HUSKERS HEAD TO VEGAS FOR FINALS

After defeating Maryville in the Pittsburgh Regional Finals, the Nebraska bowling team will travel this week to Las Vegas for the 2025 NCAA Women's Bowling Championship at the Suncoast Bowling Center.

The teams joining the Big Red at the championship are top-seeded Jacksonville State, No. 3 seed Youngstown State, and No. 4 seed Wichita State. Competition will take place on Friday, April 11 and Saturday, April 12. The first ball will be thrown at 11 a.m. (CT) with two mega-matches Friday, the second beginning at 5 p.m. (CT). Competition will conclude on Saturday, starting at 11 a.m. (CT) with an additional mega-match before the championship final at 8 p.m. (CT).

The NCAA championship will feature a double-elimination format with Jacksonville State taking on Wichita State in match one, and Nebraska facing Youngstown State in match two. The winner of match one will take on the winner of match two, and losers of the first two matches will face off in the consolation bracket in match four.

Play continues on Saturday with the loser of match three bowling against the winner of match four in the fifth match, and the winner of match three moving on to the championship final. The winner of match five will move on to the championship final where the competition will follow a best-of-seven baker match format.

The Huskers are looking for their seventh NCAA Championship and first since 2021. The semifinals will have a distinct Nebraska flavor, with three of the four teams featuring coaches who competed for the Nebraska men's club program. The group includes Husker Head Coach Paul Klempa, Youngstown State's Head Coach Doug Kuberski and Jacksonville State's Coordinator of Athletic Operations Bryan O'Keefe.

Nebraska went 3-0 in the NCAA Pittsburgh Regional, posting wins over Kutztown (2-0) and Maryville twice (2-1, 2-1).

HEAD COACH PAUL KLEMPA

Paul Klempa | Sixth Season as Head Coach | 28th Season at Nebraska

Paul Klempa begins his sixth season leading the Husker bowling program in 2024-25, as he was tabbed to replace legendary coach Bill Straub on Sept. 3, 2019.

Klempa, who has been a part of the Husker program since it was elevated to varsity status in 1997, has been instrumental in building Nebraska bowling into a dynasty over the past quarter century. Since becoming an NCAA sport in 2004, the Huskers have won a nation-leading six national titles and finished runner-up on four more occasions.

Klempa spent 22 seasons as an assistant, serving a majority of the 2013-14 season as NU's interim head coach, before taking over prior to the 2019-20 season. In his first five seasons as head coach, Klempa has put his own stamp on the program, coaching a pair of NTCA Bowlers of the Year, nine All-Americans and guiding the Huskers to the program's sixth NCAA title in 2021.

During his tenure at Nebraska, Klempa has helped guide the Huskers to eight national championships - including back-to-back NCAA titles in 2004 and 2005, and NCAA championships in 2009, 2013, 2015 and 2021. In the 20 years that the NCAA has sponsored bowling, Nebraska is the only program to have qualified for the NCAA Championship in every season. He has tutored eight National Collegiate Bowlers of the Year, 38 bowlers who have combined for 83 NTCA All-America awards and 15 student-athletes who went on to represent various national teams.

ASSISTANT COACH JULIA BOND

Julia Bond | Eighth Season at Nebraska

Former Husker great Julia Bond is in her fourth season on the Nebraska bowling coaching staff after rejoining the program in September of 2021.

Bond, a four-time All-American as a collegian, returned to her alma mater after winning three events in 2021, highlighted by United States Bowling Congress Queens for her first career major. She has also been a member of Team USA since 2017 and earned a silver medal at the 2022 World Games in Birmingham, Ala. Before turning professional in 2018, she won the 2017 U.S. Amateur and was the runner-up the following year.

As a Husker, Bond enjoyed one of the most decorated careers in program history. She is one of only five bowlers in school history to be a four-time NTCA All-American since the program earned varsity status in 1997-98. Bond finished third in career average (210.092), won six individual event titles and posted 21 top-five finishes in 49 events. A three-time first-team NTCA All-American, she was named the Most Outstanding Bowler at the 2015 NCAA Championships in helping the Huskers to an NCAA title. She was a two-time NCAA All-Tournament selection, helping the Huskers to a national title and a pair of NCAA runner-up finishes during her four seasons as a Husker.
