year), Natalie Potts (2024 Freshman of the Year) and Logan Nissley (2024).

• In 13 games away from Pinnacle Bank Arena this season, Husker freshman Britt Prince has averaged 15.2 points, 4.5 rebounds, 4.3 assists and 1.8 steals. All five of her 20-point performances have come on the road, while two of her three career-high eight-rebound efforts and both of her career-best eight-assist performances have been away from PBA.

• Nebraska is in position to earn its third NCAA Tournament bid in the last four years despite playing the past 25 games without 2024 Big Ten Freshman of the Year Natalie Potts, who suffered a season-ending knee injury against North Alabama (Nov. 19). Potts was averaging team bests of 17.5 points and 8.0 rebounds through the first four games prior to her injury.

HUSKERS DEDICATE SEASON TO INJURED TEAMMATES

• The Huskers have dedicated their performances the rest of this season to injured teammates Allison Weidner and Natalie Potts, who suffered season-ending knee injuries.

• Nebraska's five-game winning streak (Jan. 5-20) was made more significant after fourth-year guard Allison Weidner suffered a season-ending right leg injury in practice on Jan. 11. It was her third season-ending injury. Weidner, a 5-10 guard from Humphrey, Neb., was coming off her best game of the year with 11 points and six assists in NU's 85-80 win over No. 20 Michigan State (Jan. 8). Despite the injury occurring just hours before the Huskers traveled to Rutgers, the Big Red responded with its first win in Piscataway since 2018. The Huskers added their first win in Iowa City since 2018 and a 31-point home win over Wisconsin (Jan. 20).

• Sophomore Jessica Petrie has provided the most production in place of Natalie Potts, starting 19 games since the injury to the 2024 Big Ten Freshman of the Year, which occurred in the second quarter against North Alabama (Nov. 19). Petrie ranked second on the team in Big Ten rebounding (5.4 rpg) and fourth in scoring (7.4 ppg). Petrie produced her first career double-double with 10 points and 10 rebounds against Washington (Feb. 23), before going for 11 points, eight rebounds and a career-high seven assists in a win at Northwestern (March 2).

• Freshmen Amiah Hargrove and Petra Bozan also have stepped up to honor Potts. Hargrove has scored in double figures seven times since the injury to Potts, including her first career double-double with 10 points and a career-high 11 rebounds in the win at Iowa, and 11 points at Indiana (Feb. 2). She also tied her career high with 13 points in Wednesday's Big Ten Tournament win over Rutgers.

• Bozan, a 6-5 center, averaging 5.2 points and 2.7 rebounds in conference play, including Big Ten double-figure scoring efforts at Indiana (12) and in a win over Wisconsin (10). She also provided significant contributions in Big Ten wins over Northwestern (9 points, 6 rebounds), Minnesota (9 points, 5 rebounds), Rutgers (9 points, 3 rebounds/8 points, 4 rebounds) and Penn State (8 points, 6 rebounds).

HUSKER NUMBERS TO WATCH

- Alexis Markowski (1,870) moved to No. 7 on Nebraska's career scoring list in the win over Rutgers. She needs 30 points to reach 1,900 in her career.
- Markowski (1,202) became just the second Husker in history to achieve 1,200 career rebounds with 10 boards in Wednesday's win over Rutgers. Janet Smith (1,280, 1979-82) owns the top spot on NU's career rebound chart.
- Markowski (131) will move into a tie for fifth on Nebraska's career games played list with 132 on Thursday against Illinois.
- Markowski (130) needs eight points to catch Husker legend Maurice Ivy at No. 3 (138 points) on Nebraska's career conference tournament scoring list.
- Markowski (102) produced her 102nd game scoring in double figures with 19 points and 10 rebounds in a Big Ten Tournament-opening win over Rutgers (March 5). She has scored double digits in 26 of 30 games for the Huskers this season, after getting double figures in 32 of 35 games a year ago. She scored 10 or more points 21 times as a freshman and 23 times as a sophomore.
- Markowski (95) set Nebraska's career conference tournament rebound record in the win over Rutgers, surpassing NU's previous career best of 92 by Emily Cady (2012-15).
- Markowski (52) owns the top spot on Nebraska's career double-doubles list, 12 more than first-team All-Americans Kelsey Griffin (40, 2006-10) and Jordan Hooper (40, 2011-14).
- Kendall Coley (135) is third on the NU all-time list in games played. She is expected to tie Janet Smith for No. 2 on the list (136 games) against Illinois. Sam Haiby owns the school record with 139.
- Kendall Moriarty (106) played her 106th consecutive game Wednesday against Rutgers.
- Britt Prince (348/116) owns 348 points and 116 rebounds as a true freshman point guard for the Huskers. Nebraska's WNBA first-round draft picks Lindsey Moore and Nicole Kubik did not achieve either 300 points or 100 rebounds as true freshmen starting point guards at Nebraska.
- Prince (96) needs four assists to reach 100 on the season.
- Prince (50) recorded her 50th steal of the season with two steals in the win over Rutgers. She became the first Husker freshman since Nicole Kubik (1996-97) to record 50 steals. Prince needs eight steals to match Amy Stephens (58) for the fifth-best steals total by a freshman in NU history.
- Callin Hake (95) needs five assists to reach 100 on the season.
- Alberte Rimdal (890) needs 10 points to reach 900 in her college career.

SCOUTING THE ILLINOIS FIGHTING ILLINI

• Shauna Green has secured a pair of 20-win seasons in her first three years as head coach at Illinois, including a 21-8 mark with an 11-7 Big Ten record this season. Prior to Green taking over at Illinois, the Illini had not posted a 20-win campaign since 2007-08 (20-15).

362 teams ranked in NCAA Division I

• Illinois capped an eight-game Big Ten winning streak with a 77-68 win over Nebraska in Champaign (Feb. 16), but closed the regular season with three consecutive losses at UCLA (70-55), USC (76-66) and at home to Michigan (78-69) on Sunday.

• The Fighting Illini earned the No. 7 seed at the Big Ten Tournament behind an experienced lineup that includes first-team All-Big Ten forward Kendall Bostic (15.8 ppg, 11.3 rpg) and fellow fifth-year senior Genesis Bryant (14.9 ppg, 3.6 rpg).

• Bostic, who is the Big Ten's active leader with 53 career double-doubles, including a Big Ten-best 19 this season, ranks second among active players nationally with 1,385 career rebounds. She notched a double-double with 19 points and 11 rebounds in last month's win over Nebraska.

• While Bostic leads the Illini inside, Bryant has carried Illinois from long range with 62 three-pointers, while shooting 39 percent from beyond the arc. The 5-6 guard also leads the Illini with 3.9 assists. She finished with 12 points and four assists in the full 40 minutes in this season's win over the Huskers.

• Bostic and Bryant have been joined by seniors Adalia McKenzie (13.4 ppg, 4.8 rpg) and Brynn Shoup-Hill (5.2 ppg, 5.9 rpg) for all 29 games in the Illinois starting lineup. McKenzie carried Illinois with 17 second-half points on her way to 23 points, eight rebounds, seven assists and four steals in the win over Nebraska. Shoup-Hill added eight points and six boards.

• Sophomore Jasmine Brown-Hagger (8.6 ppg) was a starter after the season-ending injury to fifth-year senior Makira Cook (11.9 ppg) and the loss of top reserve Gretchen Dolan after the first eight games, which has limited the Illini to a seven-player rotation. However, Brown-Hagger left the win over Nebraska early in the first half with a leg injury and has not returned to the starting lineup.

• Freshman Berry Wallace has stepped up in a big way by averaging 9.0 points and 3.1 rebounds while hitting 41 percent (32-78) of her threes. Wallace erupted for 15 points off the bench, including a trio of threes, in the win over Nebraska. She moved into the starting five the last three games.

• Sophomore Cori Allen has contributed 1.1 points and 1.8 rebounds while playing in all 29 contests. • As a team, Illinois is averaging 71.2 points while holding the opposition to just 61.3 points on 40 percent shooting on the season, including just 27.7 percent from three-point range. The Illini also own a plus-4.3 rebound margin and a plus-1.1 turnover margin on the season.

• In conference play, Illinois out-shot its opponents overall (.426-.412), from three-point range (.389-.300) and the free throw line (.800-.716), while maintaining a plus-1.7 rebound margin.

NEBRASKA VS. ILLINOIS SERIES HISTORY

• Nebraska leads the all-time series with Illinois 20-8, but the Illini won the last two meetings in Champaign, including a 77-68 victory over the Huskers (Feb. 16). Illinois also defeated Nebraska, 74-73 (March 3, 2024).

• Alexis Markowski tied her then-career high with 28 points, including 17 in the second half against the Illini, while adding eight rebounds. Adalia McKenzie answered with 23 points, eight rebounds, seven assists and four steals in a strong all-around effort that included 17 second-half points. Kendall Bostic contributed 19 points and 11 rebounds, while Berry Wallace came off the bench with 15 points, including a trio of three-pointers.

• The Huskers lead the all-time series in Lincoln, 9-2, including a 56-48 win over the Illini last season (Jan. 11, 2024). Nebraska leads the all-time series in Champaign, 9-4.

• Nebraska is 17-6 against Illinois as Big Ten Conference foes, including 15-5 in Big Ten regular-season conference games. The series is tied 2-2 on neutral courts, including Nebraska's 92-74 Big Ten Tournament win over Illinois in Indianapolis (March 3, 2022).

• The series dates back to an 89-86 Nebraska win over the Illini on March 3, 1982 at the Bob Devaney Sports Center.

MARKOWSKI MAKES HISTORY AT CONFERENCE LEVEL

• Nebraska All-America candidate Alexis Markowski became the first women's basketball player in Husker history to earn four first- or second-team all-conference honors in school history when the Big Ten announced its annual awards on Tuesday, March 4.

• The 6-3 center from Lincoln claimed first-team All-Big Ten honors from the conference media for the second straight year, while adding second-team accolades from the coaches for the third time. She was a second-team All-Big Ten pick by the media as a freshman (2022) and a sophomore (2023).

• The only other Huskers in history to earn four all-conference awards are Emily Cady (Big Ten HM, 2011-12; HM, 2012-13; 2nd, 2013-14; 2nd, 2014-15) and Meggan Yedsena (Big Eight HM, 1990-91; 2nd, 1991-92; 2nd, 1992-93; 2nd, 1993-94).

• Markowski also earned a spot on the 2024 Big Ten All-Tournament Team by averaging 16.5 points, 11.3 rebounds and 3.8 assists over four games, including 23 points, 13 rebounds and five assists in the Big Ten Championship Game.

MARKOWSKI IN NU'S 1,800-POINT/1,200-REBOUND CLUB

• Alexis Markowski has increased her career totals to 1,870 points and 1,202 rebounds to become the first Husker in history to achieve the combined career milestones of 1,800 points and 1,200 rebounds.

• Jordan Hooper (2,357 points/1,110 rebounds, 2011-14) was a first-team All-American, the 2014 Big Ten Player of the Year and the first pick of the second round in the 2014 WNBA Draft.

• The only other players in Husker history with 1,500 points and 1,000 rebounds are Karen Jennings (2,405 points/1,000 rebounds, 1990-93) and Kelsey Griffin (2,033 points/1,019 rebounds, 2006-10).

PRINCE CLAIMS BIG TEN ALL-FRESHMAN HONORS

• Britt Prince is in the midst of one of the best freshman seasons in history by a Husker in 2024-25. The 5-11 point guard from Omaha ranks second among the Huskers with 12.9 points, while adding 4.3 rebounds and team bests with 3.6 assists and 1.9 steals.

• Prince became the fourth Husker in the last four years to earn a spot on the Big Ten All-Freshman Team when she was selected by both the coaches and the media to the five-player team on March 4. Prince also captured honorable-mention All-Big Ten accolades.

• She opened the Big Ten Tournament with 10 points, five assists and two steals in a win over Rutgers (March 5). Prince became the first Husker freshman since Nicole Kubik (1996-97) to record 50 steals in a season. She needs five assists to reach 100 on the season.

• Prince was the USBWA National Freshman of the Week (Jan. 21) after going for 22 points, seven rebounds, five assists and a career-high six steals at Iowa (Jan. 16). She also hit a career-high five three-pointers while playing a career-high 41 minutes against the Hawkeyes.

• The national award followed her first Big Ten Freshman-of-the-Week honor (Jan. 20), which she shared with Ohio State freshman Jaloni Cambridge.

• Prince ranks fifth among Big Ten freshmen in scoring (12.9 ppg).

• Prince, a two-time Gatorade and MaxPreps Player of the Year has scored in double figures 20 times, including a career-high 24 points on 8-of-15 shooting in a Big Ten road win at Rutgers (Jan. 12). She added six rebounds and three assists against the Scarlet Knights. Prince scored 10 points in the decisive fourth quarter.

• Her performance at Rutgers surpassed her previous career-high 23 points on 10-of-13 shooting in Nebraska's record-setting 113-70 win over South Dakota (Nov. 16). She added four assists and two steals in front of a sellout crowd at the Sanford Pentagon in Sioux Falls.

• She also pumped in a game-high 23 points in an important Husker road win at Purdue (Jan. 30).

• She added 20 points and six rebounds at Creighton (Nov. 22).

• Prince produced a 13-point effort in an upset of No. 17 Maryland in College Park (Feb. 13) that included a career-high eight assists.

• She matched her career best with eight assists while scoring nine points at Illinois (Feb. 16). Prince suffered a right lower leg injury in the closing minutes against the Illini when she was fouled on a three-point attempt in the corner. She earned three free throws but was unable to continue and Kendall Coley converted 2-of-3 in her place.

• Prince missed the next two games (Oregon, Washington, Feb. 19-23) before returning with 15 points and six assists in a road win at Northwestern (March 2).

• Prince had a game-high 19 points to go with five rebounds in a low-scoring win over Tarleton State (Dec. 11). She hit three threes against the Texans and went 6-for-6 at the line.

• Prince contributed 13 points on 4-of-5 shooting in a win over Kansas City (Nov. 26), before notching her fifth straight double-digit performance with a game-high 14 points in a win over Lindenwood (Dec. 3). She also had 13 points and a six assists against North Alabama (Nov. 19) during the five-game stretch. Prince added a career-high two blocks against the Lions.

• Prince had 10 points, four rebounds, two assists and two steals in NU's win over No. 20 Michigan State (Jan. 8). It was her third straight double-digit effort, joining 13 points, four rebounds, four assists and four steals in a win over Penn State (Jan. 5) and 10 points, a career-high-tying eight rebounds and four assists at No. 4 USC (Jan. 1).

• She became the first Husker freshman point guard to reach 100 points in her first eight games, when she put up seven points and seven boards in a win over Minnesota (Dec. 8). The only other Husker point guard to score 100 points in 10 or fewer games is Nicole Kubik (10 games, 1996-97).

• Prince, who won four consecutive Nebraska Class B state high school championships at PBA while playing for her mother, Ann Prince at Elkhorn North (2021-22-23-24), was the No. 16 recruit in the country according to Prospects Nation and No. 28 according to ESPN.

• An honorable-mention high school All-American last year by the Naismith award and MaxPreps, Prince produced one of the best senior seasons in Nebraska high school history in 2023-24. She averaged 27.0 points, 10.3 rebounds, 6.3 assists and 2.9 steals. She led the state in both scoring and assists as a senior on her way to finishing with a Class B record 2,491 points, surpassing Husker All-American Jordan Hooper's previous mark of 2,078.

• Prince also matched Hooper for No. 2 in state tournament history with 271 career points.

• In addition to being a four-time Super-State selection in basketball, Prince was a six-time gold medalist and two-time silver medalist at the Nebraska State Track & Field Championships.

• She was the 2024 Nebraska Girls Athlete of the Year across all sports.

• Prince missed Nebraska's win over Southeastern Louisiana (Nov. 9) with a lower leg injury, but returned for six points, four assists and three steals as a starter in a win over Southern (Nov. 12).

HUSKER FRESHMEN FEATURING EFFICIENCY

• Britt Prince is the leader of a talented freshman trio for Nebraska. While Prince has earned headlines by starting at point guard and putting up some of the best numbers in history by a Big Red rookie, fellow freshmen Amiah Hargrove and Petra Bozan have been dynamic inside.

• Hargrove opened the Big Ten Tournament by tying her career high with 13 points in 23 minutes off the bench in a win over Rutgers (March 5). It was her seventh double-figure scoring effort of the season. She added four rebounds and tied her career high with a pair of three-pointers.

- She produced her first career double-double with 10 points and a career-high 11 rebounds in a career-high 28 minutes in an overtime win at Iowa (Jan. 16). She hit 3-of-4 shots including 2-of-3 threes and both free throws against the Hawkeyes while adding a career-high two blocks.

- Hargrove added a double-figure scoring effort with 11 points at Indiana (Feb. 2).
- She erupted for a career-high 13 points in a win over Tarleton State (Dec. 11). She hit 5-of-6 shots, including a three-pointer, while adding three rebounds and a steal. She also led Nebraska with 12 points on 4-of-6 shooting at No. 1 UCLA (Dec. 29). She had 10 points and eight rebounds in a Big Ten-opening win over previously unbeaten Minnesota (Dec. 8).

- The 6-1 forward from Christopher, Ill., added 10 points and seven rebounds in a win over Kansas City (Nov. 26). She made back-to-back starts against Chattanooga (Dec. 15) and No. 17 Georgia Tech (Dec. 21). Hargrove also played a major role in NU's win over No. 20 Michigan State (Jan. 8) with seven points and six rebounds in 15 minutes off the bench.

- On the season, Hargrove has produced per 40 minute averages of 13.3 points and 9.9 rebounds while hitting 48 percent of her shots from the field, including 50 percent of her threes (15-30).

- Bozan, a 6-5 center from Croatia, owns five-double digit scoring efforts, after tying her career high with 12 points - all in the fourth quarter - at Indiana (Feb. 2). It matched her 12 points in an opening-day win over Omaha (Nov. 4). She also had 11 against Southeastern Louisiana (Nov. 9). She went a combined 9-for-11 from the field, including 4-for-4 from three-point range in those two games. Bozan added 10 points on 5-of-7 shooting in a win over Lindenwood (Dec. 3), before getting her first double-digit effort in Big Ten play with 10 points on 4-of-4 shooting in a win over Wisconsin (Jan. 20). She also had nine points and five rebounds in her Big Ten debut against Minnesota (Dec. 8). She had seven points at UCLA (Dec. 29), as the Husker freshmen provided three of NU's top four scorers against the top-ranked Bruins. Bozan pitched in eight points and six rebounds in just 11 minutes to help the Huskers push past Penn State (Jan. 5). She added another big effort with eight points and four boards in 12 minutes off the bench in Nebraska's Big Ten road win at Rutgers (Jan. 12).

- She closed the regular season with nine points in a win over Northwestern (March 2), before opening the Big Ten Tournament with nine points in a win over Rutgers (March 5). She combined to go 8-for-9 from the field in those two wins, including 4-for-4 in the conference tournament.

- On the season, Bozan has produced per 40 minute averages of 19.5 points and 11.1 rebounds while hitting 50.8 percent of her shots from the field, including 39.1 percent (9-23) of her threes.

BIG RED SPREADS SCORING

- Nebraska has put at least five players in double figures in seven of its 30 games this season, including six Huskers in double digits in a 91-71 victory at No. 17 Maryland (Feb. 13). The Huskers put five in double figures in back-to-back Big Ten wins at Iowa (87-84 OT, Jan. 16) and over Wisconsin (91-60, Jan. 20). In five other games, NU has put four players in double figures with the fifth-highest scorer adding nine points.

- Perhaps the most amazing part of the double-figure scoring performances for the Big Red through 30 games is that all seven games have featured a different group of scorers that have ultimately included all 12 players on the active roster at the start of the season.

- In the victory at No. 17 Maryland (Feb. 13), six Huskers scored double figures, including Alexis Markowski-20, Alberte Rimdal-15, Britt Prince-13, Logan Nissley-11, Jessica Petrie-11 and Callin Hake-10.

- In the win over Wisconsin (Jan. 20), five Huskers put up double figures, including Kendall Moriarty-17, Jessica Petrie-15, Britt Prince-14, Alexis Markowski-12 and Petra Bozan-10.

- In the win at Iowa (Jan. 16), five Huskers put up double figures, including Britt Prince-22, Alexis Markowski-19, Logan Nissley-13, Jessica Petrie-13 and Amiah Hargrove-10.

- In the opener with Omaha (Nov. 4), six Huskers produced double-digit points, including Alexis Markowski-14, Natalie Potts-14, Petra Bozan-12, Logan Nissley-12, Allison Weidner-11 and Britt Prince-10.

- In a win over South Dakota in Sioux Falls (Nov. 16), five Huskers finished in double figures, including Britt Prince-23, Natalie Potts-22, Alexis Markowski-14, Kendall Moriarty-13 and Kendall Coley-12.

- In a victory over North Alabama (Nov. 19), five Huskers scored in double figures, including Callin Hake-17, Jessica Petrie-14, Britt Prince-13, Alberte Rimdal-13 and Alexis Markowski-10.

- Nebraska put five players in double figures in its second straight home game in a win over Kansas City (Nov. 22), including Callin Hake-16, Alberte Rimdal-15, Britt Prince-13, Alexis Markowski-10 and Amiah Hargrove-10.

- The only Huskers to score in double figures in each of the seven games with at least five players in double figures were Alexis Markowski and Britt Prince.

MARKOWSKI NAMED TO NAISMITH, WOODEN WATCH LISTS

- Nebraska's Alexis Markowski was among the 50 women's college basketball players named to the Jersey Mike's Naismith Trophy Watch List, announced by the Atlanta Tipoff Club (Oct. 28) and the Wooden Award Watch List by the Los Angeles Athletic Club (Nov. 7).

- Markowski, a 6-3 center, earned her third consecutive appearance on the Naismith Trophy preseason list.

- A four-time All-Big Ten pick, Markowski earned first-team All-Big Ten honors a year ago after averaging 15.7 points and 10.5 rebounds in 2023-24. She also earned a spot on the Big Ten All-Tournament Team after powering the Big Red to the Big Ten Championship Game.

- A three-time Lisa Leslie Center-of-the-Year Award candidate, Markowski was a second-team All-Big Ten choice as a freshman and sophomore. She was also the 2022 Big Ten Freshman of the Year.

HUSKERS WIN WOMEN'S FOUR-SPORT ATTENDANCE

• Nebraska was the top draw in NCAA Division I women's team sports in 2023-24, attracting a nation-leading 418,198 total fans to women's basketball, volleyball, soccer and softball home games.

• Nebraska's four-sport total was 19,090 more than South Carolina's 399,108, while LSU finished third with 328,380 fans across the same four sports.

• Iowa finished fourth with 280,773 to rank second in the Big Ten - nearly 138,000 fans behind the Huskers, while Texas ranked fifth nationally with 270,757.

• Nebraska was the only school in the country to rank in the top 15 nationally in average home attendance in all four major women's team sports in 2023-24, including No. 1 in volleyball (264,665), No. 10 in softball (38,919), No. 15 in women's basketball (97,411) and No. 15 in soccer (17,203).

• Overall, Nebraska ranked third nationally in seven-sport attendance (football, men's basketball, baseball) with a school-record 1.49 million fans attending Husker home events in 2023-24. Only LSU and Tennessee attracted more fans than the Big Red.

HUSKERS RANKED FOR SEVEN WEEKS IN AP TOP 25

• Nebraska was ranked in the Associated Press Top 25 for seven consecutive weeks to open the 2024-25 season, before slipping out of the rankings Dec. 23, following a 72-61 road loss at then-No. 17 Georgia Tech (Dec. 21).

• The 2024-25 season marked the second time in the past three years that Nebraska has opened in the AP Top 25 (No. 23). In 2022-23, the Huskers began the season at No. 22 in the AP Poll.

• The Huskers received votes in the Dec. 30, Jan. 13 and Jan. 20 AP polls, before returning to the USA Today/WBCA Top 25 (Jan. 21). NU received votes in the Jan. 27/28 polls.

• Last season, Nebraska finished No. 25 in the final NCAA NET rankings.

HUSKERS CELEBRATE 50 YEARS OF WOMEN'S SPORTS

• Nebraska Athletics is celebrating 50 years of women's varsity athletics throughout the 2024-25 season across its sports.

• The first season that varsity letters were distributed to Husker women's athletes was 1975-76.

• The first partial season for women's basketball came with a 16-game schedule under Coach Jan Callahan in 1974-75, before the first women's basketball players earned varsity letters in 1975-76.

• Nebraska women's basketball has advanced to 16 NCAA tournaments. The NCAA Women's Basketball Tournament did not exist until 1982. It was a 32-team field.

• Nebraska women's basketball has won conference titles in the Big Ten (tournament, 2014), Big 12 (regular season, 2010) and Big Eight (regular season, 1988).

• Husker women's basketball players have claimed 14 All-America awards, including Wade Trophy winner and first-team All-American Karen Jennings (1993), Senior CLASS Award winner and first-team All-American Kelsey Griffin (2010) and first-team All-American Jordan Hooper (2014). Nebraska's other All-Americans include Lindsey Moore, Rachel Theriot, Kiera Hardy, Nicole Kubik, Anna DeForge and Amy Stephens.

• Eight Husker women's basketball players have earned Academic All-America honors from the College Sports Communicators, led by three-time first-team Academic All-American and two-time Academic All-American of the Year Karen Jennings, who was the first Husker female athlete inducted into the College Sports Communicators Academic All-America Hall of Fame in 2008.

• A total of 38 Huskers have scored 1,000 points in their women's basketball careers.

MARKOWSKI OWNS HUSKER DOUBLE-DOUBLE RECORD

• Nebraska's Alexis Markowski has made her mark as the top double-double producer in Husker history. She pushed her career total to 52 with 19 points and 10 rebounds in a Big Ten Tournament first-round win over Rutgers (March 5).

• She also had 19 points and 12 rebounds against Washington (Feb. 23), after recording her 50th double-double with 35 points and 15 rebounds in a win over Oregon (Feb. 19).

• Markowski owns 12 double-doubles this season.

• She had 20 points and 11 rebounds in a win at No. 17 Maryland (Feb. 13) and 21 points and 11 rebounds against Michigan (Feb. 6).

• She had 14 points and 14 rebounds in a Big Ten road win at Rutgers (Jan. 12), after getting 13 points and 10 rebounds in a win over Penn State (Jan. 5).

• Markowski went for 20 points and 10 rebounds at then-No. 17 Georgia Tech (Dec. 21).

• She recorded her third straight double-double with 11 points and 11 boards in a win over Lindenwood (Dec. 3). It followed 10 points and 10 rebounds in a win over Kansas City (Nov. 26) and 26 points and 12 boards at Creighton (Nov. 22).

• Markowski's 14 points and 11 rebounds in a season-opening win over Omaha (Nov. 4) gave her 41 career double-doubles, pushing her past first-team All-Americans Kelsey Griffin (2006-10) and Jordan Hooper (2011-14) atop Nebraska's all-time double-double list.

• Markowski notched 19 double-doubles in 35 games as a junior to join Griffin and Hooper at 40 career double-doubles. Griffin and Hooper both produced their school records in four full seasons of starting every game for the Big Red, while Markowski achieved 40 in just three seasons.

• A first-team All-Big Ten selection in 2024, Markowski posted her final double-double of 2023-24 with 23 points and 13 rebounds in Nebraska's Big Ten Championship Game OT loss to No. 3 Iowa in Minneapolis (March 10).

• The 2024 Big Ten All-Tournament choice also secured a double-double with 22 points and 12 rebounds in a Big Ten Tournament quarterfinal win over Michigan State (March 8).

• She produced a monster 20-point, 21-rebound effort in a 77-65 road win at Purdue (Feb. 17). It was just the fifth 20-point, 20-rebound performance in Husker history. She added 12 points and 10 boards in a win over Northwestern (Feb. 20), before contributing 10 points and 12 boards in a win over Minnesota (Feb. 24).

• Markowski scored in double figures 32 times in 35 games last season, including eight 20-point performances. She was held to nine points and 16 rebounds at No. 2 Ohio State (Feb. 14) and had nine points and 13 rebounds in a Big Ten semifinal win over Maryland (March 9). She had eight points and eight rebounds in a second-round NCAA Tournament loss at No. 12 Oregon State (March 24).

POTTS MADE MAJOR STRIDES IN START OF SECOND SEASON

• Natalie Potts was off to one of the best starts by any player in the Big Ten through the first two weeks of the season before suffering a season-ending knee injury midway through the second quarter of a win over North Alabama (Nov. 19). The 2024 Big Ten Freshman of the Year carried team-leading averages of 17.5 points and 8.0 rebounds per game, while hitting 69.4 percent of her shots from the field, including a sizzling 72.7 percent (8-11) from three-point range to lead the Big Ten while helping the No. 21/19 Huskers to a 4-0 start.

• In 40-minute production, Potts put up eye-popping numbers of 28.6 points and 13.1 rebounds per 40 to rank among the best players in the Big Ten.

• Potts underwent surgery on Dec. 4 and is expected to return to Nebraska as a junior in 2025-26 with three years of eligibility remaining.

• The 6-2 forward from O'Fallon, Mo., led all Big Ten freshmen in rebounding (5.2 rpg) and field goal percentage (.489), while ranking second among league freshmen in scoring (10.2 ppg) and free throw percentage (.829) in 2023-24. She started all 35 games for the 23-12 Huskers, who advanced to the Big Ten Championship Game and the second round of the NCAA Tournament.

• Potts, who won 8-of-15 Big Ten Freshman-of-the-Week awards during the regular season, was the most consistent freshman in the conference from start to finish. She won the inaugural weekly honor on Nov. 13, before claiming the final two freshman awards on Feb. 26 and March 4. She won at least one weekly honor during all five months of the season. Her eight weekly awards matched the total of previous Nebraska Big Ten Freshman of the Year Alexis Markowski in 2022.

BIG TEN LEADERSDOUBLE-DOUBLES ('24-25)

Player	Doubles
1. Kendall Bostic, ILL	19
2. Lauren Betts, UCLA	16
3. Destiny Adams, RUT	15
4. Serah Williams, WIS	14
5. Gracie Merkle, PSU	13
6. Alexis Markowski, NEB	12
7. Taylor Williams, NU	11

• Potts, who also claimed an honorable-mention All-Big Ten award from the conference media, was a unanimous choice on the Big Ten All-Freshman Team by the conference coaches.

• Logan Nissley joined Potts on the Big Ten All-Freshman Team. The 6-0 guard from Bismarck, N.D., came on strong late in the season to start Nebraska's final 10 games. Nissley averaged 7.0 points and 2.1 rebounds on the season, while her 59 three-pointers were the second-highest total by a freshman in school history trailing only Jordan Hooper's 67 (2010-11).

• Nebraska, which featured one of the youngest regular rotations in the Big Ten in 2023-24, was the only team with two players named to all-freshman teams by both the conference coaches and media. Freshman teammate Jessica Petrie also had a strong first season for the Big Red, joining Potts and Nissley in playing in all 35 games. The 6-2 forward from Gold Coast, Australia averaged 3.8 points and 2.0 rebounds.

• Mary Ashley Stevenson was named the Big Ten Freshman of the Year by the league media after averaging 9.7 points and 5.1 rebounds on the year. The forward from Purdue transferred to Stanford after the season.

WEIDNER LOST FOR SEASON TO INJURY

• Allison Weidner had her third consecutive season come to a premature end when she suffered a right knee injury in practice on Saturday, Jan. 11. The 5-10 redshirt junior from Humphrey, Neb., had played in 15 of NU's first 16 games and was coming off her best performance of the year with 11 points and six assists in Nebraska's 85-80 win over No. 20 Michigan State (Jan. 8).

• Weidner returned to the court as a starter in Nebraska's season-opening victory over Omaha (Nov. 4) in front of the Pinnacle Bank Arena crowd after missing 55 consecutive regular-season games over the past two seasons because of leg injuries (first left, then right).

• Weidner made her triumphant and hard-fought return with 11 points, three rebounds, two steals and one assist in 24 minutes of Nebraska's 88-48 win over the Mavericks.

• She averaged 10.2 points and 6.2 rebounds through 13 games as a starter for the Huskers as a sophomore in 2022-23, before suffering a left leg injury early in the fourth quarter of Nebraska's triple-overtime victory over Kansas (Dec. 21).

• Weidner had started 21 consecutive games before missing the first game of her career in the loss to No. 14 Michigan (Dec. 28). She underwent successful surgery on her left leg on Jan. 10, 2023.

• She was on track to return for the Huskers ahead of the 2023-24 season before suffering a right leg injury in practice on Friday, Oct. 13, 2023. She underwent successful surgery on Oct. 25.

• In 61 career games with 25 starts, Weidner has averaged 7.0 points, 4.0 rebounds and 2.2 assists.

• Weidner earned her bachelor's degree as a child, youth and family studies major at Nebraska on Saturday, Dec. 21. She had her most recent knee surgery on Jan. 28.

HUSKER ROSTER FILLED WITH STATE PLAYERS OF THE YEAR

• In addition, Allison Weidner was the Nebraska Girls Athlete of the Year across all sports in 2021, while Britt Prince added a Nebraska Girls Athlete of the Year award over all sports in 2024.

• Prince (2,491), Weidner (2,282) and Markowski (1,485) combined for 6,258 points during their Nebraska High School careers.

• While freshman Amiah Hargrove was not the overall Illinois state player of the year, she was the Illinois Class 1A Player of the Year in 2023 and was named the Southern Illinois Player of the Year three times (2022, 2023, 2024).

• Hargrove (2,774), Potts (2,108) and Nissley (1,664) combined for 6,546 points in their high school careers, while Hargrove and Potts each added more than 1,000 career rebounds.

HAKE HEADS HUSKERS AS SAAC PRESIDENT

• Callin Hake has proven herself a leader on and off the court in her three seasons at Nebraska, and the junior from Victoria, Minn., was elected President of the Nebraska Student-Athlete Advisory Committee for 2024-25.

• Hake was also Nebraska's Big Ten Sportsmanship Award winner for women's basketball in 2025.

• She has earned 27 starts in 2024-25 and is averaging career bests of 6.6 points, 3.0 rebounds, 3.2 assists and 1.3 steals, while scoring in double figures nine times.

• Hake produced her best performance with career highs of 17 points and seven assists, while knocking down back-to-back three-pointers in overtime in a 94-90 OT win over Oregon (Feb. 19).

• Hake established her career high with 17 points to go with five rebounds, two assists and two steals in a win over North Alabama (Nov. 19).

• Hake was NU's leading scorer with 16 points, six rebounds and four assists in Nebraska's win over Penn State (Jan. 5).

• She followed with 16 points on a career-high five three-pointers to go with four rebounds, four assists and two steals in a win over Kansas City (Nov. 26).

- Alexis Markowski (2024-25)	12

- She produced a 12-point effort that included three threes for the second straight game against No. 12 Ohio State (Jan. 26).
- She put up 11 points on 3-of-5 three-point shooting in a Big Ten win over Minnesota (Dec. 8), after a strong 12-point, six-rebound effort that included three assists and a career-high four steals in a win over Lindenwood (Dec. 3).
- Hake added 10 points and four assists in Nebraska's 91-71 victory at No. 17 Maryland (Feb. 13).
- She had 10 points, five rebounds and three assists in a win over Chattanooga (Dec. 15).
- The 5-8 guard averaged 6.1 points, 2.8 rebounds and 1.9 assists while competing in all 35 games with five starts to help the Huskers advance to the Big Ten Championship Game and the second round of the 2024 NCAA Tournament.
- Hake was also the Nebraska women's basketball Lifter of the Year in 2023.
- Hake was an Academic All-Big Ten selection while double-majoring in management and marketing at Nebraska. She was also a College Sports Communicators Academic All-District VII choice in 2024.
- She also earned a prestigious Nebraska Sam Foltz 27 Hero Leadership Award in 2024 and was a two-time Tom Osborne Citizenship Team member.

MARKOWSKI MAKES MARK WITH 20-20 GAME AT PURDUE

- Alexis Markowski earned her seventh spot on the Big Ten Weekly Honor Roll with a monster 20-point, 21-rebound performance in a win at Purdue (Feb. 17, 2024).
- The 21 rebounds were not only a career high, but matched the fourth-highest total by a Husker in history. They were the most rebounds in a game by a Nebraska player since Kelly Hubert pulled down 23 boards against Wisconsin on Dec. 7, 1990. It was just the 11th 20-rebound performance in Husker women's basketball history.
- Markowski's effort at Purdue was just the fifth 20-point, 20-rebound game a women's basketball player in Husker history.

NEBRASKA NOTABLES

- Over the past two seasons combined (2022-23 & 2023-24), Nebraska center Alexis Markowski had more total rebounds (691) than any other Big Ten player. Fifth-year forward Kendall Bostic (686) from Illinois was right behind Markowski. The only other Big Ten player to collect as many as 550 total rebounds over the previous two seasons was Iowa's Caitlin Clark (557). Indiana All-America center Mackenzie Holmes had 442 - nearly 250 fewer rebounds than Markowski.
- Nebraska has claimed two of the past four Big Ten Freshman of the Year awards, including Natalie Potts (2024) and Alexis Markowski (2022).
- Since Nebraska joined the Big Ten for the 2011-12 season, no other school has won more Big Ten Conference Freshman-of-the-Year awards than the Huskers - Nebraska (3), Maryland (3), Minnesota (3), Ohio State (3), Michigan (2), Iowa (1), Northwestern (1), Purdue (1).

SHELLEY CLOSED CAREER AS WNBA DRAFT PICK

- Jaz Shelley became the first Husker graduate chosen in the WNBA Draft since 2014, when the three-time All-Big Ten guard was selected by the Phoenix Mercury with the 29th overall pick in the third round.
- Shelley, a 5-9 graduate student from Moe, Australia, averaged 13.4 points, 4.3 rebounds and team highs of 5.7 assists and 1.6 steals as a senior in helping the Huskers advance to the second round of the 2024 NCAA Tournament after playing their way into the Big Ten Championship Game.
- Shelley followed 2014 Big Ten Player of the Year and first-team All-American Jordan Hooper, who was the No. 13 overall pick as the first pick of the second round by the Tulsa Shock. Hooper went on to spend four seasons in the WNBA as part of her nine-year professional career.
- Shelley became the seventh Nebraska graduate and ninth former Husker overall to be chosen in the WNBA Draft. She was one of three Australians and one of seven Big Ten Conference players selected in the 36-player 2024 draft.
- In her three-year Nebraska career, Shelley finished 16th on the school's all-time scoring list with 1,364 points. She also finished fifth in career assists (565) and fourth in career three-pointers made (244) in 100 career games with 99 starts as a Husker.
- Shelley turned her game to a higher level late in her senior season, averaging 20.5 points, 4.5 rebounds and 8.5 assists in four games at the Big Ten Tournament, including a huge 30-point, nine-assist effort in a semifinal victory over Maryland (March 9). She added a double-double with 16 points and 13 assists in an overtime loss to No. 3 Iowa in the championship game to earn a spot on the 2024 Big Ten All-Tournament Team.
- Earlier in the season, Shelley was named Nebraska's first Associated Press National Player of the Week after going for 23 points and five assists in an 82-79 win over No. 2 Iowa (Feb. 11).
- Shelley finished with 13 double-doubles in her Husker career, including a pair of triple-doubles.

NEBRASKA POSTS 20TH STRAIGHT PERFECT GSR

- In the eyes of the NCAA's Division I Graduation Success Rate (GSR), the Husker women's basketball program has been perfect for 20 consecutive years. Nebraska is the only program among the 18 Big Ten Conference schools to accomplish the perfect score for 20 straight seasons.
- The NCAA announced the release of its annual Graduation Success Rate report Nov. 20, 2024, and Nebraska was a national leader in women's basketball for the 20th straight season, dating back to the initial public tracking of the GSR since 2004-05.
- The Nebraska women's basketball program joins the Husker women's tennis and volleyball programs as Husker teams that have produced perfect 100 percent rates each of the last 20 years.
- Overall, the Nebraska Athletic Department produced a GSR of 93 percent.
- Nebraska continues to lead the Big Ten in Academic All-Americans across all sports (365) and NCAA Today Top Ten Award winners (18). More than 100 Huskers have also earned NCAA Postgraduate Scholarships in history.

HUSKERS SET ATTENDANCE MARK IN WIN OVER NO. 2 IOWA

- Nebraska set the school record with a sellout crowd of 15,042 in an 82-79 victory over No. 2 Iowa at Pinnacle Bank Arena (Feb. 11, 2024). The game also came in front of a FOX national TV audience on Super Bowl Sunday in Lincoln. The game was sold out six weeks in advance with no promotion.
- The attendance eclipsed the previous school record of 14,289 fans for Pack PBA on Play4K Day at Pinnacle Bank Arena (Feb. 18, 2023) vs. No. 7 Iowa.
- Nebraska's 2023 Pack PBA crowd surpassed its previous women's basketball attendance mark of 13,595 fans (sellout) against Missouri at the Devaney Center on Feb. 27, 2010. NU drew 10 straight crowds of more than 10,000 fans at the Devaney Center in 2009-10.
- Nebraska drew 9,750 to open its stay in Pinnacle Bank Arena with a win over UCLA on Nov. 8, 2013. The home-opening crowd at PBA is also a Nebraska non-conference record. The Big Red surpassed that crowd with 9,772 fans on Pack PBA Day against No. 12 Ohio State (Jan. 26, 2025).
- The Huskers averaged 6,088 fans over 16 games at PBA in 2023-24, which ranked No. 3 in school history behind only 7,390 fans (2009-10) and 6,161 fans per game (2013-14).
- Nebraska ranked No. 13 nationally in average home attendance (5,761) over 17 games in 2022-23. It was an increase of 1,282 fans per contest at Pinnacle Bank Arena over 2021-22, when Nebraska averaged 4,489 fans while going 16-1 at home.
- Nebraska finished No. 14 nationally in total home attendance (76,317) while ranking 18th in NCAA Division I women's basketball in average home attendance (4,489). Nebraska's 16 home regular-season wins (16-1) at Pinnacle Bank Arena also led the nation in 2021-22.
- The Huskers have ranked among the top 25 nationally in attendance for 14 consecutive seasons (not including 2020-21 when no fans were allowed at Pinnacle Bank Arena).
- In 182 games with attendance allowed (excludes 11 games during COVID pandemic 2020-21), the Huskers have averaged 5,214 fans per game (949,116 total fans/182 games).
- Nebraska produced its top attendance season in school history by ranking No. 7 nationally with a record 7,390 fans per game at the Bob Devaney Sports Center in 2009-10. The Huskers went 16-0 at the Devaney Center on their way to a perfect 29-0 record, a Big 12 title and a No. 1 seed in the NCAA Tournament.

HUSKERS APPEAR 11 TIMES ON BIG TEN TV PARTNERS

- The Nebraska women's basketball team played nine regular-season games televised by Big Ten TV partners in 2024-25, before opening the conference tournament with a win over Rutgers on Peacock. The Huskers play their 11th game on conference TV partners when they face Illinois on Thursday, March 6 at 5:30 p.m. (CT) in the tournament's second round in Indianapolis on the Big Ten Network.
- The Huskers made seven appearances on the Big Ten Network, along with a Sunday, Feb. 2 match-up at Indiana televised by FS1. The Huskers also battled Michigan (Feb. 6) on Peacock as part of the Big Ten's television package.
- Nebraska, which had 19 games streamed live by B1G+, opened Big Ten play at Pinnacle Bank Arena with an 84-65 win over previously unbeaten Minnesota on Sunday, Dec. 8, in a game televised live by BTN at 1 p.m. The Huskers were back on BTN for their first-ever Big Ten California road trip when the Big Red took on USC on New Year's Day at 2 p.m. (CT).
- Nebraska played back-to-back Big Ten games on BTN beginning with an 87-84 OT win at Iowa (Jan. 16, 6 p.m.) before returning home to run past Wisconsin, 91-60 (Jan. 20, at 7 p.m.)
- Husker fans got a full dose of the Big Red on TV in February, beginning with the FS1 showcase at Indiana on Sunday, Feb. 2 at 11 a.m. (CT). After Nebraska's home game against Michigan on Peacock (Feb. 6, 7 p.m.), the Huskers played three consecutive BTN games against Iowa (Feb. 10, 7 p.m.), at Maryland (Feb. 13, 5:30 p.m.) and at Illinois (Feb. 16, 4 p.m.).
- The Big Ten Tournament will offer more opportunities for telecasts, including the potential for CBS national coverage in the Big Ten Championship Game. Last season, Nebraska played in front of a sellout crowd of more than 18,000 at the Target Center in Minneapolis and a CBS national television audience of more than 4.77 million in the championship game on CBS - the largest viewership for a women's basketball game on CBS in more than two decades.

• Nebraska's regular-season upset of No. 2 Iowa at Pinnacle Bank Arena on Feb. 11 also pulled in 1.772 million viewers on FOX - the most-watched women's college basketball game in FOX Sports history at the time.

BIG RED DOMINANCE AT PINNACLE BANK ARENA

- Nebraska is 13-4 at Pinnacle Bank Arena in 2024-25 with 11 wins by double digits, giving the Big Red a 54-13 record (.806) over the past four seasons with seven of the losses to top-25 teams.
- In 16 regular-season games in 2023-24, Nebraska finished 13-3 at home, including a win over No. 2 Iowa (Feb. 11) to match the highest-ranked team ever defeated by the Huskers.
- Nebraska tied a school record by winning 16 home games at Pinnacle Bank Arena in 2021-22. The Huskers finished 16-1, matching the 1997-98 (16-0), 2009-10 (16-0) and 2013-14 (16-2) teams for most home wins. Coach Amy Williams was a senior guard on Nebraska's 1997-98 team coached by 2022 Women's Basketball Hall of Fame inductee Paul Sanderford.
- Nebraska's 16 home wins matched UNLV for the most regular-season home wins in NCAA Division I women's basketball in 2021-22.
- The Huskers didn't just win at home, they won big, posting the largest home combined cumulative margin of victory in school history despite losing a game to Big Ten co-champion Iowa (Jan. 9). The 2021-22 Huskers produced a total home victory margin of 429 points (25.2 ppg). The 2009-10 Huskers that earned a No. 1 seed in the NCAA Tournament and finished No. 3 in the AP final regular-season poll won their 16 games by a total of 388 points (24.3 ppg).
- Nebraska delivered double-digit margins in 15 of 16 home wins in 2021-22, including wins over top-10 Michigan (79-58) and Indiana (72-57) teams, with only 2022 NCAA Elite Eight qualifier Creighton falling by single digits (67-62).
- The Huskers were 12-5 at PBA in 2022-23.

NEBRASKA'S HISTORY OF HOME SUCCESS

- The Huskers are 532-179 (.748) all-time at home, including 13-4 in 2024-25.
- Nebraska tied the school record for home victories by going 16-1 at Pinnacle Bank Arena in 2021-22. The Big Red followed with a 12-5 record in 2022-23, before going 13-3 in 2023-24. NU has posted double-figure home victory totals 19 times in the last 22 seasons.
- The Huskers were 15-4 at Pinnacle Bank Arena in 2015-16 after going 12-3 (13-3 at home) in 2014-15. The Huskers are 143-50 (.741) all-time at PBA since the building opened in 2013-14. The Big Red went 16-2 at home in 2013-14, suffering their only Big Ten loss to Purdue, 77-75, on Jan. 19, 2014. NU's 16 home wins in 2013-14 tied the school record for single-season home victories.
- The Huskers played the first regular-season game in arena history against USA Today No. 25 UCLA (Nov. 8, 2013) and rolled to a 77-49 win over the Bruins. NU's first win over an AP Top 25 team came with a 76-56 win over No. 24 Michigan State on Feb. 8, 2014. The Huskers added their first-ever win over an AP Top 10 team at the arena with a 94-74 victory over No. 8 Penn State on Feb. 24, 2014.
- NU won its first Big Ten home game at Pinnacle Bank Arena with a 66-65 thriller over Northwestern Jan. 2, 2014, before an 88-85 win over Minnesota on Jan. 16, 2014, marked the first overtime game.
- NU suffered its first loss at the arena to Washington State (76-72) on Nov. 30, 2013.
- Nebraska notched its first postseason home victory at Pinnacle Bank Arena with its 74-65 win over Missouri State (March 15, 2023), before adding a 77-57 win over Northern Iowa in the second round (March 19, 2023). It marked the first time Nebraska had ever won two home games in the same postseason tournament (NCAA or WNIT). NU's only other postseason home game at PBA came with a 64-62 loss to Northern Iowa (March 17, 2016). The Huskers are 4-3 all-time in Lincoln in Postseason WNIT games, including 4-1 against Missouri Valley Conference opponents.
- The Huskers are 48-3 all-time in home season openers, following an 88-48 win over Omaha on Nov. 4, 2024. Nebraska has won 18 of its last 19 season openers.
- Nebraska played in the Devaney Center from 1976-77 through 2012-13, and added one appearance at Devaney against Utah on Nov. 23, 2014. The Huskers own a 389-130 record at the Devaney Center, including 146-88 (.624) mark in conference play.

HUSKERS RADIO NETWORK COVERS WORLD

- The Huskers Radio Network is in its third season of producing and marketing the live broadcasts of Nebraska women's basketball in 2024-25, but play-by-play announcer Matt Coatney and color commentator Jeff Griesch team up for their 24th season as the Husker broadcast team.
- The Huskers Radio Network will carry every game, home and away, around the world for free on Huskers.com, marking the 24th year that all of Nebraska's women's basketball games have been free and available to fans. In addition to carrying every women's basketball game free on Huskers.com, the Huskers Radio Network flagship stations B107.3 FM-KBBK (Lincoln) and ESPN 590 AM-KXSP (Omaha) provide strong signals for Husker women's basketball. When a network conflict occurs in Omaha, the Huskers also can be heard on CD105.9 FM KKCD. 880-AM-KRVN (Lexington) also provides a huge AM signal statewide in central Nebraska, while more than 20 stations carry the Huskers Radio Network's women's basketball coverage across the state and the Midwest.
- Inside Pinnacle Bank Arena, fans can access the direct radio call of the game at 87.7 FM.
- Nebraska's second-round game of the Big Ten Tournament against Illinois marks Coatney and Griesch's 799th women's basketball broadcast together - more than any other Husker radio team across all sports in Nebraska history.
- Griesch also has an active streak of 748 Husker games called dating back to Jan. 5, 2003. The last game he missed came against Penn State on Dec. 30, 2002 at the Surf & Slam in San Diego, following the birth of he and his wife Emily's first child, Hollan. A senior at the University of Nebraska, she celebrated her 22nd birthday on Dec. 10. Hollan has three younger brothers, Jackson (20), a sophomore at Nebraska, Brennan (16) and Isaac (11).

- Griesch's streak has continued despite undergoing open heart surgery (Sept. 28, 2022) to replace a mechanical aortic valve. Less than five weeks later, he was on air with Coatney for Nebraska's exhibition game with Washburn. Griesch also had open heart surgery as a junior in high school (May 1, 1990).

NEBRASKA OVERTIME FACTS

- Nebraska improved to 27-27 all-time in overtime games with its 94-90 win over Oregon (Feb. 19), including 14-12 at home, 9-11 in true road games and 4-4 on neutral courts in overtime.

- The Huskers are 7-7 in overtime games under Coach Amy Williams.

- Nebraska is 4-3 in overtime games at Pinnacle Bank Arena.

- The Huskers have played 19 all-time overtime games against Big Ten opponents and own a 7-12 record. NU is 6-9 against Big Ten opponents in OT since joining the conference in 2011-12, including 2-0 in 2024-25.

- Nebraska is 6-2 in multi-overtime games with its most recent contest coming with an 85-79 3OT win over No. 20 Kansas in Lincoln (Dec. 21, 2022). The most recent loss in a multi-overtime game came with an 87-84 2OT setback at Washington State (Nov. 16, 2018) in Pullman. NU's only other loss in a multi-overtime game came to Purdue in the 2012 Big Ten Championship Game, 74-70 in double-overtime in Indianapolis.

- The Huskers are 2-0 in OT in 2024-25, including a 94-90 OT victory over Oregon (Feb. 19) and an 87-84 OT win at Iowa (Jan. 16).

- NU's lone overtime game in 2023-24 also came against Iowa with a 94-89 OT loss to the No. 3 Hawkeyes in the Big Ten Championship Game at the Target Center in Minneapolis (March 10, 2024).

- Nebraska was 2-1 in overtime games in 2022-23, after a 74-62 OT loss at No. 4 Indiana (Jan. 1, 2023). The Huskers notched an 85-79 3OT win over No. 20 Kansas at Pinnacle Bank Arena (Dec. 21, 2022). It matched the longest game in school history and was the first triple-overtime game in women's basketball at Pinnacle Bank Arena. Nebraska also defeated Mississippi State 73-65 in OT at the Puerto Rico Clasico at Roberto Clemente Coliseum in San Juan (Nov. 26, 2022). It was NU's first overtime game since 2019-20.

- The Huskers, who did not play an overtime game in 2020-21 or 2021-22, were 1-2 in OT in 2019-20 with an 80-74 loss to Ohio State (Feb. 2) and a 78-70 OT loss at Michigan State (Dec. 31, 2019). The Huskers opened non-conference road action with a 90-85 OT win at Missouri (Nov. 10, 2019).

- The 2019-20 season marked the first time that Nebraska played three overtime games in the same season since 2011-12 - NU's first season in the Big Ten. In 2011-12, the Huskers played a total of seven OT periods in those three games.

- Nebraska has never played four overtime games in the same season.

- Nebraska's lone overtime game of 2018-19 also came in the Huskers' first road game of the season, but NU suffered an 87-84 double-overtime loss at Washington State (Nov. 16, 2019). It marked the second straight season that Nebraska played a multi-overtime game (also at Drake, Dec. 9, 2017).

- The Huskers went 1-1 in overtime in 2017-18, including a 69-64 overtime loss to No. 23 Michigan at Pinnacle Bank Arena (Jan. 13). The Huskers won their first overtime game of 2017-18 with an 89-85 double-overtime win at Drake (Dec. 9).

- Nebraska was 1-1 in overtime in 2016-17, including a 76-74 win over Michigan State at Pinnacle Bank Arena to close the regular season (Feb. 26, 2017). The Huskers lost 79-69 in OT to Minnesota at the arena (Feb. 4, 2017).

- The Huskers defeated Minnesota 88-85 in overtime on Jan. 16, 2014. It marked the first overtime game in the history of Pinnacle Bank Arena. Nebraska's first overtime game in the history of the Bob Devaney Sports Center also came against Minnesota - a 68-67 win for the Huskers on Dec. 30, 1977.

- Nebraska played its fourth OT game in 73 meetings with Missouri in a 90-85 OT win at Mizzou Arena (Nov. 10, 2019). All four OT games against the Tigers were settled in a single overtime period.

- Nebraska's next most frequent overtime opponents are Big Ten foes Purdue, Minnesota and Wisconsin and former Big 12 foe Kansas. The Huskers and Purdue have played three OT games in 20 meetings. NU's six total overtimes against Purdue are the most against any team in school history.

- The Huskers also have played three overtime games against Minnesota (33 games), including two of the six overtime games in Pinnacle Bank Arena history.

- Nebraska played its third overtime game in history against its most frequent all-time rival, Kansas. The Huskers defeated Kansas 85-79 in 3OT (Dec. 21, 2022). It marked the third overtime game in 85 all-time contests with the Jayhawks. Nebraska improved to 2-1 in OT against KU with all three games coming in Lincoln.

- In 24 all-time games with Wisconsin the Huskers have played three overtime contests.

- Nebraska has never played back-to-back overtime games at home. The Huskers have played back-to-back overtime games only once in school history, an 83-81 loss to Texas A&M in College Station on Dec. 30, 1985, before returning to Lincoln for an 80-75 win over Eastern Kentucky at the Devaney Center on Jan. 2, 1986.

Lisa Leslie Award finalist Alexis Markowski owns the Nebraska career double-double record with 52, including a career-high 35 points and season-high 15 rebounds in an overtime win over Oregon (Feb. 19). She added 20 points and 11 rebounds in a 91-71 win at No. 17 Maryland (Feb. 13). She had then-career highs of 28 points in a win over No. 20 Michigan State (Jan. 8) and at Illinois (Feb. 16), before going for 30 points in the regular-season finale at Northwestern (March 2). She became just the sixth Husker in history to reach 1,000 career rebounds with 12 boards and 26 points at Creighton (Nov. 22). The four-time All-Big Ten choice is averaging team bests with 16.9 points and 8.2 rebounds.

Game Highlights: Nebraska erupted for a school-record 20 three-pointers and the fourth-best scoring total in school history on its way to a 113-70 win over South Dakota in front of a sellout crowd at the Sanford Pentagon in Sioux Falls. The No. 21 Huskers connected on 63.1 percent (41-65) of their shots for the game - the seventh-best percentage in school history, including 58.8 percent (20-34) of their three-point tries. NU's 20 threes eclipsed the previous school record of 17 made threes in a season-opening win over Vermont on Nov. 13, 2010. Britt Prince led five Huskers in double figures with a career-high 23 points, while Natalie Potts matched her career high with 22. Both players hit a pair of threes. Alexis Markowski added 14 points including two more threes, while dishing out a career-high seven assists. As a team, the Huskers distributed 33 assists - the fourth-highest total in school history. Kendall Moriarty added a career-high 13 points with three threes, while Kendall Coley pitched in 12 points with four fourth-quarter threes.

Game Highlights: Callin Hake scored a career-high 17 points, and Jessica Petrie added a career-best 14 points to lead five Huskers in double figures, as the No. 21 Huskers rolled to an 85-48 win over North Alabama at Pinnacle Bank Arena. Hake, who hit 5-of-7 shots and all six of her free throw attempts, added five rebounds, two assists and two steals in 20 minutes off the bench. Petrie scored all 14 of her points after Husker starter Natalie Potts left the game midway through the second quarter with a season-ending knee injury. Nebraska led 22-11 at the time of the injury, and pushed the margin to 36-16 at the half. Britt Prince and Alberte Rimdale contributed 13 points apiece, while Alexis Markowski rounded out the five Huskers in double figures with 10 points, while adding a team-high six rebounds. Markowski was one of seven Huskers to grab five or more rebounds, as the Big Red controlled the glass, 48-32, against a North Alabama squad that entered with a plus-5.0 margin on the season. Kendall Moriarty pitched in eight points and a career-high five rebounds.

Game Highlights: Alexis Markowski recorded her 42nd career double-double while becoming just the sixth Husker in history to reach 1,000 rebounds, but Creighton escaped with an 80-74 win over the No. 21 Huskers. The game was played at D.J. Sokol Arena in front of less than 2,400 fans on Friday afternoon ahead of the Nebraska men's team's double-digit win over the No. 14 Jays in front of more than 18,000 fans down the street at the CHI Health Center in Omaha. Markowski led NU with 26 points, 12 rebounds and two blocks. Her 11th rebound resulted in a game-tying putback with 3:55 left and put her at 1,000 boards in her career. She added a rebound to move in front of 1993 Wade Trophy winner Karen Jennings into No. 5 on the Husker rebound list. Britt Prince had 20 points and six rebounds for the Big Red. However, CU outscored NU 14-8 in the final 3:54. Lauren Jensen led four Jays in double figures with a game-high 31 points while playing the full 40 minutes. She went 7-for-7 from the free throw line to seal the win. Molly Mogenson added four fourth-quarter threes to finish with 12 points to allow the Jays to overcome a 55-52 deficit after three quarters.

Game Highlights: No. 25 Nebraska overcame a rugged first half to outscore Lindenwood 42-18 over the final 20 minutes on its way to a 69-48 victory at Pinnacle Bank Arena. Britt Prince scored 11 of her game-high 14 points in the second half to lead four Huskers in double figures. Callin Hake added a strong all-around effort with 12 points, six rebounds, three assists and a career-high four steals. Hake, Prince and Logan Nissley combined for Nebraska's first 12 points of the third quarter to turn a 30-27 halftime deficit into a 39-36 lead at the first media timeout. The lead grew to 46-41 at the end of the period, then expanded to 58-48 at the media timeout in the fourth. The Huskers closed the final period on a 16-0 run to produce the final margin. Alexis Markowski notched her third straight double-double with 11 points and 11 rebounds, to move in front of Kelsey Griffin into the No. 4 spot on the NU career rebound list. Petra Bozan scored eight first-half points on her way to 10 on the night. Bozan's play was a bright spot in a first half in which the Huskers went just 1-for-10 from three-point range, while Lindenwood sank 6-of-13 threes.

Game Highlights: No. 25 Nebraska used a suffocating defense and balanced offense to overwhelm previously unbeaten Minnesota, 84-65, in the Big Ten opener for both schools at Pinnacle Bank Arena. The Huskers shot out to a 12-2 lead and Minnesota was never able to get closer than six points the rest of the game. Nebraska led 17-11 late in the first quarter when Amiah Hargrove drained back-to-back threes and scored eight straight points to help the Huskers close the quarter on a 10-0 run and take a 27-11 lead to the second period. In a low-scoring second quarter, Alberte Rimdal and Kendall Coley combined for all nine of Nebraska's points as the Huskers extended the lead to 36-19 at halftime. Rimdal led four Huskers in double figures with 12 points and a career-high six assists, while Hargrove finished with 10 points and a career-high eight rebounds. Callin Hake pitched in 11 points and three of Nebraska's 12 made threes in the game, while Alexis Markowski just missed a double-double with 11 points and a game-high nine rebounds. Nebraska took a 21-point lead to the third quarter and built the margin to 28 midway through the fourth before Minnesota closed to within 20 down the stretch. All 11 Huskers scored at least one point and grabbed one rebound.

Game Highlights: No. 24 Nebraska used a stingy defense to overcome its worst shooting effort of the season in a 63-50 win over Tarleton State. The Huskers hit just 29.8 percent (17-57) of their shots from the field but offset those struggles by going 22-of-25 at the free throw line. The Big Red forced 21 turnovers by the Texans and outworked Tarleton State 38-36 on the boards, including a 14-8 edge on the offensive glass. Britt Prince led Nebraska with a game-high 19 points, including a trio of three-pointers, while adding five rebounds and a pair of assists. Fellow freshman Amiah Hargrove enjoyed the most efficient performance of the night, pumping in a career-high 13 points on 5-of-6 shooting from the field. Alexis Markowski put three Huskers in double figures with 15 points and six rebounds, including a 9-for-10 effort at the free throw line. Markowski finished with 10 points in the first half to become the fourth Husker in history to reach the combined career milestones of 1,500 points and 1,000 rebounds.

Game Highlights: No. 24 Nebraska played four quarters of consistently solid defense to pull away for a 66-42 win over 2024 Southern Conference champion Chattanooga at Pinnacle Bank Arena. The Huskers improved to 9-0 at home by completing a 5-0 home stand with the win over the 2024 NCAA Tournament qualifiers. Alexis Markowski helped the Big Red extend its overall home winning streak to 12 games with game highs of 18 points and eight rebounds. Callin Hake was the only other Husker to muster double figures with 10 points, five rebounds, three assists and two steals. It was a complete team effort for Nebraska, as all 10 available players had at least one point, one rebound and one assist, while eight players added at least one steal. Britt Prince and Petra Bozan each contributed eight points, while fellow freshman Amiah Hargrove pulled down seven rebounds in her first career start. Markowski (8) and Kendall Moriarty (6) combined for all of Nebraska's points in the first quarter to take a 14-11 lead to the second period. The Huskers built the edge to 29-20 at the half, before pushing the margin to 44-30 after three quarters. Caia Elisalde and Ava Card led the Mocs with 10 points apiece.

Game Highlights: Alexis Markowski produced her fifth double-double of the season with team highs of 20 points and 10 rebounds, but No. 23 Nebraska was unable to overcome cold first-half shooting in a 72-61 loss at No. 17 Georgia Tech in McCamish Pavilion. In a low-scoring first half, the Huskers went just 1-for-12 from three-point range and 8-for-31 from the field overall to fall behind 32-19 at the break. The Yellow Jackets surged to the double-digit lead in the second quarter behind the hot shooting of freshmen Dani Carnegie and Chazadi Wright. Carnegie hit four first-half three-pointers and Wright added two more on their way to big games. Carnegie finished with 20 points and eight rebounds off the bench, while Wright closed with 15 points. Kara Dunn also gave Georgia Tech big production with 16 points and 14 rebounds. Nebraska turned the tables in the second half, hitting 5-of-11 threes after halftime, while holding the Yellow Jackets to 0-for-7 shooting from long range. Nebraska was able to cut the Georgia Tech lead to eight points on multiple occasions, but could not get closer as the Yellow Jackets improved to 13-0 with the victory.

Game Highlights: Nebraska led 26-25 with just under five minutes left in the second quarter, before No. 1 UCLA erupted on a 12-0 run on its way to a 91-54 victory over the Huskers at Pauley Pavilion in Nebraska's Big Ten road opener. The Big Red trailed 21-17 at the end of a competitive first quarter, before the Huskers took the lead 24-23 on a Britt Prince three-pointer. After a UCLA timeout, the Bruins scored on a set play to regain the lead, before Alexis Markowski answered to put Nebraska up 26-25. Lauren Betts, who finished with a game-high 21 points, and Kiki Rice, who added 18, combined for 10 points in UCLA's 12-0 run. Jessica Petrie, who wore No. 45 instead of her usual No. 12 because of a damaged jersey, stopped the run and Prince hit a buzzer-beating jumper from the right baseline to trim UCLA's lead to 37-30 at the half. The Bruins burst out of the locker room on an 8-0 run to take a 45-30 lead, and Nebraska never recovered. UCLA outscored the Huskers 31-13 in the third quarter on its way to a 54-24 edge in the second half. Amiah Hargrove led the Huskers with 12 points off the bench, while Callin Hake added nine. Petrie and Prince both pitched in seven.

Game Highlights: Logan Nissley led Nebraska with 14 points and hit four three-pointers, but it was not enough to shoot the Huskers past JuJu Watkins and No. 4 USC on New Year's Day at the Galen Center in Los Angeles. Britt Prince added 10 points, eight rebounds and four assists to put two Huskers in double figures, but Watkins answered with a game-high 26 points. Kiki Iriafeen added 14 points and six rebounds for the Trojans. Alexis Markowski battled inside with seven points and a game-high nine rebounds, while Jessica Petrie pitched in eight points and three boards. Nebraska scored first to take a brief lead, before USC used an 8-0 run to take a 16-8 edge late in the first quarter. The Huskers answered with the final four points of the period before a Nissley three-pointer put the Big Red up 19-18 with 7:32 in the second. Nebraska built a 28-23 lead late in the second, before Watkins scored five points in a 12-0 run. USC took a 39-34 lead to halftime. Nebraska trailed 49-42 late in the third before a 17-0 USC run sealed NU's fate.

Game Highlights: In a game of massive momentum swings, Nebraska used an 11-0 run in the final four minutes to surge to a 72-61 win over Penn State at Pinnacle Bank Arena. Callin Hake led Nebraska with 16 points, including six straight midway through the fourth quarter to stop a 13-0 Penn State run. Britt Prince added 13 points, four assists and four steals. Her jumper with 3:55 left gave Nebraska the lead for good at 61-59 to start NU's decisive run. Alexis Markowski notched her sixth double-double of the season with 13 points and 10 rebounds. She scored Nebraska's second basket in the run, before Allison Weidner and Kendall Coley combined for NU's final nine points of the game. Nebraska jumped to a 10-0 lead and held Penn State scoreless for the first 7:22, but the Lady Lions trailed just 13-9 at the quarter break. PSU used a 14-0 run to take its biggest lead at 18-13, before NU outscored the Lady Lions 17-7 to take a 30-25 halftime lead. Penn State center Gracie Merkle picked up her fourth foul early in the third quarter, and Nebraska surged to a 17-point lead late in the third quarter. Game Highlights: Britt Prince scored 10 of her career-high 24 points in the fourth quarter to help Nebraska surge to a 69-62 win over Rutgers at Jersey Mike's Arena. Prince added six rebounds and three assists, while Alexis Markowski notched her seventh double-double of the season with 14 points and 14 rebounds. Jessica Petrie added the best game of her career with 12 points and a career-high nine boards. The Huskers, who suffered the loss of Allison Weidner to a season-ending right knee injury a day earlier in practice, fought to a 16-14 lead at the end of the first quarter. NU extended the margin to 36-31 at halftime. Rutgers, behind 33 points from Kiyomi McMiller in her return from a two-game suspension, tied the game at 48 heading to the fourth. With Nebraska trailing 57-55, Prince scored seven points in a four-possession span and hit Markowski with an assist in a 9-0 Husker run to regain control. Rutgers cut the lead to 64-61 and had JoJo Lacey heading to the line for two shots after a foul by Prince with 1:13 left. But after the whistle, Destiny Adams shoved Petrie to the floor and was called for an intentional foul. Lacey missed both free throws. Prince made two free throws for the Huskers, and Nebraska got a fresh possession with a 66-61 lead. Prince and Logan Nissley sealed the win with late free throws.

Game Highlights: Nebraska rallied from an 11-point fourth-quarter deficit to secure its first road win at Iowa since 2018 in an 87-84 overtime win at Carver-Hawkeye Arena. Britt Prince scored 22 points to lead five Huskers in double figures. She added seven rebounds, five assists and a career-high six steals to spark the Huskers to their fourth straight win. Alexis Markowski added 19 points and seven rebounds despite being strapped with foul trouble for much of the game. Jessica Petrie and Amiah Hargrove stepped up in big ways in Markowski's absence. Petrie finished with 13 points and six rebounds, including a huge offensive rebound on a missed free throw with 15 seconds left that help lock up the victory. She also scored five big points late in the fourth quarter to help the Huskers come back from a double-digit deficit. Hargrove added her first career double-double with 10 points and a team-high 11 rebounds. Logan Nissley rounded out the five Huskers in double figures with 13 points and five assists. With Nebraska trailing 63-52 with six minutes left, Nissley buried back-to-back threes in a 40-second span to shoot the Big Red back within striking distance. She also calmly sank NU's final two free throws with 9.9 seconds left to claim the win. The late Husker heroics overcame six Hawkeyes in double figures.

Game Highlights: Kendall Moriarty and Jessica Petrie produced career-high scoring totals to lead five Huskers in double figures, as Nebraska rolled to a 91-60 win over Wisconsin at Pinnacle Bank Arena. Moriarty erupted for a career-high 17 points while matching her career best with a trio of three-pointers. She added four rebounds, three assists, a steal and the game's only block in the best all-around game of her career. Petrie added career highs of 15 points, three three-pointers and three assists, while pulling down seven rebounds for her third consecutive outstanding performance. Britt Prince dominated the first half to help the Huskers to a 42-26 halftime lead. She finished with 14 points, seven rebounds, two assists and three steals. Alexis Markowski contributed 12 points, seven rebounds and five assists, while passing All-American Jordan Hooper in third on Nebraska's career rebound list. Petra Bozan rounded out the Huskers in double figures with 10 points, while Callin Hake added nine points on 3-of-4 three-point shooting. Nebraska tied the PBA record with 16 threes in the game.

Game Highlights: Alexis Markowski led Nebraska with 18 points, but No. 12 Ohio State made the plays down the stretch to escape from Pinnacle Bank Arena with a 72-66 victory over the Huskers. The Buckeyes snapped a five-game NU winning streak while ending the Big Red's 15-game home winning streak in front of a season-high 9,772 fans on Pack PBA Day. It was third-largest crowd for a Husker women's basketball game in arena history. Nebraska jumped out to a 15-9 lead and took a 21-17 edge to the second quarter. The Buckeyes took a brief one-point lead before the Big Red took its biggest lead of the game at 26-19 midway through the second quarter. Ohio State rallied to cut the margin to 38-36 at the half, before the two teams traded baskets for the first five minutes of the third quarter. The Buckeyes surged late in the period to take a 61-55 lead to the fourth. OSU's lead grew to eight points on several occasions in the final period before NU responded with a 7-0 run to cut the Buckeye lead to 65-64 with 2:27 left. OSU's Taylor Thierry stopped the run with her career-high fifth three-pointer, and Madison Greene sealed the win with four free throws in the final 30 seconds. Thierry led the Buckeyes with 23 points.

Game Highlights: Britt Prince produced her fifth 20-point performance of the season with a game-high 23 points to push Nebraska to a 74-68 road win over Purdue at Mackey Arena. Prince, who scored Nebraska's final nine points to seal the third straight Big Ten road win for the Big Red, pumped in 11 points in the fourth quarter to carry the Huskers to victory. Alexis Markowski added 18 points, while Alberte Rimdal put three Huskers in double figures with 11 points and a game-high three steals off the bench. Nebraska finished with a season-high-tying 14 steals against the Boilermakers to win the turnover battle, 21-11. The Huskers turned Purdue's mistakes into 29 points to improve to 16-5 overall and 7-3 in the Big Ten. Nebraska's turnover margin allowed the Huskers to overcome a 2-for-13 shooting performance from three-point range, while Purdue answered NU from beyond the arc by hitting 9-of-20 threes. McKenna Layden hit a career-high four threes to finish with 12 points, while Sophie Swanson added 11 points on 3-of-4 three-point shooting. Rashunda Jones led four Boilermakers in double figures with 20 points, but Prince dominated the game at the offensive end for the Huskers down the stretch. Jessica Petrie added eight points and six rebounds for NU, including six points and five rebounds in the second half.

Game Highlights: Nebraska's freshman trio of Petra Bozan, Amiah Hargrove and Britt Prince all scored in double figures, but the Huskers had their three-game Big Ten road winning streak snapped with a 76-60 loss at Indiana. The Hoosiers used a 16-0 run across the first and second quarters to build an 18-point lead at 32-14, and the Huskers were never able to get closer than nine points the rest of the way. NU trailed 36-24 at halftime and entered the fourth quarter down 57-41, before Bozan scored the first seven points of the final period to trim IU's lead to 57-48. However, back-to-back threes by Shay Ciezki and Yarden Garzon quickly put the Hoosiers back up by 15 points. Indiana hit 13 threes on the day, including 5-for-9 shooting by Garzon who finished with a game-high 19 points. Chloe Moore-McNeil added 15 points on 4-of-5 three-point shooting, while contributing seven rebounds, seven assists and four steals. The Huskers managed just three threes on a season-low 11 attempts, among a season-low 50 field goal attempts overall. Bozan tied her career high with all 12 of her points in the fourth quarter, while Hargrove and Prince each pitched in 11 points for the Huskers.

Game Highlights: Alexis Markowski produced her eighth double-double of the season and 48th of her career with game highs of 21 points and 11 rebounds, but Michigan used an 18-0 first-half run to build a 42-21 halftime lead on its way to a 78-60 win. The Huskers trailed 15-14 late in the first quarter, before the Michigan run began with the final three points of the period. The Wolverines followed with the first 15 points of the second quarter. Nebraska was outscored 24-7 in the second because of costly turnovers. The Wolverines won the first-half turnover battle, 14-4. Nebraska rallied early in the third, cutting the lead to 47-37 less than five minutes into the period, but the Huskers could get no closer. Greta Kampschroeder led the Wolverines with 16 points on a career-high-tying five three-pointers. As a team, Michigan knocked down 9-of-21 threes, while the Huskers managed just 3-of-15. The 18-point margin from beyond the arc matched the difference on the scoreboard, as both teams hit 19 two-point field goals and 13 free throws, while each grabbing 38 rebounds. Game Highlights: Alberte Rimdal scored a season-high 20 points off the bench, but it was not enough to overcome a 32-point effort by Iowa's Lucy Olsen in an 81-66 Husker loss to the Hawkeyes on a Monday night at Pinnacle Bank Arena. Alexis Markowski added 15 points while Logan Nissley put three Huskers in double figures with 11 points. Iowa answered with 17 points from Taylor McCabe, who hit five second-half three-pointers, and 13 points from Sydney Affolter, who went 3-for-3 from long range on the night. Overall, Iowa connected on 12-of-24 threes, including four from Olsen, to pull away down the stretch. Iowa jumped out to an 11-2 lead, but the Huskers trailed just 16-13 at the end of the first quarter. NU got five straight points from Petra Bozan midway through the second quarter to tie the game at 24, but Iowa responded with a 9-0 run. The Huskers trimmed the lead back to 38-35 at halftime, but Iowa doubled up NU, 22-11 in the third quarter, including an 8-0 run to end the period that included back-to-back threes from McCabe and Affolter and a bucket by Olsen to end the scoring. The Huskers were never able to cut the margin to single digits in the fourth quarter.

Game Highlights: Nebraska erupted from a three-game offensive slumber by blitzing No. 17 Maryland in the second and third quarters on its way to a 91-71 road win at the Xfinity Center. The Huskers trailed the Terrapins by 14 points in the final minute of the first quarter before rallying to tie the score at halftime. The Big Red continued to surge in the third, outscoring the Terps 28-14 to take a 73-59 lead to the fourth. Nebraska built its largest lead at 28 points (91-63) with just over three minutes left to complete a 42-point turnaround in the game. The win gave Nebraska a true road win over its highest ranked opponent since defeating No. 9 Texas A&M in the 2013 NCAA Tournament in College Station. Alexis Markowski notched her ninth double-double with 20 points and a game-high 11 rebounds to lead six Huskers in double figures. Alberte Rimdal added 15 points off the bench, while Britt Prince pitched in 13 points and a career-high eight assists. Logan Nissley contributed 11 points, five rebounds and five assists, while Jessica Petrie added 11 points and six rebounds. Callin Hake rounded out NU's double-figure scorers with 10 points. Nebraska dominated the glass against one of the nation's top rebounding teams, 42-25.

Game Highlights: Alexis Markowski tied her career high with 28 points, including 17 in the second half, but it wasn't enough to overcome red-hot Illinois in a 77-68 loss at the State Farm Center. Markowski added eight rebounds and two blocks to keep the Huskers close, but Adalia McKenzie's 23 points, eight rebounds, seven assists and four steals fueled the Fighting Illini to their eighth consecutive victory. McKenzie matched Markowski with 17 second-half points. Kendall Bostic added her Big Ten-leading 17th double-double of the season with 19 points and 11 rebounds, while Berry Wallace pitched in 15 points on a trio of three-pointers off the bench for the Illini. Nebraska led 16-13 after one quarter and maintained a 31-30 halftime lead before McKenzie and Bostic shot Illinois to a 52-44 advantage heading to the fourth quarter. Markowski scored NU's first nine points in the opening 2:30 of the fourth quarter and pulled the Huskers within three points with three minutes left, but Illinois made the plays down the stretch to secure the victory. Britt Prince added nine points and tied a career high for the second straight game with eight assists, but she suffered a lower leg injury in the closing minutes while being fouled by McKenzie on a three-point attempt. Alberte Rimdal added seven points off the bench, while Jessica Petrie contributed five points and a team-high nine rebounds.

Game Highlights: Alexis Markowski poured in a career-high 35 points and tied a career best with six three-pointers to lead Nebraska to a 94-90 overtime win over Oregon. Markowski scored 23 points after halftime to lead the Big Red back from a 14-point third-quarter deficit. She was outstanding from start to finish, scoring Nebraska's first six points on back-to-back three-pointers after Oregon jumped out to a quick 10-0 lead in the game's first two minutes. Markowski helped the Huskers build a 28-21 second-quarter lead, before the Ducks cut the margin to 40-39 at the half. Oregon took a 67-57 lead to the fourth quarter, before Markowski scored 11 straight Husker points, including a pair of three-pointers and a traditional three-point play to tie the game at 70 with just under six minutes left. Her fifth three-pointer of the night tied the game at 81 with 30 seconds left to send the game to overtime. Markowski's final three gave the Huskers the lead for good in overtime. Callin Hake added a huge game with 17 points and seven assists to tie her career highs in both categories. Logan Nissley added season highs with 16 points, seven rebounds and five assists, while Alberte Rimdal put four Huskers in double figures with 15 points. Nebraska overcame the absence of Britt Prince because of injury.

Game Highlights: Alexis Markowski and Jessica Petrie both produced double-doubles but visiting Washington used a 15-0 third-quarter run to pull away for an 83-62 victory on Nebraska's Senior Day at Pinnacle Bank Arena. Markowski scored all 19 of her points in the first half while adding 12 rebounds for her 11th double-double of the season and 51st of her career. Petrie pitched in 10 points and a career-high 10 rebounds for her first career double-double. Washington countered with a game-high 28 points from Elle Ladine, while Dalayah Daniels put up a double-double of her own with 21 points and 10 rebounds. Daniels added game highs of five assists and five steals from her forward spot. In an entertaining first half, the two teams went back and forth with UW taking a 39-37 lead to halftime. The Huskers trailed 45-42 midway through the third quarter, before Washington took complete control with a 15-point run to close the quarter, holding Nebraska scoreless for more than six minutes. The Huskers kept rolling in the fourth quarter, hitting 10-of-15 shots from the field, including a trio of three-pointers. Nebraska honored seniors Alexis Markowski, Kendall Coley, Kendall Moriarty and Alberte Rimdal in postgame ceremonies. Rimdal (9), Moriarty (7) and Coley (6) combined for 22 points in their final home games in Lincoln.

Game Highlights: Alexis Markowski produced her 52nd career double-double with 19 points and 10 rebounds to lead a complete Nebraska effort in an 84-60 win over Rutgers in the first round of the TIAA Big Ten Tournament at Gainbridge Fieldhouse in Indianapolis. Markowski pumped in 14 points and grabbed seven rebounds in the first half to help shoot 10th-seeded Nebraska to a 39-24 lead. The Huskers extended the margin to 61-37 after three quarters and spread minutes up and down the lineup. Amiah Hargrove tied her career high with 13 points, while Alberte Rimdal contributed 12 points and a career-high-tying eight assists for the Big Red. Britt Prince rounded out four Huskers in double figures with 10 points and five assists of her own, while all four Huskers connected on a pair of three-pointers. Logan Nissley also hit two threes, while Petra Bozan, Jessica Petrie and Kendall Moriarty hit single threes as Nebraska sank 13-of-31 threes in its highest scoring game in series history with Rutgers. It marked the third straight Big Ten Tournament game with double-digit threes for NU. Destiny Adams led No. 15 seed Rutgers with a game-high 25 points and 10 rebounds, while connecting on 13-of-13 free throws. Awa Sidibe and Mya Petticord each pitched in 11 points, but the Scarlet Knights never mounted a serious threat against the Huskers after Nebraska built a double-digit lead.

KENDALL COLEY

6-2 Graduate Forward/Guard Minneapolis, Minnesota (St. Louis Park)

SENIOR (2023-24)

Coley provided versatility in her fourth season in Nebraska's lineup.

She played a huge role in Nebraska's 80-74 win at NCAA NET No. 8 Michigan State, hitting all three of her field goal attempts, including two three-pointers, to match her season high with eight points. Two of her hits were buzzer beaters at the end of the first and second quarters to give Nebraska wins in both quarters to take a 43-39 lead to the half.

Coley added two more threes in Nebraska's Big Ten road win at Wisconsin (Jan. 4). She added six points, two rebounds and a season-high three assists in another Big Ten road win at Purdue (Feb. 17).

She also scored six points on a pair of threes in a Big Ten semifinal win over Maryland (March 9). She averaged 2.3 points and 1.7 rebounds on the season.

Coley established her season high with eight points on 3-of-3 shooting against TCU (Nov. 25). She added five straight points to start NU's rally from a 15-point third-quarter deficit that turned into an 80-72 win over Georgia Tech (Dec. 2). Coley notched five points, a career-high-tying seven rebounds, three assists, a block and a steal in a win over Alcorn State (Nov. 14).

Coley opened her third season at Nebraska strong with five points, three rebounds, a career-high four assists and a block in a win over Omaha

GRADUATE (2024-25)

Kendall Coley erupted for a career-high 12 points on 4-of-4 three-point shooting while adding three assists in less than 10 minutes in Nebraska's record-setting win over South Dakota (Nov. 16). Coley hit all four of her three-pointers in the fourth quarter to help Nebraska shatter a school record with 20 threes as a team in the 113-70 victory over the Coyotes at the Sanford Pentagon in Sioux Falls.

Coley opened her fifth season at Nebraska with three points while knocking down a three-pointer in Nebraska's win over Omaha (Nov. 4).

She produced three points, four rebounds and three assists while making her first career start in her 113th game as a Husker in the win over Lindenwood (Dec. 3).

Coley followed with her first career Big Ten start in a win over Minnesota (Dec. 8), when she finished with five points and a season-high six rebounds to go with two assists.

She added five points off the bench in NU's decisive 11-0 run down the stretch in a win over Penn State (Jan. 5).

Coley ranks third in Husker history with 135 career games played, including all 30 of NU's games this season.

CAREER GAME-BY-GAME STATS

putting up 20 points and nine boards in a win over Alcorn State (Nov. 14). She had 16 points on 5-of-6 shooting in a win over Lamar (Nov. 23). She had 18 points and nine rebounds in a Big Ten road win at Michigan (Feb. 6). She added 12 points and 10 boards in a win over Northwestern (Feb. 10), which followed 10 points and 12 rebounds in a win over Minnesota (Feb. 24).

Markowski was one of 10 midseason contenders for the Lisa Leslie Award in 2023. She was a member of the Naismith Watch List.

She earned second-team All-Big Ten honors for the second straight season. Markowski was the only non-senior/graduate student among the 10 Leslie Award finalists.

Markowski finished with average of 11.9 points and a Big Ten-best 9.8 rebounds, while leading Nebraska and tying for seventh in the conference with 31 blocks. She scored in double figures 23 times in 33 games, while adding 19 double-digit rebound performances.

The only Big Ten player to average a double-double (12.4 ppg, 10.2 rpg) during the regular season, Markowski finished with 15 double-doubles on the year.

Markowski led the Big Ten with 322 rebounds, matching Kendall Bostic from Illinois with 9.8 rebounds per game to lead the league. Markowski's 322 rebounds marked the fifth-highest single-season total in Nebraska history.

She erupted for a season highs of 24 points and 18 rebounds in a win over Tarleton (Nov. 22). It followed 21 points at Drake (Nov. 19), which came on the heels of her first double-double of the season with 12 points and 11 rebounds at No. 20 Creighton (Nov. 15).

Markowski finished strong with nine double-doubles over the final 14 games, producing 12 games with double-figure points and 11 games with double-digit rebounds during the stretch. She entered the Postseason WNIT after getting 12 points and 13 rebounds against Michigan State in the Big Ten Tournament (March 2). She also put up 16 points and 14 rebounds in a win over Northwestern (Feb. 26), which included a career-best nine made free throws.

She produced 18 points and a season-high-tying 18 rebounds at No. 12 Michigan (Feb. 12) after getting 14 points and 11 boards against Illinois (Feb. 9). Those games capped a string of five straight double-doubles that began with 12 points and 11 boards at No. 10 Iowa (Jan. 28). She added 11 points and 13 rebounds in a win over Michigan State (Feb. 2), and 11 points and 10 boards in a win at Northwestern (Feb. 6).

Markowski had 19 points and 10 rebounds in a win at Purdue (Jan. 18), including 11 points and six rebounds in the fourth quarter to fuel a rally from a nine-point third-quarter deficit on the road. She added a Big Ten double-double with 11 points and 15 rebounds in a win over Penn State (Jan. 11). She finished the season with nine double-doubles against Big Ten foes.

Markowski notched her third straight double-double with 18 points and 10 rebounds in Nebraska's 3OT win over No. 20 Kansas (Dec. 21). She added three assists, two blocks and two steals against the Jayhawks. Her performance in the win over Kansas followed a double-double with 22 points, 10 rebounds and three blocks in a win over Wyoming (Dec. 18) to earn the first Big Ten Player-of-the-Week award of her career (Dec. 19). Her double-double against Wyoming came on the heels of a 16-point, 15-rebound effort in a win over Samford (Dec. 10).

Markowski nearly doubled her assist total (35-18) from 2021-22 and led NU with 31 blocks.

Markowski was the Big Ten Freshman of the Year and the only unanimous choice by the league coaches to the Big Ten All-Freshman Team. She was also a second-team All-Big Ten selection after winning eight Big Ten Freshman-of-the-Week awards.

The only Power Five freshman to average 12.0 points (12.8 ppg) and 6.0 rebounds (8.0 rpg), Markowski averaged 15.4 points, 9.1 rebounds, 1.3 steals and 0.8 blocks in 20 games as a starter. She was the USBWA National Freshman of the Week (Jan. 11) after averaging 17.0 points and 7.5 rebounds while making her first career starts against top-25 Michigan and Iowa teams. She posted six 20-point games, including 22 in a Big Ten Tournament win over Illinois (March 3). She also produced six double-doubles.

She had 16 points and 12 rebounds in a win over Northwestern (Feb. 27), after getting 10 points and a season-high 15 rebounds in a win over No. 5 Indiana (Feb. 14). She had 23 points and 15 boards at No. 21 Ohio State (Feb. 10). Markowski notched her first career 20-point game and grabbed seven rebounds in a 79-58 win over No. 8 Michigan in her first career start (Jan. 4). She added 23 points and seven rebounds at Penn State (Feb. 17), before going for 15 points and nine boards in a win over Minnesota (Feb. 20). She also had 14 points and eight rebounds against No. 22 Iowa (Jan. 9).

Markowski erupted for a season-high 27 points on 10-of-12 shooting, including 6-of-7 threes at Iowa (Jan. 16). She had 16 first-quarter points to help NU to a 30-14 lead. She had 23 points, including 20 in the second half, in a win over Purdue (Jan. 30).

She led NU with 17 points, seven rebounds and three steals at No. 6 Indiana (Jan. 13), before getting 16 points and 15 boards in a win over Rutgers (Feb. 1). She led NU with 18 points in a win over Penn State (Feb. 3).

Markowski scored in double figures in 18 of NU's last 21 games, including 10 points and nine boards against Gonzaga in the first round of the NCAA Tournament at Louisville (March 18).

She notched her first double-double with 17 points and 10 rebounds in a run past Indiana State (Dec. 11). She added a double-double with 15 points and 10 boards in a win over Drake (Dec. 19). She had 15 points in a win over Wisconsin (Jan. 27) and 14 in a win over Prairie View A&M (Nov. 11). She added 11 points in 12 minutes in a win over Creighton (Nov. 17) and 11 points at Michigan State (Dec. 30).

HIGH SCHOOL

Markowski was the Nebraska Gatorade and MaxPreps State High School Player of the Year after averaging 23.3 points, 13 rebounds and two blocks while leading Lincoln Pius X to a second straight Class A state title in 2021. She averaged 23.7 points and 19.3 rebounds in three tournament wins for the 25-0 Thunderbolts. Markowski scored a Pius X school-record 42 in a win over Fremont (Jan. 2, 2021). The state's leading rebounder, she had 16 double-doubles and pulled down 20 or more boards four times. In a state semifinal win over Omaha Central, she had 30 points and 27 rebounds in a 47-38 win. She added 27 points and 19 boards in a title game win over Fremont. As a junior, she averaged 21.5 points and 12.1 rebounds. She tied the Class A tournament record with 80 points in leading Pius X to the 2020 title. She earned Class A All-Tournament honors for the second time and was the captain of the All-Nebraska and Super-State teams. She finished with school records of 1,484 points and 867 rebounds over 76 games (19.5 ppg, 11.4 rpg). She missed her freshman season (2017-18) with a foot injury. She played for the Nebraska Lasers, coached by her father Andy.

PERSONAL

The daughter of Andy and Jaime Markowski, Alexis was born July 13, 2003, in Toledo, Ohio. Alexis has two younger sisters, Adison and Ava, and a younger brother, Jake. Alexis' father, Andy, was a 6-8 forward for the Husker men's basketball team from 1994-95 to 1998-99. He was a two-time team captain (1998, 1999) and was a member of four Nebraska postseason teams, helping the Huskers to the 1998 NCAA Tournament and the 1996 NIT championship.

A management major, Alexis earned Academic All-Big Ten honors in 2023 and 2024. She is a four-time selection to the Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll and a three-time member of the Tom Osborne Citizenship Team. She traveled to Ecuador with Nebraska's NoFilter Service Trip abroad in August of 2024.

Huskers rally from a 14-point first-quarter deficit for a 20-point win at No. 17 Maryland (Feb. 13).

She added seven points, four rebounds and four assists over 19 minutes in a start on Senior Day against Washington (Feb. 23).

Moriarty had six points while going 4-for-4 at the free throw line in a win over Southern (Nov. 12). She added an assist and a steal against the Jaguars.

She had a six-point effort with back-to-back first-quarter threes to help the Huskers in a win over Chattanooga (Dec. 15). She added five points in a road win at Purdue (Jan. 30).

Moriarty is averaging 3.7 points and 1.8 rebounds in 13 minutes per game. She made her first start of the season in a win over Kansas City (Nov. 26), her second start against Michigan (Feb. 6). She started in place of Britt Prince against Oregon (Feb. 19) and Washington.

"Kendall fits perfectly into all aspects of our program," Nebraska Coach Amy Williams said. "She is a long, tough, gritty player with great versatility. Her willingness to do all the dirty work on the court is what separates her."

Moriarty opened 2023-24 by starting Nebraska's first four games, before returning starter Maddie Krull came back to action after suffering a foot injury in preseason practice.

Moriarty returned to the starting lineup for the final 13 games. Nebraska went 12-5 with her in the starting lineup on the year, while she averaged 3.1 points, 1.3 rebounds and 1.1 assists over 35 games with 17 starts.

SENIOR (2024-25)

Kendall Moriarty has been counted on to provide solid defense and leadership in the Husker backcourt as a senior in 2024-25. The 6-1 guard from Wheaton, Ill., played in all 35 games with 17 starts a year ago, including each of the final 13 games as Nebraska fought its way to the Big Ten Championship Game and the second round of the NCAA Tournament.

Moriarty erupted for the best game of her career with a career-high 17 points on 3-of-4 three-point shooting while adding four rebounds, three assists, a block and a steal in 22 minutes off the bench in Nebraska's 91-60 win over Wisconsin (Jan. 20).

It surpassed a then-career-high 13 points on 3-of-4 three-point shooting in a win over South Dakota in Sioux Falls (Nov. 16), when he also added four rebounds, three assists and a steal in 18 minutes off the bench.

She followed with eight points on perfect 3-for-3 shooting, including a pair of threes, to go with five rebounds and two steals in a win over North Alabama (Nov. 19).

She was 3-for-3 again, finishing with seven points and three rebounds in a win over Minnesota (Dec. 8).

Moriarty sparked Nebraska with six points off the bench in the first half to help the times as many threes (19-3), snagging more than seven times the steals (22-3) and grabbing more than four times the rebounds (54-12) in 2022-23 than she did as a freshman.

She played in all 33 of Nebraska's games as a sophomore, making her first career start in Nebraska's WNIT Super 16 appearance at Kansas (March 23). Moriarty produced the second double-digit scoring performance of her career with 10 points on 4-of-6 shooting, including a pair of threes, against the eventual WNIT champion Jayhawks at Allen Fieldhouse. She added two steals while playing a career-high 28 minutes.

Moriarty ended her sophomore season by averaging 3.4 points and 1.6 rebounds, while adding 27 total assists and 22 steals on the season.

She produced the best week of her career by averaging 10.0 points, 2.5 rebounds and 1.5 assists in 24 minutes per game off the bench in wins over Wisconsin (Dec. 7) and Samford (Dec. 10). She hit 5-of-8 threes in the two games, including a career-best 3-for-3 from beyond the arc in the second half to finish with a career-high 11 points in the win over Samford. It followed a then-career-high nine points in the win over Wisconsin.

Moriarty added eight big points off the bench in Nebraska's road rally to a 71-64 win at Purdue (Jan. 18). She also scored eight big points while adding a career-high five rebounds in NU's overtime win over eventual NCAA Tournament qualifier Mississippi State in Puerto Rico (Nov. 26). She also had eight points in Nebraska's win over Tarleton (Nov. 22) helping ease the loss of starter Allison Weidner, who suffered an eye injury in the opening minute and was not able to return.

Moriarty also provided one of the most memorable moments of the 2022-23 season for the Huskers when she drained an unlikely, running half-a-hook shot from beyond half court on a baseline inbound play as the shot clock expired in the closing seconds of Nebraska's win over Penn State (Jan. 11). The shot provided

Moriarty with her only points of the night, while earning recognition as Scott Van Pelt's "Best Thing I Saw Today" on ESPN.

Moriarty's efforts helped Nebraska overcome the absences of starters Isabelle Bourne, Sam Haiby, Trinity Brady and Weidner at different points in 2022-23. In three Postseason WNIT games, Moriarty averaged 6.7 points, 1.3 rebounds and 2.3 steals, while hitting 8-of-11 field goal attempts, including 4-of-7 three-point tries.

Moriarty competed in 30 of Nebraska's 33 games as a true freshman, averaging 1.5 points and shooting 48.8 percent (20-41) from the field in 2021-22.

She matched her season high with six points on 3-of-3 shooting from the field in Nebraska's 77-44 win over Wisconsin (Jan. 27). She added two rebounds, an assist and a steal in 12 minutes against the Badgers.

Her performance against Wisconsin followed five points and a career-high four assists in a career-high 20 minutes at Iowa (Jan. 16), when

Alberte Rimdal (pronounced al-BER-tee RIM-doll) joined the Nebraska program on April 13, 2024, after spending her first three collegiate seasons at Florida. A member of the Danish National Team, the 5-9 guard bolsters a Husker backcourt that lost graduate students Jaz Shelley, Maddie Krull and Darian White after the trio helped the Huskers to the second round of the 2024 NCAA Tournament.

Rimdal erupted for a season-high 20 points against Iowa (Feb. 10). It was her first 20-point game as a Husker and second of her career.

She followed with a big 15-point effort in just 21 minutes in Nebraska's upset at No. 17 Maryland (Feb. 13). Rimdal added 15 points and five assists to help the Huskers to a win over Oregon (Feb. 19), before closing the regular season with 17 points on 5-of-6 three-point shooting in a win at Northwestern (March 2).

Rimdal added her 11th double-figure scoring effort of the season and fifth in Nebraska's last seven games with 12 points and a career-high tying eight assists in Nebraska's Big Ten Tournament win over Rutgers (March 5).

Rimdal had 11 points and a season-high three steals in a Big Ten road win at Purdue (Jan.

30). She opened Big Ten play with 12 points and a then-career-high six assists in a win over Minnesota (Dec. 8).

She had 15 points and a season-high five rebounds in a win over Kansas City (Nov. 26).

Rimdal also had 13 points, five rebounds, three assists and two steals in a win over North Alabama (Nov. 19).

Rimdal, who set her career high with eight assists in a win over Wisconsin (Jan. 20), is averaging 8.0 points, 1.5 rebounds and 2.4 assists through 30 games. She is shooting 49.1 percent from the field, including 46.5 percent (33-71) from three-point range.

She had a strong nine-point, three-assist effort in an overtime win at Iowa (Jan. 16).

She made her first Husker start in place of an injured Britt Prince in a win over Southeastern Louisiana (Nov. 9). Rimdal had 14 points, including a trio of threes, to go with three assists and two steals against the Lady Lions.

Rimdal starred off the bench with Prince's return in a win over Southern (Nov. 12), scoring 13 points on 5-of-7 shooting while adding three rebounds. Rimdal was back in the starting five in a record-setting win over South Dakota (Nov. 16), when she had seven points, five rebounds and two assists.

She enjoyed an eight-point effort on 3-for-3 shooting in Nebraska's win over No. 20 Michigan State (Jan. 8).

Rimdal opened her Husker career with five points, two rebounds, an assist and a steal in 19 minutes in an 88-48 win over Omaha (Nov. 4).

A native of Koge, Denmark (pronounced Koo), Rimdal started 50 games in her final two seasons for the Gators. In three years at Florida, Rimdal scored in double figures 27 times in 96 games, averaging 6.8 points, 1.7 rebounds and 1.6 assists in her three seasons. A consistent three-point threat, Rimdal hit 33.7 percent (114-338) of her threes and 89.3 percent (67-75) of her free throws at Florida.

"She is a great fit both on and off the basketball court," Coach Amy Williams said. "She is an experienced, high IQ, skilled athlete who makes great decisions. She can impact a game in several ways, and her versatility will be extremely valuable for our team."

29, 2022). Rimdal added 19 points and a season-best four threes against Furman (Nov. 21, 2022), while adding 12 points on four threes against Georgia (Jan. 8, 2023).

Rimdal also earned a spot on the Denmark National Team for the 2023 Mitsui Fudosan Cup, a three-game series between Denmark and Japan at Takasaki Arena (June 16-18).

FRESHMAN (2021-22, FLORIDA)

In her first season at Florida in 2021-22, Rimdal averaged 4.5 points, 1.3 rebounds and 1.0 assist in 32 games off the bench. She went a perfect 16-for-16 at the free throw line and connected on 27-of-91 three-pointers (.297) to earn a spot on the SEC All-Freshman Team.

She was named the USBWA National Freshman of the Week (Jan. 25, 2022) after back-to-back scintillating shooting efforts at Alabama (Jan. 16) and Kentucky (Jan. 20). Rimdal went 6-for-6 from the field, including 5-for-5 from three-point range on her way to 17 points in 23 minutes at Alabama. She matched her career high with five more threes on 5-of-6 shooting to finish with 15 points at Kentucky, before adding six points against LSU (Jan. 23), including a make on her only three-point attempt. For the week (Jan. 16-23), Rimdal went 11-for-12 from three-point range.

Rimdal finished with five games in double figures as a freshman.

BEFORE COLLEGE

Rimdal came to the United States with extensive international experience, competing in Denmark's national team program since she was 15 and playing in over 50 countries at the national level. She averaged 13.5 points, 2.6 rebounds and 2.1 assists at the 2019 U18 European Championships, after averaging 18.1 points, 3.8 rebounds and 4.3 assists at the FIBA U16 Women's European Championships in 2018. She also represented the Danish National Team at the 2020 European Qualifiers.

Rimdal, who was ranked as the No. 10 player in the WorldWideHoops Class of 2021 rankings, was chosen twice to participate in the Basketball Without Borders Global Camp, which is a joint venture between the NBA and FIBA. In 2019, she was named the all-star game MVP and the three-point champion. In February of 2020, she attended the event in Chicago during NBA All-Star Weekend.

PERSONAL

The daughter of Randi Mehrenst Rimdal and Brian Rimdal, Alberte has a brother, Viggo, and an older sister, Cirkeline, who also played collegiately in the United States.

Cirkeline completed her eligibility at Eckerd College in St. Petersburg, Fla. where she helped the Tritons to the NCAA Division II Sweet 16 in 2022-23. Cirkeline was a member of the Danish U20 National Team in 2020. She began her career at North Dakota State, where she played 58 total games for the Bison over the 2018-19 and 2019-20 seasons.

Alberte earned a spot on the Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll in the fall of 2024.

ALLISON WEIDNER 3

5-10 Redshirt Junior Guard Humphrey, Nebraska (Humphrey St. Francis)

She had five points, three rebounds and two steals in the win over Chattanooga (Dec. 15). She grabbed a season-high seven rebounds in the win over Tarleton State (Dec. 11).

The redshirt junior from the small Northeast Nebraska town of Humphrey (pop. 832) has had outstanding rehabs on both her left and right knees, and entered the season hungry to pick up where she left off as a true sophomore.

The 5-10 guard averaged 10.2 points, 6.2 rebounds and 2.4 assists while starting Nebraska's first 13 games in 2022-23, before suffering a left ACL tear against No. 20 Kansas (Dec. 21, 2022). She was ready for the start of practice before the 2023-24 season, but suffered a right ACL tear in practice on Oct. 13, 2023.

Nebraska's Lifter of the Year last season, Weidner is one of the best all-around athletes in state history as a seven-time all-state selection in basketball (4) and volleyball (3) and an eight-time state champion in track and field.

In 10 career Big Ten starts as a freshman (8) and sophomore (2), Weidner helped Nebraska to a 7-3 record including a pair of wins over top-20 teams (No. 10 Michigan, No. 20 Maryland) away from Pinnacle Bank Arena. In those 10 starts, Weidner averaged 10.8 points, 4.4 rebounds and 3.6 assists.

REDSHIRT (2023-24)

Weidner was on track to return to Nebraska's starting lineup as a junior in 2023-24 before suffering a right knee injury in practice on Oct. 13, 2023. She underwent surgery on Oct. 25, and was with the Huskers on the sideline while redshirting in 2023-24.

Her recovery and rehab after surgery went well on her left knee before suffering her right knee injury just three weeks before the start of the 2023-24 regular season.

Weidner showed major improvements to her all-around game while taking on a greater leadership role in her second season. She averaged 10.2 points, 6.2 rebounds and 2.4 assists while starting each of Nebraska's first 13 games of 2022-23. She scored in double figures in four consecutive games before suffering a season-ending leg injury early in the fourth quarter of NU's triple-overtime win over No. 20 Kansas (Dec. 21). She underwent successful surgery on Jan. 10, 2023.

Weidner had 13 points, seven rebounds and three assists in a win over Wyoming (Dec. 18). It followed her second double-double of the season with 15 points, 11 rebounds and a career-high five steals in a win over Samford (Dec. 10).

She notched her first career double-double with 13 points and a career-high 15 rebounds in Nebraska's upset of No. 20 Maryland in College Park (Dec. 4). Weidner, who added five assists against the Terps, scored all 13 of her points and grabbed eight of her rebounds in the second half

REDSHIRT JUNIOR (2024-25)

Allison Weidner (pronounced WIDE-ner) made her return to Nebraska's starting lineup with 11 points in a season-opening win over Omaha (Nov. 4). Weidner, who missed nearly two years with back-to-back knee injuries, added three rebounds, two steals and an assist in a team-high 24 minutes of action against the Mavs.

She matched her season highs with 11 points and six assists off the bench in Nebraska's win over No. 20 Michigan State (Jan. 8).

Weidner was averaging 3.8 points, 3.0 rebounds, 2.1 assists and 1.0 steal over 15 games before suffering a season-ending right knee injury in practice (Jan. 11). She underwent surgery on Jan. 28.

CAREER GAME-BY-GAME STATS

alone, as NU outscored Maryland 59-31 in the second half. Weidner's effort helped the Huskers secure their first-ever win over Maryland, which went on to advance to the NCAA Elite Eight.

Weidner added 13 points, five rebounds and seven assists in an 82-54 win over Wisconsin (Dec. 7) to help the Huskers improve to 2-0 in Big Ten play despite the absence of starters Isabelle Bourne, Trinity Brady and Sam Haiby - who all missed the game with injuries.

Weidner opened the season with 19 points and a then-career-high nine rebounds in a win over Omaha (Nov. 7). She made a career-high nine field goals in just 11 attempts against the Mavs. She added her second career 20-point performance with 20 points and seven boards in a win over Houston Christian (Nov. 11).

She was injured on an offensive rebound on the first possession of the game against Tarleton (Nov. 22), but still finished the play with a bucket in the opening minute before she left the court. Weidner, who played 59 seconds, did not return to the game after suffering an eye injury. She did return to the starting lineup three days later in NU's win over Texas A&M-Corpus Christi at the Puerto Rico Clasico (Nov. 25). She had 13 points and five rebounds against the Islanders.

Weidner joined Alexis Markowski as freshman starters in Nebraska's lineup down the stretch in 2021-22. Weidner averaged 7.2 points, 3.7 rebounds and 2.2 assists while playing in all 33 games for the 24-9 Huskers in 2021-22.

She moved into Nebraska's starting five for the final eight games of the season and started nine contests overall for the Huskers, who finished No. 23 in the NET rankings and advanced to the 2022 NCAA Tournament.

She produced the most memorable performance of her young career with a team-high 16 points, including two free throws with 5.5 seconds left to seal Nebraska's 76-73 victory over No. 10 Michigan in the Big Ten Tournament quarterfinals in Indianapolis (March 4). Weidner added three rebounds, two assists and two steals against the Wolverines to give Nebraska two wins over the eventual 2022 NCAA Elite Eight qualifiers.

Weidner put together her best game with a career-high 23 points and a career-best three threes in a 93-70 win over Minnesota (Feb. 20). She hit 8-of-10 shots from the field, including all three of her long-range attempts, while also going 4-for-4 from the free throw line against the Gophers. She added five rebounds.

She scored in double figures seven times on the season, including 11 points, eight rebounds and five assists in just 18 minutes off the bench in a win over Prairie View A&M (Nov. 11). She added 10 points, five boards and three assists in a victory over Drake (Dec. 19), before producing her first double-digit effort in Big Ten play with 14 points and five rebounds off the bench in a win over Purdue (Jan. 30). She scored all 14 points in the first half against the Boilermakers.

Weidner matched that performance with 14 points, four rebounds, two assists and two steals in a win over Penn State (Feb. 3). She scored 10 points in the fourth quarter to help the Huskers turn a one-point lead into a 15-point win. Weidner also had 11 points, four rebounds, two assists and a steal in Nebraska's 72-55 run past No. 5 Indiana (Feb. 14). She hit 5-of-7 shots from the field, including her lone three-point attempt, to help the Huskers to their largest victory margin ever against a top-five team. The win over Indiana marked Weidner's last game off the bench in 2021-22.

In nine starts on the season, Weidner averaged 9.3 points, 4.4 rebounds and 3.0 assists. She made her first career start in place of an injured Sam Haiby at Iowa (Jan. 16), in a game the Huskers also played without starting guard Jaz Shelley (COVID protocols). Weidner finished with eight points, three rebounds, five assists and a block against the Hawkeyes.

Weidner made a solid debut with nine points in a win over Maine (Nov. 9) and threatened a triple-double with eight points, eight rebounds and eight assists in just 18 minutes off the bench in a win over North Carolina Central (Nov. 20). Her eight rebounds and eight assists were both season highs.

HIGH SCHOOL

One of the top small-school players in Nebraska history, Weidner finished her four-year high school career with 2,282 points, 741 assists and 629 steals. Her career point total ranked No. 3 across all classes in Nebraska girls basketball history, while she became just the 13th player in state history to score 2,000 career points. The

A four-time first-team All-Metro West Conference selection for the Storm, Hake was also a four-time Chanhassen team most valuable player. She captured Metro West Player-of-the-Year honors as a senior in 2021-22 after averaging 22.2 points per game. She became Chanhassen's first career 2,000-point scorer after a 26-point, 12-rebound performance against Cooper on Jan. 31, 2022. That performance followed a then-career-high and Chanhassen-record 37 points in a win over Waconia (Jan. 30). She topped that mark with 38 points in a win over New Prague (Feb. 18).

A McDonald's All-America Midwest nominee, Hake earned honorable-mention All-Metro accolades from the Minneapolis Star-Tribune as a senior. She was also named to the Metro West Conference All-Defensive Team before capping her high school career by playing in the Minnesota Girls Basketball Coaches Association All-Star Series. She claimed the MGBCA Three-Point Championship by draining 14 three-pointers in 45 seconds.

As a junior in a COVID-shortened 2020-21 season, Hake averaged 21.5 points per game. She averaged 22.2 points per game as a sophomore and 20.4 points per contest as a freshman at Class 4A Chanhassen.

She entered her junior season with high school career totals of 1,633 points, 442 rebounds, 147 steals and 120 assists. She added 599 points as a senior to finish with 2,232 points.

Hake spent six years competing for the UAA Minnesota Fury, helping the team to a national runner-up finish. She was a first-team Minnesota AAU all-state selection in 2021.

She also earned three letters in track and field at Chanhassen. She was also involved as the DECA President and won the DECA Outstanding Student Award in 2021-22. She was also a two-year National Honor Society member and a four-year Key Club member.

PERSONAL

The daughter of Chad and Jill Hake, Callin was born Feb. 25, 2004 in Waconia, Minn. She has an older brother, Carson, who was a senior infielder for the North Dakota State baseball team in 2024.

Callin is double-majoring in management/marketing. She was a College Sports Communicators Academic All-District VII selection and claimed Academic All-Big Ten honors in 2024.

She has earned five spots on the Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll and is a two-time member of the Tom Osborne Citizenship Team. She also captured a prestigious Sam Foltz

She is the Nebraska Student-Athlete Advisory Committee President in 2024-25.

"I chose Nebraska because of the endless opportunities the University has to offer, the coaching staff and their visions and goals, and the tight bond the girls have on and off the court," Hake said. "Also, getting to play in the best conference and go out and battle every single night is something I have always wanted to do."

NATALIE POTTS

6-2 Sophomore Forward O'Fallon, Missouri (Incarnate Word Academy)

Potts opened 2024-25 with 14 points in an 88-48 run past Omaha (Nov. 4). She added six rebounds, an assist, a block and a steal.

Potts burst on the scene a year ago to claim 2024 Big Ten Freshman-of-the-Year honors from the conference coaches. A unanimous choice on the Big Ten All-Freshman Team, Potts started all 35 games alongside Markowski and averaged 10.2 points and 5.5 rebounds.

The eight-time Big Ten Freshman of the Week, showed the ability to finish at a team-best rate during the regular season and was a key to Nebraska's run to the Big Ten Championship Game and the second round of the NCAA Tournament.

"Natalie is a great fit for us both on and off the basketball court," Nebraska Coach Amy Williams said. "She has an incredible motor, and her competitive spirit matches the values we have for our team. She is versatile and a proven winner from one of the most successful high school programs in the country."

The 2024 Big Ten Freshman of the Year as voted by the conference coaches, Potts was a unanimous choice on the Big Ten All-Freshman Team and claimed honorable-mention All-Big Ten accolades from the league media.

The eight-time Big Ten Freshman of the Week ranked among the top freshman scorers (10.2 ppg) and rebounders (5.5 rpg) in the conference. She started all 35 games for the Huskers, which set the school record for most consecutive starts by a freshman in school history. Potts was one of only 10 freshmen in Husker history to start every game.

Potts produced five double-doubles in her rookie campaign, including 15 points, 11 rebounds and three blocks in a Big Ten quarterfinal win over Michigan State (March 8).

Potts, who tied the Nebraska Big Ten Tournament record with nine blocks over four games, followed with her second career 20-point

Natalie Potts was performing at an all-conference level through Nebraska's first four games, averaging team bests of 17.5 points and 8.0 rebounds per game while shooting nearly 70 percent from the field, including 72.7 percent from three-point range.

However, she suffered a knee injury midway through the second quarter of Nebraska's win over North Alabama (Nov. 19) and was lost for the season. She underwent surgery Dec. 4.

She will be able to take a medical redshirt and regain the season of eligibility.

The 6-2 sophomore from O'Fallon, Mo., was the only Husker to score in double figures in each of NU's first four games.

She tied her career high with 22 points on 8-of-10 shooting to go with seven rebounds in just 23 minutes in a record-setting win over South Dakota (Nov. 16).

It followed her sixth career double-double with 17 points and a game-high 12 rebounds in a win over Southern (Nov. 12). Potts also put up 17 points to go with seven rebounds on a career-best 4-of-5 three-point shooting in a win over Southeastern Louisiana (Nov. 9).

As a junior in 2022-23, Hargrove averaged 24.7 points, 9.7 rebounds, 1.4 assists, 2.2 steals and 1.3 blocks while hitting 62.8 percent of her shots from the field to help Christopher High School to a Class 1A runner-up finish. The four-time Illinois Class 1A all-state selection was the 2023 Associated Press Illinois Class 1A Player of the Year and a three-time Southern Illinois Girls Basketball Player of the Year. She was also a three-time conference MVP and four-time all-conference selection.

A talented all-around athlete, Hargrove erupted for a career-high 55 points against Salem and 51 points against Cobden. She led Christopher High School to a state runner-up finish after capturing sectional and super-sectional titles in 2023. She also fueled the Bearcats to a trio of conference championships and two regional crowns.

Hargrove also has competed in volleyball, softball and track and field, while earning third-team Academic All-America honors. She was a member of the High Honor Roll and National Honor Society at Christopher.

She played AAU basketball for Bradley Beal Elite and was ranked as the No. 159 recruit in the nation by Blue Star Basketball.

PERSONAL

The daughter of Anthony and Ami Hargrove, Amiah was born Nov. 1, 2005 in St. Louis, Mo. She has a younger sister, Aralynn, and an older brother, Tre Carroll, who is a redshirt junior basketball player at Florida Atlantic in 2024-25. He was a redshirt freshman on the Owls' 2023 NCAA Final Four team. Amiah's father was an NFL defensive end from 2004 to 2013. He was drafted out of Georgia Tech by the St. Louis Rams and was a member of seven NFL teams, including the Super Bowl champion New Orleans Saints.

Amiah is majoring in biological sciences and earned a spot on the Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll in the fall of 2024. She chose the Huskers over Creighton, Missouri, Illinois and Marquette.

"I chose Nebraska because it was the perfect fit for me," Hargrove said. "From the Lincoln community to the coaching staff, it instantly reminded me of home. I know that sounds cliché, but it is so true. I cannot wait to be a Husker!"

with a lower leg injury. She returned with six points, three rebounds, four assists and three steals in a win over Southern (Nov. 12).

"Britt is an extremely gifted athlete and when you partner that with an intense passion for basketball, a work ethic that is unmatched, high character, and a winning mindset, the result is something special," Nebraska Coach Amy Williams said. "It has been amazing to watch Britt utilize her unique talents to accomplish so much already in her basketball journey, and we cannot wait for that to continue into her college career here as a Husker. Britt's decision to stay home and represent her home state says a lot about Husker Nation and how special it is to play for Nebraska."

HIGH SCHOOL

Prince produced one of the best senior seasons in Nebraska high school history, averaging 27.0 points, 10.3 rebounds, 6.3 assists and 2.9 steals to capture her second straight Nebraska High School Player-of-the-Year honors from both Gatorade and MaxPreps in 2024. She led the state in both scoring and assists as a senior. Prince closed her career with a Nebraska Class B scoring record of 2,491 career points, surpassing previous record-holder Jordan Hooper, who was a first-team All-American at Nebraska in 2014, after a standout prep career at Alliance High School. Prince's 2,491 points rank No. 2 all-time across all classes in state high school history. Prince also totaled 271 career points at the state tournament, matching Hooper for second on the state tournament scoring list.

Prince averaged 24.2 points, 8.6 rebounds and 6.2 assists while hitting 59 percent of her shots from the floor, including 46 percent of her three-pointers, and 92 percent of her free throws as a junior at Elkhorn North in 2022-23 to earn her first state player of the year awards.

Prince was a four-time Super State and All-Nebraska selection while leading the Wolves to four consecutive Class B state titles. At the 2023 state tournament, Prince totaled 84 points on 29-of-40 shooting, including 10-of-14 from long range. She was also a perfect 16-for-16 at the free throw line. During the regular season, Prince recorded a triple-double with 33 points, 11 rebounds and 10 assists in a win over Hastings.

She averaged 23.4 points as a freshman and 24.1 points as a sophomore.

She capped her high school career with a Nebraska Coaches Association All-Star Game record 32 points to go with 13 rebounds and six assists at Lincoln North Star on July 24, 2024. She hit 4-of-6 threes in the game to lead the Blue squad to a 99-87 win over the Red.

A talented all-around athlete, Prince finished fifth at the state cross country championships as a freshman, before winning state titles as a member of Elkhorn North's 4x400 relay team on the track as a freshman, sophomore and senior. She ran a personal-best time of 56.55 in the 400 in 2024. Prince won state gold in the 800-meter run as a sophomore, after taking silver in the event as a freshman. As a senior at the state championships in 2024, she ran a personal-best time of 2:16.62 in the 800 to finish fifth. She added relay golds in the 4x800 relay as a sophomore and senior after taking silver as a freshman.

An Academic All-State selection in both cross country and basketball in 2023, Prince was a member of National Honor Society and the Honor Roll at Elkhorn North.

PERSONAL

The daughter of Mark and Ann Prince, Britt was born May 17, 2005, in Fremont, Neb. She has an older brother, Mack.

Prince has not declared a major but she earned a spot on the Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll with a perfect 4.0 GPA in the fall of 2024.

She chose Nebraska over Louisville, Iowa, Oregon, Michigan, Indiana, Kansas, Oklahoma, Marquette, Illinois, North Carolina, Florida, Creighton and UCLA.

"I chose Nebraska because I have grown up a Husker fan and I have dreamed about playing for Nebraska ever since I was a little kid," Prince said. "I believe the program is headed in a great direction and I have developed great relationships with both the players and coaches."

KENNADI WILLIAMS 4

5-4 Freshman Guard Lincoln, Nebraska (Lincoln Southwest)

Over 74 career high school games, Williams averaged 12.5 points and 3.1 steals.

The 2022 Lincoln Journal Star High School Female Athlete of the Year as a sophomore, Williams produced her high school accomplishments despite suffering a knee injury in June of 2022 while competing in summer basketball. She returned to the court in mid-February of 2023 and led Southwest to the state tournament before putting up 23 points in the state quarterfinals as a junior in 2023.

Also the 2022 Lincoln Journal Star Girls Basketball Player of the Year, Williams led the Silver Hawks to a state runner-up finish by averaging 11.9 points, 3.2 assists and 3.0 steals to earn second-team Super-State honors. She scored 24 points in a 2022 Class A state quarterfinal win.

The daughter of Nebraska Head Coach Amy Williams, Kennadi is focused on helping the Huskers improve on and off the court each day.

"Kennadi has been passionate about this program since we came to Lincoln, and it is her dream to represent the Huskers and help push this program to national prominence," Williams said. "She is a tough competitor, a gifted athlete, and an amazing teammate who will do whatever it takes to help her team win. I am really looking forward to sharing this experience with her."

HIGH SCHOOL

A four-year varsity letter winner in basketball, softball and soccer at Lincoln Southwest, Kennadi Williams was a Class A all-state selection and a member of the Class A All-Tournament Team while leading the Silver Hawks to a runner-up finish at the Nebraska girls basketball tournament in 2022. She was also an honorable-mention all-state choice in 2023, despite missing 80 percent of the season.

As a senior, Williams averaged team bests of 16.5 points, 3.2 assists and 3.8 steals in leading Southwest to a 22-4 record and a berth in the Class A state semifinals. As a junior, Williams played in Southwest's final five games after returning from a knee injury suffered during summer basketball in June of 2022. She averaged 10.6, 1.0 rebound and 1.6 steals over those five games to help the 14-11 Silver Hawks to a state tournament berth in 2023.

As a sophomore, Williams averaged 11.9 points, 3.2 assists and 3.0 steals to earn second-team Super-State and All-Nebraska honors. She was also the 2022 Lincoln Journal Star Girls Basketball Player of the Year. She helped the Silver Hawks to a state runner-up finish by scoring 24 points in a quarterfinal win Omaha Central. Southwest finished with a 21-6 record that included a semifinal victory over Millard South, before suffering a loss to Fremont in the state championship game.

Williams sparked an upstart Southwest team as a freshman, averaging 8.9 points, 1.9 assists and 2.6 steals in helping the Silver Hawks to a 19-3 record and a berth in the Class A state tournament first round. Williams earned honorable-mention Class A all-state accolades from both the Lincoln Journal Star and Omaha World-Herald in 2021.

She led Southwest to a Class A state semifinal appearance as a senior softball player in the fall of 2023, leading Class A with 18 runs scored while batting .450 with 18 RBIs and 17 stolen bases. She earned first-team All-Nebraska and Super-State recognition along with first-team Class A all-state honors as a senior.

She missed her junior softball season in the fall of 2022 after suffering a knee injury in summer basketball. As a sophomore, Williams batted .362 with six home runs, seven doubles and 29 RBIs as a shortstop and center fielder to help the Silver Hawks to a Class A state championship in the fall of 2021. She was an honorable-mention Class A all-state choice as a sophomore.

She was a member of Lincoln Southwest's soccer program that advanced to the Class A state soccer tournament in the spring of 2021, 2022, 2023 and 2024.

PERSONAL

The daughter of Lloyd and Amy Williams, Kennadi was born June 15, 2005. She has a younger sister, Benti. Kennadi has not declared a major, but she earned a spot on the Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll with a perfect 4.0 GPA in the fall of 2024.

REDSHIRT (2024-25)

An accomplished three-sport star at Lincoln Southwest High School, Kennadi Williams will be on both the Nebraska women's basketball and softball rosters in 2024-25. Williams, who is recovering from a knee injury suffered on the soccer pitch on March 23, 2024, was a first-team all-class, all-state performer in both basketball and softball as a senior, while also competing in soccer for the Silver Hawks. She helped those three teams to a total of 12 Class A state tournament appearances in her prep career.

Prior to her second knee injury as a high school athlete, Williams averaged team bests of 16.5 points, 3.2 assists and 3.8 steals in leading Southwest to a fourth consecutive Class A state basketball tournament appearance as a senior. She helped the Silver Hawks to the 2024 Class A semifinals by scoring 13 points in a 58-56 quarterfinal win over Lincoln Southeast before adding 15 points to end her prep career in a loss to Bellevue West (March 1) at Pinnacle Bank Arena.
