The No. 19 Nebraska softball team is set to travel to Louisiana for the Baton Rouge Regional of the 2025 NCAA Softball Tournament. The Huskers will face off against the UConn Huskies on Friday, May 16, at 2 p.m. (CT).

NU is 39-13 on the season and finished with a 17-5 mark in Big Ten conference play, good for a tie with UCLA for second in the regular-season standings. Nebraska earned the No. 2 seed in the Baton Rouge Regional. LSU is the No. 1 seed, UConn is the No. 3 seed and Southeastern Louisiana is the No. 4 seed.

This weekend will be the Big Red's 27th NCAA Tournament appearance. NU has made it to the Women's College World Series seven times and owns a 65-56 record in the NCAA Tournament, including a 55-39 mark in the regional round.

The Huskers reached the semifinals of the Big Ten Tournament last weekend. Nebraska faced Penn State in the quarterfinals after earning a first-round bye and downed the Nittany Lions in five innings by a score of 9-1. The win was locked up by an Ava Kuszak walk-off single and Jordy Bahl run. The Big Red then took on the No. 9 UCLA Bruins in the semifinals, but fell, 4-2.

NU's game against UConn will be streamed on ESPN+. The TV schedule for the rest of the games will be updated on Huskers.com. All of Nebraska's games will have a free radio broadcast with Nate Rohr on the call. The radio broadcast is available at Huskers.com/listen and on the official Huskers app.

- Nebraska now has 98 home runs, 202 extra-base hits and 420 runs scored on the season, all of which are program-record marks.

- McKinley Malecha, Sr.
- Abbie Squier, Sr.

• Rhonda Revelle has won more games than any other head coach (male or female) in the history of Husker Athletics. Entering the 2025 season, Revelle has the sixth-most wins of any active Division I head coach. Revelle is in her 33rd season and is the longest-tenured head coach in Husker Athletics history.

• Associate Head Coach Lori Sippel is in her 36th year at Nebraska. Sippel is the longest-tenured female assistant coach in the history of Nebraska Athletics.

• Revelle (1981-83) and Sippel (1985-88) also played for NU. Including their playing and coaching careers, Revelle and Sippel have been a part of 1,470 of Nebraska's 1,647 all-time victories (89 percent).

• Assistant coach Diane Miller rounds out the Husker coaching staff. In her 17th season, Miller has helped Nebraska's offense set more than 40 school records.

• The Huskers played 50 regular-season games in 2025, including 16 home games, 19 neutral-site games and 15 away games. This marked the second straight year that NU had more home games than true road games on the schedule.

• Nebraska played a 22-game Big Ten schedule in 2025. This year marked the first season that Oregon, UCLA and Washington joined the conference. The Huskers played three-game series against Minnesota, Purdue, Iowa, Northwestern, Washington and Maryland. NU hosted Indiana for a two-game series and played three games against Ohio State, with two counting toward conference standings. The Big Red faced UCLA at the Mary Nutter Collegiate Classic – that game did not count toward the Big Ten standings.

• The 2025 Big Ten Tournament was held in West Lafayette, Ind., from May 7-10.

BAHL'S CAMPAIGN FOR NATIONAL PLAYER OF THE YEAR

Nebraska softball junior Jordy Bahl has a solid argument to be the National Player of the Year, as her pitching and hitting stats stand out amongst all Division I players. She was named a Top 25 Finalist for the USA Softball Player-of-the-Year Award on April 30. Bahl was recognized as both the Big Ten Player of the Year and the Big Ten Pitcher of the Year and is the first player in Big Ten history to earn both awards in the same season.

- Bahl ranks in the top 15 nationally in numerous categories – hits allowed per seven innings (4th), opponent batting average (4th), strikeouts (5th), strikeouts per seven innings (5th), shutouts (6th), runs per game (8th), complete games (9th), slugging percentage (9th), total bases (9th), victories (9th), batting average (10th), ERA (10th), and WHIP (13th).
- The Papillion, Neb., native boasts a batting average of .458 on the season, which ranks 10th nationally. She has also contributed 61 runs, 71 hits, 59 RBIs, 16 doubles and 19 home runs so far this year. Bahl is the first Husker in school history to record 15 doubles and 15 home runs in the same season.
- Bahl owns the single-season extra-base hit record for NU, as she has 37 so far this season. She is also on pace for numerous school records. If the season ended today, she would rank first in batting average and slugging percentage, second in runs scored, third in total bases, fourth in doubles and home runs, fifth in RBIs and ninth in winning percentage.
- The junior is trying to become the first player since 2017 to score more runs than she allows (min. 130 IP). Bahl currently has 61 runs scored and 61 runs allowed.
- Her next home run would make her the fourth player in NCAA history to record 20+ home runs at the plate and 20+ wins in the circle in the same season.

Hitter	Category	Pitcher
.458	Batting Average	.156
71	Hits	97
61	Runs	61
16	Doubles	17
19	Home Runs	15
37	Extra-Base Hits	33

HUSKER HOME RUN QUICK HITTEES

The Nebraska softball team has enjoyed a solid season at the plate, most notably with its home run numbers.

- Nebraska is fifth in the nation with 98 home runs. NU broke the school record for single-season home runs against Creighton on April 9. If the Big Red gets to 100 home runs, it would be the fourth team in Big Ten history to do so.
- A total of 14 Huskers have hit a home run this season, including 13 players with multiple home runs.
- The Huskers have homered five times in a game on six occasions this season, including three consecutive games to open the Troy Cox Classic.
- Nebraska has produced 15 innings this season with multiple home runs, including five innings with three or more home runs.
- Nebraska has hit back-to-back home runs seven times this season, including three times with three consecutive home runs that includes a school-record four straight home runs against San Jose State on Feb. 22.
- Ava Kuszak (twice), Jordy Bahl (twice), Samantha Bland, Abbie Squier, Emmerson Cope (twice) and Hannah Camenzind have all had a multi-homer game this season, including three-home run games from Kuszak against Montana on Feb. 16 and Bland at Iowa on April 5, both of which tied the Nebraska and Big Ten records for home runs in a game.
- Kuszak and Bahl have hit more home runs themselves (19) than 84 NCAA Division I teams. Together, Kuszak (19) and Bahl (19) have combined for 38 home runs. Their two-player combined total of 35 home runs would rank 101st among all NCAA Division I teams this spring and would be more than five Big Ten schools have hit as a team.
- Eleven Huskers – Bahl, Kuszak, Squier, Cope, Bland, Bella Bacon, Alina Felix, Hannah Camenzind, Malia Thoms and Lauren Camenzind – have matched or exceeded their career season highs in home runs.
